A Hotwife Story

Chapter 1

"Are we really doing this, Paul?" my girlfriend Kandi asked, eyes wide. "Tasha is hot. I'd love to see her naked. But I don't know about Nick. He's your friend. Are you sure you're comfortable with him seeing me naked?"

I focused my attention out the windshield. An old, weather-beaten redwood trunk lay across the road. I stopped my Jeep and dropped the lever to engage four-wheel drive. I doubted I'd need it for this obstacle but who wants to get stuck in the forest in the dark? We were headed for Nick's cabin, his parents' cabin, actually, after leaving our apartment in the city. We'd been drinking a little and smoking a little and Tasha had made a comment about how fun it would be to fuck Nick in front of us. Her words hung in the air for a long minute, nobody so much as breathing.

"Sounds sexy," Kandi said, finally.

My girl backs down from no one.

After that, the night assumed a life of its own. Caught up in the initial rush of the idea, we grabbed clothes for tomorrow and beer for tonight, found our keys and headed out. I was fine to drive and so was Nick but our girls were a little juiced. Now, ten minutes on the road, Kandi was having second-thoughts. I glanced at her in the glow from the dashboard lights.

"I don't know what will happen," I said. "We may get to the cabin and crash. We may drink and smoke a little more and then crash. Who knows? At this point I'm just getting us there."

I hoped something would happen but I kept that to myself. Kandi was right: Tasha is hot. After years of seeing her in bathing suits and yoga pants, I was ready to see her naked. I'd love watching Nick fuck her. Nick has been my best friend almost my whole life. Also, and this I'd keep to myself, I'd love Tasha seeing me naked. I'm in shape, with a slightly bigger than average dick, and my exhibitionistic streak would get a charge from her eyes on me. With any luck, something would happen between Tasha and Kandi. I highly doubted that, as Kandi is intensely loyal to me, but a boy can dream. In my book, sex between girls isn't cheating.

The front tires gripped the fallen stump and pulled us up and over. We rounded a corner and I saw Nick's taillights not too far ahead. The cabin is an hour away if one takes the highway but just twenty minutes if your vehicle can take the back roads. Nick and I have been visiting this place since high school. It was the perfect Honeycomb Hideout when we wanted to underage drink and smoke, and it remains the perfect hideout to this day.

Nick's taillights hung a sharp right and I followed, taking the turnoff which meant we were close. Minutes later we took a left onto the long private drive and pulled up to the cabin. We'd packed for only a night so one trip from the car to the cabin and we'd moved everything inside. Nick got the fireplace going while I iced the beers. After that we all gathered on the floor before the hearth. Awkward silence smothered us. I lit a joint, took a puff, and passed it to Kandi. Nick opened beers for everyone to counter-act the dry mouth. Tasha said something about her first year working as a kindergarten teacher but as she spoke she reached for a beer and instead of listening to her I watched her sweater pull tight across her tits. I didn't hear much. I darted a look at Kandi to make sure I wasn't caught and found my girl staring at Tasha's tits just like me. Tasha had done some modeling after high school to help pay for college and go-go danced for over a year. She'd grown her hair out long since then. Her body was better than ever.

For ten minutes, we all mumbled about mundane shit, avoiding the subject which had brought us here in the first place. How do we get back to that earlier moment? We clumsily talked and joked until uncomfortable silence descended on us again. It was an inebriated Kandi that broke the spell.

"So," she said to Tasha. "I believe we are here to watch you fuck Nick?"

I laughed. Kandi can be so direct. Nick and Tasha looked at each other, each waiting for the other to make a move. Tasha caved first, leaning across our little circle to grab Nick behind his neck and pull his lips forward. They kissed. What Tasha did not know was her position put the fire behind her, shining through the knitted holes of her sweater, outlining her big tits for Kandi and me. We saw them swing freely within and smirked at each other.

Nick and Tasha kissed passionately for several minutes until he brought his hand up to palm her breast. She let him do that a moment and then leaned away, whipping her sweater off. Kandi and I gawked. Her tits were huge but beautifully shaped. Nick grabbed both and squeezed, leaning forward to kiss her again.

Oh boy, Kandi mouthed to me.

We were afraid to speak, afraid the sound of our voices would snap Nick and Tasha back to reality and end this. Tasha worked on Nick's pants, unbuckling his belt and drawing down his zipper. She lowered her face to his crotch and a loud slurp filled the small room. Kandi turned her big eyes at me, amazed. I scooted my butt closer to my girl, slipping my arm around her shoulders and placing the joint to her lips.

Nick and Tasha attacked each other. The room was chilly so they left some clothing on, but we caught flashes of skin. In a way, it was sexier than blatant fucking. We watched Tasha's head rise and fall over his lap before he spun her around and pulled her sweat pants out of the way. He ate her pussy from behind. We watched her tits hang there, glorious globes of delicious femininity. Kandi took my hand and placed it over her own breast, then kissed me with feeling.

There was no room for all of us down there on the rug so I tugged Kandi's hand and guided her onto the couch. Nick and Tasha spread out, taking the space we'd vacated. They moved into a sixty-nine and Kandi rested her hand on my zipper. A question lingered in her hazy eyes. I know she felt my erection under my pants.

"Yeah," I whispered. "Do it."

She pulled my zipper down but kept her eyes on our friends. I felt my dick pass the teeth of my zipper and then her warm, wet, welcoming mouth engulfed me. I dropped a hand to her lap and slipped under her sweat pants. I slid under her panties and buried a finger in her steaming hole.

My eyes turned to our friends.

We watched Nick and Tasha play as we pleased each other, careful to remain silent. We had no desire to distract them from what they were doing. The weed and alcohol had dulled my orgasm, probably making one impossible, but Kandi's mouth still felt fantastic. They went at each other and we were their willing audience. Both would glance at us and smile, enjoying being on display.

Before too long Nick ended up on his back. Tasha straddled him, reaching under to guide him in. She closed her eyes as she sank, allowing her head to fall back and all that long hair to cascade. The tips reached his knees. This also caused her big tits to thrust out, rock hard nipples drawing circles in the air. Kandi paused in her oral worship. Her mouth withdrew, cold air caressing my penis.

"Jesus," Kandi murmured. "Look at her. Look at her."

I got the point. Tasha was astride Nick and riding, her sweat pants looped around one ankle. The firelight gave her tight skin a gorgeous glow. She'd thrown her head back, emphasizing her pendulous tits, and now mauled both with her hands. Her mouth was open, her eyes squeezed shut, and an expression of absolute carnal sensuality moved across her face. She looked stunning. Nick was buried balls deep, way up inside her, and by looking at her exquisite face it seemed I could almost feel him in me. Her expression of tortured pleasure bordered on pain. She was utterly lost to it, impaled and delirious. I have no idea what it's like to have a hard cock inside you but Tasha made it look divine. My girl Kandi knew. She was probably connecting to Tasha right now with perfect empathy. I looked down at the back of her head. She watched Tasha intensely. What was my girl feeling?

Kandi slid off my lap and off the couch, approaching Tasha on hands and knees. My girlfriend lowered her mouth to an engorged and straining nipple and gently sucked. Tasha's eyes snapped open. Understanding dawned instantly. She cupped the back of Kandi's head and held her to her breast, feeding my girl. I took over pleasuring my penis, stroking slowly.

The girls began to make out. Kandi's hands found Tasha's tits. Tasha helped Kandi lose her sweater. Kandi removed Tasha's dangling sweat pants. In minutes, both girls were nude, the flames giving their bodies a lovely glow. Tasha was the aggressor, lifting off Nick's dick to pursue my girlfriend. They kissed fervently, hands roaming every inch of skin.

Beyond, I saw Nick's arm rising and falling. He was jacking off like me, keenly watching our women caress each other. Soon Tasha wanted more. She bent my girl backward, crawling over her as she rolled to the carpet. She kissed Kandi a few times and then smiled wickedly, spinning in place to move into a sixty-nine.

"Fuck yes," I heard Nick mutter.

I was equally shocked. I thanked the Gods of beer and weed. Kandi was overwhelmed at first but then, with Tasha's bald pussy a mere inch away, grabbed her friend's ass and pulled. I saw Kandi's tongue split Tasha's labia and wriggle inside.

This was Heaven. I jerked off on one side and Nick on the other. The girls loved the audience. They changed position often, hands and fingers and tongues and lips sent everywhere, exploring everything. Their soft moans and gasps drove me crazy. My pulsing dick ached. Kandi orgasmed and Tasha got wildly turned on, grinding her pussy into my girl's mouth before cumming too. Their climaxes did nothing to slow them down and they continued feasting on each other.

Eventually, Nick had seen enough. The girls were in a sixty-nine again with Tasha's pussy aimed right at him. He left his spot and approached, moving between his girl's calves, his pants tangled around his ankles. Kandi pulled back to give him room. I knew the moment he sank in by Tasha's heartfelt groan. No way would I let him have all the fun so I moved behind Kandi and sank my dick too. The girls went back to eating each other but this time with a hard cock in them. My head was spinning. My mind soared. When Tasha's tongue grazed my dick, I almost lost it. This was too much to hope for. I tried tilting my hips and moving my ass all around while I fucked Kandi, hoping for more contact. I got it. She wasn't trying to avoid my dick at all. I was deep in a moment of pleasure when the thunderbolt hit me: if Tasha occasionally licked my dick, Kandi occasionally licked Nick's.

A flash of searing jealousy burned me but I didn't stop. It may have been the weed and beer but no way was I halting this moment. Tasha was licking my penis. Kandi was most likely licking Nick's. My dick had never been harder. Nick pulled Tasha away from Kandi. He kept her on all fours and got behind her. I did the same with my girlfriend and as the two girls started making out again, we pushed our dicks in.

Heaven.

I was high but I knew I'd need to pull out when the time came, as Kandi was not on birth control, but I didn't worry about that now. This was awesome. We held our girls and slammed our cocks deep, ripping sweet cries of pleasure from our women. I pounded Kandi until sweat dripped from my chin. I closed my eyes and lifted my face to the wood beam ceiling and hammered Kandi's tight pussy hole. I'd never felt anything like it. I'd fucked her many times and even high but we were having sex in the same room with another couple and that made everything infinitely more exciting.

"I have an idea," Nick said, sounding to my ears like he was a million miles away.

I heard shuffling around me but paid no attention. Not until Kandi's slippery pussy pulled off my dick did I open my eyes and look around.

Nick was trading Tasha for Kandi.

He'd pulled out of Tasha and sent her over to me then taken Kandi's hands and hauled my girl over. He positioned her on all fours facing me. She went along, high as fuck, trying to kiss Tasha again. She seemed unaware what was about to happen.

A protest rose in my throat. Tasha reached back and grabbed my dick, guiding me in, and that protest died. The feel of her tight pussy engulfing my dick would normally have wiped every thought from my head but not this time. Kandi was backing towards Nick and hot tight Tasha pussy or not, that raised some concerns. My gaze dropped to his dick, fully visible now for the first time. No more hanging hair or bulky sweat shirt or baggy pants. There it was, jutting in a sharp curve up from his hips.

I've known Nick for decades but never seen him naked. I played sports but Nick was more the leather jacket and motorcycle type. We've never been to a gym together, we've never changed clothes in front of each other.

His erect cock looked thick and angry. Squiggly veins ran along the shaft. The head was a swollen purple plum, his balls a furry grapefruit.

All these details smashed my brain in an instant. I was frozen, trapped between Tasha on my dick and Kandi about to be stabbed. I couldn't move, couldn't speak, couldn't get my brain to engage. I watched helpless as Nick reached for my girl's waist and pulled her closer, grinning, gazing down at his fat cock as he lined her up and took aim at her pussy. He plucked his beer from the coffee table, took a huge gulp, and slammed the bottle down.

"Hell yeah!" he bellowed.

Kandi held Tasha's chin, kissing the girl and giggling, still oblivious to what approached her from behind. Nick's cock looked ravenous, straining to penetrate my girl. Nick used both hands to grab Kandi's long hair. He pulled, drawing her body backward. His dick vanished from sight, blocked from my view by her hip.

Shock snapped her eyes open. An expression of agony twisted her face but I knew it was not pain she felt. Her eyelids drooped and her mouth sagged and Nick thrust, burying the full length of his big cock in my girl.

"What the fuck!" Kandi growled.

Nick withdrew some and slid in again.

"Unnngh!" Kandi cried. "Jesus fuck!"

Tasha laughed.

"Ain't it good?" she teased.

My stupefaction had long ago brought my hips to a stop. Tasha had been pumping her hips to keep her pussy riding my dick. Good thing, because what I was seeing left me astonished. I couldn't move. Nick tightened his grip and began sawing in and out. I couldn't see his penis but I saw his big balls swinging. Kandi moaned and lowered her head to the floor, overcome. She reached her hands back, one for each butt cheek, spreading herself before his onslaught. Her cries of pleasure sliced right through my heart. Her expressions of mindboggling delight left me frightened. What the fuck was he doing to her? I'd never seen her respond like this.

Tasha reached back to slap my thigh.

"Fuck me," she urged. "Come on. You and Nick need to fuck us."

My gaze drifted down to Tasha on all fours, my dick a bridge to her pussy. I had several inches in her. The heat from her cunt finally penetrated my brain. I held her waist and began to fuck. Nick grunted and Kandi moaned.

I snapped out of my delirium and got to work. Seconds later I was anger-fucking Tasha, using my fear and rage at Nick to pound his girl. Tasha loved it, encouraging me to fuck her hard. A tiny voice finally made itself heard in my head. I loosened my jaw.

"Pull out," I grunted to Nick.

Our eyes met. He grinned and nodded, instantly understanding my warning.

"You too," he hissed.

I nodded back at him. After that we both put our heads down and pumped. These girls needed to remember this night forever. After seeing Nick's effect on Kandi, I needed to make a good accounting of myself.

Kandi's piercing cry of orgasm knocked the air from my lungs. So fast! I watched my girl writhe on the end of his meat like a skewered earthworm. He hammered her pussy through it all, driving her higher and extending her powerful climax. She looked on the verge of tears. Her face was contorted, sensations flowing over her like waves of lava. Her loud groans shamed and intimidated me.

Tasha reached under to rub her clit. I pumped faster, desperate for her to orgasm too. She did minutes later, a satisfied groan easing from her throat. I was ready too and stayed inside until the last possible second, whipping out and taking over with my hand, shooting globs of jizz all over her butt and back.

Kandi had lifted her torso from the floor, her arched back now against Nick's chest, her arms lifted high to circle his neck. Her tits bounced wildly. His hands rested on her hips as he thrust upward, repeatedly burying his fat cock in her. My girlfriend moaned with abandon at his dick pumping inside.

Now that I'd cum, my feelings about what I witnessed changed. I felt a strange out-of-body sensation settle over me, like Kandi was a stranger. Dread and denial rose. My stomach started to turn queasy.

"Yeah!" Nick moaned, thrusting hard.

Kandi bounced around, speared. I ducked my head to look between her legs and saw her labia stretched around his slick pole. Her pussy looked familiar but that wasn't my penis pumping. She was so wet she dripped from his jumping balls.

"Unngh!" Nick exclaimed, sucking in air. "Fuck!"

He pumped faster.

"Don't," I whimpered.

He drove the entire length over and over, slamming my girl. Finally, he drove one last time and held himself all the way in. He buried his face in Kandi's hair and moaned, long and loud. My gaze dropped to his big balls, rising and falling with each spurt of hot cum. He was injecting her womb right before my eyes. He filled her uterus with a flood of boiling sperm. There would be no removing it. He'd live in her for days. Kandi fell forward, her chest resting on the rug. They were still connected, his thick cock a plug in her hole. They both breathed hard. Nick ran his fingers through his long hair.

