Hard of Darkness

HARD OF DARKNESS

Kelly Duncan dropped the letter and threw her hands in the air. "I was approved!"

I joined her celebration. "Baby, that's amazing! When do we leave?"

She adjusted her glasses and scanned the letter again. "I should have the committee agenda in about three weeks. Oh my God, Mike, we're headed to Africa!" We hugged fiercely and kissed like teenagers.

Actually, it took six weeks and a thousand hoops to jump through but eventually we touched down at Tiko airport, Cameroon. Next we needed to locate our guide and translator, Janka, to lead us to the remote village where Kelly would conduct her field study.

As soon as the airplane door opened we were assaulted by the heat and humidity. The pilot warned us as we approached but nothing prepares you for triple-digit heat and humidity in the nineties. Our entire bodies erupted in sweat.

Janka would drive us inland to Kumba where Kelly could set up shop and begin her six-month anthropological interviews and observations. I was four months into a yearlong sabbatical so I could come and go as I saw fit. We own a few rental homes and I've invested well, and on top of that I inherited a large sum when my father passed. I haven't worried about money for years and when Kelly and I got married a few years ago, I worried even less. She has two doctorates and receives royalties for many publications. We worked hard, skipped parties, stayed home and hit the books, suffered no life save an academic one, so now we can do as we please. I have several awards on my office wall and Kelly has twice as many.

We'd packed light, as was our custom, expecting to integrate with as much of the local lifestyle as possible. Kelly was a renowned expert in marriage ceremonies around the world and become fascinated with a tribe in the jungles of Cameroon called, BenVara.

We descended the stairs to the tarmac and dropped our light travel bags at our feet. I wiped the sweat from my face. Across the concrete was an ocean of dark bodies held back by steel barricades. Beyond them the jungle grew right to the edge of the airstrip. Kelly and I looked at each other and followed the other passengers to the gate. The blazing sunlight was like bricks falling from the sky and it didn't matter if you shielded your eyes; the white tarmac reflected the light back up from below. The air tasted like rotting plants.

Beyond the barrier chaos ruled; a sea of sweaty, half-naked, jet black bodies swirled and churned. Everyone spoke at once, loudly, all vying for attention and each seemingly speaking a different tongue. Taxi drivers, merchants, babies, airport officials, kids, parents, tourists; anyone and everyone. I looked at Kelly with a question in my eyes; how would he possibly find us?

“Janka has our head-shots and knows where to meet us. Make your way to the tusk shrine and wait. He'll be here.”

I held her hand and moved through the crowd. We took twenty minutes to cover four-hundred feet, but when we arrived he was already there. Kelly tried to mask her relief but I saw it.

“Miss Kelly, Mister Mike!” he boomed. “At last you arrive!”

Janka was much taller and skinnier than me and flashed straight white teeth in a huge smile. His skin was as black as oil and I'd guess his age at late twenties, but it was hard to tell. He wore cargo pants and a camouflage T-shirt and black boots. We exchanged pleasantries and Janka looked for our luggage and was delighted to discover we had none. He put his arms around us both and steered us towards his truck, which held our supplies.

Two men with machine guns guarded the truck and Kelly stopped, alarmed.

“Yeah,” Janka apologized. “Always trouble nowadays. Thugs everywhere but they have machetes and we have guns, so no worries. Besides, once we get away from the city we will leave that trouble behind.”

We climbed in the front and the two men climbed in the back, standing, guns ready. Our conversation on the ride was mostly informational. One point of interest was the geography Janka described between us and the BenVara; steep mountains and dense jungle. It would take us more than a week to get there and it was only three hundred miles away. We'd just crossed the Atlantic in hours.

The truck took us as far as it could and then Janka spoke to the guards in French and they unloaded our supplies and drove away. Janka and I split most of the supplies and Kelly carried the rest.

The first two days on the trail were arduous. The packs got lighter as we consumed food and fit better as we learned little adjustments and that helped a lot. Kelly and I have always been outdoor people so physically the hike was not too bad. We had trail for most of it with only occasional short-cuts through the jungle. To save on weight we all shared one four-man tent. We followed a river so fresh water was always near-by.

The biggest problems were the heat and humidity. After the first day I got rid of my over shirts and long cargo pants switching to shorts and T-shirt. So did Janka. Poor Kelly had to remain completely covered as she'd only brought along heavier cloth shirts and pants. She was so excited for her project she'd neglected her weather research.

The most intriguing aspect of her study was the isolation of this tribe. The BenVara lived on several plateaus surrounded by steep mountains and treacherous cliffs, all of it over-grown with lush, dense vegetation. They were discovered by accident when medical teams came through checking on everyone's health and discovered the BenVara's DNA was significantly different from everyone around them. They'd been alone for so long they represented a division in the code.

Culturally, too, everything about them was different. They had no money, war, land-ownership, jails, crime; the list went on and on. What caught Kelly's attention were rumors regarding matrimony. She heard conflicting reports and asked to go document the truth and with her credentials she won the assignment.

The next day was the hottest so far. Before the sun ever rose the heat stifled and once it did it got worse. The tiny morning breeze died and the air wrapped around us like a wet blanket. Around ten in the morning Kelly stopped.

"Enough. Good lord. Can we maybe jump in the river to cool off? Is it safe?"

Janka surveyed the mountains and jungle around us.

"Certainly," he smiled. He dropped his pack and helped Kelly with hers. I scanned the river looking for a good spot and pointed it out to Janka. He agreed. We leaned our packs against a tree and worked our way to the shore, stepping over stones and undergrowth.

As we drew near, Janka veered off to give us privacy. He motioned to me he'd be just around a bend behind some trees. I nodded.

Kelly wasted no time. Her heavy sweat-soaked shirt came off and then her sports-bra, setting her big tits free. I knew how miserable she was by the fact she no longer gave a shit who saw her. At the water's edge she kicked off her boots and down came her pants and undershorts. I stopped to admire her tone strong body. She carries very little fat except in her tits and the muscles on her back stood out as she stripped. She checked to see where Janka was and then sank chin deep in the cool water.

“Oooooohhhh yeeeees....”

I too looked for Janka. Before I removed all my clothes I wanted to make sure we had privacy. Kelly floated comfortably so I left to make sure.

He stood at the water's edge, hung his shirt on a branch and then raised his face to the sun. He'd been working much harder than us without complaint or comment and I saw the fatigue on his face. I was about to leave when he stepped out of his shorts and turned to hang them next to his shirt, exposing the longest, thickest, blackest cock I'd ever seen. A horse-cock hung between his legs. The skin was so smooth it gleamed like obsidian.

Embarrassed and disturbed, I looked away quickly and stumbled my way back to Kelly. I undressed and joined her in the cool water, mentioning nothing about what I'd seen.

We stayed longer than we should and so covered less ground that day, but it was worth it. All our spirits lifted. Camp that night was jovial and fun. We ate and shared stories and laughed. By bedtime I'd almost forgotten what I'd seen.

The next day we stopped for another swim. Once again Janka wandered off and left Kelly and I alone. After thirty minutes or so we were ready to move-out again but still hadn't heard from Janka. We listened but after long minutes of silence, Kelly said, “I'll find him and let him know. You finish getting dressed.”

“Wait,” I exclaimed. “Let me come with you. He might be naked.”

She laughed.

“I seriously doubt that, Honey, but even if he is he's under water so no big deal and on top of that I've seen men naked before. Sit tight, I'll be right back.”

“No. Let me come with you.”

She shrugged and I finished dressing and joined her. I moved carefully but she just walked through the brush. We approached some trees by the river and she parted the branches.

Janka, nude, stood on a rock midstream, scrubbing an arm with river sand. Water gleamed from his jet-black skin, his wiry frame lithe and strong. His heavy dark cock waved and bobbed and swung side to side. Kelly only looked for a second or two but the image was burned into her mind. She blushed.

We ducked behind the bushes.

“You can never tell him we saw him,” she muttered. “Oh my God I’m so embarrassed.”

We walked back to our spot by the river and waited. Kelly was oddly quiet so I set about repacking our gear and getting ready to move. Twenty minutes later Janka joined us none the wiser and we hit the trail. Kelly kept to herself until we made camp that night and finally came out of her shell after we ate.

We sat around the fire trading stories again and several times I felt like I caught her looking at Janka's crotch. We have a very active sex life when not on the trail and I know we were both missing sex, but Kelly has never given me any reason to be jealous or mistrust her at all. The first time I caught I told myself I'd imagined it but the next time, just minutes later, I was sure. I stared into the fire. I was upset but kept my face calm.

As I thought about it I realized I was also exhausted and that was no doubt contributing to my distress. We'd been pushing ourselves for days, weeks really if you count all our preparations, and I was over reacting. My wife glanced at a man's lap a few times; big deal. After seeing him nude her reaction was totally normal. I was just feeling insecure. I rejoined the conversation.

The next day when we stopped for our trail-bath, as we'd starting calling it, Janka commented that the river was more dangerous here and we should all stay close. We'd take turns and guard each other. I looked at Kelly but she just thought about it for a second and then shrugged.

“Me first,” she grinned. “Turn around boys.”

Janka and I turned our backs and I heard her stripping behind us and then splashing.

“I understand why I must turn, mister Mike” Janka said to me, “but you are her man. Why must you turn too?”

I laughed. "You're right. I'm an idiot." I turned back.

Kelly was underwater so I dropped my clothes in a pile and wadded in. Janka hid behind a small bush to undress and then called out to me asking when it was safe. Kelly had surfaced and gone back under so I just raised my hands.

He gave me an "Oh well" look and darted out from behind the bush to sprint to the water's edge. His cock was almost comical the way it bounced and flopped as he ran.

Not only did Kelly break the surface just as he reached the shore, she came up only ten feet from him, right where he'd planned on diving in. He froze. My wife wiped the water from her face and then looked right at his hanging cock.

"Sorry!" she yelled and dove back under, swimming away. Janka jumped in.

Kelly swam next to me with her back to him. "Why does this keep happening?" she laughed, once again bright red.

The next few days were consumed with hiking and camping. We continued our trail-bath tradition but the river widened so Janka had room to give us privacy again.

He was down river when I floated closer to her.

"You've seen him naked twice," I teased. "Who knew we'd be getting to know our guide so well?"

She chuckled. "Not me. In a way we are all acting so silly, really. We are three professional adults. We share a tent every night and spend every minute of every day together. I have to laugh at the way we contort ourselves at night trying to avoid each other as we get ready for bed and every time we try to bathe or relieve ourselves. I wish we could all just relax and not worry so much. We'd sure save time and cover a lot more ground."

I wasn't sure exactly what she meant so I asked.

"We're so formal. All of us. It's just the three of us out here. I'd like us to relax a little. I'm sweating my ass off all day every day for the sake of propriety. I'm not saying I want to run around naked but I'm dying here. I need to wear less when we hike. What do you think? Do you trust him?"

Her response surprised me but she made a good point. "I do," I said. "Actually he seems totally honorable. I'm a good judge of character and he has plenty. I'll speak to him and let him know we want to avoid disrespecting him.”

“Thank you, Baby.”

Around the fire that night I asked Janka if he would be uncomfortable if Kelly hiked in her sports bra and shorts. He laughed and let us know that that in his village and most of the villages around here people wore next to nothing and he was only wearing pants and shirt to make Kelly and me comfortable. I thanked him and then suggested perhaps we could dispense with formal rules and worry more about staying cool. He said no problem.

The next day Kelly hiked in just her trail shorts and sports bra. The heat and humidity were unbearable. Janka did not bat an eye, speaking to her exactly the same way he always had. Janka wore a tight loin cloth that tied around his waist and held his cock and balls straight up. Their size and outline were obvious but he was comfortable. I was anxious at first but then the difficulty of the hike made me care less and less.

When we stopped to swim Kelly surprised me by stripping off her sweat-soaked clothing, before Janka and I had a chance to turn our backs, and wading into the river nude. I was right next to Janka when she did it and although he kept his cool, I saw his eyes narrow as he looked her up and down. He was sly about it but I caught him.

I turned to look at Kelly. She was knee-deep in the cool water, splashing it across her face and breasts. Her body is remarkable. She'd had two kids but no way you'd know that by looking at her. Her stomach is flat, her ass and tits round and firm, her arms and legs toned; she is a sexy, voluptuous woman. The water's chill had her nipples hard as rock. She gathered her long brown hair on top of her head and twisted it into place. Her arms over her head accentuated her big tits. She looked amazing.

When I checked on Janka for his reaction, he crouched down, folding his clothing and avoiding Kelly completely. Smart man, I thought, and began to turn away. That was when I noticed how much his loin cloth had grown. His plump bulge snaked up to his waist. He had crouched to hide it. Since saying something would only embarrass us all, I pretended I hadn't noticed and turned away from him. Down went my shorts and I joined Kelly in the water.

Janka made his way to the river a few minutes later, naked like us but back under control now. Even deflated his cock was huge, the head hanging half-way to his knees. His body had no fat on it whatsoever and his lean muscles writhed under the dark skin as he maneuvered over the rocks. He sank into the water as soon as he could, avoiding our eyes, just as I avoided Kelly's and she avoided mine. We bathed and cooled down and eventually dressed and resumed our hike.

The rest of our day went smoothly. We set up camp at sundown and ate, sharing light conversation around the fire as always.

After a while Kelly caught my eye and I saw lust smoldering there. Janka was more subdued than usual, obviously fatigued. He leaned back on a log with his arms raised, fingers laced behind his head and eyes closed. Kelly raised an eyebrow at me. I suspected she wanted to sneak away for a quickie.

If I knew more about where we were, I'd have done it. As it was, one step beyond the light of the campfire and pitch blackness closed in. On unknown terrain it was too dangerous. Besides, if Janka woke and we weren't around the fire he'd search the tent and then go looking for us. We couldn't risk it. I shook my head no. Kelly was unhappy.

Janka crossed his arms across his stomach and his chest began to slowly rise and fall. He was falling asleep. The orange firelight played across his coal skin, making him shine, the definition on his body insane in the warm light. One lean thigh was lower than the other and his bulging loin cloth draped across a leg. The jumping flames seemed to make it move.

Janka shook his head and Kelly and I both looked away quickly.

"Almost fell asleep," he rumbled. "My apologies mister Mike and miss Kelly. I am going to bed. I bid you both goodnight."

We told him goodnight and then the tent flap opened and closed and he was gone. Kelly and I lowered our voices and talked a while longer but we were sleepy too.

"Bedtime?" I asked. She cast a quick glance at the tent.

"In a minute," she purred. She crawled forward and leaned in to kiss me. After a few seconds she unceremoniously lowered her head to my lap, pulled the front of my shorts down, and sucked my soft penis into her warm mouth.

"I haven't had sex in so long," she breathed.

I glanced nervously at the tent. Janka seemed exhausted when he staggered away but I worried anyway and couldn't get hard. Kelly sucked like she needed my semen to live but I was too anxious and worn out.

“I'm sorry, Honey. I'm too worried he's going to look out here.”

She kept going a few more minutes before stopping. She wiped her mouth with a hand and curled up on my lap.

“It's okay,” she said. “I shouldn't have done it. I'm sorry, Baby.”

I slipped a hand around the curve of her ass and flicked her labia through her thin undershorts. She jumped and gasped, looking up at me. I snaked my finger under the elastic band around her leg and pushed until I felt her pussy part and then eased my finger deep. She buried her face in my chest and exhaled and I felt her pussy grip my digit. She was already wet. I worked it back and forth, listening to her breathing increase, until she surprised me with a fast hard orgasm. She pressed her mouth against my chest to muffle her moan as her hips rocked for a full minute.

Now she was limp. I helped her stand and led her to the tent, zipping the flap behind her and returning to clean up, hide the food, and stack the fire. We were in no danger from large animals but there were still plenty of smaller ones that could cause problems.

Finally, I returned to the tent and let myself in. I was exhausted too. Usually I sleep in the middle but Kelly, already asleep, had taken that spot so I just took the spot next her. I was out like a light.

Tired as I was, I was awakened a few times during the night from Kelly bumping me with a knee or elbow. I fell back to sleep no problem.

In the morning Janka was awake first and already had breakfast started. We let Kelly sleep and he apologized for heading to bed so early the night before. I told him I understood and no apology necessary. He seemed guilty all day.

Kelly rose at last and went to wash in the river and before long we were finished eating and packed and ready. Our mood was more upbeat than any day previously and we covered a lot of ground, Janka told us we should reach the village by night fall the next day.

When we stopped to swim Kelly allowed Janka to go first while she stayed back with me. Once he was gone she moved quickly to my side.

“Mike, I have to confess something.”

Her face was anxious and worried.

“What, Baby?” I asked, somewhat alarmed. Her face was so serious. She glanced at Janka bathing in the river.

“I think I made Janka cum last night.”

I froze, staring at her blankly. “What?”

“I'm serious, Mike. I think I did.”

“What? What the fuck? What are you saying?” I could not understand her sentence.

“While we slept. In the middle of the night I felt you slide your hard-on between my legs and dry-hump me against my shorts. I was only half awake, less than that even, so I reached down and wrapped my fingers around you to help. I thought you were showing me you got hard after all. The more you fucked between my legs the farther you came out in front until I realized there was no way this was you; this cock was too long and thick. I saw nothing in the darkness but it had to be Janka. The more I woke up the surer I was. Before I could stop the dick started spurting and all doubt was gone. This penis let loose a flood of semen, Honey. It had to be him. After the last drops left it I covered the wet spot with the blanket and lay there with a racing heart. I heard deep breathing behind me and realized it was Janka but he had done the whole thing in his sleep. I've been watching him this morning and he seems completely unaware of what he did. I don't know what to do. Are you angry?”

I was, of course I was, but I was a lot of other things too. Her pleading eyes looked up at me. I understood, I suppose, and really, what harm had been done? An innocent mistake. I looked down at her hand and imagined her fingers wrapped tightly around that big black cock. I felt a little sick to my stomach. Had he gotten any of his sperm on her? Had his semen dripped onto her wedding ring? I groaned quietly and Kelly misunderstood.

“Don't be upset, Baby. It was an accident, a meaningless accident. We'll laugh about this later.”

She was probably right. Three adults in tight quarters for long periods of time will always have problems. Was I going to head back to America? Was I going to cancel the expedition? No. Was I going to confront Janka? Accuse him of making a move? No. I believed her assessment and we still needed him to lead us.

I felt my anger drain away. No one to blame here, really. I was still upset her hand had touched his cock but what could I do about that. What should I do about that? She took my arm and reached up to kiss me.

“Which hand did you use?” I asked.

“What? For what?”

“Which hand did you jerk him with?”

She searched my eyes. "Is this going to be a problem, Mike?"

"No, I'm actually just curious which hand you used."

She held up her left, wedding ring glittering and gleaming in the bright sunlight. Butterflies stirred my stomach but I had no idea why. I took her hand and kissed the back of it.

"Thank you, Baby, for telling me honestly. Let's go cool off." Kelly gave me a strange quizzical look and shook her head.

We held hands as we walked to the river. Janka did not see us coming. He stood on a submerged rock, washing, his big cock dripping a trail of water drops as it swung and bounced around.

"That's a big cock," I murmured. Kelly looked right at it.

"That's a big cock," she agreed. She did not look away. She had a look in her eye I did not recognize.

At last Janka saw us and sank under the water. We discreetly stripped and joined him. As we washed and later as we dressed, I glanced at his dick frequently; my wife had jerked him off. Kelly had held that penis in her hand. Of course the truth upset but it also filled me with other emotions I couldn't name. I was confused and a little queasy. She'd emptied his balls on the floor of our tent. I imagined her little hand squeezing that black pillar, her wedding ring pressed right against his hard flesh, and I felt a faint tingling in my penis.

