Tarnished Vows

Part Two

Mike Jackson glanced at the clock again. Three minutes only! How is that possible?

He nervously scanned the Starbucks, wondering how many of these people took one look at him and understood what was happening. His wife, Sara, was at that moment about a mile away with another man, deciding to she'd fuck him or not. This was their very first steps into a slut wife lifestyle and Mike was a wreck.

He tried to stay home and wait for updates but that lasted less than thirty minutes. He had to get out of the house and do something. He needed stimulation.

Starbucks might have been a mistake though.

He felt sure everyone saw right through him. His gaze traveled the small coffee shop and in every pair of eyes he met he saw the same recrimination; you are a cuckold. They all knew. He felt so guilty. It had to be obvious.

What kind of a man shares his wife?

Mike coughed and looked down at the newspaper he'd purchased. He glanced at the clock again.

Two minutes. This is madness!

His phone buzzed and he fumbled to open the message, shielding the screen from the other patrons. A single picture with no accompanying text; a cock, big, pink, hairless, and erect. He examined closely the smooth skin, turgid blue veins, deep red helmet, thick shaft, and large scrotum.

Filled with a gallon of potent sperm, I'm sure.

They'd met the man on line. He called himself John Wright but they doubted that was his real name—nothing online was real these days—but they did not care. The pictures he sent were real, posing in every way they asked, and Sara squirmed when she looked at his handsome face and gorgeous meat.

“I want him,” she’d said three days later, and Mike made the arrangements. Like so many of the men online, John first wanted to meet Sara without Mike present. Nobody likes an angry husband.

This was their first adventure since the events of last year and neither knew exactly what to do or what to expect. In the weeks that followed the Randy and Tina incident, Mike and Sara had the deepest and longest conversations of their lives. They’d bared their hearts and souls, bravely trusting in the love they shared.

Sara admitted she craved more, much more, frightened by the roaring within her. A sleeping spirit was awake now and her hungers could not be ignored.

Mike agreed they could not go back to where they’d been. Many men would have broken with Sara, ended the marriage and moved on. Such thoughts never occurred to him. He was anxious about what lay behind the door they’d opened but determined to explore. He’d learned something powerful about himself and while this discovery generated deep feelings of shame and disgrace, he suspected he felt those things because he’d been told he should feel those things. What he truly felt was still partially hidden and difficult to face squarely and admit to, but he wanted very much to try.

They’d discussed all sorts of fantasies; Sara imagined specific men but Mike envisioned different scenarios, some of them too kinky too share.

“Tell me, Baby,” Sara had pleaded. “I won’t judge you.”

Mike shook his head. “I’m too embarrassed to talk about them. Maybe I’ll just surprise you instead, if you’re okay with that.”

Sara felt a rush. “That sounds exciting, Honey. Do it. Surprise me.”

One thing they had agreed on; this time, absolutely no friends. Inviting friends into your sex life got things too complicated too fast. Better to stick with strangers. If they were going to do this there had to be some boundaries.

So now Mike found himself waiting in agony while in another part of town his beautiful bride sat in a similar coffee shop and enjoyed conversation with a stranger.

John said he was experienced with married couples and they believed him. He knew exactly what to say. He knew their fears before they did. He instructed them what steps came next and led them down the path.

When he requested pictures of his own, it had been Mike that guided the razor over his wife’s genitalia until they were as smooth and hairless as

John's. Mike got an erotic charge as he carefully prepared his wife's pussy for the enjoyment of another man. He grew stiff as he moved the blade over her labia and around her mons. He wrestled with this new understanding of their marriage but felt inescapably drawn to it.

They'd talked many times and for hours about what they'd discovered with Randy and Tina and Jennifer and Dean. Thanks to their scandalous friends, they knew sharing Sara with was something they both wanted. Since then they'd questioned their decision many times but it always came around again. The desire haunted them.

It was Sara that suggested they search online and with the sexy pictures they posted of her fit body and full tits, big hazel eyes and long brown hair, the responses were overwhelming. They narrowed the search easily because the man had to be hung as well as handsome. From that small pool, Sara chose John.

Sara and Mike fucked like animals that night, taunting and teasing each other with what might happen. He held back as much as he could but when Sara described John's huge cock and how much she longed for it, Mike erupted.

Mike's phone buzzed again. This picture showed that massive erection with Sara sucking the first few inches. John was too big to take more without time and effort and since the background looked like they were in his car, they had neither.

Mike zoomed in. His pretty wife sucked hard on the head, her lips stretched into a red O around the shaft. The concentration on her face showed how much she loved that slab of beef. Mike knew they wouldn't have sex; Sara was too close to ovulation and not on birth control. But she would suck until John shot and then she'd swallow everything he gave her, until about a year ago, something she'd never done for anyone.

Mike shifted in his hard plastic chair. His penis had grown and was bent uncomfortably inside his jeans. He knew when he met Sara at home later, her mouth would taste salty and tangy.

Yes, Starbucks was a bad idea.

He carefully adjusted his penis and texted a reply. "Suck that big cock, Baby. Get nice and wet so I can put a baby in you."

He hit send and glanced around again. No one knew anything, of course, but stepping this far over the line of conformity sure felt conspicuous.

Sara's friends, Tina and Jennifer, had led her down a road with no return. Sara had cheated and hidden it to protect Mike, but slowly came to understand her husband found pleasure in her infidelities too. When the truth was revealed he welcomed her lust, even encouraged it, and they'd decided to make it part of their marriage. They left Tina and Jennifer out of it, for now, exploring on their own. Only that way could they be sure this was all about what they wanted and on their terms.

Today was their first baby step. No more bedroom dirty talk. No more memories of adventures past. No more fantasies of what might happen should they try. This was them, a happily married couple, pursuing what they wanted.

His phone buzzed. The picture showed Sara's bald pussy tightly wrapped half-way down that huge and unprotected erection.

"Goddamn it!"

Several people looked up at him. He leaned over his phone and stared at the photograph.

It's happening again! She's doing it again! Oh, dear God, he's inside Sara right this moment!

Mike's mouth went dry and his palms wet. All their talk about condoms got thrown out the window in minutes. Sara had a fetish for big cocks. She had no defenses against them. She could talk all she wanted but in the presence of one her mind went blank and her body took over.

Please, John, do not cum in her.

Mike pictured Sara's belly stretched with another man's baby. Ice cold sweat broke out all over his body. He pecked out, CONDOM! as fast as he could and smashed the send button. His penis was hard as steel but that didn't matter, not on this.

Mike grabbed his coffee and stormed out the door. There was a park across the street and he aimed for a bench. He felt his phone vibrate inside his pocket but had to wait until he was through traffic to check. This picture showed every inch of John's huge dick up inside Sara. Her skirt was bunched around her waist, her knees straddled his legs. She rode his horse cock in the back seat of his car.

Alone in the park, Mike rubbed his penis through his pants. Sara's little pussy looked so juicy, so sexy. Her lips split wide to accommodate John's girth and the lack of hair on both added a surprising visual element Mike had not expected. Smooth hairless genitals focused attention on the merging flesh and looked strangely intimate. Clearly, they'd planned to join their bodies and he had a perfect and unobstructed view.

Mike practically heard Sara's cries of pleasure. The truth was he loved seeing John's unprotected cock balls-deep in his wife but he dared not tell her that. He had to battle her to agree on condoms. She hated them. If she knew how he really felt she'd never use one.

For half an hour Mike sat alone and waited. The sexual frustration was crippling. He checked his phone just like he'd checked the clock, irritated by time's slow creep. His testicles ached. His penis felt hot and extra sensitive.

He jumped when his phone buzzed again. He took a deep breath and opened the picture; John knelt over Sara and a massive load of sperm covered her belly and tits. The man had pulled out to shoot. Mike exhaled, relieved, but also a little disappointed, which he ignored. He received another text while he stared at that picture. "Meet me at home!" He dumped his remaining coffee and jogged to his car.

He got home just before his wife and Sara dropped to her knees as soon as she stepped through the kitchen door. Mike lasted no time until his wife gulped his load.

They lay on the cool linoleum floor while they caught their breath. Mike felt her move and opened his eyes to Sara's swollen pussy inches above his face. When her labia touched his lips, he ate her instinctively.

He feared sperm for an instant but her pussy was clean and wet. She'd obviously been fucked. Mike tasted John's salty pre-cum and her wetness combined. She held Mike's head with her thighs and rubbed her tits and Mike pushed his tongue deep inside her, licking all around and making his wife moan and writhe.

"I think I can cum again," she said. "He made me cum so much, Honey. Can you believe how thick he is? Christ, I came for the first time after two inches. I was hot for him, Mike. I know I broke the rules, Baby, and I'm sorry, but he pulled out so we're fine, right? He yanked it out right as he started to shoot so we're safe, right?"

Her thighs stiffened and Mike knew she was close. Now he understood the salty flavor. In his mind, he saw those pictures again; John's cock had just been where his mouth was now. Maybe he should have felt disgust but he didn't. Sara's moans of pleasure kept him focused on making her cum. She reached back and played with his limp penis.

“He’s way bigger than you, Baby, and you know what that does to me. I sucked on it only a few minutes before I told him to fuck me. Unngh, that’s good, lick right there. My poor pussy needs your kisses. Let me cum in your mouth, Mike. His big dick felt so good inside me. We’re going to see each other again. I’ll bring him home Soon. Ahhh!”

Mike held on as Sara squeezed his head with her thighs and climaxed.

When it was over they moved to the couch and Sara curled up on Mike’s chest. Mike enjoyed their afterglow a few minutes before speaking.

“Sara, I love how excited you get but if you and I are trying to have a baby, you must use condoms when playing with other men. If you can’t, we can’t play.”

Sara hugged him tightly. “I know, I know, I know... I’m so sorry. I won’t do that again. I get so turned on I turn into another woman.”

“Yeah, an irresponsible one. What happens to you?”

Sara snuggled closer. “New lovers thrill me. We married so young, Mike. Despite what I did last year I’m inexperienced sexually. Everything is so exciting.”

She toyed with one of his nipples.

“When I have their cock in front of me, hard because I excite them, I love that they’re bigger than you. If you were bigger than them, new lovers would be a letdown. Does that make sense? This way my outrageous behavior is amplified; I’m a married woman slutting it up with big-dicked lovers and that gets me so turned on I can’t stand it. I love that I have a dirty little secret. All those girls at work think I’m so tedious and straight-laced. I love that I’m not just some boring housewife. I love that we share something as a couple that no one knows about. This is our thing.”

“Sometimes the guys at work brag about how hot their woman is. Nothing they say compares to us, so I understand exactly what you mean.”

“Do you? Baby, that’s so sweet. You’re the perfect husband. I love the sweet way you make love to me. I love your little belly and your normal average penis. You keep me grounded.”

Mike smiled weakly. He knew better. After their encounters with Dean and Randy he’d done research and knew his penis was below average. Maybe Sara honestly didn’t know, but Mike believed her when she said she loved it. What she said made sense. He hugged her and they fell asleep.

Mike awoke in the middle of the night from Sara's sucking. He was hard and she climbed on top and rode to climax, her big tits bouncing. He came too, filling her tight pussy with sperm and trying again to make the baby they wanted. They moved to the bedroom and slept until morning.

Jennifer Deals ended the call with her husband and set her phone on the dining table. Dean had stopped for a cup of coffee and noticed Sara in the corner sharing a table with a man Dean did not recognize. Sara was clearly interested in this man. Dean stayed out of sight and watched and when they left together, he followed.

Sara got into the man's car and they drove to the far end of the parking lot. Dean had to race around the grocery store to come up on them unseen. He climbed a cinderblock wall and peered into the car and by then Sara had the man's big cock in her mouth. Dean sent a text and Jen told him to stay and get pictures. He was happy to.

Jen was annoyed Sara slipped away last year. After their escapades Sara stopped taking her calls. Something like this was exactly what Jen needed to bring the two groups back together; Mike and Sara had ventured out into the big scary world again.

The pictures arrived one by one including the last where the mystery man pulled his big cock out and shot cum all over Little Miss Perfect. They arranged their clothing and left in separate cars.

"Come home," she sent to Dean. "I have a plan."

That weekend Sara hit the mall. She wore a short billowy skirt because the weather was warm and a loose top because she felt flirty. She had not seen John since last week but she knew she would again soon and wanted a new outfit to tease him. She still felt guilty about fucking him bare and chastised herself about it, but when she masturbated she thought about was his big naked cock inside her.

Condoms ruin everything. It's like we never technically touch. I've not actually taken a new lover. I know Mike is right but maybe sometimes a lover can pull out like John did.

She entered her favorite store, Forever21, and slowly worked her way through the racks and shelves. When she had a handful, she went to the dressing room. She tried on everything, checking to see if short was too short or plunging was too plunging and decided to push herself. She left with three short skirts and two tops that if she chose to lean over a little, would flash her big tits to anyone. The skirts barely covered the curve of her butt cheeks but she could work with that. She was so engrossed with her plans she never noticed the man following her.

His name was Jericah Miles but everyone called him Dreadful. As he walked through the mall, other shoppers hurried from his path. Dreadful was a big man, towering over everyone else there. He carried his bulk on balanced feet and seemed ready for explosive action any second. Tattoos covered his exposed muscular arms and the glimpses of his neck his beard did not hide. His jet-black ponytail hung to his elbows.

He began stalking her when she left home that morning. She'd noticed nothing, even when she parked on the top floor of the garage and he'd pulled his white van in only a few spaces away. He checked the photo Jennifer sent him to be sure and started his hunt.

All day he'd enjoyed the swing of her skirt and bounce of her breasts. Men and women everywhere watched her but she noticed only occasionally. She had no idea how attractive she was and Dreadful found that charming. He imagined what he was about to do to her and his cock swelled.

She tried on clothing and stopped at California Pizza Kitchen for lunch. As closing time approached, the crowd thinned. Finally, she was ready and headed for the garage with bags in both hands.

He was waiting. Theirs were the only cars on the roof and after she shut the trunk, he slipped an arm around her waist and a hand over her mouth. Her weight was nothing to him. He pulled her backwards into his van and pulled the door closed and she was his.

