Chapter 1

"Pull out," Carla warned me.

I kept pumping. My wife is so hot. How could I pull out?

"Tony," she warned. "Tony! Pull out!"

We were fucking missionary, like always, and I could not take my eyes of her big bouncing tits. She's only five-foot-one but god, what a body. We're both too young for a kid though so I told myself to whip it out of her pussy and cum on her belly. I knew I would. Just give me another minute.

Her green eyes turned panicked.

"Tony!"

But those tits!

I kept thrusting. Her wet pussy was so tight, felt so good. I looked down at my penis plunging in and out. Her slit is almost hairless but not because she shaves. She just doesn't grow much fur down there. Not yet anyway. I saw my slim inches clearly. Her inner-lips clung to my penis like sticky gum. They wanted me to stay. Her pussy lips refused to let go.

I had her one-piece swimsuit hooked to a side with my thumb so I pulled my dick out and let the material snap back in place.

"Goddamn it," I whined.

My hand took over.

Her suit was checkered black and white and jizz began spurting, coating the Lycra in milky soup and spraying all over her stomach. I may not have a big penis but I cum a lot and can often go two times in a night.

"Dang it, Tony," my young wife scolded. "I love this suit."

She reached for her mother's bathroom towel.

We were visiting her parents for a summer barbecue and I got horny watching her run around in that tight suit. Her mom said the thong-style in back showed too much butt and she was right but I wanted her to shut up about it. Carla likes being looked at. She's a shy girl in face-to-face situations but loves eyes on her.

We were in the upstairs bathroom, fucking on the floor. Actually, we were fucking on an emerald shag throw rug. Mom has terrible taste.

Carla and I fuck every chance we get. It's not just horny young male me either. Carla loves sex too. Her uptight mother raised Carla to think it was dirty though so Carla wouldn't have sex with me until after the wedding ceremony. Now we have a green light so we fuck a lot but I always pull out.

She wiped away my load and stuffed the towel in the bottom of the hamper.

"Your mom's going to find that when she does the laundry," I said.

"Don't be gross."

"You're the one making your mother touch my jizz."

She rolled her eyes.

"Weirdo," she said.

She loves my bizarre sense of humor.

We stood and straightened our swimsuits. I hid in the shower behind the curtain while Carla exited the bathroom. She made sure the coast was clear and then waved me out. We kissed and walked in opposite directions, heading back to the family gathering separately.

I stopped to watch her bubble ass bounce. God bless the man that invented the thong. Her body is ridiculous. My friend once said she has a body like Internet model Elsie Hewitt but with a prettier face and eyes. I looked Elsie up and he was right, and sweet Elsie is crazy good-looking.

Honestly, I'm not sure what Carla sees in me. I'm kind and I'm smart, and she says those things matter a lot, but she's so hot. Guys like me don't score girls like her. Quarterbacks and millionaires and lead singers in hot rock bands score girls like her. But we just click. We are happy and comfortable around each other. We value the same things and laugh at the same things and have a ton of fun with each other. We are perfectly compatible. We have only one small area of friction. I work as an assistant for a photographer in town and Carla has been asking me if I thought she could do modeling. She recently quit her job at Kentucky Fried Chicken. She did a few local photoshoots and loved the attention and the easy money, but those were for back-to-school pictures and they dressed her like she was twelve. Her spectacular body and pretty face were irrelevant in those baggy clothes. They said they just needed a model with long hair. She made a little cash but shoots like that never pay much. Carla wanted fashion shoots and for fashion shoots photographers want a girl that's tall. For most other shoots, they want girls who are willing to wear almost no clothing, and I knew Carla would never do that.

I was still staring down the hallway when, at the last second, she darted a look over her shoulder. She knew I'd still be checking her out and wanted to catch me. She grinned and giggled. I'm fine with her frequent insecurities and constant craving for attention. When she gets attention, it makes her horny, and that benefits me.

At last she rounded the corner and disappeared. I headed for the kitchen and grabbed some drinks, carrying several bottles when I rejoined the family by the pool. I was old enough for alcohol drink but Carla wasn't and her mother made sure we remembered that. I sat the bottles on the round glass table and slid a Fanta Orange soda across to my wife. Mother approved. Carla stuck her tongue out at me.

Chapter 2

"Pull your bikini bottoms into your ass crack," Randolph said. "Arch your back."

The girl tried but only looked awkward.

"More," Randy insisted. "Make your ass jut out. Be sexy."

"It's motor oil," the bikini-clad model complained, shoving the shiny can at Randy's face. "You don't need my ass to sell motor oil."

"Your ass can sell anything, my dear," Randy said. "If you'll let it. Now you be the model and I'll be the highly skilled photographer. Arch your goddamn back."

The girl's name was Tina and she did have a nice ass. The ad would run in an east-coast men's magazine and guys would see her ass and feel good for a minute and hopefully carry that good feeling over until the next time they needed motor oil. It must work. Randy is constantly booked.

"Flood," he told me.

I flipped a switch and lit the floodlamp.

"Diffuse," he murmured, playing a hunch.

I angled a large piece of cardboard covered in foil. The added light washed out the tiny lines around Tina's eyes, making her look healthier. Randolph knew what he was doing. An hour later and I was breaking down the set and wrapping up. Randy paid the model and promised more work later. They fake-kissed twice and she said "Ciao" in a fake Italian accent. I happened to know she was from Minnesota. He walked her to the studio door.

"More work," he scoffed, after she'd gone. "Get some sleep and then maybe. Did you see? She didn't have bags under her eyes, she had a full set of luggage."

I chuckled.

"When I told her to loosen her top and show more side-boob she almost walked out," he said. "I had to promise no one local would see the pictures. I hate holding these models' hands. I need professionals. Amateurs are killing me. I spend half my time taking pictures and the other half babysitting, trying to convince these girls that the more skin they show, the more work they get. I need to move my studio to Tacoma or maybe Seattle. This small-town stuff is getting old."

"Don't leave," I said. "I love my job."

Randy smiled and placed his hand on my shoulder.

"Such a dear boy," he said.

"I'm twenty-one."

"Hmm."

Randy headed for his office and I returned to storing equipment. I'd hate it if he left. No way Carla would move to Tacoma or Seattle. She hates big cities and Mother would not approve. I'd lose my job and need to get a new one. What? Graveyard shift at Seven-Eleven? Randy's the only real photographer in town.

I pushed the white umbrella Fresnel into the corner and stacked the stools. I filled the foam-lined cases with the lens he'd used and snapped the lid shut. My mind ran ahead of myself, worry eating at my gut.

When I got home, Carla was already there. She hit pause on the television.

"What's wrong?" she asked. "You look worried."

"Randolph is thinking of moving out of Elma and taking his studio to Tacoma or Seattle. He says the girls here don't know how to pose professionally."

"Let me model for him," she said, jumping at the opportunity I'd presented. "I've been asking and asking. I'd do a good job. I swear."

I shook my head.

"He wants the girls to show a lot of skin, Baby. He uses skin to sell everything. You don't want that. Your mom would kill you."

"I could show some skin," she insisted. "Not naked, of course, but some. He never asks them to pose totally naked, does he?"

"Sometimes. He's even done promotional shoots for pornographic films. The producers use those pictures on the products, like websites and DVD covers. Mostly it's automobiles and clothing for Target or Walmart but he pushes the envelope on those too, always trying to work in something sexy and revealing. That's why so many companies come to him."

"Wait," she said, connecting the dots. "So you are sometimes around naked women at work?"

"Yup. Naked men, too. But I'm too busy to pay much attention and Randy would get annoyed if I stopped to stare."

She chewed on that before continuing.

"I could do it," she insisted. "To hell with Mother. At least ask him for me, will you? Better he tells me no than my husband. Just see what he thinks. Tell him I promise I'll do a good job and not embarrass you."

Those big, green, sad and pleading eyes melted me. How could I crush her hopes? I cracked under the strain.

"All right," I said. "I'll ask."

Carla was thrilled. I dropped onto the couch and she hit resume. I watched The Notebook with her for the twentieth time.

Chapter 3

As promised, Carla did not embarrass me. She showed up early, changed outfits quickly, took direction well. Randy loved her. The gig was for a line of summer outfits and while Randy mentioned he'd normally use a girl at least five-eight, he loved the way Carla filled the dresses.

"They will rave about these!" he gushed, lowering the camera to make her look a little taller.

Snap, snap, snap went the camera as he circled her. She only knew a few poses so he patiently moved her arms and legs when needed. His hands got close to her ass and boobs a few times and I worried she'd freak, but she stayed professional.

The next sundress was a bit sheer, intended to be worn over a bathing suit. Carla's white bra and panties showed through so Randy asked her to pose without them. Carla hesitated.

"The busy floral print on the fabric will hide everything underneath," Randolph reassured her. "I'll get your approval on every picture before I save it. Cool?"

Carla nodded.

"I guess so," she said.

Carla entered the dressing room and reemerged moments later, minus bra and panties. Randy was right: the pattern hid what was underneath. But the fact she now went without underwear was obvious. Her big, firm tits jiggled independently, her bubble butt wiggled. Randy noticed.

"You are a stunning creature," he told my wife. "Are you over eighteen?"

"Yes."

"Barely," I added.

"You don't look it," Randy said. "Your body is unbelievable. I could make a fortune photographing you alone. Tony, how long were you planning on keeping this exquisite creature to yourself? You owe it to the world to let me take as many pictures of her as I can."

Carla was eating this up. Randy's praises had her flustered but enthralled. She arched her back more, opened her eyes wider, smiled bigger, and had a rosy flush to her skin. I admit she looked amazing.

"Fan," Randy barked.

I positioned the large wind machine and hit the switch. A gentle breeze stirred her long dark hair. The airflow caught her dress too and pressed the fabric around her body, revealing curves and valleys, showing her shape.

"Incredible," Randy muttered.

"Do you really think so?" Carla asked. "Or are you just saying that?"

Randy stopped and pulled the camera from his eye. He stood tall, facing her squarely. He rubbed his chin.

"You are the prettiest female I've ever photographed," he stated. "Drop. Dead. Gorgeous. Most astonishing, your face is as amazing as your body. That's a rare combination. You may not be tall enough for fashion but those girls are starved and deranged anyway. They live on cigarettes and alcohol. You wouldn't want to be a fashion model. You look bursting with health and vitality. The camera loves you. There's a career, if you want it, in front of the lens."

Maybe it was coincidence, maybe it was the fan, or maybe it was Randy dangling the life she wanted before her eyes, but Carla's nipples chose that moment to stiffen and poke against the dress. Her puffy areolas are smallish for how big her tits are and when they get hard they gather all that skin into swollen points. She had twin peaks sitting atop each globe and they looked spectacular. Randy couldn't see all that. All he saw was the paired rise of material. He adjusted the focus and I knew he'd zoomed on her breasts. I wondered if I should tell Carla later Another hour of the same and we were done. True to his word Randy let her approve all the pictures before he saved them to disk. Then he wrote her a check. Carla's eyes got big when she saw the amount.

"Are you sure?" she asked.

"Absolutely," Randy said. "I'm hoping you come back to work for me again."

"Gosh!" she exclaimed. "I'd love that!"

Her face glowed. Her smile was huge. Her eyes shined with happiness. She was hooked. I saw it plainly. In this world, she got to be the center of attention in as safe a way as possible. She was praised. She was adored.

Chapter 4

The next day I was making breakfast in the morning while Carla got ready to go see her mom. I walked by our bathroom and, like she always does, my wife had the door open a little to let the steam out. Our apartment is small. I glanced in, like I always do when there's a chance of seeing Carla naked, and there she was: gloriously nude and freshly scrubbed. Her wet stringy hair stuck to her back, her towel lay draped on the sink. I saw her but she didn't see me.

She looked in the big mirror, turning slowly this way and that. She was examining herself, trying to see what Randolph saw, trying to determine if he was bullshitting her or if she truly was a hot babe.

"Baby Cakes," she called out. "Would I be hotter if I cut my hair?"

I didn't answer because that would alert her I was watching.

"I wish I was taller," she said. "Am I too fat? I feel fat. No fat like hanging fat but fat like too soft. Should I get a gym membership and work out?"

She sucked her gut and stood taller, which made her luscious tits rise. My dick twitched. She patted her tummy and then tugged on her sparse pubic hair.

"If I'm going to do bathing suit pictures for Randolph, I should get my girlie parts waxed. Why do I have so many things wrong with me? It's hard being a girl. Are you listening to me?"

I stuck my head through the open doorway.

"Carla, Honey, you're damn near perfect. Randy sees it too."

Insecurity is an awful thing. She listened for a moment and then returned her attention and cruel scrutiny to the mirror.

"My boobs are too big for my body," she said. "I look weird."

"That sentence is pure nonsense. Both those sentences are pure nonsense. You look sexy. Every man thinks so. I see them turn to look at you all day long."

"Do you mean that?"

I grew exasperated. How could she not know?

"Yes. I'll point them out next time."

Her eyes flared. She liked that idea.

"Do you think this vicious self-examination," I asked, "has anything to do with you going to see your mom this morning?"

That got her. She faced the mirror and took a deep breath, looking herself in the eyes. She nodded softly.

"You're right," she said. "Mom criticizes every choice I make, from haircuts to the clothes I wear to the friends I make. She always has. She has me second-guessing myself about everything. I shouldn't let her run my life but I do."

She reached for the blow-dryer. I went back to breakfast.

I kissed her as she left the apartment and then cleaned up the bathroom because while she may be hot, she's also a slob. I was due at the studio at eleven so I watched some The Price is Right and then dressed, locked the door and headed in.

Randy wasn't at work yet so I cleaned the place, put away equipment he'd left lying about, and vacuumed. I was returning the vacuum to the closet when he walked in.

"Seriously," he said, dropping an arm around my shoulders. "Why haven't I met Carla before? She's the best model we've had in months and she doesn't even know what she's doing yet. She has no idea how hot she is. I'll be able to mold that girl into something special. She'll never walk a runway in Milan but I can get her all the way to a Maxim cover or a Sports Illustrated swimsuit cover. How did you ever land her?"

I felt flattered and insulted.

"I'm kind and smart and cute, according to her. Right place, right time, I guess."

He scoffed.

"It's the small-town effect," he said. "She has limited options. Be happy you guys weren't born in New York City. She'd have some rich Wall Street guy. She'd be sunbathing on yachts and flying around the world."

"She'd still pick me," I replied. "I know her."

He dropped the subject, informing me we had a car shoot at one o'clock and a wedding at four. Surprisingly, the car shoot would be a lot more work. Everybody wants green screen for the auto shots these days so they can show the car on top of a mountain or parked next to the pyramids. A wedding three hours later would mean a long and difficult day. I resigned myself to it and got to work.

Carla brought me lunch at the studio and talked to Randolph while stuffed a turkey sandwich in my face and kept working. I often glanced at them across the room. I couldn't hear their words but Carla's body language told me he was bombarding her with compliments again. She ate it up, turning bashful and modest. She'd worn a tight sweater and shorts and I realized she'd done it to catch Randy's eye, wanting him to see her as a model, not knowing he already did.

I continued working but kept one eye on them. Randy stepped into the dressing room briefly where we keep costumes and props and emerged with a small pink top. He handed it to Carla and pointed towards the room, suggesting something. Carla entered and closed the door, exiting in about a minute wearing the same tight pink baby doll crop top. Her belly was exposed and she showed lots of cleavage. The top was meant for a woman with a smaller cup size and Carla overflowed out the sides and bottom. She was incredibly uncomfortable with her tits spilling out like that but forced herself to be brave, hoping to impress Randy. I doubted he noticed. Her tits had him distracted. He had her do a slow turn like he was examining her angles or some photographer shit but I knew he was making memories to jerk off to later. I wanted to go interrupt them but I couldn't. I had far too much to do.

Randy pointed at the dressing room again and described something to her and she entered again and shut the door. She was gone a little longer this time but emerged wearing a thin white dress looking more like a satin slip. Her bra straps were showing and she kept trying to hide them and her panties left obvious lines and bumps in the light fabric. She squirmed on her feet, standing there courageously and taking Randy's open stare. Her tits stretched the material, which was razor thin, between them. Randy gawked brazenly and said something. Carla shook her head. Randy shrugged. He turned his back on her to return to work, dropping her the instant she refused to do as he asked. Carla chewed a lip, glanced at me, frustrated and unsure, and then turned her back to the man, reaching behind and unclasping her bra, pulling the garment out and turning around again. She spoke and Randy faced her.

He tried to keep his face professional and pretended to study the light but the hint of Carla's puffy nipples topped the points of her full round tits and no way could Randy not notice and appreciate that. She forced herself to stand tall and bold, determined to be adult about it all, taking his stare without flinching. I noted her leg trembled under her slip. He made her turn a slow circle again and then nodded. She clapped her hands. He waved towards the dressing room and she hurried in, shutting the door. When she stepped out again she was back in her regular clothes.

She stopped by my work area before leaving.

"Gave Randy an eyeful," I said.

"Jealous?"

"Of Randy? No way. He's an old geezer. You looked good."

"It was so scary, Baby. I felt naked in front of him. I had to keep telling myself I wasn't, he's a professional and I'm wearing more than I do at the lake, but I felt naked. His eyes are piercing."

"What did he want?"

"I have another gig with him. Saturday. A line of athletic wear for busty women instead of these yoga skeletons you always see. It pays even more."

"That's awesome, Carla."

"I'm so excited.

I wasn't scheduled to work on Saturday but I kept that to myself. I had no other plans so I'd drop her off and hang out waiting for her to finish. We talked about what we wanted for dinner and then she left. I got back to work.

When I finally got home that night, Carla jumped me at the door.