In typical male fashion I decided to stop thinking about it and just shove the whole thing out of my head and move on. It was in the past. What's done is done.

The terrain turned more difficult and we did not make it to the village that day, but Janka assured us we'd arrive tomorrow morning. We covered a little more ground until the sun began to set and then we stopped to make camp.

Kelly was excited to be so close and pulled out her notes for review while Janka cooked our meal. After we ate, Janka and I talked about his youth and how his aptitude for languages had helped him succeed. Hours later Kelly was drowsy so we cleaned up and went to bed. Tomorrow was a big day.

We reached the base of the plateau and began our climb in the early morning air. The village was only four thousand feet above us but with the heat, humidity, steep switch-backs, and loose scree, our climb took hours. We topped the rise tired, dusty, and sweaty.

The natives were delighted to see us. Visitors were exceptionally rare and we caused quite a commotion. They welcomed us completely. Janka spoke with their chief at great length, making all the arrangements and determining what they would allow. Kelly instructed Janka to ask for everything so we could compromise and still get what we needed.

To our surprise we got everything we asked for.

The chief, Ben Ato, was taller than Janka and lighter skinned, although still fairly dark. He was lean and wiry and radiated supreme calm and confidence. I'd guess him in his mid-fifties and just as smart as he was strong. He wore a lion cloth like Janka but his was adorned with brightly colored bird feathers and blossoms. In his hair he wore large teeth that looked like they came from jungle cats. His body bore many scars.

The huts were easy to build and the chief got several young men started right away building a hut for us. We were shown around the grounds and told the rules and proper decorum. Kelly wrote fast and furiously in her journal, taking it all in.

Janka told the truth about the civility of these people and also about how they dressed. Men wore a single loin cloth similar to his but so did the women. BenVara remained children until a ceremony at about twenty years of age made them officially adults. As children, clothing was an option for them and in this heat, most went without. There were plenty of fully developed young men and women walking around nude. The tribe had high-cheek bones and slightly upturned noses, big eyes and smooth skin. Their hair was mostly black but several had hints of deep burnt umber. They were long-legged with short torsos, giving them a graceful and lithe appearance.

The girls were intensely interested in Kelly and plucked at her hair and clothing from the moment we arrived. They were fascinated by the strange stretchy material of her shorts and sports bra and also by her long straight hair. Several girls innocently squeezed her breasts and laughed, as Kelly's were much bigger than any woman in the village. My wife blushed at their playfulness but allowed them to investigate. Their childish curiosity amused, at first, but then two older girls stepped up to touch her tits and I detected a more adult interest from the girls. Kelly was oblivious but I found it stimulating. I looked away.

The plateau was huge, measured in square miles, and jungle grew up to the edge of the settlement. Cliffs fell away on every side except one and a multitude of higher peaks looked down on us from all around. On the one side without a cliff, the mountain ran straight up and a waterfall cascaded down over the jungle canopy. The peak was high enough to touch the clouds and rainfall up there was probably constant. The beauty of this place astonished.

When I looked back at Kelly she was gone. I turned to Janka and he saw my concern and told me there was no need to worry. Kelly wanted a bath and the girls offered to show her where the waterfall came down as it was a common spot for bathing. He asked me if I wanted to be taken there and while the idea of a dozen hot nymphs bathing together sounded pretty good, I declined. Kelly would not enjoy me gawking at so many pretty naked girls.

Our hut would be ready tomorrow afternoon so the chief invited us to stay the night with him. Janka whispered such was a great honor so I accepted right away. The chief led us away to his hut to store our gear.

Kelly was gone almost two hours and when she returned she looked clean and refreshed. Her skin had a pink glow and her hair, still wet, was pulled straight back. Best of all she now wore a cloth girdle like some of the girls and her breasts were free. She carried her trail clothes in her hand. She watched me to see my reaction to her topless but I did not care, other than to enjoy her gorgeous tits on display. We'd traveled the world and always went native and this would someday make another great story.

Janka and I watched her approach and her large breasts swayed with each step. I told her about sleeping arrangements for the night and she offered the chief thanks.

We left almost everything packed since we'd have new quarters tomorrow and just walked the village and learned the lay of the land. Janka said he needed to wash off too and I said I'd join him so we left Kelly with the chief and her new entourage of groupies and made our way through the jungle. There were several villagers at the pool and many of the girls seemed to take an interest in Janka. I left him to flirt as we scrubbed the trail away.

By the time we returned someone had slaughtered a wild pig and had it cooking over a slow fire. The smell of that meat after days and days of trail food was indescribable. Girls sliced fruit and set places and soon we all shared a communal meal. I especially enjoyed the roast pig. A drink was passed around to the adults which tasted like fermented milk but after a few sips became much more palatable.

Janka translated as fast as he could but soon everyone had a question for us and he fell behind. The fermented milk helped slow him down too. At the end of the table away from the chief sat a young couple wearing robes and woven skirts. I asked who they were and why they were dressed so differently and Janka told me tomorrow they would be married. Kelly perked right up and started firing one question after another at Janka. Her eyebrows shot up but I did not know what Janka had said to cause it.

At last it was time for bed. The chief stood and as if that was a signal, the young couple stood too. Everyone laughed and smiled. The bride to be kissed her betrothed and they embraced for one long hug, and then she followed in the chief's footsteps towards his hut. Many villagers came around to congratulate the husband to be. I was confused and looked to Kelly. She leaned over to explain.

“Before she is married, every girl submits to the chief the night before her wedding. He can take her or not, as he sees fit. It is a symbolic warning to the husband to behave himself in marriage as his new bride will always have a place in the chief's hut and can leave him if he acts an ass. The chief is telling the young man you have chosen a woman fit for a king, treat her well or she will leave you and come live with me.”

I looked again at the groom. He seemed happy and proud. My mind reeled. He wasn't jealous, he was honored. He was about to marry a girl that could live with the chief but chose to live with him instead.

I turned my attention to the chief's hut just as the girl entered. She looked back at her soon to be husband and smiled and stepped inside. Someone handed the groom a cup of milk-wine and they all toasted.

Wow.

“Fascinating,” Kelly whispered behind me. “Janka, we were to sleep in the chief's hut tonight. How will this work?”

“Go to bed whenever you wish, miss Kelly. You will not disturb them. This is not an intimate moment for girl and chief, this is more a pragmatic one.”

Just as I decided to give them lots of time Kelly, excited, faced me and said, "Honey, let's go now. I want to see everything."

I knew her and I knew if I said no she'd just go without me. She already had her notebook in hand. I gave Janka a questioning look.

"I'll be right here if you need me," he chuckled, making eye contact with one of the village girls.

Kelly was two steps ahead of me the whole way. We entered the hut quietly and sat against the wall. Ben Ato stood with his feet shoulder width apart and fists on his hips. The slim girl eyed him for a second and smiled and then slipped her shoulder straps off and her outfit piled around her feet. Her body was tone and strong with small breasts and a round butt. The chief nodded and she knelt before him and began unwinding his loin cloth. Kelly started taking notes. As his garment unraveled the base of his penis came into view and it was wide. The girl hesitated a second when she saw it and then continued slowly revealing more and more. Bright feather and flowers spun and twisted as she undressed him.

When the last curl hit the ground she leaned back, smiling. She was not surprised at all. The chief was as long as Janka but a lot thicker. Uncircumcised, it hung there like an elephant's trunk. The look on her face told me this was anything but a pragmatic experience for her and I suddenly realized the girls of this tribe no doubt talk to each other and she knew exactly what to expect before she ever started unwrapping him. I made a mental note to mention it to Kelly.

The girl sat on her ass and rolled onto her back, spreading her legs as she went, inviting her chief to fuck her with his big cock. She pinched both small nipples and lifted her hips. The chief began stroking himself. His eyes devoured her.

He said something and she nodded and he smiled. He got hard fast. His foreskin had drawn back and the big head appeared like a snake. He moved to his knees and inched forward and she rested a hand on his shoulder and with the other reached down to guide him in. There had been no foreplay and I worried she wouldn't be wet enough but he began feeding her pussy inches and she took them no problem. I guess bedding the chief was innately exciting. Seconds later I heard how wet she was at the same time I heard her moan.

Ben Ato grabbed a fruit from a nearby table and offered it to her. She stuffed it into her mouth and held it with her teeth. He drove the rest of his mammoth cock into her guts and she groaned around the fruit and I realized neither of them wanted the groom to hear her groan. I guess accepting all this required a degree of denial and if you heard your beloved moaning and groaning as another man fucked her you might lose some of the symbolic meaning. I made a note to mention that point to Kelly too.

I looked at my wife expecting to see her scribbling away but she wasn't. One hand held her journal and the other held a pencil, but both were forgotten as she drank in the carnal scene before her. Her gaze traveled up and down their bodies, lingering at the stuffed pussy wrapped tightly around that massive cock. I saw desire on her face. I saw raw lust over this passionate coupling.

Her eyes came up to mine and I was shocked by the need in them. A sense of urgency filled me. Kelly rose to her feet and slipped off her loin cloth and stepped close to me. She helped me stand and dropped to her knees, removing my loin cloth, sucking my penis into her mouth. I wondered if this was wildly inappropriate behavior from us but the girl and the chief did not care at all. I needed little encouragement before I was rock hard. My wife leaned back next to the bride to be and I moved closer, sliding my penis into Kelly's smoldering pussy. The chief fucked his prize and I fucked mine. I saw the two women hold hands. Kelly knew to keep her mouth shut as I fucked her.

"This is not very professional," I teased. She gave me a guilty look.

"No, but you have to admit it is hot as hell."

I kissed her and started fucking her deeply. My eyes drifted over to the chief pounding the sweet girl mercilessly and I grew fascinated with the sight of his big cock pumping in and out of her. I knew she was promised to another and somehow that made the sex act much lewder and exciting. When I imagined what her promised husband must be feeling right now I wondered if he was truly as okay with all this as he'd seemed. I don't know how he could be. I expected secretly he hated that the chief was balls deep inside his sweet woman, feeling her from the inside like only a husband should. I almost came. For some reason his imagined agony fueled my excitement.

Kelly was in a world of her own. Once again her wide eyes roamed the sweating writhing bodies next to us, burning every moment into her memory forever. We'd never done anything even remotely close to this and both of us were overwhelmed. Kelly squeezed the young girl's hand and climaxed beneath me.

The chief began thrusting harder and faster and the soon the girl covered her mouth and the fruit with her palm. Moments later she climaxed too, muffling her screams of pleasure. Ben Ato had been holding back waiting for her and when she came, he released his load and joined her, but I was shocked; he must have ejaculated fifteen or twenty times. He just kept flexing and shooting. His big black balls were sperm-making factories.

I imagined the husband to be standing just outside the door listening to his lovely promised bride accept the potent load the chief pumped into her and my excitement skyrocketed. I began to spray my hot jizz inside Kelly. The more I thought about that poor man outside the more I came. My pleasure shot through the roof and my mind exploded.

The chief pulled his long fat cock from the girl and laid it on her tummy. It was thickly coated with his copious load. I did the same on Kelly and noticed just how big a difference there was between his huge black penis and my utterly average white one. As my arousal drained away I became self-conscious and hid my penis, dropping down against Kelly's ass. Kelly stayed on her back, catching her breath, eyes closed.

The chief stood and wiped sweat from his face. He smiled down at all of us and moved to the doorway and pulled back the thatched drape, revealing himself nude and half erect to the village. Cum dripped from his cock. He said something and I heard applause and cheers outside and then he dropped the drape and sat on the floor next to us. The girl spread her legs slightly giving him a better view of her pussy and the chief's cock started to rise again. They both chuckled and the chief crawled up between her legs once more, easily sliding his rapidly inflating manhood deep. Within seconds they were energetically fucking again.

Kelly looked at me hopefully and then turned on her side to watch them and I spooned up behind her. No way was I ready to fuck again already. We watched as the chief moved the girl where and how he wanted her and she eagerly complied.

He took her again and again, all night long, filling her with cum repeatedly. She seemed flattered by his desire. In the morning she slipped away silently, no doubt headed to her beloved. I wondered how he would feel when he discovered her womb awash in the chief's seed; honored? Horrified? My balls tingled again considering his emotional state and I found myself hoping he was tormented with mental anguish at the thought of his love in the arms of another. I shook myself; why would I hope for that?

Breakfast was fresh fruit and heavy bread and then most of the men, including a smiling and satisfied chief, left to go hunt meat. I was dis-invited and asked to stay so Janka stayed too. Kelly wrote like a mad-woman all morning so Janka and I wandered up to the pool and watched villagers bathe. Some of the older girls were stunning.

“How many girls submit to the chief, Janka?”

“Before marriage? All. Some do not get married but submit anyway, out of respect.”

That surprised me. “Are you saying the chief has had sex with every girl in the village?”

Janka laughed. “No!”

I relaxed.

“Some are too young.”

Oh.

“So once they are old enough then, the chief has sex with every woman in the village?”

“Oh, yes. Every woman is under his protection. In that way he is husband to them all. It is symbolic. Only women make the tribe grow strong. You only need one man to populate the world but many women are required. Symbolically, Ben Ato is that one man, but not really. Girls fall in love with and marry whomever they wish, but they pay the chief their respect, just as he guards them and treasures them. They know they always have a home with him so they do not tolerate a bad husband. Husband's know this and it helps the younger ones mature. The men offer him their courage and loyalty.”

It is good to be king, I guess. I looked back at the pool of bathing beauties. Ben Ato has had all but those too young, which at the moment meant about twelve different girls. I did some quick math; the chief had fucked a lot of women.

“So the woman he had last night; she went back to her betrothed today? Do they have sex? What about babies? What if the chief made the girl pregnant?”

“Every husband to be reclaims his woman and then they marry. That way if a baby comes it is just as likely to be her new husband's, but even if it isn't no one cares. The tribe has grown. All feel blessed.”

“How does one become chief?”

“This is complicated but mostly it is by intelligence, bravery, and experience. Every adult has a say in picking the chief.”

I considered this. Every adult included the women which meant they knew they were also picking a lover for themselves, their sisters, their daughters. I remembered how big his dick was and wondered if that played into their voting choice.

After a while we returned to the village. Kelly had notes spread out and still worked hard so Janka walked me around showing me more of the enclosure.

We passed the young girl from last night and she glowed. She sat at a crude table fashioned from a tree stump, resting her arm. Two older ladies used a sharply-pointed stick and ink made from sap and charcoal to tattoo a small series of three rings on her right inner forearm. Both older ladies had the same tattoo as well. I searched Janka's face and he murmured an explanation.

“After a night with the chief, each woman receives this mark so all others know she is under the chief's protection. She is his proxy bride.”

Late afternoon the hunting party returned with several large forest hogs and a Roan antelope. Meat was on the menu tonight. The chief's arms and chest were crisscrossed with multiple cuts and scratches. Clearly, he had led the kill.

The wedding ceremony was scheduled for sunset and proved to be extraordinarily beautiful. The young couple shared an intense love and I could almost forget that the night before she fucked the chief over and over again. When the ceremony concluded they walked quickly to his hut and everyone laughed. Milk-wine was given to all of us and food was plentiful.

The next day our hut was finished and we moved out of the chief's hut and into our own. We unpacked and set up reading and writing tables, which fascinated several of the BenVara because they had no books or even a written language. Kelly and I christened our new place by making love that night and she seemed especially responsive. I asked her about it afterwards and she said a day spent surrounded by naked bodies had a surprising effect on her.

The next three days Kelly spent interviewing the women. Although Kelly learned their tongue rapidly Janka had to be with her still, so I was left on my own. I swam in the pool and read some books I'd brought along and went on a long hike with some of the younger males. When I returned Kelly was excited.

“Mike, this better than I dreamed. Nobody has background like this. This won't be a paper; this will be a book! We will need to do a tour when we get back to the States. There are some things the villagers will not discuss with me but I'll keep at them and wear them down. I want to know everything.”

I was so proud of her.

There was another marriage ceremony and I watched as the king led a sexy young thing into his home. I was fascinated, again, by the man left outside. What must he be feeling? This young man did not seem as accepting of the tribal ritual as the last had. He accepted all the congratulations but he never took his eyes off the chief's hut. His eyes burned like he tried to see through the walls. I checked on him an hour later and he stood there still, waiting for his bride to be returned to him. I got the feeling his reclaiming would be rough and passionate.

The next day I saw this bride receive the three-ring mark as well.

Three weeks passed. Our routine consisted of Kelly busy during the day while I lounged and then at night she excitedly shared all her discoveries and observations. One night she sat me down and was not excited at all. She fidgeted for a moment trying to phrase what she needed to say and then she just blurted it.

“Mike, Honey, I need to have sex with the chief.”

I was stunned by her words. I tried to speak several times but nothing came out. My heart hammered in my chest and sweat broke out along my upper lip.

“Why?” I croaked. “But you're already married.”

“It's the women. They won't share everything with me. The men share nothing at all. After all this time the tribe still see me as an outsider, a stranger in their midst. They like me but I have not shown the chief the proper respect he is due. I have not asked for or received his protection. Some wonder if I think I am too good for the chief, above the tribe. Some don't trust me with the tribe's secrets. Most of the women keep things to themselves, things they only share with other Tutala, chief's wives. Casan told me this morning when I asked her why the girls would not share their secrets and suggested it as a way to bridge the gap. They've all done it. I have not. I'm an outsider."

She stopped talking to study my face. I know her. I know she was only being pragmatic. The chief was no threat to our marriage so of course Kelly thought this was an acceptable solution. She was prepared for all my arguments which she knew surely must be coming.

But they weren't. I was upset. Who wouldn't be? But I wasn't only upset. I wasn't purely angry. I remembered that husband to be. In a way, I now stood where he had stood. I fully understood his agony and torment, as it was now my agony and torment, and instead of filling me with jealous rage, part of me actually enjoyed it. Woven into my fear and anger was a broad thread of sexual arousal and I was shocked to discover it. Kelly waited patiently for my response.

I met her eyes. Did I detect desire there? Was she hoping I'd say yes because secretly she wanted the chief? I felt my skin temperature rise. How many times had I caught her staring at Janka? Did Kelly find black men attractive?

All at once I saw Ben Ato's huge black cock in my mind. I saw it forcing the soft tiny inner-lips of Kelly's pussy open as it sank, inch after inch, deep within her body. I saw her hot wet pussy smother the head and envelope the shaft as a long deep moan slipped from her lips.

"No," I blurted. "No way. You're my wife. It would kill me."

A very small part of me knew this wasn't entirely true. If I'm completely honest, and this shocked the shit out of me, a very small part of me was titillated, and that frightened me almost as much as the idea itself. She sighed.

"I thought that's what you'd say. Just think about it, okay, Baby? In just a few days I will hit a wall and my research will grind to a halt. Our remaining here will become pointless."

She kissed my cheek and rose from our little table.

For the next week her proposal was all I thought about. I shared her request with no one, which really means I did not tell Janka, but even if there were people around that spoke English I still would have kept it secret. What man wants to think about such a thing? It was awful.

With each passing day I saw her frustration grow. She'd learned most of their language quickly but it did not matter. Her interview questions were becoming ever more intimate and personal and one by one they were falling silent and refusing to open up to her. No matter how much they liked her they could not share the secrets and histories of the tribe.

Was I ready to pack our things and leave? Was that the choice I faced? Consent to my wife having sex with another man or ruin all our planning and work. Most husbands would never confront such a choice because their wives would never consider it. Mine did. I told myself this was just her being her usual bull-dog self. Kelly allows nothing to come between her and a goal. She's tenacious. It is one of the best things about her and I've always admired it. Now I was on the receiving end and did not like it quite as much.