Sara had never been so frightened. She struggled fiercely but the man's strength was tremendous. She tried to shriek but his huge palm covered half her face. He squeezed the air out of her and then she felt a ball enter her mouth before she could scream. Zip-ties secured her wrists and a dog collar snapped into place and connected to a chain which Dreadful ran through a ring on the van floor. The man moved quickly and efficiently. No wasted movements. Sara was always one step too slow.

She got her first good look at him and screamed anyway. The man was a beast and his cold hard eyes terrified her. Everything went dark when he dropped a heavy canvas hood over her head.

“Shut up, behave, and I’ll bring you back to your car in a couple hours. Act crazy and I’ll knock you the fuck out, and probably some teeth too. Understand?”

He waited while Sara forced herself calm. She nodded. His voice held a tone of confidence and certainty which reached her despite her fears. She believed him. She remained on high-alert but the blind fear faded. A sharp pain stabbed her thigh and she jumped but lasted only a moment. She wrote it off to the rough van floor.

The ride was brief but in Vegas one can be in the desert quickly in every direction. The back door opened and she was led to stand and her hood removed. They were in a canyon, surrounded by yucca and chaparral, and Sara had no idea which way the city lay. Warm desert wind stirred the brush.

Dreadful looked her in the eye and she saw naked lust there. “They said you were pretty but goddamn, you are so much more than that.”

He removed her zip-tie but left the collar attached. “Take off your clothes.”

In an instant, terror returned. Sara imagined him torturing her and killing her and burying her body in the desert. He saw fear in her eyes.

“Relax,” he said. “My name is Dreadful. I won’t hurt you, I promise.”

He waited, wolfish eyes running up and down her womanly body. He hungered for her. Her big tits almost burst from her top. Her round ass curved out and made her skirt hang like a curtain. Her legs were miles of smooth skin and her gorgeous face and eyes seemed frozen in an eternal flirt. His eye bore into her from head to toe.

She hated to admit it, but the way he looked at her had an effect. He was a frightening mountain of a man but the masculinity he radiated also bizarrely made her feel safe. She tried to remember her earlier terror but could not. She was still frightened, but any panic had disappeared.

She curiously sensed that while she was with him, no one could harm her and if she made him happy, he wouldn’t harm her either. He gazed at her with such a powerful appreciation for her beauty she found herself wanting to show him more. She’d heard of the Stockholm Syndrome and at the time thought it preposterous, but now she was not so sure. She wondered if she was subconsciously calculating her escape or if there was something about this virile man that tickled her feminine mind.

“Take off your clothes,” he said again. A tickle of excitement stirred her heart.

“No,” she stated, but part of her wanted to. Shame flooded her mind. She wondered what was wrong with her that she was so quickly willing to comply. Did she want this?

“Last chance,” he said. She heard the finality in his voice.

Slowly, she unbuttoned her top and opened it. His penetrating stare devoured her. She shrank from it at first but when he did nothing but look, the raw intensity began to titillate. She tossed her shirt in the van and reached behind to unhook her bra. As it slid down her arms, his bulge grew.

“Fucking hell,” he growled, his voice thick with lust.

She pinched the zipper on her hip and soon stepped out of her skirt. Her sheer panties revealed her bald pussy and his eyes bore into her. She welcomed his desire. When she hesitated, he pointed with a jerk of his bearded chin.

“Keep going. Show her to me.”

Sara held her breath. Tits were easy. Pussy made her vulnerable. She hooked her fingers and pushed the tiny panties down her legs. She tossed them and her skirt into the van too. For long minutes, he did nothing but pace back and forth around her and stare. Her nipples hardened as much from the breeze as his gaze. She felt her traitorous pussy get wet.

Dreadful unbuckled his jeans and pushed them down a little. He was hairy but closely trimmed and wore no underwear. His cock sprang up as soon as the jeans cleared. Sara gasped around the ball gag. He was big but she knew he would be. He just had that confidence men get when they're hung. Randy had it. Jamul had it. Dean had it. She didn't gasp just because he was big, she gasped because he was so hard. His big cock was covered with raised veins. The head was so firm the skin gleamed in the late afternoon sun. The long shaft was a healthy pink and his big balls anchored the whole thing and she swore it seemed to reach for her. Her eyes went wide and her knees weak.

“Oly thit,” she said around the gag.

Dreadful pulled his shirt off and moved closer. His torso was hairy too. His arms were thick as tree trunks and his shoulders wide enough to carry a horse. He had a dozen amateur tattoos; crosses and USMC related stuff and his left nipple was pierced with a heavy steel ring running through it. With each step his cock swung side to side. He stopped inches in front of her.

Sara watched her disloyal hands reach out and cup his heavy balls and wrap around the shaft. His cock was beautiful. As always, that phallic object mesmerized her.

He had her and they both knew it.

Jennifer was right, he thought. What a fucking goldmine this one is.

“Before I remove your gag, you should know we are in a box canyon with no one around but me. Screaming will not help you but it will get you slapped. Understand?”

Sara nodded, her eyes glued to his shank. She felt the strap tighten and then loosen and sag. She guided his gorgeous cock into her mouth without hesitation. Dreadful closed his eyes. Sara tried to mouth fuck him. A desire to please her captor rose and she did her best to make him happy. When he groaned in pleasure, she did too. Her head bobbed smooth and fast. He reached down for her tits and she arched her back to help.

“You’re a fucking goddess,” he breathed. This was no act. He’d taken enough girls to know the difference. Her enthusiasm was real.

She sucked harder and faster. He was in no hurry and let her orally worship his massive cock. She was happy to discover he smelled and tasted clean and this made her slip her tongue under and paint his perineum with saliva. She nuzzled his balls and sucked each into her mouth where she rolled them around. She licked her way up his shaft until she engulfed the head and forced as much shaft to the back of her throat as she could. Her jaw ached and spit ran to the desert floor. With each minute, she grew hungrier for his load.

She thought about how quickly she’d become a total slut and how that must look to him, but her shame was irrelevant. She felt slutty and she loved feeling slutty. This man had come to take something from her by force but she gave it willingly, eagerly. She slipped a hand down and discovered she was drenched. She pulled her throat off his meat and stood on tippy-toes, pressing her lips to his, tickled by his beard. She pushed her hot tongue into his mouth and felt his cock slide into the gap between her thighs. She squeezed her legs together. His manhood was as firm as rock and hot as a skillet. Her clit rubbed along the shaft as she moved closer.

“Fuck me,” she croaked. “Fuck my wet cunt.” She heard herself saying the words like she was listening to someone else.

Dreadful laughed on the inside. This was not the sweet pretty girl he’d followed all day around the mall. Jennifer had warned him but he didn’t believe. Now he did.

Sara turned her back and bent at the waist. She reached between her legs and spread her inner and outer labia. Her tiny hairless pussy beckoned him. He knew she would feel like heaven.

It took all his willpower to resist, but he’d been paid already and this was only stage one of the game. He had to keep control. His throbbing cock was inches from her slit. He admired her brash courage, her reckless acceptance of her situation and her ability to run with it. Such was the power of her beauty that for a moment he wondered if he could have a future with her. He liked bold women. He flashed on an image of Sara waiting for him when he came home at night. He smiled. Jennifer had warned him about that, too.

He reached over her and his cockhead pressed her hole. He stretched for her purse and she moved her hips trying to capture him. Her hot gash parted and he felt the searing heat of her pussy envelope the tip, but he turned slightly to prevent penetration. Sara groaned in frustration. When she heard musical beeps, she looked over a shoulder.

“I put a number in your phone,” he said. “Again, my name is Dreadful. Over the next few days think about what happened out here and leave a message if you want more. Get dressed.”

He stepped back. Sara spun to face him, her face contorted with disbelief. She sank to her knees and eagerly sucked again and he let her, but only for a few minutes. When he withheld his cock, she whimpered.

“Get dressed,” he said again. Sara shivered with pleasure at the command in his voice. Her pussy tingled and burned. Unfulfilled aching radiated through her pelvis and thighs. He’d stirred her up and given her nothing. Her empty pussy yearned.

“What the fuck?” she said. “What is this?”

“Whose?”

He gave her a smug and infuriating grin. Her mind raced. Mike was the only name that made sense. They’d not seen any other friends for a year. This man had avoided her pussy when it was easily his for the taking. Why would he do that? What man would decline a pussy offered hot and wet? Only a man that had been instructed to ignore it. Mike told Dreadful Sara's pussy was off limits because they were trying to have a baby and he'd behaved accordingly. Nothing else made sense. This had to be one of Mike's fantasies he was too embarrassed to share.

He said he'd surprise me with them.

She stood tall. "Okay," she said, defiantly. She dressed but took her time. This man could not take his eyes off her and if he was going to leave her frustrated, she would do the same to him. She did a reverse striptease, slowly putting clothing back on, cupping her tits and hefting them into her bra, sliding her tiny panties in place and adjusting them around her swollen pussy lips. Dreadful looked ready to kill. His hard cock throbbed.

She sat in the front seat on the drive back and as promised, he dropped her at her car. As the van pulled away, Sara stomped a foot.

"Goddamn it!"

She couldn't wait. Her aching pussy needed relief. Alone on the rooftop, she sat in her car and masturbated. At first she laughed at how quickly she was willing to fuck him but the more she thought about it, the more it troubled her. She started her car.

On the drive home, she resolved to confront Mike but a moment later decided she would wait for him to say something.

This is his fantasy, after all. What is he hoping will happen? I will act normal, like nothing happened, and never mention my kidnapping. I know him. Eventually he'll cave. I can play games too, mister. Eventually, he'll ask.

But Mike didn't ask. For the next two days, he did nothing unusual at all. Sara began to wonder if he had anything to do with her desert adventure. But then Mike got a suspicious phone call which he left the room to take. Sara heard him talking on the phone in a low voice, obviously trying to hide something from her.

Mike's phone rang and the caller ID said Jennifer Deals. For an instant, he considered ignoring the call but they'd not spoken for so long. Guilt made him answer. Jennifer said she missed their companionship and wanted to plan a surprise birthday party for Sara. Mike moved to the back of the house and lowered his voice and for the next fifteen minutes they worked on the details. After they ended the call Mike grinned stupidly. I better hit the gym more often. I want to look good for all Sara's friends, and Tina will be there too.

Sara could not hear what Mike said but that he was hiding something was apparent. Here was the proof she needed. Now she knew Dreadful was his agent and the game was on. She found Dreadful's number in her phone. She would beat Mike at his own game, pushing the limits with Dreadful until Mike finally called him off.

Jennifer ended the call with Mike and laughed out loud. Dean looked up from the monitor and asked what was so funny.

"Mike and Sara. God! They are so naïve! I give each a secret and almost instantly shut down communication between them. Dreadful said Sara wanted to fuck him within minutes and now I have Mike sneaking around behind his wife's back. This is too easy."

"You sent Dreadful after Sara? Ouch."

"Fuck her. I'm going to ruin her world. Call Alan for me, please. I need an order of Ecstasy. The stellar blue shit. The last time Sara took some she told me they had a little mini-orgy at their house. That was over a year ago. She's due."

Dean reached for his phone.

Sara dialed the number but had no idea what to say. Voice mail picked up and she mumbled something about meeting him this Saturday night on the roof of the garage. She added her cell and hung up. He did not call or text and as the week drifted by she changed her mind a hundred times. But on Saturday when the mall closed, she sat in her car and waited.

He let her sit for twenty minutes. When Dreadful pulled up in his van, he opened the passenger door from the driver's seat. Sara locked her car and climbed into the van.

She'd worn pants out of the house but had on a short purple skirt now. At the last minute, she'd changed into her top in the mall restroom.

The sheer white fabric clung to the curves of her big tits and showed a hint of nipples. Dreadful looked her up and down and she was pleased by the look in his eyes.

“Where are we going?” she asked.

“What difference does it make? You got in my van, didn’t you?”

Sara looked out the passenger window. Mike never spoke to her that way. Nobody did. Dreadful pissed her off at the same time he excited her.

He backed the van out and drove away. After twenty minutes of city traffic and silence, he asked, “You wearing panties?”

She said she was and he told her to take them off. She hesitated a heartbeat and then did as he instructed. He watched flimsy purple panties slide down her legs.

“Throw them out the window.”

She rolled the window down and waited for a break in traffic. She dropped them to the street at the next red light. Eventually he pulled into a dirt parking lot and drove to the back. To the side sat a building with the name “Pinkie’s Billiards” in glowing pink neon above the door. Two dozen motorcycles crowded the entrance and Sara started to get nervous.

“Relax,” Dreadful barked. “They know me. No one will fuck with you.”

The wind flipped her skirt several times as they walked to the door, flashing a group of men seated along a wall. One of them whistled and Sara blushed.

“I don’t know how to play,” she confessed.

“We aren’t here for pool.”

Dreadful held the door open and Sara entered the dark hall. Pool tables spread across the floor and a bar ran along the back. Tiffany lamps hung from the ceiling over each table and wide screen television sets filled the open spaces between sports memorabilia, showing sporting events from around the world.

For her first few tentative steps, Sara tried to shrink and go unnoticed. Then pride kicked in and she straightened her shoulders and lifted her head, causing her top to pull tightly across her tits. Every head turned, male and female, to follow her as she walked with her protector to the bar.

“She’s got a crew of eight.”

“Let me in.”

The bartender pushed a button, a door buzzed, and Dreadful led Sara by the hand into a back office.

Six men and two women sat in the office drinking and smoking. A large desk took up one wall but the rest of the room was taken up by scattered chairs and small tables. Two walls were mirrored which gave the room an impression of size it did not have. Dreadful aimed for the desk and leaned on the edge.

“Suck it,” he said.

Sara was shocked. “What? What are you talking about?”

“Strip, kneel, and suck my cock.”

Anger began to boil. “Who the fuck do you think you are? Nobody talks to me like that. Take me back to my car. This is bullshit.”

Dreadful got off the desk and grabbed the front of Sara’s top. With one wrench, he tore the shirt down the front and flipped it behind her shoulders. Her tits bounced wildly. He then grabbed her skirt and tugged it down to her feet, leaving her almost nude. Sara looked around in horror. One of the men laughed. Dreadful finished tearing her clothing away until Sara stood nude in front of everyone. He unbuckled his belt and withdrew his heavy cock, flopping the monster down the front of his jeans.

“Suck,” he ordered.

Sara was furious. Not like this. Not with people laughing. Not with women participating in her humiliation. “No.”

