Chapter 1

Suzan's Grill is a wonderful hole-in-the-wall burger joint on the edge of town. The gravel parking lot ends where the oak and redwood start. More than one car, the driver a little too buzzed on Suzy's dollar beers, has gone over that embankment and smashed against a tree. There's a joke around town about all the cars with a similar dent in the front grill.

My wife, Gwen, loves this restaurant. The food is tasty and cheap, the little jukeboxes at each table only cost a quarter, and the music selection is fantastic. Each time she sits down to power through a half-pound burger, she ties her long brown hair back in a ponytail and scoots close to the table. I always laugh. She loves her food.

We are both one year out from Evergreen College and we've put on a few pounds, me more than her. Doesn't stop us from coming to places like this though. We started dating as freshmen, moved in together as sophomores, and got married as seniors. Now, as graduates, we've put out feelers to find careers that match our degrees, but we're being choosy. We have time.

Her best friend, Tabitha, shared the booth with us. She laughed at Gwen as my new bride tossed the ponytail behind.

"You take food seriously, Gwendoline," Tabby joked. "You may want to inventory your fingers when you finish. You threw that hair behind you like a girl that's about to give a mean blowjob."

"Defend your wife, Carter," Gwen said, taking a big bite.

"Yeah," Tabitha said. "Defend your wife, Carter."

Thick as thieves, these two. I don't mind when Tabby comes around. She's cute, has great tits, and loves to wear tight or low-cut tops that show those babies off. Gwen approves. She knows I look sometimes but doesn't care. She looks sometimes too. My wife is always horny.

"Leave my wife alone," I said, half-heartedly. "Suzy's burgers are delicious, and maybe she does plan on giving a mean blowjob later."

"I always have plans for a mean blowjob later," she said, batting her lashes at me. "Just let me finish this meat and I'll get started on yours."

"Can I watch?" Tabitha said, stealing a fry from Gwen's plate, dipping in the ketchup, mashing it between perfect teeth. Her father's a dentist.

"If you sign up like everyone else," Gwen said.

Tabby pretended to pout.

"How's the website going, by the way?" she asked. "Since it was my idea."

"Great," Gwen said. "Not ready to quit my job at the hardware store yet, but we're getting there. We're figuring out what people want. I call myself Panther Pink. I always wear fuzzy pink cat ears on my Barbie Pink wig. The guys love it."

"How many subscribers do you have now?"

"One hundred and seventy-eight," I answered.

Gwen doesn't care about the business side. She leaves numbers and money to me. She loves all the comments though.

We'd moved in together to cut expenses but with costs rising so fast, we still came up short every month. I drive a delivery truck. Some days I work sixteen hours but some days I work three. I never knew until I saw my clipboard that day. The money isn't great.

Tabitha had suggested Gwen start a webcam. She's cute and while her body isn't perfect, she's a little chubby, she comes across as vulnerable and real. Some of those girls have amazing, perfect bodies but are so vain and aloof. Everyone is immediately drawn to Gwendoline. We'd started with a big company, page after page of couples doing the same, but decided to go freelance. We got to keep all the money instead of giving them a huge cut. It's taken us longer to build a customer base but the interactions are more intimate. We take requests. Guys loves to make me fuck her hard.

Tabby knows Gwen loves sex so it seemed a natural extension. She already had a drawer full of sex-toys when I met her and we quickly learned I can't keep up. No man could. So, half the time Gwen and I have sex on camera and the other half Gwen masturbates for her fans. She gets into it, doing what she's told, wearing sexy lingerie, pumping the vibrators in both holes, acting the total anonymous slut. We wear lace Zorro masks so no one will recognize us but Gwen's deep blue eyes still shine through.

We've only ever been with each other sexually—her parents were controlling—but we have an awesome fantasy life. She especially loves the idea of two or more men at the same time. I fuck her mouth while I use dildos in her pussy and ass and she goes wild, cumming hard. She can't use birth control so I wear a condom, which means I sometimes enjoy her mouth more than her pussy. I go bare in there and it feels fantastic.

"One seventy-eight is a lot," Tabby said. "That's a big jump. You making good money yet?"

"Some," Gwen answered. "Not nearly enough."

"I should get a cut," Tabitha teased. "Like a pimp. You guys are my bitches. When you start making big money, throw some my way."

We laughed.

"It was her idea," I said.

Tabitha has her own page, which is how she could suggest we try it. She knew Gwen would jump at the chance to be an exhibitionist, now that she was out from under her parents' control. She assured us lots of couples are making money this way and gave us a few passwords so we could see how it was done. Porn Stars are a dying breed. Amateur sex, real people with real passion, is the way of the future. There's a special intimacy about seeing inside a couple's apartment, inside their bedroom. Hot sex is important but a connection matters more.

I was hesitant to have sex on camera but the masks finally convinced me. I've watched our videos and would not have recognized us. It's exciting to know large numbers of people are watching Gwen suck my dick.

"I'm glad you brought up the website," Gwen said. "That's kind of why I invited you to join us for lunch."

I almost laughed. Tabby's face turned serious in an instant.

"We get requests all the time," my new wife continued. "One request we get often is adding another girl to the mix."

My wife left that comment hanging, waiting to see what Tabitha did with it.

"And?" Tabby asked.

"And," my wife said. "I thought of you. Carter is cool with it. There would be nothing between you and him, just me and you. I've never been with a girl and if I'm going to be, it needs to be my best friend."

Tabby stole another fry and leaned back in her seat.

"That's funny," she said, eyes sparkling. "I was going to invite you onto my page."

Chapter 2

Carter is cool with it, she'd said.

Yeah, I'm cool with it. I would not lay hands on Tabitha but Gwen would, and that was the next best thing. Additionally, I'd be there with them, holding the camera, adjusting the lights. Not only would I finally get to see Tabitha naked, I'd get to watch Gwen and Tabby fuck. I love my life. This would provide fantasy sex-fuel for years.

When the big day arrived, it was Tabitha who was nervous, not Gwen. I'd dimmed the light from our usual setting and held my breath as Gwen started kissing her friend. They began to undress each other and my dick slowly turned to stone. I kicked my pants off but even my boxer briefs were too tight so, with Gwen and Tabby's permission, I lost those too. My penis is at the absolute pinnacle of the bell curve. I am Mister Average, nice to meet you. But Gwen loves it and she can take the whole thing in her mouth, which feels fantastic, so I have no complaints, and neither does she.

I moved around them, stiff as steel, watching as they fucked, recording, passing along chat requests or handing over well-lubed dildos and vibrators, and shivering with erotic delight every time one of those ladies looked at my stiff cock. They wanted my dick. Truthfully, once they were kissing and sucking nipples and fingering soaked pussies, they wanted any cock. Mine was simply closest and ready to go. I'd promised Gwen I'd stay out of the sex and I did, but the way those hungry girls looked at my erection turned me way the fuck on. I confess I brought my hard penis close while filming, waving it inches from Gwen's face, inches from Tabitha's face. I often kept myself in their line-of-sight. My dick might be utterly average in both length and girth but those girls looked ravenous. Gwen almost cracked and invited me to join them but that meant I'd touch Tabby and she'd touch me and that was simply too far for Gwen. I respected that.

Gwen rolled Tabby onto her back and walked on her knees until her pussy hovered over her friend's face. I got close, zooming for the inner labia action. Tabby had been with other women before but you'd never know this was Gwen's first time. She was most often the aggressor. She took from Tabitha what she wanted and let me just mention that watching your wife orgasm while a hot girl eats her is amazing. The room smelled of sweet perfume and wet pussy. The sounds of their moaning and gasping tied me in knots. My balls ached with need just thirty minutes in. I should have jacked off before Tabby got here because Lord in Heaven, what I witnessed between them was crazy hot.

Gwen grabbed Tabitha's hair and forced her pussy into the girl's mouth. Tabby's tongue swirled like she was making salt water taffy, slapping Gwen's labia around before plunging into her cunt like a pink slug. I groaned involuntarily and that seemed to kick the women up a level, grinding and sucking until Gwen orgasmed again, a rarity for my wife. She usually builds to one huge climax for the night and then falls asleep like a guy.

After she came down she moved her ass higher, settling her sphincter over Tabby's mouth. Tabitha ate that ass like a burrito. Gwen felt like she needed to give as well as receive and flipped around to sixty-nine her friend until Tabitha orgasmed.

I could film this all night. The comments section blew up. Guys were telling the ladies what to do next and I picked the best suggestions to read out loud. My wife and her friend moved through the various positions with passion, playfully teasing each other. They looked so hot. My dick was so hard. A few comments mentioned the girls needed a dick in them but I stayed quiet about those. Even suggesting the idea would be out of line. Gwen had made her feelings clear. I broadcast as the girls feasted on each other, tasting everything, licking everywhere.

Eventually I handed Gwen a ten-inch dildo. It was one of her favorites, covered with veins and weighted at the base with realistic balls. The head had a perfect flare and the shaft thickened as you moved towards the root. I discovered if I held the camera right, I could eliminate the pretty hand holding the device and give the appearance of a genuine big cock fucking the women. The sight knocked the air out of me when it was Gwen's turn. I played with the framing of the shot, leaving Tabby out, making it look like some well-hung man fucked my wife. Based on the comments, the guys, and two girls, approved of my actions but I was unsure how I felt about creating that visual for our customers. We did not need that request. I stopped doing that and returned to the overall action.

Gwen did not orgasm again but Tabitha did many times. Gwen turned it into a game, forcing her friend to climax so many times Tabby eventually pushed my wife away. The crowd loved it.

After a couple hours, we wrapped shooting. The girls were exhausted. A hot shower for both, with a little more sex play, and then we headed out for dinner. I'd cut and edit later, using short clips to advertise and find new customers.

Chapter 3

Our client list continued to grow. Three weeks later we broke two-hundred subscribers. Tabitha had Gwen on her site too but I was not invited. That was a difficult night. Tabby's boyfriend films for her so I was nervous. Gwen probably saw him naked like Tabitha had seen me. I was anxious. Danny is handsome, as you'd expect for a babe like Tabitha. He's also fit, funny, and smart.

I am aware often more goes on behind the camera than in front of it. They were on screen for an hour but Gwen was away from me for six. You do the math. I know makeup takes time and choreographing the sex takes time and choosing which lingerie to wear takes time, but still: six hours? I know Gwen didn't cheat on me with Danny. She loves sex and he's kind of a stud but Gwen simply would not do that. Ever. I was more worried about the touchy-feely shenanigans, the naked dick swinging playful games. The fun stuff. The grab-ass stuff. Danny was probably naked the whole time and Gwen stared at his dick constantly. She loves dick.

When Gwen got home that night I was all over her. I'd seen Tabby use a lot of big toys on her and she admitted she was too tender and tired for sex, but I begged and she relented.

"How many orgasms did you have?" I asked.

She opened my zipper and fished out my penis.

"Just one," she said. "Towards the end. Didn't you watch us online?"

"I did. I thought maybe you had one off camera too."

"No. You know me: one big explosion. Tons of sex though."

She laughed at my worried expression.

"Don't worry, Baby, just me and Tabby. Danny is cute though. I'd fuck him. You know, if I wasn't already married to you."

"Thanks. Was Danny naked too?"

She slipped the head of my dick in her mouth and sucked a few seconds.

"Not at first," she said, holding my penis like a microphone. "He came home from the gym after I'd been there fifteen minutes or so. He chatted with me and Tabby while he stripped off sweaty clothes. He wore a jockstrap underneath. I'd never seen a man wear one. They look cool. Super masculine and manly and athletic. You should buy one and wear it around the apartment."

"I'm too chubby."

"Danny filled his like he smuggled a softball in there. The straps in back grabbed his bubble butt. The pouch was all lumpy and bulging. I stared and Tabby asked if I'd like to see his dick. She said his was gorgeous. You know how much I like dick so I said sure. He pulled the jockstrap aside and his cock flopped out."

"Sounds like he was big?"

"Yeah, I guess so. He was soft, obviously, just coming from the gym, but he looked long and thick. Anyway, I must have made a face because Tabby laughed at my expression. She grabbed a dildo and said: 'Danny looks like this when he's hard,' and then she pushed me over. She drove it into my pussy and then yelled at me, playfully, for fucking her man, calling me a bitch and a homewrecker. I was laughing too. That girl is crazy. We had fun."

Gwen slipped me into her mouth and slid her lips towards the base. Hot and wet lit my nerve endings like a Christmas tree. She pushed her lips to the root and then sucked, creating a vacuum that tugged on my balls from the inside. My load crawled forward.

I felt lightheaded and not just from her blowjob. Jealousy had seized me from the moment she told Danny to take his dick out. Is that something a wife is free to request? We watch porn together and she sees lots of penis there so what's the difference? If they'd touched I'd have a legitimate complaint but what's the harm in seeing him nude?

Gwen adjusted her throat and swallowed my last half-inch. I groaned and she chuckled. Her mouth was sealed around the base now. Every inch I possessed was resting on her tongue. My balls hung from her lips. The sensations were fantastic. Best of all, I knew when the moment arrived, my girl would swallow every drop that shot out of me, sucking ferociously the whole time. Her strict parents had done me a huge favor, cultivating in Gwen a hunger for sex she couldn't satisfy. It wasn't that she liked the taste of semen, which she says tastes like mildly salty milk, it's that she loves ingesting the essence of male. Her words, not mine. She feels powerful when she drains me, sexy and dominant. She loves turning me into a crippled vegetable. I'm useless after. Wiped out. She's the conqueror and I'm the vanquished. Best of all, according to her, she has a belly full of male extract, concentrated man juice. She'd swallow sperm five times a day if she could. I wish I could help her with that but I struggle. I'm good for about every other day.

Her mouth massaged my dick.

"Did you touch him?" I rasped.

She sucked harder.

"No," she said around a mouthful. "Not exactly."

My dick twitched. What did that mean?

"Did he touch you?"

"Sometimes, indirectly. He'd lean in to kiss Tabby and his warm cock would drape across my thigh or my breast. Once Tabby wanted to kiss his rippled stomach and his cock rested on my face."

My dick throbbed. She behaved herself, loyal and faithful, but his cock had touched her, close to mouth and pussy. I know her. I'm sure she wanted to fuck him in those moments. Her desire for him frightened me and, as usually happens, fear turned to anger. I held her head and lifted my ass, fucking her mouth. She moaned softly at my aggression and began playing with her pussy. Still turned on after the night she had? My girl was insatiable. I closed my eyes and savored her mouth for a minute and then wondered if Tabby and Danny were doing the same thing right now.

"Did Danny fuck Tabitha?" I asked. "Before you came home?"

Gwen groaned deeply.

"Yeah," she admitted. "I stayed to watch."

"How close were you?"

"These are funny questions," she said. "Just let me suck your dick."

"How close?"

"On the bed next to me. I stayed on the bed and he crawled between her legs, still sweaty from the gym. He smelled so manly. He fucked her while I kissed her and played with her tits. She came so hard she cried a little. It was beautiful."

My orgasm surprised me. I pictured the hot scene and my nuts contracted. The first spurt hit Gwen in the face but she quickly stuffed me in her mouth and sucked, stroking my shaft. I shot a big load.

Chapter 4

"Everyone loved your session with Tabitha," I announced, sitting at my computer and reading the site's analytics. "Word is spreading. We hit two hundred and fifty subscribers today."

Gwen clapped excitedly. She sat on our bed wearing a pair of my boxers and an old T-shirt. Cute girls look amazing in anything.

