Gabriela Gets An Education

Part Three

By Matthew Lee

Chapter 1

I took my shirt off and tossed it over the rose bush. May twenty-fifth and already the sun's heat was unbearable. My parents' lawn looked great though. I'd mowed and edged and pulled weeds. They hadn't asked me to, I just felt with everything they did for me, I needed to pay some back. Today was Friday and both were still at work. I had the house to myself. I'd finish in the yard and go to my room and tromp through three or four dungeon levels on my computer before Mom called me for dinner.

For the last three weeks, I'd heard nothing from Gabby.

To be fair, I'd not reached out to her either. Like removing a Band-Aid; one quick yank and be done with it.

I missed her terribly. I guess a life without heartbreak would hardly be worth living but I was amazed how something so painful didn't kill you. I understand all the headlines about husbands and wives going crazy and killing each other over a divorce or infidelity; this shit sucks.

I stayed busy constantly, unless I was sleeping. I already had my junior year planned, my campaign for class president laid out, and all my books purchased. I already started reading The Clash of Civilizations, by Samuel Huntington. Anything to keep myself from thinking. All our lives Gabby and I had hard-driving, goal-oriented personalities. We set goals and hit them with shocking regularity. I guess that shows the power of sex; our histories were obliterated in the face of lust.

I won't go on about it. I learned right away that other people do not want to hear your woes. They want you to listen to theirs, but do not want to hear yours. Laugh and the whole world laughs with you. Cry, and you cry alone.

The rumble of a motorcycle made me look up.

Brandon Skye on his way home from work. He saw me working in the yard and pulled over to the curb. I approached warily.

"Yard looks good," he said.

"Thanks."

"I heard you and Gabriela broke up."

You've got to love the neighborhood grapevine. "Yes. Over a month ago."

"Sorry to hear that."

"Thanks," I said again.

He wasn't sorry. None of my so-called friends were sorry. Gabby, while a chubby nerd in high school, had bloomed into a hot babe. Maybe still a little overweight but that just contributed to her big firm tits. As news of our split spread, I saw the vultures circle. Every guy now wanted a shot at her.

As I mentioned before, in high school Brandon was a bully to me until I got him expelled. We've moved beyond that chapter, mostly, and pretend to be friendly, but I know that façade would evaporate in a second if there was reason. I knew he had a crush on Gabby but I believed she saw him only as a friend. How awful would it be if they hooked up? Jesus, just kill me now.

"You see The Last Jedi yet?" he asked

I shook my head. "Too busy."

"A gang of us are going to the Cineplex on Saturday night. Eight o'clock showing. You're welcome to join."

"Let me check my plans," I said. "Maybe."

He gave me a cool-guy nod and put his helmet back on. His bike roared as he pulled away. I shook my head. Nothing about that exchange was truthful except the yard did look good. He asked about me and Gabby to drive a dagger between my ribs because he planned on chasing her and wanted me to know it. His friends almost certainly were going to the movie, but an earlier or later showing. I'd get there, like an ass, and find no one and the joke would be on me. Ha ha. No thanks. I have no time for that asshole.

The thought of him and Gabby dating was absurd. He had the athlete's body but he was nowhere near smart enough. She'd be bored with him before the first date was over. I could easily imagine Gabby fucking him, however. I can picture the new Gabby fucking anyone she feels like fucking. Not to spite me, but just because she has the option. Please, God, let Brandon have a small penis. If there's any justice in this universe at all, Brandon Skye has a tiny dick.

I gathered the tools and swept the sidewalks. My parents came home as I was hanging everything in the garage and they were pleased.

I showered and beat five levels of the dungeon, three before dinner and two after, and then crawled into bed. The clock read one in the morning. Gabby would be on stage right now, shaking and moving to the strong beats, round ass and firm tits bouncing, every guy in the place drooling over her young hotness.

I reached for my phone. I'd watched the videos Jasmine sent and stared at the pictures so many times they no longer worked. Worried I might be making a mistake, I texted Jasmine.

You dancing?

I waited fifteen minutes for a response.

Yes. You horny?

How embarrassing.

Yes, still trying to get over her. How's she doing? Okay?

You're a good man, she replied. Hang on.

Ten minutes. Twenty minutes. I'd given up hope when my phone chimed.

She's all right, her text read. Talks a lot about a guy she misses terribly.

That felt good, assuming the guy was me. Another long pause went by and I waited patiently. At last my phone chimed.

Made this for you, she texted. Hope you like it.

I saw why there'd been such a delay; she'd sent a video and, based on the megabytes, a long one. I texted back a thank you and propped my head with pillows. I hadn't watched a Gabby video in a long time and I was nervous. How would I feel seeing her again?

Right away I spotted another reason for Jasmine's delay; she'd also taken a client to the VIP room and picked the open booth across from Gabby. While her customer ordered beverages, Jasmine set up her phone and hit record.

Gabby looked stunning. She wore lingerie instead of a bikini. She'd lost a little weight. Her tits were still big but her waist and face looked thinner. Arms too. She'd mastered her makeup so even in the low light she looked ravishing.

Her client looked like a frat boy, maybe a year older than me, and he gazed at Gabby with hungry shark eyes. They spoke to each other occasionally but the music was far too loud for me to hear them. Gabby danced the first song between his knees, slowly removing her lace bra. She lifted her tits to his face, teasing, and when he opened his mouth to suck a nipple she let him. Her hand dropped to the front of his pants. I reached for my dick too.

Her slutty behavior carried an extra sting. True, she was no longer my girl. Our engagement was over. She was single. But I knew her and I still cared deeply so her lips pressed against his kicked me in the stomach like a horse. Her tits mashed against his chest twisted my guts in a knot. Her skilled fingers drew down his zipper without breaking the kiss and she pulled his hard cock out into open air. She jerked him a few times to clear his jeans and then swoop, her face cut a smooth arc down to his lap. Her mouth opened while still several inches from his penis and then his cock head plus several inches slid home inside her hot, wet maw.

God damn.

That she was no longer my girl made this more painful, not less, yet that didn't stop my penis from growing.

Gabby forced his cock far back into her mouth. Her head began a rhythmic bounce and at the bottom of each trip down, her face entered light from an overhead spot. I saw an expression of pure, authentic bliss. She loved a hard, pulsing cock in her mouth. She might work this job for free.

The guy wove his fingers into her hair and glanced around to make sure he was safe and then pumped her head up and down. Gabby let him guide her, let him fuck her mouth like a pussy. She sucked hard and played with his balls. I wished I could hear the slurping. I jerked off leisurely.

After some time, he leaned back and let her do the work. How good it must feel to have a pretty girl do that to you. I tried to imagine looking down at my dick and seeing a pretty face looking up at me but all I pictured was Gabby down there and that freaked me out. I returned to the video.

He probably would have allowed her to blow him all night but now Gabby needed penis inside her. She stood over him and settled a knee outside his thighs. She reached down and took him in hand and, his eyes big with shock, sank her tight young pussy onto his spike. Her hands went to his chest. His hands went to her tits. I was watching her from behind and now realized her panties were crotchless. A strip of flesh ran from her asshole to just above her clit. No way to tell that unless she spread her cheeks.

She let her bodyweight carry her down his pole. No hurry, just a slow descent as her hole gobbled up more of him every second. Soon her steaming hollow enveloped him completely and he looked out of breath. She lifted six inches and settled again and he put his hands on top of his head, amazed. Gabby began a slow up and down. Soon she leaned in to kiss as she fucked him.

My nuts were filled with boiling cum. It had been a few days but watching Gabby again after so long was truly to blame. She looked so sexy. Why did I love watching her so much?

The guy started lifting his hips to meet her on the way down and her ass jiggled with each smack. His back arched and hers did too, big tits thrusting out and up. She grabbed one and tugged the nipple and I knew she was cumming on his cock. His body convulsed and I knew he was cumming in her pussy.

I got too excited. My balls clenched and I blasted ropes of jizz all over my sheets. Gabby was so fucking sexy. I wanted to scream when I watched her have sex. Instead I ground my teeth and pumped out cum.

She rested on him a minute and then lifted off his spongy pillar. His dick fell to his thigh and slid to point at the ground. Gabby kissed his forehead and he dug into a pocket and handed her a wad of bills. She didn't even count it.

Chapter 2

In the morning, I transferred Jasmine the usual amount and thanked her. She asked if I came hard and I admitted I had and she said she was glad to have contributed, and that Gabby didn't deserve a great guy like me. It felt nice, but I wondered if she was just trying to get more money out of me.

I spent the week working around the house and playing video games. I did not attend the movie with Brandon. Surprise! He never called to find out why I didn't show. I thought about texting Jasmine again on Friday but I wondered if that path was truly healthy. I didn't ask for more. I watched the latest video again and came hard and fell asleep. Saturday was another busy day.

Late Saturday night, I got an unsolicited text from Jasmine: OMG you won't believe it. No charge for this one. A video was attached.

Ever see the movie Requiem for a Dream? Remember the double-headed dildo scene with Jennifer Connelly? Grim, right? Awful. Hard to watch.

The video Jasmine sent opened with Gabby and her blonde friend from school, Anna, walking around a low, circular coffee table covered in plastic. They wore tiny black bikinis and black stilettoes and each held the end of a two-foot long, thick, stiff, double-headed dong. They looked at each other with wicked smiles. A crowd of well-dressed men surrounded them. I tried to swallow but couldn't. Guys from the crowd plucked at the bikini strings and after a few circuits, the girls' swimsuits fell away.

An older guy, and by older I mean maybe sixty-five or even seventy, told them to climb on the table. He was dressed like Tommy Lee Jones from Men in Black. He emptied an entire bottle of baby oil over their heads which delighted the girls. They came together to hug briefly and rub the lotion all over each other's body. Their hair was stringy and their bodies gleamed and they looked nasty and erotic as fuck. They started French kissing and Anna pushed a finger up Gabby's pussy and the guys went crazy. Gabby returned the favor and I wondered why Jasmine was there filming. Was she the next act?

The girls stood in a sea of raging testosterone, making out, fingering and caressing, until Gabby grabbed Anna by the long hair and spun her around. She pulled the younger girl down to all fours and bent her head back while lining that fat dildo up with her slit. The guys went crazy. Gabby pushed it in and Anna's face contorted with intense pleasure. Next Gabby got on all fours too, so the girls were ass-to-ass, and shoved the other end into her own pussy. They backed towards each other and the dildo disappeared.

The small table began to slowly rotate.

Tommy Lee pulled a remote from a pocket and held it up for all the guys to see. Cheering filled my little speaker. He flipped the switch and a deep humming joined the cacophony of noise. I assumed the dildo now had a strong vibration to compliment the slick thickness. The girl's heads snapped back and their jaws dropped wide open.

I heard Jasmine's voice out of frame mutter: "Jesus Christ that's hot," before shifting the camera for a better view. Now the girls were slamming their asses together, fucking themselves stupid on a bulky, vibrating sex toy.

One brave man reached out from the crowd and caressed Anna's tit. She pressed her boob firmly into his hand. Instantly there were dozens of men rubbing and caressing the girls. Gabby's eyes rolled back as she soaked it all in. Anna came hard, her cry of pleasure piercing the din, and her sweet feminine voice set Gabby off. I watched my ex convulse when her climax slammed into her.

A man lowered his zipper and offered his cock and Gabby, the moment she recovered, opened her eyes and sucked him in. In a flash twenty cocks circled the girls and as the table rotated and a new cock became available, each girl sucked whichever cock appeared before her. Guys struggled for position.

I noticed occasionally a man would offer a girl something, holding a small vial under her nose.

"Uh oh," I heard Jasmine murmur. She saw it too.

I was repulsed and aroused. I couldn't look away. My penis had hardened and I began stroking as I watched this insane debacle. Gabby was a Slut.

Tommy Lee turned the dial on the remote and Anna collapsed to her elbows. She rose to her hands but he upped the juice again and both girls cried out, bracing themselves on trembling arms, fighting to remain in position. Moments later they orgasmed together and the sweet sound of their high voices filled the small room. A couple men ejaculated over the girls' backs.

Around and around they went, sucking cock and cumming when the remote was dialed up. Their assholes were fingered and their nipples savaged. Every inch of their body was fondled. One by one the men climaxed, most down the throat of Gabby or Anna, but a few over their backs or on their faces.

As the men fell away the dial went higher. When the last man came, Tommy Lee jammed the vibration all the way up. Anna and Gabby screamed and dropped to the table. I saw them breathing hard, chests heaving and stomachs clenching. Gabby came and then Anna and then Gabby again, trading off, cumming and screaming until their bodies gave out and they collapsed, the fat rubbery cock slipping free of their cunts.

The guys got themselves moving, filing out of the room, talking and drinking, congratulating each other until only the older man remained with the two girls. He crouched to check on them, grabbed a light blanket to keep them warm, and dimmed the lights before leaving.

Only then did Jasmine move. I briefly saw a wire mesh screen in front of the lens before the video cut out and realized she had been hidden and was now trying to be quiet. I knew all that had been filmed clandestinely.

My penis was hard as marble. Unreal. Gabby was immersed in the lifestyle now. No longer a college girl occasionally stripping, she was a prostitute who also went to school. I didn't judge her. I don't judge any prostitute. Gabby can do what she wants with her life and each time I saw her face, she looked incredibly happy. She was having fun. She was having the time of her life. After so many years of intense pressure at such a high level, maybe she needed this. She certainly found something she loved.

I started the video again. Her body was thinner but if her boobs shrank I couldn't see it. I started jacking as the girls went through their routine and when Tommy Lee hit the switch and made Gabby cum, I did too.

I watched it again Sunday and Sunday night and Monday morning and Monday night, masturbating each time. Jasmine asked if I was okay and if the video made me hate Gabby and I replied the video turned me on and I loved Gabby as much as ever.

Basically, I jacked off to Gabby acting a total slut until my balls could not keep up. Same for Tuesday and Wednesday. I rubbed my penis raw. The initial repulsion I felt drained away and all I could do was watch sweet, pretty Gabriela satisfy a room full of men, as well as Anna and herself.