Dreadful raised an eyebrow at two of the men and they began to undress.

“You can suck my cock willingly or I’ll let all these men fuck all your holes at the same time, and they won’t be nice about it.”

Sara recoiled. The idea had occurred to her once or twice but each time she felt deep shame. No decent woman would do such a thing. She loved sex, but simultaneous partners were disgusting, trashy, and low-class.

One of the women took a sip of her drink and said, “Suck his cock, Honey. Trust me, you do not want those boys in your holes.” The woman’s friend laughed.

The men were down to pants and underwear.

Dreadful leaned forward. “I am not your boyfriend. I am not your husband. I’m not even your friend. You came here to get fucked and you’re going to, either by me alone or all six of those guys. At this point you still have some choice in the matter but keep fighting me and you'll lose it."

Before he leaned against the desk again, he pulled off his shirt, kicked off his shoes, and stepped out of his pants. Sara caught the women eyeing his impressive physique.

I've made a terrible mistake, Sara thought.

She looked again at the circle of people watching and knelt before Dreadful. His cock twitched in anticipation and he smiled cruelly. She lowered her gaze to his large penis and felt again that deep flutter she always got.

I should be terrified but one look at this thing and I'm fine. I'm demented.

She opened her mouth and lifted his shaft with both hands. She aimed the head to land far back on her tongue and closed her lips around him in a hot wet seal. Her cheeks dented as she sucked.

"That's lovely," one of the women murmured.

"She's gorgeous," said the other.

Despite her fright, Sara soon forgot everything except that fat cock growing hard in her mouth. With each minute her excitement grew until she was hungry for his sperm, sucking and licking every sensitive inch of him. Some of the men pulled their dicks out and jacked off watching her work. Dreadful grew as rampant this time as he had last and Sara marveled at how hard he got. His cock fascinated her. Her pussy grew wet.

"That's enough," he said. "Go around the circle. Let them sample your mouth."

A protest died in her throat. What was the point? At least it was still one at a time. Cooperation was her only option so she rose and headed for the nearest man. All around the room erections jutted up from laps and she had caused them all. She found wanted to suck on them. She enjoyed being forced. Not only was she incredibly aroused, she was also completely guilt-free. One by one she moved around the room, using her hands and mouth to pleasure everyone present, including the women. One man came quickly and she sucked him down. Both women orgasmed under her writhing tongue and probing fingers.

After everyone enjoyed her, Dreadful called her back. She loved the feel of their eyes crawling all over her naked body. She intended to kneel again but he took her arm and bent her face down over the desk. He moved behind her and aligned his huge cock to her seeping slit. Her tits mashed out to the sides.

“Do you want me to fuck you?”

Sara squirmed. The head of his cock bumped around, nudging her labia. She hated all these people were here to see her act like a slut, but she did want him. She knew he was asking for Mike so she decided to send a message.

“Yes. Just do it.”

“You want me to fuck you?”

“Yes.”

He rested his big dick between her ass cheeks and partway up her back. She felt the weight of the beast and leaned forward to help it fall to her cunt. Dreadful laughed.

“Bitch, I will fuck you when I say so. Stop trying to be sneaky.”

He pulled the big chair from behind the desk and sat. “Get down here and suck my cock some more.”

Sara obeyed and Dreadful leaned back and watched her. “This time, you’re going to drink what I give you.”

Sara redoubled her efforts. She knew she shouldn’t even be here but since she was and his cock was gorgeous, she might as well do it right.

Dreadful started breathing deeply. “Holy fuck, you’re good at that.”

For almost her entire adult life Sara had never allowed a man to climax in her mouth. Now she craved it. She loved feeling it shoot out all over her tongue and teeth. She loved feeling the cock pulse and swell. She loved the moans of pleasure she ripped from the men as they poured their seed down her throat.

Dreadful flexed his thighs. She knew he was close. A moment later he growled and grabbed her head with both hands and blasted a massive surge of hot sperm. She moaned as the scalding fluid slid down her throat, sucking hard for more. Dreadful pumped his hips as he ejaculated and Sara sucked so hard he felt a tug in his nuts. His orgasm sent his mind spinning and for long minutes he sat dazed. When he came back to himself, Sara still held his heavy cock in her mouth, suckling softly and playing with his balls as he deflated.

One of the men who sat stroking raised an eyebrow but Dreadful waved him off.

“No, Robert, she belongs to me. I may share her later but for now she’s mine alone.”

One of the women left the office and returned with an extra-large black “Pinkie’s Billiards” tee shirt. Sara put it on and it fell to the curve of her ass.

“How do I explain this to my husband?” she asked Dreadful.

He laughed as he dressed. “Like I give a shit.”

He walked her out through the pool players, turning heads all the way. They were almost back to the van when she spoke. “What’s going on here? What’s your plan? Who sent you after me?”

Dreadful studied her face before answering. “Alright, here it is; you’re a slut, Sara, and I’m just the kind of man to control you. You’ll see. Soon you’ll do whatever I tell you.”

“No, I won’t.”

He laughed. She wrestled with her feelings on the drive back. She wanted to hate him. She wanted him to be wrong. She said nothing as she stepped out of his van to her car. The parking lot was empty now and she pulled from her trunk a change of clothes.

Mike watched football when she got home but after a few minutes pulled himself away. She thought about telling him everything but something held her back. Dreadful was an arrogant asshole but he was also exciting and the command in his voice gave her shivers. She remembered his big cock, sticking straight out and throbbing. A small smile curled the corner of her mouth.

He wants me as badly as I want him. Let’s see where this game goes.

After some small talk, she told Mike she wanted a bath and they kissed briefly. As she eased into the hot and foamy water she thought of Dreadful leaning against the desk, cock beckoning.

I feel like I have a secret from Mike, but do I? Dreadful came after me because someone told him to. If not my husband, whom?

She wracked her brain for half an hour, checking off every name she knew. She closed her eyes and slid deeper into the water. Her fingers found her clit and she teased herself as she remembered Dreadful.

God, I love powerful confident men.

She rubbed her pussy and felt a climax tingle waiting to explode.

Especially when they have big cocks.

Sara soaked so long the bathwater turned tepid. She'd given herself four orgasms already and worked on a fifth. Every time she'd thought she'd finished, she'd get a flash of Dreadful leaning over her or how she must have looked going around the circle and sucking every man there. At first she told herself she had to, Dreadful forced her, but she knew better. She wanted to do it. She loved that he made her.

But no more. I'll let him fuck me and that would be bad. I should delete his number. I will. As soon as I get out of the bath I will erase all trace of him.

She sucked a finger and remembered swallowing Dreadful's load. She remembered the deep moans he made. She thought about how much pleasure she'd given him and that put her over the edge for number five.

After she'd dried and dressed in flannel pajamas, she found her phone. She thumbed to Dreadful's number and highlighted the digits and her finger hovered over the delete button, and stopped. She willed herself to press the button but couldn't.

I cheated on Mike once. I'm not going to do it again.

Her finger would not budge.

I'm tired. I'll delete it tomorrow.

She padded out to the living room and curled up on Mike.

Two days later she got a text from John and felt relieved. Dreadful had occupied her mind almost every waking moment and she needed a break. While making love, she'd almost called Mike by Dreadful's name. John said he wanted to see her right away and she sent a text to Mike to let him know. She waited and Mike did not respond so she sent another text saying she'd see Mike at home.

She met John at the same coffee shop and walked quickly to kiss him, passionately enough heads turned. He led her to his table at the back.

"Nice greeting. What was that about?"

Sara bit her lip. "I'm so fucking horny. Since that day with you so many crazy things have happened. I'm turned on all the time. I don't know what to do. I know what I should do but I can't. I don't know why I'm telling you this. I know we don't have that kind of a relationship. I'm sorry."

John chuckled. "Maybe we should trade the coffee shop for a bar?"

Sara laughed. "Maybe we should trade the coffee shop for a motel room."

John didn't know whether to take her seriously. "We can do that."

She waved him away. "I'm a mess. Let's enjoy some coffee and conversation and agree to meet again when I have my head screwed on straight."

He took a sip. "Tell me what's happened."

Sara took a deep breath. Sure, she thought, why not tell John? She told him everything.

When she finished, he said, "And you think Mike is behind it?"

"Nothing else makes sense. When we talked about adding guys like you he had fantasies he was too uncomfortable to share. I think this is one. I think he's playing a game but I can't figure out what he gets out of it."

"I can't figure it out either, Sara. The only thing I know for sure is do not call Dreadful. That guy is bad news. Anyone that comfortable kidnapping someone has obviously done it before. I bet he's actually dangerous, not just sexy dangerous. What kind of name is Dreadful, anyway? Is he trying to frighten people?"

Sara smiled. "Thanks for listening, John. Probably not the afternoon you imagined."

"No, but still delightful. I could look at you all day. I'll walk you to your car."

John held her hand all the way to her car, chatting with easy nonchalance. Sara was touched by his sweet gesture and once she got behind the wheel she told him to take the passenger seat.

"You've been so kind. I think you need a reward."

She drove them to the same corner and handed John her phone. "Get some pictures for Mike."

John snapped away as Sara orally worshipped his dick.

Mike was still hard when Sara got home. He pulled her into the bedroom and they made love for hours. He especially wanted to eat her and was both slightly disappointed and relieved when he discovered she'd not been fucked. He made her cum twice before lifting her legs and emptying his fuzzy balls in her.

They snuggled. "This baby we make will have a crazy sex-drive," he said. "His parents are total horn dogs."

"Her parents," Sara corrected. "And if her drive is anything like her mommy's, she'll be a complete slut. Why didn't you answer my text today?"

"I was in a meeting," he said. "I saw your message as I was shutting down and headed home. I got so excited. I love it when you send me those, Honey. I never know when one is coming. You have my permission to act on whatever mood strikes you."

"Really?"

"Hell yes. I exited some boring sales meeting and discovered a picture of my wife's lips around a fat cock. Talk about shifting gears! I delayed until the office emptied and flipped through the pictures. I want you as horny as possible at all times."

"Be careful what you wish for, Mike. If you mean it, I'll do exactly as you ask."

"I do mean it. Follow your pussy, Baby."

Sara was surprised Mike relaxed his rules and she thought about seeking clarification, but since she wanted them relaxed anyway, she accepted what he said.

The first question is who do I fuck; John or Dreadful?

Dreadful seemed too complex and John so simple. Mike got drowsy as usual so Sara kissed him goodnight and then slipped out of bed. She found her phone in the kitchen and text John. "Do you swear to always pull out?"

He shot back a reply. "Absolutely. Mike change his mind?"

"Yes. Tomorrow after work. Get a room."

"Absolutely."

Sara masturbated on the couch looking forward to the next day. She did not know it at the time, but she would never see John again.

"Up the dosage," Jennifer ordered. "I want her pregnant with another man's baby. I want Mike to divorce her. Because of her I lost everything; reputation, income, husband. Everything. Fuck her."

Dreadful watched Jennifer's face twist with hate.

“But you have Dean.”

“I met Dean after my divorce. Sara destroyed my life. I miscarried because of her. I lost everything and just so she could get a promotion.”

Dreadful doubted Sara was guilty of all Jen said but cash was cash.

“Increase to four CC’s,” Jen continued. “That should keep her constantly horny. Remember to inject her only after the hood is in place. I want her thinking she’s the author of her lust.”

“You’re the boss,” Dreadful replied.

All day Sara bubbled with excitement. Tonight, John would fuck her properly. She couldn’t wait to cum on his hard cock. I’m so excited the first one will be easy.

Time crawled but eventually quitting time arrived. She text Mike, “John, after work. Keep your phone close,” and didn’t wait for a reply. She grabbed her purse and headed for the parking garage.

Dreadful was parked behind her one row deep. She left the elevator and cut through the cars and the hood dropped over her face. She was startled but instantly knew what happened. She opened her mouth to say something and a ball pushed the hood in too. Her wrists were bound behind her and she felt herself lifted. She let it happen. Soon Dreadful would remove the hood and she’d explain she had plans. She felt the pin-prick in her thigh again.

The van backed out of the garage and began to drive. Too much time passed and she tried talking around the gag. John was waiting for her and would become concerned. Mike would have no idea something was wrong. She tried to sit up but Dreadful had chained her to the floor again.

Eventually, the vehicle stopped and strong hands lifted her out. Something heavy circled her wrists and she tried protesting again. Her arms lifted over her head and then kept going until she was standing on the balls of her feet. She felt her clothing cut away. A padded bench was placed against her hips and her arms came down until she was bent over at the waist. Her ankles were spread wide and attached to something which prevented her from closing her legs. A hot wet tongue slathered her pussy and then ran up and circled her asshole. She squirmed and called out again but was ignored.

When a warm knob nudged her sphincter, she fought hard to get away. That hole was off limits. She protested loudly and yanked on her bindings. After a little pressure the object popped inside her rectum and began to vibrate. Waves of pleasure ran up and down her legs despite her struggles and the power increased until she moaned. She heard footsteps walk away. She tugged on her restraints. The vibration was incredibly distracting and she stopped often, overcome by the sensations.

Footsteps returned and she felt a cock-shaped dildo pushed into her pussy. At first she feared it was a penis but it was too stiff and cold. She protested again and the dildo began to vibrate too. Within minutes she felt warmth radiate from the toy.

The footsteps retreated once more. Left alone and helpless, the stimulation gradually built, wave after wave, and defeated her anger and frustration. She felt an orgasm building and resisted it. To climax meant acceptance.

Clamps were attached to each nipple and the pressure slowly increased until she whimpered. Her hips began to rotate involuntarily. Without warning a riding crop smacked her ass and she yelled around the gag. A small weight was added to a clamp.

The torment was driving her crazy. The tension in her pelvis grew and the sensitivity of her clit skyrocketed. The plug in her ass jumped up a level and she groaned. This orgasm was going to be huge.

When electric current zapped her clitoris, she screamed. She screamed again as soon as she drew breath but then the current was withdrawn. Her legs trembled. If not for the padded bench she would have collapsed. The crop smacked her ass and the dildo vibrated more intensely and she wanted to cry. Her senses were overwhelmed with a combination of pleasure followed by pain until confusion gripped her and she found herself craving more pain, knowing pleasure would follow. She sobbed as her advancing climaxed spread outward from her hips until her entire body was as tight as a spring. She whimpered for release.

