Jess and Michael

Jess Receives Permission

Odd that so much would spring from such an innocent moment.

My husband and I were lying there, enjoying our post-coital afterglow, when I reminded him about the up-coming formal office party my employer holds every year. He groaned, and he's right, it's a stressful party, and asked who will be there this year. I began naming names and titles. When I'd finished, he went back and asked me about Richard Fathom, a name he didn't recognize. I tried to describe Richard to him, they'd met only once many years before, but nothing clicked. In my efforts to jog my husband's memory I reminded him Richard was the handsome one with the pretty blonde girlfriend, although she was his girlfriend no longer. That did the trick.

That night as we lay in bed before sleep he mentioned Richard again and that I'd described him as handsome and did I still feel that way. I said I did. He then began asking more probing questions about how often Richard and I interact during the day, had Richard ever flirted with me, and had I ever flirted back. I was getting a little uncomfortable and feeling a little guilty. My husband and I always speak the truth to each other so I took a deep breath and answered affirmative to all of the above. I was ready to face his jealousy and hurt feelings. Instead he continued asking probing questions about my feelings regarding Richard. Soon I was feeling flush.

Richard is a department head and a very intelligent man. He is taller than my husband and in better shape, but is not as sensitive or kind. I have seen Richard unleash his anger on an idiot employee and he was intimidating and dominating, but I have also seen him remember a secretary's birthday and make her whole week. Richard's eyes are a glacial blue and he can skewer you with them. When you visit Richard's office, you bring your A-game.

So now here I am in bed, lying next to my husband in the dark, trying to sound calm and disinterested about a man I find attractive and sexy. I was hoping my husband would buy it. He did not. All was quiet for a time and I suspected my husband was forming his next question. When he finally spoke, he surprised me.

"Have you ever touched him?" he asked. Here at last, I thought, the jealousy questions had finally arrived. This was more familiar ground. With just a few words I would soon put this conversation to rest.

"No, of course not, Michael. Never. I would never do that to you."

My husband was thoughtful for another moment.

"Do you want to touch him?"

My heart jumped and my palms broke into a sweat. I don't know what my face did but thank god the room was dark. Of course my first impulse was to aggressively stand my ground, reassure him until he dropped this subject, and put all this behind us for good. But I didn't. Time ticked off as I formed and rejected a multitude of answers, none of them feeling exactly right. Eventually I understood why and came face to face with a simple truth, a truth I owed my husband.

"Yes," I stated. "I have thought about it. I've caught him looking at me and I admit I like it. Please understand I would never, ever allow that to happen, but you deserve the truth and we are secure enough I believe you can handle it." He patted my leg and stroked my hair and thanked me for my honesty. I snuggled up under his arm, my head on his chest. Whew, I thought, that was a little scary. I was proud of us. I had admitted something dangerous and we had both been such wonderful adults about it.

After a minute he spoke again.

"What if I gave you permission, Jess? Just one time only. What if we go to that party knowing if Richard flirts, you have my consent? How would that make you feel?"

In the dark, my jaw dropped open, actually sliding down my husband's chest.

He continued, "You mentioned how secure we are and you're right; we are secure. We are solid gold. What if I let you have this?"

Before I could even consider what he was saying my alarms went off...all of them. "You are just offering this so you can fuck some woman afterwards! No way! I see right through this plan, Michael.”

I went on like that for a while and my husband patiently waited. Eventually I heard my own voice and the ridiculous, jealous, petty things I was saying and fell into an embarrassed silence. He kissed my forehead.

“No,” he stated, and by the tone of his voice I knew it was the honest truth. “No, I have no interest in other women. This would just be for you.”

Now it was my turn to ruminate as I formed probing questions. Why in the world would he do this? He likes it when I dress sexy and he has mentioned it pleases him when other men check me out...but this is way beyond any of that. Both of us remained silent a long time as we worked through the many aspects of this idea. Ultimately I found myself imagining the party. I am there with my husband and we are drinking wine and socializing and then Richard is in the room and I am looking at him and in my mind I know if I want him, I can have him. I quietly moan out loud in our bedroom and squeeze my husband. He reads my mind and turns my face to his and kisses me deeply and passionately and with so much love and trust I feel a wave of intense adoration rise up from my belly and wash over me. I squeeze him harder, suddenly afraid, and he holds me tight until it passes. I turn in my mind and watch it leave and I find myself strangely calm.

“You don’t have to answer,” he whispers, kissing my head. “We aren’t buying a car. I just want you to know I have offered it to you, officially. You can do with it whatever you want. The party is this Saturday and unless you have something you need to say, nothing else need be said about this.”

We kissed, and kissed again, and kissed again as our tongues snaked into each other’s mouth. His hand slid to my breast and tweaked my nipple and I gasped at the sensitivity. He rolled me onto my back and slipped his hand down to my sex and discovered I was soaked and swollen. Everywhere he touched me felt like a million volts. He moved on top of me and buried his penis and we both climaxed hard and fast.

As we drifted off I lay there thinking; I believe my husband and his no-strings offer. It sounds incredible but he’s like that about certain things. He is very brave about voicing how he really feels. I’ve learned to trust that. So it came back to me; could I do that? The ‘did I want to’ question took about two seconds to answer. Yes, Richard is attractive and yes, I’d like it very much if he wanted me. So I asked myself, okay then, Jess, could you have sex with him while married to Michael and more importantly, would you and Michael remain okay if you did? This one took me a little longer than two seconds but in the end I realized, again, yes, I could and I believed we would be. So now my heart really starts pounding. I have just logically concluded that sex with Richard was mine for the taking. My Goddamn palms were sweating again as I fell asleep.

In the morning he was true to his word and he did not mention anything about last night. We showered and dressed and off to work for us both. I was distracted and whenever Richard walked by I was sure he could read my thoughts and I blushed, but I believe I was able to hide it from him. What am I, sixteen? Michael called at lunch and we chatted as always. By the end of the day I was back to normal. The next day was uneventful and, honestly, by this point I had decided I would not take my husband up on his offer. It was exciting to think about, I'll admit that, but the reality would be too much for me and the risk too high. I would never do anything to damage my relationship with my husband. I've never had one or even seen another like it. I hate the expression 'Soul-Mates' but in our case it actually applied.

Saturday morning Michael rose before me and I found a note he was running errands. When he returned he took me to the bedroom to show me what he had purchased and presented me with a gorgeous evening gown. I tried it on and it fit perfectly, although it was sexier than I had worn in previous years, but nowhere near some of the scandalous dresses other women had worn. I was moved by his generosity.

I turned in the mirror, examining myself from all sides and pictured wearing it at the party tonight. When I imagined Richard's eyes on me I grew warm all over. I knew nothing would happen and that was because I knew I would not allow anything to happen, but it was still fun to think about.

I confess I made a conscious effort to look my very best for the party. Michael's eyes flew open and he stopped dead in his tracks when he saw me and don't fool yourself, every girl on earth wants that. In the shower I had paid especially close attention to my primping, even electing to shave myself bare. I knew Michael would be all over me when we got home and I wanted a surprise waiting for him. I hadn't done that to her for a long time and Michael goes a little crazy when he sees her.

He wore his charcoal double-breasted suit and we made a very handsome couple. For the first time in many years I thought this party might actually be fun.

The party was held in one of the older casinos and we arrived only slightly late. The ball room was already filled and everyone was dancing and talking and laughing. Michael and I found a table and ordered wine. Time flew by and the party was actually a smashing success. Michael and I danced and laughed and spent time with old friends and colleagues. There were plenty of other married couples there and we traded dance partners often. My dress was a huge hit and I received countless compliments. Combine that with the wine and the dancing and the way Michael kept looking at me and I was ready to drag him off to a coat-closet and do unladylike things to him.

We had just returned to our table from the dance floor when I saw Michael look past me over my shoulder and a knowing smile split his lips. Before I could ask him what he was smiling at, he excused himself to use the restroom and then swing by the bar for more drinks. He kissed my cheek and whispered that he loved me into my ear and walked away. A minute later, Carol, seated across the table from me, said, "Hello Richard, how is your night so far?" and I knew Richard was standing directly behind me. I did not turn around...not for a good heart beat or two anyway. When I did my heart leapt to my throat. Richard was gorgeous! His dark suit and blue shirt were a perfect complement to his stunning eyes. Of course I showed nothing on the outside but inside I was filled with butterflies. Richard, on the other hand, was not nearly as cool as me. When I stood to shake his hand his eyes grew wide and his jaw went slack. I loved it. He stood there flustered and speechless. The only time I had ever seen him so. He said hello to everyone at the table then turned his attention back to me.

We chatted about work and the party and who had already had too much to drink and then he asked me to dance. I looked for my husband but Michael was nowhere to be found so before my hesitation became embarrassing, I accepted and Richard led me to the dance floor. We danced to a fast song and then again to a slow song. Richard's warm, firm body was divine. He pulled me closer and I paused for only a fraction of a second before I allowed it. I continued to occasionally scan the crowd for Michael. Richard pulled me closer still and whispered into my ear.

“Jess, you are breathtaking tonight. You are stunning. I made a fool of myself.”

I pulled back and looked into his eyes.

“I’m flattered,” I said. “But you are equally handsome tonight. Striking, in fact.”

I moved in close to him again. The hour was late and many of the guests had departed. The DJ had turned the lights down low and was playing only slow songs now. Enough alcohol had been consumed that nobody was paying any attention to anybody else. At last I spotted Michael. He was seated against the back wall, buried in shadows, sipping his whiskey sour and watching me. Richard felt my body stiffen and asked what the matter was and I suggested perhaps it was time for me to return to my husband. Richard agreed and kissed my hand. As I walked to Michael, Richard walked to a table of individuals he had not yet greeted.

“You’re beautiful,” Michael said as I approached.

“Thank you sir, for your kind words. Was I out there too long with him?”

Michael smiled as he stood and pulled out a chair for me.

“No,” he answered. “I was enjoying watching you. You’re really quite sexy, Baby.”

I took a sip from the wine he had brought back with him and studied his face. He, in turn, studied mine. I spoke first.

“Are you still sure...about ...me and him?” I asked.

“Utterly,” he replied.

“I have to tell you I’m not. This is all very exciting and I love you for trusting me so much but I am filled with uncertainty and doubt. I am having a hard time believing it you’d be okay with it...in reality.”

Michael checked the room to make sure nobody was watching then carefully took my hand and placed it on the front of his pants. He was erect. Our eyes met and I saw his excitement.

“Michael, I need to know how this is alright. What’s going on with you? I’m over here wondering if we are okay. Are you bored with me? Do you not love me as much as you once did? Is that how you can allow another man to touch me? You said this was not a way for you to have sex with other women, and I believe you, truly. But I still have so many questions. It frightens me that you can do this. ”

Michael moved his chair next to me and wrapped his around my shoulders. He kept his voice low and reassuring, stroking my hair and holding me. He explained that he has always had ideas like this but never shared them with me. Only in the last year did he feel our trust and intimacy grow to a point where he felt safe. He said he loved me more now than he had ever loved me. If I hated the idea he would not force it. It was totally optional; an extra layer of frosting, an added spice. If I didn't want it he could live without it. He admitted the idea frightened him too. He offered various theories about why he found it so exciting but the truth was he could not pinpoint one reason. It just was. I asked him many questions about what worked for him and what didn't, what turned him on and what turned him off. I wanted to know where the boundaries were on this new relationship he was suggesting. His answers surprised me and drew me closer to him. In many ways he is much braver than me. When he finished speaking I felt serene. Truth is so powerful. I lifted my face to his and gazed into his eyes, into my husband's loving eyes. He smiled. I bit my bottom lip. Now I had a dilemma.

I knew Richard would eventually make his way over to me to say hello to Michael, so we waited, chit-chatting about how wasted Raymond was and how slutty Monica was acting, as well as various other comments regarding my colleagues. Just as I predicted, Richard made a slow circle of the room, shaking hands and making small talk. Michael and I watched him together, he with his thoughts, and me with mine. I cannot describe to you the erotic charge that moment carried for us both. Soon, as I knew he would, Richard approached our table. Goddamn he looked good.

I turned to speak to Michael and found him already watching me gawk at Richard. I blushed. I was so busted! Red-faced I rose and re-introduced my husband, reminding Richard they had met several years ago. After the handshakes and one-liners we sat and had real conversation. I watched my husband closely, looking for any sign of discomfort or regret. There simply were none. We were seated at a table with a man and we were both imagining him fucking me. This was intense.

I had a decision to make and I was procrastinating. I was so nervous! I had nothing but green lights ahead of me yet still I could not step on the gas.

One thing I did know for sure. If I did this, I was not going to passively just allow it to happen. I owed Michael that. His offer was generous, but I needed to choose it or reject it, not just let something happen almost accidentally.

The conversation reached a natural pause and after a comfortable moment of silence, I stood up.