"God damn," he exhaled.

Kandi lay motionless with eyes closed.

Tasha had pulled away from me after my climax and now crept towards Kandi. She kissed my girl gently. Kandi opened bleary eyes, trying to focus. She found Tasha and smiled weakly.

"That was so hot," Tasha said.

Kandi aimed her attention over her shoulder and Nick got the hint, withdrawing his log slowly. His wide and puffy inches, hanging down in an arcing curve, were coated with shiny liquids. Sperm drooled from the tip of his cock forming a connecting strand to Kandi's inner pussy. My girlfriend's expression was a mix of worry and deep satisfaction. Nick looked at me.

"Sorry, Dude," he muttered. "Got carried away."

Kandi closed her eyes again, resting her head on the floor.

Chapter 2

The next sixty minutes were the most awkward of my life. Nick reached for his pants and Tasha pulled on her sweater. Kandi heard them moving around and located her panties, pulling them up followed by sweat pants. I just about died watching her panties travel up her legs to rest snugly over her mound. She was sealing her labia, closing her opening with all that Nick semen still in her.

In minutes, we were all dressed again. Nobody made eye contact. Nobody spoke. Even high we knew we'd messed up. Nick avoided me and Kandi did too. Tasha opened a beer and gave Kandi a sip. We all settled into chairs or on the couch. Nick tossed two logs on the fire as the cabin creaked and shuddered as mountain gusts shook the place.

"The wind outside is howling," Tasha said.

More small talk followed. Despite what we'd just done, everybody skipped over it. Small talk became polite conversation. Through some unspoken agreement we all just got on with life. Part of me was dumbfounded, part of me was relieved. Each of us rationalized what we'd done in our own way: I blamed it on us getting too high. By Tasha's occasional comments I knew she'd only expected to play with Kandi. Nick admitted nothing. Kandi avoided any mention as well as my eyes.

We all smoked again and drank more beer. The mood in the room shifted with time. We relaxed. Tasha had taken a place under Nick's arm and Kandi lay across my lap. Conversation became discussion as we put the wild and spontaneous event in our rearview mirror. Now was not the time to talk about what had happened.

We all smoked again.

All talk died.

The mood in the room shifted again.

I felt it but couldn't define it. The silence lasted and I felt the air grow tense. Tasha left Nick's side to sit on the couch next to Kandi. She took my girlfriend's hands in her own. She rested her forehead against Kandi's. They spoke softly, too low for me to hear, but Tasha seemed to reassure my girl all was well.

Then she kissed Kandi on the lips.

Kandi cupped one of Tasha's large breasts through her sweater, rolling the nipple, lifting and caressing.

"So big," Kandi murmured.

"That feels great," Tasha said.

"Right on," Nick murmured.

His eyes were glued to the girls. I thought there was no way Kandi was already interested in sex again. That's not how she works at all. She's usually one-and-done for the night. The longer I watched the more I realized I was wrong. Their kissing intensified, their groping spread across their hot bodies. Seconds later Tasha shed her sweater a second time. My gaze dropped to her massive tits. Kandi leaned in and tongued Tasha's nipples, the cool cabin air making them rise. Tasha accepted her adoration for a minute and then leaned back.

"Your turn," she told my girl with a grin.

Kandi pulled her sweater over her head. Her bra followed. The girls played with each other's tits until Kandi whimpered.

"Let's do this right," Tasha said.

They left the couch and removed their sweat pants. Tasha wore no panties but Kandi did, so Tasha eased them off. They knelt on the rug, moving to a sixty-nine with Tasha on top. They buried tongues in each other and licked. I knew Tasha tasted more than just Kandi's excitement. Tasha also tasted what Nick had shot up in there. I worried about jealousy for half a second but Tasha clearly enjoyed finding her man inside my girl. Her oral attack of my girlfriend was wild and sexy. She was holding Kandi's thighs, one in each arm, when she looked to Nick. I followed her gaze and discovered my friend had his dick out again, a long pole of flesh standing up through his zipper opening. He slowly stroked himself while watching our girls.

"Fuck me, Baby," she told him.

Nick quickly stripped. He took a position behind Tasha, spreading her butt cheeks to get at her pussy, aiming his dick and pushing. Tasha groaned as her cavity was filled. Nick spread his knees which lowered his ball sack to graze Kandi's forehead. He pumped slowly, dragging his scrotum across my girl's face. When his nuts reached her lips, she abandoned Tasha's clit to lick them. He gasped.

"That's fantastic," he encouraged.

Kandi opened wide and his scrotum dropped in. Her cheeks fluttered as she licked his balls. She spat them out and her tongue found his shaft, licking up and down that fat pulsing rod. Nick fucked Tasha and Kandi licked and sucked them both. I considered crying foul but at this point why bother? We'd already done much worse. I sat with an uncomfortable erection cramped inside my pants and watched. Nick worked his cock deep, dragging soulful moans and groans from Tasha. I tried to resist but eventually had to free my erection. I slowly stroked watching the erotic display.

"Your turn," Nick said.

I didn't make the connection.

My friend withdrew his large cock from Tasha and crawled around to the other end. Too late I realized what he planned. Tasha leaned back, rising over Kandi like a phoenix, lifting her arms and her hair as she settled her pussy over my girl's mouth. Nick moved forward, shuffling up between Kandi's legs, holding his hard cock in one hand and Kandi's knee in the other. He aimed his dick at my girlfriend's sopping slit and pressed. Her pussy flowered around his intrusion, blooming and stretching to accept his impressive girth. Kandi groaned with deep satisfaction as Nick slid home.

I stared, paralyzed, watching each inch sink deep until his plump balls rested against her ass. My girl was pinned and stuffed: Tasha over her mouth and Nick buried in her pussy. Nick and Tasha exchanged a mischievous look, like this was a moment they'd discussed before tonight, and then Nick sucked Tasha's nipple and began working his cock in and out of Kandi. Tasha pulled his mouth up to hers and they kissed passionately.

How did I get sidelined? There was no place for me unless I barged in and pulled Tasha away, and that simply wasn't my style.

Nick and Tasha made out with Kandi trapped beneath them. Kandi reached up to play with Tasha's tits and then grabbed Nick's ass to pull him even deeper. My girl's hands roamed both their bodies. Nick leaned away and Tasha buried her face at his crotch, licking his cock and Kandi's clit as they fucked. That was too much. Kandi wailed in orgasm. With her mouth glued to Tasha's pussy my woman howled in powerful climax. Nick's cock overwhelmed her mind and pussy, sending waves of undeniable pleasure coursing through her. She had no choice, no resistances. Nick's cock seized her body and soul and ripped giant orgasms from her.

With a sinking heart, I realized he would cum inside her again. Why not? The damage was done. He'd already flooded her unprotected womb. What's the harm in adding another gallon of Nick juice?

Despite my reservations I pumped my dick in my fist. Kandi had hooked her legs around his waist, eager for fucking. She'd cum hard but was keen for more. His fat cock must have felt fantastic in there. Kandi held Tasha by her thighs, eating pussy like she was born to it. Tasha tensed and climaxed, her body shaking. She rested her arms on Nick's shoulders and they gazed deeply into each other's eyes, their domination of my girl was almost complete. Ejaculating inside her, again, would be the final act. Nick slammed Kandi's tight hole, savoring his conquest.

Kandi orgasmed again.

The sexual sounds that pour out of her mouth were demoralizing. My dick was harder than ever but it hurt to hear what he could do to her, how much pleasure he gave. She found his cock sawing back and forth intoxicating, euphoric. The muscles in her legs clenched and her back arched off the floor. I heard her muffled scream of pleasure through Tasha's cunt.

"I want to make her suck it," Nick told Tasha.

She smiled.

"Next time," she murmured. "Just shoot it inside her for now, like you did with Tina. I fucking love it when you mark babes like this."

Nick thrust faster and deeper and Kandi went rigid. Moments later he groaned and pushed all the way in, ass tightening over and over as he pumped one jet of sperm after another deep inside. My dick ached for release but I'd waited too long. Nick was almost finished. If I tried jacking off now I'd orgasm after everything was over and the room silent. They'd all stare at me.

Nick forced the last remaining spurts into Kandi and then withdrew his fat spongy cock. He sat on his heels, knees wide, dick curved towards the floor. Tasha leaned over and lifted his penis to her mouth, sucking the combined fluids off. She sat up and licked her lips. She lifted her leg and sat to the side, freeing my girlfriend. Kandi lay panting, staring at the ceiling with far away eyes, gently trailing a fingertip around an areola. A shiny ring of pussy juice and saliva circled her mouth. Tasha leaned over and kissed the tip of her nose and then her lips.

"Your man looks about ready to pop," Tasha said. "You want me to handle it?"

"I got it," Kandi said.

She rolled over and slipped my dick in her mouth. Nick may have cum inside her twice but that was wrong, that was irresponsible. I'm her man and we knew better. Kandi was going to blow me and swallow my load because it was the right thing to do. Nick wasn't supposed to be in there but he was and I wasn't supposed to be in there so I wouldn't be. It made no sense. It killed me to know she carried him. It made me desperate to cum inside her too. It made me hard as a diamond but I knew that little responsible voice in my head would prevent me from cumming inside her.

"Fuck," I growled.

They all thought I was expressing my intense pleasure. I held Kandi's head and fucked her slurping mouth. I came fast. I jammed my dick in and spurted and Kandi groaned with satisfaction, now guilt-free because I'd joined in, as she gulped.

Chapter 3

As I sit here tonight, sipping a beer and surfing the Internet, that night at the cabin was five years ago. I think about it often but Kandi and I talk about it rarely. The few times she's brought it up I got upset and shut the conversation down.

I'm not proud of that.

Sometimes I think about it while Kandi and I are making love and I have an orgasm that leaves me stunned. I cum much harder than usual but always feel guilty afterward. I'm sure Kandi feels guilty too and that's why she wants to talk about things. At first I felt a need to discuss what happened but as time passed my need diminished. I figure I'm letting her off the hook. She doesn't need to go through all that. We got high and went too far, end of story.

After that night Kandi and I returned to our lives and our routines. I waited for the big blowup or utter collapse that never came. I soon realized our relationship would proceed unaffected, like that night had never happened. Fine with me. I felt we should just let sleeping dogs lie. If Kandi could put it all behind her, so could I. A year later we married. We focused on our careers and enjoyed success.

Nick and Tasha got married too, then moved to Los Angeles to build their own website and make porn together. They've done well in LA. Nick got serious, cleaned up, worked out, got lean. Tasha looks better than ever. She landed a deal with a major porn studio and their team of professional hair and makeup people transformed her from pretty to breathtaking.

I've checked on their site over the years, keeping tabs on my friends. I get a secret thrill knowing I've fucked that hot girl on screen, the girl everybody so desperately wants. Oddly, I also stare at Nick's big dick. I can't help it. That dick has been inside Kandi. That's the cock that fucked my sweet wife and that's the cock that made her orgasm, hard, and more than once. I don't view his penis in a gay way. I have no desires for the man. But every time I see that thick veiny hose I remember how he fucked her. I remember her sweet face twisted in pleasure. I remember the sounds he ripped from her.

On my first visit to their website I saw one video clip that especially got to me. Tasha was blowing Nick and at the last minute he pulled out and sprayed his load all over her face. It's a common scene in porn and normally does nothing for me but this time I gawked. This time I sat astonished. This was the first time I'd ever seen Nick ejaculate, and, sweet Jesus, his dick was a fountain of hot sperm. The man sprayed a bucket of pearly white jizz all over her face and hair. The scene was intense all by itself, since I knew both people in it, but what really knocked me back in my chair was the sudden realization, crashing into my brain, that he'd twice shot the same amount of heady man syrup into Kandi.

Twice.

Twice.

I'd stared at the screen amazed. The scene forced reality upon me. He'd pumped so much sperm into her. I know I might be going on about it but I was seriously dumbfounded. We'd waited for weeks, nervously burning through pregnancy tests, praying and hoping. When I saw Nick cum on Tasha's face I understood how lucky we'd been. I was left shaking the first time I saw it.

Now, as I mentioned, I sit at my computer once again, staring at the screen. It's a Saturday night and Kandi is out with friends. I'd followed the link to Nick and Tasha's site and what I'd seen left me anxious. There it was in bold red thirty-two point Arial: Viva Las Vegas! Tasha had won an award for best blowjob and our friends would be traveling to Vegas, my town, to attend the Adult Video convention to accept. They'd spend the coming week at a casino just down the street. We could meet them every night if we wished.

We haven't seen them in years. Do I tell Kandi? If we met them, would they try something? Would Nick try to fuck Kandi again? Would Kandi want him to?

I click a free video. Tasha holds Nick's cock in both hands, licking the shaft like melting ice cream and gazing into the lens. Her bulging tits fill the bottom of the screen. She looks fantastic but I am still mesmerized by his dick, even after five years. I hit pause and study every inch of that swollen shaft. He'd made her climax so easily, she'd lost control, orgasms smashing into her before she was ready, before she knew they were upon her. He'd ripped one climax after the next from her.

I stare at the flared head and wide shaft. I lift my gaze to his ruggedly handsome face. Who am I kidding? Of course she'll want that again. Her desire are a given. The real question was could I stand another encounter like that? We are married now. Married people do not have sex with other people.

Is it cowardice to avoid them? Nick and I have been friends all our lives. The idea of hiding from him made me feel chicken-shit.

I sigh.

There is no clear answer but one thing I do know with certainty: I must tell Kandi. Omitting the truth is still a lie and I don't lie to my wife. Now that I know Tasha and Nick will be in town soon, I needed to share that information. We'll plot our path forward as a couple, just like everything we do.

Chapter 4

"I look fat," Kandi said, gazing into the full-length bedroom mirror.

"You look amazing," I countered.

"Tasha will steal the spotlight. Nobody will even notice me."

She looked amazing. Skin-tight black satin evening gown with plunging neckline and open back, slits on both sides running from ankle to hipbone. She wore matching black gloves to her elbows and black fishnet thigh-high stockings. Black stilettos held her dainty feet. Her hair was teased and her makeup slutty. She'd spent hours on the Internet, reviewing past adult conventions. She wanted to dress appropriately and I thought she'd nailed it.

"Tasha may have bigger tits," I said, stating the obvious. "But you're prettier. You'll have an audience all your own. Men will ask where they can buy your videos."

That caught her by surprise. She hadn't considered the crowd. Her eyes darted back to the mirror and she ran her gaze up and down. A coy smile spread. Imagining herself a porn star pleased her.

"You think?"

"I'm sure of it," I said.

She tugged the front of her dress lower, exposing more cleavage and belly. She tested the dress, seeing how far she could bend before exposing nipple. She planted her foot and moved her hips, discovering what moves revealed her lace panties. Her smile grew. She could have fun with this.

"Let's go," she said at last.

Soon we wandered the floor of the massive convention. I'd been to other conventions in this hall and the glaring white phosphorescent lights overhead had been dimmed. Good thing. Erotic porn merchandise covered every inch of floor and wall space and with that much skin on display you don't want every blemish revealed. The crowd was well-dressed but the women's fashion showed a lot of skin.

A lot.

Kandi was uncomfortable at first but quickly adapted, relaxing and taking in the sights and sounds. She may have left the house in scandalous attire but here, compared to these women, she looked almost conservative.