"The sign-ups are happening faster now," she said. "When we hit a thousand, I can give notice at the hardware store. Then we can have sex twice a day."

I laughed nervously.

"I still have a job, you know," I said.

She ignored me.

"What are people saying about me?" she asked. "Wait. Who was sexier? Who did they like better: me or Tabby?"

I scanned the comments from the show. Gwen fidgeted, impatient.

"You," I said. "About two-to-one. She's pretty, they say, and has a nice body, but these guys love you. They liked the girl on girl action but a lot want that to be a sometimes thing. Most like watching you take dick."

I kept reading. Several comments mentioned Gwen should fuck a guy with a bigger penis, a pornstar penis, writing about how hot it would be to see her, sweet and innocent Gwen, get royally fucked by a monster cock. I kept those comments to myself. One guy said Gwen would look better if she lost weight and I canceled and blocked that motherfucker. She does not need that kind of negativity. Many said I needed to lose the condoms. Reality did not belong in the middle of a fantasy, they said. I did mention those comments to Gwen.

"You'd need to pull out to ejaculate," she cautioned. "But you rarely have that much control, when the big moment arrives. The girls in my family are fertile so we can't risk even a little sperm in there. I'll get pregnant, I know it. We aren't ready for kids. My heart would break to abort a baby we made."

She was right about my lack of self-control. Gwen makes me cum so hard I often forget where I am.

"Maybe you could whip around and take my load in your mouth? I could pull out for that."

"Yum. Let's try it next time."

"Or I could slide up your ass? I love emptying my nuts in there."

Gwen was squirming more and not with impatience.

"Talking about this makes you horny," I stated.

"Yes!"

I stayed in my chair and pulled the front of my boxers under my balls, exposing my dick.

"Start sucking," I commanded.

Gwen was under my desk in a flash, bobbing away on my soft cock. I continued working on our website until she had me so hard I couldn't concentrate. She knew I was getting close. To finish me off, she wet a finger and slid it up my ass, rubbing my prostate. I spurt instantly, groaning like I'd been shot. She sucked my load out like a milkshake. I stumbled to the bed to collapse.

I drifted off. When I came back around, Gwen was reading through all the comments I'd left on the screen.

"These guys love me," she said. "They say such sweet things. Why don't you share all the sweet things they say?"

"I share the high points. Some of those guys sound like idiots."

"I don't care how bumbling their compliment is. I'm not dating them. If someone has something nice to say about me, I want to hear it."

"All right," I said. "From now on I'll tell you everything."

"Good," her eyes were bright, dancing along the lines of comments. "All this attention makes me hot. Am I honestly that attractive? I think I'm chubby. I hate my butt. If I'm feeling down on myself I just need to read the comments. What an ego boost."

"They love you. They think you're pretty but mostly they love how real you are, how vulnerable. Your awesome personality shines through."

She glanced at the screen and then me, at the screen again and then me.

"What?" I asked.

She looked at her toes, holding something back, unsure how to say it.

"Have you read all these?" she asked.

"Every one."

She fidgeted. She looked at me, looked at the monitor, looked at me.

"Just fucking say what you need to say," I blurted.

"I don't want to hurt your feelings!"

"Are you about to insult me?"

"No, not me. It's what they're saying."

"What are they saying?"

"That I need to fuck a bigger cock. That the sex would be hotter if your cock was bigger."

"Oh, those comments. They're always saying shit like that."

"A lot of them feel that way, Carter. The girls too. They tell us to make it happen. They love us as a couple but the sex would be more intense."

"Well, that's a problem, Gwen. I don't have a big dick and I'm not likely to grow one. I have an average, boring penis so that's what you get to work with. I'm not saying they're wrong. I get it. It would be hot and your fans would love it. But you married a man who is run-of-the-mill in that department."

She brought her feet onto the chair, looking adorable with her knees under her chin. She clasped her hands in front of her shins.

"Keep an open mind," she said.

I stared at her a long time.

"What are you saying?" I asked, voice low and strained. "Tell me exactly. There can be no confusion about this."

"Well," she said, matter-of-fact. "Maybe I should fuck a big dick."

"You're married to me."

"Yes. This would just be for our website. Gwen could never fuck another man but Panther Pink could. It's all for show."

"Except his dick is real. He'd put his dick in you."

"Wrapped tightly in a condom," she countered. "So really he'd never truly be inside me. His skin would never touch mine. Cover him in latex and you turn him into a glorified dildo. He'd never actually make physical contact with me."

"You're freaking me out, Gwen. No way will I ever go for this."

"Come on, Carter. This is our path to the next level. You want me to give up something to make it fair? Okay, how about this? We can invite another girl and you can join us. I won't get jealous, I swear. This is about us being successful, us doing whatever we must do to be successful. You're taking the other-guy idea personally and you shouldn't. It won't be personal to me."

I was picturing a threesome with Gwen and another girl and Gwen knew it. Damn her. She knows my buttons. Would it be worth it?

"Here's another guy that says the same thing," she continued. "He loves how we are in love but for pure sex, he'd love to see me getting fucked by some hung guy. You know I don't care about size but they do. A lot. We mustn't disappoint."

"No," I said again, resistance crumbling.

Gwen and Tabby at the same time would be amazing.

"Here's another guy," she went on. "I'll quote him: 'A cute girl like you needs to have her brains fucked out.' I think he raises a valid point. Another says he wants to see me 'Worship a big pole.' They aren't particularly eloquent but their message is clear."

"You're married to me," I repeated.

It sounded weak and hollow the moment I said it.

"This has nothing to do with that," she said. "We make our own rules, not the rules our parents gave us. We aren't trapped by tradition. We can do anything we want. To me, this is all about making more money. Simple. Straightforward. Try to think of the guy like a living dildo, one that has a man attached. I'd use both the same way. Just pretend I'm using the guy to masturbate, I'm using his penis to make more money. You can take the still shots and advertise our page. We'll draw in so many more people. This is easy money, Carter."

I studied her cute and innocent face. She was utterly sincere, calm and composed. She'd thought about this while I laid in a stupor.

Then it hit me.

"You already have someone in mind," I said. "Let me guess: Danny?"

"Maybe."

"He's the only guy we know that possesses the necessary attribute."

Her eyes flared slightly, a sure sign I was correct.

"He is super convenient," she said. "We know him. We could make arrangements and have him here tonight."

"No," I said, emphatically. "That we know him makes everything worse, not better. Anything we did with them would be forever awkward. Every birthday party, every barbecue, every time we went to the movies or the lake: anytime the four of us got together it would be a stress inducing nightmare. He would have had you. He will have fucked my wife. I'd never live that down. Every time he smiled at me I'd want to punch his face."

She was shaking her head.

"That we know him only makes the situation better," she said. "Try to see this from the woman's side, from my side. I know he's safe. He's cool and easy-going. He laughs a lot. He's happy. He's clean. He's in a relationship with and loves Tabby, so he won't form attachments to me and complicate things. He's perfect for what we want."

"You've thought about Daniel a lot."

She rolled her eyes.

"You mean the tall, good-looking stud with the great body? Yeah, I think about him sometimes. Every girl thinks about Danny."

My guts were twisting into knots.

"Carter, we're talking simple sex here. No emotions, no involvements, no intimacy. Just simple sex."

"There's no such thing as simple sex," I countered.

She tossed her hands in the air.

"Men are so dramatic about sex. Women have been having pragmatic sex for centuries. Listen, I already know Tabby would share him. She made that clear when I was over at her place. In fact, she suggested I her and Danny at the same time. She invited you, too. She wants a foursome on camera. My fans would love a foursome. Don't you think it would be hot?"

I gave her a hard look. She refused to give up the Danny idea.

"You'd finally be allowed to touch Tabitha," she said. "I've seen you look at her. I know you'd love that."

I was too quick to fall for that trap. Pause for even a microsecond to consider her new offer and my goose would be well and truly cooked. If Danny is a no, then Danny and Tabitha together must also be a no, or Gwen learns I want Tabby more than I hate the idea of her fucking Danny. No woman would ever let that go.

"No," I stated, instantly but unconvincingly.

Her coy smile was annoying. We stared at each other, neither willing to retreat. I admit I was picturing the foursome. Wild. Hot. But I stood my ground. Gwen slithered out of the chair to join me on the bed. She rested my penis in her hand, tugged gently.

"We wear masks, Carter," she said. "No one will know it's us except us. Tabitha and Danny are our best friends. This would be our little secret. What's so bad about that? It sounds playful and fun."

"I'll know that Danny fucked you," I said. "Worse, I'll be the guy holding the camera while Danny fucks you. Maybe I'm acting like a caveman. Maybe this is a guy thing and I'm being possessive. I don't care. Watching Danny fuck you sounds awful. I know I'd hate it. I'm not budging. Danny is a no."

She softly tugged on my dick again.

"All right," she conceded, giving in all at once. "Then find me another guy."

A loud gong sounded in my head. Had I just been played? I felt like I'd been played. She had no desire for Danny. She had no desire for him but knew I'd put my foot down and used that against me. I'd been outmaneuvered. She led with a feint and I'd risen to the bait.

"Wait," I stammered. "What?"

"My fans demand it," she said, waving vaguely at our computer across the room. "We've got to give them what they want. I want a thousand subscribers, Carter, the sooner the better. This seems like the best way to achieve that. Do you have a better idea?"

I was dumbfounded. How had I gotten myself into this? Her comments about masks made even more sense now. She'd preemptively destroyed that argument. Truly, she could fuck anyone and only she and I would know. With a little finesse, we could even hide our identities from the dude she fucked: a meeting place and a blindfold to get him to our apartment. It could be done. But, Goddamn, should it?

My stomach was tied in knots. I'd successfully defended my position and forced her to drop Danny, but opened the window for her to substitute someone else. I'd painted myself into a corner.

"Please?" she said, turning soft and pleading. "I hate working at that store for Old Man Riley. He leers at me and Sandy all day. He says inappropriate things to us. As if we'd ever, ugh. I don't care who you pick, Carter. Truly. He needs only that one attribute. We do it and then use pictures from the event to advertise our page. Me and that big dick will sell. My sweet, innocent baby-face and this young body, even out of shape like I am, will draw them to us. I know it."

She leaned down to kiss me softly, her eyes filled with love.

"Please understand it has nothing to do with the man," she continued "Whoever you pick. It's all about the sign-ups and that's it. Do you get that?"

"I do."

"Good. We've decided then."

"I guess we have."

What the fuck had I just agreed to?

She pushed my boxers off her hips and kicked them away, exposing her thin landing strip. She walked up the bed on her knees. She pushed me back and straddled my face, lowering her wet pussy to my mouth.

I knew exactly why she was already wet.

I ate. Of course I ate. I love eating pussy. I fucking feasted.

"What should Panther Pink wear for him?" she mumbled, feeding me her cunt.

Chapter 5

My quest began at the gym. I signed up for five dollars and an automatic deduction of nineteen dollars a month. I started on the treadmill but then realized two things: I did not need to lose any more weight, and I could see nothing here but other people on the treadmill. My criterion was specific. To find a guy for Gwen I needed to see the men of this gym naked.

Fine.

Swimming, then.

I bought goggles and fins. I was required to shower before using the heated pool and that put me in the corner of the locker room with all the showers, away from everyone else. Most of the men showered after their workout so I saw them nude. Guys like me, about to use the pool, showered with their trunks on. After a few days, I realized I could shower before I swam and check guys out then, and shower again after, naked like them, and check out a whole new batch of men.

I understand how gay that sounds but it wasn't about that. I forced myself to focus on the money. I was doing this for Gwen. I was doing this for us. Some couples make six-figures doing what we're doing. I wanted that.

Trust me when I say bodies come in all shapes and sizes. I never paid much attention but I was now and found myself astonished: Tall, short, fat, skinny. These labels do not come close to capturing all the variations out there. One constant I did notice: few men have big dicks. Porn makes it seem like they can be found everywhere, but it simply isn't true. Ninety percent of us are unimpressive.

I learned another rule: some guys are growers and some are showers. What I mean is some guys hang large but stay that size no matter what. Some guys start small but gain once they start to soap up, including one redhead dude who started with a mushroom cap and nothing else, but grew into six or seven healthy inches as he built a lather. He caught me glancing but didn't care. None of the men cared that I looked a little. I concluded most males like showing off their dick regardless of what they have.

After two weeks, I had one candidate. One. Disappointing, and Gwen was unhappy about my progress, but you get what you get.

One night I saw him at the snack bar and waited until he sat to approach him. I had no idea what to say, and my hands shook. I took the chair across from him and leaned in.

"Hi."

"Sup?" he replied.

Here was the moment of truth.

"You play racquetball?" I asked.

Total collapse. I chickened out. How the fuck do you ask a guy to fuck your wife? Hi, I've seen your dick and I want you to put it in my woman. On camera. The task seemed impossible. We chatted for a while. His name was Ricky. I admitted I'd joined the gym recently and did not know my way around. He said he'd help me out whenever he saw me. He had muscles and obviously lifted weights, so I doubted I'd ever see him again except in the showers.

I went home.

"What about a sex club downtown?" I asked Gwen that night.

"Ew," she said. "Are they clean? We couldn't wear our masks there. People would see us. Maybe people we know."

"Good point."

"What about something online?" she said. "There must be a way for horny people to find other horny people. I'll investigate that."

"Good. I'll keep checking the gym."

Three days later I was driving home alone and passed Couples, the only sex club in town. Daylight savings meant it was already dark outside so I parked at the back of the lot and approached the door.

"Single men fifty bucks," the huge bouncer said.

"I just want to look around," I said. "I won't be staying."

"Fifty bucks," he repeated.

Fine. If I find our guy here, it will be worth it. I tried to hand him money but he told me to go through the door.

"Pay the lady in the booth," he said.

I did. I think she was at least a hundred years old.

Inside the place changed. Outside, run down and seedy. Inside, opulent and classy, and obviously, incredibly clean. Things sparkled. I wandered around, watching people fuck here and there. Mostly people sat around and talked. In one open area, a girl that looked young enough to be in high school fucked five men at the same time. I stayed to watch that one for a while. Men stood around with their dicks out, slowly masturbating to the sight. I thought about joining them but was too nervous. My eyes traveled the circle and landed on this older man, heavy-set, balding, wire rim glasses, hairy. His hand slid up and down his length like he polished an elephant's trunk. He was long enough to flop down when his hand reached the base, thick enough his fingers barely met around the shaft. He was glued to the action. I watched him like I watched her. He was growing rigid and his cock was impressive. Gwen wouldn't like his age or his body but I'd found her the cock she wanted. I suspected her audience would love watching her fuck an older man. Demographics said her subscribers were mostly male, fifty or older. If I'm honest, part of me wanted to annoy her by picking this guy. She'd get the large penis she insisted on but the rest of the man didn't matter, right? Isn't that what you said, Gwen? Living dildo?

Childish, but at least I admit it.

I was stymied at the gym but in this place, I could walk up and ask. So, I did.

"Hi," I began, glancing at his half-hard cock.

The man was big.

"I don't do guys," he said.

I waved his comment away.

"Understood. I don't even want to know your name. I'm here for my wife."

That perked him up. He pulled his eyes away from the babe and looked at me. I jerked a chin at his oversized cock.

"My wife and I run a website," I said. "I fuck her on it and we make money. A lot of clients have request she fuck a dick bigger than my average one so I'm out looking. Interested?"

"What's your wife look like?" he asked, suspicious.

I lit my phone and showed him pictures of Gwen, masked, from our site. I started with the one piece and bikini shots but soon showed him the topless pictures. I flipped the page for a body shot and then again to show him her mouth on my dick.