"I'm so horny," she said. "I've been masturbating but it's not working. I'm still horny. I need you inside me, Baby."

When duty calls, I answer. I was hungry and tired and needed a shower but to hell with all that. I dropped my stuff and pulled her sweatshirt off, walking her backwards to the wall. I got hard surprisingly fast. She kicked her sweats off and jumped on me and I pushed her against the wall and shoved it in. I fucked hard, thrusting deep until blasting a huge load minutes later.

I set her feet on the floor and took her hand, walking her back to the bedroom. I pushed her on the bed and her face lit up.

"I thought we were finished," she said.

"Nope."

I grabbed her ankles and pushed them far apart, lowering my mouth to her pussy but maintaining eye contact like a badass. I sucked her clit and tongued her vulva and she groaned, pushing a finger in to fuck herself while I ate her. Minutes later she came hard too, just like me.

Chapter 5

The rest of the week was boring but Saturday arrived quickly. She stressed about what to wear to the shoot, trying on different outfits, and I finally reminded her it didn't matter. Randy would give her everything she needed to wear.

"Oh, yeah," she giggled.

We entered through the main rolling door in back and Randy said hello, not at all surprised to see me there on a Saturday.

"I'm just finishing up another shoot," he said. "Rebel Yell, a gay magazine out of Seattle. Big circulation."

We followed him to the studio area and stepped through the door. Five buff naked guys, all with long, thick, erect dicks, looked up to greet us.

"Hey guys," Randy casually said. "This is Carla and her husband Tony. Tony works for me. Carla wants to model."

Carla and I were stunned. Paralyzed. Full on deer in the headlights. The guys waved cheerfully, saying hello like we'd bumped into them at the mall. They were utterly devoid of any sense of self-consciousness. Zero shame or embarrassment. They returned to their conversations but their dicks, completely ignored, remained on high alert. Five big hard-ons stood at attention, ready for action.

We said hello.

"I didn't know you took pictures like this," I muttered to Randy.

"There's a lot you don't know, kid," he teased. "You work forty hours a week but I work eighty. There's a lot I do without you. Carla can wait in my office. I need a few more minutes."

We drifted away. I took Carla's elbow to guide her. She was too shocked to move. The guys were muscular and cute and playful and covered in baby oil and she just stared and stared. Randy posed them like they were at a party, everybody making happy faces and having fun. There was no sex or anything but whenever they stood close their dicks all bumped and rubbed each other. Carla looked away briefly but then looked back and did not look away again.

"Hey, Carla?" Randy called out. "I have your first outfit hanging on the blue rack. Will you change into it now to save time?"

"Right here?" she asked. "In front of everybody?"

"We are all adults, Babe," Randy said. "We've all seen naked bodies. I'm behind schedule and need to make up time. Go ahead."

Carla looked at me, eyes big.

"What do I do?" she croaked.

I looked at the guys.

"Go ahead and change," I said. "I'm pretty sure those guys are gay and don't care. Randy is too busy to notice and I've already seen you naked once or twice."

I added a reassuring smile.

"I guess if you want to be a model," I continued. "You better get used to this kind of thing. You might be changing outfits on the beach or a rooftop in some city. Nudity is no big deal, really, despite what your mother says."

I was trying to be supportive but also the extra money would be nice. Carla put on a brave face. She unbuttoned her shirt and started on her pants. I moved aside, feeling like I only added to her pressure. The guys continued clowning around, only glancing in her direction occasionally. They were ripped and their large erections wouldn't go away. They just stuck up in the open air, wobbling as the guys moved around following Randy's instructions for posing. I was behind Carla now and watched her check them out, discretely staring at their shiny naked bodies and big dicks. Randy must have given them all Viagra for the shoot, needing them hard the whole time. I thanked God they were all homosexuals.

They finally finished their set and Randy dismissed them. They headed towards the blue rack as a group. Their street clothes hung there and they took open spots around Carla, wiping the baby oil off their bodies with towels and talking to each other. She was surrounded by a forest of upright penises.

Flustered, Carla knelt to remove her boots and found herself face to face with a wall of sausages, some only inches from her. The scene was bizarre: there were hard dicks everywhere. Instead of five it looked like three times that number. Her expression turned catatonic. This was so far outside the realm of her experiences she had no idea how to react, so she just froze.

At last the urgency of Randy waiting got her going again. She reached behind to unclasp her bra. The guys got quiet, going about their business but tense now, like anticipation was in the air. They stole glances at Carla, hoping to catch a flash of skin. Carla tried to casually slide her bra down her arms but she messed up, missing a strap. The undergarment got caught on an elbow and stretched and then snapped to her hand, slapping a nipple on the way by. She jumped, startled, and her big firm tits wobbled. Her nipple stiffened.

"That's fucking hot," one of the guys said.

Carla was rattled. She hastily slid her panties off, grabbing the workout gear Randy had set out for her, only then discovering she'd have no underwear. Panicked, she quickly pulled the outfit on, stretching the thin elastic fabric over her womanly body. She made minor adjustments here and there and then breathed a sigh of relief, happy to be covered again. When she looked up, she found all five men standing and staring at her, hard and ready cocks pointing at an empty space above her head.

"Gosh," she muttered.

They moved closer, under the pretense of getting dressed, until they crowded my wife, erect penises brushing her ass and legs. She mumbled "Excuse me," and tried to slip by. A penis bounced off her hand. Another slid along her thigh. My wife gasped and hurried to Randy's side.

"That's your woman?" one of the guys asked me.

"Yes."

"Fucking hell, dude. You scored a home run."

"Yeah," I said, awkwardly, unsure how to talk to five naked men.

They finished wiping down and dressing, tucking erections into tight pants like they'd done it a hundred times. They waved at Randy as they left. He gave them a thumbs-up and turned his full attention on Carla. I got comfortable seated on a stack of packing blankets.

What followed was three intense hours of camera work. Randy wasn't messing around. Carla flew through her outfit changes like a pro, returning to set and hitting her mark. Randy coached her constantly on poses and I knew Carla was getting frustrated, feeling like she kept letting the man down, but she gave it her all, taking his guidance and criticisms and putting them to use.

The outfits she wore were not sexy at all but by wearing them she made it so. At first she hurried to the dressing room each time she changed but that took too long so she started changing behind the rack because it was closer. That wasn't good enough so Randy pushed her to change faster and Carla gave up trying to be discreet, whipping through rapid changes by just off to one side. Randy pretended not to notice but he cast plenty of looks her way. She made every fashion item look amazing. Randy knew he'd struck gold with her. I saw it in his eyes.

They finished at last. Carla retired to the dressing room. I wandered towards Randy and mentioned what a great shoot that was.

"You took way more photos than usual," I said. "I guess you like her?"

"I don't like her," he said, removing a lens and handing it to me as if I was on the clock. "I love her. The camera loves her. She has no bad angles. I don't need to light her at all. She can't take a bad picture. I'm going to bury that girl in work."

I chuckled.

"You liked her as much as those gay guys did," I said.

Randy stopped, looking puzzled.

"What gay guys?" he asked.

"The five guys for the gay magazine. The shoot before hers."

"Those guys aren't gay," he chuckled. "Did they tell you that? I use them for my gay shoots because they can pose around each other naked without drama and they all have big dicks, which the gay mags demand. I make a fortune off those guys. They aren't gay, they just aren't homophobic."

Carla exited the dressing room wearing her own clothes again. Randy cut her a fat check and we drove home. At least, I tried to. Carla was upset but hiding it and as soon as we were on the road she started to cry. I pulled over by the lake.

"I'm so stupid," she wailed. "I can't do anything right. I don't know how to pose or walk or anything. Did you see how much he needed to correct me? I feel so stupid. He'll never call me back for more work."

"You were amazing, Baby," I argued. "I've seen him with other models. Trust me, he loved working with you. I talked to him while I was waiting for you and he said you were fantastic."

"Seriously?" she asked, wiping away tears.

"I'm completely serious. He said the camera loves you. He said he'll have more work for you. A lot."

She wanted to believe me.

"Modeling is a lot harder than I thought," she said. "My muscles are shaking. I was clumsy and goofy and none of my poses looked right. Those gay guys were so smooth. They all knew what to do every time. They were so comfortable being naked in front of people. I felt awful. Aren't you upset with me? I feel shitty, like I let you down. I'm terrible at all this."

Oh boy. I thought about letting her remain ignorant but that's like lying.

"Those guys weren't gay, Baby," I said. "I thought so but I was wrong. I'm sorry I told you that. Randy has other reasons for using them for his homosexual shoots."

She stopped crying. Her face went blank. She'd just seen five straight guys naked and erect and, worse, five straight guys had just seen her naked too.

"Oh no!" she suddenly whined, tears returning full force. "They were all looking right at me! This is terrible. I can't go back there."

"Yes you can, Honey. Randy loved you. He told me so. Forget about those five guys. They're strangers and you'll never see them again. Think about how much money you made. In three hours!"

She hid her face with her hands. I knew she was thinking about her mom and how upset the woman would be if she ever found out. I don't know the business well, not like Randy, but I do know models of both sexes better be ready to show some skin. Their job is to sell. Their job is to capture someone's attention. Nothing does that better than skin. Sex sells everything.

"Carla," I said softly. "It's okay. I'm proud of you. I don't care that other men saw you naked. Your doctor does too. What matters more is the job you did and you were amazing. Randy said so."

Her hands fell to her lap. Underneath, mascara had streaked her face. Tears stained her cheeks. She was completely vulnerable and exposed. She was gorgeous.

"Do you mean it?" she asked, voice trembling. "Or are you just saying that?"

"I mean it. Totally. I've never been prouder of you. You showed courage and determination. You were a rock star today, Baby. A professional model."

She dropped her head to my lap. I thought she intended to start crying again, or at least take a minute to regain her composure, but, no, she unzipped my pants and stuffed my soft penis in her mouth. Sweet Jesus it felt amazing, but I will never understand women. Carla rarely gives head and this showed me how out of sorts she was. I felt like I was taking advantage of her emotional state but I convinced myself, quickly, this was what she needed to feel better. I didn't understand it but I didn't need to. I leaned my head back, growing more amazed by the minute. She wasn't sucking my penis, she was attacking it, vacuuming it, slobbering all over my dick and pumping her fist. She doesn't swallow but if she didn't slow down she might get me there too fast.

"Carla," I warned. "Baby-girl, that feels too good. You're going to make me cum. Honey, slow down. I can feel it. It's coming."

My words only made her suck harder and faster.

"Cum," she moaned.

Say no more. My hips convulsed and she pulled her mouth away just in time, yanking my dick and making me spray everywhere. I heard her giggle, which would normally be sweet, but I was listening to her cry just minutes ago, so it sounded a little crazy. She rode a rollercoaster, emotionally out of control. I tried to care but in that moment, I could not. All I cared about was spurting jizz.

She waited until I came around and then unsnapped her pants and pushed them down. She got on her knees and put her face to the passenger window, her pussy pointed back at me.

"Make me cum too, Honey. Eat me."

I did. She's never this forward or aggressive and I liked it. She came as fast as I had, if not faster. I did not understand how sex helped in that moment or why she wanted it. I did not understand, after that emotional torrent, how she could even have sex on her mind. But women are a mystery to me anyway, so I was just thankful.

I started the car and asked what she wanted to eat. We were both starving. She had a craving for French fries so we headed to Rosalind's, a popular hamburger joint in our town. Five minutes later, as we turned the corner on Main Street, she was crying again. That photoshoot had taken a lot out of her.

Chapter 6

"Stick your chest out, Carla," Randy instructed. "Like you're wearing a name tag and trying to help someone read it."

My wife lifted her ribcage, thrusting her breasts forward. Today's shoot was business wardrobe for busty young women, like JP Morgan meets Forever 21. The clothes were chic but comfortable, stylish, but not too sexy. Randy was trying to change that a little by having Carla pose provocatively without crossing the line into slutty. The morning had been rough. Carla got frustrated with her lack of expertise and almost quit. I calmed her, suggesting she stop thinking too much about what she's supposed to do and just do everything Randy said. That helped. They were finishing up now. I was ready to convert the studio into a racy ladies' underwear shoot as soon as Carla went home. The next model, Tina, was already waiting in the dressing room. Carla had tried to land this gig too but Randy told her no. This shoot would show a lot of skin.

"You aren't ready for that," he'd said. "Your nervousness would come through on film. Maybe next time. Until then, think about walking on a nude beach or changing clothes at the gym. Think about the human body and try to leave the shame behind."

She said she would.

They took their last photo and Randy told her to change and head for his office where he'd pay her. I immediately got busy breaking down the old set and changing the lighting for the new set. Carla entered the dressing room and shut the door. Minutes later she exited and headed for Randy's office, leaving the dressing room door open. I waited until my wife was in his office, door closed, and walked by the dressing room. If Tina was in there changing, that was something I'd like to see.

But she wasn't. Nobody was. I made several passes and then tapped on the door while calling inside, announcing I'd be ready for her soon. Nothing. I stepped inside.

Tina was gone.

I hurried to tell Randy. He was handing Carla a check and I blurted that Tina had bailed on us. He had a fit, racing to the dressing room, calling her cell but receiving no answer, stomping around and cursing himself for ever giving her work again.

"She's on something," he said. "Flaky bitch!"

What a waste. Vendors send us the clothes they want pictured but we don't get to keep them. We take photos and send them back. We have deadlines and so do they. They'd get upset if we kept their clothing. Randy would lose a lot of money on this. Tina would never work for him again but that didn't help him now. His reputation was about to take a big hit.

"I can do it," Carla muttered weakly.

Randy and I slowly faced her.

"I can," she repeated, trying to convince herself as much as us.

Randy looked at her body and then the long rack of clothing. His mind raced ahead of us, posing Carla, using lighting and shadow to make it all work.

"Don't say you can and then don't," he said. "I need a new model, right now. I can't waste time on you. My deadline on these pictures fast approaches. Don't tell me you can do it and then bail on me halfway through. Be honest. Tell me you're committed. Tell me you'll see it through no matter what."

"I can do it," she said. "I will do it. I need to learn this side too and it's just you and Tony. If you give me the job I promise I won't quit. You'll get your pictures."

This was between them. Nobody looked at me. Randy stepped to the rack of numbered garments and switched a few tags around. I noticed he moved the more revealing outfits to the end of the shoot. I supposed by then she'd be eager to finish. He faced me.

"Start with bedroom setup number four," he said. "Yellow, red. One spot."

I understood and turned to get started. From the corner of my eye I watched Carla browse through the rack of sexy undergarments. She was troubled, doubting her decision, wondering if this was wise or if she could go through with it. She lifted her head high, reaching a conclusion with her internal conversation. She began to undress. I looked away as she nudged the door closed with a toe.

Work took all my attention. I positioned lights and adjusted hues, creating a soft warm glow like sunrise. That was Randy's favorite. I shoved a large, four-poster bed into place and hung some fake curtains in front of a fake window, selecting the city-scape background. I quickly placed fake plants and fake furniture.

The dressing room door opened and Carla emerged wearing the first outfit.

I actually, literally gasped out loud.

Randy looked up from his camera case.

Carla stood awkwardly in a black corset, ribbed, full firm breasts pushed up and seemingly offered for suckling. She wore matching black panties.

"Dear God," Randy said, forgetting professionalism completely.

I had to agree. She looked so good I didn't care that another man was staring at her. I would have cared if I'd been able to form thoughts, but my mind was too busy grinding gears. All I could do was gawk. Our eyes burned right through her until she shuffled her feet and looked away.

"Something wrong?" she asked. "Do I look okay?"

"You look like a stack of gold bars covered in hundreds and sprinkled with diamonds," Randy said.

Carla blushed., fidgeting with the ends of her long hair.

He got to work. He brought her to the set and positioned her all around the bed. On it, lying across it, standing on her knees, lying on her side, lying on her side with one leg pointed at the ceiling. She looked delicious. I've always found her cute and often thought she was pretty but this, this was something else. This was sexy. This was sexual. The lingerie added so much to her sophistication, yet the youth in her face was obvious. At times, I wondered if I watched another woman. No way could this be my young wife.

I hustled through the set and lighting changes, always keeping one eye on her. Her outfits only got sexier, showing more and more skin as she worked through the camisoles, body suits, and baby dolls. What she wore right now exposed her small areola through a thin layer of white lace. My dick was hard. Randy posed her and Carla obediently obeyed. Randy took chances by touching her, freeing a strap or pulling fabric aside to show more tits or ass. Carla braved it all.

Finally, she exited the dressing room wearing matching extra-see-through bra and G-string panties, white, with garters holding stockings high on her shapely thighs. Her flesh was visible underneath. Pinkish areola and brownish nipple and virtually hairless vulva were all obvious. Randy moved her through her positions rapidly.

Once, when he had her bend at the waist to create even more cleavage, her butt cheeks spread and we saw soft, clean, puckered asshole. Carla was displaying everything to us. Her hands shook and her legs trembled but she soldiered on, determined to stop acting like a timid girl and start acting like a confident woman.

I noticed Randy was hard too. Our lumps were blatant. Carla had to have seen them and known the effect she'd had on us.

At last we photographed the last batch. Carla aimed for the dressing room, I broke down the last set, and Randy headed for his office. Carla, dressed again in street clothes, joined him there. She left soon, waved two checks at me and smiled broadly, and hurried to the door. I wouldn't see her again until I got home for dinner.

I approached our front door cautiously. I had no idea what mood she'd be in. Last time she showed some skin she'd cried. She might cry again this time. She might be angry at herself for doing the shoot. She may have enjoyed wearing all those different outfits. Girls like playing dress-up. She sure enjoyed being naked in front of me. If she liked Randy enough, maybe would be okay with being naked in front of him too. I turned the knob and entered. She was seated on the couch wearing baggy sweats. She aimed the remote at the television to pause her show and then turned to me.