While Kelly was out gathering what data she could, I sat in our hut debating my dilemma, but I was stumped. I simply could not imagine allowing Kelly to do it. I couldn't even frame the question for speculation. My mind back-pedaled instantly.

Then I tried a different approach. What if I instead visualized our life after the fact? Say I allow it; how would I feel the next day? I wondered if I would resent her win-at-all-costs approach. I calmed myself and turned my eyes inward; say the deed was done. She came back to my hut the next morning, guilty and slightly ashamed but ready to put the whole thing behind her. She apologizes profusely and reassures me it was all in the name of science. I see her love for me is undimmed and unaffected. How do I feel?

Kelly was no virgin when I met her. Perhaps I could imagine this was just another former lover. She would do it once and get it over with and then as a couple we'd put it behind us. In time we'd laugh about that crazy thing we did years ago. I felt better about the idea. Deep down I knew my choice had been made.

Hours later Kelly returned to our hut and dropped to her bedroll with a frustrated sigh. She covered her eyes with her hands. I poured her a cup of water and sat next to her on the packed earth floor. She sat up and thanked me and took a sip.

"Have you considered my request?" she asked.

I chickened-out. "Baby," I whined, suddenly afraid again. "I just can't."

She kissed me and moved to the table to organize her thin notes.

Several more days passed. She made it a point to be cordial and friendly and keep her request out of our relationship. She did a much better job of that than I did. She spent more and more time in our hut as one by one the people of the village refused to share the inner-working of the tribe.

One afternoon we were making love and I remembered her face when she saw Janka naked and the titillation brought me to a quick and strong orgasm. I felt like such a hypocrite. I rolled off onto my back and stared at the thatched roof. How could I enjoy the fantasy but so powerfully fear the reality? My gut told me she'd suggest we pack tomorrow and head home.

“Okay,” I said. My voice was less than a whisper.

She instantly knew what I meant. She didn't clap or celebrate. She didn't thank me or justify it. I wasn't doing her a favor. She wasn't going to enjoy it. For her, nothing about the event was sexual. I had helped her overcome an obstacle, pure and simple.

“Now.”

She stood with renewed energy and kissed the top of my head, grabbed a towel and a few other items and headed for the falls to bathe. I heard her speak in low tones to someone outside our hut.

Word spread through the camp quickly. When I went outside, several men clapped me on the back and spoke to me with congratulatory tones although I have no idea what they said. I wandered aimlessly, with no purpose or task, as others hurried around to prepare for tonight.

When Kelly returned, naked, she had four ladies with her, giggling and teasing my wife. They had woven flowers into her hair and a belt of blossoms around her waist. Her face beamed and her flesh glowed in anticipation and I wondered yet again if there was more to her decision than pure academia. She'd been scrubbed pink and I suspected my semen had been washed from her as they prepared her pussy for Ben Ato.

The chief stepped from his hut. He, too, was decorated. Bright feathers and blossoms were attached all through his hair. Like Kelly he was otherwise completely naked and my stomach sank when I saw he was already hanging down thick and heavy and half-hard in anticipation. Many women joked and laughed when they saw it and some of the men looked quickly at me to gauge my reaction.

To my right I saw hurried movement and turned. Janka was rapidly approaching. Behind him a village girl struggled to keep up.

“What has happened here?” he asked, dismayed. I explained.

Two pretty girls started walking towards us.

“Mister Mike, this is not the same ceremony. Not exactly. Miss Kelly is not a tribeswoman. When she is finished here, she will leave the village. Her protection is temporary but her respect must be permanent. Did you and Miss Kelly agree to do this?”

“Yes, we did. So?”

The two girls stopped in front of me. Together they reached for my loin cloth and began to unwind it. I held their wrists to stop them and they waited while Janka spoke.

“Because you are already married and have been for some time, your submission is required as well. She is his for one week and during that time you and the chief may not wear clothing. The tribe will see you both nude but know only he is enjoying her. In this way you and the chief are equally her husband.”

Like hell we are, I thought. The tribe will see a penis more than twice my size is fucking my wife. How humiliating.

What could I do? I released the girl's wrists and they continued. When my loin cloth was gone they circled my neck with a heavy woven thatch necklace. I'd never felt so naked in all my life and I caught one of them glancing at my penis. I hated that the stress and anxiety of the moment had me shrunk down to a pink mushroom. They motioned for me to follow and I looked at Janka who shrugged. You're in it now, his eyes seemed to say.

At the feasting table Ben Ato sat at one end and I sat at the other but my wife sat at his right hand. He wore a woven necklace the twin of mine.

We ate as before and drank as before and everyone laughed and had a great time, except me. I knew what was coming. When the moment arrived the chief stood and everyone clapped and cheered. His fat penis swung slowly to a stop. He offered Kelly a hand and she took it, looking down the table at me. I started to stand as well and Janka gave me a hard stare and a slow shake of his head. He put a hand on my arm.

“She is his now. You may not interfere. Do not remove that collar for any reason.”

She stood and walked with him to his hut. I saw the drape fall and my wife was gone.

The feast continued but I was only vaguely aware of it. My eyes were glued to that doorway. I hoped she couldn't go through with it. I hoped she'd change her mind and any second I'd see her pretty face reappear, desperately searching for me.

But she didn't.

Slowly the party wound down and people left in twos and threes. Janka wandered off with a gorgeous young lady and I saw him no more that night. A few cleaned up the feast table but then they too left and I found myself all alone, watching the hut.

I stood.

Carried by the soft breeze, I heard Kelly moan deep and meaningfully. I heard a low growl followed by a feminine gasp. He was inside her, I was sure of it. The chief was right this second inside my wife, fucking her. That big black cock now stretched my wife like it had that young bride. That big black cock was now working deeper and deeper, reaching for my wife's womb. I remembered the flood of sperm the chief had released inside that young girl and I knew without a doubt he would fill my wife exactly the same way. The reality was mere minutes away. The chief would inseminate my wife and my wife wanted him to.

My penis began to rise.

I looked down at it, bewildered. The surrounding jungle seemed to close in. A huge black cock was buried in my wife's guts and I liked it? What was happening here? I shook my head to clear it and moved closer to the hut. No way was I going to stand out in the open with a hard-on.

As I drew near I again heard my lovely wife moan. Then she spoke.

“Nnnnnnggh, Christ you're big. I know you have no idea what I'm saying but you have the most beautiful penis I've ever seen. Oh! How much is left? Hang on...”

I imagined her reaching down to feel his shaft.

“Good God, that's a lot of cock. Uuuunnngggghhh. aaahhhh yessssss, give it to me you fucker. Oh my God!”

A slow steady thumping filled the quiet night. I glanced around the encampment but everyone else was gone, busy doing their own thing. My penis had continued to rise until I was now stiff as iron. Kelly gasped and moaned and the chief rumbled and growled and I knew they were moving together. I knew she fucked him back. Every sound she made was a tiny dagger in my heart. I was so confused.

This all happened so fast. It seemed I only gave her a green-light a few moments ago. My stomach churned as I listened to Ben Ato fuck Kelly but when I heard her climax, I thought I would be sick. No need to keep the woman quiet this time, is there? Let her husband know she's fine and having a great time. Her orgasm built and built and she seemed to cum forever. It tapered off slowly, Kelly moaning and groaning and grunting as he continued to pump her.

“Ooooooohhhhhh sweet mother of God that was good. I've never cum like that. I'm going to need a minute you bastard. Stop. Stop!”

Kelly said something in BenVara. The thumping stopped and I heard bodies shuffling around.

“I bet your women don't do this for you,” she purred.

All was silent for a minute until I realized I heard something. Faint slurping and sucking sounds drifted through the cracks in the wall and I knew my wife worked that big black cock with her mouth. The chief groaned and said something and my wife answered him in the same tongue and went back to sucking. She slowly gained speed until I heard the chief roar and gasp and I knew Kelly swallowed his hot load.

I could take no more. I retreated to our hut. Each time during the night that I stepped out to check on my wife I heard the sounds of vigorous fucking or sucking and each time I rose again to rock hardness. They were teenagers discovering sex for the first time. I looked forward to Kelly returning in the morning. I would fuck her to within an inch of her life.

After the sun was up and the camp was active, two young men came to escort me back to the chief and my wife. They sat in the sun eating breakfast, naked just like me, and the chief motioned for me to sit. Kelly looked exhausted and blissfully happy. Her arm rested on the table as three older women finished tattooing it with the now-familiar three-ring design. The symbol of my wife's infidelity would be forever trapped just under her skin. She looked at me to make sure I was okay but of course she had no idea I'd stood outside and listened to her getting fucked.

“How was your night?” I asked innocently.

“Good. Interesting. Probably less than you imagined.”

I held her eyes. “I imagine it was the most beautiful penis you've ever seen and it made you cum like you've never cum before.”

She froze.

I kept going. “I heard everything. I understand this special arrangement will last an entire week. Did you know that before you asked me?”

“No, Baby, I swear it. I only found out this morning when I tried to go back to you. Chief told me about the required nudity too. I'm so sorry, Honey.”

I studied her. “So, honesty now, how was it?”

She wrestled with her answer, ultimately electing for truth. Her shoulders sagged.

“Baby, it amazed. I love you and I hope you know I always will. Last night does not touch that in any way. I swear it.” She waited to see how I took her statement so I nodded acceptance and she continued. “Ben Ato is a fantastic lover.” She waited again to see how I took her statement. Since I already suspected exactly that, I nodded again.

“At first I was anxious; I haven't been with another man in years...decades...he did not give me time to worry about it. Like we'd seen him do with that young bride he moved pretty quickly, nudging me onto my back and mounting me.”

She paused, watching my face. I remained calm and neutral, as much as I could.

“When he penetrated me it was like nothing I've ever known. He reached places, stimulated places, I had no idea I even had. Honey, it overwhelmed. It was pure unfiltered and unrestricted sex. He fucked me. There was no love. There were no intimate emotions of any kind. He was big and black and I found the whole event exciting and erotic. I submitted to him and he dominated me and somehow that touched a feminine core I was unaware of and before I could stop myself I came like an earthquake.”

Although she spoke somewhat clinically, excitement saturated every word she said. She held herself back for my sake. I saw how she wanted to jump up and scream and dance. She was like a blind person given sight.

“You sure?”

I cleared my throat. “Yes, let's have all of it. Hold nothing back. I need you to be honest now more than ever. It hurts, but imagining is worse.”

She drew a deep breath. “Okay. I sucked him off and swallowed all of it. He got hard again soon after and fucked me again. I came even harder the second time. I may have blacked out. It's not just the physical sensation his large penis gives me. It's more than that. The interracial element is so erotic and exciting. He dominates me. Are you sure you want to hear this?”

I sat at the table cross-legged and in my lap my penis began to swell. No one could see it and I said nothing but once again I was conflicted; her words stabbed right through me. How could I find all this arousing? I nodded once for her to go on and she did.

“He came inside me, Honey, and when I realized he was, I came again too, just because he was. I thought I could be clinical and scientific but I admit I wasn't. Not even close. I'll understand if you hate me but before you say anything I want to assure you when this is all over I'll put it behind us and never mention it again. We can just chalk it up to a crazy story from the field and leave it alone. I promise. Do you believe me?”

I met her pleading eyes. “How many times? Did he fuck you all night? How many times?”

“Honestly, I don't know. Yes, all night. The last time was just a few minutes ago, right before we came out for breakfast with you.”

Ouch. Wow. My eyes traveled her body. My wife sat next to me full of another man's sperm. Her nipples looked a little swollen, her eyes tired but happy. I couldn't see her pussy past her folded legs but I imagined it was puffy too, possibly leaking his semen. I wasn't heartbroken. I wasn't crushed or suicidal. I wasn't enraged. I was agitated, hurt, frightened, anxious, and, bizarrely, aroused and half erect. What happened to me?

“Um, nine, Mike. A BenVara week runs ten days.”

Well shit.

“I hope you don't get pregnant.”

Her eyes went wide. “Tell me about it. I had no idea this would happen. The women out here use nothing; every child makes the tribe stronger. Let's just hope and pray.”

“Tawa gun dalu.” the chief stated.

Kelly stood up. Yup, her pussy was puffy and leaking cum. She looked at me and translated. “Stand up, Honey.”

I hesitated. I thought, Well, now everyone will know.

I stood.

My partial erection waved in the sultry air. I swear every person at the table stared at it and then at me. Kelly saw it and gave me a quizzical look.

“Mike? Why are you... you...like that he fucked me?” she asked.

“Honey, why are you swollen? Are you turned on by all this? Don't answer,

I see that you are. Why? How?"

I had no idea what to say so I said nothing. The chief spoke again and gestured for Kelly and I to follow him, so we did. Everyone turned to watch us walk by. He spoke to Kelly on the way.

"The chief feels badly," she explained. "Even though you are partially engorged, he says he can see the hurt in your eyes. This is not the BenVara way. You are not BenVara so of course you do not understand. He says I am an amazing lover and you should feel proud, not afraid, not angry or hurt. Therefore, he will share me with you sometimes, like right now, as a gesture of good will, so you see you are not losing your wife."

She tried to keep any excitement out of her voice but I heard it anyway. She was being led to his hut for another fucking, this time by two men, and was thrilled by the idea.

The drape fell into place and my eyes quickly adjust to the dim light. Kelly knew exactly what to do. She knelt before him but spoke to me. My heart beat faster.

"I gave the chief his first blowjob ever last night. BenVara women do not perform fellatio. The men believe teeth should be kept far away from their genitalia. The act is unnatural. I told the chief to trust me and he did and he loved it. Now he wants it again."

At that point my wife nuzzled the chief's big black balls and then licked them. He grunted and opened his legs wider. She lifted the thick shaft and rested it on her face as she gently sucked one testicle into her mouth and rolled it around. He moaned. His impressive scrotum almost covered her face.

Hearing it through a wall and seeing it from a foot away were two vastly different things. Time slowed as my sweet Kelly ran her tongue from scrotum to head and then closed her lips around it. Ben Ato was nervous, afraid she was about to bite it off, but the pleasure was undeniable; he had to have more. In his eyes I saw him struggle with a life-long taboo and desire. Kelly opened her mouth wider and swallowed more of his meat, his cock disappearing slowly. She took his hands and placed them on either side of her head, showing him how to guide her up and down to please himself using her mouth. I groaned at the same time he did and her eyes flashed to me. She withdrew his wet shaft and looked at me and my growing penis.

“I can't believe I'm affecting you this way. You have a kinky side I knew nothing about,” she teased.

“Yeah, you too. You look amazing; slutty and sexy and gorgeous. It hurts me to watch you but I can't deny it turns me on too. I suspect you have a weak spot for handsome, powerful, well-hung black men. I feel weird about it but I must admit it's exciting.”

She smiled. “Good. That makes everything I'm about to do easier.”

Down her throat went his fat uncircumcised cock. Movement in her cheeks told me she worked the head and crown with her tongue. His knees almost buckled. She nibbled the length of him like an ear of corn and then wriggled the tip of her tongue into the slit at the end of his cock. He grew hard fast and I knew soon he would fuck her.

She used both hands on him now; stroking and twisting at the head before sliding to the base and sliding back up again. He controlled her head like she'd told him, fucking her mouth slow and deep. When he was rigid he helped her to her feet and turned her around so she faced me but her back was to him. He bent her at the waist and rubbed his dick head around her labia a few times to get her ready. She looked right at me.

“We'll laugh about this later,” she assured me. I felt like I was about to explode. “One more thing,” she added. “You can't have my pussy. Only the chief has that privilege.”

The Chief found her sweet spot and pushed the head in. “Oooohhhh, Goddamn it,” she gasped. “That's a big fucking cock, Honey. He splits me in two. I had no idea a big cock would feel so much better and I especially love that it's black.”

My penis was cast iron. All I could see was his huge scrotum through her gap but her face told me everything. Her forehead wrinkled as he pushed another inch deep and she waved me closer. I crawled over and she rested her hands on my shoulders.

Uuuunngh, Fuck! I get so wet for him. Aaaaaghhh, yeah, like that.”

Chief started pumping in and out with small movements, feeding my wife's cunt a little more black cock each time.

“So deeeeeeeep,” she breathed, hanging her head. I stroked her hair and pushed back on her shoulders. I don't know why, it just seemed like the right thing to do. Her eyes shot up to mine.

“You're helping him fuck me? You're driving him deeper? You're giving me to him? Oh, Mike, that's soooo hot, Baby. Do it again. Push my pussy down on his big cock. Help him get that beast buried inside your wife. Oooooohhh fuck, yeah, fuck!”

I pushed her back on him again. She groaned and he held her hips and together he and I fucked her on his cock. It was too much for her, physically and mentally. Her husband fucked her on another man's cock and that cock was huge and black. It was insane. What we were doing was crazy. None of our friends back home would ever understand or accept. I didn't understand it myself! I stood and she rested her hands on my hips and sucked my penis all the way to my balls. I cradled her head and fucked her mouth and felt and saw my wife orgasm from another man's cock impaling her pussy. A knife plunged through my heart at the same time my nuts released my load. Conflict and eroticism were one and the same and I shot my load right down her unfaithful throat.

She screamed around my dick. She screamed again and pushed Ben Ato so deep her pussy bulged. He held himself balls deep as she came on him and then began long stroking her from head to base, slamming the full length and girth of his cock home every time. Her body shook from his pounding and shuddered from her climax.

Spent, I pulled from her mouth and staggered back to a pile of cushions. Chief was in full stride now, slamming his heavy spear home, intent on filling my Kelly once again with a hundred million seeds. Her legs wobbled and only his grip on her hips kept her upright. He slammed her so hard her feet slid inch by inch across the hard earth floor.

At last he yelled something and fully buried his manhood and began spurting his sperm, injecting her womb with an ocean of semen. I think she came again but couldn't tell over his screams and hers. The whole village heard them. He jerked with every blast fired and I was astounded by how long his orgasm lasted. Escaped jizz dripped from her hole to the floor. He pulled her torso up to his chest and they kissed passionately over her shoulder. His black hands cupped her big tits, hefting their weight.

From this new angle I saw her pussy stuffed with his dark shaft, her inner and outer lips stretched white and struggling to circle his girth. His cock slowly slipped down and flopped out of her, followed by a deluge of sperm.

They made out for half a minute and then she asked him something in BenVara. He looked at me and grunted.

“Baby,” she purred. “You have to go back to your own hut now.”

I desperately wanted to stay but dared not make a scene. Reluctantly I gathered my legs under me and stood. They both watched me and I noticed Kelly's hand reach back and grip his soft fat cock. I knew she was about to blow him again. There was something different about her with him. She had a fire in her eyes, a wildness. I'd seen a hint of it when she'd first seen Janka nude but now it was a raging conflagration. My wife loved black cock.

Outside the sun was strong and bright. I glanced over my shoulder as the drape fell into place and sure enough, Kelly was already on her knees sucking the pussy juice and cum from his shaft. Everyone turned to look at me so I moved away from the chief's hut quickly.

I strolled up to the waterfall and bathed in the pool and some of the women came over to help me. Nothing sexual, more like empathy and understanding. They were as beautiful as the rest and I considered trying to seduce one of them so Kelly and I were even, but rejected the thought almost as soon as I had it. Kelly was with Ben Ato right now with my permission. I had no right to stab her in the back. There was a day coming when we would talk all this out but not if I cheated on her. I thanked the girls and sent them on their way.

Hours later I made my way back to my hut. I was resigned to our situation and accepted my part in creating it. It was not Kelly's fault his cock was so big, felt so good, or, as it turns out, she and I both had previously unknown fetishes. My path took me passed the chief's quarters and I heard the unmistakable sounds of mating. My wife's grunts and gasps and the chief's deep-voiced rumbling moans skewered me but there was nothing to do about it. I kept my head up and entered my hut to read.