The floor of the main hall was huge: rows and rows of vendors filled the place. A stage and seating area sat at the far end. Everywhere we looked we saw advertising for porn. Large photographs of tits and pussies and asses and cocks covered every open space. Open sex was all over the place.

"Is all this getting to you?" Kandi murmured. "Because all this is getting to me."

I slipped my arm around her bare shoulder. She was warm. Men and women looked her up and down everywhere we went and each set of eyes made her heart race a little faster.

"Where's their booth?" she asked.

I checked the handout map and pointed towards the corner. We angled for it. Men and women ogled Kandi as we made our way across the massive hall. We passed life-sized and anatomically correct cardboard cutouts of gorgeous naked men and women. Nude glossy posters faced us at every turn. The cardboard penis of a naked pornstar snagged Kandi's dress as we turned a corner, pulling the slit around and exposing her black lace panties. Every eye darted a look and Kandi blushed. I held the cardboard dick around the shaft and untangled her dress, laughing. We took a minute to stare at the life-sized statue, giggling at what had happened. The man was muscular and handsome and hung.

"I guess if someone had to grab me," Kandi said. "I'm glad it was him."

I laughed and prepared to move on.

"You are grabbable," a deep voice said.

A man stood behind the table at the booth. We looked from his face to the cutout and back to his face. He was the man pictured. Kandi and I both dropped our gaze to his crotch before we could stop ourselves. He laughed.

"Yes," he admitted. "That's me."

Kandi examined the posted figure again and then the man. Her eyes lingered on the cardboard dick.

"Accurate down to every detail?" she joked.

He shrugged.

"The studio got my dick wrong," he said. "I'm bigger than what they gave me."

Kandi rolled her eyes and nudged my shoulder, ready to move.

"You don't believe me," he said.

"It's not that," Kandi replied. "Your response is what every man would say. It just sounded so cliché."

"Fair enough," he said. "Come back after the show and I'll show you."

She pointed at me.

"Have you met my husband?" she quipped.

The stranger shrugged.

"Bring him," he said. "I'll show him too."

We smiled politely and continued our trek.

"Rude," Kandi murmured.

"Confident," I countered.

Kandi gave me a funny look. After several blocks of booths, surrounded again by naked male and female bodies and with Kandi's head on a pivot, my wife turned to me.

"You know," she said. "Seeing all this has got me thinking. I've always assumed I liked men but now I realize I just like their dicks."

I laughed out loud.

"All you needed was a tsunami of naked dicks to convince you?"

"Pretty much. As we walk through all this I see these men and I feel myself getting turned on and I realize they don't need to open their mouths. In fact, if they did, they'd probably say something stupid and turn me off. I'm fine just objectifying them. I don't need to know anything else about them."

"How very male of you," I said.

"Times are changing, Baby. No more of this power behind the throne crap. No more behind every successful man there's a woman. If I feel it, I'm acting on it. I'll sit on my own throne, thank you very much."

Kandi took my arm, chuckling at her little joke. We continued our journey. Several more twists and turns brought us to Nick and Tasha's booth. We stopped dead. Their display had fifteen-foot, nude, cardboard statues of each towering above. Tasha looked smoking hot. She wore baby doll lingerie and covered her nipples with her hands. Nick's body looked lean and cut, not too muscular but with zero body fat. A thick, three-foot long cardboard cock hung between his legs and over their table. He smiled broadly when he saw us and pointed above.

"Awesome, right?" he shouted, laughing. "It's like we're ready to stomp through the streets of Tokyo and breathe fire. How are you guys?"

Kandi was stunned speechless. Her eyes jumped around: giant Nick cutout, giant Tasha cutout, real Nick in front of her, giant Nick cutout.

"That's amazing," she said.

"You mean my dick, right?" Nick boomed, playful. "I hear that a lot. Is it everything you remember?"

Zing! That stung. His comment was loud enough for those around to hear so I ignored it and moved us closer. Typical Nick. He waved us around the table and into the booth and we hugged. Kandi gave him a kiss on the cheek.

"Where's Tasha?" Kandi asked.

I was relieved she chose to ignore his question too.

"Off doing a Q and A," he said. "Signing autographs. Probably giving out handjobs. They let you get away with murder at these conventions."

In seconds, we were off and running. Conversation zipped around as we caught up on the last five years. As customers approached, Nick continued to run the booth, signing pictures and posing for selfies. He sold DVDs and posters and answered questions. When he wasn't busy with clients, our conversation ranged far and wide.

They'd arrived in Los Angeles five years ago, broke and without a place to live. They spent six months living out of their car, running things through their laptop at the nearby Starbucks. They would film themselves fucking around famous Los Angeles landmarks and then post the original content. They accumulated followers slowly until one day they fucked at the top of the stadium during a Rams game. After that their follower count exploded, numbers growing and money starting to trickle in. They caught the notice of a top studio and Tasha signed, receiving upfront money to rent an apartment and build a home workspace, turning one bedroom into a porn set.

"Our numbers increase every year," Nick said proudly. "Mostly because of Tasha, but I don't mind. Guys are crazy about her. She could have any guy she wanted but she sticks with me. She gets all the credit for our success."

"Not all the credit," Kandi blurted, glancing at his crotch. "You bring something special to the mix."

She referred to his dick and we all knew it. He grinned.

"What time does the awards ceremony start?" I asked.

"Nine. You guys can kill time until then. I can't leave the booth. Get back here around eight and we'll all go over to the staging area together."

"Sounds good," I said.

We all hugged again and I hustled Kandi away from him.

"He looks good," she quipped.

"So does she," I snapped.

She smirked!

Chapter 5

We bought some iced teas and walked the convention floor. Humans are amazing. Everything turns us on. Other animals come into heat now and then but not us. We are horny all the time, and then our women get even hornier once a month. We saw every kind of kink on display and on sale.

We'd just turned a corner when Kandi tapped my shoulder. I followed her gaze. A huge booth stood before us, every inch of wall and table covered with hot-wife paraphernalia. There were many vendors, each displaying their own version of the kink. Hot-Wife, Cuckold, Vixen-Stag: they had many words for the fetish but essentially it was couples getting off on sharing the woman with another man. We drifted closer. We saw blown-up pictures of husbands eating cum from messy pussies and husbands sucking the cock that was about to fuck their wife. We saw posters of husbands with their genitalia locked in steel cages. We saw large movie-stills of wives submitting to black men and getting their feet coated in sperm. We saw every way a wife can be shared.

Kandi reached the table and thumbed a full-color book of how to make your man a cuckold. I sent my eyes down a cascade of DVD covers, all married women fucking other men.

Black men were featured most frequently. The genre looked massive. If the amount of product available reflected supply and demand, wives everywhere were fucking everyone. Kandi reached the same conclusion. Our eyes met. Hers were filled with wonder and excitement.

"Wow," she said. "Who knew?"

I didn't answer. My mouth had gone dry. We'd passed hundreds of booths by now. Why did Kandi stop at this one? Several people manned the huge stand and one moved towards us. He was well over six feet tall, heavily muscled, and black. We saw him approaching and Kandi held up a magazine with him on the cover, nude. His body was ripped and his thick black cock hung down like a firehose. White women clutched at his muscular legs. Black Conan and his two-handed sword, was the title of the article.

"That's him," Kandi exhaled.

"Yup," I managed.

"Sweet Jesus," she breathed. "Look at this picture."

"I'd rather not."

I glanced. I'd already seen enough of that naked demigod but I glanced anyway. He was formidable: rippling muscles and battering ram cock. On the cover his hairless body glistened with a coating of baby oil.

"How you folks doing?" his deep voice rumbled. "You want to buy that? I'll autograph the cover for you."

Kandi's eyes darted from magazine to man to magazine to man. I was sure she pictured him naked. He wore jeans and an incredibly tight white T-shirt stretched over his buff torso. Kandi dropped the magazine on the table and Black Hercules popped the cap on his Sharpie. He signed before we answered. Kandi gave me a what do we do now look. I pulled out my debit card and handed it over.

"You folks visiting or from here?" he asked.

"We live in town," I said.

With his attention on me, Kandi was free to scrutinize the man and wow did she. She continued the habit of comparing him in the flesh to how he looked in the photograph and by this point it was obvious she liked what she saw. I chatted with the man while he rang us up. Kandi stared directly at the front of his pants. He bagged our purchase and included a free DVD.

"It's my first feature film," he explained. "Couple years old now but I've tried to stay in shape."

"You have!" Kandi gushed.

He gave her a smile that would melt steel.

"Thank you, pretty girl. I hope you enjoy the movie."

"Thanks," I said.

I took her elbow and steered her away from this table and over to the next. She pulled the DVD, Black Man of Steel, from the bag and flipped it over.

"His name is Otis," she said. "Otis Hammer."

"That's his stage name," I said. "Nobody uses their real name."

She turned the case over. Otis sat on a throne, legs spread wide. His enormous black erection curved up from his lap. Two gorgeous white women, one blonde, one brunette, sucked his cock with bedroom eyes. The brunette had filled her mouth with his balls. The blonde's cheeks bulged, her mouth filled with the head. All three looked at the camera. His body was muscle layered on muscle.

"Dang," Kandi said. "That's a lot of dick."

I was annoyed. First she fawned over Nick and now some porn dude.

"Should we go back?" I quipped. "He can probably get someone to cover his shift. You can sneak away with him for a quickie."

She stopped. The crowd moved around us.

"Tempting," she said. "I've never been with a black guy and he's hot. What a body. His dick is beautiful but too big. It's frightening. I've never even seen a black penis so that was a shock. He'd leave me sore for a week."

"Sore?" I said. "You've already imagined fucking him."

"No," she said. "I imagined him fucking me. But don't even try to act jealous. I've seen you looking at all the hot starlets here. I know you've thought the same about them. You don't get in trouble for what you think." She leaned in close. "You get in trouble for what you do."

That was a fair point. My thoughts are my own.

We moved farther along the massive hot-wife booth. The third table was run by a married couple from Salt Lake City, Utah. The chubby husband was dressed as if he'd stepped from a J.C. Penny catalog. The wife was a walking Hallmark commercial. Their perfect smiles dazzled. Her coifed blonde hair and makeup was perfect too.

"Howdy, neighbor," The husband beamed, extending his hand.

I shook it. The wife swung her attention our way. They were fit and good-looking, well dressed and presentable. I expected them to try to sell us timeshares. The wife noticed the DVD Kandi carried.

"You've met Otis," she grinned, looking at my wife. She gave a conspiratorial wink. "I've climbed that mountain," she continued. "I've never felt anything like it."

"You had sex with Otis?" Kandi asked, forward as usual.

The husband chuckled.

"She's addicted," he said. "She'd have him every night if I let her."

The wife nodded eagerly. She rested her hand on Kandi's shoulder.

"If you get the opportunity," she said. "Take it. Trust me."

"Honey," the husband cautioned. "We don't know these good people and we don't know what they're into. Let's not presume. You can tell nothing by looking at individuals. They might like diapers. They might like dress-up or bondage."

"No," Kandi said, hurrying to clarify. "We're not interested in any of that. We have almost no experience at all. All we've ever done is trade partners. That's the only thing that interests us."

"Excellent," the husband purred. "You've made the right choice. That's our kink too. We love it. It's exciting you're just getting started. Is that why you spoke with Otis?"

Everyone needed to slow the fuck down.

"I wouldn't say we're interested," I said. "It only happened once."

"But you stayed together?" the wife asked.

Kandi chuckled.

"We were only boyfriend and girlfriend at the time," she said. "We got married after all that happened."

The wife gave us a knowing smile. She looked at me.

"If you can watch her with another man and then marry her, I think deep down you love the idea. It took Brad, my husband, a long time to come to terms with it, but he did. Now we couldn't be happier. Isn't that right, Brad?"

"That's the truth, Janet. I had all kinds of fears eating me up but once we took the plunge none of them materialized. I realized it was just my insecurities messing with me. Now I get to watch Janet be the sexual creature she is. With all the restrictions society places on them, women need to be in a supportive, loving relationship before they can begin to explore themselves in this way."

"You had sex with Otis?" Kandi asked again.

"I did. Brad was in the room. We taped the whole thing and have watched it together many times. I've had other men too and we recorded them as well. With their consent, of course. After that we discovered there's a market for those tapes and the next thing we know we're making a nice income on the side."

Kandi's cheeks were flushed.

"You know," Janet continued. "To be honest, Otis was rough and at first I felt used. After that I started liking it. A lot. I told him to remove his condom. I hated there was a barrier between me and him. Otis mounted me and made me his. He claimed me, unloading everything he had. I made Brad wait a week before taking me back. It felt so good knowing Otis was in me. That black man fucks like an angry God. I was wonderfully tender. Do you know what I mean? Like all the way up inside? Where it hurts a little but feels real good?"

Kandi nodded slowly, a faraway look in her eyes. I wondered if Nick had left her like that. She'd never mentioned anything. Then again, I'd never asked. I felt bad about that now.

"You say you're not necessarily interested," Brad said to me. "May I ask then what you're doing at a convention like this?"

"We're friends with Nick and Tasha," I said, jerking a thumb over a shoulder and down the row of tables.

"You know Nick and Tasha?" Janet asked, surprised.

"Nick's been my best friend since the seventh grade," I said.

Janet and Brad shared a cute grin.

"Can you hook me up with him?" Janet asked. "He's always so busy. Let me give you my cell. I want him. Badly."

She caught me by surprise.

"S-sure," I stuttered.

She looked at Brad with fire in her eyes. I withdrew my phone and she rattled off her number, her voice quivering slightly. Then she froze. She turned to Kandi.

"Are you telling me your one and only time was with Nick?"

Kandi turned shy.

"Oh my Lord!" Janet cried. "You lucky, lucky girl."

She came around the end of the table and gave my wife a bear hug.

"You boys talk," she said. "I'm taking this little chick-a-dee aside. I want to hear every detail."

Brad waved as Janet led Kandi away. The crowd swallowed them. My stomach churned imagining what Kandi might say about that night, what she might tell Janet about Nick fucking her. I was jealous of Janet. She'd hear details I never heard.

"What happened?" Brad asked. "You said it only happened once. Why? You and Nick were already friends. You and your wife were already dating. I'm guessing you guys were all at the beach, drinking, and one thing led to another."

"Close," I admitted. "A mountain cabin."

"Nick started things rolling?"

"Tasha planted the idea. She joked about fucking Nick in front of us. But it was my wife, Kandi, that pulled the trigger."

We both stared at the spot where Janet and Kandi had disappeared.

"She wants it," Brad said. "You know that, right? Kandi is curious, maybe even hungry for it. She's had a taste, discovered you were able to see beyond her transgression, and you guys were fine."

"I fucked Tasha. That was the trade off."

He studied my face, a sly smile played across his lips.

"You're a lucky man."

"I am."

He studied my face again.

"You don't seem too happy about what happened. Did things end poorly?"

I shook my head.

"No," I said. "Well, yes, I suppose they did. Nick and I agreed to pull out before we came. Neither of our girls were on birth control. I did but Nick didn't."

"Oh. Oh wow."

"Yeah."

Brad was nodding slowly.

"So Nick inseminated Kandi but you ejaculated outside of Tasha."

"Yes."

"Ouch. I see why you're a bit miffed."

"Thank you."