"You're right," he said.

"About what?"

"Your dick is average."

He chuckled and after a heartbeat, I did too.

"Yes, well, yours is not," I said. "I think we could use you. Interested?"

"Will I be paid?"

"Yes," I said. "In hot young pussy. Get the fuck out of here. Look how cute she is."

He raised a hand.

"I wasn't entirely serious," he said. "But I had to try."

"Here's how it will work."

I explained the neutral meeting spot and the need for a blindfold. I explained the need for condoms. I described the masks we wore and he was free to wear one too, if he wished. I let him know there would be no dating, no kissing, no interactions between them, including social, except for the intercourse.

"Those are the rules," I concluded. "If you want to bang a hot young wife, you've got to follow them."

He lifted my hand and thumbed through more pictures of Gwen nude.

"All right," he said. "But I may not need a mask. I don't give a shit if someone recognizes me banging a hot babe like her. I hope someone does, especially my ex-wife. Let that bitch see the good time I'm having."

We shook hands. I sent him a text of the coffee shop near our apartment and a time two days from now. He would be our trial-run. If things worked with him, I'd find Gwen someone better looking and in better shape. If I freaked out and couldn't take it, I'd try to talk Gwen out of this plan. If Gwen freaked out and couldn't go through with the act, well, this old man at least got to see her naked.

I stayed to watch all five guys ejaculate. The girl had no interest in an orgasm for herself, she just loved getting men off. Nice. I left that place and called Gwen, explaining everything, informing her that in two days, she'd be fucking a big dick.

"That's exciting," she gushed. "Not for the sex, obviously, but the step forward on our financial path. I wish he was younger and in shape but your point about my fan base is valid. I'll give them a good show. Thanks for finding him, Baby. I know it must have been difficult for you, searching for a man to fuck me."

I admitted it was and we ended the call.

Reality sank in. In two days, Gwen would fuck someone else.

At least I was consoled by his unattractiveness. He felt like no threat at all. But there was more at stake than that. She's a horny little thing but I was the only man to ever have her. Mine was the only dick she'd ever known. We were about to throw that out the window. If everything went well, we'd throw it out the window many times.

Maybe that was for the best. We'd married young, both inexperienced. Too much value is placed on women's chastity. Maybe I should let her catch up.

The next two days were tense. Gwen wanted a lot of sex, which I happily provided, but I kept my orgasms to a minimum. I wanted my dick hungry on the big night.

The plan was I'd meet him and place the blindfold, then drive him around to confuse his sense of direction and lead him through the back gate into our complex. Gwen would be masked and ready by the time I ushered this guy into our room and removed his blindfold. On camera, he could wear a mask or not. That would be up to him.

He was assuming a lot of risk. I was asking him to blind himself and allow me, a stranger, to drive him someplace secret, all for the chance to fuck a cute girl. He would be nervous. He would be apprehensive. He would be on edge and that might affect his performance, given his age and physical condition. I wanted to reassure him we were legitimate right away. I wanted him to know this was real, he'd get the girl, right away. I needed him relaxed to give us a good show. The last thing we needed was impotency on the big night.

Back when we first started all this we'd covered or removed anything in our apartment that would identify us. We pinned sheets over bookcases and windows. We closed the blinds so no viewer could see the neighborhood outside. We scrambled our Internet address. We made sure nobody could learn who we are. Our guest would step into the bedroom and see nothing but a bed and a nude Panther Pink. There were so many ways this could all go wrong, starting with him being absent from the coffee shop. We'd be dead before we ever started.

I felt relief when I opened the door and saw him waiting, sipping an espresso. On the heels of that relief, I realized how strange it was to feel relief that the man who would soon fuck my wife had followed through. I waved and he did too and my heart softened. He was an old and lonely man sitting in a busy coffee shop. My heart went out to him. I was almost glad we were giving him this.

In that moment, I decided to stop thinking of what we were doing in such sexual terms. This wouldn't be hot sex. I was worried for nothing. I told myself to think of this as him advancing our financial health and that was all. I looked at his big belly and balding head and found I could easily remove the passion I feared from the encounter. He'd love it but all Gwen would feel was penetration. I sat and we talked. Soon we got in my car and he tied the blindfold.

Thirty minutes later I opened the bedroom door and showed him in. Gwen was already messaging the guys on chat, playing with her cat-ears. She had on her Barbie Pink wig. She wore Barbie Pink lingerie and a matching Barbie Pink lace mask. Her outfit followed the curves of her body, pushing her tits together and making them look fantastic. A slit at the crotch gave easy access to her pussy which was drenched already, I was certain. She continued typing without looking up and I signaled our new friend to strip. He had a hard time taking his eyes off my wife, mumbling what a hot little strumpet she was. He turned his back and began to remove clothing. I moved to Gwen and we kissed. A glance at the screen showed a much bigger crowd tonight. Gwen's eyes sparkled.

"Why don't you move to the bed?" I suggested. "I'll get the camera going. You can suck his dick to make him hard while he stands there."

"Okay."

Our friend continued to undress while Gwen got comfortable, darting glances at our guest. I started filming, moving up her body, broadcasting her plump ass to the world. I spread her cheeks a little to show everyone her gleaming pussy.

"Oh, yes, boys and girls," I taunted. "Panther Pink is wet and ready."

I filmed the lingerie wrapped tightly around her body, moving the camera higher.

"Turn over, Baby," I said. "Let the viewers see your tits."

She twisted her body to display her breasts, excited by all the eyes on her.

"I love that outfit," I said. "New?"

"Yes," she admitted. "I saved it for a special occasion."

"Big dicks are special occasions?"

She laughed and stuck her tongue at me. Her gaze swung over to our guest. He was almost naked. We watched him shed the last articles of clothing. He dropped his boxers on the stack and turned.

"Goddamn," I muttered.

"Wow," Gwen breathed, staring at his hanging penis. Then, she lifted her gaze. In a voice so low I barely heard her, she said: "Wait. Shit."

"I'd be worried too," I teased. "That's a lot of dick. I'm sure you'll love it."

I was playing to our audience but this well-lit bedroom made his cock look bigger than it had at the dimly lit sex club. The shaft hung in a gentle arc from his crotch to point at the ground. The head was a tapered helmet backed by a thick, smooth, pink shaft. He'd trimmed his body hair and generally cleaned himself up, including a shave for his balls.

"That's too big," Gwen muttered.

I took his arm to lead him beside the bed, his cock inches from my wife's face. She was frozen. I nudged him closer, close enough his cock brushed her lips. Her eyes began to roam the veiny log. I stifled a gasp.

"Open wide, Honey," I teased, lifting the camera. "Show your fans what you can do with a slab of beef like that."

He didn't wait for her. He grabbed a handful of hair to keep her from turning away and then mashed the head against her lips. Gwen opened her mouth, but to speak or to suck I couldn't tell. Something was off. I expected a certain awkwardness given what we were doing but she seemed more hesitant than that, almost like she was having second thoughts. His soft, thick cock folded her tongue back and forced her jaw open. His fat snake slithered into her mouth.

"That's good," he said. "You're very pretty."

There was no way he could tell for sure with that mask but I appreciated his thoughtfulness. He withdrew a few inches and rocked his hips forward again, stuffing her mouth with soft dick, bulging her cheeks.

Gwen began to respond, slower than usual but coming around. He held her head with both hands and fucked her face. I captured everything and broadcast it to the world. His balls, newly sheared, swung beneath her chin. He was growing, getting hard. Not fast but he was no longer young. He'd get there.

Gwen brought a hand to his swinging scrotum and massaged the sensitive orbs inside the sack, rolling his nuts on her palm. She took a breath and relaxed her throat and tried to slide as many inches as she could, which wasn't a lot. He helped, leaning over and forcing himself. Gwen gagged and I was about to warn him to back off but she waved me away and desperately tried to take more of this man's cock. He liked that. He reached down to smack her ass and she jumped, startled, and the distraction allowed another inch of cock to slip to the back of her mouth. She groaned at his little trick so he did it again, surprising her and pushing another inch in. Her throat bulged. He moved his hands from her head to her neck and pushed, forcing the head of his cock into her throat, impaling her. Spit drooled. A vein rose on her forehead. I worried for her safety but she seemed more engaged with every minute.

"You're a hot little minx," he joked.

Who the fuck says minx anymore?

He abruptly pulled all the way out, which left her gasping. His gleaming erection waved in the air. Envy hit me hard. Gwen locked eyes on it and grabbed his hips, pulling him forward. She was into it now. He chuckled like he knew she'd come around and slid into her eager mouth. He smacked her ass and pushed and fed her another inch or so.

Gwen groaned, growing more aroused every minute she spent with this man. His hips began to pump, fucking her mouth like a pussy. He grabbed handfuls of hair to hold her in place and fucked through her mouth to her throat. Gwen whimpered. He was rough but she liked it.

"Let's see how she really feels," I told our audience.

I slid a hand between her butt cheeks and found her pussy. I spread her labia with two fingers, discovering my abused wife was drenched for this guy. She choked and gagged but he didn't care. He knew, as some older men do, some women like it.

Gwen was breathing through her nose and sucking cock like a slut. His heavy penis was almost fully erect. He fucked her face a moment longer and then shoved her head away. She whined in frustration and reached for his dick. He pushed her shoulder, grabbed a leg, pulled an ankle, lifted a leg. In seconds, he'd spun her body so her pussy rested at the edge of the bed.

He dropped to a knee and planted his mouth over her soaked cunt, forcing his thick and wriggling tongue up her tunnel. She covered her face with both hands. He lapped at her, sucked her clit, turned her into quivering Jell-O. He pushed a finger in and then another, turning his hand to tease her

G-spot. He worked her sensitive nerves and fastened his mouth to her pussy again, his tongue swirling her clitoris. Gwen moaned constantly at his onslaught. I thought I ate her pussy well but this man had her tied in knots. He placed her legs on his shoulders, a strikingly intimate and vulnerable position for her, and dove into her dripping cunt.

In moments, her body clenched and she cried out. My jaw dropped open. An orgasm gripped her from toes to head. I recorded it all. He continued to eat, which sent her rocketing higher into the heavens, giving her maybe her most powerful orgasm ever.

I moved the camera to record her exquisite face in the throes of climax. She looked gorgeous. She gasped suddenly, eyes flying wide open. She stared directly into the camera and into my soul. Her expression of passion and pleasure held me mesmerized. She looked amazing. Her body began to rock as she rhythmically moved her hips against his punishing mouth. She tossed her head and moaned with feeling, gasping and whimpering. He extended her climax a long time.

I moved the camera away from her face to show her heaving tits, wrapped in pink lace. I moved lower, showing her lingerie-covered tummy. Her legs were still up, resting on his shoulders, or so I assumed, because when I swung the camera that way I saw our guest was standing now, holding the backs of her thighs against his chest and big belly. He kissed her sensitive skin all over, calves, heels, knees: anything he could reach. He kissed and licked and nibbled all over. Gwen was moaning with delight, flooded with pleasure. She grabbed her fat tits and mauled them, twisting her nipples. I swung the camera down and under, wanting a fresh shot of her wet pussy for our viewers, but instead saw something that turned me to stone.

His thick cock slipped in and out of her cunt!

He was fucking her!

She wasn't rocking her hips against his mouth. Her body rocked in time with his thrusts. His girthy cock shook her each time he shoved it in. He'd entered her while I was busy filming her face. His cock slipped a little deeper each time and I was beaming this sight around the world. My legs turned to rubber. My hands trembled.

"Pull out," I said, forcing my voice to sound calm. "Condom."

"I will," he growled.

"Don't stop," Gwen whimpered.

My whole body tensed. Before this moment only my cock had ever felt her from the inside. Now he enjoyed her snug grip, her smooth walls and slick pussy. That was my pussy! He was inside her. He was fucking her. Fucking her. My mind tumbled off a cliff. His huge and bare cock pumped her depths, forced her open, filled her. His unprotected cock was sliding against her slippery tightness, probing and pleasing and being pleased.

"Pull out," I repeated, knowing we needed to get that cock wrapped.

"Yeah," he grunted. "For sure."

He hugged her thighs and held tight, gaining speed until his cock was a piston. Gwen tossed her head, babbled incoherently. Her voice rose until she cried out again, almost a shriek. She was cumming again.

Again.

I raised a finger, prepared to be insistent, but he smirked at me.

"Wait," he said. "I got you. But she's got another in her. I can feel it."

He crawled onto our bed and leaned his body over hers, forcing her legs all the way back until her knees smashed her big tits. She helped by hugging her legs behind the knees. I saw his erection clearly now, a meaty club, a thick and gleaming pipe glittering with her pussy juice. He got his feet positioned and then hammered his hips against her butt, driving that big bare cock deep over and over. I learned what he meant by "She's got another in her," when Gwen sobbed loudly and writhed under him, moaning and gasping and climaxing yet again. Her sounds thrilled me to my core at the same time they chilled my heart. In less than an hour he'd learned to read her body better than me. He'd given her more orgasms than I ever had.

He unlocked her arms and spread her legs wide, resting his big belly on her. He leaned over to whisper something and Gwen nodded slowly, eyes filled with uncertainty and worry. All that concern quickly faded with the thrusting of his cock. She was enslaved. The only other cock she'd ever known had her hooked. She closed her eyes and parted her lips, breathing through her mouth, lost to the waves of pleasure crashing over her.

He lifted himself on elbows and knees, and slowed his thrusting, going deeper, deep enough the head must have reached her womb. They both savored the intense sensations of her tight pussy squeezing his meat.

"Don't stop," she murmured, which tonight were the only words she knew.

He shoved his hands under, cupping a butt cheek in each palm. He held her in place and allowed no retreat from his conquering shaft, feeding her cunt slow and smooth. Gwen almost sobbed, groaning as he gradually filled her before withdrawing. He gained speed, careful to avoid pushing too deep and hurting her, and Gwen hooked her heels under his ass, pulling him forward each time. She slipped fingers under lingerie and pulled, freeing her tits in his face. He eagerly sucked one and then the other. After a minute Gwen held her breath and her body tensed but she kept her mouth tightly closed. No sound came from her but I suspected she'd orgasmed again. This was insane. This was not her. He'd changed her, transformed her into some other woman.

His hips began to move faster. Gwen's expression changed from satisfied to excited to anticipation, eyebrows high. Would he try to rip another orgasm from my wife? Impossible. Part of me wanted to watch him try and fail. He filled his lungs and pursed his lips and his body hammered hers, pounding her into our mattress. Gwen made a constant stream of sex sounds, moaning and groaning and gasping at the things he made her feel. She grabbed his shoulders and held on tight, eyes narrowing.

He pumped twice, hard, slamming his hips against hers, and then shouted something garbled. He pushed his dick deep and shouted again, then pumped several times and pushed deep once more, bellowing like an ox.

My brain did not catch on to what was happening until it was far too late. I was trying to do a good job, trying to broadcast a great show. Gwen's orgasms had rattled me but that was no excuse. I misread the signs.

I missed that he was ejaculating inside her.

Fuck!

All the air left my lungs. My hands shook but I kept the camera steady. I considered pulling him off her, punching his face, kicking him in the balls. Instead, I kept filming, broadcasting the insemination of my wife to the world. His body jerked and convulsed, wracked by waves of excruciating pleasure each time his big cock shot more juice into her. Again and again he shuddered and spit.