Nine days is a very, very, very long time.

They behaved as any couple would; eating together, bathing together, sleeping together, laughing and playing and talking together. He even took her on a hunt. My anguish and agony grew by the hour. During the day everyone went about their business as usual, the only difference was the chief and me, naked except for our matching necklaces, our exposed penises wagging, reminding everyone which man fucked her and which man did not.

Ben Ato invited me into his hut only one time over those nine days, on day five, and it was much like the first time. He fucked her brains out while I was relegated to her mouth. In fact, she actually finished me with her hand. If he didn't impregnate her it would be a miracle. Every night and often during the day I heard them going at each other. She had expanded his sexual world and he was hungry for more.

Days later, just before the sun came up, my flap opened and there she was; gloriously nude and tousled and once again mine alone.

She slept most of the day and rose late afternoon to eat like a horse and return to bed. She finally woke well after sundown.

"It's good to be home," she said, her voice dreamy and relaxed.

"It's good to have you back. That was rough."

"Really? Because it looked to me like you enjoyed it. A lot."

I looked away. "It's complicated. I did like it, parts of it, but at the same time I hated it."

She moved closer to me.

"You know tradition dictates you reclaim me. Don't you want to fuck your wife, Baby? If they don't hear me screaming they'll think you've rejected me. Very bad manners, Honey."

She played with my emotions and enjoyed herself immensely.

"You loved it just as much as me," I muttered.

"More. There's something extra sexy about black men, Baby, black men with big black cocks. They're so sexual. They radiate confidence and masculinity. I'm drawn to them."

I suspected as much. She untied the grass collar around my neck. I pulled her to the sleeping mat and took her back and all the villagers heard it.

Six months flew by. She wasn't pregnant, thank God, and never slept with the chief again. Without birth control whenever we made love I'd always finish by pulling out, but we've had that routine on plenty of expeditions.

After lengthy and tearful goodbyes Janka led us back through the jungle to the airport and before long we found ourselves home again. Just like that, it was over.

I could tell you that everything returned to normal and Kelly and I put the whole event behind us and moved on, but that would be a lie. We'd uncovered something about ourselves out there in the jungle. Our routine was the same. We behaved the same. But something now lurked beneath the surface.

I returned to teaching and Kelly did too, although only part-time so she could write her book. We never talked about her infidelity, such as it was, again. I thought about bringing it up a few times, while we were having sex, as a possible enhancement to our love-play, but never had the courage to actually say anything. Every time I saw that three-ring tattoo, however, I came like an earthquake.

Her book, "Marriage Materialism and Jealousy among the BenVara of Cameroon" was published by the university and picked up as required reading all around the college circuit. As sales climbed Time magazine inquired about an article and that meant sales would soar. A book-tour became necessary and so, eight months after we returned home, we were out the door again. At least this time we would not leave the States. Not yet anyway.

We made plans and bought tickets and we were off. The tour started in Seattle, came down the west coast and along the southern border, passed through Florida with seven stops in just that one state, and then we headed north. Five months later we were sitting in a coffee shop in Downtown Manhattan trying to stay warm.

We were still three hours from her signing upstairs but logistics told us now was the time to be here. Better than heading Uptown and needing to back-track. We'd had a signing this morning so now we just sipped coffee and talked.

The shop was packed but we had a table in the corner. Persons lined the bar along the storefront drinking and talking and trying to stay warm. A constant flow of customers came and went. Our table was jostled every few minutes so we held our drinks in hand. Someone asked for our two spare chairs and we said no problem.

"Okay, I'm going to go get in the line for the lady's room. I may be a while."

"Good idea," I agreed, taking her cup of coffee from her. I watched her walk away. Even under winter clothing her full and firm body was obvious. Many men and a few women watched her walk by.

Thirty minutes later she had not returned. I started to get worried but wanted to keep the table. After forty-five minutes, something was wrong. Someone asked if they could take her empty chair and I told them no, my wife was in the restroom and would be back.

“The really pretty brunette that sat there earlier? She left about thirty minutes ago with some black guy I saw her talking to.”

My heart stopped.

“What? Where?”

“Back by the bathrooms. Sorry dude. So can I have the chair?”

I twisted my neck trying to see but could not. I gulped the last of my coffee determined to find out what happened and grabbed my coat off the back of my chair. I turned towards the bathrooms and there she was right in front of me.

“What?” she smiled. “Where are you going?”

She sat back down. After a moment's hesitation I did the same.

“What happened to you?” I asked.

“I told you; trip to the lady's room.”

“Who was the black guy you were talking to?”

In all our years of marriage I'd never seen that look on her face. She was busted. Caught. Flabbergasted that I could possibly know she'd been talking to someone. I saw her mind racing.

“Just some guy,” she finally admitted. She was guilty. I had no idea of what yet but I'd never seen her look like this. I held her eyes with my own and studied her. Yup, something was there.

“Kelly, what's going on?”

She sighed. “Don't be mad.”

“Then stop being secretive. I'm not mad that you spoke to some other man but I'm getting pretty pissed off you tried to hide it. Answer me.”

She sighed again. “I, um, shit. I'm sorry.”

I waited silently. The longer this took, the more nervous I became. What can happen in less than an hour at a crowded New York coffee shop? What the hell?

“I went back to use the restroom, like I said I would, but the line for the lady's room passed in front of the men's room. I stood in it and a black guy, Jona, asked to cut through. He was gorgeous, Honey; tall and muscular and really well dressed. He looked me in the eye and smiled and I melted. I let him through and a few of the women in line with me commented on his looks. Our line moved forward and a man exited the men's room and for a brief second while the door was open I saw inside and saw Jona holding his cock at the urinal. Mike, Baby, he was so big! He didn't see me and I only saw him for a moment but it reminded me of Cameroon. I got so hot.”

She leaned across the table closer to me and lowered her voice.

“When he came out of the restroom our eyes met and he must have seen something in mine because he stopped to talk to me. His voice was a rich baritone that gave me goose bumps. That's when I learned his name. His skin is jet-black but his eyes are green and he's drop-dead fucking hot. He suggested we use the back exit to get away from everyone and I agreed and we sat in his car for warmth and talked for a bit. In that rich voice he asked me what I wanted and before I thought about it, I leaned over and pulled down his zipper and took out his big cock. I knew he'd let me. Oh my God, I'm so sorry, Honey. I'd don't know why I did that. I just had to see it again.”

My eyebrows had slowly climbed up my forehead as she spoke and were just about in my hair. “Took it out? That's it? You just took it out? What does that even mean?”

“Yes, I swear. I just wanted to see it, up close. I'm not even sure why, Mike. My palms were sweaty and my mouth dry.”

“You didn't...do...anything to it, or him?”

“No, nothing. I held it in my hands and looked at it. Am I crazy?”

I believed her. It did seem a little crazy but I believed her. I took a deep breath and held it. Her eyes were wide open and she licked her lips nervously. She waited for me to explode with rage, but I wasn't going to. She didn't know it but that moment had passed for me. I changed directions.

“So, what was it like?” I asked.

That seemed to relax her some. Like she knew I wasn't going to start screaming at her.

“It was long, really long, and fat like this coffee cup, almost. He was circumcised, like you, but a lot bigger, especially the head. The skin was dark and covered with veins everywhere. It was really hot too; heat hot not sexy hot, like it was a brand he'd just pulled from a fire. I examined it, feeling the pulse of life and the hefty weight and he told me to put it in my mouth, but I shook my head and told him no. I stroked it a few times and he started to grow and that turned me on even more so I panicked and told him I had to leave. I got out of his car and came back to you. I never did use the bathroom!”

She flashed me a bashful and guilty look. “I know his phone number.”

I froze. She took a big gulp of coffee. I was about to tell her to delete his number but I didn't. I said nothing. Kelly had never done anything like this. Ever.

Kelly grew up in a small lily-white town. She did not even see her first black person until college and she'd certainly never had sex with a black man. Her family and friends all frowned on interracial relationships. Over the years she'd hinted about their attractiveness, but I'd always assumed she'd been joking and going for the shock value. Black guys are taboo to her so of course they are more exciting. We seem to crave what we can't have. The forbidden is so exciting. I never thought she actually wanted a black lover.

“Why do you have his number, Baby?”

“He stopped me as I got out of his car. His cock hung down on the seat and he made no move to put it away. He saw me looking at it again and he chuckled and pulled out a business card and handed it to me. 'Any time, any place,' he said. I took the card and ran back to the coffee shop. The rest you know. How did you know?”

“The same person that wanted your chair also saw you leave with him. I bluffed you into telling me everything, but that still doesn't tell me why you have his number. Why haven't you thrown it away?”

We had a moment of silence and then she withdrew his card from a shirt pocket and placed it on the table top with a snap; Jona James, Business Development Consultant

She looked up at me and every other sound in that bustling coffee shop disappeared save one, my lovely wife softly uttering a single word question; “Please?”

My body temperature shot up. For a second I refused to believe what she asked but there was no denying it. That one word contained so much want there was no fooling myself. My wife wanted to fuck him and she wanted me to allow it. I heard her reasoning in my head; we've done it before, why not again? We both loved it. So what if once a year or so we step outside the box and do something wild? We are closer than ever and I already fucked one black guy. What harm is there in fucking another? Jona doesn't threaten our marriage either.

She had a point, and there was no denying my growing erection under the table. I did enjoy it. She was rolling the dice after more than a year. I wondered why she had waited so long then realized it was Jona; something about him drove her wild and turned her on. She had to have him.

Kelly took my thoughtful silence as a yes because any other husband would be throwing tables and chairs around right now and screaming at her. My window to refuse her had already closed and we both knew it. A tiny smile curled her lips and she pulled her phone from her purse. She spun the card to face her and punched in the number and he answered right away. I could not hear his side of the conversation but I heard Kelly invite herself over to his place. She told him she only had an hour and a half and winked at me. She warned him this would be a one-time thing. After a few minutes she ended the call and set the phone down.

“He lives close,” she breathed. “You can wait here. I’ll be back in time for my signing this afternoon. Can I do this? If you tell me no, I won’t, but you need to say something right now. You’re not angry and I see excitement in your eyes. You want me to fuck him. You love your intellectual wife chasing hot black guys. You love it when I’m slutty.”

She was absolutely right. Outwardly I was calm but on the inside my mind turned somersaults. My stomach dropped through the floor and my brain boiled. My wife was about to get in a car and drive away to fuck someone else. Was I going to allow that? I saw how badly she wanted him and it made me jealous but it also turned me on so much to see my wife filled with lust. I wanted her to do it and I was terrified about her doing it. Two sides raged inside me. Conflict twisted me into knots.

Kelly watched my face and understood. “You’ll be fine, Mike, after a while. I’m sure our sex life will be even better, just like last time. We both want this although admitting it out loud is really difficult. I’m soaking wet, baby. God, I want him to fuck me so much.”

I whimpered. My penis ached and throbbed. I thought of a million things to say but said nothing. Kelly got really quiet too and we just fidgeted in our seats and awkwardly sipped coffee. Through the window I saw a black Porsche pull up to the curb by our table and a tall black guy get out and look in. Kelly smiled broadly and stood. She leaned over the table and kissed my cheek.

“Wait for me here,” she said, her voice strained with barely controlled excitement. “I’ll be back in ninety minutes.”

This was really happening. She worked her way through the crowd and emerged on the sidewalk outside.

Jona had come around and opened the passenger door. Kelly walked up and they shared a cheek kiss and he helped her inside. He went around and let himself into his car and gave me a hard and arrogant look at the last possible second, a sneer twisting his lips. The car pulled away. I glanced around the shop and spotted several people watching what just happened. One woman in particular with a coy smile seemed to know exactly what just transpired.

I swear the next two hours were longer than those nine days. I had my phone out in case Kelly sent me anything but she didn’t. Too busy, I guess. I worried for her safety but my gut told me this wasn’t one of those situations. Kelly is no dummy and is an amazing judge of character. No, this was just my wife out fucking another man, plain and simple. I had nothing else to worry about but that blistering fact.

I ordered another cup and a scone and grabbed the paper and brooded. I was in shock. Everything seemed surreal and slightly off. Sounds were muted. I felt hot all over. Movements seemed slowed. My mind was stuck in neutral, unable to think clearly. From the moment she suggested it to the moment she drove away with him seemed like only seconds. Now she was with him and each time I thought about that truth my penis surged and my heart ached. We had entered a new arena and neither of us knew what the rules were. I was excited and frightened and I know she was too.

One hundred and fifteen agonizing minutes later, a black Porsche pulled up. I saw Kelly kiss him for several long minutes before she got out and then watched the car pull away before coming in to find me. The shop was still busy so it took her a minute to get to our table. She dropped into her seat. By her breasts movement I knew she’d lost her bra.

“Wow,” she smirked, fully aware I was dying to know what happened. I wanted to drag her behind the building and fuck her brains out. She took a sip of my coffee and a bite of my scone. Her eyes laughed with delight and reckless abandon. She’d done it. They’d gone all the way. My lovely wife had wanted another man and had taken him.

I dove straight into the heart of it; “Condom?”

She met my gaze without flinching. “Nope.”

That knocked the wind out of me. No denial, no dancing around the truth.

“You're an exceptionally naughty wife.”

“I am an exceptional wife in many ways and more so lately, it seems. Kiss me.” She leaned forward. I kissed her and she slipped her salty tongue into my mouth, rubbing it up and down the length of mine. She pulled back and waited for my reaction. I said nothing.

“Yes. What?”

“Cum in your wife's mouth. Hot cum straight out of a big black cock.”

I moaned. Who was this woman?

“Drink up, Baby,” she said. “We have to get upstairs to the signing.”

Hours later we flopped onto the king-size bed in our suite. I was on her as soon as she hit the mattress.

I'd sat there for hours, watching her sign book after book and engage in light conversation with fans, all while knowing she was filled with another man's cum.

Upstairs, clothing flew as we attacked each other. I had her skirt unzipped and her blouse unbuttoned and her tit in my mouth before she had a shoe off. I was right about the missing bra. She was as eager to fuck me as I was to fuck her. She tried to suck my dick but I pushed her on her back and drove it all the way to the balls inside her dripping, messy cunt. Jona's sperm was a natural lubricant and I was doubly turned on knowing my penis slid through his load inside my wife. Pure raunchy decadence.

“Baby, you may want to leave some things mysterious.”

That turned me on even more.

“Tell me,” I insisted, pushing my penis all the way in and leaning my weight on her pubic bone. Her pussy was drenched with her juices and his sperm.

“No,” she teased. “Just use your imagination. I can promise you whatever you think of, he was better than that. Want to know why it was so easy to slide your penis into me?”

“Why?”

She snickered. “He filled me with a gallon of cum, in my mouth too. Kiss me again.”

I did, a little disgusted and a little turned on.

“Tell me,” I growled.

She gently placed a hand on my chest. “No, Mike. What happened between Jona and me is mine, not yours. I did it for me, not you. I'm not a newspaper reporter, Mike. I don't want to provide color-commentary on the event. If you want to know what we did you should have been there to watch. I can't describe it too you.”

I remained buried inside her but pulled my knees up to crouch and slowed my hips to a stop. Her words sucked erotic energy from me. I wanted it back.

“Mike, fuck me, Baby.”

I started moving in and out.

“You're a slut, aren't you, Kelly? I can see that now. You show the world your outer educated intellectual side but inside you are a sex-fiend. You keep a tight grip on it but you see men every day you want to fuck, don't you? Our trip to Cameroon cracked your seal and now every day your want grows stronger. There's a side to you fighting to be free. A sexual side, a slutty bad-girl side”

Her body tensed, wondering where I was going with this.

“I see it in you all the time but I never realized what I witnessed. Now I know. Jona was more than you could resist so you took a huge risk and asked for permission but how many men have you wanted to fuck before him?”

Kelly closed her eyes and began moving her hips in time with mine.

“How many?” I insisted. “Answer me, Kelly. Who is the real you? How many men?”

I pulled all the way out, my penis waving in the air, her hips undulating, trying to recapture me. She chewed her bottom lip.

Her eyes flew open.

“Hundreds!” she groaned. “Oh, fuck, Mike, it's all true. Ever since high school! I see them all day every day. You have no idea. Since puberty I've looked at men like delicious meat but I was the nerdy unattractive girl. I lost myself in academia to drive such dirty thoughts from my mind and channel all that energy but lately it is breaking through. I want sex all the time. I feel my defenses crumbling. Your reaction to all of it is only making it worse!”

With sudden insight my mind flashed back in time.

“Janka fucked you,” I stated. As soon as I heard myself say it, I knew I was right.

Horror rose in her eyes.

“That night in the tent when you accidentally woke me. You said you jacked him off but that isn't the whole truth, is it? You aimed his fat black cock into your pussy, didn't you?”

I moved my hips faster and she did too.

“You jacked him until he was rock hard and then you pushed your ass back at him. He eased it in and fucked you.” I wasn't asking, I was telling.

“Oooohhhh Mike, fuck! Oh fuck! Yes! Oh fuck, I'm cumming! Aaaaaggggrrrrhhh!”

I fucked her through her climax and waited for her to come down. As soon as she was back to herself I held her eyes with mine and held my hips still. She knew what I wanted to hear, and this time she couldn't tell me no.

“It's hard for me to talk about.”

“Do it anyway,” I ordered. “You fucking cheated on me.”

She drew a breath. “You were almost right; we were all asleep when Janka accidentally spooned me in the night. His cock had slipped out of his loin cloth and he slid it right up between my legs and pressed against my pussy. It was torture. I couldn't stand it. Honey, please believe me, I tried so hard. You had rejected me earlier and I was so hot and horny. I knew it was bad and wrong but I couldn't get that image of him naked out of my mind. His big black cock was now between my legs and I had to ignore it? No way. I couldn't. I was irresistibly drawn to it. I had to feel it.”

She took another deep breath and continued.

“I quietly pulled the leg of my shorts aside and eased my pussy around the head. He woke after an inch was inside me and I silenced him with a finger to his lips. He did not move as I fucked myself on him. I used that poor man. I was his employer. He tried so hard to hold back but when I came it was too much for him and I felt his cock jerk and spasm as he shot his cum into me. He felt so guilty. I promised him the next morning I'd never say anything. That's why I bathed so quickly that day.”

I'm such a fool. How did I miss so much? My wife had cheated on me and I'd not known it. I'd slept next to her, in the same tent, as another man had her. More than that, Kelly had successfully acted out a role; conservative wife and mother, studious student and teacher. All while veiling a darker deeper truth.

I started moving my penis in and out again.

“I am a slut, Mike. I don't deserve a husband as wonderful as you. You trusted me and I betrayed you. I can't tell you how sorry I am. Do you hate me?”

I kissed her lips softly.

“It hurts,” I confessed. “I won't lie; I feel betrayed. I don't completely trust you at the moment. But it also excites me, which I don't understand at all.”

I fucked her a while in silence, both of us lost in thought. Kelly's lovers were piling up; Janka, Chief, Jona. All of them spontaneous, all of them opportunities of random circumstance. Each of them made me feel like something was done to me, like I had no control or say. I hated that. I'm no victim.

An idea occurred to me and the more I thought about it, the more excited I became.

“What if I let you, Kelly? What if we brought it out into the open? What if I told you I'd let you fuck anyone you wanted? No more sneaking behind my back. We both want the same thing; what if you just take it with my blessing?”

“That would worry me. I don't think you could handle it. It seems like it would cause massive problems. Not for me; I'm never leaving you, but for you. Wouldn't you get jealous pretty quickly?”