Without warning, all sensation ceased. She staggered against the bench, working her hips, trying to stimulate her full pussy and ass. From the lowest settings, the toys in her body began the slow climb of vibration again.

This was her fate for hours; climax withheld again and again. She received nipple torture and ass whippings mixed in with almost overpowering pleasure, but no matter how close she got, orgasm was denied. She began to beg for it. Her pussy was drenched, juices running down her legs.

After a seeming eternity of torment, the toys were dialed back and removed. Her ankles remained locked but her other restraints removed. Feet shuffled and she heard a door close. The gag and hood were loosened and fell away. She looked around her prison.

The room was a windowless square, concrete, with chains hanging from the ceiling and a folding chair off to the side occupied by a nude corpulent man. He was bald and his pasty skin looked anemic. He played with himself, his lumpy cock long and thicker than his wrist. His scrotum was enormous.

A camera occupied each corner of the ceiling and Sara was certain others watched remotely, perhaps even Mike. She rubbed her wrists.

The man stood. His belly sagged, obscuring his animal penis.

“Where’s Dreadful?” Sara asked. “I do not give you permission to touch me.”

He knelt behind her and she tried to pull away but could not. He moved his face less than an inch from her pussy and drew in a bushel of air through his nose, savoring the sweet scent of her arousal.

“Your cunt smells like cotton candy.”

Sara shivered with revulsion. Where was Dreadful?

He pushed a fat finger up her pussy and she tried to hit him. He caught her wrist. He pumped his finger, laughing, as she struggled. Once wet, he removed the digit and began pushing it up her ass.

“No!”

He pushed to the second knuckle and Sara gasped.

“NO!” she yelled again.

“Scream all you want, Love. That’s why I removed the gag. I want to hear it. Wait until you feel my gnarly cock stuff your ass. You’ll love it. You endured a lot of torment so an anal orgasm will just about end you. I expect you’ll cum so hard you’ll black out.”

He gripped her firm butt cheek and squeezed.

“Ever had your ass fucked?”

Sara whimpered and tried to wrest back her arm but the man’s weight shrugged her off. He pushed his finger the rest of the way into her rectum and she groaned. She clenched her sphincter around him trying desperately to deny him access. He pumped his digit and she shivered from intense tingling pleasure.

No. No, no, no, no.

He moved closer and wet his fat cock head at her dripping pussy. He twisted her arm behind her back to steady himself and control her. Rage flashed through Sara at her helplessness, but also because every time his dick slid across her swollen clit she liked it.

Maybe it was all the prior stimulation or maybe Sara just craved release, but when he lifted his cock and pressed against her sphincter, she began to flower almost immediately. His beefy dick slid forward half an inch at a time, entering her steaming hot tunnel. She grunted at the intrusion but found herself unable to resist. She squeezed her ring closed as tightly as possible but she was too wet and well lubed. Half inch at a time she felt him enter her body. His plump head opened her up and his cock stuffed her full. At last his scrotum hung against her labia. His cock was in her guts.

She welcomed it. No vibrator can replace a real cock and the knowledge a man has penetrated you. She hated herself for doing it but she pushed her hips back and felt another inch enter her throbbing ass.

“That’s a girl.”

He reached under and rubbed a calloused hand over her sensitive nipples, shocking her with scintillating pleasure.

“Oh, God,” she gasped.

“That’s right, Sweetie. Get Jack’s big cock in you. You’re going to cum so hard you won’t walk right for a week. Wait until my big swinging balls start smashing your clit. I’m going to make you howl, girl.”

I’m so sorry, Mike, she thought. He’d always wanted to fuck her ass but she’d never allowed it. Now that gift was stolen by a grotesque and anonymous creature and her traitorous body had her enjoying it.

“Tell Big Jack to give you more.”

Sara bit her lips to keep them shut. He worked his cock back and forth a little and radiating waves of pleasure exploded. She wanted to cry from frustration. He let go of her wrist and she used both hands to brace herself against the bench.

“Tell me,” he repeated. “Tell me to fuck your virgin ass. I know what I’m taking here. I’ve fucked enough young pretty girls to know which have had a cock up them or not. I’m your first, aren’t I?”

Sara nodded awkwardly. Jack put his hands on her hips.

“Tell me.”

There was no denying her need. He felt better each second. “Do it,” she hissed, disgusted with herself.

“Do what?”

“Fuck me.”

“SAY IT!” he roared.

Sara whimpered, hating to cave, hating that the slut in her was powerful enough to make her throw so much away just to get the pleasure she craved.

I’m addicted. I’m a cock-whore.

“Unnnghhhh, do it, Jack. Fuck my ass. God! Fill me with that ugly cock!”

Jack began stroking in and out, a little deeper each time. He spread her ass to watch himself slide and loved the power he felt. Sara gasped the few times he hurt her but with each passing moment she relaxed more and welcomed him. Soon he long-stroked her, his huge testicles slamming her pussy below, sending sparks of sensation cascading in her mind. He grabbed her long brown hair with both hands and pulled. His big cock conquered her spirit and destroyed her resistance. She forgot about his fat belly resting on her butt and Mike at home, wondering and waiting.

The first distant tingling of orgasm made her whine and hug the bench. Jack fucked her hole like he had so many others, teaching her, opening her mind to a new world of pleasure. This was like nothing she’d ever known. This felt so good it was almost too much to take. Her moans became cries and her cries turned into screams. She felt him all the way up behind her ribs. Every time his hips slammed her butt, jolts of pure electricity rocked her body. Her climax built until there was no stopping it.

“Here it comes!” she squealed.

Jack laughed on the inside. Sara was just the latest. He’d broken so many good girls he’d lost count.

Deep down inside their soul, every woman is a slut.

For him, the greatest pleasure was stripping away all their pretense. When these hot bitches came from his cock up their ass, he was king of the world. Some fought until exhausted, some welcomed his penetration right away. But eventually they all came back for more, husbands or not.

He pumped a little faster to push her over the edge and reached a hand under to pinch a nipple.

“Oh fuck!” she cried. “Oh fuck. Fuckfuckfuck! Goddamn it, here it comes! Oh, fuuuucccaararaggghh!!!”

Sara’s scream filled the room and echoed off the concrete walls. Jack fucked her fast and smooth and an orgasm different from any she’d ever experienced turned her body and mind upside down and inside out. Juice gushed from her empty convulsing pussy. She sank her teeth into her arm and with her other hand rubbed her clit furiously. This orgasm ruined her. Like pure heroin given to a junkie Sara banged her stuffed ass against him and rode a wave of bliss all the way in. She collapsed on the bench, held up only by the ankle straps and Jack’s weight behind her. He fucked her through it all. Only when her body went limp beneath him did he bear down and explode inside her, pulling hard on her hair and digging his fingers into her butt cheek as he emptied a massive amount of hot jizz deep up her ass.

He left his cock in her as he deflated until it slid out on its own. Her puckered ring closed slowly, trapping all the sperm inside. Muscles quivered all over her body. She wanted to remain still but could not have moved anyway. Jack knocked on the door to be let out.

“Call Dreadful when you’re ready for more.”

Sara passed out. She awoke when the hood slipped over her head again. She raised no protest. The gag popped into her mouth and she even helped the hand that did it. A large T-shirt covered her and she was returned to the parking garage at work.

She checked her phone and found three texts from John wondering where she was. She apologized and let him know she wasn’t sure when she could see him again. Things had changed with her husband and they might stop this sexy game. He said he was sorry to hear that but he’d wait in case she changed her mind. She turned her attention to her husband. Mike sat at home expecting updates.

She tapped, “Met John but just wasn’t in the mood. Sorry, Honey,” and hit send. He responded with a question about what they’d been doing and she said just talking and that she’d be home soon.

If they don’t talk to each other, my lie is safe.

She stopped at a boutique for a new outfit fully aware when she walked through the door Mike would not notice. After, she stopped at the bar down the street from her house.

Holy Christ.

Her legs were weak and her hands trembled. Her entire body still tingled hours later. Her pussy pulsed against the barstool and her rectum fluttered and quivered.

In a few hours Jack taught her she had a second pussy, complete with an entire array of new and unique sensations. Before she finished her wine she already wanted Jack to fuck her again.

I gave my ass to a stranger! I am falling down the rabbit hole. He's remarkably unattractive but all I cared about was his big cock. First Dreadful and then Jack. Who's next? I love being used. How can I be such a hard bitch at work and so submissive with men? I should confess everything to Mike, tell him he won whatever bizarre game this is and get out while I can. Why would Mike give my ass away like that? I don't even care that John wanted to see me tonight. He's sweet and thoughtful but now that I've discovered what it's like to be forced, he's less exciting, and I want exciting.

Mike read Sara's message about meeting John. He was supposed to meet Jennifer tonight after the gym and worried what excuse he'd give Sara. Now he didn't need one. He put his phone away and got back to work.

He got to the bar first and watched as she walked through the door. She wore a miniskirt with lots of cleavage and wore her long blonde hair in a ponytail. If he ever cheated on Sara, it would be with Jen.

I've had Tina, he thought proudly. Why not Jen, too?

Jennifer saw him and waved and several faces turned to him; what kind of guy lands a girl like this? Mike puffed a little, again proud to know such a gorgeous woman.

He stood and they kissed cheeks and then they slid into the booth. Mike noticed right away whenever Jen leaned over the table her top pulled away and he saw a full breast all the way to her nipple. The waitress took their order and brought drinks.

"Where's Sara tonight?" Jennifer asked.

Mike saw a mischievous gleam in her eye but wrongly assumed it was for him. At that moment Jennifer knew Sara was about to have a hood dropped over her head.

"Out with...a friend." Mike considered telling Jen the truth but he'd need Sara's approval first.

Mike and Jen talked and laughed for hours. Jen ordered food. They planned Sara's surprise party in every detail. Their elbows touched while checking a list of names and Jen did not pull away. Mike felt a rush of adrenaline. He glanced down again and discovered a big firm tit looking back at him. When he lifted his eyes, Jen smiled.

"It's okay," she said. "You can touch her."

Mike's hand shook as he cupped Jennifer's hot breast. He ran his hand over the soft smooth skin and rolled the nipple. Her tit sat heavy and warm in his hand. Flustered, he let go.

"I better not. Sara would know the second she looked into my eyes."

Jennifer knew Mike had cuckold tendencies and decided to press the issue.

"Where is Sara, Mike? I see on your face you're hiding something. Did Dean and I open some doors for you guys? That was such a hot time. I know behind your middle-of-the-road façade you and Sara have some kinky ideas. Is that where she is?"

Mike knew he could not hide the truth. "Yes."

Jennifer leaned closer. Mike felt her body heat. "That's sexy as fuck, Mike. What are you guys into? Does Sara have a weakness for big dicks? You sure loved it when she blew my husband. Is that what she does? Meets hung guys and sucks them off and then races home to you so you can fuck all night?"

"Yes."

Jen dropped her arm over his shoulders and shook him. "That's hot! Relax, my friend. Your secret's safe."

"Sara and I are trying to have a baby so she goes out and we both get so hot we fuck every day for weeks. Sometimes two or three times a day. She doesn't have sex with them, only me."

Jen smiled. "You sure about that?"

Mike remembered John's bare cock in his wife's pussy. "Yes," he lied.

"Okay."

They moved on to the party and decided on a guest list and location. Mike received a text from Sara informing him about John and he showed it to Jennifer.

"See? She's not having sex with him."

Jennifer smiled and Mike got the feeling she knew something he didn't.

Eventually, they finished and said goodnight. Mike got home minutes before Sara and his wife came through the door hot to fuck. He was pleased to discover her pussy unused, although he was shocked at how wet she was.

Jennifer was elated on her drive home. They're trying to have a baby! Holy Christ, this is too easy. Dreadful says Sara is ripe for plunder and believes Mike leaves her seriously unsatisfied. Jack fucked her ass and she loved it. Based on my conversation tonight, Sara has told Mike nothing!

She laughed out loud and turned on some music, singing loudly and beating a joyful rhythm on her steering wheel.

Sara got hit on three times before she finished her wine. She looked good, but she always looked good.

I must be giving off serious come-fuck-me signals, she mused. One of the men was handsome so she talked to him for a while before leaving. His name was Robert and she impulsively gave him her number before leaving.

She felt dizzy and not from the wine. First John, and then Dreadful, and now Jack, had opened the valves and released a flood. She thought about sex all the time now. Her body was in a constant state of readiness. She evaluated every man she saw as a potential lover and was shocked to see how many made her list. Because she could be kidnapped for sex at any moment, she was always on high alert.

Maybe that was Mike's plan?

She entered her neighborhood. She shut the garage door behind her and found Mike in the living room. Without a word, she tugged his shorts aside and sucked him to fully erect and then lifted her skirt and sank onto him. She was pleased to discover he seemed to be as ready for sex as she was so she rode him hard. She rubbed her clit until she climaxed.

He rolled her onto her back and kissed down her body until his tongue found her clitoris. He nibbled and licked until she came twice and then he moved back up her body and kissed her lips. When his tongue entered her mouth, his penis slid into her pussy.

“I love you,” he murmured.

“I love you too,” she whispered back. But right now, I want you to fuck me.

Her asshole still pulsed from Jack’s thick cock. Her exhausted body craved sensations and stimulations far above what Mike was doing now. She wanted her hair pulled. She wanted cock forced down her throat.

I want more than one man at a time.

The realization was a thunderbolt.

What has happened to me? My mother and father would disown me. My friends would shun me. I may have had sex with men other than my husband but it was always one on one. What kind of woman have I become?

Mike kissed her neck softly as he gently worked his penis in and out.

I love my husband, she told herself. I do.

Mike felt the tension in her body and mistook it for excitement. Sara almost never orgasmed from his penis but he thought maybe she would tonight. She was so wet when she got home. He thrust faster but the sensation was too much. He felt his orgasm begin and just went with it, spurting hot cum into her vagina.

As always, he cuddled her and soon fell asleep.

Later that week Mike met Jennifer to iron out the last details of the party. She told him she’d booked an old warehouse where raves were sometimes held and he liked that idea. They ate and laughed and talked about old times like the best of friends. Jennifer reminded Mike of that day at the house.

“I’m trying to forget,” Mike said.