He held himself over her as the last sperm drained from his big balls and then he pulled out and rocked back on his heels between her open legs, displaying that gooey phallus and exposing her stretched and flooded hole. She turned her head away, looking at the bedroom wall, covering her face with one hand and covering her brimming pussy with the other. I aimed the camera at her leaking pussy and left it there.

"What the fuck, dude?" I muttered. "You were supposed to use a condom. We agreed you'd wear a condom. You said you would."

He made a confused face.

"That's what I thought too," he said. "But then you told me to pull out so I thought I was supposed to keep going and pull out at the last minute. I meant to, but then she leg-locked me so tight, preventing my withdrawal. She kept me in there and told me to keep going. I thought that's what you guys wanted. It seemed like you'd both changed your minds. I was glad because I wanted to cum in her."

"It's not your fault," Gwen muttered, staring at the wall. "But you should go."

"Sorry, guys, if I misunderstood. We'll get it right next time." He gestured at our computer. "Hell of a show though, right?"

The comments column was on fire. People were flooding us with praise, freaking out over the hottest show they'd ever seen. I sat on the bed and watched him dress. Gwen did not move.

"Once he's blindfolded," I muttered, "I'll take him to the coffee shop and come back. You okay?"

Gwen reached a hand back to me and I kissed her fingers.

"I'm okay," she murmured. "Hurry back. I need you here."

Our guest finished dressing and we enjoyed a silent ride back to the coffee shop. I was furious. I dropped him by his car and he said he'd wait for our call and wished me good night.

On the drive home I was a mess inside, tumultuous emotions wrestling with each other. Gwen had urged him to keep going. I did say pull out, that was true, but so we could slap a condom on him. I understood his confusion but wondered if that was just a convenient cover for what he wanted anyway. My wife sure gave him the impression she wanted his load. She'd trapped him in there. I suspected he'd whispered he was close and she'd hook her legs behind him, lost in the moment from all those orgasms.

I'd driven another mile when a new reality punched me in the gut, knocking the wind from my lungs. She carried his sperm in her! Right now, as I steered this car, Gwen was home in our bed full of a stranger's sperm. That truth ate a hole in my stomach. I stepped on the gas, hurried home and entered our bedroom. I approached the bed. Gwen heard and turned her head.

"Is he gone?" she asked, trying to see around me.

"Yeah."

"Holy fuck, Carter!" she gasped, grabbing my wrist. "That was Riley!"

I froze.

"Who's Riley?"

"My boss!" she yelled. "Old Man Riley? The creepy guy that hits on me and Sandy all day every day? Where did you find him? Goddamn it! I can't believe I fucked that guy. Yuck!"

"Oh, shit," I exhaled. "I'm sorry, Baby. I'd never met the man. I had no idea what he looked like. Why did you go through with it?"

She gawked at me like I was stupid.

"I had to! He was in our bedroom! I couldn't throw a fit. I couldn't speak or he'd recognize my voice. I couldn't leave the bed or he'd get a good look at me. I couldn't do anything that would risk him identifying me. I had to take it. I had to go through with it."

Now was not the time to mention all her orgasms. She can say yuck but she didn't act yuck. Her body didn't respond yuck. She needed a reminder about his semen in her but now was not the time. We would need to act soon, though. I crawled on the bed and hugged her and she welcomed me. She squeezed me tight. I thought she might start crying but she just held me. I held her too. After a while she moved around, getting more comfortable, maneuvering her face into my chest and tangling her legs with mine.

I felt his warm cum leak from her cunt onto my thigh.

I saw the computer monitor over her shoulder and the comments column racing by. The guys were going nuts.

"The comments are pouring in," I said.

"Go read a few," she whispered, worried. "Tell me what they're saying. Did we make a huge mistake?"

I slipped free and leaned over the desk. I read silently for a minute.

"One guy said we went too far. One girl called Riley gross. Everyone else raved, Baby. They loved it. They loved you. They're calling you the sexiest woman they've ever seen. Two of them praised me for being brave."

She held up her arms, smiling again, welcoming my return to bed. I crawled in and gathered her to me. Her big squishy tits felt great against my chest and my penis swelled a bit.

I don't know if she was still horny from the sex or the positive comments got to her or if she just needed reassurance of my love, but when she felt my dick move she slithered her body around and positioned the head at her entrance. Her hot breath was in my face. She lifted over me a little and we kissed. I felt her stiff nipples graze my chest hair. The kiss turned passionate and she groaned with need. Her hips tilted and the tip of my cock parted her slippery labia. She exhaled.

She was hot and turned on and ready to fuck again. I was unsure why but at that moment I didn't care. I pushed her hips down, forcing my hard dick part way into her slippery tunnel. The heat from her walls was astounding. She was a furnace. My cock glided through the sperm he'd left in her, lubricated by another man's seed. It was so wrong, so taboo. My heart broke to feel him in there. Her womb was her most intimate place, reserved exclusively for her husband. There was a moment coming, a moment when we decided the time was right to have children. I would no longer need the condoms. I would ejaculate in her for the first time. I was supposed to have been the only man to ever fill her with seed. I was supposed to have been the only man to ever share that with her.

That dream was gone forever. His seed swam freely.

I groaned in anguish but my traitorous penis expanded, fueled by my torment. I was torn up inside. How was I even erect? Maybe it was more about reclaiming what was mine than sexual arousal.

I lifted my pelvis and my dick sank all the way in. She was a little too wet, a little too slick, but the heat drove me crazy. I began fucking her strong and smooth, gliding through his ocean of ejaculate. The longer I fucked her, the nastier I felt and the sluttier she appeared to me. Instead of making her less desirable, it turned me on. Gwen too. My wife groaned, a complicated sound carrying deep arousal for my dick, but also an excitement for the bad things she'd done. She'd taken only her second cock ever. That was a huge deal. In a way, she'd left youth and naivety behind. Her experience with men had doubled. She hated that it had been Riley but forgetting that complication left her with a wicked afterglow. She'd fucked someone else. Her sex history now included a man other than me.

"What else did they say?" she rasped. "Tell me more."

"They love your thickness," I said. "They love how genuine you are. Most of all, they love how much you love to fuck. They wish their wives and girlfriends were more like you. They envy me."

"Go on," she said, riding faster.

"They asked if your orgasms were real and other viewers, including some women, assured them they were. Everybody wants to fuck you, Gwen. You made dicks hard and pussies wet all around the Earth tonight."

"They want to fuck me?"

"Desperately. Everyone said so."

She gasped and ground her hips down on mine. I shoved my dick as deep as I could get it, trying to reach her womb, trying to reclaim the pussy that had belonged to me, but for the moment belonged to him. Gwen understood what I attempted. She wanted the same. She ground her hips on mine and worked to get me as deep as possible. We failed. I reached far up inside her, deep, but not Riley deep. Riley had filled her top to bottom, side to side, front to back. Riley had stuffed my wife with dick.

Gwen closed her eyes, head tipped back, delicious tits thrust forward. She whined and squirmed and I wondered if she attempted to recapture the feeling of being packed with thick cock. His semen oozed around my shaft and hung from my balls. Gwen began fucking me, dragging her pussy up and down my length, polishing me with his grease.

"What will—" I stammered. "What will you do Monday, at the store, when you see him again?"

Gwen groaned.

"You know but he doesn't," I said. "I'm sure you will see him differently. Will his flirting get to you now?"

She circled her hips around my shaft. Her eyes were still closed. I had no idea what she was thinking.

"He's disgusting," she muttered.

"Fat and old," I said.

"His belly crushed me into the bed."

I grabbed her tits and pulled them down to my waiting mouth.

"Yet, he made you orgasm," I said. "A lot."

She groaned again. I sucked nipples and impulsively slapped her breast, stinging hard. She gasped. I pinched her nipple and she whimpered.

"Did it make you mad?" she taunted. "That old man fucking me?"

A surge of blood expanded my penis.

"Were you furious?" she asked, teasing. "Was it hard to record him fucking me? Fucking your wife? Making your wife cum so many times? You broadcast what he did to everyone. Everyone. People all around the world saw what he did to me. They all know."

A bomb went off inside me. This girl played with fire. I slapped her other breast and she gasped, then growled, then pushed her pussy all the way down my length and circled her hips.

"Will you control yourself at work?" I asked, fishing, trying to taunt back. "When he hits on you, not knowing he's already fucked you, will you take him up on it? Will you tell Sandy about how you sucked his big cock?"

She dropped onto my chest, panting, her hips rising and falling fast as she fucked herself on my dick.

"Will you find a way to play with that big cock at work?" I goaded. "Maybe suck him off in the stock room? Maybe let him bend you over?"

"Ohhhh myyy God!" she moaned.

What the fuck was I doing? I was talking crazy, hitting back at her, saying whatever popped into my head. I think I was angry, angry and jealous, and provoking her with this shit was a coward's way to make her deny she'd ever touch him again. But that's not what happened. That's not what I triggered. I triggered arousal. I reminded her of the sex she'd just had and how hot she'd been, how many times he made her orgasm. I'm an idiot.

I felt her pussy flutter around my inches and for an instant I did not understand. I'd never felt her do that before. Then it hit me: my wife was cumming again! Not crazy hard like the orgasms Riley tore out of her, but still intense and pleasurable. I guessed the thought of him at work hadn't occurred to her and I wondered if I'd made a mistake planting ideas in her head.

She came down from her peak and I felt my climax build. I held her ass and thrust up into her. She realized what I did and squawked once and whipped her pussy off my dick, spinning to take me in her hand.

"I want to cum inside you," I whined.

"We can't do that," she said. "No birth control."

"He did!" I yelled, frustrated. "Why not me?"

"He was an accident," she said. "We got carried away, lost in the heat of the moment. We know better now. We can't take that risk. I would never abort a baby I made with you. Never. We'd make everything twice as bad, twice as wrong if you came inside me too. Just let me suck you off. You love my blowjobs."

She swallowed my dick to the root. I tried to protest but holy shit, her mouth felt good. I was close anyway so I let her suck my load out of me. I hated that he was in her cunt and I was merely down her throat. That felt wrong. But I understood her point. I blasted away and she gobbled me up.

Chapter 6

Suzan's Grill was packed. We'd snagged a booth near the front door and waited for Tabby and Danny. Yesterday Tabitha had called Gwen and screamed that she and Danny had watched our show. As an unspoken rule, we watch each other only rarely, so bad luck for us. She said we had to get together and talk about what we'd done so Gwen suggested, big surprise, Suzan's Grill.

Our friends entered and slid into our booth.

"That was the hottest thing I've ever seen," Tabby said, before her butt even touched the bench. "You guys are crazy." Her voice dropped low. "How were you okay with all that, Carter? Didn't it just kill you to see him fuck her? And why did you guys pick an old man with a dad-bod? Gwen, you can have any stud you want."

"We got requests for me with an older man," Gwen lied. "That guy matched the demographics of our subscribers. Carter picked him."

Tabitha turned to me.

"Was it hard to watch?" she asked. "Tell the truth."

"A little," I admitted. "But he was out of shape and much older, so I never felt threatened. I realized he's not someone I need to worry about. It was cool, actually, once we got going and Gwen got into it. Like, sexy."

"I get that," Danny said, lifting a fist for me to bump. "I could watch someone fuck Tabby, provided she was into it. It would be like watching porn but you know the girl. The hottest porn ever."

"You never told me that," she said, shocked.

"It's never come up. We should try it, Babe. Do what they did. Invite some guy. Invite some girl."

I bumped Danny's fist. Tabitha laughed.

"Now I get it," she said. "This is a way for you to bang a new hot chick. It has nothing to do with catering to customer requests or watching me. You want new pussy."

"Maybe," he chuckled. "But you'd get new dick, so who cares? It ain't love. It's sex. It's purely physical. Nobody can touch our love."

"I told Carter the same thing," Gwen said, turning to me. "There's a big difference between fucking and making love. That old man meant nothing to me. I used him for his penis."

"Will you do it again?" Tabby asked.

"If that's what the people want," my wife answered. "Carter is still analyzing feedback."

Before tonight, Gwen and I had spoken little about what happened. She was obviously afraid to bring it up and any mention I made met with curt answers. She'd committed some grievous sins and knew it. She counted on my forgiveness and understanding. She was eager to put the whole episode behind us. This was the first time she'd admitted she'd do it again.

Tabby asked Gwen where she got her new shoes and just like that, the girls were off discussing fashion. I asked Danny if he caught the Seahawks game and we were off discussing football. After an hour, I excused myself to go pee.

"Good idea," Danny said, joining me. "Too many beers."

We crossed the restaurant and I noted how many women looked at him. In the restroom, we stood at wall urinals and he took out his large penis and began to urinate. I glanced down. I couldn't help it. The thing's a log and he held it in his hand like a rifle forestock.

"It looked like that guy came inside Gwen," he said, out of the blue. "Is that true? Or was that staged? Tabby and I couldn't tell for sure."

Yes, they could.

My mouth was dry. I cleared my throat. What a humiliating confession.

"Yeah," I said. "He did. He wasn't supposed to. We had condoms. But there was some miscommunication and he thought it was okay. He thought we'd changed our minds. Made his night, I'm sure. Probably made his month."

"No doubt. Gwen is sexy and cute. I'd fuck her. I bet that man has never shot his load inside a cute girl before. Not unless he paid her first."

We both laughed at his excellent joke. Ha ha. I hated reliving Old Man Riley pumping Gwen full, but I especially hated discussing it with Danny. He'd floated the suggestion so smoothly: He'd fuck Gwen, if we wanted him to.

Thanks.

We finished and washed our hands and then returned to the booth. Gwen and Tabitha were just finishing a whispered secret and stopped talking when they saw us.

"Plots and schemes," Danny said, laughing. "Chicks."

"Girl talk," Tabby countered.

I knew better than to try and drag out what they'd said so I let it go.

Chapter 7

Gwen came home from work Monday hornier than I'd ever seen her. She'd watched Riley closely, wondering if the old man would put two and two together and realize who he'd banged. He never did. He went right back to flirting with Sandy and Gwen, in a great mood, oblivious of his own good fortune.

"I stared at him every time he turned his back," my wife admitted. "Never in a million years would I have guessed that geezer carried a cannon like that in his pants. I see him differently now. He is not the same man he was to me. Sandy caught me looking. I panicked and mumbled that Riley's had a big bulge. She asked if I thought he had a big one. I said I thought so and she laughed and said she'd help me spy and report back. Now we have this shared secret mission to find out, but I already know."

Gwen still wore her name tag. She took the TV remote from my hand and hit pause and knelt between my knees and freed my dick, sucking me while removing her bra from under her smock. I moved my hand to play with her big tits. Once she had me hard she sat on my lap facing me, reached under her skirt to pull her panties aside, and settled her steaming pussy around my erection.

"Condom?" I asked.

"No time," she giggled. "Make me cum and I'll get you off after."

"Who says romance is dead?"

"Shut up," she laughed, lifting her hips.

She loves this position because she can rub her clit on my pubic bone. There was none of the usual interactions we have, no teasing or taunting or expressions of love. Gwen was horny. Gwen wanted dick.

I wondered why. She spent all day with the man that fucked her stupid less than thirty-six hours ago. He's nothing to look at but you know girls, they usually involve emotions with sex. If a man does to them what Riley did to her, they often form a connection. It's inevitable. I'd told her there was no such thing as simple sex. I should have added: "For women." Simple sex for men is easy.

I let her use my dick to get off. She rode me hard, eyes closed and a million miles away. My feelings got hurt.

"Are you fucking me right now?" I asked. "Or Old Man Riley?"

"Don't pout," she protested. "You know that was hot. I'm picturing the passion, not the man."