“But you'd want to? If I said you could?” She did not need to answer. I saw it on her face. My wife was hungry for new cock.

She wrapped her arms behind my neck.

“Oh, yes, Baby, I'd want to. I'd love it. You'd be shocked. You have no idea. You'd quickly regret you ever gave me permission.”

“If I did this, it couldn't be like Jona today; no keeping it to yourself. We do this, not just you. I'm your husband. We do this as a couple or not at all. I must be involved in some way. I want to be there in the same room but even if the man says I can't be, you have to find some way to include me; phone calls, pictures, text messages...something. Waiting and wondering sucks.”

Her face was glowing and happy. Her mind raced with the idea and all the possibilities. I saw in her eyes my words were too good to be true.

“I mean it, Kelly, I want to watch you fuck.”

“Are you suggesting I can have any man I want?”

“Any man. That part is up to you. One is as good as the other as far as I'm concerned. I care more about being included in your sexual exploration. It turns me on when you're turned on.”

A huge smile curled her mouth. She pondered my suggestion. “We need a way for you to back out and change your mind. I'm not sure how this will go and I do not want to damage our wonderful marriage. If you tell me we need to stop, we stop, no questions asked. Deal?”

Kelly untangled her arms and legs and rolled onto her stomach. Her face was gleeful. She lifted her hips and pushed her round ass back at me.

“Since you're being so honest and brave I'll tell you something about tonight; Jona fucked my ass, too.” She pushed her butt at me harder, seeking my erection. “Pump your cum in there too, Baby. I'm a dirty slut.

Let's celebrate my new freedom with you taking me like a whore. What kind of woman lets two men fuck her ass in one night?”

A bolt of lightning seared me; Jona had fucked my wife's ass? I hadn't enjoyed that for years and she'd given it to him? My penis throbbed rock hard and I bent it down and pushed it in. Once again Jona's sperm acted as lubricant and I pounded my sweet wife's tiny asshole until I shot my load.

Kelly was ready to talk about our new arrangement before the last drop left my dick.

“Nobody can find out what we're doing. None of our friends or family. Our careers would be ruined not to mention the shame the kids would feel. We travel so much that part should be easy but there are a few men I'd love to get my hands on right here at home but may not be able to. Mike, this is so exciting!”

My orgasm had wiped me out so I lay on my back listening. Honestly, I drifted towards sleep until she said something that snapped me back awake.

“Remember that basketball league you played in last summer? There were three friends that played with you; Marcus, Demar, and Jamal. I want all three of them, and I want them at the same time. I want to be gang-banged, Baby. I want to be the slut in a black man gang-bang and I want it to be with those guys. I trust them. I've always fantasized about being dominated and taken and used until I can't walk, forced to fuck one man after another. I get hot just thinking about it.”

I sat up. “But you just said none of our friends can find out.”

“Exactly; our friends. Marcus, Demar, and Jamal are your friends and will keep their mouths shut if they think there's more Kelly pussy in their future. You have no idea how much those three flirt with me when you're not in the room. They don't know any of our other friends, have no connection to your job or mine, and don't know either of our families. Best of all they have no interest in changing any of that. They live in a totally different world from us. You four are like brothers so I know I'll be safe. They're perfect.”

My wife certainly wasted no time.

She curled up next to me and we both drifted off.

We were at breakfast the next morning when it began. The booth across from ours had four young athletic guys in it, laughing and eating large stacks of pancakes. One of them noticed Kelly and pointed her out to the other three and that quieted them all down. Kelly soaked up the attention. Previously she would have pretended she hadn't seen it or it hadn't happened but now she was free to enjoy it. When the first boy smiled at her, she smiled back.

We all continued eating and they finished before us. They paid and left, the lead boy once again making eye contact with Kelly as he walked out the door. When we left thirty minutes later, he leaned against the building, waiting for us. My wife turned to me.

“Well, that was quick. You want to wait here for a minute?”

I must admit I was surprised. I hadn't considered how quickly and how often she would use her new freedoms, but I should have known. She spoke with the young man briefly, giggling and flirting, and then took out her phone to take his number. I stood by the curb awkwardly watching my wife. After a few minutes she returned and we headed for her next signing appointment.

I asked her what they'd talked about and she said he'd invited her to a party tomorrow night. I made a face and she laughed and assured me I was invited too.

“What kind of party?” I asked.

“Dominick said it was just some friends of his celebrating graduation. A small group of about ten or fifteen. He asked me to be his date. Isn't that sweet? Of course I said yes.”

It was sweet but I was too nervous to enjoy it. Part of me considered sending Kelly out on her own again like I had with Jona, but then I remembered that horrible feeling of waiting and wondering. No, no way. I'd go with her and take it like a man.

The signing went smoothly and we had dinner afterwards. I was nervous about tomorrow night and Kelly saw it. I had no interest in spending time with a room full of strangers and Kelly suggested maybe I should wait back at our hotel, but I insisted. I asked that she not abandon me at the party and disappear, which she promised she would not do.

Eight o'clock the next night arrived and the door man called up to inform us our cab waited. Kelly wore a long sleeve, dark red, knee length dress that dropped to a deep-V in front, showing off lots of cleavage and under-boob. I wore a sports coat and jeans. How do college kids dress these days?

The brownstone was on Saint Marks Avenue in Brooklyn and someone had spent a ton of cash renovating it. I was worried the party would be in some seedy section of town but this was nice. My relief was short-lived, however, because I smelled marijuana and heard loud music from a block away.

It was a nice neighborhood, and many at the racially-mixed party were well-dressed and educated, but there was also an inner-city element present; mixed in with the college students were gangster-looking youths in low baggy jeans and wife-beaters.

Kelly and I wandered around, utterly out of place, until we found the kitchen. A fat and jovial black guy mixed drinks and he poured a whiskey for me and a Long Island iced tea for Kelly. He made it strong and she coughed a little bit after her first sip. We thanked him and tipped him and moved through the crowd. The sweet stench of weed hung thick in the air.

I snagged an open seat in the living room and Kelly sat on my knees. Her hem rode up a little and I saw several guys notice including a hard looking young man I was sure had served some prison time. He stared at Kelly's thigh and then moved closer to us.

“Cartier,” he said.

“Your glasses. They're Cartier. Nice ones too. Platinum?”

“Well done,” Kelly crooned, already flirting. “Prescription. From their Old England line. How did you know so fast?”

As she spoke his eyes kept darting down and I wondered what view he had of my wife's tits as she sat on my legs like this. Our new friend gave a nerdy looking guy in the chair next to us a hard look and the kid stood and walked off. Our new friend took his seat.

“What's your name?” Kelly asked, offering her hand. He took it and shook, but then held it and added his other hand on top.

“Malik but you all can call me Magic. I sold designer glasses for a long time. Made pretty good money. Who do you know at this party? You a professor at the university?”

Kelly made no attempt to get her hand back. “Yes, but not this one. Dominick invited me. Invited us.”

“And how do you know Dominick?”

“We don't. I met him yesterday and he invited us. I thought why not? We leave the city tomorrow so a party tonight sounds great.”

Magic caught the eye of a hugely muscled man and made a gesture to his lips. Huge nodded and walked away.

“That's right.”

Huge returned with a lit joint and handed it to Magic who took a puff before passing it to Kelly. “That's ballsy. I like that. Who's this?”

“My husband, Mike.”

“Cool.” Magic gave me a chin jerk hello and I returned it. He still held Kelly's hand and wasn't giving it up. With her other hand she held the joint to her lips and pulled until the cherry glowed bright red.

“Careful, girl, that's some shitty shit.”

She offered it to me but I said no. I was already a little paranoid and wanted to avoid making it worse. I sat there as Kelly and Magic discussed everything they could think of. He never freed her hand and I saw on the faces of others how that affected their opinion of me.

After about forty-five minutes Dominick walked through the room with another young black male and saw Kelly and whooped for joy but did nothing to take Kelly away from Magic. I knew who sat the throne at this party.

Kelly laughed hard, loud, and often and I suspected the weed affected her. When she frequently started touching Magic and Dominick on the arm or leg, I had it confirmed. An unspoken exchange passed between Magic and Dominick and after a tense moment, Dominick excused himself saying he needed to check on the other guests. Right.

“You're a very interesting woman,” Magic purred. “Let's go upstairs and continue our conversation, away from this loud music.”

Kelly stood and I stood too and Magic turned to me.

“Would you mind grabbing some beers from the kitchen?”

He now held both Kelly's hands so I couldn't take one and pull her with me. I did not want to lose track of her. I knew if I went, they would not be here when I got back. I started to protest and from the corner of my eye I saw Huge and another man lean in. Huge gave me a slow shake of his head so I reluctantly turned my back and headed for the kitchen. When I returned with two beers, as predicted, Magic and Kelly were gone.

Huge and the other guy were talking to some girls so I went searching on my own. There were three stories to this place and probably six or seven bedrooms, as well as a study, a den, and a laundry room. There may even be a roof-top garden or patio. Panic rose up in my guts and I took a moment to calm myself.

The ten or fifteen invitees was actually more like a hundred and moving through them all was difficult. Every one of them looked at me like I was lost. In the first bedroom I saw two pretty girls making out while three guys watched and talked about lacrosse. In the next two various persons sat around and smoked or drank or both and one asked me if I was five-oh. I backed out without answering and climbed the next flight of stairs.

The first door opened onto a library and there I found Kelly and Magic. True to his word they were engaged in deep conversation and they looked up when I entered. Kelly smiled and Magic held out a hand for his beers.

They sat in high-backed chairs facing each other at a slight angle and after I handed him his beer I noticed he had a great view all along Kelly's toned thigh. Her dress had ridden up almost to her ass. One tit was covered but the other clung to the fabric by only an erect nipple. Any second now it would tumble free. She pushed her sleeves up to her elbows.

Magic took his drink and pointed to a couch half-way across the room. I ignored him and kissed Kelly and checked to make sure she was okay. She assured me she was but her eyes were dreamy and far away. That weed had a strong grip on her. I had seen in her eyes an attraction towards Dominick but I could not read her on Magic. I suspected she just loved the attention.

“That's an interesting tattoo, Kelly, what's the meaning?”

Kelly smiled fiendishly. She aimed her forearm at Magic.

“It means I belong to the Chief. All his wives bear one. First he fucks you and then he marks you and you are his forever. I always have a home with him.”

Magic looked at me for verification and I nodded, adding a highly abbreviated explanation. He gave Kelly a slow up and down.

“And you two were already married? That tat looks new. How long ago did the chief make you his?”

Kelly answered before I could. “About a year. His dick was soooo big. I loved it.”

This sounded more like the Long Island iced tea talking.

Magic chuckled. “You liked fucking him because his dick was big?”

“Yes. I kind of have a thing for big dicks, and if they're black, even better.”

Kelly rose on slightly wobbly legs. Magic's eyes narrowed.

“My husband is cool with it.”

I gulped the last of my whiskey. Magic sat his beer on a nearby table and opened his legs. “Slide that dress off your shoulders and show me your big titties,” he instructed. “If I like them I'll show you my big black dick. You can tell me who is bigger; me or the Chief.”

Kelly bit her bottom lip and pushed her glasses back up her nose. She hooked a thumb under the seam and rolled a shoulder and her dress fell away to her waist, exposing one large round breast. Her nipple was already diamond hard. She hooked her other thumb and repeated and the dress fell down to her hips. She pushed it down and stepped out of it, standing now in just black stilettos and bright red panties, her ribs rising and falling.

Magic stood and turned his back on her and I saw her face sag with disappointment. In two steps he was at the door and threw the deadbolt, locking all three of us in. Magic turned on us.

“And you really are cool with this?” he asked me. “Because if you're not, now's the time to say something. I don't want no bullshit in a few minutes from now when your bitch has my cock down her throat.”

He lifted his wife beater and showed me the pistol he had tucked in his waistband. I went cold all over and jerked to my feet. This fucker had a gun! Kelly saw it too but her eyes grew wide and she smiled.

“That's hot,” she said.

“Yeah, Baby, that's hot.” He brushed the back of his hand softly against an erect nipple and Kelly gasped. He looked at me again. “Call it man; you in or out? But you leave and you do not get back in until I am finished with your bitch.”

He waited for my answer. I sat back down.

“Right on,” he chuckled. “Crazy-ass white people.”

Magic moved back to his chair and dropped into it, then instructed Kelly to leave on her shoes and panties but to get on her knees between his legs. She did as she was told. He then told me to take her chair, which I did.

“I'm gonna love this; sexy as fuck white bitch sucking my cock in front of her husband? Oh hell yes. Unbuckle my belt and unzip my pants, Kelly. You want to see my cock, don't you?”

“Yes, I do.” Her voice was dreamy.

Again, Kelly did as she was told. Magic helped by lifting his hips when the moment came and Kelly pulled his pants down and off his legs. Magic set the gun on the stand by the chair. He wore green plaid boxers under his pants.

Someone knocked on the door and Magic yelled for them to fuck off and they went away.

“Now take off my boxers, Little White,” he said.

Kelly tugged them down and once again Magic lifted his hips to help. As his cock came into view Kelly and I both gasped. Magic laughed. He was as long as the chief, but he was significantly thicker. Kelly moaned and pressed her lips against the shaft, kissing him passionately.

His cock was a black side of beef. As his boxers exposed the last of him, the shaft fell back on his thigh with a slap. His enormous ball-sack rested on the chair and was the size of a softball. His shaft was a vein covered black night-stick which followed the curve of his leg up and over until the head rested up by his hip. Kelly's eyes were wide and filled with adoration and longing.

“Baby Girl wants that cock. I see it in her eyes. You want that cock, Baby Girl?”

Kelly nodded several times and then lowered her head to kiss his scrotum.

“That's fucking beautiful,” she breathed. “Your cock is fucking beautiful. Your balls are huge.” With one hand she cupped his testicles and with the other she tried to circle her fingers around his shaft, measuring the thickness of it.

Magic stood and with a foot flipped his boxers across the room. Next he pulled off his tank top. His body was ripped and wiry and carried several scars and two old gunshot wounds. He was a dangerous well-hung warrior in orange construction boots.

“Take your hands away,” he instructed. “Now lick my dick. Everywhere. Get up underneath too and lick my balls. Lick every inch of me you fucking slut, but leave your hands behind your back.”

I checked to see if his words angered Kelly but they seemed to arouse her instead. My ivory-tower intellectual wife was on her knees before a black master and she loved it.

Magic was slowly getting hard but seemed in no hurry to fuck her. My gut told me this would be a long night. I saw her pink tongue glide across his dark skin from nuts to head and back again. She painted him with saliva. She licked all around the ridge and under the tip. When a drop of pre-cum formed she closed her lips and sucked it out.

Kelly reached for his cock but he sternly told her to put her hands away again. He told her exactly what to do and how to blow him. She followed his directions perfectly, licking and nibbling and sucking and licking, until his cock was fully engorged and massive and shining with her saliva; a huge black pole capped by a flared umbrella head, a head he now told her to suck into her mouth. She hurried to comply and Magic groaned.

“Ooooooohhhh, this bitch loves dick. Goddamn that's a good blowjob.”

Magic rested one hand on the arm of his chair and the other hand on her head, guiding her up and down as my wife sucked his hard cock. He was large enough and hard enough that she could now only take the first six inches or so, but both of them seemed happy with that.

“Hand me my phone,” Magic told me. “In my pants pocket.”

When I stayed put he glared at me.

“Seriously? Are you stupid? You at a party all alone, locked in a room with a bad-ass black man who will not hesitate to kick your ass, and I’m not even reminding you of the gun next to me. Bring me my mother-fucking phone.”

I slowly moved to his pants and felt through his pockets. He had several condoms in there too. I found the phone and handed it to him. Kelly reached for his dick yet again and he slapped her wrist hard but never looked at her. Several buttons later he had his camera ready and started taking pictures of my wife sucking his cock.

I wanted to tell him no and order him to stop but I didn’t. How could I? Besides, Kelly had her eyes closed and seemed to be in Heaven. She held that cock in her mouth like a dog with a bone. Every few seconds her cheeks dented as she sucked and swallowed more pre-cum. Her tongue rubbed all over him, teasing and coaxing. I could have said stop but both of them would have ignored me.

“Okay, Baby Girl, put your hands on me now.”

Kelly hurried to obey. I think touching him made it more real and exciting for her. She felt the weight of his cock. She felt his mass. His hot smooth skin under her fingers, the pulse of throbbing life through the palm of her hands; holding him made all this so much more real for my wife. She sucked his cock but she was the one that moaned. Magic snapped one picture after another. This man would have a Kelly library by the time he finished.

A heavy knock at the door made Magic and I look but Kelly kept sucking.

Magic told me to let Puny in and lock the door behind him. When I opened it the hugely muscled guy from downstairs grunted at me and shoved his way inside. Puny. I get it. I locked the door. When I got back to them he’d taken my chair so I stood behind him.

Kelly forced as much cock down her throat as she could, gagging repeatedly, drawing a ragged breath and trying again. Slowly that black cock disappeared down her gullet.

“Ain't no black bitch sucks your cock like that,” Puny murmured. “I seen them all try.”

Magic rolled his eyes and glared. “Of course I'm gonna fuck her. Don't ask stupid questions. Stand her up and get those panties off.”

Puny knelt behind Kelly and ran his massive hands all over her body, pinching her nipples and smacking her ass. When he got to her panties he lifted her hips and slid them down and off her feet.

Puny returned to his seat but stuffed my wife's red lace panties in his jean pocket.

Kelly remained standing but bent at the waist. Her mouth and hands traveled the length of Magic's dick smoothly and lovingly. Her pussy was aimed directly at Puny and me and Puny rubbed his crotch. He looked up over his giant shoulder at me.

“Your bitch is fine,” he said. I actually felt a little pride. “She a slut, but she fine.”

Magic pulled Kelly up by her long brown hair and kissed her and then turned her to face us. Our eyes met and I saw how utterly lost she was to sexual bliss. The weed and drink contributed, of course, but a brand new big fat black cock in her mouth and the anticipation of getting fucked was more than she could take. She floated on sexual euphoria.

My wife spread her legs and bent again at the waist, placing a dainty hand on each of Puny's knees. Behind her, Magic stepped closer. His cock was a giant black spear. He steadied Kelly with one hand on her ass and with the other he lifted and aimed his dick. I watched Kelly's face for the moment of penetration and there was no mistaking it; her eyes rolled back in her head, her slack jaw fell open, and her arms and legs trembled.

“What the fuck?” she whined. “What the fuck? What is happening? Oooooohhhhhh Christ soooo biiiig!” Her heels lifted as Magic pushed his cock inside her. Her head rolled on her neck and her back hunched. Once the head was deep enough Magic moved both hands to her hips and flexed his ass, driving that invading monster far up into my wife.

Kelly pushed her ass back at him. “Uuuunngh! Fuck yes! Oh! Don't stop. Do that again. Aaaaaggggh! Christ! Fuck!”

“Tight white cunt!” Magic growled. He pulled out and drove it back in. Kelly groaned and dropped her head on Puny's shoulder. Puny filled his hands with both her tits, squeezing them. Kelly said nothing more intelligible. Animal grunts and growls flowed from her as Magic began a steady in and out. I was shocked his penis fit at all and I could not imagine what my wife's tight pussy must feel like for him or what his immense beast must be doing to her.

The longer he fucked her the more excited she became. He fucked her through her first climax and then stopped to let her catch her breath but kept his huge cock fully buried. When he started again I thought she'd lose her mind. Her next orgasm arrived in minutes and almost killed her. She was a writhing mass of flesh sandwiched between two powerful black men and her sobs filled the library. When she recovered this time she began showering hot kisses all over Puny's mouth and face. He was not a handsome man but she didn't care. She was so filled with gratitude and fond regard she wanted to thank any responsible.