“Honey,” I said. “Would it be alright with you if I moved my chair closer to Richard?”

I will never forget that moment. Both men had exactly the same surprised face. Fucking twins. Michael nodded once and I slid my chair next to Richard’s and sat. Our leg was touching from the hip to the knee. Richard’s sharp. He showed about a half-second of discomfort, looked at Michael, realized he knew nothing about how Michael and I conducted our relationship, and stopped giving a fuck. He wanted me and didn’t care what he needed to do to have me; behind Michael’s back or right in front of his face made no difference. I think I mentioned he could be dominating? I also loved that he didn’t need to look around the room to see if we were away from prying eyes. He had already done that the moment he entered the room. I knew if I asked him he’d be able to name everyone in that room at that moment, where they were seated and what they were doing. Sharp.

I leaned forward just a bit and adjusted the strap on my shoe. I let my gown fall away from my breasts just a bit and I looked up at both men. Their eyes were glued to my cleavage. I leaned against Richard’s shoulder and looked up at him and smiled, allowing him to take his time. My breasts were there for his viewing pleasure. Michael shifted in his seat but I ignored him. My eyes fell to Richard’s lap, and what was happening there. A bulge had formed and it was getting bigger.

As I had done to my husband just a short time ago, I reached my hand to Richard’s pants and joyfully discovered the second man I had made erect tonight. The only difference was the difference, and what a difference it was. I had to follow the shaft partly down his pant leg. My skin temperature soared. My throat was suddenly very dry. I pinched the tab on the zipper and slowly drew it down, then reached inside. I bit my bottom lip, again, and then decided my husband needed to see this too. I maneuvered Richard’s pants a bit and pulled his shaft through the fly and into the open air, my hand gripping him at the thick base. Michael stared. I stared. Richard took a sip from his drink.

This organ was impressive. I'd say Richard was almost two inches longer than my husband but much thicker. One fat vein ran along the top before it disappeared just below the head. The head was large, sitting like a gargoyle atop some library pillar. The skin of the shaft was smooth and tannish pink. I stroked it a few times, sliding the skin up and down, and felt it stiffen. I looked at Michael for his reaction and his eyes were darting back and forth from Richard's cock to my face, gauging my impression of it. Michael had disclosed to me a lot of sexual inclinations earlier tonight. I knew what this was doing to him.

"Honey," I said. "Now would be a great time for you to take a ten minute walk around the casino floor...maybe play a slot machine for a bit. I'll be right here when you get back. Michael hesitated for a moment, reluctant to leave, then gulped his drink and kissed my lips. Without a word he left the room. Before I could speak, Richard beat me to it.

"Where is this headed?" he asked.

I stroked his cock and answered. "A hotel room upstairs, I'm hoping. How about you?"

"Two of us or three of us?"

"Three, although I'm flexible. Michael has left it up to me. I'd like him to be there but he doesn't have to be, if that makes you uncomfortable."

Richard grinned. "I want him there...to watch me fuck his wife. Nothing between he and I though, right?"

"That's right. Straight hetero."

"Then yes...hell yes. I've wanted you a long time."

The tension in Richard's voice sent a chill up my spine. I spent a few more minutes stroking him then had an idea.

"Can you discretely take my panties off?"

Instead of an answer Richard slipped a hand under my dress and worked them down. There was no way anybody could tell what he was doing. I checked once to confirm we were virtually alone and lowered my mouth to Richard's cock, quickly sliding him deep, licking his shaft inside my mouth, getting him wet and ready.

I stood and turned my back to him and reached between my legs, standing him straight up, and then backed against him, lowering my pussy. I gasped when his big cock head pushed into me. Once settled on his lap, his thick cock filled me completely. I rearranged my dress around my legs and circled his shoulders with my arms. Anyone walking past would have thought I was just sitting on his lap, talking. I asked for my panties back and he handed them to me and I made a tight ball of them in my fist.

A minute later Michael returned. He stopped abruptly when he turned the corner and saw us. I saw his eyes examine us in a flash and a question grew in them. He wondered, but could not tell for sure. He approached slowly and the three of us began to chit-chat. Richard's cock continued to expand and harden inside me and I was quickly losing my composure. Michael kept looking me in the eyes. Richard was as cool as the underside of a pillow. Just as Michael's suspicions began to bloom, Richard sent a surge of blood into his shaft. I gasped and my head fell against his shoulder. I saw an erotic jolt pass through Michael and heard him softly groan.

With a weakened voice I told him to hold out his hand, which he did. I placed the tiny fabric ball of my panties on his palm and curled his fingers around it. Still holding his hand, I pulled his face close to mine and whispered hoarsely, telling him to go to the lobby and get us a room, then come back here for us. He placed his hands on my shoulders and kissed me deeply, pushing me further down onto Richard's cock as he stood. I spotted the tent in his pants as he left. He walked away knowing at that moment, another man's cock was inside his wife.

Fifteen minutes later the three of us were riding the mirrored elevator to the top floor. I could not fully comprehend this was actually happening. I was headed to a hotel room with my husband and another man and the three of us were going to have sex. Just a few days ago I was a living a very common life and threesomes were nowhere on my horizon. How had we arrived here? My hands were trembling and my throat was constricted. I was nervous and so very excited. Richard was going to fuck me. What would he be like in bed? How would all this play out? Was Michael really okay with it? Was Richard? Was I?

I flashed back to the sensation of Richard's big, firm cock inside me, and my disappointment when he withdrew it so we could all head to the room. I missed it immediately. I'm missing it right now, standing next to him and my husband. His cock inside me was remarkably different than Michael's inside me, and I don't just mean the thrill of someone new. Richard is much bigger and harder and just physically feels better.

I flashed forward to the hotel room and wondered what it will do to me once we are in bed and Richard is free to do whatever he wishes. How will I react? I suspect his cock, combined with my several years of wanting him will push me right over the edge. I'm worried that my husband is about to see his sweet wife behaving like a whore. I can see and hear myself so clearly. Just to tease Michael I take a half-step away from him towards Richard and lace my fingers through his, holding his hand on the elevator. Michael's face looks like the wind just got knocked out of him but because of our earlier conversation, I know he actually loves it. I am free to be as bad a girl as I want to be.

When we arrive at our floor I take Michael's hand too and we all three walk down the hallway to our room. I am churning with excitement on the inside but trying to stay calm on the outside. I try to picture what's going to happen once we all step into that room and I suddenly realize we don't have condoms. Michael always wears them and so is the one always responsible for them. I never have to think about it. Unless he happened to bring some tonight, which knowing him is actually possible, we are unprotected. I cannot take the pill. I tell Richard to go ahead to the room; I want to talk to Michael privately for a few minutes. Richard steps up to me and places his hands on my waist and pulls me to him, right in front of Michael. He kisses me deeply and slides a hand around to my ass and squeezes, then smacks it, then leaves for the room. We both watch him walk away.

"What's up," Michael asks.

I gaze into his eyes, worried I'm about to crash everything with a big dose of reality. I kiss Michael and ask if he's still okay and he confirms he is and more than okay. I know he sees the concern in my eyes.

"Baby," I begin. "Did you bring condoms?"

Michael smiles and I feel a weight lift. He's amazing! How did he know tonight would end up like this? I don't know how he does it but I throw my arms around his neck and kiss him. He kisses me back for a moment and then puts his hands on my waist and settles me back to my feet.

"Yes," he grins. "I did bring them, but I've been thinking...what if we skip them...just this once?"

Now it was my turn for my jaw to hit the floor. His suggestion was stunning. Michael himself has never cum inside me. We aren't ready for kids. Yet he is offering that treat to Richard. I also know he is watching me closely, gauging my reaction, feeding on my desire and lust. What does it say about me if I agree and allow Richard to have me like that? Michael is testing my desire for Richard by dangling this offer. If I allow it, how will Michael handle the agony? My excitement level rose to a whole new height. Michael knew exactly what he was doing. I was already feeling like such a naughty wife. How would I feel with Richard's sperm inside me?

I stepped back from Michael and tried to read him. No help there. He was leaving it all up to me. I thought for a moment and then made my decision.

"Let me have them," I said. Michael hid his disappointment well. He pulled six from his pocket and handed them to me. I raised an eyebrow at how many he had purchased. He smiled. I turned and walk to the trash can against the wall and drop them in, throwing a lusty grin back at Michael. Now his eyebrow goes up and his smile spreads. We both feel reckless as we hold hands and catch up to Richard holding the door to our room open.

Michael flicks the hook at my neck as Richard unties the knot around my waist. I've never been undressed by two men at the same time and my head is spinning and my nipples could cut diamond. Pure eroticism fills the air in the room. All of us are breathing hard and trembling. I'm not wearing much so it doesn't take them long. My panties are in Michael's jacket pocket and I skipped a bra tonight. In just a few minutes I am standing before them wearing just my pumps. Michael reaches for them but I tell him no.

I walk across the room and bring a chair near the bed, then walk Michael back into it. I do not answer the question on his face. I then walk to Richard and begin to undress him. My hands are shaking so much I struggle with his buttons. I feel my heart jack-hammering under my ribs. I have never been so turned on. Soon I have Richard down to his tented boxers and I turn him so Michael can see. I move to my knees.

As I pull Richard's boxers down, I slowly expose his thick cock and both men groan. Can I do this, I wonder. A week ago this was unimaginable. Now I have Richard's hard penis waving in my face and I desperately want it in my mouth. My husband sits a few feet away, watching. How did we get here? Are the walls that separate us from our taboos really so thin? I focus on Richard's cock and I am suddenly aware of how empty my pussy feels. I do want him in my mouth, but I know where we are headed with all this. My skin flushes. Richard is going to fuck me. We all want him to. Richard is going to fuck me, bare and unprotected, and fill me with his cum.

I open my mouth and oh so slowly slide his swollen inches in. Both men groan again, Richard more loudly than Michael. I keep sucking his cock as Richard steps out of his boxers and rests his hands on my head, guiding me. I love it when men do that. I let him use my mouth to pleasure himself and soon he shines with my saliva from his balls to the tip. I tell him to get on the bed.

Michael had surprised me, hours ago, when he revealed the thoughts and fantasies he had about me. I never would have guessed them. I was uncomfortable hearing them, right at first, but the more he talked, the more my heart opened to him. His confession could not have been easy for him. He trusted me with his inner-most erotic visions. He also gave me permission to act on so many of my own dark sexual secrets. I hadn't had time to process everything but a sense of wild freedom had begun to grow within me. Instead of weakening our bond, like I would run off with some other man, it had strengthened it. There was no other man like Michael.

I crawl over between Michael's knees and unzip him, drawing him out. I use my mouth and have him hard in seconds. I lift his balls out, resting them on his pants. I leave him waving in the breeze, groaning in frustration, as I crawl to Richard on the bed.

Richard gathers me into his arms and we kiss passionately, years of pent up desire boiling. I am actually more impatient than he is and after a short time I roll him onto his back and straddle him, his big dick resting in my butt crack.

I have not had a naked penis in my pussy. Ever. A tiny voice in my head asks if this is something I really want to give to Richard and not Michael but a much bigger voice answers, reveling in the wanton debauchery of it. What could be more wicked? I tell myself I am doing it for Michael, to fulfill his fantasies, but the bigger voice laughs at me; no, I want this. At this point, if Michael asked me to stop, I wouldn't have. The heat from Richard's big dick is scorching me and my vacant and hollow pussy is howling to be filled. I cannot deny her. Richard has created a need for Richard. At this point I realize I don't even want to have sex with Michael. I want to have sex only with Richard. I feel bad about that and resolve to never tell Michael about this moment and what was going through my head.

I look at Michael until he meets my eyes and then lift my hips and slide my ass up and down Richard's pole until, with an evil grin, I capture the tip of Richard's cock with my opening. Michael reaches for his penis and as he begins stroking it, I use my weight to force Richard's cock deep. He has grown a little bigger and harder but I have grown a little more wet, so with just a little effort I soon have him pressing against my cervix. Michael has never even touched it.

I hold a new man inside me for the first time and I can feel the absence of the condom and it is exhilarating. I would not have thought there would be a difference, but there is. Skin slides more smoothly against skin. His cock radiates more heat and I can feel every throb of it, every pulse. Until this moment, I had no idea how much a condom muffles sensation. The awareness of a bare Richard inside me is fantastic. Physically it is electrifying and mentally it leaves me gasping for air. A man is actually inside me!

I wait, holding him there, catching my breath. Richard's cock takes some getting used to. I lift my hips and display Richard's big staff, glittering with my juices. Michael cannot look away from it and I feel emboldened.

I lower my cunt down his pole and trap him, grinding my lips against his pubic bone, but rise again almost all the way off. Down again and up, I build a steady rhythm. My pussy is already tingling with pre-orgasmic delight. Richard's cock fills me, stretches me, and touches me in all new ways. The rush of it is intense. It is so obviously not Michael's penis.