I was about to text Jasmine on Thursday, asking for more video, but I stopped and looked out my bedroom window. What was I doing? Kids played street hockey and Mister Velasquez walked his Pomeranian and I realized Gabby was gone and I needed to move on. I needed to find a new girlfriend. Each time I watched her I reformed the connection to her. She was doing her thing and I needed to do mine.

I had no idea how. Gabby and I evolved as a couple organically. We grew into each other. How does one select and court a woman? Dating? I knew nothing about it. How can you possibly discover all you need to know?

Overwhelmed, I showered and dressed and headed for the mall.

Chapter 3

Summer passed.

I'm too proactive for my own good. I raced through all the things I needed to do before school and then I raced through all the things I thought might need doing and with weeks to go before opening day, I was out of things to do. I tried exploring the garage and found an old drone and spent a day fixing the frame. I hiked to the park and got fantastic aerial shots of the mountains and desert and even did a low pass over the lake. As I brought the drone back, I saw a familiar car headed for my house. I packed up and headed for home, fearful I was about to get a visit from Gabby's parents.

Gloria, Gabby's mother, was parked at the curb when I arrived. She leaned against the fender of her metallic blue BMW 3 Series, smoking a thin brown cigarette, dressed in a tight sequined lavender miniskirt and white silk blouse. She's a good-looking woman, brown hair flecked with gray, athletic, unlike Gabby, and both have big tits. My mouth was dry. What the hell do I say to her?

She fired off the first question without a hello.

"What the hell's wrong with Gabriela?" she asked. "What are you kids into out there at school? She doesn't come home for summer break, you guys split, and now she hardly answers my calls or texts. What's going on?"

I took a deep breath. I explained Gabby and I grew apart and I believed she got a part time job near school. I told her we don't talk anymore and I was unsure what Gabby was up to these days. She studied my face to see if I lied. Under my clothes I broke into a sweat. She likes me but has never considered me good enough for her daughter. She's often hinted that Gabby and I got together too young and Gabby should date other boys. She caused a lot of friction until Gabby finally demanded she stop.

"If you hear from her," Gloria said, flicking her cigarette butt. "Tell her to call me."

"I will."

She walked around to the driver's side. "Where did she get a job?"

I pretended to search my memory. "I don't recall. If I remember I'll tell you."

She gave me a hard and suspicious look but climbed in and drove away.

Whew. That woman is tenacious and formidable and I had zero desire to cross her. Better she believes I am out of Gabby's life and directs her energies elsewhere. I watched the car until it turned the last corner out of the neighborhood.

I sat the drone on the dining table and headed for my room. I wanted to shower and try to conquer at least four levels of the dungeon. I opened the door and stepped through, closing the door behind me.

Gabby sat at my desk.

I'm embarrassed to admit I screamed a little.

She wore a pale blue denim skirt and tan sandals and a white flower-print shirt. Her long hair was piled atop her head with wisps hanging down. She looked like an angel, a fresh country girl just back from picking wildflowers. No way was this the same girl from the video. No way.

"Hello," she murmured, pensive and afraid.

I felt my face shifting through a hundred different expressions and I was powerless to stop it. I couldn't breathe, I couldn't think, I couldn't talk. My legs went weak enough I could no longer stand. I reached for my bed and sat on the corner.

"Say hello back," she said.

"Hi," I stammered.

I'll be honest; she was fucking radiant. She looked fucking golden. My heart seized inside my chest. I was still wildly, hopelessly in love with her. My eyes ached. My ribs hurt.

"What did Mom want?"

"Information. She's worried about you. She said you don't call or write."

"No, I don't. Independence is funny like that. You don't know what it is until you've had it and once you have, you'll die to keep it. I never knew how controlling Mom was until I got out on my own and discovered how many of my opinions were actually her opinions. I have my own opinions now."

I said nothing. She did not come here to discuss her mother.

Our eyes met and she struggled with something but I remained silent, waiting her out. I wasn't about to confess my undying love and regret and gut myself.

"I fucked up," she said, a quiver in her voice. I watched her face. Her resolve was rapidly crumbling. A lip trembled. Her eyes filled with water. "I fucked up badly, Baby."

I'd measure the amount of adrenaline that dumped into my bloodstream at around a quart. I calmed myself. That admission could mean many things.

"How do you mean?" I asked.

She nervously chewed inside her mouth. "When I lost you. I should never have allowed that. I won't make excuses. I was wrong, so incredibly wrong, and I'm deeply sorry. I want you back. I'll do whatever you say. I want you back."

A tangled ball of barbed wire inside my stomach, which I was somehow fully unaware of until this moment, relaxed and began to dissolve. I gulped air at the relief. Gabby looked at me with big doe eyes, ready to hear her sentencing. My mind and my heart began a debate which rapidly became a screaming match headed in opposite directions. I was afraid to believe this was real, afraid of getting burned again. I sat still long enough Gabby asked me to say something. I eased myself into scathing bathwater.

“Not like before,” I croaked. My heart swelled until it threatened to crack ribs.

“No, I agree.” She smiled and her eyes softened and I realized I’d just indirectly told her yes and I believed there was hope for us.

When we would talk about it years later, she says I moved first and I say she did. Regardless, the next instant we were standing, hugging and crying and spilling our guts all over the floor about how much we missed each other. We must have said I love you a thousand times each. Once we calmed we remained standing and hugging and sniffing. After a long time, we sat on the corners of my bed, facing each other.

“I was so stupid,” she began. “I kept gaining all these amazing gifts and I got greedy. I wanted everything, with nothing given back. I just kept taking.”

She was talking fast and that meant she had a lot to say, so I let her.

“I was heartbroken after you left but I buried it behind dancing and having fun all the time. Weeks passed and I realized I had this huge emptiness inside. Dancing made it worse now. While we were engaged, I was a very naughty girl breaking all the rules. It was thrilling and dangerous and fun. Once I was single all the rules went away. I could whatever I chose. Now I was just a stripper and part-time whore, and that’s more sad than exciting. It’s no fun without you. Life is no fun without you. You’re my heart, Baby.”

Yeah, I melted.

“Did you quit the club?”

“I’ll do whatever you say. It won’t be easy. I think you know that; we both have powerful kinks. But if you believe I must quit for us to survive then I will. I’ll do anything.”

I took her hands. My first impulse was to tell her quit but she raised a great point.

“I was so hurt when you chose dancing over us,” I said.

“I get that,” she said. “It’s not really that simple though, is it? I wasn’t choosing dancing or sex with strangers, I was choosing autonomy. I felt empowered and in pursuit of my desires. I thought that’s what I wanted. Like when you accepted your membership to the Fox Club without concern for me. You took what you wanted. Why couldn’t I do the same thing?”

I tilted my head, confused. "Explain."

"Never mind that you used sex with me to get to Jasper. We'll save that conversation for another time. I'm talking about how you wanted a spot in the Fox Club so badly you didn't think twice about eliminating Blake, Jasper, and Dakota as my lovers. Once you learned they were restricted from sex with me, you just told me too bad. I had no voice, no vote. I was between you and your goal. What was I supposed to do? My sex drive was ramping up but you shut me down. I admit I reacted poorly, using the dancing to make myself feel better, but you contributed to my reaction. I would have given those guys up to make you happy. I know how important being a Foxman was to you. But you took my voice away."

Wow. I stared out the window. She was right. Not absolved, but right.

"I'm sorry, Gabby. I missed that completely. I never even asked how you felt."

"I'm sorry too. Pride kept me from coming back to you sooner. I'm so stupid."

I squeezed her hand.

Silence settled on us for a time and then she said: "I guess this is us growing up. We're going to make mistakes. All we can do is learn from them."

I smiled. "Where do we go from here?"

"Your call. Tell me."

"Do you want to quit dancing?"

"No, I have fun there."

I chuckled. "Fun."

Her eyes turn naughty. "I like being bad." She scooted closer on the bed. "And you love it when I am."

"True, but not behind my back. I know it sounds weird because I let you fool around but what you were doing was just like cheating. I must be involved."

"How? You're so busy you can't make the weekend trips with me and the club says no boyfriends or husband allowed."

I considered telling her about my spy, Jasmine, but elected not to. I hadn't cleared such a confession with her and besides, I was sure Gabby would freak to discover I knew everything and I'd watched video of her sexual exploits.

"When school starts will you keep dancing?"

"I let the owner know Saturday night only."

"What if you sent me video of your night? What if you told me what was going on, how you felt? If we at least communicated I'd feel a part of what you were doing. I just need to feel like it's something we're doing together."

"That makes sense and I can do those things."

"That's what really matters to me. I understand what you said about how it's more fun having rules and then breaking them, so let's swear right now you'll never do anything without me. Fair?"

"Fair." She extended her hand. We shook.

"I don't want to control who or when or where," I added. "I love it when you're a sexual creature. Those choices need to remain all yours. I just need to know too."

"I understand."

We hugged again.

"You still saving yourself for marriage?"

I laughed. "Yes."

"We could have some amazing make-up sex right now."

"Tempting, especially looking as good as you do, but no. I made a promise."

She gave me a smirk.

"What?" I asked.

"You're a good man. I'm a lucky woman"

"Thank you."

"But I'm a woman now and I no longer embrace the promises I made as a little girl. I feel you shouldn't either so I reserve the right to attempt to change your mind."

"Do your worst."

"Is that right? You welcome my effort? That sounds like a challenge. All right, Mister Johnson, it's on. Let's see if I can wear you down. I'm going to make you fuck me. I'm going to get you so hot you can't stop yourself."

I laughed again but in the back of my mind I was nervous. Gabby is as tenacious as her mother. I chuckled and wondered if I'd gone too far.

Chapter 4

Gabby called her mom and I listened to her side of the conversation. She apologized profusely and admitted to being a horrible daughter. She lied and said the job was at a Forever Twenty-One clothing store for girls but that she'd quit because school was starting soon. She knew exactly how to handle her mom and said everything she needed to calm the woman. Forty-five minutes later they ended the call.

"I'm starving," Gabby said.

I borrowed my dad's car and we headed downtown for food.

After we ate we wandered around a nearby mall and talked about how much we missed each other while we were apart. I confessed to manic masturbation but left out any mention of video or pictures and she reluctantly admitted she'd been a very bad girl indeed. I promised I wouldn't judge and asked her to tell me everything. She did. The material Jasmine sent didn't come close to illuminating the depths of my love's depravity. Gabby was a sex fiend. Male, female, threesomes, orgies; she tried them all. She confessed creampie gangbangs were her favorite. She and Anna rented a budget suite near Aura and worked every day.

"We went crazy, Baby. Cash rolled in."

I was surprised to realize I'd never asked her about the money. "How much have you made?"

She got bashful. "Dancing tips combined with the money from my activities outside the club?"

"Yes. Grand total."

"About eighty thousand dollars."

"What the fuck?" I yelled. Heads turned. I stopped in the middle of the mall, staring. Despite my shock I processed the math. "How is this possible, Gabby? Two girls fresh out of high school made eighty thousand dollars in three or four months? What kind of a world do we live in?"

She touched my arm gently. "We made eighty grand each, Honey."

I dropped our shopping bags to the marble floor. "Jesus Christ, Gabriela! Even at two grand a weekend that's roughly forty to fifty thousand. How'd you make so much?"

Gabby took my hand and tugged me walking again. I grabbed our bags.

"I had a patron," she said.

"What's that?"

"A rich guy that focused his attention on me. He was kinky. Insatiable."

I ran my eyes over her incredible body and pretty face. Easy to imagine some guy getting obsessed with her.

"Anna too?"

"Yes. Not as much as me. She took more dance shifts and VIP room visits."

We walked past an ice cream parlor and I nudged her to head inside. I needed to sit. We placed our order and took a table near the window. The place was empty.

"What will you do with that much money?"

She gave a little shrug. "Probably invest. Once we're out of school it might make a down payment on a house or to start a business."

Way in the back of my brain, I felt pride. Weird, right? Like, here was a girl with that kind of draw and she was with me. More than that, once apart, she realized I was too good to let go and came back. How many men had she met in the last three or four months? Business men and pro athletes, actors and artists; she had her choice but came back to me. My ego swelled. I had to admire the power of her allure.

Imagining all those men came with a price, though. I was happy she chose me, but I couldn't tell you why. The foundation of our love was an ineffable and intangible thing. I had to trust her love. There was no concrete reason for it. Faith has always been a difficult thing for me. She'd met smarter, wealthier, and more handsome men than me but rejected them for something mysterious. I had to believe in that mystery.

The ice cream tasted great. She'd been watching my face and saw my struggle. As I took my first bite, she touched my hand and told me she loved me. We were back together but we still had plenty to work through.

Outside in the mall, Brandon Skye and several friends walked by carrying shopping bags. I felt a chill. What shitty timing. He saw Gabby first and gave a friendly wave and smile and then he saw me. His face froze. Gabby waved. Brandon told his friends something and pointed at a restaurant ahead and then peeled away and headed for the entrance to the parlor.

God, how I hated this guy.

He slid into the booth next to me.

"What's all this? I heard you two broke up. Trying to decide who gets the DVDs?"

"I realized I was an idiot and chased him," Gabby offered right away, bless her.

He gently placed his fingertips on her arm. "Well, I confess that's disappointing," he said. "I guess I missed my window."

His intense eyes met Gabby's and she did not look away. His fingers grazed her soft skin. I was about to yell at him but something in the look she gave him stopped me.

Please, God, not him, I thought.

"I guess you did," I said.

They ignored me. I saw the attraction in Gabby's eyes. She'd known Brandon as long as me but knew him far better. Old Gabby never acknowledged his constant flirting but this was not old Gabby. She swung her gaze over to me and I saw the lust. My own words, so recently spoken, came back to me, now twisted and bitter: I don't want to control who or when or where. I love it when you're a sexual creature. That needs to remain all yours.

The universe has a dark sense of humor.

The pause had lasted so long now, Brandon smiled. "Or did I?" he asked.