"Are you mad?" she asked. "Do you hate me?"

"No, Baby. Not at all."

"I made Randy hard. You must have noticed. He grew this big bulge and I'm so embarrassed. I don't know if I can face him again."

"You made me hard too," I said. "That means you did your job."

She searched my face, desperately wanting to believe me.

"I mean it," I said. "I don't care that Randy saw you like that. He's seen a million girls like that. It comes with the job and the man's a pro. No way a man can fake those. Take our hard-ons as a compliment, if you can. "

"I can," she chuckled. "I liked it. I felt sexy."

"Good. How much did he pay you?"

She jumped off the couch to grab both checks from the table. Giddy, she slapped them against my chest. I looked at each.

"Holy shit!" I said.

"I know!" she squealed. "I can't wait to do it again!"

"I told you it would be okay. I knew you could do this, Baby. You looked amazing. Like, stunning. I gasped when I saw you."

She threw her arms around my neck and we kissed. Her body was hot under her sweats. We made out for a minute and then she pulled her face away.

"How much could you see?" she asked. "The lighting in the dressing room is shit compared to the stage. I couldn't tell how much I showed. Was it bad?"

"It was all good. You showed little in the beginning but towards the end we saw a lot. It was hot seeing you that way. You looked so sophisticated, like a big-time model."

We kissed again. Eventually, she took my hand and led me to our small bedroom. Our sex was hot. I didn't get a blowjob this time and of course I had to pull out again but damn, she was on fire.

Chapter 7

The universe is contrary. After that huge success, Randy had nothing for Carla. Weeks went by. Not even a toothpaste gig. Carla fretted, of course, worrying that despite everything everyone said, she was actually terrible and ugly and Randy didn't want her but couldn't just come out and tell her that. I could not budge her off that spot.

One night I was working late with Randy shooting food displays and he took me aside halfway through. I thought I'd done something wrong. He was so serious.

"I have a gig," he said. "But Carla won't like it."

"Why are you telling me?" I asked.

"You won't like it either. I'm still wondering if I should even tell you."

He left that hanging in the air. I waited but he outlasted me.

"Why not?" I asked.

He explained.

He was right: I did not like it.

"I'm telling you instead of her," he said. "So if you say no it stays between us. She never hears of it. I feel terrible I've had no work for her. I swore I loved working with her and then nothing on the docket. I'm sure she's thinking I'm full of shit. Then this opportunity came up and I saw a way to get her work, but I know how shy she is. This will be difficult for her to do but it is easy money, and a lot of it. I swear no one will ever know the body belongs to her."

I chewed my fingernail.

It was a porn promotion, as you've probably already guessed by Randy's reluctance. The male talent, Brody Buckskin, had driven down from Seattle but the female talent was nowhere to be found. Time is money, Randy made clear. Since the man was the star in this movie and his face and body would grace the cover and promotional materials, all we needed were shots of him, his famous penis, and an anonymous female body. Carla's face would not be seen. There'd be no sex, obviously, but they'd pose, naked, around each other.

They'd touch.

"When?" I asked.

"Midnight tonight."

I sighed.

"Thank you for telling me first," I said. "But it's not my call to make. She's an adult. It's her decision. I can't pick her gigs for her. I'll call her right now."

Randy looked relieved. I wandered off and dialed Carla. She was at her parents' place, helping decorate for her little sister's eighteenth birthday party in two days. I held nothing back, describing the situation to my wife the same way Randy had to me. There'd be no surprises. I told her how much money she'd make. I told her she'd be nude and posing with a nude man, his naked penis all around and over her. I made sure she understood there'd be zero sex. These were still shots, not video, and her face would be out of frame. His penis was the star. She got quiet and thoughtful and I waited for an answer. She took so long I finally had to nudge.

"Baby," I said. "Randy's waiting and I need to get back to work."

"It's so sudden," she said. "I need time to think."

"We have no time. Yes or no."

"Tell him I'll do it," she rasped.

My heart stopped. Holy Mother of God. In that moment, I realized I'd never thought she'd say yes. I was certain she'd refuse. I didn't grasp that's what I'd been thinking, but she said yes and my whole body got zapped with ten-thousand volts.

Wow.

WOW.

I was so sure she'd decline I now found myself speechless. I couldn't take it back. What had I done?

"You sure?" I asked.

"No. But I'll follow through. I want Randy to know he can count on me. He swears no one will know it's me, my face stays out of every picture, then fine. I'll do it. I've been naked in front of you and Randy already. Why not add one more man?"

Her voice came to me from a hundred miles away.

"I'll let him know," I heard myself say.

I covered the phone.

"She'll do it," I told Randy.

"Have her get here at eleven," he said. "No bra or panties. She'll need to be naked long enough for the clothing lines to leave her skin. That takes about an hour."

I conveyed the message and we ended the call. I spent the rest of my time walking around in a daze, waiting for the sound of her car pulling up outside our building. I knew exactly what she'd do. She'd finish with Mom and Dad, drive home and shower, stare at herself in the bathroom mirror and tear herself apart, get depressed, decide she's not coming, change her mind and get in the car.

On cue, I heard a car door close. The chime sounded that someone had entered the front office and seconds later that someone walked into our studio. But it wasn't Carla. It was Brody Buckskin. Brody wore his shirt unbuttoned and his cuffs rolled. His pants were leather and probably cost a thousand dollars. His blonde hair was windblown and his eyes a bright blue.

He was taller than me, broader than me, stronger than me.

"You Randy?" he asked Randy.

"I am," my boss replied.

They shook hands.

"Bathroom," Randy said, pointing around the studio at various things. "Dressing room, wardrobe rack, coffee machine, drinking water. This is Tony. Let me know if you need anything. Go ahead and strip, I have a robe for you hanging in the dressing room. The female talent you were supposed to shoot with vanished on the One-Oh-One highway so I got you a replacement. You'll love her. She's hot."

"Fine with me," he chuckled. "I'll fuck any hot bitch."

"No fucking," Randy said. "Body stills and head shots for you. She stays anonymous. You know this."

Brody nodded understanding.

I found it strange to hear Randy talk about Carla like I wasn't her husband, like she's just some nameless model he barely knows. We never discussed keeping that information away from Brody but I saw the wisdom of it.

I heard a car door close out front.

Carla entered the shop and worked her way back to the studio, stepping into the room wearing tight jeans and a sweater.

Brody smiled broadly and laughed.

"Holy shit!" he laughed. "You weren't lying. Hello, Darling, my name is Brody."

He offered his hand and Carla tentatively shook. She was scrutinizing the man, studying his face, peering into his eyes, trying to determine who he was. Satisfied he posed no threat, her eyes scanned his face and body. She smiled coyly, a blanket of surprise layering her nervousness. She found him attractive.

"Hi Brody," she said. "Nice to meet you. I've never done anything like this."

Brody kissed the back of her hand.

"Not to worry, Little Dove," he said. "I'll take care of you."

Carla was instantly drawn to the man. She was probably expecting a vain, egotistical idiot and was pleased to discover Brody was none of those.

"This is my assistant, Tony," Randy said, introducing me to my own wife. "He does everything around here. I'd be lost without him."

Carla looked confused and glanced back and forth between Randy to me, but decided to follow along. If we were acting this way, we probably had good reason.

"Nice to meet you, Tony," she said.

"Likewise," I intoned.

Carla turned to Randy.

"So," she said, lifting her shoulders and acting goofy. "What's next?"

Brody looked surprised.

"Wait," he said. "Hold on. You mean you've actually never done anything like this? Like, I'm your very first porn partner?"

"We aren't shooting porn today, Brody," Randy corrected.

Brody ignored him.

"Never," Carla stated. "Not even close. I just started modeling and that was just clothes and stuff. Never with other people."

Brody stepped close and put his arm around my wife.

"Fear nothing," he said. "I'll keep you safe."

He led her aside, aiming for the dressing room, speaking softly and sweetly. I saw my wife lean into him a bit as they walked away. Brody left the dressing room door open. I looked at Randy.

"Better he doesn't know Carla's your wife," he explained. "Some of these porn guys can be real assholes."

We both stared at the dressing room door. One minute became two which became three but these minutes passed far slower than normal. At last Carla and Brody exited the dressing room wearing only short, white terrycloth robes. That meant they'd undressed in front of each other. The robes were untied to make them as loose as possible so the fronts waved open. The two halves swayed as they walked towards us, revealing an athletic body and soft, swinging dick on him and smooth skin and big swaying tits on her. Carla's little slit was clearly visible. Brody beamed. Carla held her head up defiantly, determined to see this through, but I could tell she wanted to shrink and hide. The room spun beneath my feet. They'd stripped in front of each other! I wondered what he had said to her in there.

Brody veered towards the big bed and Carla dutifully followed. When he shrugged off his robe and threw it over a nearby chair, she hesitated and then bravely did the same. Randy took my elbow and propelled me towards the bed.

Carla held up her left hand.

"Should I take my wedding ring off?" she asked.

"No," Randy said, collecting the robes and handing them to me. "The script says the woman is married so she would be wearing a ring. Leave it on."

Brody could not take his eyes off my naked wife. Carla held her ground, determined. I caught her glancing at Brody's body and penis several times. Everything was bigger on him. She stared at his scrotum, studying his balls, which surprised me. At home she avoids mine.

"Get comfortable," Randy said before heading for his office. "We'll need about an hour to lose all the red clothing lines on your skin. Relax, chat, get to know each other. Brody, in about fifty minutes I'll need you hard. I'll do close-ups and your head shots first. Then we'll set up for body shots."

"No problem," Brody said, grinning at Carla. "This Little Dove will make getting hard easy. I'm already starting to just by looking at her."

There was no legitimate reason for me to stand watch over them so I got to work checking the set and lighting. To my astonishment Carla did seem to relax as she and Brody chatted. I spied on them from every angle. They'd moved to sit facing each other on the bed, legs crossed, just talking, and Carla looked incredible. She sat with her back straight, making her big firm tits sit high on her chest. Her fingers fidgeted with each other. She'd sat like that across from me many times and I knew Brody had a clear view of her pussy. When she rocked forward at all her labia parted slightly, revealing her delicate inner lips. I knew Brody had that view now, just as she saw into his lap.

I moved around the studio preparing anything we might need. In truth, I was working my way closer so I could hear their conversation. He asked questions about her life growing up in this small town and she asked about his life in the big city. There was a genuine spark between them. His eyes met hers often but when he wasn't looking her in the eye, he was blatantly gorging himself on every square inch of her. She was fully aware what he did and just took it. Then I noticed something happening for Brody.

From his lap rose a fat purple mushroom, like a fleshy periscope, rising to have a look around. He'd sprouted an erection, a big one, just by sitting and talking to my wife. Carla watched it, staring openly, fascinated as the man swelled and stiffened. I found an excuse to move even closer.

"You're staring," he chuckled.

"Sorry," she said. "I've never seen that happen from start to finish. I've barely even seen a penis up close. The only one I've ever known is my husband's. "

"No apology necessary," he said. "I like your eyes on me. You're gorgeous. Do you like my cock?"

Brody leaned back, hands on the bed behind him, displaying his hard dick like a trophy. He was thick and pulsating, slowly turning darker red. Veins covered the surface just beneath the thin skin.

"It's so big," she said. "I've never seen one that big. It's kind of frightening."

Brody laughed.

"Get closer," he offered. "Take a good look. I can see how curious you are. I don't mind. Ask me whatever you want."

Carla rolled forward, planting her hands by his knees. She lowered her face to his lap, staring at his throbbing pillar of flesh from eight inches away.

"So," she said, thoughtfully. "Your job is to have sex with women in front of the camera? How can they handle you? How can those women handle how big you are? Do you hurt them?"

"You're adorable," Brody said.

"Shut up," Carla scowled, playfully. "I'm serious."

"I know you are. That's what makes you so adorable."

"Answer me," she insisted. "How can they? Because I'd never have sex with a man that large. You're scary. Ugh. My stomach aches just thinking about it."

Brody sat up, grinning broadly.

"So does that mean you're thinking about having sex with me?"

Carla shook her head.

"No," she countered. "Not you. Not Brody Buckskin, if that's your real name. I'm imagining that penis. It could be attached to anyone. It could be my husband's."

"Is your husband's penis this big?"

She shook her head repeatedly. I almost gasped out loud.

"Oh my gosh, no," she said, giggling. "Yours is way bigger. But his is perfect for me. He feels big to me. That's why I'm wondering if you hurt women with it."

Brody grinned.

"Yes," he said. "I have sex with women in front of a camera and no, I have never hurt any of them. You'd be surprised what your sweet little pussy is capable of. In my experience women get wetter when they see something like this coming at them. I'm not saying all women love big dicks, but every woman I've been with so far has reacted to it in a very positive way."

"I admit it looks cool," Carla said. "But I doubt I'd like it much."

"That's what a lot of you say," he said. "Then we shoot the scene and your tune changes. No worry. You're young and inexperienced. Someday you'll love one like this."

Brody grabbed his dick around the base, like a baton, and shook it hard. Carla made a face. They both laughed. When he let go Brody looked even harder, if that was possible. My wife was turning him on like crazy.

Randy returned and noticed Brody was already stiff and throbbing.

"Good," he said. "Let's get started. Brody, put your back against the headboard and open your legs. Carla, place your hands on the man's inner thighs, each hand about a foot away from his scrotum. Cool?"

"Cool," she said.

Brody nodded and moved into position. Randy snapped a few pictures.

"Move your hands closer to his cock," Randy said and Carla complied.

Snap, snap.

"Now just your left hand," Randy instructed. "Spin the ring first so the diamond catches the light better. Excellent. Now lean your face over his lap so your long hair hangs in the frame. I'll adjust it so it doesn't block the shot. Back up a bit. Perfect. Now open your mouth like you plan on sucking it. Don't worry, I'll cut the shot so only your mouth and lips are visible. Closer. Closer. Perfect. Hold that pose."

Sweet Jesus, I was dying. Dying. I wanted to howl. I wanted to attack all of them. Carla's big naked tits swayed as she held her mouth over him. Her eyes were glued to his hard cock. Her open mouth was so close. Brody drank it all in, smiling slightly, watching Carla closely.

A bead of precum oozed from the slit at the tip of his penis.

"That's fantastic," Randy said. "Carla, get your mouth right over him and stick out your tongue a bit. More. Don't worry, I'll keep you away from it. Yes, stop, amazing."

The tip of her tongue was half an inch from his gathering semen, less when her wiggling tongue drifted. Carla's arms were shaking from holding herself over Brody's lap. She dipped and I gasped softly, sure she had grazed his fluid. Somehow, she'd missed. The milky drop sat perched atop his pillar of meat like a growing pearl.

"This might be the back of the DVD," Randy gushed, thrilled by the iconic image. "You guys are amazing together."

She sagged a little and her tongue almost touched the pooled sperm again. She lifted her body, unaware how close she'd come to tasting him. A small drop of saliva left her mouth to drip on his large testicles. Randy snapped a dozen photos, slowly moving around the pair.

"All right," Randy said. "Take five and shake yourselves. Brody, keep it up. I'm going to try for cover shots next. Carla, get on the bed and trade places with Brody. Spread your legs wide, wider than you would normally."

I bit my lips to smother a groan. I was shaking all over. My wife performed her duty, nervously sliding her legs far apart. Randy changed lens and moved to kneel by Carla's head, aiming his camera down the length of her body. Brody knew what to do, crawling on the bed on his knees and moving between her thighs. His hard cock pointed like an accusing finger at her face. The thing bobbed as he moved.

"I want you about to penetrate," Randy said, explaining the look he desired. "Let's start with a four-inch shot followed by one-inch. I'll see how that looks and go from there. Good?"

Brody gave a quick nod, moving into position, aiming his thick and throbbing cock right at my wife's small opening. That goddamn drop of sperm still clung to the tip, now hanging down slightly like a drop of alabaster honey. He hit his position and the camera whirled. He moved closer, and then closer, the tip of his dick less than an inch away, that damn droplet even closer. Carla's labia had blossomed on their own, untouched, the natural arousal response of a man between her legs. Her eyes were glued to it. She was breathing fast through slightly parted lips

"Bad angle," Randy complained. "Let me try this."

He moved beside Carla and checked the lens but didn't like that view either. He sank, lying flat on the bed on his stomach, and lifted the camera again.

"Rest the shaft on her pussy," Randy said. "Then drag it backward, between the lips. Keep going until the head touches her clitoris."

Carla whimpered softly. She was staring, like all of us, at the beast pulsating between her legs. Brody crawled forward a few inches and rubbed the underside of his dick back and forth, sliding between her labia and dragging across her clit. Carla sucked air and closed her eyes.

"Pull back," Randy muttered, looking through the eyepiece. "More. More."

The underside of Brody's cock ran down and over her clitoris. When the head wandered over, it coated her pink nub with the droplet of semen. An inch lower and the head dipped into the dent of her hole. He stopped, resting his throbbing cock at her vaginal entrance as if he were about to penetrate. Carla was panting. I wasn't breathing at all. The large head covered her opening, a threat, more deadly than a loaded gun, aimed and cocked. Her face said she would do nothing to stop him if he sank deep. Her body craved that monster. His heavy pulsing presence reminded her she had an empty hole needing to be filled. Randy had promised no sex but I was beginning to wonder. What would I do if Brody eased his cock into her? I saw plainly that Carla would welcome his hard inches.

"Come up again," Randy told Brody.

The man's cock left the entrance to Carla's body and climbed.

"Perfect," my boss announced. "Hold it right there."