I lean up and feed my tits to Richard and the added stimulation gets me there fast: I cum hard crying out and tossing my head as I grip Richard's shoulders. I lay on his chest to rest. I do not look at Michael.

After a time Richard moves under me.

"Now it's my turn," he says, his voice heavy with lust.

He shoves me off and drags my hips to the edge of the bed, positioning me so Michael has a fantastic view. He pushes my head into the pillows and lifts my ass, spreading my legs at the knees, posing me in a lewd and slutty way. The bed moves again and I know he had gotten behind me and both hands take my ass cheeks and opens me up, then presses his cock forward, splitting my lips and filling my cunt. I gasp loudly. From this angle he feels immense and I clutch the bedcover with both fists as he begins to work me. Soon his hips piston my cunt and his cock slams home and withdraws only to slam home again. His balls slap my clit as his shaft splits me open and in a very short while I climax again.

He rolls me onto my back, my hair flying wildly, and I catch a glimpse of his rampant meat standing up like a spear he plans on using to kill me. I spread my legs to this conquering man, fully a slut now. I don't care about Michael's feelings anymore. I just want this bastard to use me like a fuck doll until I coax his sperm from him, and my mind is made up; I want his semen inside my womb.

For about the next hour Richard uses his cock on me, driving me crazy, making me cum like I'm his little bitch. I'm sure Michael doesn't even recognize me as I don't even recognize myself. Where was all this coming from? Michael wasn't the only one in this marriage repressing thoughts and fantasies; I love submitting to Richard and I cannot get enough of his over-sized cock.

When Richard finally tells me he can feel his sperm rising, we are missionary, kissing deeply. I pull my legs up until my knees are next to his ears and spread myself wide open, giving him everything. He asks me if I'm sure and I turn to hold Michael's eyes as I answer yes, filling me with your hot seed will make this night perfect. Richard doesn't ask again, instead sliding his hands under my ass and lifting my hips to meet his thrusts. He is going so deep he hits my cervix on every thrust and it is driving me insane with erotic excitement. I place both my hands on his ass and look him in the eyes and when I feel the first pulse of his swelling cock, I pull him as deep as he will go, right into my womb, as he shoots his sperm again and again into the heart of me.

When it is over we don't move for a long time. His fat dick is a plug in my pussy, sealing all that jism inside me. I peek at Michael and his hand and lap are covered in a sticky mess of his own cum. Richard and I begin kissing tenderly.

I thought we were done and so did Michael but nobody told Richard. When I tried to separate from him he held me close so I stayed wrapped in his arms. Richard, still buried inside me, began a conversation and the three of us talked about what had just happened. I was thrilled by our banter. How wicked! After a while Richard began to grow again, which turned me on like nothing else ever has, and soon we were at it again. All told, Richard filled me with his sperm four times that night and Michael never did.

Although we didn't know it at the time, Michael and I would talk about tonight for years, fueling some of our hottest and most wild sex. Richard had me many more times. Twice while we were at the office! We never got caught and nobody ever learned our secret. Michael wore a condom the next time we fucked and both of us went crazy because of it. We were so powerfully reminded of this night. Michael admitted to loving a little humiliation and I confessed I loved being a slut.

Book Two

Jess and Michael

Jess Enjoys a Young Man

From across the room Brandon Lewis, The Don to his friends, watched a couple paw each other in the darkness of their private booth.

That woman is sexy as fuck, he thought, I should walk over and introduce myself. If she's so hot for one, maybe she'd really like to make it two. He glanced at his watch and decided either his friends weren't coming or their fake IDs were not as good as his and they got caught at the door. With the recklessness of male youth he finished his shot and crossed the room.

Robert and Jess were just about to leave the bar and head to the room upstairs when Brandon approached and introduced himself. Robert tried to make it polite but brief but Don was persistent, inviting himself to their booth, talking a million miles an hour and ordering another round of drinks.

At first Jess was annoyed but Brandon was so overtly flirtatious and aggressive she found herself rooting for the kid. He was very handsome but also very young. He reminded Jess of a high-school quarterback; big, muscular, cocky and arrogant. Tousled jet black hair and big blue eyes, Jess found him quite charming even as he was acting completely obnoxious. Robert was doing his best to send the kid on his way but Brandon was unstoppable. He kept the conversation going every time Robert tried to end it. He had set his sights on Jess and nothing would get in his way. Robert grew agitated. Finally Robert gripped Jess's wrist and pulled her from the booth, suggesting they pay the tab at the bar and go on their way. Jess worried things were coming to a head and left with Robert, casting a glance and a sexy smile over her shoulder at Brandon.

At the bar Jess excused herself to use the restroom and text Michael, telling him about the kid and admitting she liked being fought over.

“100 years of women’s rights down the drain. I’m such a feminist disappointment.”

Michael text right back: “LOL...I love that kid! Did Robert reserve a room there? Are you going up to it with him? Wasn’t tonight just supposed to be a ‘get to know you’?”

Jess smiled. Michael was always so tormented. He wanted this to happen but was always such an emotional wreck whenever it did. Incredibly excited and incredibly jealous, Jess quickly learned she should just pursue what she wanted and trust the two of them would sort it out later. One thing she did know was absolutely unshakable; in spite of his turmoil, when she got home, Michael would be hard as a rock.

Jess heard the bathroom door open and put away her phone. Finishing up her business, she exited the stall, ready to take Robert by the hand and go up to his room. Brandon stood waiting for her.

Before she could say anything he moved right up on her, planting his lips to hers. She tried to pushing him back but he was way too strong. She felt him pinch her nipples and rub her clit. Each time she would attempt to smack his hand he had already moved it and was caressing and squeezing her somewhere else. His left arm around her waist was like an iron bar. He held her to him and her strength meant nothing.

Still roaming her body with his free hand, he pulled them both back into her stall and locked the door. Jess pulled away long enough to threaten to scream if he did not back off and he just smiled an arrogant little smile and slowly brought his mouth to hers. She did not back away. He kissed her deeply and passionately, telling her he had to have her; she was the sexiest, most beautiful woman he had ever seen, confessing he had been watching her since before Robert arrived and noticed she wore a ring but Robert did not, and if you really want me to stop, if you are really so afraid of me, then why are you so wet?

Jess gazed into his young, gorgeous blue eyes and saw his desire and hesitated. Fuck. He was right.

He is gorgeous, she thought. Young, but gorgeous.

Brandon stepped back from her and boldly unzipped his pants. He fished around and gradually tugged out his thick, throbbing cock. He was not the biggest Jess had ever seen but he was big. The shape of him was beautiful. Longer than Michael and also significantly thicker, his youthful prick bounced with every beat of his heart. Jess had never seen a dick get so hard. She stepped forward, gazing at it now, and wrapped her fingers around the shaft, squeezing him. His shaft was unyielding, as dense as marble. She pulled him the rest of the way out of his fly and admired the beauty of it. His shape and proportions were absolute perfection. Jess had never seen a penis like it. All at once she knew what she wanted to do.

“Do you have a car?” she asked him.

“Motorcycle.”

Jess smiled. “Of course you do.” Fishing in her purse she found her phone and asked him his number. Next she text him her home address. Brandon was grinning like a conqueror. “Give me an hour,” she instructed, “then head for my house. My husband is out of town so no one will interrupt us. You can have me all night. ”

Brandon beamed and kissed her one last time while zipping up. Jess checked to make sure it was safe for him to exit the ladies room and Brandon was gone. She quickly text Michael and told him she would be home in an hour and to leave on the lights but hide in the bedroom closet. She was meeting someone at their house and it wasn't Robert. She would save Robert for another time.

Michael read the message three times then asked her whom she was meeting.

“A man,” she text. “A young man. He's arrogant and cocky and obnoxiously full of himself. You won't like him at all. He's gorgeous and tall and muscular and his cock is the most beautiful I've ever seen. Not the biggest, but so very pretty. I hated to let go of it.”

Michael gaped at his phone. What the fuck? He wondered. He tried to guess what had happened but realized it was impossible and gave up; Jess would explain all when the time was right. He set about to make the house look like he was out of town.

When Jess returned to Robert he was still waiting to pay the tab. He put his arm around her and she snuggled up to him feeling intensely sexual. On her walk back to him she considered that at that moment three incredibly attractive men all wanted her and to some degree, all three would have her tonight. She felt wicked and naughty and powerful. Of course, her husband would have to enjoy her last, but that was the way both of them wanted it. She thought about Robert and how desirable he was. Robert is long term, she thought. Robert will still be around a year from now, pinning me down in the bed I share with Michael and pounding me with his big cock. Brandon is just for tonight.

When Robert stepped back from the cashier, Jess spoke to him.

“Robert, sweetie, something has come up. I won’t be spending the night with you.” She loved the disappointment in his eyes and that she saw not even a hint of anger. Before he could speak she leaned into him and went on. “But I am going to spend some time with you.” Jess discretely cupped his balls through his pants, whispering hotly into his ear. “Take me upstairs to your room. These are full of precious liquid treasure and I intend to suck it out of you...”

Robert’s eyebrows shot up and Jess felt his cock jump in her hand. With his arm around her waist he steered her towards the elevators.

An hour later Jess was driving home with salty lips. Robert filled her belly and Brandon lay on her horizon. She had text Michael throughout the blowjob she gave Robert and sent pictures and knew at home he was going insane. When she sent him the text it was time to hide in the closet, he tried to ask a million questions but Jess silenced him.

Robert had been very understanding but a blowjob from Jess usually produced that reaction. Jess had explained that with Robert she felt something strong and connecting...she wanted to take things a little slower. He said he felt the same and although disappointed, he agreed waiting would heighten the excitement. Jess had been very pleased with his dick and knew when the day finally arrived he would use it to drive her crazy.

At the house Michael positioned his chair and adjusted the door. Their closet was huge and right near the bed so he knew he would have a perfect view, but his mind was racing. Tonight Jess was so full of surprises. So far nothing had gone the ways they had discussed it might. Michael felt a lack of control over Jess he had had never felt before.

Even when I had to wait for her and Thomas outside the couple's area I still believed a big piece of her was just doing it for me. Tonight she has yet to include me in any choice she's made. I think it's exciting that she wants this much sex and I love that she wants other men, but I am also afraid of losing her and feel less important to her.

Michael pondered a moment, considering all the thoughts and emotions crashing around inside his head. Finally he reached a conclusion. Bottom-line, he thought, I don't really have a choice, any sense of control is an illusion anyway and none of this matters because ultimately, I get so turned on when she's sexual I'll let her fuck anyone she wants and love her for wanting them. Every time she's fucked someone else it has brought us closer. I just need to have faith in us.

The rumble of a motorcycle pulling into the driveway brought him back to the moment. He checked the view one last time and spreads open his bathrobe, revealing his naked body beneath. His penis had already begun to swell with anticipation of Jess's appearance. He heard a car-door thump outside and knew Jess was home now too. He silenced his phone.

The front door opened downstairs and laughter drifted up to him. He heard voices, one male and one female, but could not hear what they were saying. Keys hit the coffee table and shoes hit the tile floor. A belt buckle jingled.

That would be him....Jess isn't wearing a belt tonight...or panties or a bra, his brain tossed in at the last second. Michael pictured Jess one floor below him, that wonderfully sexy dress he bought her wrapped around her amazing body. He imagined the mystery man eating Jess alive with his eyes, wanting her so badly. Jess would love it.

Downstairs all was quiet for a few moments until Michael heard lips smacking and knew his wife was kissing another man. A surge of blood filled his penis and the shaft lifted off his leg. His balls ached and felt hot. Experience had taught him that because of Jess's potential infidelity they had shifted into maximum sperm production; nature's way of keeping him in the fight to breed her. The thought occurred to him that at that exact moment the balls of their mystery house guest were also in maximum sperm production as mating seemed imminent.

This shit kills me, Michael silently groaned, but Lord help me, I love it.

Just as he began to worry they weren't coming upstairs and he would need to reposition himself, he heard Jess say, "Not down here...neighbors can see in the windows...let's go upstairs..."

Michael held his breath.

When Jess entered the room, Michael almost moaned out loud. She looked unbelievably sexy. Her hot little body filled the dress perfectly and the flashes of tone skin and curves stiffened his dick. Her hair was slightly mussed and he knew Robert had done that to her while guiding her mouth up and down his prick. She led by the hand a tall young man dressed now in only his jeans. Michael knew the rest of his clothing lay on the living room floor downstairs. He was tall and muscular with incredible definition. Jess brought him to the foot of the bed, just inches away from where she knew Michael was hiding. She leaned into his chest and Brandon held her face and kissed her.

"You are the sexiest woman I've ever seen," he said, pulling back to look at her, "and I go to State. That place is crawling with talent but none of them even compare to you. You're fucking perfect."