My mind screamed at Gabby to tell him to fuck off but she didn't. She liked his self-confidence. She liked his aggression right in my face. Did she see this as an opportunity to smash my resolve? She'd stated her intent to change my mind. I'd told her to do her worst. Why am I an idiot so frequently?

"I'm going to walk Brandon back to his car," she said, abruptly. His eyebrows shot up. "I'll be back soon. Will you have them keep my ice cream cold for me?"

Brandon almost jumped out of the booth. His broad smile crushed me.

Was Gabby truly doing this? It almost felt hateful, but then she couldn't know how I felt about the guy. I'd only hinted about my history with him. She knew we were rivals and that's probably why she thought this was a great opportunity to taunt me, to test my determination regarding abstinence. She did not understand how deep my animosity ran with him.

Gabby slid out and kissed my forehead. She gave me a playful, teasing smile and walked away with Brandon. My toes curled into furious little fists inside my shoes. My tongue stuck to the roof of my mouth.

God! Brandon!

She kept looking back, like she expected me to jump up and declare her the winner in this game of wills. I almost did but his gloating look kept me in my seat. I hated this but no way would he get to see me beg. Fuck that.

They rounded the corner and Gabby took his hand as they passed our booth. Her mischievous grin lanced my heart. His arrogant smile boiled my blood. I pressed my face against the cold glass as they moved out of sight. My heart hammered away like I was dying.

Fuck this.

I handed our ice cream to the girl at the counter and said we'd be right back. She said she'd keep our dessert in their freezer. I jogged after them, carrying our bags and his, and spotted her skirt on the stairs to the parking garage. I watched them exit on the fourth floor so I summoned the elevator and rose to the fifth. I lost them for a while in the mix of cars but heard her laugh just before a car door slammed shut. I followed the sound and found a spot where the ramp looked down on the floor below. They were one car over. Not a great angle but at least I saw something.

They sat in the front seats of his Mustang, separated by a console, facing each other, backs against the doors. She had one leg under her butt and the other stretched out. Her skirt had ridden up her legs and I wondered if Brandon, with a far better angle than me, saw all the way up to panties. Yes, she was truly doing this.

Dear God, anybody but him.

They were talking with occasional body shifts and I allowed myself to hope nothing would happen. Gabby clapped her hands, obviously laughing at something and then Brandon placed his hand casually on her calf. I wished I could see faces and read expressions. They remained like that for a couple minutes and then Gabby pulled her leg out from under. Her skirt lifted and now I was sure Brandon had seen under. His hand slid up to her knee and Gabby opened her legs. I saw his head come down as Gabby scooted her ass closer and seconds later Brandon pulled her panties aside and dropped his face to her lap. He was eating my fiancée's pussy. Her hands landed on his hair. I was sure her face was blissful. My wife-to-be was enjoying the oral worship of my high school bully.

I don't know if she climaxed but after a while she lifted his head and kissed him and then pushed him back against his door. She worked the buttons of his fly and he lifted his ass and his pants came down enough for her to free his cock. His underwear cleared his pubes and his dick slapped against his stomach. He was hard already, but who wouldn't be? From my awkward angle size was difficult to determine. He looked only a little longer than me, but much thicker. Much. Gabby lifted him with one hand and settled her mouth over the head. Her index finger barely reached her thumb. My dreams that he had a small penis were dashed. He wasn't huge, thank God, but he was clearly bigger than me.

I expected Gabby to blow him fast and hard, trying to make him cum quickly so she could get back to me, but no. If her goal was to torture me into relenting, the longer she took the better, and that was clearly her goal.

She sucked his cock like he was King of the World. She'd learned a lot over the last few months and I saw all her skills on display. She licked his firm inches and teased the head and rolled his balls around inside her mouth. Her drool collected in his pubic hair. Because of the steering wheel she only had room to use one hand but she lovingly stroked him into her vacuuming mouth. Her tongue showed him how much she loved his cock. Do you know how much it hurts to see your rival's cock gleaming with your fiancée's saliva? No, you have no idea. Your heart leaks blood inside your chest. You can't quite fill your lungs with the air you need. My worst nightmare played out in front of my eyes and trust me, it was far more painful than I've described.

So why the fuck did my dick get hard?

I will never understand this part of me.

Gabby's mouth moved up and down Brandon's red throbbing cock and my body was shot full of barbed arrows, but I kept watching and I kept growing harder. The agony felt so good. She toyed with his balls and licked away a drop of clear cum every time it formed. She had his shaft wet from balls to tip and opened her mouth and worked his shaft deep. She didn't take all of him but almost. She was obviously much more skilled than just a few months ago. If not for the awkward angle in the car, I believe she would have deep-throated his entire cock and then mouth fucked him until he came. It was awful but I loved it.

I saw him once again back in the halls of high school. He always had a circle of asshole friends around, just like him, but he was so obviously their leader. He'd take my books or strip me of my shirt and force me to go home for another. His humiliations were endless. Now I watched my fiancée slather his hard meat with an eager tongue. I love her and she was doing her best to give him pleasure. I flashed ahead, knowing his sperm would find a way inside her. I prayed they had no room to fuck.

He did try to fuck her. I couldn't hear but the hand motions and body language were clear; he wanted to bury his cock in her pussy in the worst possible way. He argued and charmed but she didn't budge.

To shut him up she wet her index finger and shoved it up his ass. I'd never seen her do this. I'd never even heard of this. The impact on Brandon was astonishing. Almost against his will his hips started bucking and his cock started spewing. Gabby capped his dick with her mouth and her cheeks dented. She sucked his load all the way up from his balls. Brandon held onto her head and the steering wheel as his pelvis jerked rapidly and he fed my fiancée his sperm.

She left him a heaving wreck. She tenderly kissed his shrinking cock and adjusted her clothing. I knew she was about to leave so I double-timed it back to the parlor. I worried when I saw a family had taken our booth but I grabbed the one next to it and waited.

Gabby rounded the corner floating on tiptoes. She hit me with a big smile as she turned the corner and sat on my side of the table. She grabbed my face and kissed me deeply, swirling her tongue in my mouth. I tasted Brandon everywhere. How humiliating. Thank God he wasn't here to see what she did. I would have died.

"Miss me?" she asked, her eyes laughing.

“Yes. Brandon? Really? You know I hate the guy.”

“I know you do, Baby. That’s the main reason I went with him.”

“What happened?”

She blew in my face and came in for another kiss. “He’s in my belly,” she whispered, just before our lips met. I hoped the family behind us didn’t hear. “I sucked his fat cock and swallowed everything. Did you know he had a big cock? Can’t wait to chase his load with some sweet ice cream.”

I whimpered and looked down at my dessert. She was killing me. He’s my worst enemy, tormentor, and nemesis, and Gabby had his cock in her mouth just minutes ago. She was having fun with this.

“I can’t believe you gave Brandon a blowjob,” I said. “You know I hate him.”

She reached under the table and squeezed my raging hard-on.

“I knew it,” she grinned. She placed her lips next to my ear and breathed hotly. “Hard dicks do not lie,” she said. “You might hate him, but you love this about me.”

“Did you fuck him?” I asked. I knew she hadn’t but it seemed like an ignorant Chuck would ask that question.

“No, not this time.” She gave my penis another squeeze. “But I will. Don’t worry, I’ll keep you informed. You might even be in the room, watching.”

My body heat shot up thirty degrees. I’d fucking die. Watching Brandon’s cock sink into Gabby would kill me. I was sure of it.

We finished our ice cream treat, talked about school and what our junior year might hold. Her eyes danced with joy and life. We were back together and back on track and suddenly forbidden sex with strange men was back on the menu.

Chapter 5

Gabby had neglected the coming year but four concentrated days had her on schedule. Because Gabby hadn’t answered several messages, Diana moved in with a different girl. Gabby had to draw a name from a lottery and hope for the best. She was assigned a junior named Tina Zenk. I researched Tina on social media and she looked to be much more of a party girl than Diana. Given our new lifestyle, that was probably a good thing. Tina was petite, like Gabby, but muscular and fit. She wore her black hair in a bob and most of her online pictures showed her in sports gear, including several bras that smashed her surprisingly big tits for one with such low body fat. Her ass and legs were muscular, thick and strong.

Gabby and I were lying by my parents' pool when she suggested we head back early again this year.

"As always," she said. "We'll get a jump on packing and unpacking. You can start your class president campaign and meet the coach for lacrosse."

"No lacrosse this year," I said. "I was too busy last year and with you as a fiancée, I can expect constant distractions. I need the extra time."

She stuck her tongue out at me.

"There's something else we could do," she teased.

I raised both eyebrows.

"You could come to Aura on a Saturday night and watch me. If I take a client to the VIP room, you could grab a random dancer and come back there too, but behave yourself. Would you love to see me in action, Baby?"

I had to say yes. I couldn't tell her I already had via the many pictures and videos Jasmine sent.

"That sounds hot," I replied.

"Husbands and boyfriends can't come in the club so we'll arrive separately. Take a table and try to ignore me. I'll give you a good show, Love."

Over the next few days we packed and got ready to leave. My parents were happy I was happy again but my dad still wanted me to take that trip to Europe. Gabby's mom scolded her for being so mysterious and asked a ton of pointed questions. She seemed to suspect something and she was annoyed. She insisted Gabby do a better job of staying in touch and Gabby promised she would. By week's end we were ready to board the plane and head for our junior year.

"Too bad about Brandon," I teased as our plane sat at the terminal.

"What do you mean?"

"You threatened to fuck him but here we go, off to school."

She shook her head sadly. She withdrew her phone and opened texting. She tapped out a message, speaking as she formed the letters: Hey

B, she typed. Here's my building and room number. If you're ever on the east coast this year, stop by to see me. We can finish what we started.

"You're evil," I said.

She kissed the back of my hand.

"I'm perfect for you," she countered.

We arrived safely and let our parents know and then hurried to meet Tina and get Gabby unpacked. By the time I left for my dorm two hours later, I felt sure the girls would get along well. Tina was a no bullshit person who told you the truth to your face. She'd heard rumors about Gabby and her wild streak and Gabby confirmed them without providing details.

"I love you already," Tina said. I stole a glance at her tits and ass whenever I could. I told them goodnight and aimed for home.

Martin and Jerry watched a hacked copy of Avengers; Infinity War, but hit pause when I came in. I brought them up to speed about my summer, leaving out Brandon, and they were thrilled to hear Gabby and I were together again. Jerry got a twinkle in his eye knowing Gabby would be around. We talked a bit longer and I said goodnight.

Two days later our junior year was locked and loaded.

Friday Gabby told me to come to the club with her on Saturday. I was so conflicted. We'd agreed to keep everything out in the open and she'd reduced her stage time to Saturday nights only, but I knew what I would see there. I was excited but nervous. Moreover, Jasmine would be there and that made me anxious.

My lust won and I said yes. I was with Gabby while she tried on different outfits and played with her hair and makeup. She handled both like a pro and my sweet country girl transformed into a sultry cock-loving goddess. Her young body screamed sexy, her eyes looked big and captivating. She chose the sexiest outfits, showing me how she'd display her hot body because I'd be there tomorrow tonight, and I was hard for almost two hours straight. She suggested I take it out and jerk off, which she loved to watch, but I declined.

She went out to the kitchen for a Coke, wearing a black mini and bikini top, and Tina whooped. I heard them out there talking and worried Gabby said too much. Back in the room I asked and she said she told Tina we were headed to a private pool party tomorrow with dear friends.

“She couldn’t take her eyes off me. I wonder what she’s like in bed?”

Clearly, old Gabby was gone and never coming back. She made her final costume decisions and packed her gym bag.

We went out for pizza at the cafeteria and bumped into Martin and Jerry and joined them at their table. Of course, Jerry kept stealing glances at Gabby, but I was surprised to see Gabby returning them.

“You’re a sophomore now, right?” she asked him.

“Yes.”

“Girlfriend?”

“No.”

“That’s a shame. You too, Martin. You guys need to get out more. You both have so much to offer.” She took a lazy bite of pizza. “Especially you, Jerry.”

The guys laughed. Gabby looked at me knowingly. I was sure her fashion show earlier had her horny and young Jerry sitting there with a mammoth cock only made it worse. She actually started squirming after a while.

“What do you guys have planned for tonight?” she asked, innocently.

“Nothing,” Martin blurted. “Nothing much anyway. Back to the dorm to kill Nazis.”

She turned to me. Goddamn, she’s a cruel mistress. I knew what she wanted. We all did. She was laying the invitation at my feet. I’d told her to keep me involved and was she ever. Not only was she going to fuck them in front of me, I had to ask them to do it. Brutal. Hot, but brutal. I tried to think of what to say but “Maybe we’ll join you,” was the only thing that came out.

Both guys nodded profusely. They felt the vibrations in the air. Nobody said anything, but everyone ate a little faster. We finished and paid and walked back to the dorm as a foursome; Martin and Jerry in front, Me and Gabby behind. She kept meeting my gaze and flirting with me. We were halfway home when she left my side and moved up between the boys. She took Jerry’s hand, making him blush, and rested her head on his shoulder. He was a small young man, not at all masculine, but Gabby’s feminine gesture made his chest swell with pride. It also made my dick swell in my pants. Martin dropped back to walk with me.

"She going to fuck him?" he murmured.

"That is my belief, yes. You too, I imagine."

"And you're still cool with that? I don't want to mess things up right after you two get back together."

I put my arm around his shoulder. "You're a good friend, Martin. I am cool with it. In fact, I love it. I know I'm strange but that's the truth."

"I don't judge," he said.

We walked for a while watching Gabby and Jerry hold hands.

"My dick's getting hard already," Martin whispered.

"Mine too," I admitted.

"I bet Jerry's is too. You should have heard him rant and rave after that time with Gabby. She turned his world upside down. He was a virgin. Did you know that? He lost his virginity in a threesome with a world-class hot babe. How cool is that? Lucky fucker."

We walked in silence a while.

"You still saving yourself for your honeymoon?" he asked.

"I am."

"Your willpower is formidable. I have so much respect for you."