The tip of Brody's dick now rested directly on her clit. Randy snapped pictures rapidly, changing the angle slightly, moving the camera here or there, shifting his position on the bed. He took Carla's legs and placed Brody's hands behind each calf, pushing them over her body and spreading her obscenely. His throbbing cock pulsated against her swollen pussy lips.

"Gorgeous," Randy breathed excitedly. "The camera catches her natural wetness. She sparkles. Incredible."

He was in the zone, caught up in the creative process, loving his craft.

"Pull your hips back a bit, Brody," he said.

That long, fat, hard cock dropped again into position at her opening. Brody adjusted a knee and the tip slid inside, vanishing from sight as her labia folded around the pee hole like butterfly wings, surrounding the man in hot, wet flesh. He'd not yet entered her, not truly, but that leaking semen would be left inside. The longer he remained, the more he would give her. Carla groaned, so close to being filled made her keenly aware of the emptiness she carried. The motor on the camera whirred constantly.

"Bring me lens case number four," Randy told me.

I hurried, crossing the studio and grabbing the case, returning swiftly. I hated that she was out of my sight for even an instant. Randy pulled a new lens from the case I brought and made the switch.

"On all fours, Carla," Randy instructed.

I saw her torment. I saw the rigid tension gripping her young body. She was a twisted knot of strain. Her nipples, ignored and untouched, stood stiff like tiny stumps. Brody pulled away and Carla rolled face down, her aching body craving release. She pushed away from the bed, rising to trembling hands and knees.

"Doggie," Randy said.

Carla remained stiff and awkward.

"Doggie," Randy said again.

"I don't know what that is," Carla whimpered.

Brody moved in behind my wife. That steel rod of a cock slipped through her thighs to press against her stomach. She instinctively closed her legs, trapping his cock in her gap, and Brody pumped a few times, carving along her clit, mashing her labia, dragging through the small channel of her vulva.

Carla moaned softly. I'll never forget the sound. My wife craved penetration more than I'd ever seen. It wasn't Brody she desired. It wasn't the man. It was the hard, throbbing cock between her legs.

Randy had Brody put his hands all over my wife. He cupped and caressed her firm breasts and filled his palms with her solid ass. He pulled her long hair hard enough to make her grimace, smacked a handprint on her butt cheek, pushed her face into the bed and rose to mount her, all while pumping that stiff cock between her inner thighs but never penetrating.

Moans and gasps flowed from my wife, sounds she'd never made before. Randy's camera whirled.

"That's a wrap," Randy announced suddenly.

Brody kissed Carla behind an ear and whispered something. He rose from the bed, leaving her tied in a knot, quaking and quivering. Randy got the photos he needed, but Carla paid the price.

The two men headed for the dressing room. I turned my attention to my wife. She was curled into a ball, hugging a pillow.

"Break it down," Randy announced without turning. "I've got a new shoot at eight in the morning."

I left Carla on the bed and got to work on everything else. Soon she slithered off and headed for the dressing room, arriving as Brody exited, dressed. The man hugged her meaningfully. Carla stepped inside and shut the door and I broke down the bed, noting the large wet spot my wife had left behind. Over at the office, Brody shook Randy's hand.

"I will work with Carla anytime," Brody said.

"She's not in the business," Randy replied.

"Offer more money. I want to work with her."

"If only," Randy said. "Talk to one of your executive producers."

Brody left. Carla exited the dressing room, clothed, and headed for Randy's office. He came out to meet her, check in hand. She looked exhausted. Randy handed her the check and she turned to leave.

"Take the car, Baby," I said. "I'll walk home. I still have a lot to do here."

She gave me a weak wave and I waved back as she drifted out the door.

She was asleep when I got home.

Chapter 8

I handed Carla a Fanta Orange Soda and her little sister, Jasmine, a root beer. I opened myself a Corona.

"Happy birthday, kid," I said., tipping my bottle towards her.

"Can't call me that anymore," Jazzy said. "It's official. I'm an adult."

"Like heck you are," Mom said. "You're still my baby."

Thank God I had my sunglasses on. Jasmine had blossomed in the last few years, changing from a gangly kid in braces to smoking hot bombshell just like her big sister. What do you feed these girls, Mom? Jazzy wore boy shorts and a bikini top too small for the tits that swelled this summer. I hid behind my reflective lens and gawked at her hotness. Carla sat next to her. The two of them in wet bikini tops was almost more than a man could take.

Carla and I had talked a lot about what happened at the studio with Brody. Then we talked some more. Then we talked again. We talked until we were both tired of the subject. Carla felt like shit about it all and almost tore up the check. I got it away from her and looked at it and my eyes bugged out.

"Are you crazy?" I'd groaned. "Do you know how much we need this money?"

"Of course I do," she'd shot back. "But look how I earned it!"

"That's your mother talking," I'd said. "You didn't have sex for money. You didn't do it behind my back. I was there with you, Carla. We earned this money. You did nothing wrong, you did an amazing job, you impressed everyone, even a veteran of that industry, and you got paid a bucket of cash. Just let yourself accept it."

It took days but she came around. About five days later we had the longest, most mind-blowing sex session ever. She sucked my dick a long time before we fucked missionary. I was pounding her into the mattress when she told me to lift her legs and spread them. I did, remembering Brody had done the same. I came so hard I passed out. She was delighted with herself.

"Where you going after this party, Jazz?" Carla asked. "Mom says you're leaving and won't be home until later."

"Hang out with some friends," Jasmine replied.

"Mind if we come along?" Carla asked. "We need a break from our routine."

Jasmine shrugged.

"Fine with me," she said. "You know Tonya and Barry. I'm pretty sure both will be there. Maybe others you know."

"Cool."

We spent time with the family and it was nice but all I could do was watch Carla and Jasmine. Everything they did was sexy. Jasmine was sure to get in the pool often, keeping her swimsuit tight and wet. I was careful to avoid detection.

At last Mother got sleepy and we helped clean up, washing and drying and stacking. We said goodnight.

I drove. We'd left well after sunset and the roads were dark. The sisters sat in the back seat, laughing and playing stupid sister games and ordering me around like I was their chauffeur. I didn't mind. It was fun. Jazzy had given me directions in front of Mother but now she leaned into the driver's seat and told me to make a right.

"I thought we were going to Tonya's?" I said.

"No," she corrected, a gleam in her eye. "I said I was going to see Tonya."

"This is a shitty area of town, Jazz," Carla said. "Why are we turning here?"

Jasmine did not answer. She directed me to make a few more turns until we crossed the railroad tracks and pulled over. Ahead, under a bridge, a small gathering of people had a fire burning inside a large metal drum. Faces turned at our approach. I recognized Tonya. I turned off the headlights.

"I don't like this," Carla said.

"That's because you're a goody-two-shoes," Jasmine said.

She reached under her shirt in back and unhooked her bra. She swept her hand around in front and pulled her bra off, flinging it onto the dashboard and laughing. Carla and I were shocked. Jasmine laughed harder at our faces.

"You live your life to please Mom," she said. "You always have. Not me. I'm going to do things. I'm going to get out of this town and go places. Tonya and me have plans."

"Tonya and I," Carla said.

Jasmine rolled her eyes.

"That's what I'm talking about," she said. "Who cares I got it wrong? You know exactly what I meant. That's Mom always correcting us. You are turning out like her. You never do anything for you."

"I've done things," Carla said. "You'd be shocked at the things I've done."

"I don't believe you."

"I have!"

"Kill the engine, Tony," Jasmine said. "I'll walk over. You guys coming?"

"I have, Jazz," Carla insisted.

"Right. What? Stay out past midnight? Drink alcohol before you're twenty-one?"

Siblings know exactly how to push our buttons.

"I made a porno," Carla snapped.

Jasmine stopped. She studied her sister's face.

"You're lying," she said. "You won't even wear a bikini to the beach. No way you took your clothes off in front of a camera."

"I did. I swear."

"I call bullshit. Besides, recording sex with your husband is hardly a porno. That's just a sex tape. Everybody makes those."

"It wasn't with Tony. It was with a pornstar. His name is Brody Buckskin and you can look him up."

Jasmine whipped her cell phone free and punched the keys. She started laughing.

"You wish!" she said, taunting.

"I did it, Jasmine. I'm telling the truth."

Jasmine appraised her sister again and then studied the pictures on her phone. She zoomed in a few times. She glanced at Carla, starting to believe.

"If you fucked this stud I'm going to hate you," Jasmine teased. "He's hot."

"I did."

"When?" Jasmine asked. "No way was Tony cool with it so it had to be before you guys got married. How did you meet this guy? You've never left Elma."

Carla folded her arms over her chest.

"It was a few days ago," she said. "Tell her, Tony."

Jasmine swung her disbelieving gaze to me. Out the windshield, Tonya, dressed in ratty flannel shirt and torn baggy jeans, and wondering why Jasmine was taking so long, headed our way.

"It's true," I said, supporting my wife in this argument but dreading what I revealed. "She did. I was there."

Jasmine stared at me, then Carla, then me, then Carla.

"Fucking yes!" Jasmine cried, punching the roof of my Kia Rio. "That's awesome, Carla! You sneaky bitch! I love it! I never thought you had something like this in you."

She swung her attention to me.

"Did she do it for money?" Jasmine asked. "I'm sure you guys did it for the money. I know times are tight. How much? Where and when? What was it like? Did he pull out and cum on your tits like they do online? I think that's so stupid. Nobody does that in real life. It's just so we can all see that the male climaxed, like that's the most important thing. I like it when the dude cums inside."

"Brody didn't actually have intercourse with Carla," I said, backpedaling and trying to save face. "He wasn't inside her. It was still shots for promotional material."

"He was inside me," Carla mumbled softly.

We both turned to look at her.

"I felt him," she muttered. "He slipped in. He's so big there's no mistaking what I felt. He was inside me. Randy scolded him."

I remembered stepping away to grab lens case number four. I could have missed the moment. Anguish twisted my expression. Jasmine's eyes went wide.

"You didn't know?" she asked me. "What the fuck, you guys? This all sounds like a wonderful fucked up mess. I've got to hear the whole story. Hold up, Tonya's coming. I want her to hear this too."

"I don't want anyone to know," Carla said.

"Then you never should have told me, dummy. You never asked me to keep a secret and I never promised I would. But don't worry. Tonya is cool. That girl holds all my dark confidences."

"Like what?" Carla asked.

Jasmine leaned close and kissed her sister quickly on the lips.

"Like I love fucking," she said. "Like I banged three guys at the same time and went back for more. Like I've been smoking pot since I was a kid. Tonya's cool."

Holy Hell, what a car ride this had turned out to be. Jasmine climbed from the car, braless tits wobbling beneath her shirt, and hugged Tonya hard. They talked for a minute outside.

"Should you have told her?" I asked. "Now our secret's out."

Carla showed me her palms.

"Probably not," she said. "But it's hardly a secret. Randy knows. Brody knows. Anyone they talked to probably knows. Anyone those people talked to probably know. It's out there. We just hope it never comes back around."

She turned from Jasmine and Tonya to look at me.

"I thought you knew Brody was inside me," she said. "You were standing right by the bed. I thought you saw everything."

"I stepped away when I had to fetch some equipment. I did see him slip an inch into you. Just the tip. It seemed accidental."

"Felt like more than that to me," she said.

Tonya and Jasmine returned to the car and climbed in the backseat with Carla. Tonya high-fived my wife, long stringy hair swaying.

"Jazz told me what you did," she said. "I never thought you had it in you."

"I'm full of surprises," my wife said.

"You guys want a hit?" Tonya said, pulling a marijuana cigarette from a shirt pocket and offering it.

"No thanks," Carla and I said at the same time.

Tonya lit it and sucked, passing the joint to Jasmine. Carla watched her little sister take a deep drag.

"I can't believe you hid so much of yourself from me," Carla said. "I feel like I don't know my little sister."

"That's because you don't," Jasmine said, exhaling a thick cloud. "I tried talking to you about things a few times but it was like talking to Mom. You tried to control me too. I needed you to be a big sister but you always wanted to parent me. I already had a mom. I didn't need a second."

"I'm sorry," Carla said. "I shouldn't have done that."

They hugged and Tonya gracefully snatched the joint away from Jasmine. They murmured things to each other, sister things, apologies and promises. Tonya hit the joint repeatedly while we waited, exhaling a dense fog of smoke. I felt a contact high from the vapors trapped inside the car with us. When Carla and Jasmine broke their hugs, Carla's eyes told me she felt it too.

"Let's go meet your friends," I suggested, eager to get outside.

We all climbed out of the car and a giant billowing cloud followed us. We walked up the street to the large flaming drum and Tonya made introductions all around. There were four guys and one girl and I'm sorry to say I forgot their names as soon as I learned them. I blame the weed but also my mind was spinning. I'd assumed all that Carla felt was the tip of Brody's dick but a growing suspicion had set its claws in me. Did he get more inside her than I knew? The marijuana pumped paranoia into my veins. My mind raced. I looked at Carla's little sister. Did Jasmine actually have a foursome with three guys? My imagination loved that image. I swung my attention and my paranoia back to my wife. Was Carla actually standing too close to that dude? She seemed only inches away. Was he making a move on her?

I couldn't concentrate. The barrel flames caught my eye and I stared for a long, long time, watching them dance and make wild patterns. Gradually I returned to myself.

When I looked up, one guy was French kissing Jasmine and another guy was French kissing Carla. He had his hand palming her big tit under her sweater. I saw the raised imprint of his knuckles moving under the material. My wife returned the kiss passionately. I looked at Tonya.

"What?" I asked. "What was—?"

"Good shit, right?" she said, raising a bong which had magically appeared in her hand. I swung back to Carla. The guy had taken her hand and placed it on his crotch. My wife jerked his dick through his pants. I saw the size and shape of his erection by the grip of her fingers. They went at each other hot and heavy, groping and kissing. My wife moaned quietly, powerless to resist. Jasmine too, although she probably knew her guy. I was aware I should voice a protest but I just watched. I'd seen Carla in so many similar situations lately I felt no panic. Who cares about a hand on her tit when I'd so recently seen a hard cock close to her vagina? Close? In? Did that hard cock go inside her? She said so. I left her alone maybe a minute. Randy was right there.

Did Brody bury that big cock in my girl?

"Did he fuck her?" I muttered, finishing the thought out loud.

"Who?" Tonya asked, misunderstanding. "Are you asking about the guy climbing all over your wife? That's Rudy. Are you asking if Rudy has fucked Jasmine? Yeah, Rudy has banged the shit out of her. She loves fucking him but he's not her boyfriend. Why are you asking? Wait. Are you guys into that? Do you want Rudy to fuck Carla?"

My tongue was too dry and swollen to speak so I just shook my head. Jasmine's guy lifted her shirt and now I understood why she'd removed her bra in the car. What a spectacular titty drop. Jasmine's were only slightly smaller than Carla's and every bit as firm. She had puffy nipples like her sister and they stiffened before my eyes as the night air hit them. I wanted to gnash my teeth. These sisters were ridiculous.

"We need to leave," I said, discovering my tongue was fine.

"Don't drive yet," Tonya warned. "If this ain't cool I'll pull Rudy off Carla. After hearing that story I thought you'd be cool with all this."

Carla had both hands mauling the front of Rudy's jeans. He was rock hard and unyielding and she pulled and twisted his iron rod like she wanted to rip the heavy fabric away and free the thing.

"Carla," I croaked. "We need to leave."

My wife slowly came around, focusing first on me and then on Tonya. Her head wobbled as she located her sister and then gawked at Jasmine's naked breasts. Next she looked down at her hands gripping a denim-covered cock. Her eyes came up to his face. She struggled to understand who he was or how she got here. She let go of him and stumbled to me. I took her under an arm and reached for Jasmine.

"Leave her," Carla exhaled. "These are friends. She's fine. Let's get out of here."

We staggered back to the car and I slowly got us home. We collapsed into our bed and didn't wake until mid-morning, still wearing our street clothes.

Chapter 9

"Tell Randy I want more work like that," Carla said, keeping her voice low.

We were sunning by the pool at her parents' home. Jasmine, pretended to nap for Mom and Dad seated at the table but in reality recovering from a hangover, lay to my left. Carla lay to my right. I will never tire of seeing these sisters in their swimsuits. Mom and Dad were far enough away they couldn't hear us.

"I don't know, Baby," I said. "That was over the edge."

"Yes," she said, lifting her iced tea to draw a sip up the straw. "And it paid like it. I want to make money like that again. We have been poor for too long and I'm tired of sweater and pompom photoshoots that pay like shit. Will you talk to Randy, please? I want to get paid."

"Paid to play with dick?" Jasmine mumbled. "Where do I sign?"

I watched the sunlight make patterns in the pool, bouncing beams of light.

"You encouraged me, Tony," Carla continued. "When I wanted to stop, when I first freaked out and felt like shit, you said you were proud of me. You said I showed courage and determination. You called me a rock star, a professional, and you told me to keep pursuing this career. You warned me nudity was part of the industry and I should embrace it. Remember?"

"I remember."

"Jasmine's right," she continued. "I've been hiding behind my mother's view of me for years, maybe all my life. I want this. I need this for me."

Jasmine raised a black-power fist.

"Shut up, Jazzy," I laughed. "All right, Carla. I'll talk to Randy."

"Thank you. It doesn't have to be Brody. Any guy will do."

"Or girl," Jasmine added.

"I definitely prefer dick," Carla said.

I left my lounge chair to go swimming. I needed to cool off. If Mother only knew who her daughters truly were. Carla had written off the incident under the bridge as a contact high from the smoke in the car and an emotional high left over from the Brody shoot. She apologized for allowing Rudy to climb all over her like that. I accepted her apology but still wondered. Carla was changing and I doubted she saw it. She was shedding her meek side, learning to embrace the bold. Natural maturing, I suppose, but where would it lead? What else would she do?