"You know, Paul, I get where you are. I was there once too. But please allow me, as an older man, to give you some unsolicited advice: in truth, you like what happened, you just don't know how to deal with those feelings. Kandi wants to do it again, I promise you. I saw the look in her eyes. I've seen that look in plenty of women, including my own. I suggest you search your feelings and admit you want it too. Maybe not handing Kandi to Nick. That's close to home and loaded with complications."

I met his kind eyes. His words held a ring of truth but I was not ready to hear. If he was right, I would soon step aside as Kandi fucked another man.

I dropped my gaze to their table. A DVD cover showed Janet atop a fat cock piercing her pussy. She looked at the camera, smiling. I knew Brad had taken the picture. Was I like Brad in this way? I thumbed through more merchandise: videos, photographs, even T-shirts with Janet's face on them. In every instance, she looked happy. She was having the time of her life, fucking whomever she wished.

"It's a better way," Brad said. "I know it's frightening to contemplate, and goes against everything you were taught, but take it from me, it's better."

I said nothing. I worried if I opened my mouth I'd agree. I looked through a binder of eight by ten glossy photographs. Janet had a different cock in her mouth in each one, some big, some average, some small.

Behind me I heard Kandi laugh. I turned. Both women emerged from the crowd, arm in arm, giggling like best friends. Kandi saw me. She slipped away and strode towards me, then pressed her body to mine. She tilted her mouth up, delivering a smoldering kiss filled with passion and yearning. Whatever they'd discussed on their brief walk had left my wife deeply aroused. Janet returned to her place behind the table. I was about to invite them for drinks after the show when a shrill voice called out from the crowd.

"Kandi!"

The throng parted and Tasha broke through. She wore a black formal evening gown but the dress had been altered to expose as much skin as possible while remaining legal. Every head turned as she walked by. She looked delicious. I felt a sudden well of pride knowing I'd fucked this gorgeous babe. Kandi and Tasha hugged fiercely. People stopped to watch. After a moment Tasha slid off Kandi to wrap me in a tight hug too. We all talked excitedly, rapidly catching up on the past few years, and then Tasha gestured towards Nick at their booth. We explained we'd run into him first and were just killing time now. We'd be back for the awards show.

"I am so glad you guys made it," she gushed. "It's wonderful to see you again."

"It's great to see you too," I said.

We began chatting again. I remembered my manners and during a pause in our conversation introduced Janet and Brad. They all shook hands.

"I admire your work," Janet told Tasha. "You're a natural. The camera loves you. Your excitement is so genuine. Your videos are the best."

Tasha turned coy.

"That's too kind," she said. "I'm just lucky. I love sex and I happened to find a man that encourages me to have it. I can't believe I get paid to do it. I never dreamed my life could be like this. But you're in the same boat, Janet. You and Brad own the MILF category."

Janet acted shy.

My notions about porn starlets were getting smashed to pieces. They were just women. Vulnerable, hopeful, loving, aspiring women. They were merely human, full of all the same dreams and fears as the rest of us. Some we'd encountered met my stereotypical expectations but they were a tiny minority. I'd expected plastic Barbie dolls and discovered real women of flesh and blood. I realized my own prejudices, my own Puritan sex ethics had slanted my view. Lying is immoral. Stealing is immoral. Murder is immoral. There's nothing inherently immoral about sex.

"Janet wants to fuck Nick," I said, ungraciously inserting myself into their conversation. "She asked me to mention it to you."

Tasha smiled broadly.

"Is that true?" she asked.

Janet looked skyward.

"So true!" she exclaimed. "I've been following you guys since your first video. Nick is so hot, so handsome." She threw a quick knowing look at Kandi. "Every woman wants a piece of him."

Tasha took Janet's hand.

"Come with me," she said, leading Janet around the table again. Then, to Brad: "I'll return your wife in a minute."

Brad swept his hand like he was clearing a path, indicating Tasha had his unreserved permission.

"By all means," he said.

Tasha headed for Nick but slipped an arm around Kandi too.

"You come too," she said.

Brad and I watched the three women depart.

"Looks like Janet will get her wish," I said.

Brad looked genuinely happy for his wife. I tried to imagine that level of selflessness, that level of altruistic love. They had no sense of possession, no fear. I found myself admiring them.

Chapter 6

The awards ceremony was a lascivious, sensual, carnal display of sex and the human body. The well-dressed crowd from the main floor did not remain well-dressed, exposing themselves and others once they got on stage. That led to shenanigans and those shenanigans led to outright sex. We'd seen blowjobs, acts of cunnilingus, and full vaginal penetration. None lasted long enough for anyone to climax, and mostly they were done for audience reaction, which was strong, but the constant shameless parade was delightful. Kandi and I laughed hard, shocked by the outrageous behavior. I think about sex often but these people think about sex constantly. It's the focal point of their lives. It's how they define themselves. Public displays of affection were made without reservation. Men and women, but especially women, touched and kissed all around us.

Tasha had changed clothes for her moment on stage and the audience went wild. Her dynamite body was bursting from her tight little black outfit. Nick wore a tuxedo and got his own round of applause with many women from the audience cat-calling and whistling. Several pairs of panties landed on stage. Clearly, he was a favorite with the ladies. I watched Kandi's face and noted he was her favorite too.

The after-party was held in a Vegas nightclub closed to the public. I noticed the bouncer eyeing civilians that sought entrance and allowing the ravishing women to enter. They rarely admitted a civilian man. Inside, the place crawled with gorgeous babes, a much higher ratio of women to men. Kandi was protective of me at first, a little jealous and insecure, but relaxed after the first hour and allowed herself to have fun. Lots of pretty women hit on her and while she admittedly prefers dick, she was still incredibly flattered. I saw her kiss a few and even enjoy some mutual touching.

The place was swanky, dimly lit with lots of plush furniture and elegant furnishings. House music pulsed. I spotted Janet and Brad across the room and raised my bottle of beer. Brad waved back. Janet was seated on her husband's lap, speaking to a man towering over her. As I watched, she drew down the man's zipper and pulled his penis through the opening. She tugged until his large cock and balls hung free, conversationally discussing his genitalia with him. They both chuckled. This place was like another universe with different rules.

I'm embarrassed to admit I was nervous about leaving Kandi alone, and not just because Nick was in the crowd. There were too many beautiful people, too many hot guys with great bodies. I knew Kandi would get hit on the moment I left her alone. When she went to the bathroom I went with her. When she visited the bar to order more beer I went with her. We were having fun and catching a delightful buzz when she turned to me and held my chin. She gazed into my eyes.

"I want him," she stated.

I stared back. My blood turned chilly.

She continued: "You need to stop puppy-dogging me like you're afraid someone will steal me. Relax. I promise not to jump on Nick when you turn your back. But you know I want to fuck him and there's no reason I shouldn't. We've already done it once so what's the big deal? We know our marriage will be fine. We are living proof of that. I want him again and you should let me have him."

Well, there it was, right out in the open.

"He's my best friend," I stammered. "It's complicated."

"It's not," she stated. "It's simple. Him being your best friend is just another reason to allow it. He's safe. It's just sex."

I ran out of words. Kandi studied my face, smiling slightly.

"Will you love me forever?" she asked.

"Of course."

"Will you ever divorce me?"

I shook my head.

"No. I can't imagine choosing that."

She giggled. She placed her lips next to my ear, her hot breath sending shivers down my spine.

"I'm going to fuck him," she said. "I understand your fear, but I'm going to do it."

I felt the pressure of the inevitable bearing down on me, like I stood on railroad tracks and a distant but growing rumble approached. I turned away. My eyes landed on two women kneeling before a seated man, sucking his cock like starving wenches. They were laughing, playful and happy. He conversed casually with a man, allowing those women to play with his large cock as much as they wished.

"When?" I croaked.

Kandi lifted her shoulders half an inch.

"Dunno. Maybe never. Maybe tonight. The moment will need to present itself and be right. I'm not fucking him just to get it over with. I want the moment to be hot and passionate and lusty. You have nothing to worry about. I just wanted you to know. I hated the idea of doing something behind your back. Janet encouraged me to tell you. She's wise. Don't be frightened. Everything will be fine. We're talking about our friends Tasha and Nick. No big deal."

I groaned but the music buried the sound. Nick was going to fuck my woman again, only now she was my wife. In my mind, I could already see his thick cock spreading her tight pussy.

"There's Tasha," I heard Kandi say. "Wait here."

She left my lap and entered the crowd. I lost sight of her immediately so I returned my attention to the women giving the double blowjob. One of them rode that dick while the other ate her ass. People around watched or didn't watch, talking, drinking, smoking. I resisted the urge to follow Kandi. I checked on Brad and discovered Janet, still seated on Brad's lap, was now sucking the dick she'd freed while Brad held the shaft around the base, occasionally jerking the fat dick into his wife's mouth.

No way would I hold Nick's cock for Kandi.

I felt the chair next to me move as Kandi dropped into it so I turned, only it wasn't Kandi, it was Otis.

"You're Nick's best friend," he said.

"I am."

"I didn't know that earlier today. Nice to meet you. Nick's a great guy."

"I've always thought so."

"Where's your wife?"

I waved in the direction of the crowd.

"Out there somewhere," I said. "She went looking for Tasha."

Otis pursed his lips.

"Dang, I hate to tell you, Bro, but I saw Tasha and your wife leave a few minutes ago with my boy Germaine. Germaine's a dog. I'd go after them if I were you."

His warning hit hard. I searched his face.

"For real," he continued. "Germaine will fuck them both and drop them at the curb. I ain't seen Nick yet but when I do I'll warn him too. You best go. You can still catch them."

He pointed towards an exit.

Adrenaline pumped in my veins. Nick was one thing but a hung black stud, total stranger to us both, was something else. Kandi's recent attitude had me worried about what she might do, how far she might go.

"Thanks," I said, jumping up.

I aimed for the exit. I turned right outside the door, heading for the elevators. I pulled my phone and fired off a text to Kandi. Once I reached the lobby I asked valet about a black guy with two white girls and he said yeah, I heard them head for the Cosmo hotel. I tipped him and jumped in a cab. I sent Kandi another text and tried calling but received no answer to either. My imagination tore me up, showing me one scene after another of my wife sandwiched between Tasha and a huge black cock.

I spent a long time crawling over every inch of that hotel, seeking some sign, waiting for some response from my wife.

At last, I received one.

Where are you? her text read.

Downstairs in the lobby. I followed you to the Cosmo.

Cosmo? she fired back. I never left the after party. I'm hanging with Otis and his friend Germaine.

My chilled blood turned to ice. I'd been played. Otis had sent me away to get Kandi alone.

Tasha and Nick? I asked.

Pulled into a meeting with producers. Otis is taking me to a hot new club. I'll send you directions once we're there.

I couldn't type fast enough.

NO! Wait for me.

I got no response. She'd already put her phone away. Otis was a scheming, lying asshole and I'd fallen for his ploy all the way. Now he had my wife and was taking her someplace I knew nothing about. I sent Nick and Tasha a text but got no response from them either. I sat on a lobby bench.

I was fucked. I put my elbows on my knees and held my head in my hands. I felt the eyes of the people walking by. I sat awhile and wallowed in my misery and then headed outside to walk the Strip, breathe fresh air, clear my head. Every minute that Kandi did not message me increased the likelihood she was doing something with one or both of those men. I firmly believed it. She'd declared for Nick but once she'd taken a stand, sliding over to a different man would be easy. It wasn't Nick, specifically, it was the act of independence, it was all about fucking someone other than me.

Time passed slowly.

I finally got a call but it came from Tasha, not Kandi. She provided an address and said for me to meet everyone there. Loud background music prevented her from speaking more. I asked her to repeat the address.

"Seriously?" I said.

"Yes!" she squealed. "Isn't that so cool?"

"It is interesting," I admitted.

I tried to ask for more detail about what had happened since my departure but the music was too loud.

"See you soon!" she shouted.

I hailed a cab.

Chapter 7

I walked across the barren parking lot and over the Las Vegas Raiders logo and knocked on the smoky glass door. I waited. No one came so I knocked again, harder. I heard movement. Keys turned and the door opened an inch.

"Allegiant Stadium is still under construction," a voice said through the small gap. "The building ain't open yet."

"I'm Nick's friend," I replied.

The gap widened. An eyeball looked me up and down.

"All right."

The door swung wide. An enormous fat black man, probably six-foot-eight and four-hundred pounds, stepped aside. I noticed how big his feet were.

"They down on the field," he said, pointing down a long corridor.
"That way."

"On the field?"

"On the field," he said again.

I started walking.

The place was massive. Built warehouse style, with open metal beams and conduits, everything was shiny and new. Bigfoot followed ten feet behind me occasionally shouting out direction changes.

"Left. Open that door. Go down those stairs."

I did as instructed and soon found myself before a pair of large metal doors.

"Go on," he said.

I pushed the crash-bar and stepped through.

I was at field level looking up. The interior was gigantic. I was ringed by tens of thousands of empty seats. Most of the lights were out but a few illuminated the Raiders logo at midfield. Folding tables and chairs had been added, enough for a large group, but only a small gathering of people milled about. I started walking that way, passing a small pile of clothing as I drew near. Soon people became recognizable. I saw a naked Tasha sitting on Nick's lap. I saw several nude men walking around, each of them, judging by their large swinging dicks, actors in the porn industry. Nude women I did not recognize flitted from person to person. Everyone was laughing and drinking and smoking. A large black man moved aside and I saw a naked Kandi sitting on Otis's lap. She'd placed her legs outside his so her pussy rested inches above his soft black cock. That black hose had enough length to reach the seat cushion and then lay flat. Otis saw me and waved, chuckling.

"Did you catch the wild goose?" he teased.

A naked black man seated next to him laughed too. I presumed that would be his friend, Germaine.

"I did," I answered, eyeing Kandi suspiciously, wondering if anything had happened already, wondering if I'd missed something.

"Glad you could make it," a feminine voice said.

I turned. Janet and Brad were part of a smaller group. Both were nude. Janet had a lovely body, especially for her age, but Brad had a dad-bod. He seemed not to mind. Surrounded by hot hung men parading around naked in front of his wife, Brad had not a care in the world. I did not feel the same.

I gestured to Kandi.

"Honey," I said. "Can you get off his lap and come here please?"

Otis raised a hand.

"Hold on," he said, gesturing to everyone present. "Don't crash this party with all that negative energy. We're having a good time here. Don't let your hang-ups ruin everybody's fun."

I sent my eyes around the gathering. Everyone was having a good time. Everyone except me. My gaze landed on Nick and Tasha and my friends smiled hopefully.

"Otis knows the security guys," Tasha said. "There's no chance we get caught. The building doesn't open for months."

"We're all having a little party," Kandi echoed.

She seemed calm and relaxed but I know my wife. She was nervous. I saw the tension in her body. I took a few seconds to realize it was not fear or anxiety, but sexual arousal that gave her body that alert tightness. She was thrilled to find herself in this situation.

My mind flew back to that night in the cabin five years ago. We'd done something then that Kandi had loved, something that Kandi thoroughly enjoyed, something that Kandi had wished to do again, but we never did. Now circumstances had dropped her into another sexual situation. I saw in her eyes she hoped I wouldn't fuck things up, she desperately hoped I'd stay calm, ride things out, go with the flow. Since I was sure if I caused trouble they'd just throw me out and lock the door behind me, I said nothing.

A large table had been set up and covered with many bottles of booze and lines of red plastic cups. Two steps took me there and I poured a tall shot of whiskey. Three, fifty-five-gallon trash cans were spaced evenly around us. Whoever had set this up expected a much larger crowd. I wondered who said what to whom to reduce us to such an intimate handful.