Jerry and Gabby slowed and Gabby reached for Martin to join them. I stayed behind and watched the guys walk with their arms around my girl, her big tits rubbing their chests, her thighs rubbing against theirs. It was sexy but nothing too salacious. Heads turned as we crossed campus. Normally everyone would have passed us off as goofy kids but there was an air of sensuality about the way Gabby moved with them, a comfortable familiarity. Anyone watching knew she'd fucked them both. I saw it and I know others did too. I perversely enjoyed the shock on their faces.

We were a hundred feet from my dorm when the golf cart pulled up.

A campus security officer, several inches under six foot and several pounds over two-forty, tried to be nimble and step out before the cart fully stopped. He tightened the chin strap on his ranger hat and hitched up his tight, tan pants.

"Evening," he said.

"Hello," I replied.

"You kids go to school here?"

I thought he was joking so I just stared at him.

"Answer me."

"Yes," Gabby said. "Of course. Why?"

"All four of you?"

"Yes." I said.

"I received some complaints about kids displaying lascivious behavior. You four match the description."

Gabby looked appalled. "What? Walking across campus? Do you even know what that word means?"

"What's your name?" he snapped.

I put my palm up. I knew this guy although I'd never met him before. He was that failed cop who took a security guard position for the power he believed in conferred upon him. His bluster masked deep insecurities. The harder we came at him, the more he'd love to throw that perceived power around.

"Officer," I began. "We were goofing around and walking funny across campus, like participants in a three-legged race. We probably made too much noise and you are right to stop and question us. The safety of students and reputation of the school matter most. We'll stop playing and making so much noise and head straight home. Will that be all right? I'm sorry, I didn't catch your name."

"My name is Danny Gupta, Officer Gupta to you kids. I'm going to need your names."

We told him our names and what grade we were in and he jotted everything in a small black notepad. He asked for our building and unit numbers and told Martin and Jerry to get home. They left, Jerry obviously frustrated.

"You two," Gupta said to Gabby and me, "are coming with me."

"Why?" demanded Gabby.

I put a hand on her arm. Officer Gupta closed his notepad with a flip and tucked it into his shirt pocket.

"I've heard disturbing rumors about you, Miss Simpson. I've heard you spend a lot of time with the boys of Philips Exeter. I'm sure Dean Austin would like to talk to you about that. I'm taking you to him now."

We squeezed onto the golf cart and he headed for the administration building. We said nothing on the ride. Once there, he walked us into a large and opulent office, high bookcases and heavy wooden desk, and told us to wait and touch nothing. Minutes later a side door opened and Dean Austin stepped through, accompanied by Officer Gupta. The dean was an ancient figure, well known around campus as a strict disciplinarian. He stood well under six feet and bent at the shoulders but moved with surprising strength. Thin white hair topped his dome.

"Sit, sit," the dean said.

I pulled out a chair for Gabby and then sat. Gupta remained standing.

Dean Austin looked us over, lingering on Gabby's face. "Danny told me what he's heard," he began. "Now that I've seen you, young lady, I can't say I'm surprised. You're a lovely girl, Gabriela, and I'd hate for anything to derail your education. I won't ask if any of the rumors are true. I'm sure lots of Exeter boys are drawn to you. Instead I will warn you of the dangers of distraction. Stay the course, Miss Simpson, stay the course and graduate on time."

Gabby would not be intimidated and dove right in. For the next twenty minutes, she assured him whatever he'd heard was wrong; she was a studious, hard-working girl. She was so earnest she even convinced me. He eventually came around and asked that we take this meeting in the helpful spirit he intended. In the end, we all shook hands and Dean Austin said Officer Gupta would see us home.

We were barely outside the building when Gupta turned on us.

"You might fool him but you don't fool me. I've been policing these grounds a long time and I know trouble when I see it. I'm warning you now; I have my eye on you."

Gabby was about to snarl something sarcastic at him but I touched her arm again and thanked Officer Gupta for his commitment to the school. He dropped Gabby at her dorm and then took me to mine. I called her as soon as he pulled away.

"Guys like that take it personal," I said. "We need to be careful."

She ranted for ten minutes about what an asshole he was, caught herself, thanked me for my self-control, and said goodnight. When I entered my dorm Jerry and Martin sat waiting.

“Sorry, boys,” I said. “You’ll be dating your hands tonight.”
They looked crestfallen.

Chapter 6

I was a little paranoid all day Saturday. Gabby told me to calm down, convinced Gupta was just trying to scare us.

“I’m sure he says shit like that to all the kids on campus.”

In the evening, we went back to my dorm and she opened her gym bag. I watched with a dry mouth and wet palms as the love of my life prepared herself for other men. She repeated her makeup from the day before but darker so the guys seated all the way at the back could see her big, beautiful eyes. She plumped her lips with a small suction device and then applied her deep wine red lipstick. She brushed her hair so it framed her pretty face. She wore the black mini and bikini top and then threw on a sweatshirt and pants for the bus ride.

“Wait outside the club about an hour. Maybe have a cup of coffee or something. Then come in and take a seat in the back. I doubt anyone will remember you from our first visit but ignore me anyway. This is exciting, Baby. I’m so glad you’re here to watch me. I’m giddy, like it’s my first time all over again.”

I gave her a kiss at the bus stop and walked to a Denny’s for hot chocolate. Exactly one hour later, I entered the club.

They’d redecorated since I was here almost a year ago. The walls, ceiling, and floors were all jet black. The lighting was mostly ultraviolet and anything with color or white glowed. The girls’ outfits looked amazing. I took a booth and checked each stage until I found Gabby. She’d already changed out of her black bikini into a florescent pink. The black lights wildly exaggerated the movement of her big tits and I was mesmerized just like every other guy in the place. I played it cool and watched other girls too. When Jasmine came out I recognized her from her Facebook page. She looked a little like the actress Amber Heard, medium-sized tits, cute bubble-butt, and long blonde hair like Anna, who appeared on stage right after.

Anna looked incredible. She was fit and strong and had learned how to dance. She whipped her body around, her outfit barely keeping her covered, and the guys loved it. She and Gabby were the youngest and that appealed to a wide section of the clientele. The crowd shook the walls with raucous cheers.

The girls continued to rotate stages and soon Gabby arrived in front of me. She danced and gyrated and I let myself devour her as if I didn't know her. She drew the attention of every guy around. When the first song ended and the next began, she slowly untied her bikini top with her back to the crowd. We yelled for her to turn around and she did, gradually, one arm over her nipples. At the precise up-beat moment in the song, she jerked her arm away and exposed her big, perfect tits to us all.

I froze mid-cheer. I was seeing her breasts clearly for the first time since she'd returned to me, and I saw each nipple was pierced with a small silver hoop about the size of a dime. The rings bounced with her movements, drawing our attention and forcing her pencil-eraser nipples into hard points. My jaw dropped and my eyes bulged. She looked scandalous and shockingly sexual.

She laughed at my reaction and lifted her tits right at me and smiled like a wicked witch. She licked her lips seductively. Guys were throwing money at her like leaves in the wind and she laughed again at my expression. My balls felt hot and full. I looked around at all the men going crazy for her and desire rose in me stronger than I'd ever felt. I wanted to fuck her unconscious.

She spun away to go tease another man. I was left breathless. I watched her work the crowd like a pro, taunting and teasing and promising the men everything with just a look. The guys were fanatical about her. I felt as much pride as lust.

One guy needed more and signaled her over. I watched carefully as he pointed to the VIP room and spoke into her ear while flashing money. She nodded and smiled knowingly and then continued dancing, but not before locking eyes with me. I checked to see which girl was close and saw Jasmine on the stage behind me. I waved her over.

"Hi," I said, casually.

"Hi yourself, handsome."

I chuckled. "It's me, Jasmine. I'm Chuck, Gabby's boyfriend. We're together again. She's headed for the VIP room and I want to keep watching her. Can I pay you to go back with me? Gabby knows nothing about you so act like you don't know me."

Her eyes lit up. "Hell yes I'll go back with you. You guys are kinky as fuck! I think it's hot you like watching her. I've got to get a boyfriend like you."

The song ended and men stood up all around the room. A wave of men exited the VIP room just as we arrived. I kept an eye on Gabby and chose an open booth across from her. I've seen her fuck many times but somehow this environment had my heart racing. Maybe because she'd have so many witnesses to her debauchery. I finally got a look at her client and as expected, he was an older man, well dressed and polite. He took his seat and I took mine.

Jasmine did her best to draw my attention and I was careful not to snub her, but I was there for Gabby. My fiancée danced the first song like always, whirling and teasing, but then her shorts came down and her top came off. Gabby had gotten her nipples pierced sometime during the last four or five months and had waited to surprise me. I didn't care. That's not like cheating. I'm sure she wanted to shock me and she'd accomplished that.

Her gentleman opened his zipper and adjusted his erection, surprisingly large for a man so old. I don't know why I assumed an old guy would have a smaller dick. He held himself at the base so he rose above his lap and Gabby danced all around it, teasing him by bringing her face close or pretending to lower her pussy.

"You know she's going to fuck him, right?" Jasmine asked.

"Probably."

"No, definitely. That's Daddy Long Legs. We all call him Daddy. He fixates on one girl and lately that's Gabby. He hires her for special events and pays her a ton."

I looked at the man with renewed interest. "Is that her patron?"

"Oh, you know about that? Yeah, that's him. She pierced her nipples at his request, but also as a sign of affection. They're kind of a couple, you know?"

Her words made my blood boil. Jealous flared. I saw it between them now; the intimate familiarity, the lack of personal space. He knew he had rights with her. He caressed her tits and she leaned into it, thrilled at his touch. He suckled one nipple then the other and then Gabby lowered her mouth to his cock.

“Hard to tell from here but he’s got a thick dick,” Jasmine said. “She needs to get him soaking wet before he fucks her ass. Her moans drive us all crazy.”

A bolt of lightning zapped my brain. Fucks her ASS?

Gabby put her back to him so she was facing me and straddled his lap. She held his penis vertical and maneuvered her butt until she found her asshole and then her legs relaxed and her pelvis sank. “Unnnnggghhh,” she groaned.

“God,” Jasmine said. “I love that sound. None of us will let a guy fuck our ass. Only Gabby. I think she has feelings for the guy.”

This was not at all what I expected. Gabby’s intense cries of pleasure filled the VIP room. Customers and their dancers joined in, moaning and groaning in heightened pleasure. Daddy reached up to tug her silver hoops and Gabby bit her bottom lip and looked directly at me. She gave me that wicked smile again and lifted her feet to his bench, opening her knees and showing me his hard, thick cock easing into her stretched asshole. Her bald, empty pussy seemed to smile at me. I felt sick but I couldn’t look away. Jasmine rubbed my erection through my pants.

He’s fucking her ass.

“Since you guys are trying to hide your relationship,” she said. “You better take your dick out like everyone else. Don’t worry, I won’t do much with it.”

I couldn’t concentrate enough to unzip my pants, but I didn’t fight her when she did it for me. Freedom felt fantastic. The cool air curled around my shaft and Gabby looked right at my penis, looking relieved as well as aroused. Part of her had been worried what my reaction might be.

Ever so subtly, she gave Jasmine a little nod. My hard-on stood up like Gabby’s client but not nearly as big. I could not pull my eyes away from his point of penetration. Gabby had a cock in her ass! My mind tumbled down an endless hill. She fucked him with such ease, like she’d done it a thousand times. She leaned her back against his chest and slipped an arm around his head and now I saw his face clearly for the first time.

Gabby fucked Tommy Lee Jones from the dildo video. I met her eyes and discovered she studied my face and pieces fell into place rapidly.

With a flash of insight, I linked the clues and understood.

Gabby had Jasmine film that dildo party and send it to me. Gabby wanted me to know how far she'd fallen. Even then she planned on getting me back but first I had to know how slutty she'd become. If I still wanted her after that, she'd feel safe and secure.

I looked up at Jasmine as she pretended to tease my penis with her slit.

"Gabby knows about you, doesn't she?" I said. "She knows about the pictures and videos I paid for. In fact, I bet you are friends."

Jasmine smiled. "She warned me you were smart but that was fucking impressive. Yeah, she knows."

She settled on my lap as if she were fucking me and rhythmically shoved her tits in my face. "Once the newness of Gabby wore off and the regulars returned to their favorite girls, things calmed down. I discovered I like Gabby. I like her a lot. She was crushed about you guys, brokenhearted every day. She was sure you'd moved on and never thought about her at all. I hated to see her suffering so I told her you still asked how she was and to see pictures and video of her. That made her feel better."

Jasmine cupped her tits and shoved them in my face before continuing.

"This decadent life swallowed her. It does that to most girls but especially former wallflowers. She was sure she'd fallen too far down the hole for you to ever want her back. She needed you to know. That's why I sent the dildo video. She wanted you to know everything."

The gentleman thrust into Gabby's ass while holding her a butt cheek in each hand. She'd slipped her shoes off and her bare feet rested on his thighs. Her eyes locked to mine. My penis surged even harder.

"She was sure you'd find her damaged goods now."

"I don't."

"That's sweet."

"What about Big Daddy?" I asked, looking up at Jasmine.

"Daddy Long Legs. He's harmless. He's filthy rich and harmless. He picks a girl to obsess over until she quits and then he picks a new girl. He likes them young."

I checked on my fiancée. Gabby now bent at the waist, leaning over the booth with Daddy behind. He held her tiny waist and fucked her asshole with deep strokes. Gabby held both cheeks open to him, moaning and waiting for his blasts of cum.

"Hot, right?" Jasmine said. "Geezer's a stud. She loves you but I know she has feelings for Daddy too, and not just because he's paid her a fortune."

My dick pulsed at that and Jasmine chuckled. "You like that, I see. Then maybe I should tell you how he sometimes spends the night with her at her motel?"

That image fueled my fire. I reached for my penis and began stroking.

"Some of us girls stop and watch them together. Their passion is exciting. Gabby drinks his cum like Kool-Aid and can't wait for more. Some nights he fucks her three or four times. That big cock makes your girl orgasm hard."