I took a deep breath and plunged underwater, swimming the length of the pool. I surfaced and turned, noticing Carla and Jasmine talking. My wife was growing up. We all were. I sighed.

The next day I took Randy aside, mumbling about Carla wanting more work.

"The Brody kind," I said.

"You sure?" he asked, piercing eyes looking right through me.

"Yes."

That was it. We did not talk about it again. I left work at six and got a text from him at eleven that night. We'd already gotten into bed.

Can you both be at the studio in an hour?

I read the text to Carla and she brightened.

"Hell yes," she said.

She jumped up and jogged to the shower. We arrived at the studio fifteen minutes early. Randy was already there, of course, but so was the male talent.

"Guys," Randy said. "This is Damacio. He's visiting from Italy."

Damacio was gorgeous. The man was so handsome even I could tell he was handsome. The man was so handsome Carla hesitated before taking his offered handshake, staring blankly at his face. His skin was coffee with cream, dusky, but only lightly. He was tall and lean, with black hair and blue eyes.

"You know how this works," Randy said. "Disrobe. We'll begin shooting once your skin clears."

Damacio whipped off his T-shirt and cast it aside. Not an ounce of fat on this boy, nope. No hair either. Nothing but perfect rippled light brown marble. He kicked off his shoes and started on his pants. Those came down, revealing a smooth, long, thick, coffee-colored cock and hairless balls.

"Oh my goodness," Carla gasped.

Damacio stood tall, hands on hips. He unflinchingly waited for Carla to strip. My wife looked at the floor and began removing her clothes. Randy barked some instructions at me and I got to work throwing a set together. A pool table this time but a special made for photoshoots pool table, with deep foam and soft rails. You couldn't play a game on it but you could pose for sexy pictures on it and not get bruised. Carla and Damacio stood off to the side, talking, naked. Randy stopped by to examine their skin several times, eventually announcing they were ready in five.

"Get it up, D," Randy said.

Damacio took his penis in hand and fixed Carla in his sights. He smiled. His hand began a rhythmic stroking, jacking off as he gazed at her.

"Me?" my wife asked. "Really?"

"You are incredible," he said, running his eyes over every inch.

His dick rose swiftly, filling and expanding, turning hard. The smooth skin became covered with a lattice of bumpy veins. The more Carla looked at it, the faster and harder it grew. Soon it pointed directly at her, ignoring gravity, hanging in the air under its own power, throbbing with want.

"On the table, Carla," Randy said. "Left foot planted on the floor, ass seated on the edge, right foot resting on the rail. Are you flexible enough?"

"Let's find out," she said.

She was. Easily. The pose stretched her pussy, causing the lips to part and revealing the delicate inner lips, which was Randy's point. Her inner lips were already pink and swollen. Randy knelt by the table and leaned close, snapping a few pictures of Carla's excited pussy.

"Damacio," Randy instructed. "Stand over me. I'm going to shoot a few from below. You understand?"

"Got it."

Damacio placed his feet in front of Randy and worked his penis closer. Randy's camera whirled. Damacio placed his hand near her pussy, pulling the skin with a thumb and opening her even more. The man had tugged her skin enough to show us inside her tight pink tunnel. My wife was soaked. I saw inside her body. Damacio brought his hard cock an inch from her opening and Randy snapped away, reeling of a flood of pictures, far more than normal.

"Stop," he told Damacio, and the man stopped.

Carla's chest heaved. She was fully exposed, pussy open and on display. This was all happening fast, with no time to question or react. Randy expected Carla to understand how things worked now and do her job. She'd done this all before.

Randy sat the still camera down and reached for the video camera by his knee. I don't know how I missed it before. All movement slowed, including my breathing, as he drew the camera to his eye.

Why the fuck did Randy need a video camera?

"Proceed," he said.

I heard his voice from far away. There's only one reason Randy ever uses the video cam, and that's to make video recordings. But we are only shoot stills, right? We are creating promotional materials, right? I swung my slow-motion gaze back to Carla sprawled along the edge of the pool table.

Damacio leaned his hips forward. The large, milk-chocolate cock head covered Carla's small opening and then mushroomed as the man applied pressure. Carla's eyes closed like curtains at the end of a play. She whimpered, her hand floating up to his chest as if to stop him from going farther, but then hovering there, fingertips resting lightly on his caramel skin, showing she had no real desire to stop him at all.

Her labia spread to accept him, welcoming the fat head as it slid between. The glans crawled inside, her wet pussy lips closing around the crown, swallowing the plum head whole and sliding down the shaft. Her opening was forced wide by his girth. Inch after inch he sank deep, stretching her hole around his column of meat. He had inches to go when he bumped to a stop, encountering the depths of her.

My wife clung desperately to the rail with both hands but made no move to free herself. She kept her pussy where he could reach it. She did not back away. She opened her eyes and gazed at the handsome man now inside her, lowering her eyes from his face to the place his cock disappeared inside her body. She was panting. Damacio withdrew several inches to show her and then sheathed himself once more. Carla shuddered from the intense sensation.

"Would you like to see it?" Damacio asked.

Carla nodded once.

Damacio withdrew his hefty penis, her flesh clinging to his meat. Damacio pulled his cock all the way out and leaned back, displaying the gleaming beast waving in the air. He was soaked more than half way down, coated with Carla's excitement. Randy moved around, recording it all, creating a record of my wife's invasion. I saw myself from outside myself, as if I floated above it all, raising no protest, frozen in the moment my wife was taken from me.

"You like my cock?" he asked.

"Put it back," she whined.

My skull felt struck by a baseball bat.

Put it back?

I'd unconsciously clung to the idea, the hope, that Carla was swept along by events, transfixed, unable to act from shock.

Put it back? She was inviting him. She offered herself. My wife was requesting his cock inside her again. Now, in this moment, where we all had the chance to collect our thoughts and reflect on what we were doing, Carla had asked him to put his cock inside her again.

He did. Of course he did. Well, he tried to but my lovely wife beat him to it. He pushed her thighs farther apart and stepped closer, his long cock bobbing, but Carla reached down to grab him, guiding his fat erection into her hole. He sank all the way this time, sliding through her hand and burying his inches until his heavy balls covered her asshole.

"Go slow!" Carla squealed.

"I'm sorry, my love," Damacio said. "You are so gorgeous. I am filled with lust. I must have you. Even a moment outside is torture."

Corny, but Carla loved it, and his hard cock was a great argument that everything he said was true. He lowered his mouth to her breasts and sucked the nipples. Carla held his head and watched him, watched her areola vanish into his mouth. She stroked his head and marveled at the gorgeous lover between her legs.

Damacio unexpectedly scooped her legs off the table, resting her ankles on his shoulders. He filled his hands with her ass, holding her in place on the rail while he began a deep and slow in and out. Carla's face showed disbelief.

With each stroke, she looked more astonished, shocked sex could be so overwhelming, amazed sex could feel this good. He sawed back and forth, plunging his cock all the way in before slowly drawing it out, antagonizing my wife with unimagined pleasure. He suckled her breasts while pumping her hole, deep and strong. Soon her expression changed from pleasure to confusion. Something was happening to her.

"Wait," she muttered.

He ignored her, reading her face and body. He pumped faster and she pushed on his chest, trying to force him away. Uncertainty seized her, her expression twisting and contorting. She was beginning to panic when suddenly she threw her head back and howled, crying like a banshee.

"What's happening?" I muttered.

"He's making her cum," Randy said.

My boss urged them on, saying how hot they looked, goading them to fuck harder, wilder, more animal passion, all while recording everything. They needed no encouragement. Carla screamed. Her arms flew around his neck. Her feet crossed behind his head. She sobbed, big tits bouncing wildly, breathing ragged. Damacio continued his onslaught, plunging thick cock into her depths. Carla would have fallen but Damacio held her up, lifting her ass to pound her dripping hole.

Another wave slammed her. Carla threw her head back, barely holding on, body limp as she lost control. I had no idea such things were possible. We'd tried many times to make her climax and eventually decided she simply couldn't. She didn't care. What you don't know, you don't miss.

Her pleasure came from my pleasure and how fast and hard she could make me orgasm.

Damacio lifted her from the table and carried her to a stack of packing blankets, her ankles still behind his head. He pressed his big cock deep, holding himself buried in my wife. She moaned, overwhelmed with pleasure. He began long strokes in and out, fucking her tight pussy like she'd never been fucked. He kissed her passionately and she returned his kisses, hot for the gorgeous man. He fucked faster, driving his hips and pounding her. She tossed her head side to side, moaning, ranting about how good he felt, how much she loved him fucking her, how she never wanted it to stop.

Damacio drove his cock all the way in and roared. Spittle flew from his mouth. He held himself fully buried, big cock impaling my wife. Her eyes flew wide, her mouth opened in silent shock. She tried to form words but failed. Instead, her mouth curled into a huge grin. For several seconds, I didn't understand.

Then, I did.

He was cumming inside her!

Disaster! Catastrophe! No man has ever cum inside Carla. We were saving that for when we started a family. Now, a stranger, a man we'd met only minutes ago, would forever hold that honor. I'm her goddamn husband but that did not matter. Another man would be the first to inseminate her clean and perfect pussy.

Damacio groaned and the sperm continued flowing. His balls lifted with each spurt, over and over, unleashing a flood. Carla's expression turned sexy. She moaned, a long and drawn out sound as she felt a penis ejaculating inside her for the first time. Her expression made it obvious how much she loved the sensation

"Stop," I murmured.

Randy either didn't hear or chose to ignore me. Damacio had taken my wife to another world. Even his slightly softened cock was enough to send waves of sensation through her. He pumped slowly, fucking his own slippery semen and her copious pussy juices, sliding his still mostly firm rod in and out. They murmured sweet somethings to each other, lost in bliss.

Damacio slowly withdrew and a gush of milky sperm followed, splattering the studio floor. He lowered her legs and held her slim waist, turning her away and bending her over the stack of blankets. He lifted one butt cheek and leaned over her body, his fat slick cock sliding easily into her tight pussy hole again. She'd given him total control, doing anything he wanted, moving her body exactly as he wished.

"Unngh," Carla moaned. "You're so big."

"Italian men," was all he said.

He held his weight above her, allowing my wife to work her pussy on his cock. She awkwardly thrust her hips back at him, impaling herself, and gradually learned what worked best. Soon she fucked herself hard on his stiffening cock. She rose to her elbows, big tits swinging, nipples grazing the blankets, her sweaty back occasionally brushing against his chest. He tenderly kissed her nape, her ears, her shoulders.

"It's going to happen again," she whimpered. "I can feel it. In my pussy. I can feel another orgasm growing. It's getting closer. I can't believe it."

Randy stepped back, wanting to capture the moment on film. Damacio was rock hard again, as one would expect from an international pornstar, but held himself still, allowing my young wife to fuck herself on him.

"Yeah!" Carla whined, her hips smashing his pelvis, his cock plumbing her depths. "Yeah! Wait! Oh! YEAHHHHH!"

She had more to say but they were merely animal sounds, not words. My wife orgasmed on his cock again, her body convulsing, her legs shaking, muscles taut in her arms and across her back. She looked hot as fuck, a writhing fuck doll, but also it was a terrible, terrible sight. My eyeballs ached to see my wife enjoy him so much. My stomach churned to see what his meat did to her. Damacio waited, masterfully holding his stiff cock where it pleased her most, until her orgasm crested and drained away. Carla collapsed to the blanket but Damacio held her around the waist, pinning her twitching body. The man began to pump his cock deep, burying his inches into her tight pussy. He fucked her with purpose, driving himself higher, chasing another orgasm. Despite her flooded and slippery tunnel, her tight pussy clung to him. He fucked her strong and hard until that snug cunt coaxed another hot spurting load out of his heavy balls and into her womb.

Randy kept recording all the way down to Damacio finally withdrawing his spent dick and the gush of semen that followed.

"Wow," my boss said. "That was some of the hottest sex ever filmed. I had half a dozen scenes planned but what I got is better than any of it. I thought we'd go all night but I think we can call that a wrap."

Damacio waved him off.

"For this girl," he said. "I can go all night. Just give me a moment."

Faced with the prospect of him fucking my wife again, I finally got my jaw to move. I faced Randy squarely.

"I thought this was going to be a porn promo," I said. "I told you Carla wanted more work like last time. No sex."

Randy shook his head, confused.

"No," he said. "What you said was Carla wanted 'The Brody kind of work.' I specifically remember you saying exactly that: 'The Brody kind of work.' Brody's a pornstar. If you want to work like Brody, you make sex films. Did I misunderstand you?"

"Yes," I said.

Randy laughed.

"That's a hell of a misunderstanding," he said. "Oh well. What's done is done."

I struggled to stay calm. Now that we'd all returned to Earth, fear and panic seized me. Carla carried two big loads inside her. There was no undoing that. No way would I allow Damacio to add to what he'd already pumped into her.

"Goddamn it," I groaned. "Carla, we need to leave."

My wife lifted herself from the blanket pads on trembling arms. She looked at each of us in turn, starting with Randy and ending with Damacio. She dropped her gaze to his tired penis, then raised her eyes to me.

"It's all right," she said. "I'm okay. I liked it. A lot."

She returned her attention to Randy.

"I want the Brody kind of work," she said.

Randy wouldn't even look at me.

"Then let's give the man a moment," he said.

Randy took Damacio's elbow and led him away. I stayed with Carla. Neither of us said anything for a long time. Finally, she spoke.

"I like it," she said, again.

"I heard you the first time."

"It's not cheating. It's like acting."

"Did you fake that orgasm?" I asked.

She looked at the ground.

"No."

"Then I guess you weren't acting."

She tried to look guilty for my sake but failed. Neither of us knew the night would turn out like this but now that it had, I saw plainly how excited she was. This was like discovering a secret door in your home that led to a basement of wonders.

"I like it," she said a third time. "A lot. Please don't tell me to stop."

Chapter 10

Jasmine gazed at herself in the bedroom mirror, turning this way and that. I sat on the foot of her bed. She loosened the towel she had wrapped and let it drop, exposing her nude and freshly showered body. I stared, burning through her flesh, then made myself look away. She watched me in the mirror.

"He fucked her?" she asked. "Right in front of you?"

"Yes," I said, staring at the bedroom carpet.

"Super-hot pornstar? Muscles? Big dick? "

"Yes. Goddamn it, Jasmine, we went over these details already."

"I just love hearing them," she said. "It blows my mind. Big Swinging Dick stud man fucked your wife, my sister, in front of your face. I never thought Carla could behave like that. Me? Sure. But sweet angel Carla? No way. You did nothing to stop them? You said nothing in protest? You just let him fuck her?"

"It's complicated," I protested. "Randy is my boss. I risked my job if I disrupted them. Plus, Carla got into it. Like, really into it. I was paralyzed with indecision."

"Did he make her cum?"

"Will you put some clothes on, please?"

"No. Did he make her cum?"

"Yes."

"More than once?"

"Yes, a bunch of times."

She studied me.

"That's why I need your help," I said. "She wants more. She wants to do it again. She wants to do it a lot. I've tried to talk her out of it but I have no solid argument. Like you say: I was there and let it happen. She says now that she's done it once, why not do it again? Why not keep doing it?"

"That's a pretty good argument."

"Because we're married! Married people don't fuck other people."

Jasmine shook her head, making her big tits wobble. I'd come to visit for serious reasons but my dick was starting to rise. These fucking sisters would be my death.

"That's weak," she said. "Married people set their own rules. What about swingers? Being married does not come with a set of laws. Every couple makes up their own. If nobody hides anything and everybody tells the truth, couples can do whatever they want. Ain't nobody's business."

"Why are you naked?"

"Because I just got out of the shower. I told you on the phone I was busy and to wait but you came over anyway. You want to ignore what I say? This is what you get. Think of it as punishment." She smiled mischievously. "Also, I like the way you look at me. I see in your eyes how hot you think I am. I catch you looking all the time. This was my chance to show you everything I have and see how you reacted."

I checked to see if my bulge was noticeable and blushed when I discovered my tight shorts showed everything.

"So you won't talk to her?" I asked, trying to get back on topic.

"You don't want me to talk to her, Tony, trust me. I'll tell her to go for it. She's uncovered a pot of gold. Shit, I'm thinking I need to join her with some of these guys."

I hung my head and stared at my hands. This was hopeless. Jasmine came and sat next to me on her bed, sliding an arm around my shoulders. Her big, round, firm tit dented against my elbow. I did not move away.

"Here's my best advice," she said, dropping a comforting hand on my knee. "Let her work it out. Let her get it all out of her system. She's a good girl at heart but discovered something about herself. She'll come back. She really is a goody two shoes. This is not truly her."

"Your advice is do nothing and hope?"

"Yeah. What else can you do? Divorce her or lock her in a box? Just take it like a man and she'll come around. Do not try to control her."

My eyes drifted to her lap. Like her sister, Jasmine had almost no pubic hair. Her vertical slit had a faint downy pelt. Jasmine's inner lips protruded more than Carla's but only a little. Both had pretty pussies. Her legs opened and I looked up. I'd stared too long and she'd caught me. Again.

"Look all you'd like," she said, laughing. "Here, take a good look."

She flopped backward onto the bed and spread her legs enough to show me her pussy. Nothing crass, just a clear view of her vulva and ass crack. I burned the sight into my brain for later.

"I should leave," I said.

"You should have waited before coming over like I asked."

She sat up and kissed my cheek.

"Let all this run its course," she said. "Carla will come home, I promise."

I dug my car keys out of my pocket. I needed to be at work soon. I stopped at her bedroom door and turned, hungry for one last look at her hotness. She stood and lifted her long hair with both arms, posing solely for my benefit. I shook my head and she laughed.

"I like the way you look at me," she called after my fleeing back.