“Oh, come on. It was all good fun.”

“I guess. We were so drunk. Sara was, anyway. She didn’t know what she did.”

“Maybe, but you sure did. You got hard watching your pretty wife suck cock. Dean cums like a freaking firehose and you sat through the whole thing. He glazed Sara’s face.”

The memories were still vivid for him. “Yes, he did.”

“Would you have allowed Dean to fuck her? Wait, don’t answer that. A better question is since you forgave her for the blowjob, would you have forgiven her if she’d fucked him?”

Mike shifted uncomfortably in his chair. He glanced to see if anyone overheard Jen. “I don’t know. Probably. She was wasted and I couldn’t get hard, if you remember. Did I ever tell you she mistook me for Dean later that night? She wanted him. She had no memory in the morning but I’ll never forget.”

“Did she? That’s funny. We should let them fuck, just once. Dean wants her, too. Did you and Sara start playing with other men because of that night?”

“No.”

“Hm. So you must have other friends into the lifestyle. Do you get to fuck too or do you just get off on Sara acting a whore?”

“Jesus, Jen.”

“Sorry. I’m sorry, Mike. I’m so blunt sometimes. You and Sara are so dear to Dean and I. I’m just trying to be totally truthful with you. Honesty is best, right?”

“Yes.”

“It does get uncomfortable. I withdraw my question.”

Mike felt shitty. Jennifer was a great friend. He should be more open and trusting.

“No, it’s okay. Yeah, Sara and I have messed around with another friend and I watched Sara get royally fucked by this old guy with an enormous cock. That dude was a stud; I’ll give him that. Sara and I talked about it and everything that happened with you and Dean and realized this was something exciting that we wanted. I hope you understand we had to go after it ourselves, on our own terms. If we’d called you guys, you would have influenced what we did. You both are so worldly. We’d have gotten sucked into your orbit and moved too fast. This way it’s all ours.”

“I totally understand, Mike. Don’t worry. Me and Dean sometimes run people over. We try not to but we’re assertive. I think it’s great you two went after what you want alone. We’ve missed you guy this past year.”

“Us too. We should hang out more, Jen.”

“I agree.”

As soon as he said it, he pictured Dean fucking Sara. The vision was so clear it felt more like a memory.

What did I just do?

Jen saw Mike tense and knew why. That's right, fuck-head. You just handed your gorgeous wife over to a man you know she wants. Dumbass.

Mike scrambled to fix things. “But this thing she and I are trying... we need to leave that between us, okay? We can be friends with you guys but no sex this time. Cool?”

Jennifer leaned forward. “Don’t ask me, Mike. Dean and Sara were all over each other last time. I think we better ask them. You talk to Sara and I’ll talk to Dean, but after the party, of course. She can’t know that we’ve been communicating or she’ll figure out we’re planning something.”

“Right.” Mike’s stomach churned. Jen twisted the knife.

“We especially have to keep them apart while you two try to have a baby. Dean cums so much Sara would get pregnant for sure. Can you picture her round with Dean’s baby?”

He lied. “No.”

Jen laughed softly. “Good. Dean is so immature he’d make a terrible father. You’d have to raise the kid as your own.”

Mike felt an odd stirring in his testicles. Somehow the humiliation was strangely exciting. They changed the topic to the party and made their lists and divided tasks. Sara’s birthday was three weeks away on a Monday but they’d hold the party the Saturday night before. Monday was also a holiday so they’d have an extra day to sleep off the hangover.

On the way home Mike visited the site. That area of town was industrialized with small shops stuffed between large warehouses; a tattoo parlor and motorcycle repair shop, self-storage units and an adult store. The plan was Mike would take that route home after dinner and pretend to have car trouble. He’d suggest they wait inside the adult store for the tow-truck. The store had a backdoor which connected to the warehouse and he’d lead Sara through it to the party.

Mike wandered the store. The last time he was in such a place he bought a toy for Sara and that triggered a whole series of events.

What will this trigger?

The floorplan was different but the idea the same; movies, toys, whips, chains and other sexual paraphernalia, and, of course, video booths. This store also had a large common room with multiple smaller rooms attached. A bar lined one wall. The owner had installed mirrors everywhere and there was a feeling of open space.

Mike checked with the salesperson and they assured him they worked every Saturday night. Jennifer had already made the arrangements. Mike drove home excited. Sara would be so surprised. He thought about the list of friends he'd invited. He'd reached all but two names and gotten confirmations from everyone.

Tina and Randy.

Would Sara want them there? Tina, certainly, but Randy might be a little awkward mixed in with all her other friends.

I'll text Tina but leave Randy out.

He turned the corner into his neighborhood and pulled into his garage. Sara was working late again so he sat in his car and sent the invite to Tina. She answered quickly, promising to make it.

Days later, Sara was hungry for more. Her body felt alive and electric. Her skin was incredibly sensitive and her pussy seemed to get wet in an instant. The UPS driver flirted with her and she was ready to fuck him in a stockroom. A young guy from the mail room stopped at her desk to talk with her and she imagined sucking his dick. She called Dreadful's number and left a message that she'd take a half-day on Thursday and could be found at the mall after noon. On Thursday, she browsed the stores and stopped at her car twice but nothing happened. She ate a late lunch and made another trip to her car, hopping a hood would drop over her head. Frustrated, she headed home where she attacked Mike. When they finished, she was still horny and he was sound asleep.

As they dressed for work the next morning Mike asked about John.

"I thought you'd see him more. I thought you liked him."

"I do. He's sweet and thoughtful but not terribly exciting. I'm sure I'll see him again some time."

She hated to lie but she needed John as cover for anything she did with Dreadful or Jack. She no longer considered those two men as Mike's agents. Maybe they were or maybe they weren't. Either way made no difference. Whatever purpose Mike had for sending them was lost on her. All she knew was the thought of them kept her hot all the time.

Days sailed by. Mike and Sara were busy with work but inside Sara seethed. They made love most evenings followed by Sara masturbating after Mike fell asleep. She left messages for Dreadful with no response and even considered texting John.

He does have a nice cock.

She reconsidered. He was too considerate, too mellow and kind.

He'll make someone a great husband but that's not what I need right now.

She hit the gym with vigor, sweating out her angst. She purchased a few new outfits, showing more skin than usual, and enjoyed the extra attention.

One of the older ladies at work retired and all the girls took her to a Chippendales show and Sara secretly crept away with a dancer and sucked his cock in the dressing room. She rejoined her work friends and told no one except Mike, who got rock hard and pulled her down to the couch.

When the hood dropped over her head two days later, she almost screamed for joy. She'd just arrived at the gym parking lot and locked her car when everything went dark. The van doors closed and the engine started and she felt the vehicle move. Several hands held her down.

I'm already wet.

The ride was longer than usual and bumpy. Along the route she felt a pin-prick again, in her ass, but in all the commotion she thought nothing of it. She was taken from the van and tied naked on her back to a smooth wooden X, bound at ankles and wrists.

Excruciating voltage was applied to the bottoms of her feet.

Sara yelled and kicked, trying to move away from the pain, but could not.

For an hour, she lay shackled and panting as an electric wand traced torturous trails all over her flesh. No part of her was spared. They'd not bothered with a gag this time and now she knew why; they wanted to hear her scream. They started from the extremities and worked their way in. Her nipples were especially susceptible but she survived. After a short break, they zeroed in on her pussy. She began to whimper and struggle more. The first zap to her clit ripped a scream from her throat and made her pussy gush. They lowered the power and spent another hour in fiendish internal and external genital torment until she cried from a desire to escape and an equal desire to orgasm.

Then, abruptly, it ended. She was dressed and returned to her car, hood in place, left to remove it on her own. She pulled the canvas off and found herself alone. Her entire body quivered. She opened the door and sat. She threw the hood on the ground.

“What the fuck?” she yelled.

Madness coursed through her veins. She craved release badly. Her skin was covered with dried sweat from her ordeal, her nerves raw and extremely sensitive. Rock hard nipples poked through her workout gear. The tension in her hips made her pelvis ache. She wanted to cry only slightly less than she wanted to fuck. She sat in the parking lot a long time, collecting herself, and then drove home. Mike was playing golf with friends so she masturbated three times and then showered.

The days that followed were a living hell. Sara barely kept herself composed at work as her ravenous pussy demanded she fuck every man she met. She and Mike made love nightly and Sara was aggressive. Mike tried to be that kind of lover too but it wasn't in him. Sara realized she needed to say something or lose her mind. Perhaps now, cuddled up in bed after sex was the perfect time.

“Honey, you win. I tried to play along but you've got me going crazy. Where in the world did you meet Dreadful? Did you find him online too?”

Mike was still in a post-coital afterglow and of course had no idea what she meant. He stared at her blankly.

“The guy you sent after me. Tall? Hairy? Tattoos?”

Mike tried to focus.

“Come on, Baby. I know it was you. Why else would he not fuck me? Were you waiting to see what I'd say or do? I must admit I love the non-consensual angle. Very exciting. If you were trying to get me to cave in, it worked. I'm on the verge of orgasmic insanity.”

Mike narrowed his eyes. “Wait. What? What are you talking about?”

There was no faking this. She saw it in his eyes. In an instant Sara knew Mike had no idea. Then who the fuck sent Dreadful and his goons after me?

“Did you not arrange for a fantasy kidnapping?” She had to be sure.

Mike's mouth dropped open. "What? What the fuck? No! When?"

Sara's mind raced. What should I leave out? She told him about the first time with Dreadful and how she was convinced Mike sent him. She gave complete details about the second time when she was forced to orally please the circle of people watching and how she finished with Dreadful in her mouth. She did not mention Jack conquering her virgin ass. I'll take that one to the grave. She described the last attack and her time spent tortured. She concluded by admitting her nearly boundless daily lust.

"That's why I had to say something, Honey. I'm going crazy. My body and mind are on fire. I'm surprised to hear it wasn't all your idea because I thought it was brilliant. I've had buttons pushed I didn't even know I had. Because they could strike at any time I stay horny and on sexual alert every waking moment. Do you swear you weren't behind them?"

"I swear it. Gosh, Sara, I'm glad it turns you on but hearing about it is kind of scary. Are you sure you're safe with them?"

"Yes. No. Mostly safe, I guess, but that's what makes it so exciting. There's an element of the unknown. I mean they won't hurt me for real but they love causing me pain and torment."

"This explains why you've been so horny lately."

"Exactly."

"I thought it was John making you horny. I wondered if you were sneaking around behind my back and having sex with him."

"Why would I do that?"

"Because I insist on condoms. I know that ruins it for you a bit."

"It does. It's such a big dose of reality jammed into a fantasy. I understand, I just don't like it."

They were both thoughtful for a time.

Sara said, "So, what did you mean when you said 'follow your pussy' the other day? I've been trying to understand."

"Have fun, sexually."

"But I was already doing that. Why say it unless you were trying to say something more? I was wondering if maybe you were hinting at relaxing our rules. Passions flare and clothes fly and kissing and touching and then wham! Everyone stop and reset while I locate a prophylactic and slap it on this big hard dick."

Mike got nervous. "Maybe you should go back on birth control? Just until you get this out of your system."

Sara slid down the bed and began to lick Mike's soft penis.

"It will never leave my system, Darling," she began. "I learn more about myself every week. You married a slut, Mike, and I'm a big one." She slipped her tongue under his balls and lifted. "Be honest," she mumbled. "When I sent that picture of John inside me skin on skin, wasn't it more exciting? I know you love it, you're just trying to do the right thing. You want to be prudent. You forget I was there that night Randy filled my pussy. You played with his cum. You spread me open to see it better and got hard again right away. I know it's terribly irresponsible and wildly risky but you must admit, it's hot as fuck."

Mike groaned softly.

Sara teased as she swabbed his balls and licked up his growing shaft. "Nice big fat cocks, throbbing hard and covered with veins, pushing into your pretty wife as she spreads her legs eagerly."

Mike tried to resist. He willed his penis soft. He got harder anyway.

"Let's find another way, Baby. If we're going to do this, let's do it all the way. Let's find a different answer. I want to fuck. I want to fuck hot men with big cocks. You'll always be my sweet Sugar Bear but enough of this half-assed effort. Let's be bad."

Mike was hard and that seriously undermined any protest he had. Sara was right and she knew it. Mike had to admit that even if only to himself.

"You know what I want to do?" Sara taunted. "I want to wear some heavy make-up and revealing clothes. I want to tease my hair all big and vamp it up and go out to risqué clubs. This is Vegas, Honey. I want a secret life, like Batgirl, except at night I do bad things. We could enter the clubs separately like we don't know each other and you can watch me from across the room, growing more excited as I flirt. Isn't that sexy, Baby?"

She closed her hot mouth over his penis. Mike shivered. He knew she said things he should not agree to but found himself unable to raise an objection. She pushed her tight lips down the shaft and the tip of his penis bumped a tonsil. She sucked hard and bobbed slowly and all his oppositions evaporated.

She took her time sucking him off and about thirty minutes later swallowed everything he gave her. They spoke no more about her ideas,

Sara knew not to push too much, instead snuggling under the sheet.

Let those ideas percolate, she mused. Mike will give in. He always gives me what I want. I'm lucky this time because deep down, he wants it too.

Dean sat across the parking lot and watched Dreadful and Jack drop Sara at her car. The poor girl looked traumatized. He'd been in the room as they worked her over and enjoyed watching her suffer. He had no animosity towards the girl, not like Jennifer, he just thought it was hot to listen to her anguish. Her lilting voice was sweet and feminine and her sounds of distress excited him. He especially liked it when she begged for them to make her cum and they ignored her. She told them she could take no more but her body kept writhing, welcoming every lash of the whip and jolt of electricity.

Sara, if I ever get my hand on you again I will fuck you to death. You're the sexiest woman I've ever seen, even sexier than Jen, and I'm so very happy you did not fully escape our web. I thought I'd lost my chance with you.

Sara threw her hood on the ground and stomped on it. She yelled something Dean could not decipher and opened her car door to sit.

He pulled the small baggie of blue pills from his shirt pocket. Sara's birthday party was a few days away. She was about to get hit by a sexual hurricane and she had no idea. First the boys injected her full of an aphrodisiac Dreadful brought back from Thailand and then they worked her into extreme sexual frustration. Dean shook the little tablets which would complete her drug cocktail and turn her into a whimpering slut.