I groaned.

"I love how kinky you are," Jasmine said. "If all that gets you hot, then I should tell you Daddy put a baby inside your girl."

That news ripped a climax from me all at once. I moaned so loudly others around the room laughed. My bolt of hot sperm shot straight up and slapped Jasmine in the face. Some got into her mouth. She started laughing as I turned into a fountain, ropes of hot jizz flying out of my penis. Pregnant? I moaned through an earthshattering orgasm as my mind reeled. A blast landed across her tongue and cheek and she closed her mouth and licked her lips.

Pregnant? Pregnant?

What the fuck was wrong with me? Another man made Gabby pregnant and I'm more turned on than ever? I felt psychotic. Sperm arched out of my penis like fireworks. My hips jerked. I couldn't breathe. Less than twelve feet away Daddy grunted and clamped his jaw and silently filled my fiancée's rectum with cum. Is that why he fucked her ass now? Jesus. Gabby and I were lost at sea in utterly uncharted waters. Gabby slapped a hand on her clit and rubbed out a powerful orgasm as her patron filled her ass with seed.

Jasmine's eyes danced with crazy, maniacal joy. "Don't tell her I told you," she said. "She wants to tell you herself."

My dick would not go down. I gazed across the room at Gabby and saw her in an entirely new light. She'd been with child. My fiancée had conceived a child with another man. Thoughts and emotions poured in on me; regret, lust, curiosity, loss, sadness, joy...one second I was up and the next I was down.

Two things stood out most; Gabby looked sexier and more womanly than ever, and I seriously began to doubt my ability to save my virginity. What's the point? She's gone on without me to experience everything. I felt like a dumb kid compared to her.

Daddy pushed her hips away and his thick log flopped out of her ass. He pulled a fat wad of folded cash from his pocket and stuffed her little stripper purse. She turned and they kissed passionately and Jasmine flicked my erection.

"You might be the most complicated man I've ever met," she said.

I gave her a distracted nod. Gabby and her lover were separating, adjusting clothes and fixing hair. He headed for the exit. Gabby waited until he was gone and then aimed for us, her eyes fixed on my erection.

"Is that for me or Jasmine?" she joked.

Jasmine thoughtfully answered for me. "That stiffie is all yours, Sweetie. Chuck couldn't take his eyes off you. I tried to distract him with my titties but not this guy."

Gabby sat and slipped on her bikini top and mini.

"So that's Arnold," she told me. "My number one fan. He gets special privileges, as I'm sure you saw."

"Yes," I said. "I did see."

I knew I was looking at her funny but I hoped she'd chalk it up to what I'd just witnessed. She settled the black triangles of fabric over her nipples and silver rings, glancing at my pulsing penis. She looked at Jasmine.

"One time only," Gabby said. "I know you won't let me so I'll grant you a one-time only special deal; Jasmine can take care of that for you, if you both agree."

I looked down at my throbbing dick. "I already came," I mumbled. "While he was fucking your ass."

Gabby looked surprised.

"It's true," Jasmine offered, laughing. "He shot everywhere. He enjoyed watching you so much it won't go down."

Flattered, Gabby batted her eyes. "We have a long night ahead of us so why don't we just leave him stiff like that. I need to hit the stage again. See you guys."

I watched her ass as she left the VIP room.

"Our lives are crazy," I told Jasmine. "Just utterly unpredictable and outrageous."

She patted my shoulder. "Life is messy," she said.

We cleaned up and I returned to the main floor. The girls worked their shifts, rotating through their stages and taking the occasional customer to the back room. Gabby went seven times, including another trip with Daddy, but I only followed with Jasmine twice, and not to see her with him again. My head was spinning. I saw Gabby suck and fuck two guys, one older and white and one younger and black. The word pregnant kept tumbling through my mind. I hoped Gabby would tell me soon so we could talk about it.

I spent the rest of the night watching my fiancée work the crowd. She was the supreme professional. Gabby had gotten so good at this gig in such a short time that even the veteran dancers used her tricks and techniques.

Anna gave me an uncomfortable dance and I realized the last time she saw me I was walking out on Gabby. I thanked her and tipped her and thanked her again for being such a great friend for Gabby. That broke the awkwardness between us. Anna gushed about how much Gabby missed me and how torn up she was.

"She wanted to call you a million times. I told her she should. She'd always put her phone away and go distract herself but I could tell she was sad. I'm truly happy you guys are back together."

"What about your boyfriend?"

Her lips curled into a coy smile. "He knows," she said.

"You got your wish."

"Yeah. He's like you except he fucks me hard when I get home, although he's not very big. We've had threesomes with other guys and he sucked their dicks."

"Really?"

"It was hot. I asked him to and he did it."

"That's not for me."

"I figured. I liked watching him make hard a dick that we all knew would fuck me. Talk about devotion. Makes a girl feel special."

I chuckled. She finished her dance and moved on.

Eventually the girls started finishing their shifts and leaving. Gabby's turn came and she headed for the locker room and reappeared later, dressed in her sweat suit, makeup gone, long hair in a ponytail. She hugged a few girls and chatted briefly with a few guys on the way out. One stop was at Daddy's booth and a surge of jealousy raced through me.

That man impregnated Gabby, I thought. I remembered his fat cock and heavy balls. I watched them conversing and the pain was a torture that hurt and felt good at the same time. I couldn't figure it out and just chalked it up to yet another angle of my kinky fetish. An especially poignant and powerful angle. I wondered what other kinky surprises awaited me in this life with Gabby as my wife.

No way am I sucking dick, I thought.

I could tell the man was trying to convince Gabby to spend the night with him but she insisted she had to go. At last he unhappily relented. She walked by as if she didn't know me and after a few guys left, I left too. I found her in the shadows at the bus stop.

"Should we just grab a room?" I asked. "It's so late. We won't get home until almost sunrise."

She was watching my face and looking at me funny.

"I thought you'd instantly say something about that man fucking my ass."

"I'm going to, I just need to make sure you're taken care of first."

She melted. She hugged my arm and leaned into my body. "How did I get so lucky?" she asked.

I had a sudden insight; although Gabby's interactions with men had increased wildly over the last year or so, my stock with her was higher than ever. All those encounters had revealed just how amazing a partner I was. The more men she knew, the more she loved me. This was something valuable beyond the mere satisfaction of our uncommon lusts. I caught a glimpse of me through her eyes. It felt good.

I hugged her and after a short pause, she agreed a room would be better than a long bus ride right now. I aimed us for the motel.

"That was not the first time he's fucked your ass," I began.

She squeezed my hand. "No."

"In fact, he seemed quite familiar to you." I was trying to innocently introduce the topic like I knew nothing. "Is he a regular of yours?"

She squeezed my hand harder. "He's my patron, the man I told you about. I've been with him many times."

I waited. It was difficult, but I waited.

"There's something I need to tell you about him," she said at last.

I held my breath and let her struggle.

"He got me pregnant," she croaked. "Months ago."

It was her turn to hold her breath. She had no idea how I would react. I tried to play like I was hearing all this for the first time. I stiffened my body and stumbled a little.

"Go on," I said. "Tell me what happened."

He appeared, she explained, right after she and Anna moved up here for summer break. He was distant at first but Gabby felt his eyes follow her everywhere. When he finally requested a VIP dance, Gabby was nervous. The other dancers had warned her about the man they called Daddy and how possessive he could be. She relaxed when he behaved himself and then got turned on once she freed his big dick. True, he is older, but that gave him a calm, self-control she found attractive. He talked to her while she danced, genuinely interested. He did not have sex with her the first few times she danced for him. Within weeks she started looking forward to his visits.

By the time they did have sex, Gabby was hungry for it. She said she fucked him wildly, cumming all over his cock again and again. After that Gabby said she felt like the only girl in the club. He ignored other dancers. He began appearing every night and always took Gabby to the VIP room before anyone else had a chance at her. His tips were outrageous. When he offered her side work, she jumped at it. He promised great money for other girls too.

"He's part of this rich, older guy country club thing," she said. "A bunch of wealthy studs banging hot co-eds. He allowed others to have me but like he had something precious and was sharing it with them. If he got jealous, I never saw it. Baby, he threw some parties you wouldn't believe. I found out about you and Jasmine and I knew I wanted you back but you had to know what I was doing. I couldn't have what I'd done hanging over my head like a huge dark secret. I learned the perils of that road. I had Jasmine tape me and send it to you."

We approached the motel so she stopped her story until we were checked in and sitting on the bed.

"After that party, he stopped sharing me. He rented a suite for Anna and me and I spent every night in his bed. He's a big bull stud. I admit it felt really good to be so desired, and he treated me like a princess, but I never stopped thinking about you. It was about this time I realized I'd conceived. I told him and he said he wanted it but before I could decide, nature chose for me. I lost the baby."

She paused, watching me like a hawk. I was torn and fucked up inside. My rational, scientific brain processed all the information calmly; of course you conceived. That much coitus is sure to produce a child.

The other half of me was a boiling cauldron of monkey brains, blood, and semen. My heart hurt deeply that another man had gotten to her first. My heart also ached for her loss. That aching heart also raced with excitement. A primal surge of rivalry had me closer to throwing her on the bed and fucking her than I'd ever been before. I looked at her big tits and flat stomach and lusted after her the way other men must. My gaze followed the curving lines of her girlish body and when I arrived at her crotch, I remembered I'd watched her fuck less than an hour ago and was still full of cum.

I realized she was still staring at me.

"Say something," she said.

Instinct took over. She had to be emotionally raw from all this too. I was about to ask how she was feeling but thought better and instead leaned in and kissed her.

Wow.

Powerful emotions surged. The room spun and the world turned over. Her hands came up to my face and mine went to her shoulders and we kissed like it was the end of the world. We both felt it. We poured every ounce of love and compassion and empathy and understand we had for each other into those kisses. Now we were making out, passionately giving all we could and taking what we needed.

We scooted closer and kissed with greater fire. Much was left unspoken but we were just kids, really, and had no words for what we felt so intensely. All we knew with certainty was we were there for each other and always would be.

Her kisses moved to my face and turned tender and mine moved to her neck and became lusty. Gabby handles lust well. Her chin came up and her hands drifted to my knees. I got to her collar and paused for an instant and then ripped her sweatshirt off. Her big tits tumbled free, silver hoops gleaming, and I fell to feasting on them. She moaned deeply.

I continued down until I got to her pants. Her skin was salty from dancing and smelled like cigarettes but I did not care. She tried to push my face away.

“Baby, I need a shower.”

I pinned her wrists to the bed and burrowed deeper. I tugged her waistband down with my teeth and then whipped her pants to her knees, burying my face in her lap. She gasped as my stretched tongue found her hidden clit. I smelled the mix of her excitement and well-used pussy. Her hand found my hair and I covered her vulva with my mouth and pushed my wriggling tongue up her tunnel. She tasted strong and smelled pungent and I forced her onto her back as my hands sought her tits. When I felt the small hoops against my palms, I growled like an animal. I still mostly saw her as sweet, young, innocent Gabby, but she’d acquired a few slutty artifacts along the way. She was an exciting mix of naivety and experience.

Her slippery pussy was a furnace. I teased her nipples, made more sensitive by the piercings, and licked as far up inside her precious body as I could. She was especially responsive. Maybe my desire to feast on her offered proof I still adored her. Maybe the intimate touch of the man she loved anchored her in the crazy life she now led. I don’t know. I don’t care. I cared that she desperately craved my touch and affection. I cared that I had the power to reduce her to a writhing, moaning, gushing mound of female flesh. I slipped a finger into her soaked tunnel and stirred the mix of men inside her. I pulled that slick finger out and, for the first time ever, pushed it three-knuckles deep up her ass. Her back arched and she cried out in intense pleasure. I finger-fucked her sphincter, thinking of Daddy in there, and licked and sucked her precious pussy. I had her going crazy in minutes.

I did not allow her to cum. She got close fast but I backed off and slowed down. I got her close again and again eased back and made her wait. My finger was a gentle piston, forcing her tiny tight ring open. I slathered her clit and she almost sobbed.

I was as turned on as she was. I stood long enough to rip my clothes off, causing her to whimper and masturbate until I could start on her again. I pulled her hips to the edge of the bed and buried my face, stroking my penis as I gorged myself on her dripping, messy cunt. Soon my knuckles were covered with cum as my drooling dick leaked massive amounts of sperm.

I stood abruptly. Her eyes flashed open and she looked down her heaving body at me. I knew my eyes were wild as I leaned closer and placed the head of my penis at her pussy entrance. How many men were in there already? I was dying to shove my dick home. Gabby saw how close I was and moaned, begging me to bury my phallus in her. She told me she needed it. She pleaded with me to ram it home and forget everything else. Her hips lifted and curled as she desperately tried to capture me.

Every bone in my body ached with the need of her. I nudged forward an inch and her steaming labia wrapped around the tip, enveloping me only slightly, and the smooth slick heat made me gasp. My dick was so engorged I was almost purple. When she couldn't convince me to fuck her, she used both hands to spread her outer lips wide. I was looking inside my wife-to-be and the sea of milky sperm she held. I groaned from intense desire and almost thrust my hips forward. My internal struggle was titanic. I expected to burst into flames.

At the last possible instant, I returned to my knees and devoured her messy cunt.

"No!" she cried. "No, no, no, no, ooooooh, God!"

My tongue once again found her clit and I thrashed her mercilessly. She was crying, building towards an epic climax. I sent my finger back up her ass.

"I feel Daddy in here, Baby," I said.

Gabby drew a sharp breath.

“He’s inside my girl. You have a man’s cum up your ass. I saw him fuck you here. You steered his fat cock into your hole and now he’s fucked you everywhere. He knows your body. He owns your body. I’m sure you’ve taken his seed in every hole you have. You’ve given yourself to him completely.”

Gabby groaned so loud she startled me. I finger-fucked her ass and kept talking.

“Watching you fuck is the hottest thing on Earth, Baby,” I growled. “My sweet, slutty woman. I love how bad you are. Never stop. Promise me you’ll keep fucking after we’re married.”