I promised myself to avoid getting drunk as I suspected I'd need to stay attentive. I downed the drink, coughed, and poured another, casually returning to a spot in front of Otis. I saw in her eyes that Kandi had smoked in addition to drinking. She leaned back against Otis, her toes on the real grass, her ass on his lower abs.

His slumbering black cock rested dangerously close to her pussy.

"No hard feelings?" Otis chuckled. "I had to get you out of there."

"No," I said. "You got me good. I bolted like a rabbit. I should have asked some questions but I panicked." I looked at Germaine. "Nothing personal."

He smiled.

"I upset a lot of husbands," he said, raising his red plastic cup.

Otis offered a large fist and I bumped it with my own. His arm had risen under Kandi's and after the bump his hand landed on her upper thigh. He watched me closely for a reaction but I was trapped. I pretended not to notice and took a sip of whiskey. Maybe I would need to get drunk.

I thought about confronting Nick and Tasha but what could I say? We'd come here of our own volition. We knew the event was for the porn industry. We're not naïve and Kandi is a fully functioning adult. If she was here now, naked on a black man's lap, she'd put herself there. She's my wife but I don't own her.

Otis casually slid his hand up her thigh. Kandi noticed, glancing nervously at me. She was being wild and having fun, doing crazy shit before she was old and gray, but I knew there was more going on here than just that. These men were accustomed to a certain kind of life, with certain kinds of women. Just watching the other people here told me what was normal for all of them, what expectations they all held. Kandi was in over her head but didn't fully realize it.

Germaine passed a joint. Otis told Kandi to take it and hold it to his lips so he could take a drag. She did and he did. After, she held it to her own. The cherry glowed bright red. Otis circled her waist with his free arm, helping her stay seated. The knuckle of his thumb grazed the underside of her breast. I know she felt it. She did nothing, allowing her tit to rest on his hand. She gave me another nervous glance. She was dancing along the edge, flirting with danger and the unknown and thrilled to do so.

I lifted my eyes to the stadium. We were in here without the powers that be knowing. If management ever found out, if the city or the owner ever found out, that security guard would be fired. All the security guards would be fired. But for now, the place was dead. It would be an architectural wonder once it opened and the Raiders filled the seats with screaming fans. Now, it was a towering carcass sitting on the desert floor. All the offices and suites were dark. Level after level rose from the grass, all of them murky and unused.

"That's enough Otis time," I heard Germaine say.

I returned my attention to my new friends. Germaine caught Kandi by the wrist and pulled. Otis let her go, smiling and hitting the joint again. Kandi took dainty steps and prepared to settle on Germaine's lap but the man guided her hips, turning her to face him. He patted a knee.

"Climb on," he said. "Face me."

Kandi rested her hands on his shoulders, carefully placing her feet. She pulled, lifting her hips to settle on his lap and coming to rest with her knees behind his hips. The position was awkward and climbing higher didn't help her. His chair was too small. She'd squashed his penis under her thigh so he had her rise to flop his long dick up against his stomach. When Kandi resettled, the underside of his dick split her labia as she slid into place. Her tits were in his face and they both chuckled.

"This is not comfortable," he said.

"No. Your chair is tiny."

Neither moved. Otis passed the joint over and Germaine took a hit and then Kandi followed. Germaine shifted his hips, seeking comfort, and Kandi tried to help.

"All right," Germaine said. "I guess you should turn around. Sit on my lap like you sat on his."

Kandi rose and turned but she missed what she'd caused. Trapped against the heat of her pussy, Germaine had turned solid. Not fully erect but well on his way. Her closeness had gotten to him. He put a hand on her naked hip and, oblivious, she let him guide her backward. She turned to smile at me.

Just sexy harmless fun, right? Just a little party, right?

What she did not see, and I did not see until too late, was Germaine's free hand secretly holding his black cock like a spike. Kandi backed towards the man, naively inching her pussy closer to being harpooned.

Her face changed as it happened: shock, surprise, fear, and then a wave of pleasurable sensations burying all else. Her eyes closed, her face melted, her body sagged. She sank onto his cock without hesitation, smoothly gliding down his pole. Her mouth opened as the feeling spread. He stretched her cunt in every direction but that was only part of what overwhelmed her. I saw it on her face and in her eyes: a black cock filled her. The taboo was shattered. She held a black man trapped, her tight pussy enveloped him, encased him in her warm, wet, white cunt. She was thrilled beyond measure, squeezing his solid shaft, the pleasure building beyond anything she'd known. She clamped her eyes shut.

"She love that black dick," Otis mumbled.

"It's her first," I said.

Otis grunted and rose from his chair. One long step placed him in front of her face. He lifted his heavy cock in one hand and aimed it at her open mouth. She didn't even know he was there. Should I shout a warning? Maybe. Should I at least make a comment, speak so she opened her eyes and saw him there? Probably. But I didn't. I watched the black head slide in. Kandi's lips instinctively closed around him. Then her eyes flew open. Her hands went to his hips to push him away but Germaine chose that moment to pull her hips firmly down on his cock. She groaned loudly around the penis in her mouth and her eyes fluttered in pleasure. Her cheeks dented and she sucked hard.

Neither black man looked at me. Any husband that brings his wife to a porn ceremony deserves whatever happens to him. I'd brought her here. I'd left her alone. I'd made no protest once I found her again.

Otis held her head and began fucking her mouth. He was too big to do much but the sight sent my mind tumbling. Kandi kept her eyes squeezed shut, dazed by the twin black beasts working her from each end. Germaine moved her hips up and down, fucking her body on his meat. I caught occasional glimpses of her sopping wet pussy, forced into a large ring by his girth. Otis continued to work his fat cock farther into her mouth. Kandi was stuffed but made no effort to free herself.

All I did was watch.

I could say I was in shock but I don't think that's true. My gaze crept over every inch of the scene before me. Kandi's hot little body swung between them like a ragdoll but she was delighted. She needed no rescuing.

Germaine stood but kept himself impaled. Kandi's legs hung to the ground, toes straining and scrambling for the grass. He grabbed an ass cheek with each hand and pumped his black cock deep. Otis did the same.

"You knew this would happen," Janet said, gently.

She stood on my left. I'd not heard her approach.

"You may have a hard time admitting that to yourself but it's true," she continued. "More than that: you wanted this to happen. That's why you stand and watch."

"It's beautiful, don't you think?" Brad said, on my right.

He'd approached undetected too. I turned to look at him and found my new friend was jacking off to Kandi, masturbating to my wife's infidelity. His penis looked a little small in his hand. He smiled at me and a wave of mixed emotions swept through my brain. I was unsure how I felt about someone masturbating to Kandi getting fucked.

Otis and Germaine cared not at all that we watched. They had the hot little white wife they'd lusted after all night and they were content. They were eager to get off, to empty their nuts inside her.

Just like Nick had done all those years ago.

Otis yanked a chair close and put Kandi on all fours on it, facing backward. Germaine stayed with her pussy, holding his cock in one hand like a spear. They got my wife balanced on that chair and then assumed their positions: Otis with her mouth and Germaine lined up to pierce her cunt again. They sank their cocks deep. They began to work their hips back and forth, pumping my wife. Otis would sometimes stop and allow Kandi to adjust to his size in her mouth, but that was only so he could stuff another inch in. Soon they laughed and fucked her hard from both ends.

"Let's spread some icing," Otis finally said.

"Sorority Girls Three," Germaine chuckled.

Otis nodded. The men pumped harder and faster and Kandi groaned at the massive amount of cock in her. Germaine reached under and played with her clit and my wife sucked huge air in through her nose. Her groan built into a muffled shriek and then she orgasmed, clamping her pussy around Germaine like a vise. He muttered something about how good it felt and pumped faster.

As if on cue, both men pulled out and forced Kandi out of the chair and onto her knees. They jerked their cocks fast, aiming the tips at Kandi's face. Otis fired the first blast, a long rope of jizz from her chin to her eyebrow. Germaine followed close behind, spurting a huge dollop of pearly white cum onto her cheek. Kandi opened her mouth wide and the men began to pump out fountains of sperm, frosting my wife's pretty face with abundant loads. They moaned from the force of their orgasms but Kandi laughed with delight. Hot streak after hot streak painted her face and pooled near her eyes and on her tongue. I lost sight of her wiggling pick appendage beneath a sea of milk. She held their fluid in there, collecting their ejaculate for them to see. We all watched in amazement as my loving wife closed her lips and swallowed their combined batter.

I thought they were finished but Kandi grabbed Otis by the hips because he was closest and opened wide. The man jabbed his cock to the back of her throat and she closed her lips around the shaft. Otis pushed and Kandi sucked, pulling the last shots of sperm out of his nuts. He moaned loudly, spurting his last drops down her gullet. My wife pulled his dick free with a pop and laughed.

"More," she said, avoiding me. "More, more, more!"

The black men chuckled.

"All right sweetheart," Germaine said. "Just give me a minute."

He wandered away, flaccid black cock swaying. Tasha approached, a look of wonder on her pretty face.

"What did I miss?" she asked.

Otis helped Kandi to her feet and Janet helped wipe all the semen from her face. I couldn't answer. I couldn't speak.

"Wow," Tasha said, realizing what had happened. "I missed a lot."

She slipped an arm through mine and turned me away, leading me back to the chair she'd shared with Nick.

"You guys jumped in with both feet," she said. "I never expected this. I thought you'd have a drink, say hello, and then head for home after we received our award. I never dreamed you'd stay and become a part of this way of life."

I was staring at her swaying tits. They were big but sweet Jesus, they were lovely. I sometimes caught the slit of her bald pussy as she strode. Since Kandi had gotten some extracurricular, shouldn't I? Nick had wandered off somewhere so Tasha and I took his chair. I sat and Tasha plopped her ass across my thighs, filling my field of view. My eyes traveled her gorgeous body. She grinned, enjoying the attention.

"I've always loved the way you look at me," she said.

Some men passed carrying a table, but I thought nothing of it.

Tasha ran her hands up her stomach and over the twin mounds of her tits. She laughed as my eyes followed. I dropped my gaze to her slit. Her inner lips protruded slightly. She had a pretty pussy.

She started talking about life in the business, how nervous she was when she made her first feature film, but I wasn't listening. I was still in shock by what Kandi had done and naked Tasha sitting on my lap. I gave her half an ear and continued to gawk at her beauty. I heard a woman's voice cry out in pleasure but paid no heed. Tasha's nipple was mere inches from my mouth. The woman's voice cried again but I barely noticed, anything that wasn't Tasha existed in the background now.

Suddenly, understanding rushed to the forefront of my brain.

That was Kandi's voice.

I tried to see around Tasha but each time she leaned to block my view. She held my face in her hands and stared into my eyes.

"Let her have her fun," she said earnestly. "She's wanted this for a long time."

I realized Tasha had played me, moving me away from Kandi, distracting me, shielding me from what she knew was coming. I'd been outwitted for the second time tonight. I forced her aside to see for myself.

They'd placed Kandi on the table, face up. A handful of men circled her. I saw soft cocks draped over her ankles, shins, thighs, wrists, and arms. One laid across her throat. A man stood at the head of the table, leaning far over my wife so his large scrotum filled her mouth. Another man was on his knees at the foot of the table, eating my wife's pussy. I watch a man take Kandi's hand and place his penis in it. My wife began jerking his meat, making his balls bounce.

"She's tried talking to you about it," Tasha said. "Since that night at the cabin. She learned something about herself. Nick and I showed her something. She says she's tried to share her feelings with you but couldn't get through."

We watched Kandi for a minute in silence. She'd filled her other hand with dick. The man in her mouth had retreated to feed her the head and the man eating her pussy stood, angling his hard cock for her opening. He pushed in. I felt Tasha turn her attention to me. She watched my face for several heartbeats and then grinned.

"I knew it," she said. "In this business you learn fast. You're one of those guys. I suspected after that night but watching you now I know for sure. I told Kandi to just go for it, that you'd be fine. Janet told her the same thing. You are one of those guys but you just don't know it yet."

Men had descended on Kandi like hyenas. They sucked and nibbled every inch of her body. There was a man on each nipple and several men scattered all around her body, licking and sucking flesh. She wriggled under them like a serpent, stroking the dicks she held, bucking her hips against the cock in her pussy, sucking hard on the cock in her mouth. Tasha toyed with the front of my pants. Moments later Kandi spit the dick from her mouth to cry out in orgasm, a piercing, haunting sound. She'd climaxed with everything she had, body and soul.

"Would you like to move closer?" Tasha whispered. "Would you like to watch her close up?"

I couldn't speak so I nodded instead.

"All right," she said. "But undress. You don't want to be the only person wearing clothes. That would make everyone uncomfortable, including you. I'll help you take your clothes off."

She did.

A minute later I was naked, Tasha's face an inch from my penis as she helped with my socks. She looked up at me, my dick almost touching her cheek. My damn thing twitched with excitement.

"Do you want me to put that in my mouth?" she asked, sounding more turned on than I was.

"Yes," I rasped.

"Me too," she said.

She ran her fingertips up my shaft like she played a flute. She stood, grasping my dick and tugging me towards Kandi. I followed.

"You have no idea how sexual Kandi is," she said over her shoulder. "She's as bad as me, maybe worse. That ho fucking loves dick. Has she told you that?"

We drew closer. I heard Kandi's gasps and moans. I heard the men slurping and grunting. Kandi was circled by big hard erections now, men waiting their turn with her. The scene was out-of-body, surreal. Each time I tried to grasp what I saw, my gaze would drop to Kandi's sweet face, my sweet wife, lost in a pile of male flesh. My mind would retreat, refusing to accept what I saw. I jumped from the vein covered cock fucking her mouth to the vein covered cock pumping her tight pussy. That was my wife. I could barely comprehend what I was seeing.

"Keep watching," Tasha murmured, crouching.

I felt her mouth swallow my dick. I was swaddled in hot wet flesh. Her tongue swirled around my crown. I groaned.

Kandi jerked the dicks in her hands and sucked hard on the penis in her mouth, but it was the cock in her pussy, that gleaming pillar of meat sliding in and out, that held my gaze. I was beyond fascinated. I was beyond mesmerized. Another man, a stranger, was inside her, using her, feeling her from the inside and enjoying the pleasure of her tight wet pussy. I looked at the ground, stunned. The Raiders' logo stared back at me. I shifted my gaze to Tasha and my stiffening penis gliding in and out of her mouth. Her eyes held laughter. Not laughter from scorn or mockery but laughter from joy and delight. She was showing me something new and better, something she and Nick had known about a long time and were thrilled to share with people they loved. Intimate love-making between two people was wonderful but that's not all there is. Making love can be so much more. Sex can be so much more.

The man fucking Kandi's pussy mumbled something about getting close and then thrust a few times hard and fast before holding his cock all the way in and groaning. He was shooting sperm into my wife! Tasha's mouth suddenly felt a thousand times better and I almost lost my load. I whipped my dick free. She reached for it but I pushed her face away.

"No!" I growled. "I'll cum."

She giggled with delight.

"I knew it," she beamed.

I hardly heard her. Every ounce of my being was absorbing the details of my wife's fertilization. That man was pumping a gallon of sperm, emptying his balls in her unprotected uterus. This was not Nick. This was not someone as close to my heart as Kandi herself. This was a stranger. I'd never seen something so wrong and so hot, so erotic and so exciting. He finished and backed out, his thick cock leaving Kandi gaping, sticky jizz dripping from her hole. I stared, astonished.