Magic smacked her firm round ass and spread her butt-cheeks open.

“Come grab the phone and snap me some pics,” he told me. I did as he ordered.

I stood next to him and the sight of his massive black cock filling my wife's pink cunt knocked the wind from my lungs. Her little pussy was forced open so far her surrounding skin was white. Each time he withdrew her sweet cunt clung to him forming a volcano. He seemed about to turn her inside-out.

The sounds escaping her caused my penis to swell. She was a snarling, lust-crazed animal. My highly educated and decorated wife was bent over with a black cock in her guts and wanted nothing more from this life than to be this man's cock-whore. She came again as I stood there like an idiot.

“Fuck yeah this bitch is hot. Baby-White loves my big black cock. Snap some pics, fool.” Magic leaned back to make it easier for me to get the shot. I raised the phone and took the first; Kelly impaled on a massive black tusk. I snapped more, one after another. Puny kissed her constantly, their pink tongues dancing in plain view, as he mauled her full tits.

Magic pounded her firmly, pulling almost all the way out before slamming it back in. His teeth were clenched and his face sweaty.

“Under!” he ordered. For an instant I did not understand. Then I dropped to my knees and aimed the camera up. I flipped the switch and entered video mode. From this angle I saw how her pussy lips were pulled open to accommodate him. How on earth did he fit? The taut skin pulled her clit down so it often rubbed directly on his invading shaft, traveling each ridge and bump of his vein covered horse-cock. His black hands gripping her pale white skin burned into my mind, right next to the image of my decadent and slutty wife eager fucking herself on his dick as she came yet again.

“Oh yeah!” he yelled. I panned down the length of him. “Oh fuck me! Her cunt is squeezing my cock! I can't take it. Oooooohhhh, fuck yeahhhhh. Here it comes Little White! I'm about to give you a black baby. Take it!”

I was actually recording my wife's insemination.

“OOOOOOOOHhhhhh Gaaaawd Dammmmmmn!” He drove it deep twice and then buried it like a sword and held it all the way in. I knew sperm spurt from the tip, filling my wife's uterus. From below I recorded his contracting balls and pulsing black cock pumping semen deep inside her womb.

Kelly was practically wailing. His hefty spear vibrated her stretched inner walls as the white-hot cum splashed all around. Her orgasm had not yet ended when his began and she was sent skyrocketing upward again when she felt his release. If Puny had not held her she would have fallen. Magic arched his back and squeezed every drop he possessed out of his cock and into my wife.

At last he held her hips and slowly withdrew his long dick. A glut of sperm followed and dripped to the floor. I moved out of the way just in time. Kelly breathed hard and was covered in sweat and so weak she was afraid to move. Puny cradled her and she curled on his lap. Magic staggered back and flopped into his chair, eyes closed in tingling afterglow.

I dimmed the camera and gathered Kelly's dress. Her panties belonged to Puny now and I left them with him. I set Magic's phone on the stand next to his gun and stepped to Kelly, lightly touching her arm.

“Baby,” I murmured, “we need to go.” She slowly turned her head and opened bleary eyes at me. She nodded with great effort. I was hard as a rock and dying to get her back to our hotel room so I could reclaim her from Magic.

“Like hell,” Magic muttered. “Baby-Girl is mine tonight. Head downstairs if you want. We’ll be along shortly. First she needs to swallow what Puny gives her. Take it out, Pee, let her suck it.”

Kelly settled her head back on Puny's chest. Puny fumbled between her legs with the draw string of his pants then grew frustrated and lowered Kelly to the floor. He swung a leg over her and pushed his track pants down and his big uncircumcised black dick flopped out. He was not as big as Magic but he was bigger than me. Kelly was exhausted but as soon as she saw it she grinned. She moved up to her knees and opened her mouth and sucked Puny's soft cock in. She gave him a leisurely blowjob, waiting for him to get hard, carefully licking his balls and shaft, bobbing her head on his expanding erection.

Soon he was hard and Kelly set to work making him cum. Her hands rode up and down his length as her mouth vacuumed hard on the head. Puny did not last long and when he grunted and exhaled, Kelly sucked it out and swallowed it. He held her head in both his giant hands and fucked her tongue.

Magic looked around the floor and then turned to me.

“Where her panties?”

I pointed at Puny.

“Puny! You got her panties?”

Puny fished them out and Magic tossed them to her.

“Put those on. You got to keep my cum in you. We headed back to the party. Most likely a ton of half-naked bitches by now.” Magic and Puny got dressed and Kelly slipped her panties on, her glorious and perfect big tits out for all to see.

He was right. As we descended we passed others and about half of the women had stripped down to shoes and panties. Every guy dressed like Magic had a girl with him, making out or sucking his cock. One of Magic's friends had a girl bent over the sofa and fucked her from behind.

Kelly clung to Magic. As we moved through the party she stayed glued to his side, his arm across her shoulder, her arm around his waist.

Puny walked menacingly behind them and I walked behind him. Everyone knew my woman was with Magic. It was the village all over again.

We ran into Dominick in the kitchen talking to a pretty Asian girl. Magic asked her to leave so he could talk to Dominick privately and she did. Dom looked nervous. Magic kissed Kelly and she responded eagerly. When the kiss ended he told her to suck Dominick's cock as a way of saying thank you.

“Is that what you want me to do?” my wife asked.

“Yeah, Little-White. Why don't you suck Dom's black cock for us? His party after all. We got to thank the host.”

Kelly left Magic's side and floated over to Dominick. His eyes got big. She crouched and drew his zipper down and fished around inside his pants, the tip of her tongue sticking out the corner of her mouth. She smiled when she found him and pulled him out through the opening. He was embarrassed but not about to refuse a blowjob from my gorgeous white wife.

As always I compared his size to mine and once again I lost. Magic had one of the biggest cocks I'd ever seen and Dominick was not in Magic's league, but he was bigger than Puny and that made him much bigger than me. He was circumcised and lighter skinned than Puny or magic and Kelly licked her lips and shoved him passed her teeth. Her cheeks dented and her tongue swirled and all the guys chuckled when Dom's knees almost buckled.

“Go ahead, fuck her mouth. I ain't stingy. Her pussy belong to me though, so stay away from that, but I'll share her mouth. She loves sucking black dick.”

It was true. My wife had her eyes closed and the adoration on her face was plain. Dom held her face in his hands and fucked her mouth and that thrilled my wife. She worked him with one hand while her other hand dropped down to rub her pussy. A hard cock in her mouth excited her. Listening to her growing excitement I knew she would cum before he did and I was right.

Another thug entered the kitchen and joined our voyeuristic circle. I found myself crowded out by Magic and Puny and Dom and this new guy until I was on the outside looking in. Kelly climaxed with a black dick on her tongue and Dom shot his load soon after. Kelly looked up at all the faces looking down at her and when she saw the new guy she spun around and unzipped his pants too. Some girl opened the kitchen door and Magic told her to get lost and then told Dom to guard the door, and he did.

The new guy was smaller than Dom or Puny but still a little bigger than me. I was about to think perhaps the myth had some truth to it.

This guy had no stamina. Kelly worked her oral sorcery and he was hard in seconds. I bet he'd never had a woman as hot and sexy as Kelly and before she got herself off again he jerked and shot cum down her throat. All the guys laughed when they had to help keep him standing.

We moved back to the living room and took up chairs. Kelly sat on Magic's lap and Puny moved off to play some pool. All around us half-naked girls lounged with guys, smoking, drinking, talking, or making out. Time passed and I was left out of every conversation. Kelly was enthralled with everything Magic had to say. He talked to her about growing up in the streets and learning to be hard. I saw the anthropologist in her asking questions and probing for more insight. She looked perfectly comfortable coiled in the lap of this dangerous gangster. He had his arms around her loosely and she had her arms around his neck, her big tits pressed against his chest. From time to time they kissed.

I rose from my chair and slipped away. Really I wanted a strong drink but also watching her with him got to me. Hot raw sex was much easier to see than sweet little intimacies.

Back upstairs I wandered as if I searched for someone. Everyone noticed me; I was the only older white male present, but no one said anything. They all left me alone. By now word had gotten around that I was the guy whose wife belonged to Magic, I was the guy whose wife was blowing everyone.

I made my way to the roof and stepped out into the cold New York air. Wind rustled the leaves of the trees in the park across the street and a strange calm settled on me. I filled my lungs with air and held it, releasing it slowly.

Behind me the door opened and a pretty black girl stepped out and looked around. She noticed me and her eyes narrowed. She wore an astonishingly short white dress that hugged her fit body like a coat of paint. Through the fabric I saw tiny string panties and small dark nipples. She had high cheek bones and almond eyes and her hair pulled back in a fan. She was prettier than a model.

“Sorry,” she giggled. “Just looking for someone.”

“Just me up here,” I replied. “Too cold.”

She looked down at her barely covered nipples, now rock-hard.

“Yeah.”

She turned to leave but stopped and turned back. “Can I ask you something?”

I shrugged. “Sure.”

She closed the door and crossed the distance between us. I was sure she was about to ask me how I could allow my wife to act like that.

“Does it turn you on?”

Okay, did not see that one coming. I searched her eyes wondering how honest I could be without overly embarrassing myself. She seemed like a kind person.

“I don't mean to pry,” she continued, “but I know what's happening in there and you don't seem upset. In fact, you seem pretty cool with it. That makes me think you've done this before and I can't think of another reason why you would unless you like it as much as your wife does. So; does it turn you on? If I'm being rude, just say so. You don't have to answer.”

I studied her face and intelligent eyes. “Yes, but if you're wondering why, I can't tell you. We discovered this part of my personality about a year ago. Same time we discovered her fetish for black guys. No offense. Some things we are all just born with.”

“No worries. How did you make this discovery?”

I told her about the expedition. She asked questions and made comments and I quickly learned she was highly intelligent and going to school for a psychology degree. She shivered and I put my arm around her shoulders to keep her warm and she looked up at me.

“Do you think I'm sexy?”

“I think you're breath-taking. I think you're stunning.”

Her eyes got big like I'd embarrassed her.

“Sorry,” I offered. “Too much information.”

“Not at all. Guys here won't chase me so it's good to hear. They say I have a little white girl ass, no tits, and a big brain. The trifecta of rejection, I guess.”

I was shocked. If I were single and younger, I'd be all over this girl and I told her so.

“Thanks. I guess that means you can't have other women even though your wife gets other men. Figures. I would have fucked you senseless.”

The look in her eyes told me she meant it. I sighed.

“That's good to hear, especially tonight. I love watching her but it still hurts to see. It's complicated. You ready to go inside?”

She shivered and said she was. We spoke a while longer at the head of the stairs and then someone called her name from below. She gave me a hug and left and I watched her perfect little ass descend those steps until she disappeared from sight. I went back out on the patio for a while.

When I returned the music was low and most everyone was gone. Kelly faced Magic on the couch. Her panties dangled from the stiletto heel of her left foot. She straddled him and his big black cock slowly moved in and out as she rode up and down on him. Her round ass looked amazing. The way his jet shaft split her bright pink slit made my nuts tingle. Magic sucked on her round tits. My penis stirred.

A pretty Asian girl stood behind the couch kissing Kelly as Kelly fondled her tits. They all moved with a sensuous rhythm, slow and steady.

As Magic drove Kelly towards climax she clung to the Asian girl tightly. Magic fucked up into her married pussy faster and faster until Kelly cried out. The Asian girl covered Kelly's mouth with her own and they kissed passionately as Magic held my wife's hips and pumped another batch of hot sperm into her.

Kelly sagged against Magic's chest, utterly spent. Her ass trembled and her legs shook. He left his fat cock inside her like he owned her and the Asian girl kissed my wife again and wandered off. I sat back down.

After a while Kelly lifted her head and spoke to Magic.

“Do you want to come home with us?”

My heart froze. I did not want this tough youth in our home or to even know our address. I was about to interrupt when Magic laughed.

“No, Baby, I have no interest in your white world. But I'm gonna give you my number and anytime you want to come visit me, you just let me know.”

They kissed for several minutes and then Kelly looked around for me. When she found me her whole face softened.

“My sweet husband. Take me home, Mike. I need sleep. Magic fucked my brains out.”

She lifted her pussy off his cock and cum ran down her inner thighs. She stood on quivering legs and dropped her dress over her head. She tossed her panties to Magic.

“You own these,” she teased. He sat up and cupped her pussy through her dress.

“I own this,” he corrected. My wife bit her bottom lip and nodded twice. Magic leaned back and closed his eyes.

We did not shake hands or hug our good-byes. Magic and I did not even look at each other. He'd taken my wife and we both knew he'd take her again whenever he wanted, so what was the point. We weren't friends.

I'd called a cab while Kelly dressed and soon we were back at our hotel room. I was ready to fuck my wife unconscious but she was too tender so instead she sucked me until I filled her mouth with my load. We both fell into a deep and exhausted sleep.

The rest of the book tour was uneventful, sexually, although Kelly and I were closer than ever. Previously I would have believed such behavior would drive two people apart but I was wrong. The trust learned, the secrets exposed, the tolerance and acceptance needed created more intimacy for us than anything we'd ever done. We were sharing everything and that bonded us tightly.

Months later we arrived back at home. We had six weeks before the start of the new semester and we used that time to relax. Life on the road is stressful and exhausting and back home lying around the pool was just what we needed.

Our sex life was better than ever and we now included dirty talk almost every time. Kelly was just as likely as me to share some hot memory of her slutty behavior and throw gas on our love-making fire.

Two weeks later I relaxed by our pool soaking up the warm Las Vegas sun. Kelly was out at the mall shopping for new bikinis. Summer comes early to Vegas and I had a feeling this year would be our most interesting on record. We never talked too much about her fetish and mine but it was always present, always floating in the air like perfume. We had not established rules or even guidelines, instead allowing our fantasy life to seek its own level.

I thought about calling Demar, Jamal, and Marcus. I'd invite them over under the pretense of a barbecue and starting a new basketball league, but in reality I just wanted them near my wife. I knew if I mixed them together, sparks would fly. I smiled in the hot Vegas sun; I loved it when my wife was a slut. I easily pictured all three of them fucking her at the same time. I heard her cries of pleasure.

Then, out of the blue, I got jealous.

I didn't recognize it at first, given all we'd been through, but once I did my guts twisted around themselves. I'd seen all three of those guys naked many times at the gym.

I'd rescued Jamal from a broken axle in the desert. I'd helped Demar home after a night of drunken stupidity. I drove Marcus to the hospital when his girlfriend gave birth to their son and stayed with him when he asked me too. I've known these guys forever and been through so much with them. Janka and Jona and Chief and Magic were total strangers, nothing more than big black cocks for my wife to play with. If Kelly slept with my friends they'd still be there the next day and we'd have to deal with it. Sex changes everything and all our relationships would be forever altered.

I knew if she fucked them once, she'd fuck them again. From that moment forward I'd be the friend with the slutty wife everyone got to fuck whenever they wished. Those guys would be over all the time. Every time I came home from work at least one of them would be at the house, probably balls deep inside Kelly. She'd love all the attention but I'd be eaten alive by it. They'd be one-up on me and I'd never live it down, unless I fucked their girlfriends and that was not going to happen. I began to realize this was one fantasy Kelly would have to live without.

The next four weeks carried an odd tension as I knew Kelly waited for me to call my friends and I put off calling my friends. Before she could confront me about it work arrived and we found ourselves too busy to deal with it. I taught four classes this semester and Kelly taught three. We were buried with work and barely had time to sleep, much less an extra-curricular sex life. The whole idea faded into the background. We even talked dirty less when we had sex.

Months later Kelly reminded me my birthday was coming up and said she wanted to take me out to a nice dinner. She made reservations at a new steak house I suggested and bought a new dress.

When the big night arrived we got ready and left the house. The restaurant was chic and the meal fantastic. I enjoyed twelve-year-old Scotch and Kelly downed several glasses of a new House Cabernet she loved. We talked and laughed and thoroughly enjoyed our night out. We were back in the car headed home when she asked the question.

“Why haven't Jamal, Demar, and Marcus come over and fucked me yet? I thought you got off on it as much as I did?”

Better to tell her the truth, I thought. I sighed. Down the road, a neon sign flashed “Geno's” and I pulled off and into the bar's parking lot. I left the engine running as I collected my thoughts and then the idea of a strong drink first sounded pretty good.

“How about we grab a quick drink. I'm sure you're going to dislike what I have to say.”

She nodded once and I killed the engine.

The place was a dive. The bar ran along the far wall and booths ringed it. The floor hadn't been swept in ages and the stale air stank of cigarettes and old beer. Half the light bulbs were burned out, as well as a television set over the bar. Several stools had occupants and a few booths did too, but nobody looked up at us when we entered, not even the bartender. I wore a sports coat and tie and Kelly's new dress clung to her curves, accenting her hips and tits and showing a lot of leg, but no one gave a shit.

Kelly moved to a booth and I approached the bar to place our order. Around the corner I saw a back room where a few men played pool. In the other direction lay the bathrooms and a stock room with a door off the hinges. Charming.

I carried our drinks back to the table. Kelly had taken off her jacket and her body looked amazing. The dress was a stretchy fabric, pale blue, and followed the feminine lines of her ripe body. From above, I gazed down into her more than ample cleavage and realized for the first time she wore no bra. No wonder her tits looked so smooth.

I settled in and she waited for me to speak. I dove in.

“Demar, Jamal, and Marcus are off limits.”

Disappointment filled her eyes and I almost backed down. I hated it. I put my own insecurities and needs first and I never did that. Kelly is my princess. I wavered but stood my ground.

I explained my feelings and my fears and what I was sure would happen. I told her because Janka and Chief and Magic were strangers to us and completely outside our everyday lives, their threat was minimal. She said that made sense. She said she understood my hesitation to alter my friendships, but she still wanted them. They were handsome black studs who made it clear they desired her greatly and that, she confessed, made her wet.

“Just imagine it, Honey; Demar looks you in the eye after fucking me. Wouldn't it just kill you? Jamal and Marcus come over for a dip in the pool; wouldn't the sexual tension just drive you crazy? You are saying these moments would affect you in a bad way but I think they'd affect you in a good way. You'd hate it, true, but at the same time you'd love it. I think you are underestimating the erotic effect it would have on you. Don't be such a chicken-shit.”

“You do realize your viewpoint might be a little skewed, right? You want them badly. Aren't you worried that clouds your judgment?”

“Worried? No. I don't care if it does. I get so hot thinking about those three studs fucking me I can barely stand it. Have you seen them naked, Baby? Are they big? Are they bigger than you? They act like they have big dicks. Every hung guy acts the same; 'Hey Baby, I'm God's gift to women.' They are annoying but the truth is they are right, at least to women like me. Do you know if they are?”

I met her eyes. She was already excited just imaging them. I sighed.

“Yes, Baby, they are. Marcus is the biggest but all three are bigger than me.”

She gazed at the ceiling. “God! I knew it.”

Her eyes came back to mine. “Please, Honey, will you make this happen?”

I felt forced and I did not like it. I'd finished my drink and hers was almost gone too so rather than answer her I left to order more drinks. I kept my back to her to show her I was upset.

When I turned back to the table with our new drinks, she was gone. I sat and waited a few minutes for her to emerge from the lady's room and when she didn't I went out and checked the car. Back at our booth I contemplated my next move and then heard feminine laughter from the back room. I collected both drinks and wandered back.