Jess blushed but loved every word tumbling out of his mouth. Brandon turned her to face the mirror along one bedroom wall and stepped behind her, kissing her neck. Jess watched his eager hands roaming her body and when he arrived at the clasp which held her dress in place, her eyes met his in the mirror. Brandon flashed his cocky grin and the dress puddled at her feet. Jess stood motionless as his eyes devoured her. Goosebumps rose and her nipples tightened but she remained where she was, so thoroughly enjoying the raw lust in his eyes that she didn't want to move and risk breaking the spell. Michael watched as his wife tenderly yet passionately kissed this young man.

"Take my cock out," Brandon ordered.

Jess's eyebrows went up and a small smile curled the corner of her mouth. Now he's feeling like he's in charge. Men are so funny. I'll play along...

Jess kissed her way down his hard chest and rippled stomach, licking and nibbling as she went. Brandon sank his fingers into her hair. Once she was low enough, Brandon tugged her hair, hard, and forced her to her knees. Jess thought about telling him to lighten up but waited. Besides, she was remembering the gorgeous cock just behind his pants. With practiced hands Jess unbuttoned and unzipped his jeans, pulling them down. Brandon pulled her mouth to the front of his boxers and made her kiss his shaft through his underwear.

"Now my boxers."

Jess looked up at him humored by the new sound of command in his voice. His eyes shone with excitement at a woman as gorgeous as Jess doing his bidding. Jess did not want to discourage him, for now, so she went along with it and slipped two fingers in his waist band and pulled. As soon as his cock came into view she stopped. It thrilled her just to look at it again. It seemed to radiate power and masculinity and her pussy tingled in anticipation.

"Lick my dick," Brandon directed. This time Jess didn't question as she was dying to do it anyway. Her tongue snaked out past her lips and curled around the head of his cock like a serpent. Brandon moaned. With broad strokes Jess slathered the inches of his thick shaft, lost in her rising desire. She wriggled the tip of her tongue into his cum hole and raked her nails across his nut sac. His penis grew and Jess was entranced. When Brandon twisted her hair and made her lick both balls, Jess eagerly complied.

In the closet Michael was surprised at Jess's submissiveness. Brandon seemed like a punk, the kind of guy usually Jess would despise. Yet here she was on her knees eagerly worshiping his meat.

Brandon reached down and twisted one of Jess's nipples, hard, and Jess cried out. Michael stood and was about to slam open the closet door when he heard Jess gasp and tell Brandon to do it again. Michael froze. Brandon pinched her again and Jess groaned and licked his dick even faster.

As Brandon's cock rose, Jess's excitement grew. It was picture-perfect: perfect color, perfect thickness, and perfect length.

Even his virtually hairless testicles were the perfect size. Jess added her hands to the worship of Brandon's tool and soon he was glistening and erect. When Brandon ordered her to stand, Michael was shocked by how quickly she obeyed.

"Show me your wedding ring."

"That's lovely," he said. "Now use that hand to stroke my dick."

In the closet Michael, once again seated, bit a knuckle. Jess's ring, the ring he so carefully selected for her, was gliding up and down the dick of an arrogant young stud.

Brandon flashed a big smile and reached down for his jeans and searched his pocket. Walking to the wall-unit, he plugged in his phone and soon slow, sensuous music began. Then he tinkered with his phone some more. Next he held up a small glass pipe and lighter. Before Jess could decide if she wanted to smoke or not, Brandon filled the pipe and held it to her lips. As he fired it, Jess pulled the smoke into her lungs and, tasting cinnamon, held it as long as she could.

"What is that?" She exhaled.

"My own special blend," Brandon explained. "Give it thirty seconds and you'll feel your world fall away."

Jess was glad Michael lurked just a closet away. It gave her a feeling of safety and that made her feel reckless.

The sensation began as a light stinging in her clitoris. She closed her legs and Brandon laughed but when that did nothing to help she reached down and rubbed it. That helped a little. The stinging continued to build into a burning which spread from her pussy outward until her hips throbbed and her sphincter pulsed.

"What's happening to me?" Jess asked.

Brandon laughed again and offered Jess another hit, which she absentmindedly took. The effect was faster this time and instead of double, like she expected, it was exponential. Jess gasped and clutched at her pussy. Alarmed at what was happening to her, Jess searched Brandon's eyes to make sure she was alright. Heat radiated from her body out into the room. Centered on her pussy, her nerves were jangled and adrenaline pumped through her veins. Her whole body felt charged and the sensation grew with each heartbeat. Her skin glowed and tingled. Every nerve ending she had was on fire.

The music continued to build until a deep percussion and bass filled the room. Jess absorbed the music through her flesh and bones as the vibrations filled her body. The room spun as the beat turned her round and round. She slipped a hand down to her pussy and pulled back dripping fingers. Her pussy was gushing.

Brandon seated himself on the foot of the bed and spread his muscular legs. His waving cock hypnotized Jess and his big, hanging balls looked delicious. Unaware she was even doing so, Jess licked her lips and began rubbing her clit as she crawled across the floor towards that glorious penis. Brandon stroked her hair and opened his legs wider, then leaned back on his elbows as Jess licked and sucked every square centimeter of his cock flesh.

Jess bobbed her head on his shaft as fast as she could. She wanted his sperm. She needed his sperm. She pulled and twisted the skin of his scrotum and pushed a finger up his ass. She could already taste his salty pre-cum and it was driving her crazy. She was choking and gagging as she forced his thick inches farther down her gullet.

Pleeeeeeease, her mind whined, please give it to me!

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! The music was peaking and the whole house shook.

Brandon moaned loudly and put both hands on the back of her head.

“Here it comes, Baby,” he told her, “drink it. Drink me. Swallow my load in your husband’s bedroom!” As he began to cum Brandon pulled Jess’s head forward and forced more of his cock down her throat and felt Jess working with him, opening her passage, pulling his ass towards her mouth. A second later he felt her lips reach the base of his fat cock and as his cum was spewing from his root, his hips bucked and jerked.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

Brandon pumped out jizz again and again. Jess was still rubbing her clit when suddenly she climaxed without warning. Her hips thrust back and forth and she moaned around the shaft buried in her throat and the drug in her veins made her wish with all her heart she had a big, hard cock buried in her pussy too. Jess swallowed and sucked every drop from him, massaging his shaft with her throat muscles, coaxing every last droplet he had. Brandon collapsed backwards onto the bed.

Jess held him deep until she felt him begin to deflate then allowed him to slip from her mouth. She crawled up on the bed next to him and snuggled under an arm even as her hand sought her clit and continued rubbing. She had almost climaxed a second time from the excitement of sucking his cock but now it was tantalizingly just out of reach and she craved it.

After a few minutes the music dropped back down to a sexy bass line and Brandon reached for the pipe, checked that some was left in the bowl, and then fired Jess another small hit. Jess closed her eyes and felt herself float up off the bed. Her skin had become connected to the energy that permeates all space and matter and she could not tell where her skin stopped and the universe began.

“I’m so high,” Jess breathed. “I love this shit.”

When Brandon took her nipple into his steaming hot mouth, her cunt jerked. She was dying to have a cock in her pussy. She desperately needed it. Brandon left her lying there as he walked downstairs and brought them both a tall glass of water.

He approached the bed and helped Jess drink. As he took the glass away Jess was trying to tell him something.

“What, gorgeous girl? What are you trying to tell me?”

Jess struggled with her words. “I saw myself...from above...sucking your cock...in my mind I pictured...perfectly...what I looked like down there, so hungry for your cum...it took my breath away...”

As Jess trailed off Brandon realized another wave of erotic sensation was washing over her. He leaned forward and softly drew his fingertips all over her body, watching the goose bumps cascade across her flesh. As the music began to up tempo again, Jess arched her back; eyes squeezed shut, her nipples strained and throbbing.

When he crawled up onto the bed and licked her slit, Jess clawed the bedspread from the pure electric jolt that raced through her. Brandon sank his tongue up inside her as far as he could get it and Jess cried out. He began to feast on her using his tongue and lips and fingers. He explored and teased every inch of her sweetness, backing away whenever she got too close to orgasm, holding Jess on the edge of madness for a long, long time.

By now the young man was fully erect once more. Gently opening her legs and moving between them, Jess felt his hands on her and parted her hands to look down. His meat towered up from his lap, mere inches away from her pussy.

“Oh my God,” she whispered. “Look at you. Your cock is beautiful. I mean it, Brandon. You have the most beautiful cock I have ever seen.”

Brandon did not speak but instead crawled closer on his knees. When he was almost touching her labia with it, he told her to take his cock in her hand which she quickly did, pumping his length.

Brandon held up a condom he had pulled from his jeans pocket and raised an eyebrow. Jess sneered and smacked it out of his hand and across the room.

Her eyes now full of wicked light, Jess slowly spread her legs as wide as she could get them. “Fuck me in my husband’s bed,” she breathed. “Pump your cum into me. I want to carry your sperm, Brandon.”

From the door another voice answered. “Then I guess we arrived at exactly the right time...”

Jess lifted to her elbows and Michael jerked his head to see who was speaking. At the door two more men, boys really, stood smiling at Brandon and Jess. Tyler, tall, blonde, blue eyed, and Zack, Asian, the shortest of the three and the most heavily muscled. Both boys had wide grins on their faces. Brandon spoke to Jess.

“I’m happy to hear how you feel about condoms Jess because all three of us can’t wait to fill you. You want to be fucked, Beautiful?” Brandon waited for Jess to nod and she did. “That’s wonderful...we feel the same way. I text my friends when I started the music and now all of us are here just for you.”

Michael saw Jess glance towards his hiding place and waited for a sign. This was something very different than the night she had expected and Michael did not know how she felt about it.

Jess broke into a wicked grin and cupped both breasts, then pulled her legs up to her ribs, spreading them, obscenely offering her engorged cunt to all three. Zack and Tyler stripped in a flash and joined Brandon on the bed. Zack fed Jess his thick cock as Tyler dove in and feasted on her erect nipples. Brandon nudged her wet hole with the tip of his dick and Jess moaned around Zack's cock. Allowing her just a little at a time, he slowly worked his plump cock into her tight pussy.

The drug running through Jess's body turned her into a sensation craving whore. Once Brandon had his fat cock fully seated inside her, she had her first earth-shattering orgasm and never really came down from it. As the three men used her, Jess was in a constant state of climax or near climax, and actually blacked out from pleasure twice. The three continued to fuck her limp body until she came around and joined them again.

When Brandon shoved his cock right up against her cervix and unloaded his huge flood of sperm, in the closet, Michael arched his back and shot his hot cum into the air. It took all his will power to keep his mouth shut as his exhilarating orgasm snapped his hips forward. Another jet followed the first and landed with a thump on the carpet: then another and another. Michael dropped to his knees as still another bolt flew from his penis. Finally spent, he lay in a fetal position on the floor, the music pounding in his ears.

Brandon smiled and leaned over Jess. He marveled again at this sexy woman beneath him. She was writhing as the drug pulsed in her veins and the music shook the walls. She was the most gorgeous thing he had ever seen and she desperately wanted each boy to fill her pussy with cum. Her hips never stopped moving and slammed up to meet each cock that fucked her.

All through the night, Jess would scream again and again as they took their turns with her and they took their time. Their young cocks conquered every hole she had and each boy emptied his balls there. They showered briefly, Zack and Tyler holding her off the ground as Brandon fucked her standing up, and returned her to the bed.

As the night wore on, Jess's emotional attachment to Brandon grew. The others filled her and pleased her immensely, but Brandon was something special. Jess knew Brandon was too young for anything serious and had no real interest in him in that way, but women are different than men. Sex connects them to their partner in a way that men often do not understand. Brandon made her feel things neither Michael nor any other man she had ever been with had ever made her feel. Jess craved his touch, Jess needed to please him; Jess wanted his seed inside her womb and drained him every time he became hard again.

Michael stared from the closet, his heart wrenching but his cock hard. It was difficult for him to watch Jess connect to Brandon like this but bursting from the closet and demanding she stop would solve nothing. Once again he found himself needing to count on faith and trust to get him through. He had to believe in the end, and by her choice, Jess would remain completely his.

By his third orgasm Michael was spent. Emotionally and physically he had nothing left. One by one the boys had exhausted themselves. Tyler dressed and left first and Zack not too long after that.

At last Brandon rolled off Jess and sighed, utterly done. He had not another drop of semen to give her. They kissed a few times and lay on their backs and Jess was asleep before Brandon could speak. He slid from the bed, kissed her forehead sweetly, dressed, gathered his belongings, and then he was gone too. Finally Michael stepped from his hiding place and pulled a sheet up over Jess, joining her under it. She nuzzled his neck and wrapped her arms and legs around him and they drifted off to sleep.

The next morning they woke and neither wanted to be the first to speak. Jess vaguely remembered what had happened but intensely remembered her connection to Brandon and knew Michael had to have seen it. She was afraid she had hurt him. Michael waited her out and eventually Jess began.