"You're picturing his big cock in you."

"So?"

"You called him disgusting."

"He is," she said. "Right now I'm just thinking about the sex. I'd fuck him again if he was here. We wouldn't even need to be online. I'd fuck that old man just for fun. He knows how to use that big dick."

"You like big dicks now?"

"I like his. I love his."

She was so sure he posed no threat to us or our marriage, she felt she could speak of him with brutal honesty. She reasoned I needed no protecting from her blunt language because he was no danger. I told myself to relax.

"It's super sweet that you're jealous," she mumbled, grinding. "I like it. You're afraid that codger will steal your wife. He won't, Baby, but it's so sweet you worry. Makes me feel like a prize. Makes me feel like you want me."

"I do want you."

"I can feel how much you want me," she said, forcing herself all the way down, driving my meat-spike up between her hips.

"I can never visit you at the store," I said. "Riley can never see us together. He knows my face. If he sees me with you he'll instantly make the connection."

"I guess I'm going to the company Christmas party alone," she chuckled. "All the stores in the chain are having one big party. Too bad for you. That's what you get for bringing my boss home to me."

"I had no idea he was your boss," I whined.

My words didn't matter. Gwen was grinding again, lost to the world, enjoying dick the way she always does.

"When is your Christmas party?" I asked.

"Two weeks. Now shut up and let me fuck you."

I did as commanded. I worried about Gwen alone at that party for a few days but as time passed, I forgot about it.

Chapter 8

"Tonight?" I asked, shocked.

"Yes," she said, laughing. "I knew you'd do this. I told you three times over the last two weeks, yet you're surprised anyway."

"How are you getting there?"

"Sandy is driving her truck."

"She's bringing you home too?"

"Yeah. We said we'd be each other's dates. She broke up with Rob."

"When?" I asked. "What time should I expect you home?"

"Don't stay awake, Baby. I have no way of knowing right now. It might be a dud. It might be a lot of fun."

"Where is it being held?"

"They tried to book someplace nice, like the Howard Johnsons, but those people wanted too much money. The hardware chain owns a warehouse out on Highway Three, just before the Hoodspout turn-of, so we're having it there. We can play the music loud and drink and no one will bother us."

She lit the bathroom light. A little black dress hung on the towel rack.

"That's what you're wearing?" I asked, a little surprised.

"Yes."

"Pretty sexy for a work sponsored Christmas party."

"I love it when you're jealous," she giggled. "Relax. Sandy's wearing something similar. We want to be the cutest girls there. Most of the women that work for this company are frumpy. We'll get all the attention."

She started to brush her teeth.

"You'll have Old Man Riley all over you. Both of you."

She spat frothy paste.

"We sure will," she chuckled. "Sandy and I have been toying with the man. We used to tell him to keep his creepy comments to himself but I told Sandy we should turn it around on him. Now we flirt and have fun with it. It's double fun for me because I know the truth and Sandy doesn't. I toy with them both. It's harmless fun and makes a boring day go by faster."

She opened her robe and I saw the black lace bra and panties she'd chosen: hint of nipples, hint of landing strip. The see-through mesh made everything sexier.

"I thought you were going to shower," I said.

"I already did. Before you got home."

She shrugged her robe off and hung it on the hook by the door. She knew my eyes devoured every inch of her. A coy smile played with her lips. She moved slowly and gracefully, allowing me to drink her in. It wasn't a date, but it felt like I was watching her get ready for a date. Riley would love her dress. Every man there would love her dress. She adjusted a bra strap, lifting her heavy melon, and then plucked the small dress from the hanger. She stepped in, slipped her arms down the long sleeves, and turned her back to me.

"Do me?" she asked.

Riley was right: she was a minx.

"Pardon?"

"Pull my zipper up for me please?"

I pinched the bottom and smoothly drew the tab up her back.

"Are you losing weight?" I asked.

"Yes," she said. "Thank you for noticing. I started watching what I eat several weeks ago, since I'm on camera now. I watched a few of our older episodes and thought I looked fat too many times. I might join a gym but for now dieting seems to be enough."

She faced the mirror to do her makeup. I watched, noting the care that went into how good she looked. She was trying to look her best, successfully, but for others, not me. Jealousy flared again. Since we started the webcam thing her confidence has grown. She would never have worn a dress like that before. I was happy she felt better about herself but wariness and watchfulness now floated around in my brain like ghosts. Weird that even after watching her fuck another man right in front of me I could still worry. What did I have left to fear?

Mascara, eyeliner, lipstick, perfume: she looked and smelled great. She scooped a hand inside her dress to lift each tit and make them more prominent, left, then right. She plucked at the fabric around her waist to draw her hem up a little, making her dress even shorter.

"That's a lot of leg you're showing," I said.

She giggled and leaned to kiss me on the cheek.

"Don't jerk off while I'm out," she said. "Sandy's driving so I'm drinking, and I'll be horny when I get home. Can I wake you to fuck?"

"The answer is always yes," I said. I stared at her in the mirror. She looked hot. "You look incredible."

That melted her. Her body kind of sagged a bit and she grabbed my face and kissed my lips.

"Thank you, Baby," she said. "I always worry I'm too fat."

I walked her out to the kitchen where she grabbed her purse. She checked the contents and added her cell phone. I heard the rumble of an engine outside.

"That's Sandy," she said. "Don't walk me out. I told her you couldn't come to the party because you were sick."

She kissed my cheek and left.

I wandered to our bathroom to smell the perfume lingering in the air. She was out there, out in the world, looking fantastic and sexy, and I was home, waiting. Jealousy crept up, snickering at me. My penis twitched. How had she known I'd want to jack off?

I thought about waiting an hour or so and driving out to spy on her. I knew that warehouse. With all the trees and brush around, sneaking in for a view would be easy. The place had big rolling metal doors all the way around with an office in front. I see it from the highway every time I drive by. But the risk versus reward was too great. Riley could not be allowed to recognize Gwen. I'd put us in danger to see her walk around with a drink in her hand while men ogled her. For what? What did that gain me? An easing of the angst that now twisted my guts? Yup. Not much of a trade.

"Let's do something positive instead," I said out loud.

I changed into gym clothes and headed out. Exercise would do me good.

The gym parking lot was almost empty and the gym was too. Ricky was there, lifting, and I joined him for a while although I can't lift much. He was helpful, showing me which machines did what and how to hold my body in the correct positions. I'd been doing everything wrong.

After, we hit the showers. The stalls are tile and three-sided, leaving an open-face. I was across from him so every time he wasn't looking, I looked. I had singled this man out to fuck my wife and that was still on the table. His soft dick dangled and swayed, flipping suds as he lathered. Did I still want him to fuck Gwen? Riley was no threat. Ricky was a big one. I watched him shower and the jealousy I'd left at home arrived here. That dick would be impressive when erect. Gwen would love how hot and handsome he was. I considered the reaction Riley had gotten from her and shuddered: she'd find Rick devastating. I'd learned through casual conversation that Ricky was recently single and available. Did I truly want to introduce this guy to my wife?

Danny was looking better and better.

Danny loved Tabitha and Gwen loved Tabitha and Tabitha loved them both, so no confused feelings would grow in that soil. The very fact he was our friend insulated us from further complications. I still hated the idea. I still imagined sitting in the booth at Suzan's, Gwen next to me, Danny and Tabby across the table, Dan smirking because he'd fucked both women and I had not.

I was a confused and tangled mess. Selecting a man for Gwen to fuck sucked.

Rick squirted a glob of shampoo on his palm and began a lather, eyes closed. I set aside any gay fears. The gym was empty so I could take my time and examine the man, allow my imagination to roam while looking at his athletic body and dangling cock. I truly pictured Gwen in bed with him. One question burned in my brain: could I go through with it again?

Ricky leaned backward to rinse his hair. Sudsy lather flowed down his pecs and over his rippled abs, running in a stream off his long thick cock. I realized I was looking at him through Gwen's eyes and chuckled. Yeah, my wife would love this guy.

"Hey, Rick," I said. "You want to come over for a beer? I recorded the Mariner's game. My wife's not home until much later."

He shook the water off his head like a dog.

"Heck yes," he said.

"Cool. I'll text you our address. I'm finished and ready to go."

With his head under the water, he gave me a thumbs-up. My legs felt weak. I'd taken the first step towards putting Gwen and this guy together and the adrenaline running through my veins was intense. I left the shower, dried, dressed, and drove home. I sent Ricky our address. Thirty minutes later he texted he was on his way.

He arrived and we took seats in the living room, talking sports and watching the game. I kept the beers flowing. Conversation wandered into his dating life, which he said sucked, and came back around to career and life. I liked him. He was honest and decent. He asked what my wife was out doing and I explained.

"She'll come home buzzed," I said. "Her friend, Sandy, is driving."

The game went extra innings but still no Gwen. We'd had a few too many and I suggested he crash on our couch, which he accepted, thanking me. I produced sheets and blankets and a pillow and told him goodnight, deciding to wait for Gwen in our bed. She'd told me to go to sleep but there was no way that was happening. I was strung out waiting for her.

I was surfing the Internet on my phone when I heard the rumble of a truck engine. Female voices said goodnight and then high heels clacked through the parking lot to our door. Gwen entered quietly. I waited in bed. She would be horny for sure. I kicked off my boxers and positioned myself so one leg, and my dick, rested just outside the comforter. She'd walk in using her phone for light like she always does and see my exposed dick. No way would she resist the urge. I know that girl. I giggled a little and waited.

I waited some more.

I waited longer.

When too much time had passed, I pulled my boxers on and went looking for her. As I reached for the bedroom doorknob, I heard Ricky shout from out in the living room. I stepped into the room and hit the light: Ricky was on the couch on his side. Gwen, naked, her little black dress a puddle on the floor, knelt beside the couch. She had Rick's thick cock in her mouth. The bright light made both blink rapidly. Gwen looked up at Ricky, confused, and then spit his cock out.

"What the fuck?" she yelled. "Who are you?"

I started laughing. Rick looked perplexed, wondering who the cute girl was, too shocked to stuff his penis back in his boxers. Gwen looked confused and annoyed.

"Why are you sleeping on my couch?" my wife added, rising on unsteady legs.

She made no move to cover her nakedness. Ricky gawked. Gwen looked from him to me to him and then lingered, running her eyes over his hot body. His cock still draped out the pee-hole in his boxers, draped long enough the head rested on the couch cushion.

"Damn," she mumbled. "Who are you?"

"That's Ricky," I said. "My friend from the gym. We drank too many beers so he crashed on our sofa. How was the Christmas party?"

I kept waiting for her to remember she was naked.

"Party was awesome," she muttered. "Sandy sucked Riley's dick."

Ricky was awake enough now that he understood he needed to put his penis away. He slipped a hand inside his boxers to pull himself back in. Gwen leaned over and slapped his wrist. She dropped to her knees and slurped the plump head into her mouth again. Ricky looked at me, panicked. I showed him a palm, reassuring.

"She's drunk," I said, trembling all over but acting indifferent. "No harm, no foul. I'll give her shit later. You're in the clear."

He was nervous but Gwen can suck like a professional and that waylaid any concerns. He froze in that position: hands floating in air over Gwen as my wife slowly worked her lips farther down his soft shaft.

"Are you sure this is cool?" he asked.

I heard how desperately he wanted this to be cool. I gave a single nod. He was growing before my eyes. Gwen took him out to admire his cock and then slipped him in again, tongue swirling the crown. Ricky sucked air.

"Holy shit," he muttered.

I moved to retrieve the little black dress, discovering the pile was the dress and nothing more. No bra, no panties. That cute matching set was lost to the night. She'd said Sandy had sucked off Riley. I wondered what my lovely bride had done at the party.

Gwen paused long enough to aggressively work Ricky's boxers off and then she slapped her flat tongue against his scrotum. She was extra slutty, extra horny, and she loved his new cock. She painted every inch of his dick-flesh with sloppy saliva.

I understood she'd blame all this on intoxication, but shouldn't I step in and stop her? I realized she knew I wouldn't. She knew I wouldn't before I knew I wouldn't. How was that possible?

She held him at the base and stared. He was hard now, large head flaring and deep red. The corner of her mouth curled in a grin.

"Oh," she mumbled. "Who am I kidding?"

For half a second I did not understand. Then she rose slightly and threw a foot onto the couch. She sat, guiding his big cock into her steaming cunt. All the air left my lungs in a rush, but all the air left her lungs too. Ricky was thick and he stretched her hole wide. She paused for a moment atop his pole and then her weight pushed her down, filling her pussy.

"Ohhhh Goddddd," she groaned.

Ricky placed his hands around her waist, guiding her, keeping her centered on his dick. My wife began to drag herself up and down his meat.

His bare meat.

Fuck!

Again, we'd allowed a man inside without protection. Is that what we truly wanted? We let ourselves to get so caught up in the event we skipped protection. I suspected she wanted them bare. We flirted with disaster. Gwen bounced on the man, trying to orgasm but unable to because of the alcohol. She grew increasingly more frustrated. Soon she climbed off, standing over him, wobbly.

"Sit up," she said.

He did. She straddled his lap and sat again, his erection naturally sliding up her groove to penetrate her soaked cunt. This was her favorite position. She fed the man her big tits and bobbed on his dick, grinding her clit on his pubic bone. She started breathing faster.

"Yeah," she mumbled. "Like that. Here it comes."

She grabbed the back of the sofa with both hands and worked her hips fast. Ricky suckled her tits. Gwen let her head fall back and groaned long and low. Her hips were a blur, back and forth.

"Nngh!" she grunted. "Fuuuuck!"

Her hips bucked and her back bent. Her toes curled. She slammed her body against his and shuddered, climaxing all over his big spear. He grabbed the hair hanging down her back and pulled, forcing her hips down and his cock deeper. Gwen cried out at this extra deep penetration and then Ricky buried his face in her neck, biting her throat. He groaned and their churning genitalia turned sloppy.

Fuck! He was spurting inside her!

He grunted again and again, blasting her full of all the sperm he'd saved from all those nights he stayed home alone. His fat cock stuffed her hole. Gwen was gasping, urging him to cum hard, wildly out of control.

My penis had made a tent of my boxers.

He pushed himself off the couch, lifting her too, continuing to ejaculate. She wrapped her arms around his neck and legs around his waist. He drove his cock far up inside her body, and then they kissed, passionately. He held her over the floor like that as they made out and his thick penis began to slowly shrink. Before long he flopped out, followed by a rush of sperm.

"Fucking wow," she breathed.

He set her feet on the ground. His eyes came up to mine.

"I am so sorry," he said, genuinely dismayed.

"Don't be," she said, answering for me. "That was hot."

She left his side and came to me, sinking to her knees, tugging my boxers down.

"I could get used to hard cocks waiting for me at home," she joked.

Her hot mouth closed around my inches and I was done for. I felt how quickly I'd climax. After tonight, what argument could I possibly mount? What new complaint could I make about allowing men to cum in her? First Riley and now Ricky and both times I'd responded with an erection. We both knew it should not happen. Yet, now it's happened again. A second man had flooded her womb while I still had not.

I made a mental note to buy pregnancy tests in the morning.

I came fast, as expected. Shockingly fast. Gwen needed maybe two minutes to make my nuts boil. I sprayed down her throat and she led me back to bed, tossing a, "Stay as long as you like," over her shoulder to our new friend.

Chapter 9

She slept in Sunday. I rose early, wondering about Ricky, and discovered he'd already departed, leaving a note saying he greatly appreciate my friendship and how I'd saved him from another lonely night at home. He hoped what happened with my wife was as cool as it seemed to be last night. He apologized if he'd misunderstood the situation. By the way, he'd added, Gwen is sexy as hell.