The back room was big enough for two pool tables and the space needed around them, but not much else. Wooden stools circled the room with racks and cues along the walls. The lighting was dim except a spot light over each table. Smoke filled the top five feet of air space. Four men, all of them black, played, while a fifth man, a mountain of muscle and also black, sat with his back against the wall. Kelly sat cross-wise on his lap. His arms circled her waist and her hands rested on her knees. He whispered something in her ear and she laughed again. When she saw me step through the doorway she held out a hand for her drink. I crossed the room and gave it to her.

“What's up, Honey?” I asked. “Making new friends?”

She giggled. “Yes. This is Alvin. I haven't met those four yet but Alvin says they are friends of his.”

I moved to shake Alvin's hand and announce my name. I felt heavy callouses. He worked out a lot. Probably had a laborer's job too, swinging a pickax or operating a jackhammer. He did not smile. I felt awkward as fuck with my wife sitting on his lap. The other four were smiling.

Outnumbered, I played it cool.

I stood there like an oaf while Kelly and Alvin spoke softly to each other. I'm sure their intent was to avoid disturbing the games being played but it gave them an air of intimacy and made it much for difficult for me to interrupt. I sipped my drink and waited for an opportunity.

Alvin let one hand drift down to her bare thigh. His skin was so dark next to hers. I watched to see if she closed her legs a little but she didn't. If anything she parted them a fraction of an inch more. Alvin noticed. His other hand started drawing delicate circles on her exposed back. Her nipples rose, lifting the light fabric of her dress in two points.

“Alvin,” Kelly asked. “Do you and your friends live near-by?”

“Yeah, we know the owner, Ray, so we always hang out here. Ray is cool.”

“Your hands are rough. What do you do for a living?”

“Sorry. I tear up road for the city.”

“Oh, no apologies necessary. I like it. It's manly. Your hands are huge and strong. I like that they are also rugged. The coarse texture feels good on my skin.”

He slid his hand from her thigh down to her knee and back again, resting higher than he started. Her dress bunched a little and I saw a sliver of black from her panties.

“Yes, like that,” she purred. “That's nice.”

He repeated his loop only this time at the end his fingertips rested against her lace covered vulva. She squirmed on his lap and opened her legs another half inch. He sent his hand around again and then switched to her other leg. At the end he openly flicked his thick fingertip across her covered labia. Kelly made a small gasp and bit her bottom lip. Our eyes met. She was fucking with me. I needed to make a stand right now.

“Kelly, Honey, it's late and we better get going.”

She stuck out her bottom lip in a pout.

“Do we? I'm just getting to know these boys.”

Alvin looked right at me. “Y'all ain't going nowhere. Gee, lock that door.”

One of the guys shooting pool stepped over and shut the door separating the bar from the back room and slipped a hook through a ring to secure it. He laid his cue on the table like he expected trouble.

Alvin hooked a fat finger through Kelly's shoulder strap. One side of her dress fell to her waist, exposing a full round breast and erect nipple to the room. He did the same to the other strap and Kelly's dress piled in a ring around her hips. Her chest rose and fell with controlled breathing. She seemed calm but I knew the signs. She was aroused and getting more excited by the second. I saw that Alvin had surprised her but now she allowed things to run their course.

Her eyes met mine and 'Wouldn't you rather be doing this at home with guys you know?' was all over her face. Alvin hooked an arm under her legs and steadied her with the hand on her back and stood like her weight in his arms was nothing. He was an imposing pile of muscle, towering over us all; a rock-smashing ogre.

He sat her on his seat and told her to take his cock out. Something about Kelly's looks makes men bold. She's so hot they are willing to take chances; they are willing to run huge risks. I felt a surge of pride mix in with my humiliation. She slipped her arms from her dress and unzipped his pants. My wife was hot and ready to go. Out came his cock in the palm of her hands and I gaped at it, and so did she.

“Holy shit, Alvin!” she exclaimed. “That's a big fucking cock.” The four guys chuckled like they'd all seen that reaction before.

My wife is highly educated, sophisticated, and worldly, but hearing her utter those words reduces her to a cheap whore and I loved it.

Alvin's cock was a heavy black python. The head was smooth and wide and the shaft behind it even wider but laced with several long thick veins. They stood up like tubes just under the black skin. He was completely soft and spongy but already as thick as her wrist. Kelly fished around and pulled his fat ball-sack out too. His dark member rested on the front of his jeans.

"Start sucking, bitch," he ordered. The other four laughed. Kelly shivered with excitement from his command and opened her mouth and lowered her head. Alvin grabbed his nearby beer and took a long pull while my pretty wife stuffed her mouth with dick.

"Gather round, fellas," he encouraged. "I'm sure this hot bitch will suck us all. Is that right, Mike?"

I looked up at him and then the others. They had nothing but scorn and contempt for me and I thought about telling Kelly we were leaving but I knew they would not allow it. I'd get beat to a pulp and they'd fuck her anyway. I knew she wanted to suck them and probably fuck them too, at least Alvin. Why fight it? I went the other direction with it.

"Hell yes," I stated. "Let her suck you hard and then bend her over that pool table. I want each of you to fuck her. Use her; fuck her ass, fuck her mouth, fuck her pussy, she doesn't care what you do, as long as you enjoy yourself."

Their faces lit up and Kelly moaned deeply around Alvin's cock. One of the guys, the tallest and skinniest, knelt before her and pulled her panties down her legs. She lifted to help him get passed the chair. Her hands sought other cocks as she spread her legs and showed her wet pussy to everyone. My doctorate wife was a slut for black cock.

The men pulled her to standing and worked her dress down and off. She stepped out of it now only wearing her shoes. I'd seen her like this before and knew exactly what was about to happen, and I was right.

Tall Skinny tried to move behind her to fuck her but Alvin barked at him. They argued over who got to fuck her first, which really turned Kelly on, and Alvin won after threatening to crush Tall's skull like a grape. As soon as Alvin withdrew his erect cock Tall took his place in my wife's mouth. She sucked him right in.

Alvin got behind her and lined his dick up to her slit. The head was so big it covered her pussy completely.

“Fucking bitch is dripping wet back here,” he boasted, rubbing the head around. “The girl wants Alvin's big black dick. Is that true, Honey? You want me to fuck your little white pussy? You want Alvin to stick his big dick in you?”

Kelly nodded vigorously, as well as she could with Tall fucking her mouth. Two of the other guys pulled out their cocks and guided Kelly's hands around them while the one remaining guy stood by Tall awaiting his turn in her mouth. Only Alvin possessed a really huge cock but the other guys were still above average. All of them surpassed me.

I marveled how moments ago they were playing pool and now five men were about to fuck my wife. Does raw animal sex always wait just beneath the surface of social decorum? Who would you fuck if you could fuck anyone? I caught a glimpse into a more primitive man and wild and rampant fucking. Humans are constantly horny, and if they aren't, they can get in the mood faster than any animal on earth.

Kelly pumped the two dicks in her hands and sucked hard on the one in her mouth. Alvin tried to push his wide cock into her and she squealed.

“Goddamn, Alvin, your cock is a fucking cannon! Give it to me. Fuck my tight white pussy.”

Alvin grabbed two handfuls of her long brown hair and pulled. His thick cock pushed up against Kelly's labia, mashing them, but would not penetrate. She squealed again and pushed her hips back at him. He kept his massive head covering her opening and pressed forward. A fraction at a time her pussy lips spread and enveloped him. It looked like lava swallowing a telephone pole. Her body trembled but he held tight and applied relentless pressure.

At last the head eased in and Kelly groaned loudly around the black dick in her mouth. Alvin pushed deep, into Kelly's guts, forcing the air from her lungs. She stood gasping for a few seconds until Tall steered her open mouth back onto his hard dick. He trapped her head and fucked her mouth. She struggled for air but none of these guys cared. Alvin hammered her pussy hard as soon as his dick was coated with her juices and Kelly screamed around the cock in her mouth. The guys on the side mauled her big swinging tits.

Tall was young and came in her mouth pretty fast. The next guy shoved him aside and took over. Kelly licked his cock-head and sucked him in. Behind her Alvin took off his T-shirt and kicked off his shoes. He left his cock buried as he unfastened his pants and stepped out of them. The other guys, except for Tall, followed his lead and I found myself surrounded by naked black guys. Tall sat on the edge of a pool table and watched with big eyes.

The two guys getting hand jobs took turns with the guy in her mouth so Kelly sucked all three cocks one after the other. They were pretty young and I was amazed at how hard their dicks were. Mine doesn't get that hard anymore. I get hard but not that youthful diamond hardness. Kelly enjoyed it immensely.

Alvin ordered Tall to cover a table with the drop-cloth and then pulled his cock out of Kelly. He climbed on top and rolled onto his back and aimed his massive black cock skyward. It was a shining tower of veined black flesh. Kelly joined him on the table and straddled him and then sank his meat up into her body.

"Now, Jimmy," he instructed, "get behind her and fuck that sweet ass. I want to feel her pussy clench my dick when she feels another cock in her."

Kelly's eyes got big but Alvin pulled her face down and kissed her roughly.

"Oh yes, little girl, they gonna have to carry you out of here. You're not the first little white slut we run a train on."

One of the young guys moved behind her and pushed a finger up her ass. Kelly groaned and struggled a little but Alvin held her like a vise. Jimmy spread her ass cheeks far apart, far enough for me to see her sphincter pulled open, and aimed his saliva-covered dick at her asshole. He pushed. She tensed for a second and then Alvin yanked her hair and slapped her face.

"You take that cock, bitch. Open your ass. We gonna fuck you all night long."

Kelly looked scared but slowly nodded. Behind her I heard Jimmy grunt.

"Oh yeah! There she goes, Al. She's taking it. Oh fuck that's good." His hips slowly eased closer to her butt as his cock went up my wife's ass. Kelly whimpered.

“Gee, feed this bitch your dick. We gonna make her airtight.” Then, to my wife, “You ever been air-tight, girlie? You ever service three men at once?”

Kelly shook her head and groaned a muffled, “No.”

One of the guys, the same one that had locked the backroom door, climbed up on the table and stood next to Kelly's face. He lifted her chin.

“Open up, pretty baby, open up and suck my dick.”

Kelly lost focus as the two men moved back and forth in her pussy and ass. When his cock touched her lips she reacted instinctively and curled her tongue around his crown. He stepped a little closer and started fucking her mouth.

I took the amazing scene in; one big black cock in her pussy, another in her ass, a third in her mouth, and a fourth waiting his turn at the first hole that opened up. Kelly's body moved in many independent directions. Each man used her for his own pleasure, pushing and pulling; she looked like a chew-toy played with by three pit-bulls simultaneously. Alvin twisted her arms behind her back and she would have lost her balance but she was suspended by the three cocks piercing her like kick-stands. From this angle I saw the three-ring tattoo on her forearm; forever marked by another man that had fucked my wife.

She was powerless, a butterfly in a display case, and the harder they fucked her the more excited she became. She climaxed first, an explosion of smothered groans and gasps, as her body jerked and convulsed. These men did not care. They just kept fucking her until she came a second time and kept right on fucking her again, oblivious. Only Alvin said anything.

“That's right, bitch, show us you love it.”

The guy in her ass came next, pushing himself balls deep to unload. He was quickly shoved out of the way by the guy waiting. Kelly went crazy when she felt a new erection penetrate her, cumming a slutty fourth time. The very first guy climbed up and made her suck his half erect dick while the others fucked her.

Alvin started thrusting faster and faster until he arched his back and filled my wife's tight pussy with a massive load. He shot a long time. Shortly afterwards the guy in her ass pumped a load into her rectum. The guy in her mouth forced her to keep sucking until he filled her mouth with semen again.

All the guys climbed down except Alvin. He held her on top of his massive body, his fat dick still buried way up inside. She was a trembling mess of sweat and jizz. They stayed like that for long minutes. A rivulet of sperm escaped the seal of her cunt and slowly ran down his shaft.

He barked at me, "Come get your woman!" and I did. She was in a daze as I helped her down and brushed the hair out of her face. I found her dress and held it open for her to step into, and then pulled it up, hooking the straps over her shoulders.

Alvin had seated himself and ordered Kelly back on her knees to lick his dick clean. She was stunned but did as told. When Alvin was satisfied he told us we could leave.

"Come back when you want more, darling. Me and the boys are always good to go."

We hustled through the bar as heads turned. One look at Kelly and it was pretty easy to figure out what just happened in that back room. I got her into the car and headed home. We rode in silence for twenty minutes before she spoke.

"Are you mad?" she whispered.

Actually, I wasn't, and I said so.

"Are you planning on fucking me or divorcing me when we get home?"

I said planned on fucking her and she breathed a sigh of relief and asked me to be gentle. We rode in silence the rest of the way.

At home she wanted to shower but I told her no. I liked that she was covered in dried sweat and cum. I liked the way she smelled and looked; my prim and proper wife a slutty smear of carnal fluids. The more I remembered her gang-bang the more excited I became. I even enjoyed the element of mild humiliation. I was rock hard and sticking straight out as I approached her on the bed.

"So I guess you really aren't mad," she joked when she saw it. She was exhausted but accommodating me. I saw she wanted to curl into a little ball and fall asleep. I wanted to fuck her to death.

"That went much, much farther than I thought it would, Mike. I wanted to tease you with the idea of me fucking a gang of strangers. I tried to get you to change your mind about your friends. I had no idea they'd be so aggressive. I was frightened, at first, but then the way they all got so hard turned me on. There were hard cocks everywhere. The last straw was you turning them loose on me like a pack of dogs. I loved the way they used me. I felt like fuck meat. God, is something wrong with me?"

"Yeah," I grunted. "But there's something wrong with all of us. We can't control what turns us on." I climbed onto the bed next to her. "Just like I can't help that watching you turns me on." I grabbed her hip and rolled her onto her stomach. I pushed her dress up off her butt. I held her ass and lifted her pelvis. I wanted to fuck her asshole just like they had. I pinned her down, holding each arm at her elbows. My penis was so hard it was deep red. I poked at her a few times with it until I slid into place at her sphincter.

"Mike," she cautioned, "What are you thinkinnnnng? Ohhhh God!"

I pushed it in as she spoke. All that cum made her ring too slippery to keep me out. She squeezed it shut but it didn't matter. I eased forward and her hole blossomed around the head of my penis and swallowed me. I felt all that hot cum surrounding me and blood surged in my dick. I couldn't wait to add mine to theirs. Kelly was exhausted and sore, craving a shower and sleep, but I was in no hurry. She took it for a few minutes and then decided to speed me up.

"Uunngggh! Yeah, Baby, fuck my ass," She teased. "Just like they did. Actually, I'm glad you're in my ass and not my pussy. My pussy belongs to Alvin right now. It's better that you don't mix your cum with his. Just fuck my ass like those other guys did. We'll leave all that sperm in my pussy alone."

She drove me crazy. I hadn't considered it but what she said was true and it really turned me on. It was humiliating, of course, but added so much to what I felt already. My balls tightened with impending climax. I drew a deep breath. She felt my penis swell and knew I was close.

"Oh, you like that, Baby? So the bigger slut I am the more you like it? Should I go see them again? How about this weekend? You wait at home and I'll go to Geno's bar again and let them take me in the back room. Alvin will always get my pussy, Baby. His huge black cock feels sooooo good up there."

That was it. I knew what she did but I couldn't hold myself back. I growled and released deep into her bowels. Her tight ring squeezed and milked and I shot all I had. We fell asleep just like that; half-dressed and needing a bath.

We awoke hours later and climbed into the shower. I soaped her tender body and dried her off. Her asshole and pussy were bright pink and so tender. Her large breasts had marks on them from the mauling they'd received. I helped her under the covers and turned off the lights. Minutes later I felt her shift and her mouth close around my penis. Neither of us said anything. She suckled my penis gently, with no intent to make me orgasm. She submitted to me. I sensed this was her way of showing me I held her heart. Other men may have her body but she loves only me. I came much later and she quietly drank it. At last we fell into an exhausted sleep.

Two months later and Kelly still has not fucked my friends. Some nights I get excited by the idea but then I fuck Kelly and the excitement leaves the moment I orgasm. She's hinted about it but not come right out and asked for it so I'm leaving it alone. If those assholes had any idea they would besiege me with requests. Thankfully, Kelly has said nothing to them directly. For the moment the situation remained unresolved.

On the other hand, Kelly did fuck Magic again. At least, I think she did.

I awoke one night to a naked black man in our bedroom. I was already cuffed with a gag in my mouth when I came awake and I freaked out. He pulled me out of bed and on the floor he cuffed my ankles to my wrists, then sat me in the reading chair next to the bed. He wore a ski mask and gloves.

Kelly is a deep sleeper and he cuffed her wrists to our headboard and then he covered her mouth with a hand. She awoke slowly and her eyes grew so big! He forced her legs open and I saw his huge bare-naked erection jutting out from his hips and aimed right at her cunt. She fought him until he sank the first few inches in. That was when I noticed the two familiar old gunshot wounds and knew it was Magic. I didn't know how he found us or how he got in but here he was.

Kelly had no way of knowing it was Magic. She struggled hard until that iron dick got her attention. She tried to fight him but Magic pushed it in deeper, waited a second, and then deeper again. It was something to see. She went suddenly still and quiet, paralyzed with overwhelming sensations, forgetting completely where she was and what else happened to her. Her eyes closed as she whimpered and raised her hips to meet his. Then she returned to herself and her predicament and struggled like a mountain lion again. Magic drove another few inches deep and my wife went rigid once more. The process repeated many times.

Finally, he spoke to her through the ski-mask ordering her to calm the fuck down. His voice must have sounded either familiar or sufficiently threatening because she quieted a lot. He withdrew half his dick and plunged back in and she arched her back and cried out. He lifted her hips and began to saw in and out.

I suspect his cock was lubed at first but within seconds I heard how wet Kelly was. She mewled and cooed and then the slut surprised us both when she climaxed. I think she even surprised herself. Afraid and unsure, frightened and concerned, his hard cock made her forget everything else and ripped an orgasm from her in spite of her situation. To me, nothing revealed her for a bigger slut than this.

Magic kept driving it in and pulling it out as the sloshing sounds of her arousal filled our bedroom. The whore even came again. Magic laughed like a maniac and then moved closer to drive his cock even deeper. Kelly cried out on every thrust until he threw his head back and exploded like a volcano spewing hot sperm directly into her womb. He held it deep as he pumped out his seed until she had it all, then slowly withdrew and stood, dropping a handcuff key on the bed. He let himself out. It took us thirty minutes to free ourselves and Kelly wanted to call the cops but I stopped her.

“Yes! Mike, did you see what just happened here?”

I was stunned. She hadn't known it was Magic! But she still climaxed!

“Yes, I did. What did you see, Kelly? I saw my wife orgasm on a big black cock, twice! You want me to give the cops that detail?”

“I can't help it, Mike, you know that about me. Don't you care that someone broke into our home? Don't you care that a complete stranger just fucked your wife?”

I studied her. She was serious.

“Baby,” I comforted, “it's okay. Of course I would care, if that were true. But I'm almost certain it was Magic.”

That stopped her. She froze and I knew she ran a replay of the event through her mind.

“At any time did you give him our address?”

“Holy shit,” she whispered. “No, but I'm sure we're easy to find. We are both all over the Internet. Anyone could find out which university we teach at and then follow us home. Now that you name him I think you're right.”

“Still want me to call the cops?”

“No. Now I want you to fuck me.”

I did.

Three days later he did it again. He took Kelly as she left the gym and pulled her into a van, driving her to a park overlooking the city and fucking her like an animal. Afterwards he drove her back and dumped her next to her car. He wore a mask the whole time but she was pretty sure it was him. After that we never heard from him again. I suggested he returned to the east coast. Who knows when he will strike again?