Gabby tossed her head side to side. I was asking her to break her promise. I wanted lust to win. I wanted her to lose control. She was going to make me break my promise? I would make her break hers. She was breathing hard and mauling her tits. Her eyes were open and staring at the ceiling with an intense out-of-body expression. I pumped my finger faster and decided to take a chance.

“I’m crushed he impregnated you before me.”

She gasped so I quickly continued.

“Crushed and humiliated and more turned on than I know what to do with. God, Gabby, it’s the ultimate disgrace. I’m the ultimate fool. My woman carried another man’s baby. I’m a real cuckold and my dick has never been harder.”

I whipped my tongue all around her opening, sucking her clitoris.

“You saw it. I’m drooling cum. I’m hard as stone. They were right to call me Cuck. That’s what I am. You cuckolded me, Gabby. You conceived a baby with another man. My dick is hot and my balls are boiling. I love it. I LOVE it. Do you understand?”

I buried my face and ate her like a demon. I was merciless. Her body responded and her mind came along. She’d seen my rampant, throbbing erection. We didn’t understand but we didn’t need to.

“Tell me you’ll do it,” I said. “Tell me you want to keep fucking other men.”

I used my fingers and tongue to drive her insane, torturing her until she could take no more. Finally, she broke.

“YES!” she cried. “God, yes! I want to fuck them all, Baby. Can I fuck any man I want? Even after we’re married? I know I said I would stop but I don't want to."

"I'm stroking my dick right now," I said, and I was. Sperm bubbled from my balls and spilled down my fingers. "I want you to keep going. I even want you to fuck Daddy. I'm picturing you fucking him, remembering his cock in your ass, imagining your many nights together, making love. I love it when you're bad, Gabby."

My goal was to talk dirty and get her super-hot but I turned myself on too much. I was suddenly ready to explode.

"Here comes my load," I growled. "His goes in you, mine goes on the floor!"

I was shocked by the power of my climax. Stars swam and the room spun. Gabby heard me cumming and that shoved her over the edge as I kept licking and pumping my fingers. Her hips heaved and her back arched. She screamed and her pussy shot into my mouth. She screamed again and again, convulsing hard, ripping the comforter off the bed, her body wracked by massive waves of pleasure smashing her. I tried to lick as my load blasted out but couldn't always but she didn't care. She was lost to oblivion. We came together like stars exploding and lost track of everything else. As I came down, hers continued so I swirled my tongue and pumped my finger and listed with deep satisfaction at my girl orgasm.

Finally, she nudged my mouth away and slumped into a pile of boneless flesh, spent. I noted my sperm puddled on the rug before I crawled onto the bed and lay next to her. We woke like that hours later and got under the covers.

Chapter 7

I thought Gabby would want to talk first thing in the morning but I was wrong. A lot of things were said last night and I expected she'd want clarification but she did not. She was happier than I'd seen in a long time, kissing me often and holding my hand every chance she got. I asked why and she said she felt closer to me than ever before. I admitted I felt the same way. I was raw and vulnerable the night before, confessing dark and humiliating things, things now, in the light of morning, I could scarcely believe I said. Gabby loved it. She said she felt trusted and adored. We grabbed a quick breakfast at Denny's and sat close on the bus ride home. As usual, we didn't talk a lot about what had happened.

I did ask about the video Jasmine sent and what looked like Gabby snorting something. She admitted her and Anna sometimes used cocaine when it was offered. I warned her away from that stuff and she promised they rarely used any.

"I had no idea Jasmine caught that on tape too," she said. She got thoughtful for a moment. "I better warn her. Daddy would be furious."

She asked to see all the pictures and videos Jasmine had sent and I let her watch them with the sound down all the way home. She got so turned on when we got to my dorm she made me eat her until she came again.

We'd been lying in bed about thirty minutes when Martin knocked on the door.

"You guys have visitors," he said. His face was so serious I laughed.

"Who died, brother?" I teased.

He put a finger to his lips to silence me. I pulled up my shorts and tossed on a T-shirt and went to the living room.

Officer Gupta stood waiting. Gabby followed me out of the room wearing a pair of my boxers and one of my tank tops, the rings in her nipples obvious through the thin cotton. Gupta gave me a sneer but then saw Gabby's tits and gawked. Gabby turned on her heel for the bedroom.

"Hang on there, young lady. Get back here."

Gabby reluctantly returned and bore the full brunt of Gupta's stare.

"I need to have a serious talk with you both," he said. "But not in front of your roommate. Let's step inside your room."

I thought his request odd but did as he asked, locking my door once we were inside. He gestured for us to sit.

"I followed you last night, Miss Simpson. I know where you work."

My face fell but Gabby snarled. "Why the fuck would you do that?" she asked. "We left campus. You have no right. I'll get you fired if you say shit to anyone."

Gupta smiled. "Yeah, you'd be right if I was performing my duties as an officer of Philips Exeter. Unfortunately for you, I was on my own time and under the employ of your mother, Gloria."

Holy shit. That shut us both up. Gabby and I sat stunned, speechless.

"It happens every semester," Gupta continued. "Kids start to detach from parents. Parents get hurt and nervous and ask me to keep an eye on things, unofficially. They call Dean Austin first but he always approves my assignment. Can't be too careful these day and all that."

I wanted to kick him right in his smug face. This was bad.

"So I watched you board the bus," he went on. "Then I followed in my car and imagine my surprise. You guys are top students. This would ruin you completely."

He moved closer, now only two feet away.

"What goes on in that VIP room, Gabriela?"

I couldn't tell if he was genuinely asking or trying to catch us in a lie. Gabby couldn't either.

"We take special care of our best customers."

"And there goes Mommy's heart, snapped right in two."

"Don't tell her," Gabby pleaded.

"Why not? It's true. It's what she paid me for. What did you tell her? You're working retail?"

"Yes."

His gaze drifted to the bumps of her nipples. "I had to stay in the shadows last night and never got a good look. Show me your tits. Let me see what I missed."

Gabby was confused for a moment, like there was no way he said that, and then she understood. I thought she'd grow angry but here was something she dealt with every time she danced; some douche wanting something extra for free. She stood and got a little grin. She lifted the bottom of my tank about six inches, showing her flat belly, but then stopped.

"Please don't tell my mom," she said.

I must give her credit. Time in that club turned her into a sorceress. She knew how to wrap men around her finger and they never saw it coming.

"I love that my mom's worried but as you saw, I'm totally fine. I need you to help me with this, Officer Gupta. Please don't tell my mom. I'd like to do something for you to ensure this remains our secret. Can I do that?"

Poor dude had no chance. She let him think he was still calling the shots but the flashed of smooth belly skin Gabby was giving had our eyes glued to her.

"Yeah," Gupta muttered. He unzipped his pants. "Take that top off and suck me."

Gabby made just the right expression to show she was caving in to his demands. I shuddered. He actually thought this was his idea. Has she manipulated me like that? I tried to think back but nothing came to mind.

The man's penis was smaller than mine. Gabby stared like she was hypnotized by it and pulled the shirt off over her head. Her boobs bounced a little as she sank to her knees and slipped Gupta's dick into her mouth. He sucked air through his teeth and let it out as a hiss.

"Damn that's good," he mumbled.

Gabby made short work of the guy. He stared down at her pretty face as she sucked him and when he warned he was getting close, she sucked harder and moaned like she really wanted it. I almost laughed when he came. He jerked around like he was electrocuted. When she finished, he zipped up and said he was watching us closely.

I walked him to the front door. Martin looked worried but I waved it away.

"Gabby and I are going to crash," I said. "When we wake up, we'll probably spend all day in bed watching movies."

"What did Johnny Law want?"

"To hassle me and Gabby."

I left it at that. Martin didn't need to know. Back in my room I locked the door. Gabby was in the bathroom connected to my bedroom, brushing her teeth. I laid on my bed and watched her big tits sway and she moved the brush. I'm so empathetic.

"What do we do about your mom?" I asked as she rinsed.

She shook her head, frustrated. "I don't know. Deputy Dog will report back but tell her little, I'm sure of that. I'll be blowing that asshole all year, and most likely next year too. He'll keep me on the line just like he'll keep my mom, playing us against each other."

"When did our lives get so complicated?"

She joined me on the bed. "The moment we left our parents' house? The day we arrived here? High school was so simple compared to all this. I blamed Spencer for the longest time but now I look back and think all this could have happened anyway. Some version of it at least. We're growing up and becoming adults and adults have stressful, complicated lives."

"I think you're right," I said. "I imagine it will get worse when we leave school and pursue careers. Lots of competition."

She snuggled closer and we were quiet for a time.

"Why does it turn you on Daddy got me pregnant?"

I rolled onto my back and stared at the ceiling. "I'm not exactly sure but it's along the same lines as watching you fuck. It's an extension of that, like the inevitable conclusion. That it truly happened makes everything so real. Fantasy moves from the mind into the real world, taking form and becoming solid. I feel my penis stirring again just talking about it."

"Down boy, I'm exhausted."

"What made you come back to me when you did? What happened? I'm thinking about everything you've told me and the timing of it doesn't fit."

She took my hand. "Daddy and I were lying in bed one night after making love and he told me he loved me. He said he was in love with me and then he proposed."

Thunderbolt.

"Wow," I said. "That's not sexy or exciting, that just hurts. He's way too old for you. That's just weird."

She squeezed my hand. "No more lies, right? I'm sharing everything now. He asked, but I said no. He asked why and I told him I was in love with someone else."

"How'd he react?"

"He was hurt. Men are only hard on the outside. After a day, he said he understood. Funny thing is, after I said no, he started having a lot more sex with me, and I mean a lot. Holy shit can that man fuck."

I imagined watching them together and my penis moved again. That would be terrible and agonizing but so exciting. Gabby read my mind.

"Would you want to see that?"

I swallowed hard. "Given your history with him and the mutual feelings, I'm not sure. I think I'd get torn up inside but I'd probably get hard as diamond. I seem to like it best when it hurts and humiliates me a little."

"Think about it. I'm sure he'd love to take me in front of you. I'll do it if you want."

I thought for a moment. "So, do you use birth control now?"

"No. I love feeling a hard cock explode inside me and all that sperm rush out. Birth control would suck too much of the rush out of the act. You're not the only one that finds the risk exciting. I have morning after pills but rarely use them. Real is best."

"We're a little bit crazy."

"Don't you need to be? I mean in this life, doesn't that come in handy?"

"What about the cocaine?"

"I haven't done any in weeks. I'm sure you noticed the weight I lost."

I looked across at her bare chest. "I did but your boobs stayed big."

"Lucky me. If I kept going they'd shrink. That's reason enough to stop using."

"Does Arnold get that for you?"

"Arnold gets the good stuff. We dancers get offered everything you can imagine all the time."

She played with my hair. There was an intimacy between us, a calm certainty, that felt new. We'd been tested. Two nerds finding each other in high school made the relationship easy. Now we'd been punched in the face a few times. Real-life problems had arisen and we'd found a path through them. Our love had endured, even when we thought it dead. I felt a deeper connection to Gabby than I'd ever felt before and I told her so.

"I feel the same way. We could have some amazing sex right now. Sure you won't change your mind?"

I kissed her softly.

"I'm sure."

Chapter 8

The first day of school arrived and we were off and running. Classes were harder than I expected and I was thankful I'd dropped lacrosse. Debra Kingsbee asked to be my running mate this time instead of my opponent and we won in a landslide. I was now class president three years running.

Gabby seemed more committed to her school work and kept her dancing to Saturday nights only. She even skipped a couple to stay on campus and study. Anna quit the club completely. We spent one Friday night playing, Magic: The Gathering, with her and her boyfriend, Tommy, and the girls teased us mercilessly with tales from the club. Anna even revealed how she made him suck dick a few times. After they went home I told Gabby not to get any ideas.

"No worries, Baby" she said. "I don't want to see you with a cock in your mouth. That's my job."

Officer Gupta came around for the occasional blowjob, just like Gabby knew he would, but the school kept him busier than we realized. Gabby mentioned she was not the only girl he blackmailed.

"He's got a little harem. He catches them doing things or having things they shouldn't and then extorts sex. Most he records on his phone to keep them compliant. The threat is if they rat him out, the video will mysteriously appear on the Internet and circulate around school. Easier to just suck some dick and get on with things."

Fall came and went and winter landed on us like a boulder. Snow fell at least once a week for eight weeks. When Christmas break rolled around, I suggested to Gabby that we take it and get the hell away from all the shitty weather. She loved the idea. When we told our parents we'd be home for the holidays this year, they were thrilled. There was eight feet of snow on the campus grounds when we flew out of Logan International Airport.

Home felt strange now. Our parents still saw us as children but after everything Gabby and I had been through, we certainly no longer saw ourselves that way. They wanted to know where we were going and when we'd be home and with whom we'd be spending our time. I almost said something mean but Gabby stopped me.

"We are their babies," she said. "Be nice."

We spent the day shopping for warmer school clothes with our mothers and then met for dinner and a movie. We were standing in line to buy tickets when Gabby got a text. She checked her phone and gave me a devilish grin.

“What?”

“Brandon just heard I was in town and wants to meet me.”

Instant ice water chilled my veins. I tried to play cool, like he was just another one of her guys, but she saw right through me.

“You really can’t stand the man, can you?”

“No,” I admitted. “He tortured me through high school. You don’t know this but it was me that forced him out. I recorded his cruelty and told the principal and when the school did not act fast enough, I sent the tape to local news.”

She took a step back, hand over her heart, face shocked. “That was you? Holy shit! We blamed Darcy, that girl that dumped him in the library.”

“He was merciless, Gabby. He made my life hell for three years. He stole friends from me and I had few to spare. He spread rumors and people stopped talking to me. If he ever saw me talking to a girl, he went out of his way to charm her away from me. He stole them all except you.”

“He tried to steal me too,” she said.

“Did he? How?”

“Little things, here and there.”

“Tell me,” I said. “You tutored him.”