“Are you okay?” she asked.

“You tell me. You and Brandon were making love. Not fucking, making love. I saw it. Where do you and I stand?”

Jess winced from the pain and fear in his voice. She had to own it: Michael was right, her emotions had gotten involved. She thought for a split-second about blaming it on the drugs but Michael deserved better than that.

“Okay Honey,” she began, “you are right. I did get emotionally caught up in what was happening last night. I’ve thought a lot about it, about what I was feeling and what was going on inside me and it wasn’t Brandon Baby, it was his cock. I know that sounds strange and improbable but it is the truth.

“You and I have had several adventures now and I’ve come to learn something about myself. I have a fascination, a weakness, for large cocks. Brandon’s is the closest thing to perfection I’ve ever seen or felt. He fits me like a key in a lock. Typically sex is more emotional for women than men so I was more vulnerable and exposed going in. Something about the way he feels inside me triggers a sense of completeness I didn’t know I had. My pussy tells me she is perfectly satisfied when he is buried in me.” She saw the pain on Michael’s face so she talked faster. “It’s not the man, Baby, or in this case, the boy. Please try to understand. Maybe the smoke played a small part, I don’t know, but I promise you he is not a threat. I will not leave you for him. You are everything to me.”

Michael looked at the ground.

“I thought I had lost you,” he said.

“No way, Baby, no man on earth can fuck me away from you. That’s not it. We women take you men inside of ourselves. Sex is naturally intimate for us but we can make it impersonal. For men, sex is naturally impersonal but you can make it intimate. Brandon happens to possess a cock I have no defenses against. Now that I know he has it, I will never be able to resist him. Let’s hope he finds some nice college slut to fall in love with. I will never love him but he will always have my number. It’s embarrassing to admit that but the beauty of it is that since we share everything, you know it too.”

Book One

Marcela and Jared

Tiny Room with a Big View

Marcela wore an ultra-thin, snug ankle-length black gown and strappy sandals, and nothing else. Her hair was up, with strands about her face and neck, her make-up was perfect, and she was showing just enough cleavage to draw attention but not appear slutty. From just the right angle, the twin bumps of her erect nipples were visible.

Jared watched her from across the bar. He knew she had nothing on underneath her dress because he carried her bra and panties in his jacket pocket. He also knew how incredibly nervous it made her but he had convinced her to go along with it. They were on vacation, no one knew them here, and rules are meant to be broken.

They were both at a point in their lives that new adventures sounded more exciting than scary. Last night they had a late conversation about things they might try on this vacation. It took two bottles of wine but both of them laid their fantasies on the table. She admitted her ideas were pretty lame; her conservative upbringing had crushed such thoughts early on. She often wondered who she was sexually, what she might like if she but sampled some of the other items on the vast menu of human sexuality.

Then she asked him to share his thoughts. Did he have wide ranging fantasies? Were there other women he desired? He confessed he did not. In fact, he admitted, struggling with the revelation, one fantasy played over and over in his mind, always the same; watching the seduction and submission of his lovely wife at the hands of another man. He had no interest in other women at all. Marcela was surprised. Jared had never even mentioned anything about it. They talked about it long into the night and by the time they finally went to bed, Marcela thought she was beginning to understand and contemplated a few ideas her husband might find exciting. Since I'm not sure yet if I am brave enough to carry them out, she thought, I'll just keep them to myself. No sense in getting his hopes up If I'm just going to chicken out.

Jared remained in the shadows watching his wife. So many of the men in the bar had noticed her, his chest swelled with pride....and lust. He loved that other men wanted her. It excited him. He hoped she had noticed too but doubted it. She was usually unaware of her effect on others. He saw her looking around trying to locate him but he stayed hidden. Let's just see who she is on her own, he thought.

Marcela took a seat at the bar and glanced at her watch. In less than a minute a tall man approached and began talking to her. Jared sipped his drink and watched intently. The stranger ordered her a drink and in her nervousness, she gulped it down. He quickly ordered her another. Soon they relaxed, talking and laughing easily. Jared noticed the longer they talked, the closer the stranger stood. Soon the tall man had his thigh resting against Marcela's thigh. After a few minutes, he rested his hand on her knee. She glanced around but did not pull away.

I hope my husband is watching this, Marcela thought. My heart is pounding! This man is so handsome and confident. I can't believe he is flirting with me.

Marcela glanced down at her dress and realized in her seated position, the straps of her gown puffed out and revealed more of her breasts. Her instinct was to sit up straight and hide herself but this time she didn't. In fact, after a second or two she ran a finger along her neck and allowed her top to gap even more. A lightning fast glance at his face showed he had noticed. His eyes were riveted to her big, firm breasts. Marcela felt her temperature rise.

Oh my God, she thought, he can practically see my whole boob.

Resisting the urge to cover herself, Marcela loosened a strap on her ankle, knowing there was an excellent chance her top would gap enough to show the tall stranger a nipple. Another quick glance down proved that she had. A perfect stranger was gazing at her full tit and erect nipple. Marcela's heart raced and her throat went dry. Lost in her thoughts she heard the stranger introduce himself as Seth, from Chicago. She shook his hand and told him it was nice to meet him.

Jared saw everything. His cock was swelling quickly in his pants as he watched his lovely bride show herself to this tall handsome stranger. They talked for a while, always inching ever closer to each other, until the stranger boldly took Marcela's chin and kissed her on the lips. Jared was stunned! What would Marcela do? To his surprise, Marcela leaned into the kiss. If he had been close enough he would have heard her moan.

Seth knew he had her. Now he just needed to get her up to his hotel room. He talked with her a while longer, keeping her drink filled, and flirting and touching her every chance he got. He learned she was waiting to meet her husband so he knew if he was going to make this happen, it needed to happen fast, before her man arrived. He decided to go for everything. Seth leaned over and whispered hotly into her ear to leave with him, to come to his suite, to continue this conversation in a quiet room away from all these people. Marcela looked around again for Jared but failed to see him. She wrung her hands unsure what to do. She bit her lip, looking around nervously. Jared saw everything and understood. Heart pounding in his chest he wondered what his sweet wife would do next. Finally he saw her shake her head no. Relief and disappointment flooded him. He had desperately wanted her to leave with this man and desperately not wanted her to. What he saw next blew him away.

Marcela was torn. If she just left with Seth her husband would be left out, and that wouldn't work. Then she had an idea. She fished her pen from her purse and gave Seth her room number, telling him to give her ten minutes and then come up. Then she gathered her things and kissed Seth again and left the bar.

Jared was already in the room by the time Marcela got there. They talked a hundred miles an hour, nervous energy fueling their passion. Jared finally selected a perfect hiding place and kissed Marcela passionately. They exchanged 'I love you' and Jared slipped into the closet. His view through the slats was unobstructed and unspoiled. He would be able to see everything.

There was a knock at the door.

Marcela checked herself in the mirror and opened the door. They kissed passionately and Seth asked about her husband. He is buried in a poker game, Marcela lied, and apologizes, but assures me he won't be finished for hours. Seth grinned and wrapped Marcela in his arms. They kissed deeply, craving each other. Seth showered hot kisses on her lips, her face, her throat, and her breasts. Untying the knot at her neck, Seth lowered the straps of her dress, exposing her big beautiful breasts to the night air. Marcela's nipples were so erect in anticipation they ached.

In the closet Jared pulled his cock from his pants. Just twenty-four hours ago he was shamefully confessing his fantasy to his wife and now here he was watching her in the arms of another man. Looking down at his freed penis Jared marveled at how hard he was, wondering what bizarre twisted kink he had. His wife was about to be nude in front of another man and he could not be more excited.

Marcela pulled away. Seth gazed at her and marveled at his luck. She was stunning. Marcela reached up and tugged her dress down her hips and off. She stood now before Seth in only her shoes. The tent in Seth's pants said more than words ever could and Marcela could not take her eyes off it. Slowly Seth removed his jacket and shirt, and then slipped off his pants. His boxer briefs strained to contain his erection.

Jared had to smother a gasp. Seth's bulge was huge!

Marcela stepped forward and knelt, slowly kissed her way down his muscular chest and flat stomach. When she got to his waistband she hesitated.

Can I do this? She wondered. A million worries and thoughts crashed through her brain. If Jared doesn't come charging out of that closet in the next few seconds, I am going to continue, she thought. Several heartbeats later, she slowly lowered Seth's underwear. Seth could not believe his great fortune. She was really going through with it.

Marcela continued lowering his briefs. When his trim pubic hair came into view she bit her lip. I'm so excited, she realized. Fuck! I'm so turned on. I feel bad that this is not my husband but right now I don't care.

She pulled a little more and the root of his shaft came into view and Marcela's jaw dropped open. No way, she thought. He can't be that thick. He's as wide as my wrist. Wider, she realized. She pulled faster now, exposing more and more of him.

Finally his briefs cleared the head of his cock and Marcela dropped them. His cock was massive; long and thick, closely trimmed pubes and big, full, heavy balls. Veins traced the surface like a road map. Marcela could not believe the raw male power of it. She was mesmerized.

Jared had to resist the urge to bust out of the closet and stop the show. Seth's cock totally intimidated him. Marcela was clearly under his spell and he feared the loss of his wife. What have I done? His brain screamed at him. But he remained hidden, slowly stroking his penis and watching, allowing fate to run the course it had chosen for all of them.

Marcela was the first to move. Never taking her eyes off Seth's meat she slowly leaned forward and reverently kissed the shaft. Seth lovingly placed his hand on her head calling her a good girl and stroking her hair.

Jared just about exploded. That was exactly what he did with Marcela.

Marcela rained kisses all up and down the shaft and head. She had never seen anything like it. She had always liked the way they looked and been fascinated by them, but she had no idea cocks could carry so much power. She risked a quick glance at Jared's hiding place, wondering if he was as excited as she was. When Seth instructed her to open her mouth she did without hesitation and Jared watched in erotic horror as another man fed his wife the fat inches of his dick.

Seth got fully hard fast. Marcela was an expert cocksucker and soon Seth was moaning and thrusting his hips. He was too big for Marcela to take all the way but that didn't keep her from trying. She forced as many inches down her throat as she could get. Jared almost gave himself away when he saw a drop of pussy juice drip from Marcela's cunt to the floor. The bitch is soaked from sucking another man's cock! Jared let go of his penis because as conflicted as he was, he was about to make himself orgasm.

Marcela was conflicted too. This all happened so fast. She intended on teasing her husband and now she had the biggest, most beautiful cock she had ever seen fucking her mouth and she loved it. What if this is more than my husband wanted? What if he gets mad at me for going too far? Can I even stop? I want Seth to fuck me so badly... does that make me a bad wife?

Seth, sensing her turmoil, decided it was time to act before she changed her mind or guilt brought her to a stop. Get on the bed, he told her. Jared caught his breath; would she do it? Marcela looked Seth in the eyes and then dropped her gaze to his monster cock. Powerless to refuse him, she stood and walked to the bed.

Jared began stroking his penis again, emotions tearing him apart; he wanted to see what came next but he desperately feared what he would see. Marcela never took her eyes off that glorious cock swaying before her. As Seth approached the bed, Marcela moaned. Her empty pussy ached. She could not understand what was happening to her. What primal emotion had been triggered? She knew she was moments away from a man other than her husband penetrating her for the first time and one emotion triumphed over all the others. Her need to wrap her pussy around that perfect beast of a cock and be filled by it silenced all other thoughts clamoring for attention.

She rolled onto her back and slowly spread her legs wide, inviting Seth to take everything he wanted. Jared stifled a cry. She was doing it! She was really giving herself to another man!

Both men saw her glistening wetness. Her pussy lips, already swollen with runaway desire, dripped juices onto the sheets. Seth stepped forward. He was now fully erect and throbbing in time with his heartbeat. His powerful spear jutted up from his body like a bull's horn. Marcela whimpered in fear and desire for it. Seth grinned and moved even closer and Jared, so close to them he could feel their heat and smell their lust, watched as the fat cock head made first contact with his wife's pussy lips.

The head was so big it covered her opening entirely. Seth gently pushed, pulling in her surrounding skin and Marcela gasp as the first half inch split her open. She reached up to his arms and held on tight. Gently Seth pressed another inch in. Marcela's pussy lips parted like a blossoming flower, wrapping them over and around his cockhead, caressing his sensitive skin, trying to draw him in deeper. He paused and then pressed forward a little more, slowly feeding her his thick cock. Her tight pussy lips were stretched so wide they turned white at the edges. Marcela whimpered and lifted her hips a little to meet him. She was frantic with want. She needed that cock inside her.

Now came Seth's favorite moment. Should we stop and get a condom, he asked, innocently, slightly withdrawing his head. No! Marcela gasped out loud, afraid he would stop; afraid he would leave her empty and aching again. Her hips were gyrating, trying to capture him.