Sara started her car.

Go home to your husband, little girl. Go home to Mike. Let him know I'll have something for him too that night, and I promise you, he is going to hate it.

Robert Dunlap watched Jack remove the hypodermic.
This is too far, he thought.

They strapped the poor girl to a huge wooden X and secured her ankles and wrists. Electrodes dotted her arms, legs, small breasts, and trimmed pussy. They waited for the injected drugs to take effect. As soon as her hips started to involuntarily rotate, they knew she was ready. Jack removed the hood and a pile of blonde hair tumbled out. The girl looked around wildly.

“Who the fuck are you? What’s happening to me?”

Jack chuckled. “You’re being trained. Your husband hired us to teach you a few things, things you recently told him you’d like to try.

Her eyes grew big. “Bullshit. Untie me. Where’s my husband?”

“Relax, Emily. Brandon knows all about us.”

Jack kicked off his shoes and lowered his pants. As any person in this position would, Emily’s gaze fell immediately to his cock. He lifted his gut to provide her a better view and she recoiled.

“That’s impossible. Nobody’s cock is that thick. That’s fake.”

This time Jack laughed. “No, that’s real, and you’re about to be introduced.”

She pulled hard on all four straps. “Why are you doing this to me?”

Jack moved closer, his soft cock only an inch away from her face. “Because it’s what you really want.”

He waited. If Emily lifted her head, she could reach him with her mouth. He knew the drugs coursing through her tingling body made this seem like an increasingly good idea. She whimpered and whispered a soft, “No,” but she kept her eyes glued to his meat. Jack loved her attention and began to swell. When he’d swollen enough the tip of his cock brushed her lips. She parted them. Her tongue crept out and licked his slit. Shame and disgust twisted her eyebrows.

“What did you do to me?” she murmured.

Jack got serious. “We don’t put nothing in your mind that ain’t already there, girl. You like Big Jack’s nasty dick, don’t you?”

Emily’s eyes rolled back. “My skin is on fire,” she breathed. She was perfectly still for a moment and then slowly opened her mouth. Jack’s cock head slipped inside. She closed her lips and sucked, soft at first but with a growing urgency. The drugs boiled her insides and her last remaining defenses were falling fast.

Jack stepped away and someone delivered a zap of electricity to her foot. Emily cried out as pain ripped through her. They let the current run several seconds and then shut it off. Emily gasped.

“Why?” she moaned. “I was sucking your cock.”

Jack stepped back and she instantly opened her mouth again. He pushed his dick in. “Just to show you that we can,” he answered.

Jack made the girl suck his cock for almost an hour, zapping her at random and for varying durations. By the time he finished that portion of her abuse, she found herself looking forward to the next shock, recognizing the jolt as just another way she pleased him. The drugs wiped away every concern except sex. His huge lumpy dick jutted out from under his gut when he moved around between her legs.

Robert held his breath. Jack was about to cross the line. The husband had not requested this extra treatment nor paid for it. When Jack looked at him, Robert slowly shook his head. Jack advanced on the girl anyway. He felt between her legs.

“Sweet baby girl, you’re so wet you’re dripping.”

“Oh, God, please fuck me.”

Jack moved close enough to flop his huge penis on her mons. It reached almost to her belly button. Emily tried to lift her hips and capture him but her restraints prevented all but the smallest movements. She yanked her manacles in frustration.

“Goddamn it! Put your cock in me.”

Jack pulled his hips back far enough his dick dropped to her hole. Before he began to ease himself into this eager and fully compliant wife, he nodded to one of the guys to hit the juice. Electricity shocked Emily as Jack fed her cunt his cock. She whimpered and tried to take it but his cock against her clit made her head explode. Every nerve vibrated. Her entire body pulsed. She rushed towards climax and kept going. Her orgasm hit but then she sailed along, trapped in blissful sensations, detached from earth and drifting. A long loud moan escaped her throat.

Jack felt the electric tingling through her vaginal walls. “Oh, Christ, that’s good,” he said. “Turn it up a bit, guys.”

“Jack, you need to stop,” Robert said. “You gave her too big a dose and you’ve hit her with too much electricity. Look at her. She’s losing her grip.”

Emily was gone. Her hips writhed and her eyelids fluttered and her fingers wiggled randomly. Her breathing was fast and shallow. Sweat covered her body. Jack’s rock hard cock lodged in her guts was her only anchor to this planet. She had plateaued, her head filled with white-noise as her body floated along lost in orgasm.

Jack did not argue with Robert. He turned his attention back to the girl and held her hips while he began thrusting. Emily whimpered and groaned as massive waves of pleasure rolled over her. Jack pumped faster, now in a hurry to empty his nuts. He grunted as he ejaculated inside.

“Get her washed and dressed,” he said, glaring at Robert. “Then find a room where she can recover. When she comes down, take her back to her car.”

He knew he’d made an error; Robert would report to Dreadful and that could mean an uncomfortable conversation. He watched the two younger guys remove Emily from her bindings.

I doubt Dreadful will cut me loose before the birthday party. He needs my big dick and my connection to Sara. She’ll melt when she sees me again and we’ll make sure her husband understands I’ve already been with her.

Mike pumped the gas pedal as if the car were dying. “Uh oh.”

“What’s wrong?” Sara asked.

Mike hit a turn signal and coasted into the large gravel parking lot. “Engine died,” he replied. Sara waited while he lifted the hood. He pretended to dial a number and have a conversation as he wandered the lot. Sara waited inside the car. After a few minutes, he came and got her. “Tow truck is on the way. He’ll call when he’s close. We might as well check out this store while we wait.”

Sara looked up at the marque. “This is an adult store,” she said. “Why would we wait in here?”

“Better than waiting in the car. Come on, this should be entertaining.”

Sara looked down at her clothing. She’d wanted to look sexy for her date with Mike so she wore a clingy peach dress which ended way above her knees. Black stilettos and a silky black shoulder wrap finished her simple but stunning outfit. The spaghetti straps hung to her waist in back and halfway down her full breasts in front. She’d turned heads all night.

“I can’t go in there dressed like this.”

“You worry too much, Honey. There’s probably only three old men in there and they could all use a look at you to brighten their dismal lives. Give them a thrill.”

Sara glanced around the lot, noting the tattoo parlor and motorcycle repair shops were still open but seemed deserted.

“Fine,” she relented. “But help me walk on this gravel.”

Mike loaned her an arm.

Inside the shop were two older gentlemen and the guy behind the register wearing the same T-shirt and jean combo he’d worn when Mike first met him. All three men followed Sara’s every move. At first she felt self-conscious under the florescent glare and wrapped her stole tight but as she completed the first row she began to relax. The older guys kept themselves positioned to have her always in view and that flattered her, but more importantly the raw sexual atmosphere of the place started her juices flowing. Everywhere she looked were photographs of big tits and big cocks and people of every type and color fucking and sucking. Her delightful date with Mike had cooled her recent lusty urges but now they came roaring back.

She asked Mike to carry her stole. The air conditioning had her nipples hard and they poked through the thin form-following fabric. They saw she wore no bra but her swaying ass hinted she may be panty-less too. Mike covered his chuckle. The old guys could not take their eyes off his wife.

“Sara, wait here while I run to the restroom.”

She said okay and turned her attention to the racks of DVDs showing tiny white girls kneeling in front of huge black men. She leaned closer to look at their long cocks, wondering if they were even real. A tingle at the base of her spine made her imagine sex with a black man.

My parents would lose their minds. That is a taboo too big. No way.

Mike aimed for the bathroom but then veered away at the last second and ran down the hall to the back door, texting Jennifer as he went. She opened the door and he asked how much more time they needed.

“Stall her for fifteen minutes.”

Over Jennifer’s shoulder Mike saw streamers and balloons and people running around trying to finish last second detailing. He rejoined Sara, or at least he tried to. As he rounded the corner he saw both old men and another man, younger, gathered around her in a circle. Mike stopped behind a magazine stand to watch. The men peppered her with questions and Sara ate up the attention. She'd allowed the front of her dress to sag and the flimsy material clung desperately to each nipple as she turned back and forth following their conversation. One of the old guys had made a comical tent of his pants.

As always, Mike enjoyed the powerful effect his wife had on other men. He held back and observed until finally joining Sara. He still needed to kill five minutes so he walked up the aisle with her, noting every item that caught her eye. She liked muscles and flat belly but she loved long thick cocks. Even out of shape guys drew her attention if they were hung.

Luck was on his side. Just when he tried to figure out how to get her to the back of the store, Sara said it was her turn to use the restroom. Mike guided her down the hall.

"It says bathroom on that door," she said, pointing behind her.

"Yeah, I tried using those. They're being cleaned. You have to use the one in the storeroom."

Mike opened the door and ushered Sara through.

Colored lights exploded and confetti blasted into the air. Music blared and people from every direction screamed "happy birthday!" and rushed Sara, hugging and kissing her. She squealed with joy and clapped.

"What? How?" She turned on Mike who was smiling broadly. "You did all this?" she asked, disbelieving. She kissed his lips.

"I had help. A lot." He held his hand out as Jennifer approached. Jennifer wore a short black mini skirt and white silk top that draped in front, exposing the round curves of her big tits. Dean, as always, sported jeans and T-shirt.

"Oh my God!" Sara screamed. "I haven't seen you guys in forever!"

She and Jennifer hugged tightly and spun in circles. The turnout for the party was better than expected. Mike had even tracked down friends from high school. Sara was overwhelmed, laughing and kissing and hugging everyone who came up to her. Dean handed her and Mike drinks and raised a toast to friendship.

Tina knew this area of town and was a little surprised to hear the party would be held here, especially at night. She slipped her nine-millimeter baby Glock into her purse, just in case. The invitation told her where to park but she knew that spot was asking for trouble so she went another block and parked under a street light. She'd visited this side of town often when scoring coke or Molly and knew the terrain. She locked her car and straightened her black mini skirt and small red top, pushing her boobs together.

She was excited to see Sara after so long. She understood how that night freaked Sara and Mike out. She hoped-for party life never materialized. Instead Sara withdrew and stopped returning her calls and Tina went on without her. With this invitation from Mike she hoped to rebuild some bridges.

She crossed the gravel parking lot and cut between two buildings and stopped. She'd seen that van before. She remembered the huge Harley Davidson logo. She had to tickle the thought but eventually it came and her stomach filled with ice water.

What the fuck is Dreadful doing here?

She moved behind a dumpster as the van door opened.

Jack too? This is bad.

She waited for Jack to lock the van and head into the warehouse. She checked the number on the unit and there was no doubt, Dreadful and Jack were here for the party. She ignored the stench of rotting garbage and tried to think of any reason those two could just be here for the fun. They don't do fun. For fun, they hurt people. I can't enter the party yet. Far better if they never see me.

She was early so she wedged farther behind the dumpster and waited. Soon a woman about her age opened the door and stepped outside, followed by Dreadful. They walked away from the door and directly towards her and she prayed the shadow was deep enough. She overheard their conversation.

"I paid Karl for the cuckold tattoo so you don't need to. Here's the syringe. At some point, when we get her alone with us, have Jack grab her and you zap her with that dose. Dean will drug Mike and once he's out of the way, we get started. I want that fucking bitch fucked by every cock in the club. Make sure they do."

"I know the plan, Jennifer. Stop talking so much."

Tina searched her memories. Dean...Jennifer; why do those names sound familiar? Then she had it. Those fuckers are Mike and Sara's friends! Lying assholes!

They continued talking but the topic changed to logistics regarding the party. Tina only half-listened. She needed a plan but was seriously outnumbered.

I have a gun to threaten but Dreadful will dare me to shoot him. Hell, he'd would take a bullet and keep coming just to prove a point. I doubt I can shoot him point-blank in cold blood. He'd walk up and snatch the gun. I cannot confront them head-on.

Jack stuck his head out the door and called them inside. Tina hugged herself against the chill she now felt.

Poor Sara! I must do something, but what?

For five hours, the party rocked the warehouse. There were DJs at each end and temporary walls to muffle the different music and break up the space. Jen had chairs and couches brought in along with a light show and multiple fog machines. Dean handled all the drinks and Mike and Sara always had a glass in their hands.

About an hour ago, Mike noticed the drinks got stronger and had a funny after-taste, but he thought nothing of it. He'd consumed a lot of alcohol and expected reality to shift a little.

Sara loved to dance and rarely left the floor. A lust that started in the adult store grew with each drink and each song. She felt an urgency, an ever-increasing yearning for hot nasty sex. Her pussy throbbed. Her tender nipples ached to be caressed. She hoped to sweat out her rising desires but all those bodies pressed around only made things worse. Every time she caught someone looking at her exposed body, titillating fingers of excitement tickled her pussy. She knew some were people from high school she barely knew. They'd shunned ugly Sara back then but the way they looked at her now with raw want had her drenched. She had no idea why they'd been invited but here they were, eyes filled with carnal appreciation.

Mike had gone through her phone contacts and Facebook friends and every email contact too. He knew he probably invited too many people but he figured why not, it's a party, and the more people there the happier

Sara would be. Some of the guys could not believe their eyes; Sara had blossomed into a drop-dead gorgeous hottie and with the way her dress moved when she danced, she'd treated everyone to a sexy flash or two. Sara danced with two guys who had their bodies pressed tightly against hers. She laughed and ground her ass backward and her tits forward and everyone cheered the birthday girl on.

Mike stumbled when a wave of dizziness swept over him. He felt a hand on his back and a vaguely familiar voice ask if he was alright. He nodded and tried to see a face but the hand steered him towards a door all the way back in the corner. He watched the ground to make sure his feet landed correctly.

Inside was a small office with no windows and another door across from this one. He dropped into the closest chair and the room spun and he closed his eyes.

"Something wrong," he managed to mutter.

He felt someone take his drink before he spilled it but then realized they were binding his wrists. He struggled to open his eyes but a rough canvas hood dropped over his head. He lacked coordination to do more than gurgle a protest. He heard a door open and felt his body lifted but all the movement made it difficult to stay conscious so he just decided to take a quick nap instead.

Sara felt ready to explode. Two more hours had passed and she was desperate to fuck. Everyone look hot and sexy including the girls and Sara knew if Mike didn't fuck her soon she would do something stupid.