My wife joined me around eleven, head pounding. She saw me at my computer and crawled onto my lap, arms around my neck. She kissed me, tenderly, and then moved to kiss my face, my neck, my ears.

"I'm sorry," she began. "I should not have done that. I had no idea your gym buddy was that hot."

"You were drunk and horny."

"So, so horny. Wildly horny."

"I'm partially to blame," I confessed. "I brought Ricky home to see if you wanted him to replace Riley, or maybe in addition to Riley."

She leaned back like I'd slapped her.

"What?"

"Ricky was one of the men that made the list. Our special list."

"You brought Ricky home to see if I wanted to fuck him on our webcam show?"

"Yes."

"Did he know that?"

"No, but I imagine he'll be easy to convince now."

Her grin reached ear to ear.

"So I have nothing to feel guilty about?"

I wagged a finger at her.

"Hold on," I said. "I invited him to see if you liked him. I never said sex was okay and sure as fuck did not approve sex without protection. You screwed up big time, Gwen. You crossed the line again. Once can be blamed on losing control. Twice is a pattern. I'm about ready to end the cam show and go back to our regular lives."

Her face fell. Her eyes grew big.

"No," she said. "I won't go back. We have money now. Our life is better. I have fans who love me. No way will I go back to that other life. I'm sorry about Riley and I'm sorry about Ricky too. You're right. I messed up and I messed up bad. It won't happen again. I was drunk and horny and stupid."

"Why were you so hot? You stripped just inside the door."

"It's Sandy's fault," she explained. "We were drinking and dancing and having fun. She wore a little black dress like me and all the men gave us so much attention. Riley was all over us, praising our looks, fetching us drinks, just being super sweet. He said all his usual inappropriate comments but because of the alcohol they were funny. We encouraged him. Sandy went farther and farther until she finally just came right out and asked about his penis. Riley's eyes lit up. Here was something he had to offer, you know. Like at last he had something to offer the hot girls. He swore he was well-endowed and Sandy said prove it. They went on like that for a while, back and forth, and then finally Old Man Riley challenged her to the parking lot. He said he'd take it out and show her the Goddamn thing. We downed our drinks and followed."

"Out to her truck?"

"His truck. We were laughing, cracking up all the way. Riley was serious, like we'd insulted him or something, like he wanted the credit he deserved. We all climbed in the cab, Riley in the driver's seat, me in the passenger seat, Sandy in the middle. Sandy told him to whip it out and he did. His hands were shaking. He managed to pull the thing through the zipper hole but he was too nervous. It just laid there looking like any other wrinkled dick."

She stepped closer to me, gazed up into my disapproving eyes.

"Carter, I got wet just seeing that thing again. I remembered what he'd done to me with it. That night on camera came flooding back. It was like my body responded automatically. Like my body decided, on its own, to fuck him again. It was the strangest feeling. Riley said he needed help because he was too nervous with us there together. Sandy was teasing him about bragging for no reason and I suggested she flash her tits to give him some encouragement. She was drunk like me. She said she would if I would so we both slipped our bras off and showed him. He couldn't believe this was happening. I think we made his anxiety worse. Then I said I know what he needs and turned Sandy face to me and kissed her on the mouth. She was shocked but then melted. We made out with our tits out and when we finished, he was hard. God, Carter, he has such a nice cock! I wanted to fuck him so much but no way, not with Sandy and everyone from work right there. Sandy saw his dick and swooped, dropping her head to his lap. She swallowed half. That girl is a magician. She sucks cock like a superstar. I started rubbing my pussy watching her and then slipped my panties off and dropped them on the floorboards. That's where they stayed. They're probably still there. I played with myself while Sandy worshipped Riley's dick. I started playing with her pussy too. We all went a little crazy. His dick is gorgeous! There was no room to fuck or I think Sandy would have jumped on it. Riley announced he was going to cum and she stuffed more than half his cock down her throat and sucked, just vacuumed that shit out. The man almost died. It was so sexy. I got Sandy to cum while she swallowed. Riley bucked around like we were electrocuting him. I tried to orgasm too but the alcohol or the cramped cab or something else I don't know wouldn't let me get there. I wanted to scream."

She leaned against my body, her cheek resting on my chest.

"We rejoined the party but things were weird now. Sandy said she wanted to leave. We didn't talk until she dropped me off and that was only to say goodnight. I hurried through the parking lot, determined to jump you. I got inside, locked the door, saw you sleeping on the couch in your boxers and decided to wake you with my mouth. Your dick was hanging out, except it wasn't your dick at all, but I didn't know that. I was too drunk and it was too dark. I'm sorry, Baby."

I wrapped her in my arms. Who can stay mad at a girl like this?

"Ricky left a note," I said. "He called you sexy as hell."

She squeezed me tight.

"I have no right to ask," she murmured. "But can we get him back to fuck me on camera?"

Chapter 10

I put the toothbrush on the counter and looked myself in the eyes. Gwen had taken to the webcam thing like a fish takes to water. She'd proved even more comfortable with taking new lovers. I needed to face the fact that while my wife was still sexually inexperienced, her appetites were huge. She would never again be satisfied with a small sex life. My wife wanted the world. She would shed her sexual inexperience quickly.

Can I handle it?

I drew comfort from the fact that with each lover, Riley, then Ricky, our bond grew stronger. She knew what she asked for. She knew what I gave. She understood the cost I paid and appreciated all I gave her. She would do nothing to jeopardize her relationship with me, nothing that could actually end it. She'd suspected from the beginning that fucking other men would not end it, and she'd been right. I still had mixed feelings about the situation but we both knew I'd never leave her over her infidelities. Once we tacitly established that truth, she relaxed.

Now, I looked at myself in the mirror and wondered: can I handle it? So far things had been difficult but tolerable. In a way, watching Gwen fuck was sexy. In another way, my heart got shredded in a wood chipper. The online response to her with Riley was phenomenal: we broke three hundred and fifty subscribers in a few days. I used still shots from the video to promote what had happened and a ton of people came to see more. Now we needed to show them more.

The doorbell rang and I spat and rinsed.

"I'll get it," I called to Gwen.

"Okay," she called back.

I opened our front door.

Sandy looked amazing. She's a petite blonde with perfect teeth and blue eyes like Gwen. Her breasts are small, gymnast small, and her ass and legs are firm and fit. In the days after the Christmas party she and Gwen got closer, talking about what they'd done with Riley but mostly talking about what they'd done with each other. Sandy said she wanted more. Sandy said she wanted to get Gwen in a bed and fuck her. Gwen made a judgement call, one I disagreed with, and told Sandy about the webcam gig. Gwen asked for permission to broadcast their tryst. My wife explained everything, including wigs, masks, and cat ears, and Sandy agreed.

Now Sandy stood at my door wearing booty shorts and a white tube top, eyes filled with hunger. She was eager to get her hands on my wife.

"I'm here for the audition," she joked.

I looked her up and down, head to toe.

"You pass," I joked back.

I showed her in and shut the door. I led her back to our little sheet-covered bedroom studio. Her eyes got big.

"Cool," she exhaled.

Her gaze landed on Gwen, or should I say Panther Pink, reclining on the bed in her Barbie Pink wig and cat-ears and nothing else, licking the tip of a twelve-inch replica cock and smiling wickedly.

"Uh oh," Sandy giggled. "I'm in danger."

She took a step towards my wife.

"Hold on girls," I said. "Let the people get signed on. They paid their money. Let's give them a show."

Neither acknowledged me but they held their positions while I grabbed the camera. I handed Sandy a mask and wig and waited while she put on both. I adjusted a few lights and hit the automatic intro feed. When that finished, I opened with a shot of Sandy standing by the bed. I instructed my wife to unwrap her present. Gwen stood and lifted the tube top over Sandy's head, freeing firm titties. After that, they were off and running. I soon circled them as they sixty-nined, feasting on drenched pussies.

In this case, it was hotter that I knew Sandy. The debate still rages in my mind: stranger versus friend. Oddly, for Gwen with a female I wanted someone she knew. For Gwen with a male, I was conflicted. A stranger meant no connections. We used him and dumped him. Gwen got the excitement of new dick. Someone she knew, like Riley, meant the thrill of familiarity, the knowledge that they'd still be around after the deed was done.

I shook my head. Gwen was making hot sounds. Sandy had her legs spread wide and nibbled on her clit. I zoomed to see her teeth drag that little nub. Gwen clawed the sheets. Sandy alternated between gnawing Gwen's clit and sucking hard enough to raise the skin. I trusted her to know what she was doing since she had a clitoris too. I thought teeth were a no-no but she knew what she was doing. Gwen was going crazy. Sandy pushed a finger in and my wife arched her back and climaxed. Sandy groaned with satisfaction.

Once she came around, Gwen pushed Sandy backward and returned the favor. Just for fun I nudged the big fake cock forward with my foot and Gwen snapped it up, pressing the tip at Sandy's opening, mashing her hairless labia.

My dick was carved from stone.

Gwen lifted the tip to her mouth and licked away Sandy's juice, wetting the head, and then placed the big cock at her opening again.

"Remember the other night?" she purred, asking Sandy.

Sandy nodded tentatively several times.

"Imagine this is him," my wife said, slowly sheathing that big cock into her friend. "Imagine his huge cock is entering you right now."

Sandy groaned at the penetration. I doubted she had any desire to fuck Old Man Riley but she clearly desired his dick. If that old fucker knew the two hot girls from work were fantasizing about him and fucking each other, he would have died. I knew it would only be a matter of days before Gwen suggested a Gwen-Sandy-Riley threesome for the camera and I started now to get my refusal in order. Gwen is not sufficiently cautious. Many in town would frown on what we did and more than frown.

Gwen tongued Sandy's clit while she pushed the big cock deep and it was Sandy's turn to orgasm hard. I broadcast everything to our hungry crowd.

Two girls last longer than a girl and a guy and I was still filming almost two hours later. At last the ladies were running out of energy. Gwen had orgasmed many times. I'd lost count.

"She usually doesn't cum that much," I said.

Sandy smiled behind her mask.

"Why would nature, or God, go through all the trouble of making women multiply orgasmic if we weren't supposed to have multiple orgasms?"

"Good point," I said.

"Guys cum fast," Sandy continued. "Girls cum slow. That's why we need several guys to fuck us, one after the other. Each man nudges us a little closer until finally we get there."

Gwen chuckled at Sandy's theory.

"Or two women can just get each other off," she said.

Sandy grinned and kissed Gwen. They waved goodbye to the camera and I ended the broadcast.

The ladies fell back, exhausted. They cuddled and I drew the sheet over them, heading for the kitchen to make some food. They'd be hungry after that workout. When I returned with a tray of fruits and snacks they were both sitting up in bed, facing each other. Wigs and masks and cat ears discarded. The big shiny fake cock lay on the sheet between them.

"Really?" Sandy asked.

"I swear," Gwen replied.

They looked up as I entered.

"Carter," Sandy said. "Is it true you watched Gwen fuck a guy with a dick almost this big?"

I sat the tray on the bed and cleared my throat.

"Um," I intelligently began. "Yeah. Almost. He wasn't that long but he was that thick, and his balls were bigger."

"Damn," she said, returning her gaze to the cock. "Where can I find a guy like you? My last boyfriend got in a fight with my brother because he thought we were too close. My brother. What an unevolved asshole."

"You don't need a boyfriend that will share you with hung men," I told her. "You just need a hung boyfriend."

She sighed. She seemed to see the tray of food for the first time and dove in, thanking me profusely. Gwen thanked me too and I left them to eat in peace.

Chapter 11

I dropped the packages and returned to my truck. The complex was large and I had several apartments to hit, so I carried everything at once and made one trip. I was away from my truck for about twelve minutes. Maybe eleven.

Gwen had called three times.

I hit her number and called her back.

"Carter!" she rasped. "Thank God. Riley has been all over Sandy and me today. Like, demanding, rubbing his crotch on our ass or his elbows on our tits. Sandy got upset and left for lunch and hasn't returned. I'm hiding in the ladies' restroom. The Old Man is waiting outside the door. We're the only ones in the store because we closed a few minutes ago and if I go out there I'm worried he'll grab me."

In the background Riley bellowed: "Come out and finish what you started, Gwen."

"Shut the fuck up, Riley!" my wife shouted.

"What do you want me to do?" I asked. "He cannot see us together."

"Shit. You're right."

"Is there a window you can climb out?"

"No. The bathroom is inside the store."

We were silent for a moment, thinking.

"To hell with this," she said. "I'm not hiding anymore. I'll see you later tonight."

"What are you going to do?" I asked.

"I'll suck him off," she said. "That's how you get rid of guys. He'll want to fuck me but I'll tell him no. Sandy gave him a blowjob at the party so I'll give him one now. That will shut him up. He's so obnoxious. He wants me all the time. He wants me a lot more than Sandy."

A chill raced through me. I had hours left at work driving around, knowing my wife would have another man's dick in her mouth.

"I'm asking for a raise," she added. "I love you. Bye."

"I love you too. Bye."

The rest of my workday was awful. I tried calling and texting but Gwen did not answer. Time crawled. My imagination fucked me up. This was taking too long. Things escalated. I felt it through the air.

I groaned in frustration. The lady signing for her package looked at me weird.

"Just remembered I left the oven on at home," I said.

"Hope everything is all right."

I smiled. I tried calling and sending another text once I reached my truck. Nothing. Now I was convinced Riley fucked Gwen. I considered driving by her store but dared not. Any man that discovered what Gwen and I did for extra money could use that knowledge to have Gwen whenever he wished. We simply could not let our secret out.

I returned to the warehouse at the end of my route and punched the time ticket. I switched to my car and drove home, waiting, waiting, waiting. I no longer tried texts or calls. Gwen would get home when Gwen got home.

Almost two hours later I heard her car in the parking lot. I ran to the balcony and watched her park. She collected purse and sweatshirt and phone and locked her car. She looked up, saw me, and waved. I waved back. She lifted her hands as if testing for rain, palms open to the sky.

"I did it again!" she shouted, like she couldn't believe it herself.

A dog started barking several apartments away. I knew exactly what her confession referred to. I cut through the apartment to the front door and met her there, closing the door behind her.

"He fucked you?" I asked, more statement than question.

I already knew the answer.

"He fucked the shit out of me," she admitted, dropping her things on the kitchen counter. "He fucked me stupid. He fucked me like a devil. He fucked me all over the store: on the sales counter, against the wall with all the brooms, on the rubber floor in electrical. He fucked me like he had only minutes to live. I started off sucking his cock but Goddamn it, Baby, when he tried for more I let him. He sensed I was wet by the way I sucked his cock and said he had to have me. Had to."

She stepped close, gazing up into my eyes.

"I like fucking that old guy so much," she admitted. "Don't be mad, please? It's a weakness. I can't help it."

I wasn't angry. Well, maybe a little. Mostly I was horny. That old man owned her. She couldn't say no and mean it. His bald head and big belly were mere speed bumps to her wild lust. In fact, those things might strangely add to her desire, like I want his cock so much I don't care about what shape he's in. She sees herself being slutty and that turns her on more.

So, what do I do? What are my options? I can be upset but for fuck's sake, it was me that went and found the man for her. I brought him home to fuck her. I wasn't being wronged here, not cleanly. I'd contributed to this mess.