He held himself steady, loving her complete surrender. Marcela was torn up inside. She had never intended things to go this far. Seth should be wearing a condom, she realized, but she just couldn't stop long enough to be responsible. But there was more to it than just that. She had thought this vacation might be the perfect time for her and her husband to get pregnant. Over the previous weeks they had talked about it being time to start a family. She had stopped taking her pill over a month ago. This romantic get-away was supposed to produce a baby conceived in love and passion. If she didn't stop Seth right now she was in danger of creating a baby with a total stranger.

But she didn't stop Seth. In fact, as he deliberately sank his obese inches into her, she lifted her hips to meet him. Her pussy juices dripped from his shaft onto the sheets.

Jared was on his knees in the closet, less than a foot away, watching through the slats. The stranger's cock was glistening with his wife's excitement and her moans filled his ears. He had never seen her like this. Marcela was utterly enthralled by this man, flexing and rolling her hips on his shaft, trying her best to fuck him, to get him to fill her little pussy. Each mutual thrust would slide a little more of Seth's cock inside.

Finally, after long, long minutes of working it ever deeper, Seth's cockhead brushed Marcela's cervix. Marcela groaned from her belly at how full and stretched she felt. Never had she felt anything like this. Seth owned her body. Before this, with Jared, Marcela had always felt like she was mutually making love. Not this time. This time she knew she was being fucked. Seth dominated and impaled her. She was powerless and she fucking loved it. These feelings caught her totally by surprise but she had to admit them; Seth's huge cock made her feel things she had never, ever felt during sex before.

Seth held himself still, allowing Marcela to adjust to him. Soon she was grinding her hips against his and hooked her ankles behind his thighs. Seth began to stroke in and out of her and her moans and cries cut right through Jared. They were like a stab in the heart yet he kept stroking his hard penis. The veins on Seth's rampant cock stood out, pulsing and vivid. Jared could not tear his eyes away as this monstrous phallus drove into his wife over and over. Poor Marcela was strained almost to tearing but all she felt was intense pleasure.

I'm going to cum, Marcela realized. Oh my fucking God, his cock is going to make me orgasm! I've never climaxed just from penetration before!

"Oh my God," Marcela said out loud. "Don't stop! OOOOOhhhhh fucking Christ I'm going to cum!"

Seth pumped his hips faster.

"AAAAaaaa! Here it comes! I'm sorry Honey, I can't help it! NOOOooooo Oh fuuuuckkkkkk!!! Aaaaaaaaaa!!!"

Seth loved that Marcela apologized to her absent husband. He felt like the conquering Viking. As Marcela climaxed on Seth, she bucked her hips and arched her back so much Jared was worried for a second she would hurt herself. Her orgasm absolutely destroyed him but his hand was a blur on his penis. Too soon Jared felt his balls contract and jump. As Marcela writhed on the shaft of another man, Jared sprayed his wasted seed all over the closet door and carpet.

Seth growled out his delight. That's right you slut, he taunted her, cum for me, cum all over my big dick. Seth grinned like the cat that ate the canary and continued his relentless pounding of Marcela's tiny pussy. Marcela swooned for a while, losing track of where she was and what was happening to her. Eventually she came back around and wrapped her arms around Seth's neck, kissing him deeply and with intense desire.

Jared immediately regretted cumming. Now that his penis was deflating, watching his wife getting fucked somehow wasn't as exciting. Seth's huge balls kept smashing into her ass, splashing her copious vaginal juices everywhere. Seth lifted Marcela's legs over his shoulder and drove every inch into her. Marcela felt pressure against her cervix for a moment and winced, but then something happened and she felt herself open up inside. Electricity exploded in her hips and rushed throughout her body. Seth was long stroking her now and each time he buried his cock he would touch some clusters of nerves that had never been touched before and Marcela's body would convulse and send her up into the stratosphere of ecstasy. Her cries filled the room and Jared knelt and watched, mesmerized by a Marcela he had never seen before. Finally the pleasure built until Marcela could take no more.

"Oh my God!" she screamed. "What's happening to me? AAAAaaaaa fuck! I can't take it! Ohmygod! Ohmygodohmygodohmygod! AAAAaaaaa Fffuuuuccckkkkkk!!!

AAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!!!!” Marcela’s whole body clenched and spasmed. She gripped the sheets and twisted and turned on the end of Seth’s cock like a spit-roast. Seth kept pounding and Marcela screamed and then screamed again and then tore the sheets with her bare hands as she screamed again and the climax Seth was giving her drove her over the edge and into unconsciousness.

Jared held his head in his hands, more distraught and more turned on than he had ever been in his life. He didn’t know what to do so he remained hidden to see what happened next.

Seth slowed his thrusts way down until eventually he was just holding himself balls deep inside Marcela. Marcela came around after a minute and after some initial confusion, remembered everything that had happen so far tonight. She met Seth’s eyes, gazing at him with adoration and affection. She pulled his face close and they kissed tenderly, softly, taking their time. Seth slowly began to pump his hips again and Marcela eagerly lifted her hips to meet his. To Jared it looked like love-making and in a way it was. Marcela felt connected to this man now. They had shared something powerful and astonishing. Marcela caressed his back and face, murmuring sweet words into his ear, encouraging him, telling him she loved the way he fucked her, telling him she loved his gargantuan cock.

Seth took his time, feeling every inch of the depth of her. He kissed her lips and suckled her breasts and nipples, nibbling on her neck. He moved her to all fours and sank his inches into her from behind. He rolled over onto his back and let Marcela ride him, playing with her big breasts.

Finally he placed her again on her back and pressed his cock-head to her pussy lips. Marcela knew what was going to happen now and so did Jared.

Marcela considered telling Seth she wasn’t on the pill but then realized she wanted his semen inside her. She wanted Seth to shoot every drop as deep as he could. She wanted to walk around for days filled with his seed. She had never felt so womanly.

Marcela touched his face over hers and reached up to kiss him sweetly as he began to once again thrust deeply into her. She was amazed to feel another orgasm building. She realized it was the thought of his sperm deep inside her that was exciting her now and she pulled her knees up to give him even deeper access. Seth grunted at the insane pleasure of her pussy and when she drew up her legs, he had the answer to the question he had been wondering about; this woman wants me to cum inside her. He was thrilled. He had never been with a woman so sexy and passionate, so sexual and erotic.

Jared was crushed. His loving wife was so hungry for another man to inseminate her that he was forgotten. Ice water flowed in his veins even as images of reclaiming her flipped through his mind. He anguished over the events of tonight but blamed himself.

Seth pumped his hips faster. He slipped his hands under and cupped her ass, then really began to pound her. Marcela felt her impending orgasm jump up a level and put her hands on Seth's ass, pulling him deeper in time with his thrusts. Seth began to sweat. His hips were rising and falling rapidly now, driving himself repeatedly into the depths of Marcela. His fat balls slapped her ass.

Marcela felt him swell and knew he was almost there. She looked down at the meeting of their bodies and chills ran up her spine. Watching his big cock plunging repeatedly into her married pussy was so deliciously taboo.

"I want your sperm inside me, Seth," she panted. Seth grunted. "I've never wanted a man to fill me with cum as much as I want you to," she continued.

She knew Jared could hear what she was saying but she didn't care. "I'm giving you my pussy. Your cum will be in me for days." Seth took a deep breath, feeling his orgasm building closer and closer. "I won't let my husband fuck me," Marcela continued. "Your potent semen will have my pussy alone, undiluted and unmixed. Do you like that idea, Seth?"

Jared looked down at his own penis regaining life.

Seth moved his knees up and pinned Marcela down as he pushed and pulled his cock in and out. Immobile, she continued to encourage him; "Seth Baby, fill me up. Give me your sweet cum..."

Seth drew a sharp breath and Marcela felt him swell even bigger. Her own orgasm was distracting her now and she had to concentrate to go on. "Your cock is so much bigger and feels so much better than my husbands. I'm giving you my number. I want to see you again. You can fly to come see me or I will fly to where ever you live. I'll talk to my husband and get him to accept you and you can stay with us, fucking me whenever you want, filling me up again and again...”

Seth started a growl deep in his throat and Marcela knew it was time.

“FFffffuuuuckkkk,” Seth rumbled, his balls pulling up close to his body. Jared watched as Seth’s hips bucked and pounded his wife, his own cock now at full attention from listening to Marcela talk. Seth’s monster cock was fully buried inside Marcela and Jared wondered where it all went. Marcela held Seth tightly as his phallus worked her over. Finally Seth began pushing really deep and arched his back. Marcela gasped for breath and said oh shit, oh shit, I’m going to again and wrapped herself, arms and legs, as tightly around Seth as she could. Seth drove her into the bed and pummeled her little opening with his meat and when his orgasm slammed into him, he drove his cock-head as deep as he could, all the way up into Marcela’s womb and released his trapped flood of sperm. “AAAAaaaaa fuuuuuuck,” he thundered as his hips pounded her mercilessly and he roared his release, discharging an ocean of cum into Marcela’s fertile and eagerly receptive womb. His orgasm lasted a long, long time. Seth pumped powerful jets of white hot jizz up from his massive swinging balls.

Jared could not rip his eyes away, watching Seth empty himself inside his wife and watching his wife orgasm yet again on Seth’s cock.

Seth collapsed on Marcela. For a long time nobody moved. Seth and Marcela remained tangled for a long while as Jared waited in the closet. Finally Seth lifted his hips and his big, soft floppy snake slipped out of Marcela’s tiny cunt. Semen trickled out but Seth had shot it so deep it would never run out. It would stay in there, madly seeking her egg. Seth kissed Marcela and gathered his clothes, jotting down his number on a card before he left.

When Jared was sure he was gone, he opened the closet door and lay next to Marcela. Marcela mumbled something about being sorry for being such a bad girl. Jared calmed her, stroking her hair and kissing her face. He leaned over to look at Marcela’s red and swollen pussy, thinking about the hundreds of millions of sperm now coursing through her. A small drop of milky semen clung to Marcela’s pussy. Jared touched it with a fingertip and pulled a long strand away.

His cock was so stiff it ached. Marcela saw it bobbing and bouncing and compared it to Seth's. Jared looked at her with a question in his eyes.

"No Baby," Marcela said. "You heard me. I meant it when I told Seth you wouldn't have me. We talked about including our fantasies in our life more. I understand you better now. This was the most erotic moment of our life and I absolutely loved it. Imagine how hot you will be for me over the next few days knowing Seth has fertilized me. As we will lay by the pool, as we go out to dinner, as we cuddle up to sleep at night, even as we lay here now, you know I carry him inside me."

Jared was stunned at this new change in Marcela. She was right; a fire was burning and building in his gut. He needed to reclaim her. Marcela reached across to his jacket pocket and withdrew her panties. Pressing her pussy lips tightly together she slipped the panties on, trapping Seth's flood of cum.

"Come on Baby," she teased, "let's go out and get something to eat. I'm starving." Jared swallowed hard in a dry throat and nodded okay. He couldn't take his eyes off his wife. Marcela had transformed into something wildly sexual and erotic to him. Every curve of her body was new. His eyes came to rest on her flat stomach and one thought pounded his brain; she carries another man's sperm. She is filled with another man's sperm!

Marcela saw the tortured look in his eyes and loved it. Every woman should have a man that looks at her like that, she thought.

Down stairs Mr. and Mrs. B found an all-night diner. They waited until they were comfortably seated in a booth before they began to discuss the events of the night. Marcela was wildly excited and trying very hard to contain herself. She had convinced herself that when Jared came out of his hiding place he would be furious and when he wasn't, everything just fell into place for her. All her guilt and apprehension evaporated in an instant. She now knew with certainty Jared had spoken the truth; he did not desire other women. He desired other men for her. As crazy as that sounded she now knew it was absolutely true. She looked around and the other late night patrons, noticing a few handsome men. With her new understanding every one of them was a potential sex partner. The prospect was so exciting it made her dizzy. She still needed to tell Jared about discontinuing her birth control and her surprise family plans for this vacation.

Jared was also incredibly excited but in an altogether different way. Under the table his penis was painfully erect and would not go away. Images of his sweet wife flooded his mind driving him crazy. He had been hard since Seth had left their hotel room and Marcela enjoyed it too much to give him any relief. He longed to grab her and ram his stiff penis deep into her, releasing his pent-up cum...but he couldn't force her and honestly, her new found confidence was terribly sexy. Deep down he actually enjoyed the erotic torture of his wife carrying Seth's sperm inside her womb. He didn't understand it but he could not deny it.

Marcela shifted in her seat and felt a trickle of Seth's cum leak from her pussy. She told Jared what had happened and Jared groaned, his throbbing erection surging with blood. They talked about the night they had just shared and everything they had thought and felt. They agreed they felt closer and more in love than ever and also more aroused and excited than they ever had in their lives before. Jared then confessed that the most exciting part for him, and this was hard to admit, was Seth cumming inside Marcela. "That single act makes everything really real. Do you know what I mean Marcela?"