Maybe I can find a Viagra for him and fuck his sweet little dick all night. She felt badly as soon as she thought it. Mike's penis is fine, she corrected. I'm just a slut.

She left the dance floor and asked around but no one had seen him. She wandered the club looking for her devoted husband. The crowd had thinned considerably and she sensed the sun would be up in an hour or so.

In the corner, Jennifer stood with a knot of people so she aimed for her. As she drew closer, she recognized Dreadful and Jack standing behind others.

For an instant, nothing computed. "What the fuck?" she said.

Jennifer laughed scornfully. "Surprise, bitch."

"It was you all this time? Why?"

Jack circled around but Sara ignored him. She was still bewildered by Dreadful with Jennifer. That simply refused to make sense.

"Payback sucks," Jennifer said.

From behind, Jack wrapped enormous arms around the girl and covered her mouth. Dreadful stepped close and Sara's eyes went big as she saw the syringe in his hand. She shouted a muffled cry, utterly drowned by the blasting music, and felt a now familiar pin-prick in her shoulder. In an instant, she understood how many times that needle had jabbed her recently. Jack held on as if giving her a friendly hug and Sara felt the drugs slowly work their way around her body, flowing from one nerve-ending to the next. Her desire grew from horny to passionate to lustful. She became suddenly aware of Jack's huge lump mashed against her ass and moaned. When her struggles to get away became efforts to rub her ass against him, he slowly released his grip on her.

Sara stood on trembling legs. "What, what did you give me?"

"That time?" Jennifer asked. "That was a custom blend of luteinising hormone and testosterone. It works perfectly with the other drugs you've been drinking all night. In a moment or two, you'll crave sex more than any woman in history. Has anyone seen Mike? No? Too bad, I'll guess you'll just have to fuck whatever men I send to you."

Sara fought hard. She resisted with everything she had but felt all control slipping away, and she knew it wasn't just the drugs. Weeks of manipulation and deprivation combined with her own true nature had her steamrolling towards complete surrender.

"Where's Mike?" she whimpered.

Jennifer laughed and leaned close, menacing. "He's getting a tattoo."

Sara met her eyes. Jennifer saw something in them and took Sara's hand and led her to the dance floor. Dreadful and Jack pulled chairs over to watch.

There was plenty of room now as most had departed but around two dozen remained and cheered. The DJ mixed to a slower song with a sensuous beat and Jen circled in on Sara, lightly trailing fingertips up and down her arms and legs. Sara gasped in shock. The pleasure she felt was almost unbearable. The small crowd gathered and joined the dancing although everyone kept at least one eye on the girls. Jen slipped Sara's hand inside her top and several in the crowd whistled and cheered.

Jen's tit felt like heaven. She knew she should be furious with Jennifer but simply wasn't and could not account for why. Sara squeezed gently and Jen danced closer and Sara slid her palm up to the nipple. Jen leaned in and kissed Sara on the lips and pushed her tongue into her mouth. The crowd went nuts.

I should hate her, Sara thought, but instead kissed her back. Jen pinched Sara's nipple through her dress and stars exploded in the drugged girl's mind. One of the guys from high school said, "My turn," and stepped up to take Jennifer's place.

"You can join us, cowboy," Jen stated. "But I'm not giving her up just yet."

The guy moved behind Sara and ground his crotch into her ass. Usually Sara would have shoved him away but this time she pushed back at him.

I can't refuse anyone, she realized. Oh, fuck, what have they done to me?

Sara felt his lump and reached back to give his cock a squeeze. Jennifer kissed her deeply and another girl moved close and kissed Sara after Jen finished.

"I can't believe how gorgeous you turned out, Sara," the girl said. "We had two classes together. My name is Tammy. Do you remember me?"

Sara tried to focus on the girl's face but Jennifer was playing with a nipple again, making it impossible.

"Yes," Sara lied. "Do you want to kiss me?"

Tammy held Sara's face and kissed her deeply. Sara slipped a tongue across, surprising the girl for an instant, but then Tammy moaned and kissed Sara back, their hot wet tongues slipping and sliding all over each other. Sara cupped Tammy's heavy tit and Tammy's eyes flashed open with excitement.

Everyone saw where the party was headed and for many it was too much. Most finished their drinks and tipped the bartenders and while a knot of people remained on the dance floor gathered around the birthday girl, many called it a night.

Jennifer did not wait for them to leave. She gripped the hem of Sara's dress and lifted it over her head, exposing Sara. Sara did wear thong panties but they were little more than a small black lace triangle. Dressed now in panties and stilettos, Sara boldly continued to dance. Hands came from every angle to touch her all over. Cowboy reached around and under her thong and pushed a finger into her sopping wet cunt. Sara leaned on Jennifer for support. She felt her mind disconnecting as she became only her body. She kissed any mouth presented, leaned into every touch, encouraged every grope. She gave herself up to the urges that roared in her brain. Her panties got yanked down and she eagerly stepped out of them. A hard cock was placed in her hand and she automatically started pumping it. Another filled her other hand. Tammy pulled Sara's mouth down to suck a large nipple and Sara attacked with enthusiasm.

"Fuck yes," the girl moaned. "I've wanted to fuck you for years."

"Me too," Cowboy said. "Can you believe how hot she turned out? I look at her pictures on Facebook and my dick gets hard. Now she's jerking me off!"

Many hands spread Sara's legs, running up and down her strong thighs and fingering her tiny wet pussy. Sara thought her body might explode at any moment. Everything felt so insanely pleasurable she wanted it all. Cowboy pulled his penis away from her and moved around behind. He pushed on the small of her back, bending her at the waist, and rubbed his dick around her opening.

"Dude, she's married," Tammy warned.

"Is it okay if I fuck you, Sara?"

"Yessssss... God, pleeeeeease, put it in me." Sara pushed her ass back at Cowboy, desperate for dick.

Dreadful rose to his feet. "Stop," he commanded.

Cowboy froze.

"That pussy belongs to me and I did not give you permission to fuck it."

Cowboy sized Dreadful up and immediately retreated. "I'm sorry. I thought it would be okay."

"The fuck it does," Jennifer countered. "This bitch belongs to me."

Dreadful approached the group and most backed away. Dreadful met Jennifer's eyes and they battled silently. Cowboy looked frightened but Tammy looked intrigued.

Dreadful spoke to Cowboy. "I'll let you fuck her, so stick around, but not first. I fuck her first. Have your fun but leave her for me."

Sara stomped a foot and made fists. “Oh, my God! Please! Someone!”

Dreadful addressed the group. “Any of you want to leave do it now. We’re locking the doors in a minute.”

Another small group gathered their things and left. The doors were locked behind them. Dreadful towered over Sara. “Take it out and suck it. Stop when I tell you.”

Sara knew this game. She knew exactly what to do.

Mike slowly came back to himself. He was strapped to an old dentist chair, his pants around his ankles, and his lower stomach hurt. He looked down. His pubic hair had been shaved away. Black calligraphic letters an inch high were tattooed in an arch just above his penis; C-u-c-k-o-l-d.

“What the fuck?”

He pulled hard on his ankle and wrist straps. Someone heard.

“Ah, you’re awake. Good.” The man had a strong German accent so he pronounced the word, “Guut.”

Mike heard footsteps and waited for the man to enter his field of vision. He wore a denim vest with no sleeves and baggy jeans. A chain connected his wallet to his pants, a large Buck knife attached on the other side. He had tattoos on every exposed inch of flesh including his face.

“You want something for pain?”

“No, I want you to fucking untie me.”

“Soon. When word comes.”

“Word from whom? What the fuck is going on?”

Buck Knife ignored him and put away needles and ink.

Mike launched into the man, cursing him, demanding to be set free. The man ignored everything Mike said. Soon, they heard an outer door open. Dean walked in. Mike’s mouth dropped open.

“Dean, what the hell is happening here?”

“That’s harsh, Karl. Damn.”

Karl shrugged. “It’s not so bad. The hair grows back and the letters disappear.” Karl faced Mike. “Unless this one wants to remain shaved for the world to see.”

“You guys are crazy,” Mike said. “Untie me, Dean. Where’s Sara?”

“Sara’s busy right now but I’ll take you to her.”

He motioned to Karl to get Mike up. Moments later, Mike stood. He considered punching Dean in the face but the man was much taller and more athletic. Also, now on his feet, he realized most the drugs still flowed through his system. He steadied himself on the chair as he buckled his pants.

“Why did you make him put that on me?” Mike said. “I thought we were friends.”

“We are, little buddy. He wasn’t supposed to do that. Let’s find Sara.”

Dean led them through the back of the shop and down a hallway that connected the businesses. He opened the door and allowed Mike to go first. Mike stopped.

The couches had been moved onto the dance floor making a huge bed. Sara straddled a man, riding his enormous cock, slamming her sopping pussy down the rigid length of him. Jennifer sat on the back of a couch, feeding Sara her pussy. Sara had other men in each hand, stroking their penises while behind her a fat and disgusting man lubed his lumpy penis, apparently preparing to fuck her ass. A girl Mike vaguely remembered from high school pumped Sara’s asshole with a finger in preparation. Two guys and a girl from Sara’s work completed the gathering.

“What the fuck?” he yelled.

Sara never broke stride. In fact, virtually everyone ignored Mike’s outburst. Jennifer had warned them Mike was on the way and what to expect. Mike walked around to face Sara and Jennifer pulled back, allowing the girl to speak.

“Honey,” he begged. “What are you doing? Please stop.”

The desire in her eyes frightened him. He’d never seen her looking this way. She shook her head slowly, adamant. “No, my love, I can’t. I’ve wanted this my whole life. I love it. I love it.”

Jack climbed on the sofas and pressed his fat cock to her sphincter. Sara’s eyes got big. Mike took a step towards the fat man and one of the guys shoved him back.

Sara had eyes only for Jack and told him to hurry. Mike stopped in his tracks. Jack held her hips and eased the head in and Sara’s face contorted in ecstasy.

“Fuck, yeah, do it, Jack. Push it in. Just like last time. Fuck my ass, Jack. Give me that big dick. Fuck! Yes!”

Beneath her, Dreadful held still while Jack pushed in but once he had several inches buried, they began a synchronized back and forth. Sara uttered a strangled cry of pure bliss. Her eyes rolled back in her head.

“Looks like she’s fine where she is,” Jennifer teased. “Why don’t you strip and join us?”

Mike looked around the empty club, the sounds of sex only a few feet away. He couldn’t leave her here and he couldn’t stop them. He knew if he attempted to call the cops they'd stop him and mostly likely tie him up too.

"Yes, Mike," Sara moaned. "Join me. Join us."

He was stuck. He stepped to a nearby chair and fell into it, staring at the ground. What had happened? Nothing made sense. Did Sara have a secret life? Were Jennifer and Dean actually hateful enemies? Mike tried to find a handle on his crazy world. He wracked his mind to understand.

Slowly, and in the tiniest increments possible, the sounds of hot sex worked their way through his anger and dismay and into his brain. He felt the drugs in his veins contribute to his changing mood. He heard Sara orgasm hard and he looked up.

She was like a carcass on the savannah, surrounded by feeding predators; Dreadful fucked her from below and Jack plowed her ass. How she took cocks that large were beyond Mike's comprehension. Jennifer sat back and watched now and one of the guys from high school fucked Sara's mouth. The other girl played with Sara's big firm tits.

Mike's stomach ached and he pulled his pants away and looked at his new tattoo. He knew the word from internet searches. Once they realized Mike loved to watch her fuck he'd done some investigation. John called himself a "cuckold's best friend," so Mike understood the tattoo accurately fit. What he didn't understand was why he wasn't more upset about it. The letters were shiny like Karl had coated them in Vaseline and Mike felt humiliated by what was done to him, but also, way in the back of his mind, strangely proud. He'd always wanted a tattoo but never the courage to get one. He heard Sara climax again and left his chair to move closer to the make-shift stage.

Jack sucked air and sweated like crazy. His lumpy dick fucked Sara's ass with long strokes and her cries of pleasure assaulted Mike's ears. On every stroke Jack's huge balls slapped Dreadful's ridged shaft. Jack filled both lungs and let loose a mighty roar as he poured hot jizz into Sara's rectum. His excitement pushed her over the edge and she came yet again as she gave her ass to this disgusting man. Jack staggered away and Mike considered for a moment taking his wife's ass.

Dreadful pulled Sara away from the others and turned her onto her back. Now that Mike got a better look at the man he was glad he hadn't started a fight earlier. The man was a beast. Sara disappeared beneath him and the tattoos and scars, the beard and body hair, all combined to intimidate Mike to silence. He watched as Dreadful fucked Sara deeply. He saw the way they gazed into each other's eyes. This was not their first time together. They'd been lovers before, possibly many times before, and Sara was excited to have this man back inside her again.

"You're not getting away this time," Sara breathed.

"Neither are you," Dreadful growled. Jennifer flashed a look at Mike and was pleased to see Mike caught the implications.

Dreadful squeezed her tits and alternated sucking each nipple. The guys from high school and a bartender moved closer, blocking Mike's view for a moment, so Mike changed chairs, closer now than before. Dreadful's cock was a fleshy piston as it hammered Mike's wife.

"You're going to make me cum," she said.

Dreadful lightly bit a nipple and kept his rhythm steady. Moments later, Sara again filled the warehouse with her high-pitched cries of delight, climaxing yet again on the huge cock that fucked her. Dreadful was close behind. Mike held his breath. This man was about to inseminate his fertile wife and Mike should be furious, and a small part of him was, but a much bigger part longed to see it.

Like thunder rumbling across the hills, Dreadful drove his hips and bellowed his release. Sara screamed a cry of pure satisfaction and slapped both hands on his ass, pulling him as deep as possible for his ejaculation. She wrapped her legs around his waist and worked her cunt back up the length of him. Dreadful roared again and again as he emptied his large hot balls.

Mike discovered his penis was hard.

Dreadful collapsed on Sara and neither moved for long minutes. The tension in the room was thick. Finally, Jennifer told Dreadful to make room for the next man and the ex-biker lifted himself off her. One of the high school guys stepped between her legs and Sara smiled and spread herself wide. She opened her arms, welcoming the man.

"Do you remember me," he asked.

"I do. Charlie, from Mrs. Henry's math class."

The man beamed. "You're so beautiful, Sara."