Chapter 11

"Sorry about the mix-up," Randy said. "I thought you'd given me the green light."

"It's okay," I said, stacking blanket pads against the wall, remembering that Damacio had fucked Carla on them only days ago. "I understand how it sounded. I should have explained better."

He came over to help me with the pads.

"You and Carla okay?"

"Yeah, we're good. I get upset every time I think about it but she wants to do it again. She had a blast. She says I have nothing to worry about but you can imagine how hard that is to believe. Damacio is a handsome guy."

Randy chuckled.

"Yes, all the ladies want to work with him. I'm not surprised Carla wants more. Would it help you if the male lead wasn't so attractive? I can get other men. Carla can have all the work she wants. You guys will make a fortune."

"I want to stop. I'm worried."

Randy shook his head.

"I get that," he said. "But you better face facts: Carla won't stop. I've worked with enough women to know. She's got this great marriage to you but she took a deep drink from the forbidden cup. There's no going back. I saw it on her face. I heard it in her voice when she climaxed. The gates have opened. Why should she stop?"

"That's what her sister says too."

His eyebrows shot up.

"She has a sister? Seriously? The sister look anything like her?"

"Oh yeah. Mom only gives birth to hot daughters. Jasmine's tits aren't as big as Carla's but then again she's younger. Maybe she just needs time to grow into them."

"The sister knows what Carla did?"

I saw where this was heading.

"You're a greedy bastard, Randy."

He laughed.

"The money is great kid, I won't lie, but the scenery, my God, there's nothing like it. Not all the women are good-looking and some can be pretty skanky. Then a diamond like Carla comes along. It's a great way to make a living. I'll shoot the automobiles and the high school annuals, and those keep my reputation solid, but there's nothing like a porn shoot. That's why I moved my studio to this small town. Elma is halfway to everywhere. I can get any star I need to drive or fly in for the gig. I do them late at night but that hardly matters. People here mind their own business. I know I talked about moving to Seattle but with Carla as a house star, I won't need to."

Won't, I thought, not Wouldn't. The decision, it seemed, had been made. I'd been moved aside. First by Carla and now by Randy. I was the rock in the middle of the river. They would simply flow around me. Everyone wanted this but me and they were going to make it happen with or without my approval. I'd need to do some soul-searching, see if I could come to terms with a pornstar wife. My gut said Jasmine was right: Carla wouldn't stay in the life, Carla just wanted to experience the life.

I finished work and headed for home. Carla greeted me at the door wearing lingerie I didn't know she owned. I got an amazing blowjob and almost shot in her mouth but at the last second she whipped me out and pulled down her teddy. I showered her tits. She knelt there looking sexy and spectacular and I realized in that moment there was plenty in this for me. Carla had already enjoyed making love. Now she also loved fucking. We'd added positions and duration to our lovemaking. She'd even started taking the lead sometimes, telling me what she liked or when she was in the mood, which was a lot more often. Our love life was awesome. I just had to accept the fact that she would sometimes fuck other men.

Could I?

I stared at my wife on her knees, her tits glazed with semen. I imagined that semen wasn't mine. I imagined another man had emptied his balls on her. That thought was sexy too, in its own way. Carla looked naughty. My angel had acquired a tainted halo and it looked good on her. She was more layered now, more complex, more woman, less girl. That made her even more attractive.

"What are you thinking?" she asked, smiling. "You've gone somewhere."

"I'm imagining that sperm all over you came from someone else."

Her eyes grew big.

"Why?" she asked.

I got down on my knees with her and spread my jizz around those big tits with both hands, covering her skin in a slippery sheen. I teased her small nipples with my thumbs.

"I'm admitting to myself there are some things about the slutty version of you I like, some things are hot."

"Like watching me get fucked?"

"I'm working on that one," I said. "I'm thinking more like what it has done to your sex drive. What it has done to what you're comfortable trying in the bedroom. You never would have used the word 'Fuck' but now you use it often. I like it."

"I think you like watching me get fucked, too. You can't admit it yet, to yourself or me, but you do. I've seen the way you look at me. It fuels a fire in you. Our sex when we get home is wild. You're all over me like you're trying to take me back or prove something. Don't get me wrong, I love it. You're just really different, after."

I desperately wished my dick would get stiff again. I'd cum hard so it would be a while. I held my limp penis in my hand and tried to mentally force myself erect. Carla read my mind.

"If only," she teased.

I thought nothing more of her comment but she held my eyes. Clearly, there was another meaning I was missing.

"If only," I echoed, racking my brain.

"Yours is out of commission."

"For a while," I admitted.

Playful married banter, right? Then her choice of words hit me:

Yours.

I met her dancing eyes.

"What?" I asked, dreading her answer.

"Damacio is still in town. His flight out of Seattle got delayed so he stayed in town to do some hiking. He's not driving back until tomorrow. He says Elma is beautiful."

"Elma is beautiful. What, exactly, are you saying?"

She looked down at her sticky, exposed breasts.

"What if I shower again and we go meet him for pizza?"

"Pizza?"

"Yeah, pizza. Pizza and fucking."

Bam!

A rush jolted my body followed by tingling.

"He's at the Stay-Beyond Inn," she said. "I have his cell. We've been texting."

Zap!

"You've been texting? With a pornstar?"

"Crazy, right? He's a nice guy. A perfect gentleman."

My mind was stumbling around, crashing into furniture. She kissed my cheek and hopped up, angling for the bathroom. I heard the shower. I remained seated on the floor. In ten minutes she returned, a tight new red and white dress stretched around her amazing young body. She must have purchased the dress the same time she purchased the lingerie and then I realized meeting me at the door and knocking my dick out of commission was all part of her plan to see Damacio tonight, fuck him and only him, and I couldn't complain because I'd gotten a hot blowjob out of it. I had no way to prove anything but I knew I was right. Then doubt crept in. Carla is not a planner. There was a decent chance she had no idea what she'd done. She could have seen the lingerie and liked it. She could have seen the dress and liked it. She could have sent Damacio a simple hello text and that blossomed into more and she could have honestly felt like blowing me the minutes she saw me.

The choice to suspect her or not was mine.

"Lovely dress," I said.

"I hoped you'd like it. I've never worn anything like it. My mother would lose her shit if she saw me in it. Look how tight it is. I tried it with and without a bra and decided to go without. The bra left all these ugly lumps on my back. This looks cleaner, right? Sexier. Like I'm sophisticated."

"It looks amazing," I said, imagining the effect she'd have on Damacio a few short minutes from now.

Chapter 12

Carla and I pulled into the gravel parking lot at Cascade Pizza. We were well after the dinner hour so few cars remained, none of them rentals.

"I'll go in and check," Carla said. "Maybe he took an Uber."

"Wait," I said. "We need to discuss something. I don't want you getting pregnant."

She rolled her eyes.

"Oh my God, Baby," she said. "You bring that up now? I'm about to walk in there dressed like this. I don't want to even think about all that. I'll deal with it at the time if I ever need to. Now be patient and keep your eyes open. I'll be right back."

I waited in our car, watching the parking lot for the man. I tried to imagine what the customers and employees were doing with Carla strolling around looking that good. Hopefully nobody we knew was in there. In typical Carla fashion, she'd brushed my concerns aside to pursue what she wanted, delaying the day she'd need to think about birth control. I made a mental note to investigate how to acquire the morning-after pill in case we needed it. I shivered. I was exploring options regarding my wife's impregnation, which wouldn't normally be a strange thing for a husband to do except in this case it might not be me that impregnated my wife. I shivered again. These thoughts were insane. How was I able to remain calm?

I waited well beyond our time to meet. Damacio did not show so I went inside looking for my wife. I did a sweep of the place, noticing a few familiar faces, until I spied her and Damacio seated at the bar. They sat angled towards each other on their high barstools, his coffee-with-cream hand resting on her bare thigh. Carla's face lit up when she saw me. Two guys I went to high school with waved hello as I walked by. Their eyes followed my approach to Carla. They leaned in to whisper to each other.

"Finally!" Carla said. "What were you doing? Listening to the baseball game?"

I gave her a look.

"I texted you D was inside," she said. "Twice. You never answered."

I withdrew my phone to discover I'd left the volume off after work. There indeed sat two text messages from her. Damacio extended a hand and I shook it, taking the stool behind Carla. Her short tight dress had ridden far up her thighs. Damacio returned his hand to her bare skin. Carla shivered with delight. She was being bad, out in public, and with her husband right there. The sexual tension between these two was thick. Even my friends from high school sensed it. All around the restaurant people glanced at us, noting how Carla was obviously my wife but hot for him. He gently rubbed her leg, drawing a little circle with a fingertip, while all three of us casually talked.

Carla turned and kissed me deeply, over her shoulder.

"I'm so turned on right now," she murmured. "People are watching. What are they thinking? I've never done anything this bad."

"Never in public, you mean," I corrected.

She kissed me again and returned to her conversation with Damacio. I felt awkward and out of place. Carla was my wife but her attention was totally given to Damacio and everyone saw it.

"I never suspected," Damacio said. "I knew she was married but not to Randy's assistant. You guys hid that fact well."

"Thanks," I muttered.

"Your table's ready," a voice said.

Our waitress was a lovely redhead with bright green eyes. She wore the cliché hillbilly uniform of Cascade Pizza but she wore it well: an extra button undone, shorts pulled a little too high. She had the tits and ass to make it work. She gestured to show us the way to our table so we followed. We sat. The table was small and square and I sat across from Carla. Damacio sat on her right. The waitress handed out menus.

"I already know what I want tonight," Damacio said, gazing directly at Carla.

"I think you and I want the same thing," Carla replied.

I looked at the waitress. She cocked one knowing eyebrow.

"Twelve-inch double pepperoni," I said.

"Glad to see you're getting something out of it too," she boldly teased.

Waitresses and nurses are the horniest women on the planet. She perfectly understood what was happening in our little world and felt bad for me, the husband. We all looked up after that comment and she met Carla's eyes.

"You go girl," she said, glancing at Damacio and smiling at my wife.

My face turned red. Did the whole restaurant know? I surveyed the face around us and concluded yes, everyone here knew this man would soon be fucking my wife. My neck burned. The waitress walked away.

"Did she mean what I think she meant?" Carla asked.

I nodded.

"Hey, Tony," another voice said.

Bryan Casado from high school. With him was another guy I'd seen around town here and there but did not know.

"Hi, Bry," I said, standing. "This is my wife Carla and our friend Damacio."

They all shook hands.

"Yeah," Bryan said, grinning. "I know who Damacio is. I've seen his work."

His friend chuckled.

"You guys have a great night," Bryan continued. "I just wanted to say hello and meet The Man himself."

"Thank you," Damacio said. "Always great to meet a fan."

Bryan laughed.

"I'm just glad my girlfriend's not with me," he finished, both men laughing. "Looks like it's too late for you, Tony."

They walked away laughing and Carla looked at me sadly.

"Maybe we should leave," she said. "I didn't know people would recognize D so easily. This was a mistake. I was stupid."

"This always happens," Damacio said. "I'm sorry. I should have mentioned it. I thought we'd be safe in a small town like this but the Internet is everywhere. I have apparently found my way into every home."

I held up my hand.

"No," I said. "Let's enjoy our meal. No big deal. Let their tongues wag. We are merely out for dinner. They know nothing else with any certainty."

Carla scanned the restaurant, moving from face to face. She saw someone she knew and gave them a small wave. She was happy we were staying. This was exciting for her. She was out in public and misbehaving and to have all these people watching turned her on. Damacio sipped his beer and continued eyeing my wife.

"I can't take any more," Damacio said.

He stood and pulled out a wallet. He dropped two crisp hundred dollar bills on the table and took Carla's hand.

"You're coming with me," he stated.

Carla stood too. She glanced once at me with a playful face and then followed as Damacio led her out of the restaurant. I marveled at his complete control of her. I saw the waitress returning with fresh drinks so I just shrugged.

"Apparently, it's time to go," I said.

I plucked the bills from the table and dropped them on her tray.

"Sorry for any trouble," I said.

As I hit the parking lot I heard a motorcycle roar to life. He'd parked behind the building. A long chopper rolled around the corner with Damacio driving. Carla sat behind him, arms tightly around his waist, short dress already bunching over her exposed butt cheeks. I hurried to our car as they left the lot, thanking God night had fallen.

I followed a safe distance behind but close enough to see Carla's bare ass sailing through town in my headlights. She hugged Damacio tighter and leaned her head on his back. She looked content. He shouted questions over the engine and Carla yelled answers but I could not understand what they said. Soon we left the main road and turned into the hills. We climbed, heading for a scenic hilltop that overlooked the town. I knew it well. Not only had I asked Carla to marry me there, but it was the first place we made love after she said yes.

I followed for the many twists and turns this mountain road made and then there it was: a small parking lot with an amazing night time view. Damacio pulled in and parked the bike, helping Carla dismount. Her dress circled her hips, revealing snow white lace panties.

"This way," she told him, taking his hand and adjusting her dress.

"Tony, grab the blanket from the trunk."

I did but that put them farther ahead of me than I wished so I hurried to catch up. Her heels weren't made for this rocky terrain so she moved slowly. He helped, providing an arm for support. We cut through some trees and emerged on a cliff overlooking the town. Majestic Mount Rainier rose in the distance, moonlight gleaming of the dim snow-capped peak.

"Put the blanket down, Babe," she said.

I opened the bedspread and snapped it wide, then steered as it floated to the ground. Damacio and I crawled on top but Carla stood to the side. She looked out over the sparkling lights far below and grabbed the hem of her dress, working it over her hips and ass and peeling it off over her head. My jaw dropped. Damacio smiled. Carla stood there bashfully in the moonlight wearing only panties and heels. She joined us on the blanket, timid and shy but thrilled to be acting so naughty. She grabbed the front of my shirt and pulled my mouth up for a kiss. I was uncomfortable with the thoughts of a threesome. Damacio scored higher than me in every category. I had no desire to be right next to the man, both our bodies exposed, both our cocks side by side. He'd dropped two-hundred dollars at the restaurant like it was nothing. No way I could compete with this guy.

Carla broke the kiss and gazed into my eyes.

"Baby," she purred. "Would it be okay if I had sex only with Damacio?"

What?!?

I may have just listed the reasons I did not want to participate, but that's a long way from a wife asking her husband to sit this one out. Damacio kicked off his shoes and got started on his pants. I was on the spot. Damacio waited for my answer. Carla didn't, stepping farther onto the blanket and placing a dainty foot on my knee.

"Okay," I muttered.

What choice did I have? What could I do, insist she fuck me too?

"Thank you, Honey," she said. "Will you take my panties off for me?"

I hooked two fingers and gently drew them down. Her body is ridiculous and slowly removing that underwear reminded me of that. I looked up at her big tits resting on her chest, nipples aimed at the night sky. Her flat tummy and toned legs flexed as I maneuvered the tiny garment over her knees and around her ankles. We both looked up at Damacio. He stood naked now, cock already curved upward. Apparently, a husband removing his wife's underwear was a big turn on for him. I was making a gift of Carla. I was undressing her for him.

"Leave the shoes on," he said. "She looks like a mother-fucking dream."

My wife tried to speak but couldn't. The moment had gotten to her. Where she was and what she was doing turned on so much she couldn't speak. She nodded, agreeing to leave her shoes on. Her gaze was riveted to his impressive coffee-with-cream erection. Damacio chuckled.

"It's funny," he said. "When you weren't around I fantasized about all the things I wanted to do to you, all the ways I wanted to take my time. Now here you are ready and willing and all I want to do is get inside you as fast as I can."

Carla's face softened.

"You fantasize about me?" she asked, disbelieving.

"All the time," he said. "All day since the moment I met you. You're incredibly gorgeous, but you're made even sexier because you have no idea how incredibly gorgeous you are."

They were gazing at each other like they were in love. I was forgotten.

"I want you inside me too," she whimpered. "I've learned a lot these last few days. I've learned things about myself I kept hidden. I've learned I like opening my legs to a man. I just like it. There's nothing to compare to that moment. I've made my choice that he can have me. He's hard, wanting me so bad, just like you are now. Spreading my legs is far better than words. It feels good all over. Even in my mind feels pleasure."

She lowered herself to the blanket and eased onto her back. Her hand drifted between her legs and she pulled back a wet finger.

"I'm ready," she said, showing him.

I wanted to scream. I wanted to tear my eyes out. I wanted to jump in our car and leave them there and not witness the desecration of our sacred place. Why did she bring him here? Is this a message to me? How could she not know it was?

"Are you sure you want to do this, Carla?" I asked. "Here? I know you remember this place. I know you know its significance."

She licked her lips staring at the approaching erection.

"Yes, Baby," she said. "This isn't a fuck-you to you. This the place where I lost my virginity. I became a woman here. It has double meaning for me. Do you understand? I'm not leaving you behind. I'm not taking anything away. I'm adding something to us. I'm adding this moment to our already amazing life."

I did understand but Damacio had knelt between her knees and lowered his face to her crotch. I witnessed Carla's eyes glaze as his tongue took her away. She was moaning softly in seconds. He slipped a finger inside and my wife groaned.

"Put your cock in me," she whimpered, practically begging. "Your tongue feels amazing but I need your big cock."

He had plans of feasting but no man resists that offer. Carla never looked hotter. Damacio kissed a trail up her belly to suckle her tits and I saw his thick pole slid up our blanket. The tip nudged her butt. Carla rolled her hips trying to guide him in. He lifted his body over her as his cock perfectly aligned to her small pussy opening.

"Oh, God," I gasped.