Kandi slid off the table to her knees. Her head fell back. Her jaw opened. She mumbled and the men gathered around, jerking off, aiming at her open mouth. One by one they spurt, spraying cum all over her face and tits, filling her mouth with hot milk. As each man drained he backed away, wiping his cock clean on her face or her long hair. She was a mess.

Once they were done, Kandi closed her mouth and, eyes wild and gleeful, swallowed those loads. I saw her throat roll. Her eyes fluttered again. She was almost overcome by her own sluttiness, freed at last.

My spit-covered dick waved in the air, hard and throbbing, on the razor's edge of climax. Tasha looked so proud of herself.

Kandi's crowd began to thin. Only then I noticed Germaine and Otis watching from the side. Soon Kandi sat alone, licking her lips and wiping cum off. Tasha left me to go to my wife, helping her clean up. She spoke and Kandi's head snapped around, seeing me for the first time. A guilty look flashed across her face until her gaze dropped to my pulsating penis. Tasha whispered something, probably that she'd sucked me while I watched, and Kandi grinned. My wife rose and came to me, kissing me with a sticky, spicy mouth.

"I should have made you listen," she said. "I should have fought harder to be heard. I gave up."

"I had no idea," I mumbled.

"I tried many times over the years," she said. "I even tried during sex, talking dirty, sharing thoughts and ideas."

I thought back over our years together. I remembered the beginnings of conversations I'd ended abruptly, uncomfortable by the direction they'd turned. I remembered her efforts to discuss fantasies and vulnerability, her desires that we share our most dangerous thoughts. I'd turned away in those moments, frightened by what might be said, too afraid to expose myself honestly to my beloved wife. Now here we were. Kandi was covered in shiny droplets, dried semen tracks all over her. She smelled of sperm and sweat.

"Are you mad?" she asked. "Do you still love me?"

Before I could answer her fingers wrapped around my stiff dick.

"I could take this as my answer," she said. "But I'd rather hear the words come out of your mouth."

"I'm not angry," I croaked. "I still love you."

"We have a lot of catching up to do," she murmured. "A lot."

I nodded agreement, trying hard not to cum from her touch.

Chapter 8

Kandi was Nick's date, Tasha was mine.

The arrangement was Kandi's idea.

The awards ceremony was two months behind us. Nick and Tasha were in town for the weekend, visiting for a Vegas Halloween bash. Tickets were a thousand dollars apiece. Nick and Tasha had been given four by their new studio.

Kandi and I never spoke about the night of the awards ceremony. No deep conversations, anyway. We tried in fits and starts but baring your soul to another is no easy thing. I assured her I was okay with what happened but much preferred to just get on with our lives. I tried to be more forthcoming, I truly did, but heart to heart conversations are not my thing. A leopard doesn't change his spots. Not that fast. I promised I would work on expressing myself more. I might be a hard man to talk to but I'm not stupid. I told Kandi her happiness was important so she should act on her feelings. If she ever crossed a line, if she ever went too far, I promised to say something and no hard feelings. We were exploring a new way.

That worked for her. Our sex life had been intense. No adventures with others but what we'd done at the cabin and that night of the awards ceremony gave us material enough to supercharge our fucking. We couldn't talk about feelings of vulnerability but we could sure talk about hot sex.

Then Nick and Tasha said they were coming to Vegas for Halloween and asked if they could stay with us. I said yes, but I was nervous. I knew I was agreeing to more than just a sleepover. Kandi was delightfully surprised.

"You know I'll try to seduce him," Kandi said.

I said nothing. My wife licked her lips.

Now we rode in the back of a Hummer limo on our way to the party. Tasha sat close to me, holding my hand and resting her head on my shoulder. I felt her warm breath on my ear. Kandi was glued to Nick.

The girls had dressed as the two adversarial women from The Mummy: Evelyn Carnahan and Anck Su Namun. Kandi was Evelyn and Tasha was Anck Su Namun, and their Egyptian costumes, taken from the film, were painted directly on their skin. They were essentially nude except for the sandals they wore and the wrap which would allow them to pass through the casino. Once inside the event, the wraps would be checked at the coat room and our women would spend the night secretly naked in front of hundreds. Tasha had spent plenty of time naked in front of hundreds but Kandi was a nervous wreck. Excited but also worried she didn't look good enough. She did.

Nick and I were their Egyptian honor guard. We wore short white skirts called shendyt, the same garment the pharaohs wore, and the headdress seen on the Sphinx, called nemes. Our bodies were painted with hieroglyphs. At our hips were fake Egyptian swords called khopesh made from hard plastic. Tasha had insisted Nick and I wore nothing under our shendyt and Nick was man-spreading. His long, thick, soft cock hung down the front of the bench on the other side of the limo. Kandi clung to him like Tasha clung to me, legs draped over thighs and arms circling waists. Kandi whispered little comments into his ear from time to time, making him grin, but I never caught what she said. Tasha leaned closer.

"Are you looking at Nick's cock?" Tasha murmured, showing two can play the whisper game.

"Sometimes," I admitted. "Hard not to when he spreads like that."

"Yes," she agreed. "I look too. I like knowing Nick will fuck Kandi with it later tonight. I like how we all know that's true but none of us talk about it. Makes it sexier, I think. Builds tension."

I swallowed hard, glancing at his dangling organ.

"How's that make you feel?" she purred, rubbing against me. "Right now those big balls are manufacturing jizz. Nick cums a lot but I bet those babies are in overdrive for Kandi. He especially loves fucking Kandi."

"Because she's mine?"

"That's right," Tasha whispered. "Because she's your wife. Because you're his best friend. Because we all have a long history together. It's sweeter."

Tasha enjoyed watching Nick fuck hot babes. She loved his power over them. She loved what his cock did to them. She loved that he was utterly devoted to her and yet could turn other women into whimpering sluts. The more women that wanted Nick, and the more desperately they wanted him, the better she felt about herself. Tasha's position was unusual for a woman, but Tasha was an unusual woman.

"It's complicated," I said.

"You mean Kandi fucking other men?"

"Yes."

Nick reached for Kandi's breast but she smacked his hand.

"You'll smear my body paint," she scolded. "Wait until after the party."

She gave him a quick kiss on the lips.

"The paint is guaranteed not to smudge," he retorted. "It says so on the can."

She ignored him.

The exchange was pure happy-couple bantering, and it stung. They'd exchanged a lot of little intimacies like that tonight and honestly, watching her suck his dick would be easier to take. They were so familiar, so comfortable, so attracted to each other I felt more threatened by these displays and what they revealed than lustful acts. Sex breeds intimacy. I dated girls in college I only developed feelings for after we started fucking. Nick and Kandi were connecting on ever deeper levels.

Kandi reached under his shendyt to cups his cock and balls.

"You horny?" she asked.

He ran his eyes over her painted body.

"Yeah," he said. "You look delicious."

She played with his genitalia for a minute and then stroked his shaft.

"You better leave that alone," he said. "I can't get out of the limo with a hard on. Not while I'm wearing this short skirt."

They both chuckled.

The limo driver pulled under the valet awning. We covered the women and ran inside. After security checked our passes they directed us to a special entrance so we could skip the massive lines. Velvet ropes kept us headed towards the venue and, after the metal detector proved our swords were plastic, we were ushered inside.

The only light came from the colorful spots and flashing strobes. Away from those, the place was pitch black. Loud, pulsing music vibrated my body down to the bones. Everyone was in costume and I don't know when Halloween became the sluts on parade holiday but I condone the move. The men and women present wore almost nothing.

"You were right," Tasha yelled, gesturing with her chin towards three women standing near each other, all dressed as Harley Quinn, a costume I'd talked her out of by warning there'd be a lot of them in attendance.

"You're the only Anck Su Namun here," I said. "Unique, just like you."

A man dressed as Augustus Caesar walked by and stopped dead. He stared at Tasha's face and then caught himself.

"I'm sorry," he shouted. "But are you Tasha Monroe?"

Tasha nodded, coy.

"Oh my God!" he yelled. "Let me grab my friends. They'll never believe me."

She touched his arm tenderly. He froze.

"Baby," she said, gently. "I'm here for fun and a night off. Can we keep me our secret? I'd rather not draw attention."

He looked embarrassed.

"I'm sorry. Of course. It's just wonderful to meet you." he swung his attention to the rest of us, settling on Nick. "I gotta shake your hand," he said.

They shook. Nick introduced Kandi and me, and Caesar seemed humbled, promising to keep Tasha's identity to himself.

"I greatly appreciate it," Tasha said, stepping close to the man.

Her hand slipped inside his toga. He looked shocked and then amazed. Tasha found his penis and stroked a few times, her arm swaying gently. Caesar bit his bottom lip and remained frozen, wanting the moment to last forever.

"I greatly appreciate it," she said again.

Caesar nodded eagerly and Tasha kissed his cheek. We moved deeper into the room, locating three open stools along a wall where the women could drop their purses. This would be home base.

"I gotta piss," Nick announced.

"Us too," Kandi said, taking Tasha's arm.

By default I got elected to remain so I hopped on a stool and searched for the waitress. I watched the three of them vanish into the crowd, my gaze quickly drawn to the fantastic costumes and abundant displays of sexy female flesh. My eyes landed on a group of four, two couples, farther down along the wall. I studied them a moment and realized they were like us: married, but flirting with the lines that divide. While in her husband's arms, a wife leaned over to kiss the other husband. He took it farther, cupping her breast. They were dressed like Neanderthals in tiny fur bathing suits so her breast popped out into his hand. He sucked the nipple quickly before tucking her tit in place again. They all laughed.

It occurred to me I should ignore the anguish I felt each time Nick touched Kandi.

My marriage was safe. Nick was no threat. Kandi wanted to fuck him but not marry him. Kandi was far more sexual than I'd realized, keeping herself hidden all those years. The walls had come down. I would be better served joining in and helping than cowering in fear over what I might lose. I resolved to work on it.

The three of them returned from the bathroom and I grabbed Kandi and kissed her fiercely. I let her feel how much I loved her, how devoted I was. I wanted her to know I'd be with her through anything. She got it. At first her kiss was business as usual but then she felt the connection. She melted in my arms. Her body warmed and our arms encircled and we kissed like we were in love and knew we always would be.

"Wow," she murmured, pulling back once the kiss ended and looking at me in a new light. "What brought that on?"

"I realized how deeply I love you," I said.

She looked smitten. I was satisfied. She floated to Nick, snuggling under his arm because he was her date but she kept her burning eyes on me.

The place filled rapidly and the party seemed to explode. People went nuts. The music carried us away but there was plenty of drinking and smoking too. The crowd moved to the rhythms of various drugs and sexual tension filled the air, growing by the minute. No way could that many hot and sexy women, wearing almost nothing, be in the same small space and not have everyone get horny. The crowd seethed. We danced and talked and laughed and Kandi drew ever closer to Nick, fueling my burning lust. I saw her rub her body on him constantly, like a cat seeking affection. My declaration of love had left her confident and empowered and horny.

A man dressed as Tarzan approached our group. Nick recognized him immediately, throwing his arms in a bear hug and introducing him as Peter. Nick continued the introduction, explaining that Kandi was my wife. Peter surveyed Kandi glued to Nick and understanding filled his eyes. He got it.

"Pete used to star in skin-flicks too," Nick said. "But now he just produces them."

"You're a good-looking man," Kandi teased.

"He's hung too," Nick offered. "You'd like him."

Pete chuckled but Kandi looked around to see if anyone was watching us and what she could get away with. Nick realized what she was thinking and told me to move to my left, forming a wall of bodies. He had Tasha move too. Kandi and Pete were screened from the room.

"Get down there and suck his cock," Nick told my wife.

I got jealous. I hated he could order her around and she'd so willingly obey. Nick directing my wife to pleasure another man lit a fire in my gut. Envy burned me alive. Pete turned his back to the wall and Kandi sank to one knee.

My dick hardened under my shendyt. My wife pulled Tarzan's thong aside and out flopped a hefty penis. She lifted the appendage on a thumb, bending the shaft with her fingers and aiming the flared head at her mouth. Pete threw a smile at Nick and then watched my wife work his dick. Kandi opened wide and stuffed him in. We all watched Kandi worship the cock Nick had given her. Tasha kept glancing at me, titillated by my reaction.

"I gotta get some too," Nick said, putting his back to the room and lifting the front of his shendyt. His dong popped in Kandi's face. She looked up and then slapped the head, hard. Nick winced and we all laughed.

"What the hell?" he chuckled. "Give me some too."

"Put that away," she replied. "Don't be rude to your guest."

Nick dropped the front of his skirt. The shendyt bulged suspiciously. Kandi met Pete's eyes and wiggled his dick to the back of her mouth. She would take advantage of his flaccid state, working him deep as her lips slowly crawled to the base. Her throat bulged as she lodged his cock in her gullet.

"Goddamn," Pete breathed.

Nick met my gaze.

"She hit me hard," he complained, rubbing the front of his skirt.

I had to smirk. Kandi sucked until Tarzan who is Pete was upright and throbbing. His dick was big. Only a little longer than mine but much thicker. To his dismay, Kandi tucked him inside his thong. He looked hurt.

"What?" he said. "What? Aren't you going to finish me off?"

Kandi giggled.

"I want to dance," she said, grabbing his hand and spinning him towards the dance floor. "Let's go."

His thong bulge looked absurd, like he'd stuffed it with socks. Fully erect and pulsing, the tent at his crotch was hilarious. Kandi was having some fun with these guys. Pete entered the dance floor with her, his enormous bulge comically half a beat behind every move he made. Tasha, Nick, and I laughed our asses off. Pete was a good sport.

I watched Kandi flirt on the dance floor with the man she'd just met. She was essentially nude, wearing only a coat of paint over her skin. Her tits and ass bounced and swayed and everyone noticed. The lighting was shitty and that helped make her bold but I was seeing something here. I was witnessing a woman blossom.

The party raged and we raged along with it. Hours zipped by. We made many new friends. Pete disappeared eventually, probably with some hot babe he picked up. The club was packed with gorgeous, costumed men and women. There would be a lot of Vegas stories come morning.

We stayed until almost sunrise. The Hummer limo picked us up in valet, different driver, and we told him to drive up and down the Strip for awhile. We weren't ready to call it a night. He pulled away from the casino and Tasha opened the huge sunroof and passenger windows. Warm Vegas air swirled. A gust lifted the front of Nick's shendyt, flashing his hanging cock. Kandi dropped her head to his lap, lifting the dangling meat. She ran a finger along the top vein from head to stomach.

"Isn't it beautiful?" Tasha asked.

"Gorgeous," Kandi replied. "It's a perfectly shaped missile. A nice fat cock rocket. I recently conceded to Paul that what I thought was a love of men was actually an adoration of their dicks. They fascinate me. Nick's big cock is perfect."

Nick laughed.

"I know a lot of guys in the industry bigger than me," he said.

Kandi shrugged.

"It's not just size," she said. "Bigger is better, yes, but there's a limit. Your cock is just right: a little too big. I'm sure Tasha agrees."

"I do," Tasha said.

"But the size and shape are not my favorite things about your dick," my wife admitted. "My favorite thing is what it does to women. I've seen all your movies. I was one of those women years ago in that cabin. I watch you fuck them and I know exactly what they're feeling. I got goose bumps remembering."

Kandi had watched Nick's films online? That was news to me. Yet another conversation we should have had but didn't. I bet she tried to talk about it with me but I paid no attention. Kandi held Nick's cock, turning him this way and that, examining each thick inch. She weighed him on her palm. He watched her. We all watched her. Tasha had a strange look on her face, like she was proud of Nick's power over women.