I grabbed her shoulders and spun her facing away. She gasped. I reached under her skirt to rip her panties down. I crouched, flipping her skirt out of the way, and spread her ass cheeks with my palms. I spread her labia with my thumbs. Inside her cunt I saw pure white Riley sap everywhere.

"He came in you again?" I growled.

"Twice," she whimpered. "He's an animal. He was trying to cum a third time when I pulled myself off his cock and ran, ran home to you."

"Goddamn it!" I shouted.

She jumped, startled. I smacked her ass, hard. She yelped. I stood, freeing my erection, and hooked my arm around her throat in a chokehold from behind. I leaned my body against hers, pressing her against our front door.

"How many times did you cum?" I hissed.

"I don't know. A lot."

Her words were like a javelin through the heart. My dick grew stiffer.

"Sandy came back to the store," Gwen said. "She'd forgotten her phone. She caught us fucking. She stayed to watch, playing with her little tits, rubbing her pussy. I felt so dirty."

"I'm sure you loved it," I snarled.

"I did!"

I lifted my erection to her ass crack and shoved, no tenderness, no intimacy. The head traveled up her thighs to lodge at her sloppy, sticky opening. I pushed, sinking my cock into her messy pussy. Heat exploded in my brain. He'd flooded her insides. The sensation was maddening. The knowledge was worse! My balls tightened so much they ached. I pumped her cunt but there was too much lubrication. He'd shot her full. My dick was a piston but I couldn't begin that climb towards climax. She was too slippery. His juice literally splashed each time my hips smashed her butt.

Gwen was frustrated too. She loved my passion. She moaned and whimpered with pleasure. But she was so wet and stretched she couldn't squeeze my cock.

To hell with this. I conceded her pussy to him. I hated it. I hated that he swam in there like he owned the place, but he did. I withdrew my slippery dick from her pussy and in one smooth move, pushed my cock up her ass.

"Oh my God!" she cried, hugging the door.

I reached around and found her clit and rubbed while I pushed my dick all the way in. She gasped, pushing her ass back at me, taking her punishment like a good girl. I pushed so hard I forced her hips against the door, pinning my arm. I felt my cock reaching far up inside her, the tight ring of her sphincter clenched around the base.

He owned her pussy. I would own her ass.

I played with her clit while I pumped my dick, revenge fucking her. She understood and welcomed my onslaught, turning her head to kiss me over a shoulder.

"I was so bad," she muttered. "You can't trust me, Baby. Not with Riley."

I pounded her harder, inflamed by her words.

"It wasn't him," she panted. "It was me. I teased him. I taunted him. I sucked his big cock until he throbbed, ready to burst. I pushed him until he broke and attacked me, attacked my sweet little married pussy."

I would not last long like this. Her dirty talk drove me crazy.

"Baby," she whimpered. "I need to tell you something."

I held my breath, readying for anything.

"He tried to pull out," she confessed. "I wouldn't let him. I wanted him in me, Baby. I grabbed his ass and held on with all my strength. He groaned like he was dying. I whispered in his ear that I wanted him to be in me for days and days. I said I wanted to work next to him carrying his seed. I think he almost cried. He came so hard, so fucking hard. I felt his blasts hit me deep inside. I made that old man shoot me full of sperm."

I groaned. Gwen was out of control. She's always loved sex. We both knew it. Now we'd given a junkie a pound of heroin. I thrust faster and harder and teased her clit.

"I love making him explode," she revealed. "His big cock expands inside me. I stretch around him. The head feels like a fist in there, pounding in and out. Fucking me makes him insane. He wants me so badly. He feels so lucky. Fucking me makes him happy. His cock makes me happy."

I grunted. She knew what it meant.

"You can't trust me," she repeated, breathless. "You can't. I'll fuck that fat old man again and again and again— unngh!"

She orgasmed with a cry of pleasure and despair. She knew she was losing control of herself. She feared sex was taking over. She wailed and clawed the door. I roared as my hips locked and my toes curled and I blasted her ass full of cum. I kept her pinned to the door and twitched. Random muscles jerked and convulsed. I softened and her ass pushed me out. We collapsed to the floor. She crawled around to nestle inside my arms, kissing my throat tenderly.

"I'm sorry, Honey," she murmured.

"No," I murmured right back. "You're not. You just think you should be."

I hugged her.

"You're right," she said, after a pause.

We lay together in silence.

"We need to get all this hot sex back in front of the camera," she said, at last. "We're missing out. We should be cashing in on all this good stuff."

And that, as they say, was that.

We'd turned a corner. We'd tacitly accepted who she was, what we were. We'd silently accepted what we were going to do. Gwen would fuck a line of men and I'd broadcast it to the world.

"Riley?" I asked. "Or Ricky? Or someone new?"

She rolled on her side, rested her head in her hand.

"Danny," she said.

Shit. I should have seen this coming.

"Fine," I said.

I was done fighting it.

Chapter 12

I checked the lighting for the hundredth time. There was nothing to fix. Everything was perfect. Tabitha, wrapped in a sheer white robe, knelt on our bed across from Gwen, slowly undressing my wife. I held the camera with both hands to control the tremble.

Danny stood over them, already naked, partially swollen cock hanging down like a sword. Gwen wore her wig and mask and a sheer robe like Tabitha. My wife kept glancing at Danny, despite an almost nude Tabby right in front of her. Gwen looked at his eyes as often as his cock. My wife knows what she likes.

He was growing, filling with blood and expanding, gaining weight and girth, without being touched. He'd wanted Gwen for a long time.

We'd met them at Suzan's Grill and caught up on life. Gwen had earlier requested that I ask Danny to fuck her. She said she felt awkward, since he was Tabitha's guy. I suggested she ask Tabitha but she shook her head.

"I already know her answer," my wife had said. "I need to hear him say yes and the invite needs to come from you. Please?"

I relented. I'd waited until the topic of our websites came up and then I told Danny I needed a favor from him.

"What's that?" he'd asked.

I faced Gwen sitting beside me.

"I need you destroy my wife with your big cock," I'd said.

Tabitha had laughed and clapped her hands. Danny had smiled confidently.

"With pleasure," he'd said. "On camera, I presume?"

"Yes."

Now, days later, here we are. Gwen looked like a kid on Christmas morning, about to open her first present. Tabby eased the sheer robe off Gwen's shoulders and leaned forward, tenderly suckling my wife's nipples and sending a shiver racing through her body. Her nipples stiffened. I filmed the women enjoying each other for long minutes, circling to keep Danny in the picture, recording and broadcasting as his cock slowly filled and rose. Soon he was hard, jutting out from his body like an iron bar. Gwen stared at it.

"I don't know why I love dicks so much," she said.

"I do," Tabby giggled. "Cocks are a delight. Kind of gross when soft and all that skin is hanging loose, scrotum hanging down, but beautiful and proud when hard and tight. Each one is its own person. A woman's body flows, face to throat to breasts to tummy, flowing from one shapely thing to the next, all of it her, every piece a part of the whole. For men, it's like a man and his cock. The two of them are separate individuals. I can hate a man but love his cock."

Gwen smiled weakly.

"I'm a little different," my wife said. "I get feelings for the man because of his cock. If I start to love his cock, I start to love him. When I see he is erect, I must do something about it. I need to empty him. I need to take care of that hard dick. His erection is my responsibility."

"Then you are going to love Danny," Tabitha purred. "He'll make you work for it. You'll need to drain him twice to get that dick to go down."

I wanted to shut everything down. I knew where this was headed. Once Gwen and Danny fucked, the glass barrier would shatter. They'd fuck all the time. Gwen would lose herself in a tangle of Tabitha and Danny.

Daniel plucked a condom from the desk and rolled it down his length, leaving two or three inches at the base uncovered. The latex was stretched transparent around his impressive girth. He finished pulling it on with a snap.

Tabitha pushed Gwen backward and lowered her face to my wife's pussy. Gwen's expression told me the instant tongue touched labia. Tabby slurped all around Gwen's pussy, licking inside and out, occasionally grazing her clit and drawing gasps. Tabby thoughtfully wet the surrounding flesh to ease Danny's imminent penetration.

This would change us forever. Old Man Riley had no place in our private life. Ricky was virtually a stranger. Tabitha and Danny were our best friends and had been forever. I foresaw weekly threesomes, maybe foursomes. The lines would blur. Gwen would start to form attachments to Daniel. There were rough waters ahead.

My wife searched for Danny and locked her eyes to his cock and he moved closer, kneeling near her mouth. She gazed at his dick, sometimes glancing to meet his eyes, and bit her bottom lip, wrestling with a difficult choice. She gasped when Tabitha did something wonderful but then Gwen circled his root with one hand and pinched the tip of the condom with another. She pulled. The latex stretched like bubble gum. He was too thick.

"Take it off," she whined.

"Bad idea," he chuckled. "I cum a lot. Ask Tabby."

"Tabby's busy," Gwen sighed.

Gwen collected a couple inches of stretched rubber and pulled again but the condom went nowhere.

"Take that as a sign from God," I muttered. "He wants Danny wrapped."

Gwen shook her head, pouting.

"God's a woman," she said. "And women want their cocks bare. Condoms are cold, like a doctor's office. Sterile. I want naked flesh."

Danny didn't move. He would leave a decision like this up to us. Gwen struggled with the rubbery sheath, distracted by the wonderful things Tabby did to her, so I stepped closer and grabbed the condom. I pulled the sleeve and held it extended, the latex gradually sliding up the veiny shaft.

I slowly laid bare the cock that would fuck my wife.

The condom slipped off with a snap, now a white, rubbery sock hanging from my hand.

"Baby," Gwen exhaled, excited by my actions. "That was so hot."

She knew what it cost me. I stepped back to frame them all in the lens. Tabitha ate my wife's cunt. Gwen gently curled fingers around his shaft and pulled Danny's dick to her mouth. My breath caught when Gwen parted her lips and closed her eyes, savoring the long desired moment.

Not so long ago I'd assumed Gwen wanted Danny and that she'd maneuvered me into thinking she did not. I saw now how wrong I'd been. My wife's expression conveyed years of want. Here was a man she craved like me. Maybe more, in a physical sense. That was a difficult pill to swallow but I saw the truth plainly on her face.

Her tongue snaked out, searching, and landed gently on the head. She wiggled her tongue, forcing the tip into his pee hole. He sucked air. He placed his hands on the headboard and straddled her face. Gwen brought both hands to circle the shaft and tug.

Tabitha licked a moment and then withdrew, moving to stand by me.

"Can you handle this?" she muttered.

"I don't know. She's wanted him for a long time. There will be feelings."

Tabitha scoffed.

"Danny has been hot for Gwen from the day he met her. That's cool, he has a friend I want to fuck too. We share our fantasies and often fulfill them. He'll owe me big time after tonight."

"What fantasy of yours did he fulfill?"

She jerked her chin towards the bed.

"Gwen," she said.

"I don't understand."

"I wanted a night with Gwen all to myself and so did he. We both wanted your wife. Danny graciously put his desires aside and Gwen and I got to enjoy each other. I owed him after that."

"The night I broadcast you two."

"Yes," she said, watching Danny's muscular ass flex as he slowly fucked Gwen's mouth. "Now look at us: you and I, together, on the outside looking in. Those two will get lost in each other."

She was right. It was happening already. He held himself over her, slow-pumping his fat dick in her mouth, and my wife had her legs spread all the way open, one on each side of the bed. I doubted she was aware what she did. Her natural desire had kicked in and she opened herself wide. One hand stroked his cock into her mouth and the other rubbed little circles around her clit.

"Are you ready for what he'll do to her?" she asked. "I think it's beautiful but I bet it splits you wide open. Men are different. You'll hate it."

"I already hate it," I mumbled.

"I'm sure you do but it's worse than you think. I was serious when I said Danny needs two orgasms before his dick will turn soft. He's going to cum in her and keep going and you're going to show the world what he's doing to her."

Gwen pulled her mouth off his cock.

"Enough," she panted. "Put it in me. I can't wait anymore. I need it."

Danny hurried backward, climbing over her body, to take a position between her wide-open legs. He bent his hips forward, sliding the underside of his cock over her clit. He took his dick in hand and used the head to torment her clitoris. Her hips began to writhe.

"Put it in me!" she begged. "Danny, please. I've wanted you for so long."

He slid the long meat tusk over her clitoral hood again and again. He tapped the head like a conductor beginning a symphony. Gwen was almost weeping with need. Her pussy dripped.

"Put it in," she whimpered.

"No," he said. "You put it in. I love it when the woman pulls me inside."

Gwen stretched an arm and wrapped fingers. He was girthy. She pulled him forward, sliding the loose skin up around the head, and then rubbed the tip all over. She placed him in the dent and tugged, pulling his cock an inch inside.

"You're a furnace," he said.

"That's what my husband always says, uungh!"

He may have insisted she guide his cock in but he took over from there, lowering his weight and shoving his thick cock deep, forcing the air from her. Her hands flew to his chest, holding him back, slowing him down. His ass flexed and more inches disappeared.

"Bastard," Tabby mumbled. "I can feel that from here."

"Me too," I said.

Gwen took her cat-ears off and threw them. She grabbed his face and pulled his mouth down for a kiss. He moved to his elbows, holding himself over her, and his hips began a smooth in-and-out. They kissed fiercely, gazing intently into each other's eyes. Gwen winced with a mix of pleasure and pain when he stroked too deep.

"Go ahead," she told him. "I don't mind the hurt. I give you everything."

She lifted her legs to point at the ceiling, offering her cunt without reservation. His cock gleamed with her arousal. Her pussy clung to his shaft like honey, a tight seal around his girth.

"I've wanted you so long," he said.

She touched his face, intimately, tenderly. They began kissing again, with deep feelings. Worry settled over Tabitha and me.

"Did we fuck up?" Tabby whispered.

I understood what she meant. Danny and Gwen were so into each other Tabby and I ceased to exist. Neither remembered their committed relationships to us. They were the last two people on Earth. Danny's strong cock swung slowly in and out, unhurried, savoring at last the joining of their bodies and their hearts.

"It looks more like that every second," I said.

Danny kissed down her neck to her breasts, gently nibbling and sucking every inch of curved flesh. He sucked her nipples tenderly, like a baby, his stiff cock never slowing. He was gliding almost balls deep now, drenched with her excitement. She folded her legs behind his back and circled his neck with her arms, lifting her hips to meet his loving thrusts.

"They're making love," Tabitha said.

That was true. I'd seen Gwen fuck and this wasn't that. I'd seen her fuck Old Man Riley and I'd seen her fuck studly Rick and I'd even seen her fuck me in the mirror on our bedroom wall. Danny was nothing like any of those.

"This is bullshit," Tabitha said.

She moved closer to the bed. I shifted my angle to keep her out of the shot. She smacked Danny once on the ass.

"Let's go," she said. "I don't like this. What the fuck are you doing?"

Danny pushed his cock all the way in, forcing a heartfelt moan from Gwen.

"I'm not leaving," he said, without turning.

Tabitha looked furious. She stamped a foot on the carpet, which caused her beautiful tits to bounce. She looked sexier angry, but I did not tell her that. It hurt to see Danny and Gwen together. I dutifully kept filming, despite my heartache.

"We're leaving," Tabitha insisted.

Danny glanced at her, clearly torn. He had no desire to hurt Tabitha but there was no way he'd stop. He had every inch buried in Gwen at last.

"Baby," he told Tabitha. "Come on."

"Now!" she snapped.

He shook his head sadly.

"No," he said.

"Turn me over," Gwen said. "Fuck me like a bitch."

"You are a bitch," Tabitha barked.