He crept higher, kissing her lips. Carla closed her eyes and returned his hot kisses. The tip of his dick brushed her vulva, splitting her lips, and he chased the heat and the wet, leaning his weight forward and sinking into her. Despite his sturdy thickness, Carla's pussy accepted him effortlessly, readily expanding to accept his girth. My wife was so wet for him I heard her squishy pussy from five feet away. She draped her legs behind him, resting on his, and lifted her hips to meet his thrusts. His cock gleamed in seconds.

"Damacio," she breathed, like the name had magic. "Ungh, yeah. God."

He started thrusting deep. Her firm tits bounced and her body shook. His hands roamed her hot body. He pumped faster and her fists gripped the bedspread. I thought back to our time on this blanket, our special moment at this place. That night I'd already orgasmed by now. Carla never came at all. In all our married years Carla did not climax from intercourse.

Her breathing now was almost panicked. Her body jerked and twisted under him. Damacio fucked her smooth and strong and her back came off the blanket as it arched, my wife crying out her insane pleasure. An orgasm slammed into her like a train. She wept but he kept stroking, plunging his milk chocolate cock into her body over and over. She wrapped her legs around his waist, still cumming from his deep penetration.

"Don't pull out," she rasped. "I want you in me."

Damacio chuckled. "Girl, I'm not even close."

Carla's head fell back but her body stayed arched, a bridge from head to ass. I watched his fat, sturdy cock vanish inside her again and again. Her soaked pussy slurped around him as he churned her guts. He lifted his head and looked at the lights below. He pulled out, all the way, his hard cock pointing like a slick and shiny elephant's tusk. Carla gasped at the sudden emptiness she felt.

"Hands and knees," he said.

I was surprised how quickly my wife flipped over and offered her pussy again. There was no hesitation, no shame. She turned over in an instant, looking over one shoulder at Damacio behind her. He knelt on one knee and guided his meat back inside, collecting her long hair in one hand and holding her ass with the other. He pulled her hair, forcing her to look straight ahead.

"Look at your town," he said. "Look at your home town while I fuck you."

He slowed his movement to a crawl. His cock was long and big around and opened her little hole wide. He leaned his chest over her back, bringing his mouth close to her ear. Her body seemed electrified. I had no idea sex could be like this. I thought sex was for love and happiness but recent experiences with Randy and Carla and Damacio had shown me sex was much more than that. Sex was also raw and animal and passionate. Damacio pushed and pulled his cock in and out of my wife as slow as honey drips. Carla was losing her mind inch by inch. She didn't even know him. Not really. How could her reaction be so strong? There was no love and I'd always assumed there had to be, but Carla was building towards another orgasm and the man was virtually a stranger. He pulled the ponytail he'd made and forced her to look down on Elma again.

"All those people down there," he said. "Friends, family, co-workers: look down on them as you get fucked by a pornstar."

Carla whimpered but sent her gaze across the town.

"Some of them are looking up here right now," he continued. "Do any sense you up here? Do a few feel you? I believe some do. I especially believe the women can. They can feel you up here taking cock."

He pushed his large cock all the way in, filling her tight vagina with dick. My wife gasped loudly, stuffed to bursting. Damacio held himself buried and sent blood surging, expanding the head and shaft. Carla gasped and tried to hang her head but Damacio kept her eyes up.

"Did you ever imagine a moment like this?" he asked.

Carla shook her head, moaning softly, loving his dominance.

"Cum on my cock," he said. "Just like this. I won't move. You aren't allowed to touch yourself. Just think about me inside you. Feel my rigid dick forcing you to take my shape. Feel that big dark slab of meat buried in—"

"Oh my God!" Carla suddenly screeched.

Her body convulsed. Damacio held himself as still as a boulder. Carla shuddered and cried out again, body shaking, muscles clenching all around. Damacio did not move at all, holding my wife impaled as an epic orgasm ripped through her. I saw his balls lift and knew he forced more blood into his cock, further expanding that hefty spear. Carla's thighs began to quiver. His free hand reached under to assault her swinging tits, pinching and pulling her nipples, slapping her firm flesh, running over every youthful inch. Her orgasm lasted a long, long time.

When her arms could no longer hold her, he let her fall to the blanket, his wet cock slipping out, shiny and looking angry. His balls were drawn tight to his body. He watched her twitch and then knelt, again grabbing a handful of hair. He pulled her body with it and she followed, shuffling around until her face neared his crotch. He pinned her head to the ground and crawled on his knees over her face, lowering his plump testicles, resting them first on her face and then sliding them over her mouth.

"Open up," he said.

Carla opened wide. Damacio's balls dropped onto her tongue.

"Suck," he ordered. "Lick and suck."

Carla painted his nuts. Her tongue swabbed every inch. He rose an inch to make it easier but then lowered three to slip both balls into her open mouth. She closed her lips against his scrotum and her cheeks dented as she sucked. He rose again, pulled the skin taut, then smothered her face with his ball sack.

Ready for something new, he lifted his scrotum free and bent the shaft down, aiming his cock for her open mouth. She extended her tongue and opened wide and three inches of his tan dick disappeared into her mouth. My wife sealed her lips around his girthy shaft, tasting her own juice on his skin. Damacio leaned over her, now fucking her mouth like a pussy. Carla reached around to hold his butt cheeks and help his pump. She gagged the first time she took too much but he was patient, working his dick deeper, taking his time and enjoying his penis in her mouth. Her face was even prettier with a cock stuck in it. I know that sounds crazy but it's true. She looked sexy. I must admit that.

Once she recovered from her orgasm she moved to her knees, crouching on our special blanket and sucking dick in our sacred place. He showed her how to add her hands to the shaft and slide them up and down the shaft in time to her bobbing head and he showed her how to use her tongue to taut and tease. He made her wiggle the tip of her tongue into his pee hole and he made her trace each vein. His crowning achievement came when he gripped his shaft at the root and squeezed, moving his fist towards the head. A pure white drop of semen swelled, hanging.

"Lick it off," he said.

Carla faltered.

"Sperm is gross," she said.

"Drink me, girl. Have you never swallowed a man?"

"No. Penises are dirty. Sperm is disgusting."

He eyed her carefully.

"I would change that tonight," he said. "I would teach you to savor the essence of a man. But I'm dying to pump my load inside you. Tonight, I'll fill your womb. But understand the clock has started, Carla, and you will learn to suck my cock and swallow my load. You will learn to swallow the load from any man. Every man."

I held my breath, waiting for the inevitable resistance.

"All right," she said, bashful. "I've never done it but I'd do it for you. If that's what you want."

Damacio looked at her like she'd descended from Heaven. He lifted his hard cock to her mouth. The hanging droplet had grown fat: a milky pea dangling. He carefully maneuvered his dick to her lips.

"Lick it away," he said. "Appreciate my flavor."

Carla carefully added her hand around the base and gazed down at the waiting dewdrop. She extended her tongue and swabbed the head, smearing his sperm across her taste buds. She smacked her lips a few times.

"Not as bad as I expected," she offered.

Headlights passed on the road nearby, missing us and continuing down the road.

"Stand," he said, and she did.

He rose with her, his dick harder than ever. He turned her towards me.

"Place your hands on your husband's shoulders," he said.

Carla did, her face now close to mine. He moved behind her without a word and took his cock in hand, searching for her opening and finding it.

I was gazing into her eyes as he sank his inches deep.

He held her at the shoulders and began pumping his cock. Carla looked away from me, searching for anything else to look at, but her gaze always returned. Damacio held her firmly in place and fucked her body.

She looked beautiful. A terrible kind of beauty, like lava which destroys everything in its path. Her tits bounced and wobbled and her face contorted in pleasurable agony. I felt him inside her through her hands on me, each thrust jarring my frame. Damacio built speed, rushing towards a monster climax, and held nothing back when he shouted he was cumming and buried his rod deep. Over and over he sprayed her insides with gobs of molten pornstar batter. He rested a moment and then withdrew, releasing a flood of sperm. Hot seed dribbled once he removed his fat cock.

Carla pulled her panties on right away, shame, I supposed, finally entering her world. She gathered her dress but hesitated to pull it on. Damacio remained naked, lounging on our blanket, engaging me in casual conversation. His cock faded to mostly soft, although even spent the beast was epic. Carla drew inside herself, withdrawing from us as the reality of what she'd done took shape and the adrenaline of moments ago drained away. She kneaded her dress, debating, struggling with the old Carla telling her to cover up and the new Carla telling her to stay free. In time, her shame faded at the sight of his handsome face and attractive naked body. When she moved, she surprised me.

She rose to sit on her heels, dropping her dress on the blanket, and then lifted his soft cock and took him in her mouth. She moved slowly, deliberately, learning, testing. She took advantage of his soft state and sucked him down to the root, her lips buried in his trimmed pubic hair, and held him there, his flaccid penis softly throbbing against her tongue, cheeks, and the roof of her mouth. He stroked her hair and he let her play. She experimented, asking what felt best, trying to ease the head of his snake to the back of her throat and down. The woman who detested sucking dick now sought to master the craft.

Damacio and I chatted casually through it all.

Another car drove by up on the road. Carla withdrew his penis and wiped her mouth with the back of her hand.

"It's time to go home," she said. "It's fun to flirt with the idea, but I don't actually want to get caught."

She released his cock reluctantly. He'd regained some firmness after that thunderous orgasm but not enough for sex. Carla reached for her dress and shimmied into it, Damacio and I catching our breath.

"Astonishing," he muttered.

I had to agree.

Chapter 13

"Five?" I asked, shocked.

"Not all at once," Carla explained. "One after the other."

"That's hot," Jasmine said.

"Right?" Carla asked. "Five at the same time is whorish. Five one after the other is sexy. Women are built to take lovers like that. Men cum once and are done. Nature wants us women to take many lovers. Five at the same time and I lose track of who is doing what to me. One at a time means I'm fucking that one man at a time. I'm gazing into his eyes, I'm kissing his mouth, I'm giving myself to him and only him. Like Jasmine said: it's hot."

My stare jumped from one sister to the other and back again. They were dead serious. I remembered that first photoshoot she did for Randy and the five naked men standing around. I was sure this idea was born then and sat lurking in her mind.

I aimed my gaze out the huge window of our new downtown Seattle high rise loft. In the months since Carla fucked Damacio at our sacred spot, she'd started an OnlyFans page. She'd started tentatively, wearing revealing outfits and flirting, but her follower base had shot up and requests for more explicit content poured in.

So did the money.

She began experimenting with sexier clothes and lingerie. That drew in more subscribers and more money. She started masturbating seminude, then nude. First with her hands and then with a dildo. We made a trip to an adult store in Tacoma and she bought a big black cock, not too dark, because she wanted it to remind her of Damacio. She orgasmed hard with that, telling her followers the story about why she chose that one. They lost their minds, paying extra to see her fuck herself with it.

One subscriber said he'd pay her a thousand dollars to fuck Damacio on camera.

That was when we realized we did not need Randy to cut her checks.

She did not need to work for him at all. She could fuck on camera and keep all the money for herself. She texted Damacio but he was in Europe and would be for a long time. He said he knew some guys living in or near Seattle that would love to get their hands on her and had nice bodies and the right sized cocks to bring in the cash.

So we put a deposit down on a loft in Seattle. We moved in, bought a bed, high speed computer, monitor, cameras, and an Internet link. She had a closet full of clothes and sexy outfits but we bought little else. The apartment was bare. Her mother was sad when we moved away but if she'd truly known why, she'd have been furious.

I returned my attention to the two sisters. Jasmine had worn a little black dress with a scoop neck. She sat on the floor like Carla and me, legs crossed, pink panties and big tits staring at me.

"You two should fuck a guy at the same time," I said without thinking.

Jasmine lit up. Carla turned serious.

"I would never have sex with my sister," she said. "Gross."

"Not with her," I countered. "Both of you on him."

"Oh," she said.

"I'd play with your tits," Jasmine admitted. "I've always loved your tits. Lucky bitch. They started growing around the time you turned fourteen. I prayed the same would happen to me."

"It did," Carla told her.

"No. Close, but yours are better."

"I disagree," Carla said.

I resisted the impulse to suggest we compare with me as the sole judge. That resistance lasted about five seconds. Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

"Let me see them," I said. "I'll give an unbiased appraisal."

"I'm not going to let you stare at my little sister's tits," Carla said. "Pervert."

I met Jasmine's eyes. I'd never told Carla about Jasmine disrobing in front of me and neither had she.

"It was worth a shot," I said.

I could tell Carla was annoyed. That's fair. Yeah. Right. She fucks two other men and I'm supposed to be okay with it but I suggest I get a look at her sister's boobs and I'm the immoral one. My wife grabbed her phone off the carpet and tapped out a message. I did not ask to whom. Jasmine lacked my patience.

"Who are you texting?" she asked.

"Damacio," Carla answered.

"Why?"

"I told him if I needed to connect with his friends I'd ask, so I'm asking."

Jasmine clapped her hands and punched the air over her head. It took Carla half an hour and many texts, but her five-man show was set for this Saturday night.

Chapter 14

Jasmine wasn't invited, but she showed anyway, and she dressed to impress. It might be more accurate to say she undressed to impress. Her outfit was tight Gothic, black bustier and sheer puffy shirt. Her skirt barely covered her ass and her boots came up over her knees. Her tits beneath the see-through blouse looked better than they did naked, and her tits naked are spectacular.

Carla topped her, though. My wife opened the door, to one man at a time, wearing only dangling earrings and perfume. Jasmine tried to surprise us by knocking last but Carla knew she'd show. She opened the door the same for Jazzy as she had for all the men. Jasmine pretended to grab Carla's tits like she intended to suck on them but my wife danced away, leading Jasmine into the apartment and making introductions. The guys liked Jasmine almost as much.

I oversaw lighting and cameras and we told no one I was her husband. The humiliation would be bad enough for me without them knowing. Randy had started that rule and I saw good reason to continue it.

Of course, what that meant for me was the men spoke openly and frankly, unconcerned that a stagehand might hear.

Five guys, all hot according to Carla and Jasmine, ringed our big bed. My wife crawled to the center on all fours, her big, firm tits swaying.

"Doggie is my favorite," she teased. "I didn't learn that until recently."

Jasmine lit a joint and took a position by the bed, standing against the wall. She'd spent a lot of time on her outfit and wasn't going to hide everything by sitting on the floor. In moments, her sister would fuck five men in a row and she couldn't wait to bear witness. She wanted to see it. She savored the moment and what it would mean to both. I did not understand their relationship in this way. Carla's sexuality had exploded almost overnight. Jasmine had learned what she liked long ago and pursued it despite Mother's wishes, chasing her desires behind Mother's back. Mom's too-strict upbringing had led both daughters to this place, but on very different paths. Carla was now reclaiming all that she felt denied over the years.

I remembered something she'd said days ago as we were assembling our new big bed. I'd teased her about breaking it in. She said the bed would need to be broken in twice. I did not understand and asked her to explain.

"Some girls like making love and until recently I was one of them," she'd said. "Some girls like to be fucked and now I'm one of those. These men can give me that better than you. We're in love, you and me. It's impossible for us to fuck. No matter how hard we try we'll always be making love. That's a beautiful thing but I need both."

It stung, but I'd understood: we'd break it in once by making love on it and then she'd break it in a second time by fucking on it.

That's when the idea came to her.

"One man would be too intimate," she'd explained.

I had multiple cameras set all around the bed. I'd tested the lighting and angles and knew every feed was great. I'd add to all those multiple shots with a handheld, prowling around the bed, cutting into the video feed with the best views. Her fans, who now numbered in the thousands, would see an epic spectacle. I panned the waiting men, avoiding faces, pausing as Jasmine came into view. She smiled broadly and leaned back, displaying her mouth-watering breasts. That would give the guys online something to talk about. I continued my circle arriving again at my sexy wife.

She looked into the camera, her gorgeous face racing to computers around the world at the speed of light.

"Clothes off, guys," she said, laughing, meaning the men in the room, but sending a signal to thousands that they should do the same. "Get hard and then fuck me, smallest dick first, biggest goes last. Also, the guy with the biggest dick gets to spend the night with me."

The guys laughed too, each sure he had the contest won.

I was stunned. Spend the night? Where would I sleep? I got the feeling that comment was spontaneous and not thought through.

The men began undressing and I needed to capture the moment so I moved around the room recording. These friends of Damacio were all associated with the porn industry in some way and their bodies proved it. One by one fit and toned muscles came into view, followed by hefty dangling meat. Carla rolled onto her back and spread her knees and the men took themselves in hand and began working on their erections. One man, tall, looked to Jasmine.

"You the fluffer?" he asked. "I'd love some help."

Jasmine just stared.

"You the fluffer?" he asked, again.

"What's a fluffer?" she asked.

The man was surprised she didn't know.

"You work the guys on the set," he explained. "Get us hard and then keep us hard between scenes whenever they move cameras and lighting. This your first shoot?"

Jasmine glanced at me, thinking she'd reveal her relationship to Carla. She didn't. Instead she pinched the lit end of her joint and set it against the wall.

"Yeah," she said. "I'm the fluffer."

She approached the man and sat on her booted heels. Without hesitation, she lifted his thick but soft penis and slipped it into her mouth. A man nearby stepped close to offer his dick too and Jasmine split her attention between them. The remaining three men thought they understood the rules and moved to Carla but sucking dick was not part of her plan tonight. Still, when three large, soft dicks were aimed at her, she opened her mouth and began to suck. Tentatively, but she did. She rolled onto her stomach and moved to the edge of the bed to make it easier for everyone, lifting her torso on her elbows and exposing more tit. The guys took turns with her, sharing her mouth as they engorged. My wife does not enjoy sucking cock, with notable exceptions, but three presented simultaneously was a different kind of animal. She moved from one to the next, licking and sucking, fondling balls.

The higher they rose the more turned on she became.