“Yes, I did.”

“Did something happen? Something you’ve neglected to tell me for years?”

Her eyes danced. She had me. “Maybe.”

Just the thought sent daggers lancing through my flesh.

Anyone but him.

I waited her out. She wanted to torment me with this but I was determined to rob her of that pleasure. She relented.

“Well,” she began. “There were a few times I’d get to his house early and he’d get home from football practice. I’d wait in his room while he showered. He’d come back wrapped in a towel and have me turn my back while he dressed. His room has lots of reflective surfaces so I saw everything. I knew he had a nice dick when I sat on his lap at Carmen’s birthday party and I knew it when I went back to his car and blew him and I know it right now when I’m about to meet him and get it in my hot pussy.”

My cock and balls were on fire. This girl will be the death of me.

She stepped out of line to reply and wandered away typing. I ran my eyes down her outfit; light jacket, sweater, knee-length denim skirt, sensible shoes. There was no way to tell by looking she was sending such a naughty text.

I've never come so close to telling her no. I considered forbid her from fucking him but something held me back. Did my perverse desires run so deep?

She has no problem with the guy. I do. I want her to avoid him out of respect for me but I can't demand it. Besides, I know she's trying to wear me down and get me to forget my promise. The more I protest this guy, the more power she knows she has and the more likely she is to fuck him. I was screwed if I said no and screwed if I didn't. My male ego took over. No way was I going to beg.

She returned in a few minutes, floating along, happy as can be.

"He's on his way," she said, grinning. "He'll meet us at the Dairy Queen."

"Us?"

She gave me a warm, sweet smile. "Yes. I'd prefer you with me but I can go alone if you'd like. You can go to your parents' house and sit in your room and imagine what Brandon is doing to me. I could send video. I know you like that."

Evil. She was too good at this. I pictured myself at home and shuddered. I could hand her over to another man but not to this other man. If I did, Brandon either had her all to himself, which meant he'd be free to say and do anything he wanted because I wasn't there, or Brandon got to fuck her right in front of me, which I know would be the highpoint of his life. I'd never live this one down. Every time we ran into each other from tonight forward, he'd get that smug look on his face. He'd fucked my woman and there was no reversing that, no undoing what was done. The situation was horrifying. Both options were terrible. Dread filled me. I chewed a fingernail, trying to decide. Gabby watched my expression, enjoying herself.

"Fuck," I said, and meant it.

Gabby giggled. "You should see your face, Baby. This is killing you."

"All right," I exhaled. "I'll come along. This is going to suck for me but I'd go insane waiting at my parents' house."

"He rented a room at the Dolphin Motel. Says there's a mirrored ceiling."

Fucking Hell.

Gabby wrapped her arms around my body and kissed my shoulder repeatedly.

"I'm so excited," she beamed. "I'm already wet for him."

We held hands as we walked to the Dairy Queen. I took a hard plastic booth by the front door because as soon as he got there I wanted to leave. No way I want someone we know to see us all together. Gabby ordered a scoop of chocolate but I declined. My throat felt constricted and my stomach was already doing flips. Every set of headlights that drove through the parking lot gave me a surge of adrenaline and anxiety. When his Mustang pulled up, I couldn't breathe.

Gabby ran outside to meet him and threw her arms around his neck. He held her at the waist and lifted her as they kissed. Needles pierced my heart. She held his arm as they entered the shop, both sliding into the booth on her side. I saw Gabby's arm moving as she rubbed his bulge under the table.

"You're going to be there?" he asked, incredulous.

I gave a quick nod.

"Unbelievable. This will be awesome."

We tried to make small talk to ease into the situation but they were too horny. Gabby kept kissing him while he was talking and their hands were all over each other.

"Let's get out of here," Gabby said.

I took the cramped backseat and had to watch as Gabby played with his cock through his pants as he drove. She got too excited and her head went into his lap just minutes from the motel. I heard slurping and Brandon occasionally moan.

"She's got my cock in her throat," he informed me.

We pulled into the parking lot and Brandon put his dick away. Gabby glanced at me playfully and then climbed out of the car and tilted the seat. Brandon held the door to the room open for us.

Inside was a queen bed, desk and chair, shitty artwork and terrible brick-colored drapes. The gold carpet was snagged in a few places. A mirror hung over the bed. I had no idea what to do or how to act. Brandon leaned his ass against the desk and Gabby went to check on the bathroom so I moved to the bed and sat. I knew he was watching me so I avoided him. Angst ate me alive. Gabby returned and sensed the tension. She started to remove her jacket but stopped.

"Baby," she said to me. "Come unwrap me for Brandon. I want you to give me to him. Come show him what he's getting."

Brandon's eyebrows rose. "Holy shit," he murmured. "She's vicious."

"It's a game we play," she explained. "You'll see."

I left the bed. The sooner we started, the sooner we finished. I moved behind her and helped slide her jacket off. I tossed it on the nearby chair. She wore a light green sweater beneath but she rubbed her tits for his benefit first. I pinched the hem and lifted. Her hair tumbled down and her big tits strained at her black lace bra. Brandon was hypnotized. He watched Gabby play with them for a minute and then told me to take it off. I unhooked the clasp and Gabby shivered with delight.

"This is so hot, Baby," she said. "Show me off. Hand me over to him."

I loosened her bra and she let it slide down her arms. She arched her back, thrusting her tits at Brandon, and a coy smile curled her lips.

He rubbed the front of his jeans when he saw her jewelry. "They're pierced? I had no idea. That's fucking hot, Gabriela."

Gabby kicked off her shoes, still tied, and told me to pull down the zipper to her skirt. I did and she trembled.

"I'm so fucking turned on right now," she breathed in my ear. "I can't believe this is really happening. Did you ever think you'd let Brandon fuck me?"

I shook my head. "Never." She had no idea how much I meant that word.

Brandon paid us no attention. His gaze was welded to Gabby with a murderous intensity. How long had he wanted and waited? From her face to her breasts to her flat stomach and back up, his eyes drank in every inch of her.

I nudged her skirt over her hips and down her legs. It fell the last two feet and there she was in black lace panties. Goose bumps rose all over her skin as she watched Brandon stare at her. She loves doing that to men and he was especially smitten. He wanted to fuck her every time she tutored him and now he was about to get his wish. She kicked her skirt towards the chair.

"Now my panties," she murmured. "I want you to expose my little pussy to your competitor. Look at his eyes, Baby. He wants me so badly. I'm sure he loves taking me from you. God! I love the way he looks at me."

I slipped her panties down and she gracefully stepped out of them. She did a slow turn, kissing me softly as her face passed mine, letting Brandon see every inch of her body. He looked like a starving lion. Her nipples were rocks.

Without speaking, he began to undress. We both watched his shirt go and then his pants. He wore tight boxer briefs, hugely tented in front, and black like hers. He hooked his thumbs and drew them down.

I'd seen his cock in the car and I knew it was thick but now, straight across from me, bare naked and in good light, I discovered it was longer than I thought. His public hair was trimmed close, the scrotum shaved. The skin was light pink and curved upward slightly and looked to be aimed directly at my fiancée. Staring down the barrel like this, I saw exactly how big around he was. Suddenly I understood the source of all his arrogance, confidence, and pride. Gabby was staring at it too.

She met my eyes. "Get undressed, Love. I think it would be so hot to have you both out where I can see them. He's a lot bigger than you, right?"

I gave her a reluctant nod.

"Hurry," she continued, looking at his erection. "I want to see you next to him."

I removed my clothes, throwing them at the same chair. Soon I was naked behind her. She turned to hold my face with one hand and kissed me.

"Lick me, Sweetie," she said. "Get me ready for him. Find out for yourself how drenched I am already. Doesn't he have a pretty cock, Chuck? You see why blowing him was not enough?"

She guided me around in front and pushed me to my knees. Her bald pussy was right in front of my face and I saw clear strands of fluid hanging from her inner lips. She didn't need more lubrication, she wanted me to see how hot she was for him, how badly she craved him inside her. Her plan worked as I felt my penis twitch and swell. This was visual proof of her want. She can talk and tease all she wants but a pussy actually dripping with desire is another level entirely. She let me stare for a minute and then pulled my face closer. I stretched my tongue and split her labia and she sucked air as her juices ran all over my tongue and chin. I flattened my taste buds against her clit and swirled. Her legs shook and she had to hold my head to balance.

"Come here," I heard her say. A body came up behind me, hairy legs pressed against my bare back. Brandon's fat erection grazed my ear and poked Gabby in the stomach. She lifted him straight up and his hot balls rested on my shoulder. I heard them French kiss above me. Both started breathing hard and moaning. The insane level of desire was mutual.

I ate her while they made out. Her pussy radiated heat and his cock pulsed between us but all I cared about was her sweet cunt. The knowledge that the throbbing shaft so close to my face would soon penetrate my wife-to-be drove me wild.

That is was Brandon's cock drove me insane.

At last they separated. Gabby backed to the bed and sat and Brandon returned to the desk. He reached for his pants and withdrew three condoms which he placed on the table top.

"Is he going to need those, Baby?" Gabby asked, smirking.

My face burned red. How fucking humiliating was this? Gabby wasn't just giving him everything, Gabby was giving him everything, and she was making me hand it over. I felt myself blushing all the way down my neck. My goddamn penis rose another inch.

"No," I croaked. "He won't."

"He won't what?" Gabby asked. "Just so everybody understands."

I tried to swallow around the lump in my throat. "He won't need to wear a condom when he fucks you. He's allowed to cum inside you."

"Sweet Jesus," Brandon muttered. He tossed the condoms on the desk.

Gabby grinned broadly. She leaned back on her elbows and opened her legs. Her pussy was shiny all around from my saliva and her own leaking juices. She started gently rubbing just above her clitoris.

“Stand next to him, Honey. Let me see both hard dicks. I love dicks that are hard for me. I’d make every dick in the world hard if I could.”

I sighed. I got to my feet and stood next to Brandon. He put his fucking arm around my shoulder and pulled me close like we were friends and then leaned his cock closer to mine. Our heads bumped. I hated how much bigger he was. He smiled at Gabby. My fiancée examined us from a distance and then left the bed to kneel at our feet. She held Brandon at the base and pointed him up. She weighed his big balls in her other hand.

“They’re hot,” she said. “I’d play with Chuck’s dick too but he’s still saving himself for me, so he’ll just get to watch.”

She lowered her lips and kissed his balls, first one, then the other. She swabbed her tongue across his chicken-skin sack and his nuts lifted inside their pouch. With her face so close for comparison, I realized how big his balls were. She sucked one into her mouth and he filled it.

“Feel how wet I am, Baby,” she told me.

I crouched and slipped a finger into her pussy. She was drenched, more than before. I left my finger inside and cupped my hand and after a moment she literally dripped into my palm. I stood and licked my hand. She pushed me closer to Brandon and leaned back to scrutinize our erections. I was fully engorged now, despite the humiliation I’d endured, and so was Brandon. I’d guess him at rough twice my size. Great. Gabby admired us both but mostly she had eyes for him.

She bent his stiff rod and opened her mouth wide. His head slipped in and she closed her lips and sucked hard, her eyes fluttering like she’d just tasted a chocolate truffle. She pushed him a few inches deeper and then held him in her mouth, eyes closed, savoring hot and pulsing meat. The longer she left him like that, the harder I got.

Finally, she pulled him out. “I have an idea,” she said. “Hand me a condom.”

I did and she tore it open and handed it to me. “I’d like you to stay hard the whole time. put this on to slow down your orgasm. You’ve cum too fast a few times.”

Brandon chuckled. I took the rubber cap and positioned it over the tip and rolled the latex down my shaft. The material turned transparent. I pushed until the ring circled the base of my penis.

Gabby returned to sucking his cock. I started stroking. She kept her eyes fixed on my sheathed dick except when she'd look one of us in the eye. One hand played with her soaking wet pussy while the other stroked his rigid shaft. I hated myself for jacking off in front of Brandon but Gabby looked too hot. I couldn't resist. Brandon said something about us being kinky as fuck but we both ignored him.

I knew Gabby would not blow him for long. A pussy that wet needs to be filled and that goes double for her. There was no mistaking that look in her eyes; she wanted him deep inside.

"Way back when I tutored you I was too young and naïve to know what I wanted," she said, staring at his sloppy dick. "But from the first time I came to your house to teach you, I wanted you. I'd get butterflies every visit. I didn't know about sex or what those feelings meant. I didn't know how to flirt. I just knew I'd get excited every time."

She slipped him into her mouth for a minute and then continued.

"I was already with Chuck so if you'd tried to touch me I would have run away frightened, but I did lean over and let you see down my top a few times. I also wore baggy shorts in the summer so you would get a flash of my panties."

Brandon laughed. "You did that intentionally? I had no idea. I thought I was so sly. I'd jerk off as soon as you left. You had no idea how cute you were."

Talk about conflicted. I was happy nothing had ever happened between them but listening to them share their past desire stung.

"Honey," Gabby said. "Will you get on the bed now and lean your back against the headboard?"

I knew what was coming. I left her there on her knees sucking his cock and took the position. She sucked another half minute and then left him there to come lie between my legs, back against my chest, facing him. I was looking down her body to his hard cock. She parted her knees and lifted her legs.

"Take my legs, Baby. Spread me open for him."

She was killing me and she knew it.

Brandon's jovial face turned serious when he saw my fiancée's open hole. Gabby was so wet, I heard her labia part with a tiny sucking sound. Brandon crawled on his knees up the bed until he was over her, his stiff cock an inch from her slit. My hard-on throbbed against her back as they started kissing again. I thought my heart would explode. His cock was so close. How many years had I hated this guy and now he was about to fuck my woman? I wanted to scream. I couldn't look away from his throbbing cock aimed directly at her opening. This was it. Here was the moment I had dreaded so deeply for so very long.

Gabby searched for him and then her delicate fingers encircled his shaft. She pulled on his loose skin and he brought his hips forward and her labia piled up like snow before a plow. She placed him at her hole. She was so wet there was no hesitation. Brandon sank his engorged prick into my girl with a smooth and easy motion. Gabby gasped all the air from her lungs and started whispering: "I want it, I want it, I want it..."