"I remember that night at the cabin," Tasha said. "I saw what Nick did to you. That night is why I suggested to Nick we try porn. I got so hot watching him melt you. We owe our career to you guys. I'm glad I can tell you that. I wasn't sure what that night did to your relationship. I was so relieved when I heard you got married."

"I was surprised when Paul asked me to be his wife. I worried that night had stained me in his eyes, tarnished me in some way. But then our sex was better than ever afterwards so I knew he still treasured me."

She lifted Nick's soft, spongy cock upright.

"Even after I fucked another man," she added.

She stared at his dick. We all did.

"How many women have you fucked with it, Nick?" Kandi asked.

"How many women have had this thing inside them?"

"That depends," Tasha answered. "Are you asking industry, civilian, or total?"

Kandi tipped the soft cock to the left, then the right, then the left, watching the shaft flop back and forth. She played with it like a toy.

"Total," she said, eyes slightly wild. "How many women total."

"Two-hundred eighty-two," Tasha said. "But that doesn't include the girls he fucked before he met me."

Nick rolled his eyes.

"How can you possibly know that?" he asked.

"A wife knows these things," Tasha said, smiling. "I might not be like other girls when it comes to letting you fuck them, but I still keep track of my man."

"Two-hundred eighty-two," Kandi echoed, amazed, holding Nick's cock in her hands and gazing as if enthralled. "God! I can see their faces. I bet you make them all orgasm. Does he?"

"Pretty much," Tasha boasted. "And these are industry sluts. Not the easiest crowd to get off. Everybody wants to work with Nick."

"You guys are talking about me like I'm not here," Nick said.

"Hush, Baby," Tasha said. "You love it when people talk about you."

"Two-hundred eighty-two," Kandi said again. "I love that I'm just a number lost in there somewhere, like some one-night-stand he used and discarded but that never forgot or got over him."

"That's hot," Tasha said.

We stopped at a red light and a lifted truck pulled next to us. The driver looked inside our limo and saw Kandi holding Nick's thick cock.

"Do it!" he yelled, laughing.

His passenger leaned over to see what was going on. Kandi looked up at them and smiled, then slurped Nick's cock head into her mouth. The guys cheered. We waved to them and the passenger looked surprised.

"Holy shit, Dude," he said, smacking his friend on the chest. "That's Tasha, the porn star!"

"Hi guys," Tasha waved, acting shy.

She lifted my shendyt and slipped my dick into her mouth. I groaned involuntarily. The heat and wet were fantastic, plus watching Kandi handle Nick's cock had me worked up. The guys erupted in cheers. She spun my dick head around with her tongue and my head fell back. I stared at the bright Vegas lights through the sunroof.

The light turned green and traffic forced our vehicles apart. Tasha sat up to watch Kandi continue sucking Nick.

"You should fuck him," Tasha said, breathless. "I want to see your face as his cock slides in."

Kandi moaned and sucked faster, working his shaft with her hands too. I expected Nick to close his eyes but he didn't, choosing instead to watch my wife adore his inches. His balls were lifting, tightening and drawing close to his body. I knew the sperm they contained would soon be shot into Kandi. I groaned again.

"I know, Honey," Tasha told me. "And I'm sorry. But I want to see this. I get so turned on when Nick fucks a woman I know, especially a married one."

Frustrated, I took my penis in hand. I sat up and watched my wife drag her gleaming tongue up Nick's long shaft. She leaned away long enough to hold him at the base and slap the head, hard. Nick yelped. Kandi slapped his dick again and then quickly stuffed him as far into her mouth as she could. He grunted in pleasure, blood surging, shaft swelling. Kandi wanted him hard now.

My friend's dick was big but it wasn't just big. It looked strong, curved like a scimitar, topped by a flared helmet head. The veins just beneath the surface formed ridges, making the thing look healthy and full of vitality. Nick's cock was beautiful. I could admit that. The girls had helped me see it through a woman's eyes. Lucky bastard.

"Close enough," Kandi mumbled, impatient.

My wife slid from the seat and put her back to Nick, facing me. She backed a step and reached between her legs, holding his fleshy spike upright and aimed at her slit. She grinned at me. Her fingers did not circle his meaty girth.

"Fucking hot, right?" she asked.

My throat was too constricted to speak so I nodded instead. It was hot but the most exciting aspect to me was Kandi's powerful desire for this man inside her. My penis tingled with lust. My penis strained, throbbing hard.

"Do it," I croaked.

We stopped at another light. The same truck pulled beside us and revved its engine. Two hillbillies with wide, eager eyes watched my wife. The driver licked his lips. Kandi shuffled her feet, placing her legs outside Nick's. Her delicate labia parted slightly. I ran my eyes over her painted costume, giving the moment a surreal, exotic feel.

"That's his wife," Tasha told the guys in the truck, pointing at Kandi and then me.

I was caught, dick in hand, jacking off to my wife with another man.

"Fucking Vegas!" the passenger yelled.

The scene was brutal. My eyes ached. Kandi held herself poised over his pulsing cock, deep longing etched on her face. She desperately wanted Nick inside her. She delayed, savoring the poignant moment she'd waited five years to repeat. Her gaze dropped to his throbbing shaft and flared head. I thought about repeating my command but I wanted this to be Kandi's decision. In the years ahead I wanted to look back at this night and know it was Kandi that chose to fuck Nick. It wasn't something she did for me, it was something she'd done for herself.

Pussy juice leaked from her slit and dribbled on the tip of Nick's cock.

"Oh my God," Tasha whimpered. "Look how badly she wants him. Fuck, that turns me on. Her pussy is literally drooling with want."

Tasha reached between her legs and started masturbating. The light turned green and we started to roll but this time the truck maintained a matching speed. They wanted to see my wife do it. Kandi spread her labia with one hand and rubbed Nick's cock back and forth with the other, smearing her cunt juice around the head. At last she reached her limit and, unable to wait another second, lowered her soaking pussy to his cock. I watched him glide through her opening, piercing her cunt and burrowing deep, each thick inch gathering surrounding flesh as he penetrated her.

The sight was too much to take. I grunted and spurted, too excited to contain myself. A big glob of sperm arched out and dripped down my knuckles. I interrupted my spontaneous orgasm by letting go. My hard penis pulsed and throbbed but no more semen escaped. The guys outside screamed enthusiastically.

"Make a U-turn!" I shouted, humiliated by my sudden loss of control.

They'd seen me ejaculate at my wife's invasion. I wiped my messy knuckles on the car seat as the Hummer swayed sideways. Those fuckers followed us! A horn blast told me they'd executed a dangerous move and then they pulled up next to us again.

Kandi loved the extra attention. Her thighs flexed as she fucked herself on Nick's rampant pole. She'd lift until the head barely remained inside and then drop her cunt down the length of him, moaning as he moved into her guts. Over and over she impaled herself on his gleaming cock. Nick grabbed her hair from behind and pulled like a leash. She was pierced, trapped on his cock. The guys outside screamed wildly.

Tasha gasped and cried out, cumming hard, rubbing her clit furiously. The guys swerved too close, almost crashing. Tasha's arousal infected us all and Kandi hugged herself and screamed, following her friend in a powerful, body-shaking orgasm. Her pussy gushed, wetness dripping from his balls. I dared not touch my dick but the draw was too great. The sights and sounds of my wife cumming were too much to resist. I closed my fingers around the shaft and jerked only a few times before I was seized by an orgasm. I held on as my dick spit cum everywhere. Tasha dove on it mouth first but too late, only catching the last blast of semen. I held her head down to keep my dick in there. The guys screamed again, finally forced to veer off. I heard their engine race.

"Don't move," Kandi whispered, holding her electrified body perfectly still. "Don't move. Just, don't move."

Nick wore a huge grin. He was balls-deep in my wife, her tight pussy clamped like a vise around his shaft. Her nerves were jangled, her mind rattled. She'd cum so hard on him any additional stimulation was too much to take. I saw his big balls lift.

"Oh!" Kandi cried. "What the fuck? Do that again."

Nick's balls lifted once more and I realized he was flaring his buried cock head inside her, expanding his thick shaft against her pussy walls. He did it again and again, forcing blood into his hidden dick and inflating the shaft and head. Kandi slowly melted, delirious with pleasure. Her breathing turned rapid, her arms went limp. Nick steadied her with his hands around her waist, bloating his cock over and over. Kandi covered her face with both hands.

"Fuuuuuuck," she whimpered. "You're going to make me cum again. Fuck! Unngh! God!"

My wife arched her back and orgasmed. Her nipples turned to hard nubs. Her stomach fluttered and goose bumps rose across her skin. Just having Nick expand inside her was enough to get her off. I was floored. Dumbstruck. Kandi whined and wailed and climaxed without moving. Her little opening was stretched into a tight ring around his base and I saw it clenching, gripping his hard shaft.

After that Kandi was useless. She dissolved, turning into a ragdoll. Nick carefully lifted her off his cock and to the seat beside him. His dick stuck straight up, an unyielding spear. I realized I still held Tasha down, which she seemed to like, so I set her free. She saw Nick's rampant erection and moved to take care of her man.

"No!" Kandi barked, lifting a hand to ward off Tasha. "I'll finish him. That's mine."

Tasha smiled and sat next to me. Kandi stood on wobbly legs and climbed onto Nick's lap, facing him. She slid down his belly and his curving weapon naturally arrived at her dripping hole, her bodyweight driving him in. She sagged against his chest, resting a moment. She lifted her head.

"I want to fuck you," she said. "I do. But you've left me so weak. Will you fuck me instead?"

Nick laughed.

"Hell yes," he chuckled.

They kissed as Nick began working his cock in and out. Kandi's cunt was drenched. He churned her insides and held her tightly, mashing her tits against his chest. Her winking asshole stared back at us as we watched Nick fuck my wife.

"Too bad you came," Tasha said. "If you were still hard you could fuck that little asshole. Have you ever fucked her ass?"

"No," I said. "No one has. Before all this our sex life was pure vanilla."

"It won't be anymore. Kandi is a tigress."

Tasha was right. My wife had regained enough strength to slide herself up and down Nick's hard on.

"I want you to cum inside me," Kandi told Nick. "Just like that night. I want to know you're in there."

"Sounds perfect," Nick said.

Kandi looped her arms behind his neck and brought her feet up. She increased her speed until her ass slammed his lap, driving his cock deep on each thrust. Her grunting and gasping grew louder until I witnessed my wife cum on his cock a third time. Nick had been holding back so when she orgasmed, he did too, grabbing her round ass and fucking far up into her. He slowed as he got close and then rammed his cock all the way in and blasted her full of boiling sperm. The moment seared my mind. His fat balls lifted with each new spray of semen and he never seemed to end.

They stayed like that awhile, the Hummer sailing down the Strip. A few vehicles that pulled next to us sat high enough to catch a view and the shocked faces amused me. Tasha snuggled under my arm, happy her man had conquered Kandi again. We were all quiet for a time and then Kandi spoke.

"I'm not ready to go home," she said, lifting her hips off his lap.

She plopped on the seat beside him and explored her hole with a finger. Gobs of hot jizz leaked. She sucked her finger clean and looked at me, then pinched her labia together, sealing him in there.

"You have no idea how hot it is to allow a man inside your body," she said to me. "To feel him in there, to feel him leave some of himself in there."

She was right. I had no idea. I said nothing. She leaned over and hefted Nick's fat cock, marveling at the thing. She squeezed the soft shaft, forcing a drop of semen to form at the tip. She lifted it on a fingertip and offered it to Tasha, who eager sucked the finger clean.

"Men only know how to fuck," Kandi said. "There's more intimacy in being fucked, in giving yourself to someone, in feeling them desire you so much they climax. I think I love making men cum almost as much as I love cumming myself."

She leaned up to kiss Nick.

"Where to next?" she asked. "I'm hornier than ever. I want more cock."

"Me too," Tasha added.

Chapter 9

Nick ended his call and pressed the intercom button. He gave the driver a new address and the Hummer swayed as the man changed lanes. Kandi and Tasha looked at each other nervously.

"Otis and his gang are staying at the Venetian," Nick said, eyeing our women. "He says some of his guys have crashed but most are still awake. They hired a bunch of strippers to party with them and brought some girls back from the club too."

The limo fell silent. Kandi and I watched each other, tension building. Nick and Tasha watched me and Kandi. Moments like this were common to them but for my wife and I, this was an important decision. Nick and I would be excluded. We'd orgasmed already and would be unable to participate until we recovered. Nick did this all the time but until now, I'd been excluded from this process. Kandi had made her own choices. She watched me now, wondering, hoping I would give her to someone else.

This was a big deal. We all knew it. If I was going to protest now was the time. If I remained silent, I was delivering my woman to other men, handsome men, hung men. I was handing her over to be fucked.

I. Said. Nothing.

Tasha turned Kandi towards her and the women kissed. Passions flared. Kandi has always talked about how sexy women can be, but never said much about wanting sex with them. Given our recent discoveries, I figured we were starting over with the exploration of her sexuality. Their hands reached for each other and Nick and I sat back to watch. Kandi may be starting over but I know how to read my wife. Touching and kissing Tasha was exciting but ultimately unfulfilling. Kandi needed hard cock. Kandi needed a man.

We arrived at the Venetian hotel but used a side entrance to hustle the girls inside. They were basically naked under their light wraps so we hurried to the elevators and punched the top floor. Nick looked nervous for the first time in a long time. He wanted to say something but felt he couldn't in front of Tasha. We were locked onto this path now. Nick knew Otis and his gang better than any of us. If my friend was nervous, so was I. We rode the lift skyward. A short walk down the hall and we stood before the door. Otis and his boys were just on the other side. My mouth was dry.

The suite was open and spacious but pedestrian, filled with hotel furniture and hotel art. I only gave the room a glance because there was a lot going on I wanted to see. The cloudy room was filled with naked people and the stench of weed. A short, thin, white guy stood by the bar. Another white guy, tall and thin, stood by the sliding glass door. A third white guy, short and fat, stood by the wide screen television.

The rest of the men in the room were black. They were black and clearly worked with Otis and Nick in the porn industry because pendulous black cocks swung all over the place. There were about a dozen women in the room, all races, but the black girls sat at a large table in the kitchen, talking, looking bored. They'd seen this kind of party too often.

The other women were scattered around the suite, paired up with black guys, kissing or stroking or sucking large black dicks. Until this moment interracial sex had done little for me but seeing this carnal display sent my heart racing. These women adored all that black meat. Their facial expressions and their body language showed how much they loved dark dick. Their lust filled the room, saturating the air. I caught a hint of their aroused scent.

"That's an incredible sight," Kandi said.

I was not the only one deeply affected.

Otis sat in a large chair in front of the television, which played one of his porn films, legs spread wide. Two white girls playfully sucked his cock.

"Welcome," he told us. He waved towards the kitchen. "Drinks are in there." He waved towards the back bedrooms. "Weed is back there. Daryl took it with him."

Kandi slipped away from me, sliding smoothly out from under my arm. My heart sank. She'd fawned over Nick all night only returning to my side as we left the elevator. Her warm presence soothed me. The ease with which she left my side stung. She floated towards Otis and his pillar of dark meat, kneeling to wedge herself between the two women. The women, annoyed by her rude intrusion, backed away to give her room. Kandi held his thick cock upright with both hands. She looked dazed. Nick, Tasha, and I all looked at each other, shocked by Kandi's abrupt departure. Tasha laughed.