Jasmine had her men hard in no time but didn't stop there. Unlike her sister, Jazzy relished the feel of a pulsating dick lodged in her throat. She sucked and stroked, eager to empty their balls. The men had to push her off to prevent an orgasm. With all five hard, I expected Carla to arrange the men by size, following her plan for one after the other, but five throbbing cocks staring her in the face changed her mind about that. Not that any of that mattered, in the end. Sister Jasmine was too horny. Five hot naked guys and half a joint had her heart racing and her young pussy gushing. She reached under her pleated skirt and yanked her panties to the floor.

"I need cock," she whined. "In me. Now."

The two men closest battled for the right. They pushed and shoved and the taller, stronger man won, pushing Jasmine's torso forward at the waist and guiding his dick home. Jasmine's groan of pleasure sent chills up my spine.

"Oh my goodness," Carla sighed, hearing her sister's moan.

My wife had witnessed the destruction of her plans but instead of irritation she simply rolled onto her back, opened her legs, and presented her wet pussy to whichever man claimed it first. I noted a slight smile curled her lips. There was a certain kind of pleasure in offering yourself to anyone. The man with the largest penis, who certainly would have won her strange contest, shouldered the other men aside and speared her, pushing his thick cock all the way in and forcing a howl of pleasure from my wife. He held her legs against his body, her toes pointed at the ceiling, and slammed his hips against her butt. One man climbed on the bed and bent his stiff dick to her lips. She opened her mouth and he rushed in, holding her head to fuck her face. Her eyes grew large feeling a cock inside her at each end.

The man fucking Jasmine inched her towards the bed until she leaned her elbows to brace herself. He held her waist and fucked hard. A slight smile curled her lips and savored the pounding, like being hammered by a man was exactly what she needed in that moment. She closed her eyes in carnal bliss. Another guy took the spot in front of her and lifted her head, bumping her lips with his dick. She opened her bloodshot eyes and broadly grinned in delight, sucking the fat cock head all the way in. Both girls now serviced two men simultaneously and I captured the action and sent it out to our viewers. The five men enjoyed the hot young babes for a long time. Our loft filled with moans and gasps and groans. The air smelled of hot wet sex.

"You're hot," the man fucking Jasmine said. "And I dig the Gothic outfit, but you need to be naked too."

He withdrew his gleaming cock and stood her up. Hands came from every direction, stripping a laughing Jasmine in less than a minute. Her clothing flew across the room and then she was bent over again, a new man sliding deep from behind. Carla was pulled off the bed and positioned next to Jasmine, both girls bent over, with feet on the floor and elbows on the bed. Men fucked each from behind while others sawed their cock in the girl's mouths.

The Internet feed was blowing up. Someone online recognized the sisters and announced that fact in the scrolling comments. The viewer count climbed as friends contacted friends and told them to sign up and log on. Jasmine slipped an arm around Carla's shoulders and Carla did the same. The men held the girl's heads and fucked their mouths. Behind them, men pounded their tight young holes. Carla had said more than one man at a time was whorish but by her behavior, she welcomed such a distinction. The men took turns. One man would nudge another and the first would step away, sharing the hot wet hole with his new friend. They manhandled the girls.

The man in Carla's mouth whipped his dick free and flopped onto his back. He held his cock at the base, holding it straight up, and announced it was time for Carla to ride. My wife crawled forward, sliding her pussy off the cock behind her and crouched over this new man. She sank onto his rod as she leaned forward and fed him her nipples. The odd man out, the only one not to engage yet, climbed on the bed at Carla's face and offered his cock. My wife greedily sucked him in, all hesitation lost. Like the others, he held her head in both hands and fucked her face.

The man she left standing beside the bed had the view of a lifetime. Carla's ass spread as she rode the man beneath her, exposing her pussy wrapped tightly around dick. He turned to me.

"Make sure you get a good shot of this for the crowd," he said.

He climbed onto the bed. His cock was biggest of the five and he would have been the man to spend the night with her. He rubbed the tip of his dick around her wet pussy, stole some juice off the other's man cock to lubricate his head, and then slid an inch higher to land at her sphincter. My naïve and inexperienced wife had no idea what was about to happen. Big Man took his erection in hand to aim it and leaned his weight forward. Carla had no time to clench. She was unaware she needed to. I considered telling him her ass was off-limits but who the fuck am I? Just a stage hand, right? Better for her that the first time a man takes her ass she's not expecting it. There was no time to worry, no time to clamp down. The dick in her pussy was the perfect distraction.

The head of Big Man's cock was so slick he expanded her small puckered ring and sank three inches deep before she knew she was being ass-fucked. I had the camera ready and zoomed in to capture her blossoming sphincter as it grew and enveloped the large head. He was in and past the difficult part before she understood she'd be taking a third cock.

"Oh!" she cried out, popping the cock from her mouth, shocked at the sudden intrusion. Then, as Big Man sank another inch or two, a deeper and more meaningful: "Oooooohhhh. . ." He sank another inch, stretching pussy and asshole alike and Carla's whole body arched as both tunnels filled with throbbing meat.

"Aieeee!" she wailed, eyes flaring wide open.

I should have been the man to claim her anal virginity but, like so many other honors of late, I was not. The man in front with his dick waving in the air grabbed her head and pulled her face to his crotch. Carla barely knew where she was or what was being done to her when he stuffed his cock into her mouth again. My hands were shaking as Carla moaned around the dick in her mouth, groaning as the big man spread her sphincter and sank into her ass, groaning as the man in her pussy began to pump in time. My wife had a cock in every hole. I stepped away a bit, showing the world. The men moved in a broken rhythm, each chasing his own pleasure, but ensuring my wife had the brains fucked out of her. The sight was staggering. To my amazement she tried to help them fuck her, moving her hips and head as best she could, working those cocks like she wanted the sperm they carried. Amazement turned to astonishment when, minutes later, it was Carla that came, screaming bloody murder as her body writhed between them all. Waves of impossible sensations crashed down on her. The man in her mouth shoved his cock back in.

Jasmine stopped to watch, pushing the man in her mouth out of the way to witness her sister's climax. Carla came so hard I worried for her sanity. After I realized I was stiff in my pants I worried for mine. My wife's orgasm went on and on as the men pumped her holes slowly, coaxing more from her again and again. Her cries soon turned animal, like she couldn't stop cumming, like the guys had tapped into some loop of stimulation out of her control. Carla's hot young body squirmed and contorted, trapped and impaled. She whimpered and moaned but couldn't speak.

"Get naked too, buddy," one of the guys told me. "These girls are ready to fuck anyone. Get some."

"No thanks," I quickly replied. "I'm keeping it professional."

Jasmine smirked.

"Yeah, Tony," she said. "We won't tell your wife. Get yourself some hot young pussy. Strip, stud."

Several guys stopped to see what I'd do. The men in Carla's ass and pussy kept going, sending tremors of ecstasy through my wife. Jasmine untangled herself from her two men and left the bed. I gawked as she walked towards me naked. She took the camera from my hand.

"Undress," she insisted. "It's only fair."

She turned her back and started filming her sister stuffed with dick. Two guys stared at me, waiting. On the spot, I caved. I started with my shirt. Soon I was nude like the rest of them, standing there with a hard dick, smallest in the room by far. Jasmine looked directly at mine and then around at the other men, pausing at each pulsating erection. I expected her to say something cruel but she didn't. Her knowing eyes said enough. These big-dicked men were fucking my wife and I wasn't. What did she need to add? We both understood the situation perfectly.

She returned the camera to me and leaned onto the big bed. From behind, she shoved her face into the balls of the man fucking Carla's ass and the man fucking Carla's pussy, burrowing between her sister's butt cheeks, licking balls and shafts, licking wildly. I listened to Carla's moans, hoping to detect when Jasmine's tongue made contact, but my wife was out of her mind. Her mewling sounds blended into one long groan. Maybe Jasmine did and maybe she didn't. I'd find a private time to ask her later.

I don't know how many times Carla orgasmed after that. Her cries rose and fell frequently. Everyone made her the target and she suffered an almost tortuous fate. Only when the strength had left her limp body did the wild free-for-all take a turn.

Jasmine had all five guys lie on their backs and hold their erections straight up. Jasmine rolled Carla away, face down and breathing deep, and then straddled each man, one at a time, fucking each before moving on. She was drenched. After Carla had recovered some, the girls knelt on the floor, back to back, and the guys formed a ring around them. Cocks came at their faces from every direction but both were eager to suck. Carla had lost all hesitation. In one night, my wife had learned to love sucking dick. She orally pleased them but glanced often at my throbbing penis. What was she thinking? What did my erection mean to her during all this?

One of the men announced he was close and Jasmine dragged Carla onto the bed again, holding her sister's legs wide open and directing me to film what came next. Carla got her wish after all as the men lined up one by one and each entered her pussy, fucking her hard and stopping only after he'd filled her with sperm. My wife was exhausted after the last man finished. The men started to drift away, searching for lost clothes. Big Man stood near the bed and Carla tapped his shoulder as the others started to dress. She reached for his deflated penis and held his cock and balls in the palm of her hand, weighing him and grinning.

"You like that dick?" he asked.

"I love that dick," my wife replied. "So thick and heavy. Until recently I didn't know that made a difference but I do now."

"I knew," Jasmine added.

"It feels so much better down there," Carla continued. "Like I'm stuffed."

"Bigger than your husband, I guess."

"Oh, a lot," my wife said casually. "He feels good too but in a different way. I feel him in my heart."

"Does your husband know you're here? Does he know what you do?"

"Yes," Carla replied.

"He's cool with it?"

"More than cool," she said, staring at my erection. "It gets him hard. I don't know why but I don't need to know. If he's hard he's happy, and if he's happy I'm happy. I don't need to question it."

David grinned at both girls.

"You two are the sexiest angels I've ever met," he chuckled.

"Then stay the night," Carla offered. "No cameras. Just us. I'll have Tony put on clean sheets. Spend the night with me."

"All right," he grinned. "I'd like that."

"I'll stay too," Jasmine offered. "Keep you company." She turned to me. "You can stay too. The bed is huge. We can all sleep together."

Big Man stuck his hand out.

"I'm David," he said.

I shook his hand. His fingers were sticky with his cum and Carla's pussy juice.

"I'm Tony," I said. "Let me grab some sheets."

Chapter 15

The bed is huge, she'd said. We can all sleep together.

Ha.

There was no sleeping in that bed. David was all over the two girls, praising their beauty, raving about their insane hot bodies and gorgeous faces. He talked himself into growing hard again in no time. The girls ate it up. David was thick bodied, with thick arms and legs and two pounds of meat dangling. For a big man, he was surprisingly playful, tickling the ladies, pouncing and wrestling. He even let them win. Of course, allowing them to win meant a pussy an inch from his mouth, which he ambushed, causing Jasmine to squeal. She ground her young hairless slit into his mouth but her eyes were on me. Carla caught her and smacked Jasmine's firm pale ass, bringing another squeal.

Jazzy and David swung into a sixty-nine but Carla joined her sister at the man's cock, taking turns licking and sucking. The harder he got the hotter the girls got until Jasmine pushed Carla away and climbed aboard David's fat dick. To see him slide into her was almost as exciting as watching him slide into Carla.

By mentioning my wife, Jasmine had provided an alibi for my lack of involvement, but watching these three go wild on each other got to me. My hard dick strained to reach them, red and throbbing. Carla saw the hungry look in my eyes and swung her hips around, offering her well-fucked and dripping pussy.

It was the most blatant, highly-charged, sexually exciting thing I'd ever seen. It wasn't a pussy, recently fucked, it was Carla's pussy, recently fucked. It was my beloved wife's pussy, recently fucked. The sight put a permanent dent in my brain. She offered it for the fucking but I had other ideas.

I dove in, pushing her thighs apart and surprising her. She held his balls in her mouth, her pretty face dangerously close to her sister's pussy, as my tongue worked her sopping cunt. I ate like a madman, circling around her slippery inner walls and torturing her engorged clit. I tasted those men in her and I tasted her mixed with them. The slick and oily elixir turned my dick to iron. Jasmine and David were too busy to know what I did so I began jerking off as I ate my wife's gushing pussy.

Five men!

I'd never believe it except I saw it happen. My tongue brought Carla to an earth-shaking climax and the raw sounds she made triggered an orgasm of my own. I shot a huge load all over the bed. Multiple streaks of goo landed on Jasmine's foot, painting the arch and upturned toes. With David's big dick buried in her guts and driving the younger sister towards climax, she was too far gone to notice. Her wail started high and climbed higher. She worked her hips around his stiff pole and came hard, grabbing handfuls of bedspread. Carla slathered David's balls, nuzzling and licking and sucking, her face buried where their bodies met, coaxing David to blast his massive load inside Jasmine. Somehow, he resisted, saving his massive load.

After Jasmine's high David pushed her onto the bed. He crawled over Carla, rolling her face down and lining his cock up once again with her tight asshole. He'd blown one load up there already, the only man to do so tonight, and wanted more. His thick cock was gleaming with Jasmine's juices, slick from her wetness, and he sank his veiny dick up my wife's ass. I instantly regretted cumming too soon. I wished I was hard again to jack off to this once in a lifetime sight. David slowly sank inch after inch. Carla groaned. She reached back, grabbing a butt cheek with each hand, and spread herself to him, her ring a tight pink circle around his shaft. Where my wife had learned to do these things baffled me. I wrote it off to natural talent. He moved slowly but with intent, a desire to sheath every inch in her. Her toes made fists, curling tighter the deeper he traveled.

At last his fat balls rested on her empty pussy. Carla slipped a hand under to tease her clit and moments later I saw my wife cum while anally filled, screaming into the mattress as her sphincter squeezed his shaft like a vise. He fucked her with short strokes, keeping his meat entombed, savoring her tight ring around his root.

"Yeah," he breathed at last, feeling the load leave his balls and begin the long climb. "Fuck yeah. Here comes some more."

Carla lifted her ass an inch higher, signaling she wanted every drop. He held a steady pace until grabbing handfuls of her butt and driving his cock all the way in, bellowing as his hot load blasted deep inside. He arched his back, holding his vibrating dick all the way in, pumping hot semen.

It means something when a man ejaculates inside a woman. It matters. It changes things. From that moment on into eternity he becomes one of the men that's had her. She's been his and that can never be undone. Five men had my Carla tonight. Each of them left some of themselves inside her. She carried them all and would for days, slowly absorbing what they'd given her. A deep and erotic fear pulsed through me just as it had going all the way back to Brody. I'd avoided facing it, sidestepped thinking about it at all. It had flared with Damacio but now, with semen dripping from every opening, that fear came rushing into the light, refusing, finally, to be ignored.

She could conceive with any of those men.

For our entire marriage, I'd always pulled out. From our honeymoon night until our most recent lovemaking, I'd always been responsible, disciplined, and mature. Somewhere along this crazy path we'd forgotten or simply denied the truth of what we were doing. Responsibility fell by the wayside, lost to the wild excitement of lust. We were breaking all the rules, why follow them with her lovers? I'd begun an investigation of the morning-after pill for Carla but gotten distracted. Given the night she'd just had, I told myself to finish.

David pulled his shrinking cock from her clutching rectum. Her sphincter closed quickly as the head withdrew, trapping his load in her. Her pussy did not do the same. Milk leaked. Warm, salty, dangerous sperm dribbled from her vulva. She turned her head to find me and saw me staring at her used slit. She slipped a hand down and spread her labia with two fingers and a glut of sperm drooled, landing in globs on our new bed.

"You are so naughty," Jasmine muttered, still wiped out. "Slut."

Carla giggled.

"I am," she admitted.

David smeared the tip of his dick on our bedspread and got to his feet. He reached for his clothing.

"That's all I have," he said. He turned to me. "You have fun with these two. I'm sure you can trust them to keep your secrets."

I got the hint he understood the situation more than he let on but was happy to play along. Why not? The girls liked him and I was sure he planned on fucking them again. I was sure they planned on fucking him. Carla looked at the man like he was a delicious meal.

We watched him dress, his bulky bear-body sliding awkwardly into his clothes. He kissed Jasmine on the top of her head and Carla on the lips.

"Call me," he said.

"I will," she answered.

I knew she meant it. The door shut behind him.

"Christ on crutches," Jasmine exhaled, holding her face in her hands. "Did that night truly just happen? That was insane."

"Totally insane," I agreed.

Carla looked like the kid that ate all the cookies: her expression simultaneously guilty and satisfied.

"Are you okay?" she asked me, concerned.

I waved her worries away. The time had come to fish or cut bait and I'd made my decision: I was all-in.

"I'm great," I said. "I'm Willy Wonka and you're my Golden Ticket. We're going to make a lot of money. We don't need Randy."

Both their jaws dropped.

"Seriously?" Jasmine asked.

"Yes," I told her. "I like watching her have sex. It's hot. It's obvious Carla loves dick and people will pay a ton to watch her enjoy it."

Jasmine turned on her sister.

"You lucky bitch," she said.

We all laughed.

"You can join us, Jasmine," I said. "We can bring an online subscriber in and you two can double-team him. Carla, I can secretly record you picking up a stranger. Guys would love to see that and imagine it might happen to them. The list of ideas goes on."

I tapped my lips with a finger.

"You know," I said. "You never fucked Brody. Would you like to fuck Brody?"

Carla threw herself down on the bed.

"Oh my God!" she squealed. "Are you serious right now?"

"Who's Brody?" Jasmine asked.

"He's the most beautiful man you'll ever see," Carla said. "My first shoot, softcore, was with him. I wanted his cock in me soooo baaaad. I tried to make him fuck me. I succeeded for a minute but he pulled out because Randy made us change positions. His dick is as gorgeous as his face."

"Introduce me," Jasmine said.

"I will," my wife and I said at the same time.

End.