Brandon pushed until he was balls deep. A low growl started in his throat which grew the more inches he gave her. They French kissed as he penetrated her deeply. He rested a moment, both savoring their long-desired union, and then he began to move. Slowly, at first, but building into a strong and smooth thrusting. He had my girl moaning in seconds.

Brandon lowered his mouth to her tits and teased the silver hoops through her nipples. Gabby writhed from the extreme sensation, grinding her pelvis against his. Soon she was banging into me each time he lunged. I felt him fucking her through her body. I felt his heat and his strength and his want. I pulled her knees and spread her wider and the gesture sent a surge of electricity through her.

"That's fucking hot, Baby," she whimpered. "Open me. Give me to your rival."

Brandon grunted and fucked her harder and I pulled her knees back another few inches. She was splayed before him, an offering on the altar of infidelity. He shifted his knees and began to pound her and I held her firmly in place, forcing her to take the brunt of his lust. She loved it. Their bodies were slapping and their breathing was ragged and all of us began to sweat. She moved her hands to his big triceps. His hair hung over her face.

"He's going to make me cum," she whined and a wave of adrenaline surged through Brandon and me. "He's going to make me cum."

"Tell him," I said.

She groaned. "Your thick cock feels so good, Brandon. Your dick is so hard. You're going to make me cum, Baby."

A dozen spears pierced my heart.

Brandon rose and hammered her little hole. I couldn't see her pussy but I saw how wide his shaft was. He filled the gap between her thighs. I imagined her labia stretched into a thin circle around his cock, a tight, wet seal around his tree trunk. He grunted and she gasped.

"Almost," she hummed. She squeezed his arms tightly. "Almost. Don't stop. Almost. Don't stop."

Her sweet, pleading voice was killing me. She was begging my enemy to complete her orgasm. He had her so close with just the thrill of his cock moving inside.

She rolled her lips into her mouth and clamped her teeth on them, moaning through her nose. Her plaintive voice rose until she whimpered continuously. Her mouth opened. Her hands left his arms and slapped onto my wrists. I tugged her legs open even farther and Brandon pumped even faster and Gabby let loose a long and high-pitched wail which turned into a scream. She squeezed her eyes shut and her body clenched. She looked possessed. Her skin blushed and her head snapped forward and her scream became a deep growl and Brandon just kept pounding her with hard cock. I felt her orgasm through her body and it went on a long time. I got caught up in her excitement. I couldn't resist. I leaked semen on her back and in her hair.

Brandon continued his relentless assault, sucking and biting her nipples. Finally, she tore her legs away from me and wrapped them around his waist and circled his strong neck with her arms. His full weight came down and together they pressed me into the bed. I felt every jolt of his rising and falling hips. She held him tight and whispered nasty things in his ear and while I didn't hear them all, I heard enough.

"Fill me with cum, Brandon," she hissed. "Empty your big balls in me. I've wanted you for so long. Let me carry your sperm. I want you to fuck me every day."

I was pinned beneath their animal mating. Brandon pumped hard and fast, venting years of want and his animosity for me. He opened his eyes to look down into mine as he fucked Gabby. I saw his glee. I saw his spite and arrogance. This was his ultimate, perfect revenge. I'd gotten him expelled but now he drove his cock deep into my girl. When his climax began to build, he made sure I saw it in his eyes.

He kissed Gabby deeply but kept his eyes on mine. She must have felt him swelling because she knew exactly what was happening. She clutched at him even tighter and begged him to shoot her full. I saw his brow furrow deeply.

"Here it is, Gabby," he cried. "I'm gonna cum in her, Chuck. You ready? Oh, fuck, take it, here it is! FUCK!"

He bellowed some wild animal sounds and shoved his hips forward, driving the spear point deep. I knew at that moment his pulsating cock was gushing white lava. He shoved again and more sperm shot out and Gabby was clawing at his back and begging for more. He continued thrusting, random and spastic now, trying to bury his exploding rod in her womb.

He came longer than any man ever, and I felt every blast through her body. Big buckets of semen erupted from his jumping cock. He flooded her tubes. He filled her uterus. He pumped so much cum into her I heard it leaking and splashing where their bodies joined. Gabby heard it too and laughed with delight. My heart felt like a hot coal burning inside my chest. I was crushed but excited. My archenemy had conquered my woman. Her pussy was now his. Would she conceive with him like she had with Daddy? The thought jangled my nerves and sent my head spinning. I realized her impregnation was now a permanent part of our game. I'd have this fear, this exhilaration, the rest of our days. I tried to stimulate my penis against her back and if not for the condom, I would have shot.

Massive trembling swept through him and finally, after so much, he slowed and stopped, leaving his cock buried. We stayed like that for a long time and all I kept thinking about was the hundreds of millions of Brandon-sperm now swimming in her.

He rolled off and fell on his back. I noticed his dick still looked erect.

"Holy Christ in Heaven," he said. "I've never had sex like that. Gabby, you're the sexiest woman alive."

A lie? Maybe. But Gabby didn't care. She ate it up.

After a minute, she slid sideways and cuddled under my arm.

"You okay?" she asked.

I gave her a weak smile.

She looked at my wrapped penis, still harder than ever, and grinned. She leaned over me and kissed me deeply and with love and passion. Her long hair fell around my face. After a minute, she moved to my ear.

“You know what I want?”

“What?”

“I want you to eat me. I want you to make me orgasm around a womb full of Brandon. You want to make me cum, lover?”

Goddamn it, yes, I did. I started to move down her body but she stopped me.

“No, stay on your back. I’ll feed you my pussy.”

She straddled me and walked her knees up until her bald slit hovered over my mouth. Her body temperature was rising rapidly. Our eyes met and I saw so much want. She loves it when I eat her after she’s fucked someone else, and so do I. She bit her bottom lip and flipped her long hair behind her ear so she could see my face better. She lowered her used gash to my mouth.

The mix of Brandon and Gabby tasted strong but I reached for my penis anyway. Gabby groaned a heartfelt sigh and settled into place. I sent my tongue into her flooded tunnel, stunned by the heat she generated. For her this was hot sex mixed with fucked up psychological warfare. She closed her eyes in bliss and let me worship her unfaithful cunt. Brandon rolled over to watch. His cock was still hard. Amazing.

I won’t detail the variety of juices and fluids that leaked into my mouth. Trust me when I say I didn’t think too much about them at that moment. My mind was captivated by Gabby and the sounds I coaxed from her. She was more sensitive than ever and I blamed her arousal at finally fucking Brandon. Everything I tried elicited an electric response. Everything excited her.

I made her orgasm easily and minutes later made her cum again. After that, I really dove in. She was a moaning and groaning machine, writhing above me, grinding her pussy into my sucking mouth. Escaping liquids trickled down my throat.

I had a finger in her pussy and another up her ass, working her hard while I devoured her. She spoke constant gibberish, mewling with euphoric delight. I felt her building and ate her furiously and when she came, she came so hard she passed out. Brandon saw it happen and caught her limp body as she tumbled. I wiped my face on the bedspread and stared at her pretty face.

Soon, her eyelids fluttered. She came around quickly and took the spot between us on the bed, noticing, like I had, Brandon's erection. She did a double take and then grinned, feeling responsible.

They small-talked but me, not so much. After a few minutes, Brandon turned her on her side and spread her butt cheek. She was facing me, looking into my eyes, when his cock pushed into her again. Spooning her, he held her hips and began to fuck deep and slow. I saw it all through her changing expressions and the effect was powerful. My dick rose to throbbing again, filling the condom I still wore. Gabby held my hands and kissed me sweetly as Brandon took her from behind.

I must confess, kissing Gabby like that, so full of love and adoration, feeling our unbreakable connection, even with another man's cock moving inside her, is one of my most favorite things. There's nothing like it. We shared a moment that shook us to our foundation. Our spirits tangled irrevocably. When his big, hard cock tore another earthshaking orgasm from her, it drove Gabby and I closer. When he lifted her ass off the bed and fucked her hard from behind, yelling as his balls pumped another seeming gallon of sperm into her, Gabby was holding my hand and gazing into my eyes as she came on his cock.

It was strange and bizarre and beautiful and as soon as he pulled his meaty spear out of her guts, I was racing around behind her and teasing her clit with my tongue. I drove her out of her mind. I jacked my dick as I did it and if not for the condom I would have shot and she would have been correct, because Brandon fucked her again a couple hours later. I licked her clit as his shaft moved in and out and made her orgasm just as he did. His cock vibrated inside her pussy. I tried to go down on her a fourth time but she fought me.

"I am too tender, Baby. Brandon's dick is too big."

To help me cum she slid down and sucked his soft cock while I watched and jacked off. After I came she had me peel off the condom and then carefully carried it to the bathroom where she flushed my load away. I even found that little humiliation exciting.

Chapter 9

Gabby's room at her parents' house has a sliding glass door to the side yard. I've used it many times over the years to sneak in or out. I didn't need to, we weren't doing anything bad back then, but her parents, especially her mother, always made me uncomfortable. She respected my mind but almost nothing else about me; I wasn't tall enough or strong enough or aggressive enough. I couldn't command a room or lead people. I didn't play sports. I understand she, like all mothers, wanted what she thought was the best for her baby. I know she wanted Gabby safe and protected. When Gabby and I broke-up, she was relieved.

Until today, I had no idea how relieved, nor how badly she wanted Gabby to marry someone else. I found out in spectacular fashion.

Today was two days after our motel encounter with Brandon, and, as promised, Gabby had fucked him both days.

I stopped by her parents' house to retrieve a book while Gabby visited a friend. We had plans to study at my house later that night. She told me to use the side door so I parked up the street and jogged back, jumping the neighbor's hedge and slipping in. Gabby's room was messy but I found the book with a little searching.

I also heard a woman moan down the hall.

Gabby's mom might be a bitch, but she's also pretty, the source of Gabby's good looks, and the idea I might sneak a peek at something sexy was too much to resist. I guess in the back of my mind I also felt I'd get a little revenge for her disrespect. Regardless of my motivations, I was drawn to the sounds of sex. I moved slowly and cautiously. Gloria's bedroom had double doors and one was partially open. I peeked through the gap.

Our boy Brandon had her legs over his shoulders and feasted on her married pussy. Her fingers were buried in his hair.

What. The. Fuck.

My mind came to a screeching halt. I couldn't understand how the same guy that was just with us was now with Gabby's mother. My mind refused to budge. I must have stood at that door a full minute, watching him eat her, trying to wrap my head around the sight. It was all too soon after our time with him. This couldn't have just happened. The leap was too big.

They had to have a history.

At last, my mind began working again. Armed with this new connection, my brain started spitting out coincidences, missed in the moment but genuine possibilities now: Gabby, a young, innocent girl, is given permission by her mother to tutor Brandon, a known bad boy. Why? Over the summer break, Brandon heard about Carmen's birthday party. How? How did Brandon so quickly discover Gabby and I broke up? How did Brandon hear Gabby and I were in town for Christmas break?

As stunned as I was by this relationship revealed, what I heard next hit me like a thunderbolt.

"And he let you fuck her?" she moaned. "Right in front of him?"

My blood turned to ice water.

"I knew he was a pussy," Gloria muttered. "You have to break them up."

Brandon did something that made her groan with pleasure and then said: "I fucked her yesterday and the day before too."

Gloria gasped with excitement, seemingly thrilled by the idea of her daughter fucking Brandon.

"Keep going at her," she said. "I know you can steal her away. Like mother like daughter. What girl can resist your big dick?"

She mumbled something else but I couldn't make out what.

There was so much wrong with this I had no idea where to start. Gabby's sexual activity seemed to fuel Gloria's pleasure. Did she like fucking the cock that so recently fucked her daughter? I got that feeling. Twisted. Gabby would be furious. This could end their already strained relationship. I'd tell her as soon as I saw her and to hell with Gloria. Bitch. How many years has she been trying to end us? No wonder my high school years were so difficult.

So much for seeing something sexy. I felt sick. I backed away and exited the house through the side door, careful to make no noise.

Back at my place I waited for Gabby to finish the visit with her friend. She got dropped off and I heard my dad answer the front door and say hello. I knew they were hugging with joy. My parents love Gabby. They worry we got engaged too young, but they love her. Footsteps down the hall and my door opens and there she is, my love. She smiles broadly as do

I and we kiss and hug and I close the door. I tell her to sit. I tell her I have bad news. She's instantly serious.

I tell her.

As I speak, her face reddens. By the time I finish, she's furious. She wants to race home and scream in her mother's face. It takes me an hour and a half to calm her down enough to think clearly.

"That was my initial reaction too, Honey, but you still need your mother's support to graduate. We're almost there. If you capsize the ship now, we're screwed."

She did not want to hear it.

"At least you know," I continued. "Take a deep breath. Give it a day. Sleep on it. Running home to shriek at her is unwise. Being aware of her treachery is everything. Now you can manipulate it to your own benefit."

She got quiet for a minute, thinking, and then looked at me with an impish grin.

"You know this means I need to keep fucking Brandon. If I stopped for no reason, Mom would wonder. We don't want to raise any suspicions."

Shit. I hadn't thought of that.

Gabby came over and sat on my lap.

"I'm sorry, Baby. My mom is such a bitch. First the campus guard following us to the club and now this. I'd feel awful if one of your parents was trying to get rid of me."

"Your mom's a snake."

"My poor dad," she said. "He's so mellow and easy going. This will kill him."

"Maybe. Maybe they have relationship rules we know nothing about. Like us."

"Doubtful. Anyway, my mom cheating is between them. I don't want her butting into my business so I shouldn't butt into hers. As soon as we can, let's get out of here and head back to school. Brandon can wait. Let's go back and wrap up the school year, kicking ass and taking names. We'll be just two semesters away from freedom. We'll graduate, marry, get our own place, and chose our own friends. After we graduate we can move to any city we want. We have money, brains, and, in my case, looks."

I laughed. She was right.