"So it's like that, then," she giggled.

She kissed Nick and headed for the back bedrooms. Nick flopped on the couch and pulled out his phone, disinterested in the party.

Suddenly on my own, I sent my eyes around the room again. A tall skinny black guy wearing a small red cowboy hat came by and took the wrists of the two women Kandi had displaced. He led them to a barstool where he sat and leaned back, his long black cock dangling in space. He looked at them and pointed at his soft dick.

"Get to it," he said.

The two women looked incensed. One rolled her eyes.

"You think that's all you have to do?" she asked. "Just present your dick and we'll suck it for you?"

He waited, a smile creeping across his lips. He leaned his elbows on the bar behind him and waited. The ladies dropped their eyes to his cock and then looked at each other.

"He's an asshole," said the first.

"That is a nice cock," said the second.

The first woman's expression turned to lust mixed with embarrassment. Her mouth watered but she hated the cavalier way Cowboy had treated her. She hated that he knew he'd win.

"We can never tell anyone about this," said the first.

The two women bent together, sliding their lips from balls to head, swirling a moment there, and then heading south once more to slather his nuts.

"That's right," the black man said. "That's real good."

He laced his fingers over his ribs.

I moved on to an Asian girl bent over a chair. A muscular black guy held her tiny ass in his hands, ramming home a black cock way too big for her pussy. Next to them a brunette on the floor, older, held her legs spread wide as another black guy plowed her cunt. She moaned nonstop, tossing her head and cumming. One of the white guys studied her with a burning intensity and it dawned on me the three white men standing around watching were husbands to three of the women scattered around the room. Otis and his gang had swept them up from the club, bringing everyone back here for some hardcore sex. Those men were in the same boat as me.

Kandi groaned long and deep.

I swung my attention in time to see the fat black head of Otis's cock compress her tight anal sphincter. Otis had Kandi on all fours, standing over her hips and aiming his black shaft. One hand held his dick and the other her butt cheek. His ass flexed and Kandi groaned again, shaking her head but willingly offering her asshole. What spell had he cast on her? Kandi groaned a third time, reaching back to grab the other ass cheek and pull, spreading herself for penetration. Otis grinned as his black shaft eased through her opening. The head disappeared followed by an inch of dark shaft. He paused, murmuring to Kandi who nodded. Her grimace was a mix of pleasure and pain. Otis shuffled his feet closer and pushed more black inches up her ass.

Her ass.

I gawked. My mind tripped over itself, tumbling down a bottomless pit.

Her ass.

His fat cock in her ass was the only thing in the room. My vision narrowed to his curved and veiny appendage vanishing up her rectum. Kandi was writhing, her face twisted in mind shattering pleasure. She played with her clit as he conquered her forbidden hole, building towards an orgasm that looked to kill her.

"Oh my God!" she screamed.

Kandi's eyes were clamped shut, her mouth open. Otis sank an inch and Kandi groaned again.

"Give it to me," she whimpered. "Give me all of it."

"You sure, Baby?" he asked.

"Yes!" she cried. "It's incredible."

Otis forced nothing. His cock was slick from the saliva of three women but even so his formidable girth stretched my wife obscenely. Just below his invading cock her empty pussy seemed to call to me. I wished my dick hard so desperately I almost cried. I wanted that cunt. I needed that cunt. I urgently wished to join them, to share this historic moment. My entire body ached with want. But my flaccid penis, hidden beneath my shendyt, hung soft. Otis, a stranger, would forever be the man that took her anal virginity. I groaned in frustration.

"Lay on your belly," Otis commanded.

Kandi sank to her stomach, belly to the carpet. He nudged her legs open at the ankles and held himself over her, like he was doing a pushup, and sank deeper. Kandi was losing her mind, squirming in pleasure beneath him, making no moves to escape. My wife lifted her ass, pushed her hips back at him, rolled her little hole around his hard shaft, sliding closer to the root.

"Fuck!" she cried, feeling him farther and farther inside her. "So good!"

She planted her palms on the carpet and shoved herself backward, driving the last of his cock up her ass. She cried out, squealing from mindboggling pleasure. Otis chuckled and there were cheers from around the suite. Others had been watching the drama unfold, watching the big black man fuck the petite white wife. Kandi reached underneath and found her clit, masturbating again.

She was going to cum from a black cock in her ass but Otis beat her to it. The man groaned and buried his fat inches, shaking violently as his cock erupted spitting hot jizz into her bowels.

"Nooooo!" Kandi whined, close but not there yet.

Otis chuckled again, driving his pipe all the way up. His legs trembled, his body clenched. He was spurting a torrent of sperm into her.

"No," Kandi pleaded. "Wait. I'm so close."

Otis shook his head.

"Sorry, Doll, I got there fast. Your ass is tight!"

He held her down with a hand on her back and withdrew his cock like a spear leaving a carcass. Semen still drooled from the tip. Otis kept Kandi pinned while he stood, swapping his hand for his foot. It made no difference. Kandi made no effort to rise. A black guy that had been standing and watching moved in on my wife. He jacked his stiff dick a few times and then knelt behind her, spreading her butt cheeks to find her pussy. He rubbed his cock head around until he found the dip of her hole. She tried to see who probed her but the man pushed her head flat.

"Hold still," he growled. "You're getting another big black cock. That's all you need to know."

Kandi went motionless, wondering which man was about to enter her but eager to get fucked. Her climax waited just out of reach. The man pushed, sliding in easily to her soaking cunt. He grabbed her hips and lifted, leaving her upper torso on the floor. I had a perfect view of his thick black cock sliding in.

Kandi gave up trying to see who fucked her. At this point she didn't care. She had a big cock fucking her again and the orgasm that had just slipped away started building again. Another black guy peeled away from the wall and joined them.

"Let her up," he said, his bass voice rumbling. "I want my cock sucked."

The man in her pussy guided her to all fours. The new man fed his dark cock through her lips and she slurped eagerly, lapping at his hanging balls and sucking hard on the tip. He forced his dick in and my wife gagged but he kept pushing. Veins bulged on her neck. Her face turned red. I expected her to shove him away but instead she grabbed his ass with one hand and pulled, straining to get him into her throat. Both men pushed until their cocks vanished inside her body.

These men had performed this act before. On a silent cue, the first man drew his cock from her pussy. As he slid in again, the man in her mouth withdrew. They shared a knowing look and then hit a rhythm, bobbing their heads in time as they fucked Kandi from both ends. She reached under to rub her clit again.

"This carpet hurts my knees," the man fucking her mouth said. "Let's go grab a bedroom. We're gonna need to spend some time with this bitch."

Kandi moaned. She tried to make them fuck her but both men withdrew and helped her stand. She looked at me, desperate, hoping I did not judge. We both knew she'd let these men do anything they wished. Her eyes were wild, nipples rock hard. She held hands with each, retreating down the hall to an open bedroom. She gave me a last look over her shoulder, teasing, lusty, happy. If she had the stamina for it, she might fuck every man at the party.

I slid down the wall to the floor. All around me black guys fucked married women. Even some of the strippers wore wedding rings. I knew Kandi and I would never go back to the life we had before. She'd denied herself her whole life. Now that she knew, she would never return. I heard Nick's voice.

"Kandi should do amateur porn," he said. "She's got the face, she's got the body. You can could build your own website. It's easy. Start making movies and posting them. She could quit that shitty job and in less than a year make two or three times more."

"My dick isn't big enough to make porn," I said.

Nick chuckled.

"Not with you, dumbass," he said. "There are plenty of men in Vegas with big dicks. Hit the adult clubs, male strip joints. Ask around and you'll find them. Kandi would have no problem recruiting all she could handle."

I saw a few more black guys drift towards the back bedrooms. Kandi was in for a long night. I thought maybe I'd go back and bear witness. With any luck, I'd get hard and take my turn with her.

"Think about it, Paul," Nick continued. "Kandi loves sex. You're going to need to keep up but there's not a man alive that can match women like that. Your dick will not be enough. You'll need to keep her supplied. Tasha's the same way. I was scared at first but then I saw my wife fuck and it was the hottest thing ever."

He slipped his phone into his pocket and turned to face me.

"Tasha and I have never been closer," he said. "We've never felt so much in love. I know that sounds crazy to a person on the outside but trust me, as your oldest and dearest friend. You both will love it."

I considered his idea. The money would be awesome and I had to admit I loved the new sex-fiend Kandi. Could I stand a continuous parade of hot guys banging the shit out of my wife?

Yes.

"I'll talk to her about it," I said. "Later. Probably tomorrow. I'm sure we'll have a ton of questions. Is it okay to hit you up?"

"Of course," he said, grinning.

He rose from the couch and grabbed me in a huge hug. I felt his erection against my leg. I wasn't there yet.

"Now I'm going to go fuck the shit out of Kandi again. Want to join me?"

We headed for the back bedrooms.

Chapter 10

"Let's do something crazy," Kandi said from the passenger seat.

We were driving home from a lovely steak dinner.

"You want to go for it."

I'd recently shared Nick's suggestion.

"I do," she beamed. "It's like we grow up and are forced to choose between two lives: the one that society picks for us or one we'd choose for ourselves. I tried the ordinary, middle of the road, predictable existence that we are sold as most desirable but I was never happy. I want something juicy. I want passion and excitement. I want to smash all those stupid rules built on a foundation of fear and go drain the succulent, ripe, thirst-quenching elixir that we were truly meant to enjoy."

I admired her passion. She saw this differently from me, more layered, more complex. Choosing this life would meet a wide variety of needs for her. For me, I just wanted to get off watching my wife fuck hung studs. If she was happy, I was happy.

"Tasha agrees with me," Kandi said. "She says Nick is right, I should do porn, but I'm not as pretty as her. My body isn't amazing like hers. She's a pro. Nobody will want me the way they want her."

I shook my head.

"She didn't start at that level," I said. "She started amateur and worked her way up. You're so pretty you could do amateur stuff and rule the genre."

We stopped at a red light. On our right was an enormous Home Depot parking lot. A cluster of men looking for day-work, blacks, browns, and whites, gave us hopeful smiles. Kandi saw I was looking at something and turned to follow my gaze. She studied them, eyes lingering on a few. When she turned her attention to me again I raised an eyebrow.

"Yes," she said. "I'd fuck the tall Latino, the muscular black guy, and the white guy with red hair."

My heart skipped a beat. This new Kandi kept me in a state of constant excitement. This new Kandi was capable of anything.

The light stayed red. It was dusk, with long dark shadows stretching across the asphalt. We were isolated from the main building with plenty of parking lot between us. My intention had been to merely show Kandi that she could find lovers anywhere, but now my mind turned salacious. I checked all around, using the mirrors and windows.

"What are you doing?" she asked.

The light turned green but I did not drive straight. I turned right and looped around to the parking lot. I pulled in and all the men approached the car. There was a large metal container at the end of the lot so I pulled close, angling the car.

"Get out," I told her.

I thought she might protest but something in my voice made her play along.

"But hand me your panties first."

She wore a lovely black dress and pearl necklace. Her earrings matched. She wore knee-high black suede boots and light makeup. She'd dress for our dinner date and she'd looked understated but gorgeous. She was the pretty trophy wife and enjoyed the role. She'd certainly not dressed for sex. She reached under and drew her panties down and off. She offered them to me but I shook my head.

"Roll down your window. Drop them outside. Leave your window down."

She did and a murmur of laughter rolled through the men.

"Now take off your bra."

"I'm not wearing one."

Her voice was strained, already full of tension. She avoided looking out her window, avoided looking at all those eager male faces, men wondering what would come out the window next. A brown arm reached in. A brown hand grasped her big tit through her dress and squeezed. Kandi gasped, shocked by the sudden turn of events. She closed her eyes. Men jostled for position. A black hand found her other tit and squeezed that one. A brown arm reached for her lap, the man's hand disappearing under the hem of her dress.

"Oh God," she moaned. "Why do I love it so much?"

She savored the men and their hot and dirty needs, their animal lusts.

"I cum harder," she admitted, voice breathless, "because it's so wrong. I cum easily and hard."

Her face turned towards me.

"Put a new cock in my married pussy, Baby," she said. "Put a new man in me and I'll cum all over him."

"Get out," I said again.

The men heard and backed off. Kandi opened her door but was immediately swarmed. One man kissed her, another felt under her dress. Someone drew the zipper down the front of her dress, freeing her tits, and faces crowded, mouths landed all over her sensitive breasts. Kandi gasped and closed her eyes. Someone pushed her against the car and spun her to face me. She opened her eyes and met my gaze. On the inside, she was laughing with joy.

Her dress got pushed up over her ass. A dark brown uncircumcised cock appeared, curving upward like a tusk. Men moved aside. It slipped between her ass cheeks and Kandi rose on her toes, gasping loudly again. Her eyes narrowed and she groaned with deep satisfaction. The stranger was in her.

Her body began to shake rhythmically, moving in time to the man's thrusts, gently rocking our car. She was turned sideways, the man in her pussy quickly shuffling his feet, and bent at the waist. Half a dozen cocks, all sizes and colors, were offer at her face. Each man wanted her mouth. Kandi opened wide, guiding the first man in.

"Can I cum in her?" the man fucking her asked.

I don't know why he asked me that question. Perhaps because Kandi's mouth was full. I was about to ask my wife but decided since this encounter was all my idea, I was in charge. I would decide what she gave them.

"Yes," I stated.

Kandi moaned deeply, my response telling her we were in this life together.

I leaned my back against the driver's door, taking in the scene before me. Kandi attacked every cock offered. Her hips worked the dick in her pussy. Her hands, mouth, lips, and tongue worked the cocks at her face. The man in her pussy said something in Spanish and grunted several times, pumping stranger semen into her. That triggered my wife and she groaned loudly as she came. Her sounds of climax made the men laugh with delight and set off a few of the dicks in her face, getting her sprayed with jizz. The white guy with red hair emerged from the gathered men and shoved the man in her pussy away. Red aimed a large white cock at her cunt, sinking deep through the sperm already in there. Kandi groaned again and thrust backward at the man.

One by one each man erupted, some on her face, some on her tits, some on her legs or dress. After, they wandered off a short distance to resume their patient wait for work. Red hammered her pussy, worried we'd all get caught.

"Put it in me," Kandi hissed. "Empty those balls. I want it!"

Red pounded her for several heartbeats and then slowed and groaned. His hips jerked sporadically. I knew he was ejaculating in her. He finished and pushed her hips away, tucking his softening penis into his pants. He left to join the other men. Kandi straightened her dress and dropped into her seat.

"Leave the panties on the asphalt," I ordered.

She closed her door. I began to drive, leaving the parking lot and entering traffic again. She turned to gaze at the men as we passed. I waited until we'd gone several blocks. My dick was cast iron. She dropped the visor mirror down and checked her hair and makeup.

"That was hot," I said.

She nodded but did not speak for a few moments.

"I don't even care about those men," she said. "I just needed to empty their balls. As soon as I realized what you were thinking I was ready to fuck. I'm always ready to make a man cum. I care more about making men orgasm than I worry about my own. Is that strange? I have friends that say they aren't satisfied with sex until they've made their partner climax. I doubt men feel that way. Making a man orgasm is the surest way to make me orgasm. I love it."

"Then I'll need to keep you supplied with men. I always want you to cum more than once."

She checked the rearview mirror, Home Depot a dot on the horizon.

"Do that again," she said, wiping sperm she'd missed off her chin.

"Not tonight, but soon. Surprise me with crazy sex like you just did and I'll be a happy woman."

End.