Marcela slowly nodded her head. Of course she viewed it from a woman's perspective but she understood exactly what he saying. Her instinct told her now was the best time to let Jared know about the birth control. She held her breath, hoping he didn't blow up and get angry.

Jared was stunned speechless. Huge, immediate, and intense fear rose up inside him as he considered what Marcela had done. Anger filled him. He felt betrayed. But could he really? His throbbing cock jumped at the news.

Marcela sat quietly waiting for him to say something and watched a thousand emotions pass across his face. She knew he was working his way through the wave of emotions she had triggered. He was clearly upset but she also saw that he insanely turned on. She reached across the table and put her hand on his. Their eyes met. Jared thought she had never looked more beautiful, more glowing and radiant than she did at that moment. He slid around the booth and put his arm across her shoulders. She snuggled up to him and put a hand on her belly then dropped her other hand under the table and squeezed his hard cock. Jared saw her hand cupping her belly and realized the implications; he'd seen a million pregnant women hold their tummy in exactly that same way. His cock jumped again and Marcela felt it.

"You like that, don't you Baby," she purred. "You were angry and scared at first but now that's fading away and you are just turned on."

Jared glanced around at the other patrons but nobody was paying any attention to them. Marcela squeezed his cock again. "I can feel him inside me Honey. My whole pussy and womb feel warm and swollen. I know it is killing you right now. You want to take me back to the hotel and fuck my brains out. Let's do this instead." Marcela quietly unzipped his pants and freed his penis under the table. Working him free, she began to stroke him, aiming his head at the floor, milking him. "I'm going to empty you Honey. Shoot your sperm on the floor. I'm going to keep your balls empty for the next few days while Seth's sperm slowly do their work. Don't worry, in a few days you can have me and I know you will ravage me like an animal. I am looking forward to it very much. But until then I want to build the tension until you are on the verge of losing your mind. I feel like you have opened up a whole new universe to me and I am just letting my imagination run wild."

Jared tried to resist but the knowledge of her insemination was more than he could endure. Every second he was keenly aware of the fact that Seth still filled her.

Marcela felt him swell and knew he would shoot any second. She stroked a little faster and Jared's hips jumped a bit as the first bolt shot from him. Quietly and quickly Marcela drained his testicles onto the ground.

Book Two

Marcela and Jared

Jared Learns a lesson

Marcela was never the same after that night. At first Jared was worried he would lose her but those fears quickly dissipated. In fact they were closer, more loving and more trusting than ever. They had no further adventures but their sex had a new level of passion that left them both gasping for breath. Marcela began to understand how fear had cheated her out of a more exciting and satisfying life. Now her imagination roamed and so did Jared's. The weeks flew by. On the outside Marcela was still a quiet, conservative, shy woman but inside The Slut ruled supreme and Marcela would release her in the bedroom with Jared.

After a month, Marcela learned she wasn't pregnant from Seth and she and Jared had some of the most intense sex of their life that night. They fell asleep wrapped in each other's arms.

One day Jared received a phone call from his boss Eric. Important German clients were coming to Vegas and Eric had arranged a stripper for them in their hotel room but the stripper had canceled at the last minute. Eric wondered if Jared had any connections and could he find a replacement stripper. Jared said he would try and hung up. Marcela had heard the call and asked Jared what his plan was but Jared was stumped.

After a minute of silence, Marcela volunteered to do it, something she never would have done just a short time ago.

Jared was shocked. Marcela rapidly explained that her background in dance would make her seem legitimate; none of the German clients had ever seen her nor were likely to again, and Jared would score huge points with Eric, which was hard to do.

"It's perfect," Marcela said. "I show up at their room, dance, take their money and run. You pick me up in valet and we make good our escape. If they ask me to stay I'll tell them I have another party booked so I can't."

Jared thought it over and found no flaws. "Okay," he relented, "Let's do this," and called Eric back.

A few hours later Mr. and Mrs. B pulled up to the hotel. Beneath her long coat Marcela wore her favorite lingerie, the same lingerie she had worn on her honeymoon. Her gorgeous body was wrapped in white satin and lace and just wearing it always made her so excited. They went over their simple plan one last time and agreed Jared would send a text in one hour to give her an excuse to leave. He kissed her goodbye and parked the car, finding a spot at a blackjack table.

Marcela walked through the lobby and headed for the elevators. Soon she was at the penthouse suite. Her legs were weak and her hands trembled but she took a deep breath and calmed herself. A confident knock on the door and she was invited in. Introductions were made and Marcela was pleased to discover that both men were fit and handsome, and especially well dressed in European suit and tie. They did not speak English so she pointed for them to take a seat and she would be right out, darting into the bathroom to check how she looked and prepare herself.

When she emerged in her lingerie they took their place on the couch and Marcela started the first number, dancing and moving around the room, teasing and flirting and really enjoying the effect she was having on the foreign visitors. They could not take their eyes off of her. Her big breasts were barely covered and as she danced the lace moved occasionally exposing a nipple. She approached each man in turns, stepping up between his knees, rubbing and gyrating and doing her best to turn him on. They stole hurried touches of her legs, her ass, her breasts, and even a few times between her legs. She stopped them at first but they were persistent and honestly, she liked it. Soon she was allowing them to feel her up as she danced right up against their pants.

Downstairs Jared was already up almost a hundred dollars. As he reached for his drink he noticed someone familiar crossing the lobby. Jared's mind reeled; it's Eric! Fuck! He must have decided to stop by and check on our clients personally. When he gets to the room and sees my wife he will throw a fit. Fuck! How do I warn Marcela? Jared downed his drink and tried to cash his chips but the cards had just been dealt. He would have to allow the hand to finish.

Marcela began the second number as one of the men poured her a drink. When she approached him she took it from his hand and swallowed it in one gulp. The warm fluid settled in her tummy and spread tingling fingers throughout her body. She gestured for another and the man eager poured it. The effect of the drink was immediate; Marcela felt her nervousness and apprehension disappear.

Now she was dancing free and fun, twirling and flirting and allowing the men to put their hands on her as they wished. Her hard nipples threatened to burst through the fabric and the short hem of her dress often lifted to briefly expose her shaved pussy. She felt herself growing aroused and wet but didn't care. Marcela finished the song and drained her fourth shot, excusing herself briefly to retreat to the bathroom to change into her next outfit. While slipping out of her first costume she heard the door to the suite open and close and voices speaking German, but of course had no idea what they were saying. She considered which outfit to wear and because she was feeling so good choose the one that showed the most skin. Let's see if I can drive them crazy, she thought.

When she emerged from the bathroom her smile froze on her face. Eric, Jared's boss, was standing in the room looking right at her. Seconds ticked off, which seemed like minutes to Marcela, and nobody spoke or moved. Marcela was keenly aware of her body and how much skin she was showing. Eric's eyes devoured her. She wanted to shrink or run. Finally Eric said something in German and all the men nodded in agreement.

"I told them you are very beautiful and sexy," Eric said, approaching Marcela and kissing her hand. "Tell me your name my dear."

Marcela exhaled, not realizing she had been holding her breath.

“I’m Marcela,” she replied.

“I am pleased to meet you, Marcela. Please don’t let me interrupt. I will take my seat on the couch with the others and you can continue your performance.”

Marcela was dismayed. It is one thing to dance for complete strangers but now she had to act like she had never met Eric and worse still, Eric was able to see almost her entire body. From this day forward every company picnic, office party, or any other gathering, Marcela would know Eric had seen her virtually nude. She felt herself blush. Then she considered the position this would put Jared in and how it changed his relationship with Eric and it took all Marcela’s willpower not to run for the door.

One of the gentlemen brought her another drink and she gulped it down. She took a deep breath and nodded to the other man to start the music. Let’s get this over with, she concluded.

Before she could begin dancing there was a knock at the door. Eric rose to answer it and Marcela just about died when Jared stepped into the room. Jared rapidly surveyed the circumstances and said he had stopped by to make sure everything was going okay. Then he returned his attention to Eric, waiting for the hammer to drop. But it didn’t. Eric loved this. With a smile on his lips he introduced Jared to the German gentlemen and then to Marcela as if the two had never met. Next he invited Jared to take the large chair against the wall and watch along with the rest of the men. Jared tried to swallow in a dry throat, failed, nodded, and moved towards the chair. Behind him he heard Eric say, “Of course, as you are a happily married man so I’m sure you want nothing to do with a stripper, but you can still watch us enjoy her.

Jared dropped into the chair and hung his head. He had no idea how to get out of this with all relationships intact. Nothing to do but ride this out, he reasoned.

Eric poured everyone another drink and pressed play. Marcela watched Jared for a sign, some clue as to the direction she should take but saw nothing so she guzzled her drink and started dancing, listless at first but then, accepting the situation and the warming effects of the booze, with ever increasing abandon. Several shots later she thought fuck it, I’m in it and so is my husband so let’s just play it out.

Jared watched Marcela dance. Her little outfit hid almost nothing and as she began to move with more energy all the men were treated to flashes of her gorgeous body. Soon she had the men hypnotized. Jared glanced at their pants and saw all three had sprouted large tents.

As Marcela would dance before each of them in turn they would run their hands all over her. Nobody held back now. Marcela was gasping for breath, pussy wet and nipples hard. She was standing before Eric when a fast song ended and a slow song began. She dropped her head and met Eric's eyes. Eric slid his hands up both her thighs and Marcela glanced at Jared. He cupped her ass and then continued up, under her lingerie, until he grazed her breasts. When his palms brushed her nipples she moaned and Eric looked at Jared.

"She loves this," he said. Jared could only nod and watch.

Eric slithered his hands back down her body until he arrived at her hips. Using one hand to brace her, he slipped the other hand down and under. Jared held his breath but Marcela moaned and exhaled. Moments later Eric held up his hand, his middle finger shiny and glistening with Marcela's juices.

"There's your proof," he stated. All the men smiled except Jared.

The song ended and another quick round of drinks was poured. Eric made a toast in German and everyone raised their glass and downed the drink. Marcela was perfectly warm and floating, her skin alive and electrified. All the attention and touching had driven her to a high state of arousal. Jared needs to get me out of here and take me home and fuck me, she thought. She looked at Jared seated against the wall, separate from the other men. Their eyes met and understanding passed between them.

Then Marcela felt several pairs of hands touch her body at once. She closed her eyes at the intense stimulation and melted into the incredible feelings she was experiencing. The men had gathered around her and she placed her hands on their shoulders to support herself as they caressed every inch of her fit body. Her head fell back and her mouth fell open. Sensations were pouring into her mind faster than she could process them so she gave up and just enjoyed the pure pleasure she was feeling. When Eric pulled the zipper down her back she didn't protest. When one of the men slipped the straps off her shoulders she leaned into it to help them. When she felt her lingerie land in a pile at her ankles and the warm air of the hotel room embrace her skin, she just drifted along with the incredible and powerful feelings flowing through her now.

Jared sat and watched the other men touched and caressed and slowly undress his wife. Eric glanced at him from time to time, enjoying the trap he had sprung. Jared gazed on as the men marveled at Marcela's strong and healthy body, her big firm breasts and sensitive pink nipples, and her perfectly smooth and hairless pussy. Eric looked right at Jared as he once again slowly pushed a finger up inside Marcela's cunt. When Marcela moaned it stabbed Jared right in the heart. My boss is such a fucker, he thought. I will never live this day down. For as long as I work there, Eric will always have this hanging over my head.

Eric spoke German again and they all helped Marcela to sit on the couch. Each of them then stood and began to undress. What the fuck! Jared's brain screamed at him. This is going too far! What does this bastard have planned? He rose from his chair determined to put a stop to this but Eric stopped him with a hard stare. There was a brief battle of wills, during which Jared could see to clear path out of his predicament. Every road ended in disgrace and social embarrassment. After several tense moments, Jared sat back down.

In answer, Eric stood right before Marcela and began to lower his boxer-briefs. Marcela gazed up at him then looked down at his bulge. She licked dry lips and glanced at Jared for direction. Jared just looked down at the hotel carpet. As Eric dropped his underwear Marcela scooted to the edge of the couch. Eric's cock emerged from confinement like a python, inches from her face. Marcela's eyes went big. Her jaw dropped open. Without looking at Jared or even asking Eric if it was okay, Marcela reached up and tried to wrap her fingers around him. They did not meet on the other side. Eric wasn't even fully erect and already was twice the size of Jared. Marcela mesmerized and fascinated with it. She was dimly aware that the other men were moving around her but at the moment she didn't care. She turned Eric's cock side to side, examining the shape, the color, and of course the sheer size of it. She was captivated by it.