Kelly was a sex fiend for weeks after. The non-consensual aspect really triggered something in her and got her juices flowing. She asked me to role-play a forced-sex fantasy with her but it just wasn't the same. I filed the information away although I had no idea when it might matter.

Demar, Jamal, and Marcus are coming over next weekend to build our Fantasy Football league together. This means they will stop by the house much more often. I haven't told Kelly yet, and I'm not sure how I will handle it.

Oscar Wilde said the only way to remove a temptation is to yield to it and I suspect that is especially true here; I should just let the four of them at each other until it runs through them and they tire of it. How bad can it be? I have been friends with those guys for a very long time. How much could our relationship change?

Our encounter with Magic had given me an idea; what if they just took her? I'd tell them Kelly had a forced sex stranger gang-bang fantasy and I owed her one because she let me fuck a hot friend of hers. I'd assure them Kelly would never know. It would remain our secret forever. I'd get Kelly her fantasy, but with guys I trusted and knew would keep her safe. I'd insist on condoms for her pussy but otherwise they could do what they wanted. Kelly got her wish, I fulfilled my debt, they got to enjoy Kelly; everybody wins.

Because Kelly would have no idea it was them, life could go back to normal, more or less. They'd always be one up on me but they'd envy me because I got to fuck some hot friend of Kelly's, so I could live with that. I wouldn't look like a total loser.

The weekend arrived and I explained my plan. They could not believe their good fortune. I told them how it was only fair she got hers since I'd gotten mine and described Kelly's fictitious friend in great detail. As they began to understand I handed them Kelly, huge smiles spread across faces. Right away Demar asked where I'd be and I told him I'd leave her alone in our house and be gone several hours. I'd tell her I watched the football game with them. Their excitement was palpable and growing. I mentioned the condoms and they quickly agreed. They've wanted Kelly for years and here was their chance. I ended it by asking each of them to think about my request and then left the room under the pretense of grabbing more beer. I hid around the wall and listened. They kept their voices low but I heard the strain in them.

"Holy fuck!" Demar hissed. "We get to fuck Kelly. I can't believe it!"

Marcus spoke next. "That ass, those tits...can you picture that beautiful face sucking your dick?"

"We should ask what the rules are," Jamal offered. "What does Kelly enjoy, things like that. I want her to be into it."

"Fuck that," Demar said. "If I don't know in advance, I can do whatever I want and apologize later. I'm fucking her sweet ass."

The others chuckled.

"It's a dream." Marcus murmured.

"It's a dream," Jamal echoed, agreeing.

I shut the refrigerator door hard to let them know I was headed back. I passed around the beer and waited.

"We're in," Demar stated. "How's next Sunday? A week from tomorrow?"

I said okay and we all shook hands. My palms were sweaty. Jamal's hands trembled. I told them the less I knew the better. I would exit the house around noon, leaving the backdoor unlocked, and they could take it from there. I would come home around five. That was it. The air was thick with tension so I suggested we get started on our league and they all agreed.

The next week was the longest week of my life. Kelly twice asked me what was on my mind but I just told her I was crunching numbers for my fantasy league. She called me a huge nerd. We made love Tuesday night but she told me to pull out. She'd forgotten to get her prescription for birth control refilled so we'd have to start the cycle over. Until then, she warned me, she was fertile. Ovulation makes Kelly extra horny. By Friday night she climbed the walls. I was so glad I'd insisted those guys used condoms.

Originally, my plan had been to visit the pub and watch the games after leaving the house, but as Sunday drew near, I knew there was no way I'd be able to stand the wait. Instead, I made subtle changes that would allow me to see as much as possible. I raised the shades and opened the blinds a little more each day. Outside, trees and shrubs covered many of our windows so I made sure I could see in all the way around the house. I left some of the windows cracked open so I could hear too. I'd leave, but I'd park around the corner and come back. I had many excellent hiding places to watch what happened.

Sunday I was a mental case. I could not concentrate on anything. Kelly asked me what was wrong and I lied and said I might be getting sick. I kept busy and avoided her. Part of me could not believe I was about to hand my wife over to three friends. My second thoughts were having third thoughts. What could go wrong? I convinced myself that everything would be just fine. I showered and dressed, kissed Kelly, and left.

I thought I was ready. I thought I'd seen Kelly do enough with other men I'd be able to handle watching this. Sex is sex and I'd certainly seen my lovely wife engaged in a shocking amount of it. I believed this would just be a slightly different version of everything I'd already witnessed. No big deal.

I was so, so wrong.

Marcus started the ball rolling and led the other two. Kelly had the music loud while she painted her toe nails at the kitchen table. She'd showered after me and since she was home alone, she wrapped only a towel loosely around her waist. Her wet hair hung to her hips. Her skin was flush from the hot water and her full round tits looked delicious. She was happy and enjoying some alone-time.

Marcus came up behind her with a black plastic bag. Jamal carried zip-ties and Demar had a dog collar, a leash, and a green paisley tie I'd seen Marcus wear many times.

Kelly sheathed the paint brush in the bottle and fanned her toes, her gorgeous tits rocking from side to side. She leaned over for a closer inspection of her brush strokes and boom, that black plastic bag enveloped her head. Her hands flew up to it to pull it off and Jamal grabbed them, held them together, encircled her wrists with a zip-tie, and tugged. Through the window I heard the high-pitched zip as the loop tightened and then Kelly screamed in panic. She rose up, clawing at the bag and Marcus easily lifted her weight out of the chair. Demar circled her ankles with the leash three times and that was that; my wife was bound and helpless.

She writhed and twisted but she was no match even for Marcus, let alone two more men. They carried her to the living room and draped her body over the back of the sofa. The towel had fallen off so my wife's naked ass was high in the air. All three gazed at it, although I realized from where they stood they most likely saw her bald pussy from behind too.

How many times had those fuckers wanted to see Kelly naked? Now her she was tied up and helpless and they had my permission to fuck her. Marcus reached out and touched her butt and Kelly jumped and started kicking and yelling again. Marcus patted her ass and silenced everyone with a finger to his lips. He began to undress.

Kelly squirmed but she was balanced over the couch with hands and feet tied and she went nowhere. She struggled hard. I worried about the bag over her head cutting off air.

The other guys undressed hesitantly and I thought now that it was actually happening, Jamal and Demar were having doubts about going through with it. Marcus stepped out of his boxer briefs and good God, what a slab of beef. I'd seen him naked a few times, in the locker room mostly, and he was always really big but also totally soft. Full size was hard to tell. Some guys grow a lot.

He grew now to twice my length and width. Why is everyone bigger than me? Do I have a small penis? The skin was only slightly darker than his muscular body and the head seemed a little too big, and it looked like the weight of it pulled the shaft down. His balls were big and hung way down inside their bag. His public hair was trimmed close and his body was basically hairless.

As soon as he was naked he turned to Kelly and spread her ass cheeks. She squirmed and kicked and fought and then I saw him bury his face between them and knew he ate her pussy and ass. Kelly was still trying to get free but now had to split her attention between freedom and the tongue licking her ass and cunt.

His black hands on her tore at my heart. Marcus was touching Kelly! Marcus! Not some stranger. Not some man I'd never see again. I had to resist the urge to barge in and stop them. Why was I allowing this?

Demar and Jamal watched for a minute, Jamal's cock rising quickly. Demar climbed on our couch and pulled the bag away enough to gain access to her mouth. He held his limp dick in one hand and fed it to her. She kept spitting it out but he'd ram it back in. He got hard, slowly, and more and more of it stood up on its own.

Kelly opened her mouth to yell at him to stop and he slid the whole thing balls deep. My wife gagged but he kept the head lodged in her throat. Kelly choked and sputtered around it, gasped for air on the verge of panic. I was just about to leave my hiding place and storm in, order them all to stop and save the day, when Jamal laughed. I saw him say something to Demar. Demar eased back an inch and Kelly got her throat under control, then immediately shocked me by closing her lips around his dick in a tight seal and sucking so hard her cheeks got a sharp dent in them. She gobbled that last inch as soon as she caught her breath. I wondered if she'd recognized Jamal's voice and now knew who attacked her. She pushed her mouth lower and lower until her lips met his balls.

Demar held her face and sawed in and out.

Behind her Marcus stepped closer and rolled a condom down his hard dick. He bent it down, aiming it at an opening, but I wasn't sure which one. The look on Kelly's face told me my old friend was slowly claiming her ass. Marcus was sliding his cock into my wife's ass! My guts twisted into knots, a bag of snakes living in my stomach.

Kelly stopped fighting and sucked harder on the cock in her mouth. The deeper Marcus pushed behind her, the harder she sucked the dick in front of her. With her hands and feet tied the men were free to use her orifices however they wished and I saw how much bottled-up desire they had for my woman.

Jamal stood at the end of my couch just watching these two bastards ram their black cocks into my wife from each end. All three of them were so hard! I knew Kelly loved how erect they were. She's said many times that's one of her favorite things. She takes it as the highest compliment when a man gets as hard as diamond and these guys looked harder than that.

Demar worked the bag up and then bound it with the paisley tie, effectively blind-folding her. Marcus sheathed almost every inch he had up her tight rectum and I saw Kelly's toes curl. His balls smothered her empty pussy and then started slapping her labia as he began to fuck her ass.

Marcus really got into it. His face was a twisted grimace of intense pleasure and I was once more reminded how much my friends wanted my wife. His hips dropped onto her ass with a slap each time he drove the length of his black cock up her rectum. I knew he wouldn't last long but I was surprised he came so fast. Another indicator of his intense longing for my wife. He opened the valve and blasted her guts with a huge load of his hot cum. When he withdrew her ass was left gaping open and white liquid leaked onto our sofa.

Jamal came around the couch and rubbed the head of his dick on her pussy lips to wet it and then rolled another condom into place. He pushed it in. He was the youngest of us all and clearly the least experienced. His hips were a blur as he fucked my wife hard from behind. His tight balls didn't move at all, even when he released a massive flood of cum inside her. My best friends were fucking my wife. I'd never live it down. They'd never look at me the same.

Now that he had her to himself, Demar made Kelly suck his cock like a whore. He took his time, watching his shiny black dick slide in and out of her pretty white face. Marcus and Jamal stood close by, watching, until Demar rested the head on her tongue and began stroking with his hand, firing long ropes of white jizz into her open mouth. Some sprayed her face. Kelly licked her lips, searching for his dick, hungry to drink right from the source. He gave her the head as his orgasm ended, allowing her to suck out the last few jets. I saw his lips moving and knew he was speaking to her and my heart stopped. The more she heard them speak the greater the chance she'd figure it out.

She tilted her head and said something. All three of them looked at each other and then Marcus shrugged and untied her wrists and ankles. Jamal slipped off the blindfold.

If she was surprised, she did not show it. Not at all. She smiled before the tie was removed and smiled bigger once she saw them. I read her lips as she said, I knew it. They all stepped closer to her and six black hands ran over every inch of my lily-white wife. They caressed her big tits and rolled her nipples and reached down between her legs and played with her drenched openings. Marcus and Jamal still wore the condoms on their limp dicks and Kelly pointed and said something. My body went ice-cold. Kelly pinched the tip of each rubber and pulled. She shook her head. Dread welled up inside me. Kelly spoke and Marcus answered, jerking a thumb at his pile of clothing. Kelly spoke again and Marcus walked to the pile, returning with multiple condoms in hand. Kelly held a hand out and Marcus dropped the foil packets into it and Kelly threw the condoms into the far corner of the room.

Marcus said something and they all looked at each other and turned to leave the room together. Kelly held hands with Marcus and Demar with Jamal walking behind. They all headed for the bathroom.

I ran around the corner of the house and saw them enter the master bath. Our shower is big, big enough for all four of them, and I watched for the next thirty minutes as she soaped each man in turn, sucking their cocks as she worked her way around the circle. Jamal got hard again first and moved behind her to fuck her again as she worked on Marcus and Demar. It mattered not at all to her that they were only semi-erect. She loved their black cocks anyway. It was a knife in my heart to see my best friends enjoying my wife like this.

Jamal reached under her hips and fished around with his black pole and then Kelly jumped and Jamal smiled. His hips moved forward as he sank into her. He began a slow easy thrusting as he held her by the waist. Soon he had a sensuous rhythm going and his balls swung back and forth. Before Jamal could climax Marcus pulled Kelly away and steered them all towards the bed. They laid Kelly in the middle and fell on her like lions.

I saw on her face that while she loved sex with black men, she loved sex with these black men more; the fact that they were friends of mine added so much to her excitement. She was behaving so inappropriately. The secret was out; Mike had a black-cock whore for a wife, and that thrilled her like nothing else. My scholarly wife had a secret inner whore.

My friends were naked in my bedroom with my wife. I watched their black cocks swing every time they moved. I saw their dicks rest on my bed, drape across her legs, lie across my pillow. It was maddening!

These guys were so comfortable. They took turns kissing her and touching her and offering their hard dicks. She sucked and licked them whenever they wished, without hesitation. They took turns between her legs or taking her from behind and now their black cocks were bare naked and dangerous. Demar lifted her hips and pushed his dick in as the other leaned back and watched. Everyone was so relaxed. All of them were unhurried.

After he came, Marcus took his place, rolling Kelly over so he and Jamal could feast on her big wobbly tits until he, too, ejaculated far up inside her. They had no way of knowing they shouldn't. Kelly should have known better.

They rested and talked, occasionally kissing and touching. I knew what hadn't happened yet but inevitably would.

The first time she tried to take all three at once it did not go well; their timing was bad and none of the guys knew exactly what to do. They tried again later with much greater success.

They showered again and returned to bed. Jamal used his cell to order pizza and I had to hide when it arrived. Marcus answered the door in a towel and Donny, our regular delivery guy, had a million questions on his face. Kelly, wearing a somewhat see-through nightie, came up behind Marcus with cash for a tip. Donny was stunned. Kelly dropped the money and bent over to get it, giving Donny a delightful view down the front of her lingerie before rising and handing him the cash. He left thunderstruck.

All three guys tried fucking her at the same time again and this time they were flawless. Marcus conquered her pussy as Demar fucked her ass and Jamal fucked her mouth. They were rough and she struggled but that just made them more aggressive. They fucked her little holes hard and long until one by one they climaxed inside her. She curled up with a grin.

I began to realize five hours would not be long enough. Each man took her whenever he wanted. They ate, talked, drank, fucked, sucked, showered again, and even napped briefly before starting it all over again. Kelly was so eager and willing to offer her pussy to any one of them I blushed hot and red with shame. Sometimes they fucked her hard and rough, sometimes tender and intimate, but each of them had her again and again. This was years and years of pent-up want unleashed in one night. I was devastated.

All three of the men walked around inside my house, nude, like they owned it. They sat on my chairs, drink from my glasses, and even looked out my windows. My gut told me this was the beginning of a new phase for all of us. No way would these guys just walk away after tonight and leave Kelly and me alone. They were so hungry for her and she for them I knew my original fears were correct; tonight changed everything. I could expect one or more of them at my house almost every night after work. Kelly would give them whatever they wanted, whenever they wanted it.

I could accept it or divorce her.

I knew instantly there was no chance I'd ever leave Kelly. She's my angel. I hurt now but there was a pretty good chance I'd come to embrace our new life. She may be eager to please them but she was equally eager to please me.

I sighed and looked down at my feet. I stood outside my own home like a thief in the night. Inside, my wife was being pounded into submission by three hot black studs. To punctuate the point, through the double pane glass I heard Kelly cry out in orgasm. I peeked inside and saw my wife on all fours, Jamal under her and buried in her pussy, Marcus behind her, buried in her ass, Demar standing in front, buried down her throat. Each of them was focused, intent on planting his seed, and my wife was crazy with desire from wanting it. As she came Marcus followed her and then Jamal after him. She needed a break so Demar stood there with a rock hard cock waiting for her.

I walked to the pub. My great plan lay in tatters. Kelly now had black cock available whenever she wanted it and my gut told me she'd want it a lot. I had underestimated their lust for my wife, too. These guys would circle her like vultures, ready to swoop on her any chance she gave them. I'd be sharing my wife for a long, long time.

I was threatened and afraid. I'm not going to lie. Kelly had a weakness, an obsession or a compulsion or a fetish, call it what you will, but my friends had her number and I knew they'd use her every time they could. Their desire trumped our friendship.

The worst part for me was my contribution to this mess. I loved watching her get fucked. I loved when men wanted her and I loved the way she loved cock. This situation felt unstable, almost volatile. Kelly could end up pregnant and not necessarily by me, and that freaked me out. That was outside my fantasy. The danger fueled my excitement and by the fact she had them throw away the condoms I'd provided; I knew it fueled Kelly's fantasy too. We had to be careful.

I returned to the house well after the appointed time and entered through the front door. All four were in our bed watching Game of Thrones on the big-screen. Marcus had his back against the headboard and Kelly sat between his legs, her back resting against his chest. Everyone was nude. Jamal had one leg tangled with hers and on the other side Demar had done the same thing. Kelly's legs were spread wide open. Her pussy was a well-fucked and sperm-injected mess. Marcus cupped one breast. All four faces turned when I stepped into the room.

Nobody spoke. Kelly stayed put. Marcus lowered his hand from her breast to her upper thigh, an inch from her pussy. Demar hit pause. Kelly turned to Marcus.

“I told you.” She turned back to me. “Baby, I'm sure you are feeling like an outsider right about now. Come kiss me.”

I wasn't going to pout so I walked around the side of the bed and kissed her when she leaned over.

“We all talked about it, Honey, and everything is out in the open. They know there was no hot friend. They know I love black men and crave black cock. They know you love to watch. We all agreed we'd find a way forward that respected everyone and left everyone feeling loved. Boys are so stupid sometimes. You are best friends. These guys don't want to hurt you and you know I don't want to either. Get undressed. Join us. It will be awkward at first but you'll see; soon it feels perfectly natural. Nothing else has changed, my love, just the number of my lovers.”

She smiled warmly and I have to admit the knot in my stomach loosened. I looked at the guys.

Kelly crawled over Jamal and closer to me. She slowly turned around until she faced away, her cum-smeared pussy aimed right at me.

“Fuck me, Baby. Fuck me. Add your sperm to theirs. Wouldn't that be hot? I think it would be. I love being a slut. Fuck me, husband, and mix your cum with my lover's.”

I hesitated. Kelly's face was now over Jamal's lap so she lowered her head and took his limp black cock into her mouth. Her pink tongue came out and licked a circle around the ridge. She teased the slit at the end with the tip. I felt my penis rising.

“Undress, Baby. Fuck me like one of the boys. I want you to. Make me your whore. Fuck me like you paid for me.”

I stripped. I was extremely self-conscious around these guys but I had so much stored sexual tension I was dying for release. All three of them gave me an encouraging nod or word. As my briefs came down my erection flipped up and slapped my belly. Kelly looked over her shoulder and saw it. She moaned.

I crawled up on the bed behind her and rubbed my head around her opening a few times. She was soaked with juice and semen. I pushed it in, hardly feeling her walls wrap around me, but it was enough. I started pounding her and the guys started cheering me on. Kelly surprised me when she came hard and that pushed me over the edge. With Demar smacking my ass on every pull back, I exploded inside my own woman and added my cum to theirs. I was one of them, or they were now part of us, but whichever it was I knew from this day forward, nothing would be the same. Kelly and I were entering a new phase in our life together and neither of us knew where we were headed.

Demar hit play and everyone yelled at him until he hit pause again. I rested there, on my back, staring up at the ceiling. My mind drifted back to the jungles of Cameroon; Kelly's first glimpse of black cock, the chief leading her away from me to his hut. I relaxed. Kelly and I had been through so much already. I knew I did not need to fear the future.