Gwen ignored her. Tabitha turned and stomped from our bedroom. Danny slowly withdrew his cock and turned Gwen over at the hips. My wife lifted her ass, offering Danny her soaked slit from behind. He took his cock in hand, bending the stiff iron bar down to align with her pussy. He pushed, holding her hips and burying the shaft. Gwen groaned loudly.

The comments section on our monitor was insane. The Tabitha drama fueled everyone. The intensity of Danny and Gwen fueled everyone. People were calling for Danny to blow his load in my wife.

Gwen shoved her face into my pillow and took Danny's assault. Soon he was fucking her, tenderness and intimacy out the window. He rammed his thick cock deep over and over and Gwen began to squeal, warning she was getting close. I so envied other men and their ability to make Gwen orgasm by cock alone. These men hit spots inside her neither of us knew she had.

He transformed into a fuck-machine before my eyes. Her constant sounds of pleasure unnerved me. I wondered if I'd prefer a return of their intimacy. I couldn't decide. Both were painful.

The discarded condom caught my eye and I panned quickly and zoomed. There it was on the carpet like a dirty sock that fell from the laundry basket. I stayed on it for a heartbeat or two, driving home the thought in every brain that watched tonight: Danny was inside Gwen bare.

I returned to the hot sex in time to catch Gwen's body lock down, muscles going taut. She shouted into the pillow and Danny's thick, thrusting piece of meat sent her into the stratosphere. She wailed, cumming emotionally as well as physically. He rocked her body and her mind but worst of all, for me, was what he did to her heart. I told myself she wasn't in love with him, she was in love with me, but her infatuation with the man was real and intense.

She climaxed so hard that after her body kind of wilted. He followed her down to the sheets, continuing to pump his cock as she came. He continued to pump his cock even after she stopped moving, fucking her body like she was unconscious or dead. She slowly came around, lifting her hips.

He pulled out and leaned back, displaying his proud cock for all to see. The comments section loved it. Every girl watching wanted a piece of him and so did the gay guys. Danny turned her over and grabbed her ankles, spreading my wife wide.

"Put me in again," he told her.

She moved her arms like they were made of lead but did as he commanded, bringing the large head to her entrance and rubbing him around, centering him before pulling him deep. He held her ankles and pushed, creating a bawdy display for our viewers. His fat cock forced her small opening wide and everyone saw it. He pushed in up to his balls.

"Give me the camera," he said to me. "Lick her clit while I fuck her."

Gwen moaned at his words.

"No, thank you," I countered. "I'm fine right here."

"Suit yourself."

No way would I bring my mouth that close to his dick. Gwen wanted it but right now Gwen wanted anything and everything. I refused. He didn't care one way or the other. He held her open like that, showing off his conquering cock, while I zoomed. Then he leaned over and started fucking her deep again. Gwen whimpered at this new angle, another orgasm already building. Danny pumped faster, chasing an orgasm of his own.

They rose together, Gwen crying out just a moment before Danny snapped his head back and shouted. He blew a gallon of hot sperm into her womb. Gwen's orgasm lasting far longer than his. Then he kept pumping, still hard, just like Tabby had warned. Gwen swooned a little, sagging into our bed. He pushed her legs back and crawled closer, really driving his sloppy cock deep on every thrust. Gwen peaked again, a mild orgasm before she was ready, and Danny hammered her cunt until he blew a second load into her, his dick throbbing and his body trembling.

After the last drops left his penis, he pulled out and pinched her swollen labia together. He took her hand to replace his and brought his dripping cock to her mouth. She licked him clean as he softened, keeping her pussy sealed while she did. He dropped onto the bed next to her. I hit the button to run the automated sign-off and remind our viewers to comment and share. I moved to the computer, resting the camera on the desk and shutting the broadcast down. My ears were on the conversation behind me.

"Tabitha was angry," Gwen muttered, still holding her pussy shut.

"Tabby gets jealous easily," he chuckled. "She's done this before."

"Seriously?"

"Yes," Danny said. "I've fucked other friends of hers. She loves the idea, hates the reality, loves the makeup sex. We'll be fine."

Chapter 13

I held the door and Gwen entered first. Suzy's was busy so we waited and the hostess sat us. Menus. Waitress. Orders. Drinks.

I don't know what caught my eye, exactly, but I turned my head already knowing I was about to see some shit.

Sandy and Riley, laughing over a big plate of curly fries. She touched his hand tenderly, giggling at something he'd said. An outsider would think father and daughter out for dinner except for that tender touch. There was no mistaking what that meant. As crazy as it sounds, any observer would conclude that hot young gymnast blonde was fucking that fat old balding man, and they'd be right.

I debated sharing what I'd seen with Gwen. Our relationship was rocky right now, conversation awkward. She'd been fucking Danny exclusively for five weeks. No Ricky, no Riley, no other men I went out and found for her.

Just Danny.

For the first time ever, our subscriber count had dropped. I had not shared that news with her yet. The fans had loved them together, at first, but variety is the spice of life, and that is especially true of porn. They wanted to see Gwen with other men. Once they realized she was sticking with him, they got bored. Some viewers canceled.

More importantly, to me at least, Gwen seemed to grow tired of Danny too. I wondered if she was tired of the webcam life in general. When she suggested we have dinner at Suzy's, I eagerly agreed.

"Carter," she said, sliding her hand across the table to hold mine. "I'm over Daniel. I feel terrible about it. I know how much you sacrificed to let me have him. I feel like I'm throwing all that back in your face. But I often feel like I'm on The Danny Show. Like I'm just a pussy for him to fuck."

My heart leaped. I was not expecting this. I was also not expecting what I saw across the restaurant, when Sandy stepped out of the booth to head for the bathroom showing a little lower-belly baby bump.

Riley got her pregnant! Holy shit!

What a small-town scandal. I wanted to tell Gwen but she was being so serious I couldn't interrupt.

"I know I put you through a lot," she continued. "You hated the idea of me with Danny but I kept circling back around to it until, because you love me so much, you gave in and let me have what I wanted. Now I'm rejecting him and I feel like I'm also rejecting your generosity. I hope you understand."

Riley watched Sandy walk to the bathroom with a smile on his face and pride in his eyes. He'd knocked-up a home town hottie.

"I do understand," I told Gwen. "I appreciate your consideration for my feelings but honestly, I'm relieved. It was hard watching you with him. He's such a stud. I'll be glad when he's gone."

She exhaled, thankful.

"That's so good to hear," she said.

"Ricky is dating someone. I suppose you'll need me to find you a new stud?"

She shook her head and sipped some Coke.

"No." She licked her lips. "Bring me Riley."

My jaw hit the table.

"Old Man Riley?" I asked. "Really? Why? You could have anyone." I caught a last look at pregnant Sandy before she entered the ladies' room. "Let me find you some other old man. Your demographic will love it."

"All right," she said. "Find me another. But in the meantime, I want Riley. There's something about the look in his eyes, the way he touches me, like he's the luckiest man on Earth. He makes me feel pretty and special. He makes me feel like there's no other woman he'd rather touch."

"Also, you love his cock."

She laughed out loud.

"Yeah," she said, acting bashful. "There is that. It's the best. No offence, Honey."

"No, I get it."

Our food arrived and the conversation wandered. I felt relief Danny was out of the picture but anxiety Riley had returned. I told myself to get busy searching the sex club. I needed to replace that old man quickly.

Chapter 14

She'd warned me. She'd confessed directly to my face. Like so many things in life, I'd filed her desires under the deal-with-it-later heading and moved on. I'd visited the town's one sex club but big dicks are hard to find. I saw a few at the gym but the guys were young and arrogant. Gwen would turn them away. I had plans to visit the sex club again tonight.

I was nearing the end of my delivery route and I'd pulled over to scan the final packages. I was under a shade tree at a small neighborhood park when my phone chimed. I checked the notification and cocked my head: the notice said Panther Pink was about to start a show, but that wasn't possible. Gwen was at work. I clicked on the Live Now! tab and saw the inside of our bedroom prepared for a broadcast. Gwen, not at work, was in her Panther Pink disguise, wrapped in her signature Barbie Pink lingerie, wig, and cat-ears. My mind struggled to accept what my eyes saw. She reclined on the mattress, speaking to the camera. She gestured to her right and the motion detector kicked in, swinging the view that way.

My jaw dropped. Riley stood naked next to our bed!

He stroked his big cock under his hanging belly and cupped his fat balls. His eyes were glued to my wife. I'd taken too long. She'd gone and got him herself. I quickly plugged in my AirPods and caught the end of her sentence.

"—my husband doesn't know," she said, co-conspiring with her audience. "He's at work. He'll see this later. I may say nothing and let him stumble across it. Ha! I can picture his face. Anyway, you guys asked for a return of the old man, so here we are, but let me confess something to you."

She leaned towards the camera, smiling.

"The old man is my favorite."

Gwen moved to her knees and adjusted her cat-ears. She smacked Riley's hand to make him let go of his dick and lifted his cock on her palm. She looked at the camera again.

"Nobody fucks me like he does," she admitted. "I feel his desire through the air the moment he enters the room. I see the longing in his eyes." She rubbed a palm up his fuzzy round belly. "I know that will surprise a lot of you but the women will understand. We want to be wanted."

My mind did cartwheels. How did she get him to our place?

She brought her face close to his cock, staring down her nose at his fleshy snake. She parted her lips, the tip of her tongue sneaking out to lick his small slit. Some precum oozed and a strand of fluid linked her tongue to his meat. Gwen held it steady and smiled into the camera again. She loved cock. She had no fear of semen. She probably thought it tasted good, judging by her expression. She lifted his weighty head on her tongue and crawled her lips over the tip, creeping towards the ridge. Her tongue worked like a conveyer belt, shuffling him farther into her mouth. She slithered over the crown and her lips closed around the shaft and I exhaled. Everything she did to him, I felt in my dick. I swear everyone online held their breath just like me.

Her cheeks dented as she sucked, then bulged as she sent her mouth down his length. She had to turn her head sideways to avoid his gut. She slowed as she reached about halfway and then backed off, leaving his spongy shaft sparkling with saliva. She looked at the camera again, happy eyes dancing and glittering. She was pleased with herself, enjoying her freedom. She teased Riley at the same time she teased a multitude and it thrilled her. She squinted to see the replies scrolling by.

She sucked his cock again and his big hands came to rest on her head. His hips began to move as he worked himself deeper, making her drool, bulging her throat. He stiffened slowly, like old men do, but he got there, soon too firm to take in her mouth.

"Enough," she gasped, pulling off. "I need this big cock in me."

My wife fell backward, grinning at Riley and spreading her legs. She sent a hand down to part her labia and aim her wet cunt at his face. He climbed onto our bed, chasing her pussy. He held his dick like a spear. She opened her Barbie Pink teddy to expose her big tits and Riley fell forward, mouth fastening to a nipple but cock missing her pussy. He stabbed at her again and missed again. Gwen reached for his erection, guiding him inside. She groaned with deep satisfaction. I don't know how she took it. He looked too big for her little pussy but that's what she loved. That's what all the viewers loved. He sank deep and began to pump his hips and Gwen wrapped arms and legs around him.

The angles were shitty with no one there holding the camera but that wasn't the point of today's broadcast. Today was all about the act. Riley fucked her like an ogre, flat butt curling under each time he drove his thick cock deep. Gwen's sounds of pleasure were poignant and difficult to take, yet my dick got hard. I freed myself from my pants and, checking the park often, jacked off with the rest of those watching. Gwen orgasmed hard, screaming in pleasure from his thick, penetrating cock.

He flipped her over to fuck her like a dog, forcing his cock deep into her juicy cunt and resting his gut on her ass. He wore no condom. Their relationship was beyond that. I knew he'd empty his balls in my wife yet I kept jerking my dick, watching like so many others. His fat balls swung between her legs.

How had he gotten to our place?

One of the sheets puffed and that only happens when someone opens the bedroom door while we're filming. The stationary camera blinked and our view switched to the handheld. The camera flipped around.

Sandy smiled.

She aimed the shot down her nude body to show off her growing baby bump. She whipped the view to her face again.

"He knocked me up," she told the audience, laughing. "Can he knock her up too? Stay tuned to find out. Her hubby will just freak!"

My blood boiled. No wonder they did this while I was at work. Riley held Gwen's butt and repeatedly slammed his cock deep. Gwen clawed our bedspread and offered up her cunt, exhilarated. She was fucking Riley for real: no misgivings or second thoughts. No guilt or shame or hesitation. Riley pounded my wife from behind, fucking like he was a king. Sandy moved around, broadcasting every sight, every sound. Gwen did not want to make love to Danny. Gwen wanted to get royally fucked by Riley. Sandy reached under to rub Gwen's clit and my wife soon orgasmed again, Riley hammering away like a locomotive. Sandy moved her hand to Riley's big swinging ball sack and played with his nuts, coaxing a load. Riley began grunting and sucking air. Sandy held the camera to capture the whole scene. I jerked fast, anticipating Riley's big explosion, spurting all over the cab when it hit. Riley shouted that he was cumming and I started spraying too. His shot deep inside my wife while mine landed on the running boards and driver's seat. Riley was still convulsing, still pumping sperm into Gwen, when my last drop oozed. He held himself inside the young hottie a long time, his expression a mix of disbelief and great satisfaction. He was a king.

My mind slowly returned and I realized Riley knew our secret. He had to. There was no other way for Gwen and Sandy to get him in our bedroom. Gwen wore her mask for the online viewers but Riley knew who she was.

Gwen rolled onto her back and spread her legs for the camera. Sandy moved closer. Semen leaked from my wife's pussy and Gwen spent a few minutes displaying her sperm-filled cunt. She slipped fingers in and moved them around, stirring his milk. She brought them to her mouth and licked them clean for the camera, playing with strings of his seed, and then fed Sandy some too.

Riley started to snore.

Chapter 15

I moved through the dark sex club carefully. Back here the rooms were small and the hallways twisty. I was following an older man I'd only caught a glimpse of, needing to verify a few things before I approached him.

After Gwen and Sandy pulled their little stunt with Riley, our subscriber count exploded. Here were two hot young things fucking older men for real. One was pregnant! The other might get pregnant any second. Our viewer lists grew so fast it almost crashed our site.

Obviously, we'd tapped into a rich vein.

Gwen and I agreed to investigate.

I lost track of the older man a few times in this dark maze, but eventually found him in a small room with two women. He looked a little like Sean Connery, if Sean had a soft, eight-inch cock hanging. He watched the two women make out. I waved him over.

"I want you to fuck my wife on camera," I boldly said. "You'd wear a mask to hide your Identity. This is what she looks like."

I handed him my phone. He studied the first picture and then invited himself to swipe right and left. His face told me I had him.

"She's younger than I'm used to," he said.

"She's old enough," I countered. "She has a thing for older men with big cocks. You check both boxes. I'll film but not join in."

He studied my face.

"Condoms?" he asked.

I shook my head.

"We tried that," I said. "Too sterile. She wants the real thing. Interested?"

"Very much. Let me finish what I've started here and I'll join you for a drink. We can exchange numbers and fill in details. I'm Jack."

"Perfect," I said. "I'm Carter."

I backed away. His women approached, curious, asking about me. He redirected them to the bed.

Riley had proved an exciting fuck but his sense of duty to Sandy and fatherhood gradually drew him away. I doubted they'd marry but she did move in with him.

I sat in the room across from Jack and watched the man get to work on his two companions, positioning them so he could eat one pussy and then the other. His cock lifted and expanded, growing into a thick and veiny cannon.

Gwen was going to love him.