Jared was having trouble breathing watching his wife fondle his boss's cock. The dancing had been bad enough but could all be chalked up to too much drink; no harm, no foul; easily forgiven. But this was a whole level. Marcela had her fingers wrapped around Eric and Eric was gloating and looking right at Jared. Just as Jared was about to say fuck it and grab Marcela and leave, consequences or not, Marcela froze him in his chair.

Marcela was gently stroking Eric now and feeling him thicken and harden. Just as Jared was about to stop everything, Marcela looked up into Eric's eyes and opened her mouth. Eric looked down and with a commanding nod, Marcela pulled him forward and slurped his massive cock-head into her mouth. After a few seconds Marcela moved her hands to Eric's hips and pulled him forward, forcing his head and shaft farther into her mouth, slowly working him towards her throat. Jared dropped back into his chair.

The other men approached and moved her to the floor, forming a triangle around her. Marcela was careful to prevent Eric slipping from her mouth for even a second. She reached for the other two men and was delight at the size and weight of them. All of them are bigger than my husband, she realized, and this thought aroused her greatly. I'm such a slut. I don't know why I love it so much but I do. Big cocks are so sexy! Marcela stroked the two cocks in her hands as she forced more of Eric towards her throat. She was sucking him hard as her tongue swirled and teased every inch of his hot meat.

Eric placed a hand on her head to guide her and steady him, and watched in marvelous surprise as his employee's wife devoured his big dick. The power of it went straight to his ego. He stared at Jared, sullen and withdrawn, and turned his hips to provide the best view possible. Marcela was a cock-whore, eagerly slurping and licking and sucking Eric's inches. Her spit dripped from Eric's fat balls. Eric leaned way back and enjoyed the visual show Marcela was providing. The two Germans finished removing the rest of their clothing and towered over petite Marcela, reaching down to squeeze a tit or nipple.

Eric spoke to Jared; "too bad you are happily married my friend. This gorgeous bitch is so worked up her juices are dripping from her pussy. I've met your wife and I can't say I blame you for sitting this one out. She is exquisite. I would never do something to jeopardize my relationship with her." He then turned to the other two men and repeated the message in German. They smiled broadly at Jared and gave him thumbs-up. Jared winced, watching his wife slurp and drool all over Eric's cock as she stroked them both.

Eric spoke to him again. “Take off your clothes too Jared. Pull the chair up closer. I’m not asking if you want to, I’m telling you to do it as your boss. Jared sat motionless for a moment looking for a way out. Finding none, he stood and undressed, dreading the moment he removed his boxers. Finally the moment could be postponed no longer and he dropped his underwear revealing a hard, throbbing penis. Eric laughed once loudly, full knowing and understanding in his eyes. Jared remained standing, unsure what to do next. A deep moan from Marcela brought all eyes on her.

Marcela worked the massive shaft and head, her lips and tongue slathering every steel-hard inch. Then she relaxed her throat and jaw, determined to take more of his huge phallus down her gullet. Eric placed both hands lovingly on either side of her head and, murmuring sweet encouragement, held perfectly still. Slowly, a quarter inch at a time, Marcela forced more and more of Eric’s cock down her throat. Her eyes watered and Eric groaned. The Germans watched in disbelief. Jared was suddenly seized with insane jealousy. This was too much to take. His sweet wife nude and manhandled was tolerable...even sexy. Watching her sucking a big cock was even exciting in a way. But this purely sexual, lusty display of desire for another man’s cock was too much. Marcela was mad with yearning for it and her lust stabbed Jared right through the heart. He gasped in agony.

Marcela swooned down there on her knees. She was surrounded by hung, gorgeous, sexy men and big, beautiful cocks. Sweet alcohol flowed through her veins demolishing her inhibitions and setting her free. Eric’s cock was huge and so pretty she couldn’t take her eyes off of it and wanted desperately to make it explode. I want to swallow every drop this beast can give me, she thought. She was vaguely aware her husband had moved up closer to them but just didn’t care. Her pussy tingled and ached, her mouth watered, and the slut inside her was running through the house smashing plates and ripping her clothes off. Marcela felt wild arousal building in her and feared it just a little bit, but not enough to pay it any heed. When the Germans reached down and began playing with both her breasts, she pushed forward and captured the last half-inch of Eric’s mammoth cock. She slipped her tongue out the bottom and licked his balls, coaxing that big load of cum out.

Eric moaned loudly. “Fuck!” He growled. “This slut can suck cock! No woman has ever taken that much of me. It’s so intense. Her tongue is licking my balls at the same time my shaft is down her throat. Jesus! She’s gonna make me cum fast!”

When Marcela heard him say that she started pumping her mouth faster up and down his cock. The Germans rubbed her tits roughly and twisted her nipples. One of them leaned down and split her cunt open with one of his fat fingers and Marcela uttered a high-pitched moan. Jared fell back into his chair but couldn’t stay away, moving his chair even closer to the action. One of the Germans spoke and Eric nodded. “Yeah,” he said, that’s a great idea,” and sat down on the couch. Marcela followed him, never allowing his cock out of her mouth. Now she was on all fours sucking Eric. Too late Jared saw what was happening.

The tallest German moved around behind Marcela. Jared got a good look at his cock for the first time and sagged. Every man here was much bigger than him. The tall German fished a condom from his pocket and tore it open but then they all spoke. Jared did not understand what they said but the man tossed the condom across the room and approached Marcela bare and unprotected. All three men laughed.

Marcela had her faced buried in Eric’s lap, the top of her head bobbing as she throated him. Eric’s eyes were closed and his head was back on the couch as waves of intense pleasure washed over him. The German behind Marcela moved up very close and Jared watched for her reaction, knowing exactly the moment his wife was penetrated with her second big cock. The jealousy Jared was feeling tripled but his cock just stiffened even more. Without realizing what he was doing, he began to slowly stroke his penis as he watched Marcela fucked now from both ends. Demoralized, he listened to her sounds of raw lust as she was filled with cock and loved it.

Eric opened his eyes and saw Jared had moved closer so he told him to come pull Marcela’s hair back so everyone could see better what she was doing to him with her mouth. “Besides,” he added, “I’m about to cum in her mouth and I think that is something you should see.” Jared moved up and collected Marcela’s hair in his fist, revealing the astonishing sight of Eric’s thick cock pumping in and out of her mouth.

Marcela held on tightly to Eric’s legs as the tall German fucked her from behind, moaning and groaning from the intense pleasure the men were giving her. As he stood there, Jared witnessed Marcela's first powerful orgasm of the night. Sandwiched between the two men she had no retreat and had to take every inch they were giving her.

When her climax slammed into her she was trapped and forced to take it as it electrified her body and sent her into convulsive fits. Watching her twist and writhe was more than Eric could handle and as Marcela was still in the throes of her contortions, Eric exploded with hot cum, forcing his cockhead past her tongue and down her throat, spewing boiling, frothing jizz as it erupted from his heavy balls. Jared stood there with a handful of her hair and watched it all. As her pussy contracted on the fat cock buried in it, the tall German could hold out no longer and after several rapid, hard thrusts, bellowed something Jared couldn't understand and detonated inside his wife, semen spraying forcefully deep up past her cervix and into her uterus. Jared let go of her hair as Marcela collapsed on the floor, twitching and jerking. Both men fell back, wiped out by the sheer power of their orgasms.

The remaining man approached and stood over Marcela, muttering something in German. Jared leaned forward, feeling protective now of Marcela as she tried to catch her breath and recover. Marcela whispered something but Jared could not quite catch it so he leaned closer... "I haven't forgotten about you...I haven't forgotten about you..." Jared was stunned! She wasn't finished!

Marcela slowly rolled over onto all fours and laid her head on the floor while lifting her ass high into the air. Wagging her ass back and forth she smiled and the German understood, hefting his cock and moving in behind her. Jared moved out of the way. Marcela reached back with both hands and spread her butt cheeks as wide as she could, splitting open her cum filled pussy and allowing some to dribble out and onto the floor. The man behind her smeared some of his friends cum on his cockhead as lubricant and pulled Marcela's hips back to him. Jared watched in shock as the man placed his plum-sized dick head at Marcela's sphincter and slowly but persistently pressed forward. Marcela began to groan at the wild pleasure of it then reached down between her legs and began to rub her clit. Eric and the Tall German had come around now enough to watch and moved closer to see what was happening. Eric put one foot on Marcela's head and Jared just about lost it but Marcela said yes, oh my god fucking yes, use me, fuck me like a whore and Jared sat back down. Glancing down he noticed his penis was harder than it had ever been. Embarrassed, he tried to conceal it with his arms but failed. Eric saw what he was doing and grinned. "Stroke it," he instructed Jared. "Go ahead...I want to see you play with it while she is getting fucked." Jared took his penis in his hand and began to stroke it but soon realized how close he was to cumming. In spite of all the internal conflict and embarrassment, he was still wildly turned on by what Marcela was doing.

Gradually the man fed Marcela's ass his thick cock. Marcela was soon going crazy from the intensity of pleasurable sensations coursing through her. She had not allowed a man in her ass for years. Jared had certainly never fucked her there. In college it had hurt the first time Marcela tried it so she had written it off as something she couldn't do.

Now this big German was showing her what she had been missing. Carefully but unwaveringly he was pushing every inch of his vast staff inside her. Marcela climaxed at about the half-way point, then came again when she felt his balls graze her clit. Once he was fully buried he rested for a moment allowing Marcela to adjust, then withdrew and slid it back home. Marcela squealed her pleasure. He did it again and again she howled. Next he began a steady rhythm of in and out and Marcela was clawing at the carpet at the extreme penetrating passion of the sensation. Marcela came again, her hardest of the night so far, and Jared buried his face in his hands. Tall German moved to the front and fed Marcela his half-erect cock, which she sucked in with incredible desire. Eric moved over and sat next to Jared, grinning like a bastard. The German fucking Marcela's ass grabbed both her hips and really began pounding her, his fat balls slapping her clit until it was on fire. Jared's erection was bouncing and aching. His balls felt hot. Confused, he felt like he was so close to cumming he'd better not touch it.

Fuck! Marcela's mind screamed at her. I can't take it! It's too much!

"Oh my God!" She gasped. "Jesus! That feels so good! That feels so GOOD! He's gonna make me cum again. I can't believe it! He's gonna make me cum AGAIN! Fuuuuuck meeeeeeee heeere it cooommes AAAAAaaaaa!!!"

He held her at the waist and drove his stiff cock into her again and again, ripping one last orgasm from her body. When he felt her sphincter squeeze and convulse, pulsing and jerking, he knew she was there and he sped up his pounding and roared his release. A torrent of jizz blasted from his cock deep up her ass, bursting free from his balls to paint her insides white. Marcela felt the white-hot fluid enter her and pushed her hips back to him, trying to milk every drop he could make for her.

Jared felt a surge of pleasure and looked down just in time to see his untouched penis spew a jet of sperm, then another. Before he even understood what was happening his balls had emptied themselves all over his lap. Eric walked to the bar, grabbed a towel and tossed it to Jared. Jared thanked him. Eric walked over and stood directly in front of Jared, his semi-erect cock just inches from his face. Jared couldn't help but look at it. That monster had been in his wife's mouth.

"Jared," Eric said, "I think you should get dressed and go down and play some blackjack, maybe you should go home to your wife. We will keep this girl entertained. We'll all take a shower and have room-service bring us something to eat, and then we'll take turns fucking her and feeding her our dicks. This will take a while and I'm sure your wife is wondering where you are."

Jared froze. The blood in his veins turned to ice water. His jaw dropped open. Leave her here? He questioned. With all of you? So you can fuck her all night long? NO WAY! His mind was racing for an answer, some way to leave and take her with him. He looked down at Marcela on the floor. She had moved to a sitting position against the couch but had made no move to cover herself or get dressed. Cum leaked from her pussy and her ass into the rug. No matter what idea he hit upon, he knew none of them worked. Dismayed, he sagged and leaned against the door.

"I'm supposed to take you to your next party," he said to Marcela.

She looked down at the floor and then up at the three well-hung men surrounding her.

"No," she quietly answered, "That's okay. They'll understand. I want to stay at this party. You go home now. I'll text you later."

Jared was crestfallen. He wandered the hotel room gathering his things and getting dressed. Occasionally he would glance at Marcela to see what she was doing. She was moving around the hotel room still completely naked. He saw her take another shot and begin kissing one of the Germans. Her puffy and excited inner pussy lips protruded just a little in an obvious invitation to the other men there.

Finally he was dressed and Eric, nude, his big dick swinging, walked him to the hotel room door. He took one last look around the room. Marcela was on her back on the couch with her arms and legs wrapped around a German like a spider. The German's cock was huge and hard and lining up with Marcela's pussy. Marcela reached down and gripped it, her small hand dwarfed by the size of it. The last thing Jared saw as Eric closed the door, other than Eric's now erect cock standing straight up, was Marcela's face contorted in pure ecstasy as the German pushed his big cock into her.