"Fuck me, Charlie." Sara reached down and guided him in. "Fuck me hard."

Tammy and Sara made out while Charlie fucked Sara and after he filled her with cum the bartender stripped and took his turn. After that man came inside Sara, everyone kind of caught their breath for a minute but then high school guy was ready to go again. He turned Sara on her knees and fucked her from behind and Mike could take no more. He stripped, revealing to everyone in the room his brand-new tattoo. While high school guy fucked Sara, Mike moved his penis to her mouth. Her eyes lit up when she saw the shiny black lettering.

“Oh, Baby, Mike, that’s so hot.”

“You think so?”

“Unnnngh, yeah, I love it. It’s so nasty. Ungh! Is it permanent?”

“I’m afraid so. I can hide it with hair.”

“Don’t. I think it’s sexy. Now, ahhh, bring me your dick. I want two men.”

Mike fucked his wife’s mouth while watching Charlie from school fuck her pussy. Tammy wiggled under Sara in a sixty-nine and ate Sara’s pussy while Charlie fucked her. Sara popped Mike out of her mouth and guided him into Tammy’s wet pussy.

“Are you sure?” he asked.

Sara gave him the wickedest grin he’d ever seen and pulled him forward by his balls. Mike sank into new pussy and Tammy moaned. Sara kissed her husband passionately and Mike returned the kiss with equal fervor. This was all madness. His only hope to keep his sanity was to let the storm drive him. He felt a powerful surge of erotic energy when he heard Charlie begin to ejaculate inside his wife while they kissed. Sara felt the erotic moment too.

“Oh my God! Mike! I feel him spraying! Aaagh, fuck, I’m going to cum again!”

Mike and Sara kissed as Charlie pounded hard, holding her hips and slamming his cock deep. When Charlie finished, he was replaced by a guy from Sara’s job. The man looked like he could not believe his amazing luck, like he’d wanted to fuck Sara for years and now he was about to. Next to him stood the other guy and girl from her job, waiting their turns.

Mike felt the drugs in his blood. He knew Sara was drugged too. But he also knew it didn’t matter. The drugs only made it easier. Husband and wife both wanted this. Charlie fell away, spent. Sara dropped her mouth to Tammy’s pussy and ate the girl while Mike fucked her. After Tammy came, Mike pulled his erection out and pushed away, lying on his back, staring at the ceiling. His head spun and his heart raced. The whole room tilted and whirled. He closed his eyes, overwhelmed, and all sounds grew increasingly distant.

He opened them again to the soft sounds of love-making, realizing time had passed and he'd blacked out. Dean had Sara on her back and his wife had arms and legs wrapped around his old friend. Jennifer had moved close to watch and had a maniacal look in her eyes which Mike found a little frightening. Jack was gone and Charlie was too. Tammy slept in a little ball nearby.

Jen saw Mike and grinned. "I know you remember how much Dean cums."

"I do."

"Not on her face this time, is it? This time deep in her womb."

Unsure what to do or how to act, Mike gave a nervous nod. There was so much to worry about his mind had no place to land. Sara's face was pure happiness as Dean's formidable tool stretched her. Dreadful waited nearby, playing with his huge erection and waiting his turn. Mike's heart and mind were in utter turmoil but once again his penis engorged. Sara was everyone's fuck-toy and loved it.

Dean reached under Sara's ass and cupped her butt cheeks, driving his cock balls-deep with every thrust. Mike remembered that day Dean emptied his balls on Sara's face and his mouth went dry. Dean's load was monstrous.

Sara's cry of orgasm brought Mike back to the moment. She thrashed around under Dean, ecstatic she finally had his cock in her, slammed by almost continuous orgasms. She growled and gurgled. When Dean was ready he pushed his cock all the way in and then pressed even deeper. Mike suspected Dean's urethral opening might be directly against her cervix but wondered if perhaps his cock had slipped even deeper and was now buried in her uterus. Sara certainly writhed around like she had a massive spear in her guts.

Dean pumped a few short strokes and locked eyes with Jennifer.

"Here it comes. Fuck yes! Take it, Sara. God! I've wanted this for so long. Fuuuuuuuck! Arrrgghhh!"

Mike knew time messed with him because Dean seemed to shoot cum into Sara for a long time. Mike watched his friend's ass clench with each new blast and grimaced at the sheer volume of fluid his massive orgasm produced. How can testicles make so much sperm? Dean growled and grunted and rammed his spear in deep as he blasted away. When Dean finished, he collapsed on top of Sara and she lovingly wrapped her arms around his head. They kissed softly.

Dreadful waited and then barked at Dean to move. Mike eyed the next heavily veined log headed for Sara and squeezed his eyes shut. This was all too much. His penis craved release even as his mind churned with gnawing doubt, filling him with so many conflicting emotions he felt crushed under their weight. He had to get away from this madness for a moment. He stood and his erection bounced around, anchored perfectly by his humiliating tattoo.

He walked to the bar and drank whiskey directly from the bottle.

He couldn't watch any more. The sounds of Sara's delight drifted by as she welcomed Dreadful again, but Mike did not look. Anguish roiled him. He felt like screaming. He swallowed another huge gulp and felt the heat in his throat. He breathed deep and calmed himself, listening to Sara's sounds of pure pleasure.

In time, he took the bottle with him and returned to the make-shift bed. He watched every man take his wife again and again, often two and three at the same time. Sara was ravenous and welcomed each. She craved men. Her desire for penetration drove all else from her mind. She needed to be ravaged. Mike gulped whiskey until his vision blurred and his heavy eyelids closed.

He awoke naked and alone. For an instant, he hoped all was a dream but his throbbing skin told him it was not. His tattoo anchored reality and allowed no retreat. Last night was real. His head pounded agony with each heartbeat. His throat was parched. He staggered to the bar, downing four big glasses of water. The sofas still formed a huge bed, the upholstery covered in a mosaic of dried fluids. He found his phone in his pants pocket and two text messages awaited. The first was from Tina, apologizing she wouldn't make the party after all. Mike shook his head. How would things have turned out if she had? The second was from Sara, telling him they tried to wake him but couldn't so they let him sleep and he should text her when he awoke.

He set his phone on the sofa. Her text was over two hours old.

What happens next?

Sara did not mention where they went and he suspected that was intentional; Sara wanted more and worried Mike would barge in. His first instinct was to chase her and try to correct their course but he stopped and thought for a moment.

I've been trying to rein her in for almost two years. She obviously has a conflict between what she wants and what she thinks she's supposed to want. Society tells her how to behave and she tries but what if what she wants is something else?

He held his throbbing head in his hands to steady it.

Why do I hold her back? Am I also trying to do what I think I'm supposed to do? I keep trying to pull us back but as soon as wild sex rears its head I jump in with both feet. I was hard the whole time I watched Sara fuck all those men. Doesn't that show me what I truly want? This conflict is causing us to hide from each other and lie to each other. This conflict is causing us to lie to ourselves.

He knew there could be serious ramifications from last night but, God, the pure animal heat, the absolute raw sexuality was intoxicating. Mike wanted to rip down the curtains that shrouded his true desires.

And Sara's too.

Jennifer beamed. The night had gone better than she hoped. Sara carried an ungodly amount of semen in her womb. Most of her co-workers left early but a handful stayed until the dance floor make-out session and a few even beyond that. Jennifer doubted they'd keep their mouths shut and by Tuesday the whole building would know all about slutty Sara. She'd successfully inked Mike and forced him to watch his wife reveal herself as a total whore.

Cuckold or not, he must be ready to dump her.

She looked down on Sara asleep in their huge custom bed. Back at the warehouse Sara had fucked to exhaustion, falling asleep with the bartender's penis inside her. Jen had pinched her labia together, trapping all that sperm inside. She worked Sara's panties up her legs but not out of kindness or discretion; she wanted those labia kept shut while Sara slept.

Mike sat on the sofas and leaned back. His head still spun. He noticed for the first time there was a large mirror in the rafters above him and realized Sara must have watched herself get fucked every time she was on her back.

He remembered snapshots of last night and his penis twitched. In all that sexual craziness, he never climaxed. He touched his sensitive dick and felt it swell. In the mirror, he saw CUCKOLD lettered just above his penis and his balls tightened. He started stroking slowly, reading and rereading that word. Like a video, last night played out in his mind. He hated that it was done against his will but he loved being so marked.

I'm going to keep it shaved.

He felt a rush of excitement at his decision. He closed his eyes and let the movie play again. Sara was achingly sexy. He loved how every man and woman there wanted his wife. His penis stiffened. One by one he remembered each man taking her. When he got to Dean ejaculating inside her, Mike grunted and spurt a heavy load all over his hand and stomach. His abs clenched and his ass lifted. More sperm shot. His sphincter pulsed. He orgasmed so hard he felt dizzy.

That was a lot harder than usually. He smeared the sperm all over his tattoo.

Tina waited for hours. The club filled and the party rocked and she looked for any opportunity to do something to help her friend, but none appeared. Finally, the back door opened again and Jack stepped outside to smoke. He wore only boxers and Tina shuddered to think why. She waited until he brought the cigarette down from his lips and then quietly moved behind him. She placed her gun at the base of his skull. Jack was no Dreadful. This man was mean but he was a bully. Any courage he felt was a by-product of his enemy's weakness, not bravery on his part. When he felt the cold steel of the barrel, he dropped his cigarette.

"Move around the corner, by the row of trucks. Hurry."

"I have no money, lady. I don't even have pockets."

"Shut up. I don't want money. Move."

Tina aimed him into a corner of the lot out of sight of the warehouse door. "What's going on in there?"

“We’re running a train on some dumb bitch.”

“Who?”

“Girl named Sara Jackson. Why do you care?”

“Who told you to do that and why?”

Jack shrugged. “Jennifer Deals and her husband, Dean. Not sure why. Jennifer hates Sara for some reason. I think Sara got Jen fired. I don’t much care why.”

“You’re a piece of shit. Where does Jennifer work? Where does she live?”

“I don’t know her home address but she works at Lloyd’s downtown.”

Tina thought for a moment. “Why the drugs?”

“Jen wants to ruin the girl. Get her pregnant with another man’s baby, shit like that. Break up the marriage. She’s had the girl recorded doing all kinds of nasty things. Wants to ruin her career, too. I gotta tell you, Sara took to the gangbang like a fish to water. That girl loves cock.”

Tina felt guilty. How much of this is my fault? For my own selfish reasons, I dragged Sara down this road with me, just so I wouldn’t have to go it alone. I started the ball rolling and now look where she is. She would never have gotten into something like this if not for me.

“How many people are in there? How many working for Dreadful tonight?”

“Do I know you? How do you know about Dreadful?”

She pushed the barrel into his skin. “Answer the question, Fuck-Face.”

“Me, Dread, the bartender, couple guys in the crowd, Karl, some outside security. Maybe ten?”

Too many.

“You said Jennifer is behind this. What about her husband, Dean? Does he want revenge on Sara too?”

Jack laughed. “No. None of us do. We’re kind of fond of her. Helps that she’s fucking gorgeous. She’s a sweet kid, just wrong place wrong time. You understand.”

All too well.

“Go back inside. Tell no one about me.”

“Sure.”

Tina watched his fat ass walk back to the door. He'd either tell or he wouldn't, she didn't care. She knew them but they didn't know her. She headed back to her car.

Dean paid Dreadful and dropped him off. Jack had disappeared after fucking Sara's ass and no one saw him again all night. When Dean got home, he dropped his keys in the bowl by the door. Jennifer, dressed now in a sheer teddy, was in the bedroom watching Sara sleep.

"So, kidnapping now?" he asked.

Jennifer laughed softly. "Not until she wakes up, and even then, only if she tries to leave and I don't allow it, which may happen but I bet it doesn't."

Dean ran his eyes over his sexy wife. "What's your plan now, mastermind? I must admit you are kind of a genius. That plan worked almost perfectly."

"Thank you. I thought we'd all sleep for now and then you fuck her again when we wake up, assuming you still want more sex with her?"

Dean rolled his eyes. "Don't get jealous but yeah, I'll fuck her any time you say."

"Then get undressed and join us in bed. She'll sleep for hours."

Dean showered and joined Jennifer and Sara in bed, slipping carefully between the two women. "You're a lucky bastard," Jen said. "Remember this on my birthday."

They were asleep almost as soon as they closed their eyes. Dean awoke a few hours later and found a confused Sara staring at him in the dim bedroom.

"Where am I?" she whispered, bewildered.

Dean kept his voice low. "Jen and I brought you home. You wanted to keep partying. Mike passed out so we covered him and brought you here. I left a note for him to call when he wakes. I sent it from your phone."

"Thank you," she murmured. Her brow furrowed. "Dean, you sent Dreadful and Jack after me. Why? They hurt me. That was terrifying."

"We're sorry. We'll talk later, pretty girl. Things went too far. It was supposed to be fun but those guys went rogue. They did most of that on their own."

“But even at the party? You joined in with them on me.”

“Sweetie, we were as high as you. Maybe more. I barely remember last night.”

Her head wobbled, the drugs still in her system. She snuggled closer to Dean for warmth and the back of her hand touched his cock under the covers. Her eyes got big.

“Are you naked?” she whispered, her voice strained.

He grinned. “Only way I can sleep.”

Sara moved closer and let her fingers rest on his pudgy shaft. “Did I really do all those things I think I did? I seem to remember some crazy shit.”

“You did.”

She tilted her head back to gaze into his eyes. “I remember us fucking.”

“We did.”

“Finally.”

“I’ve wanted you such a long time.

She tightened her grip and felt him swell. He kissed her lips. She tried to look over him to see Jennifer but he told her not to worry.

“Jen’s cool with us doing it. She gave her okay before she passed out.”

They kissed again and he rolled her on her back and moved between her legs. She rubbed his cock around her opening and guided him in. Both moaned softly. Sara squeezed her eyes shut and savored the sensation of fullness Dean gave her. She’d wanted him for so long. She sighed and laid her head back on the pillow. Pleasure washed over her as she felt Dean move in and out of her body. He kissed her face and neck and ears and she soaked it up. He kissed her lips as he held himself deep until she gasped. He was so big and hard. He felt delicious. She was startled when she realized she suffered not one shred of guilt.

She wrapped her tone arms around Dean’s neck and pulled his mouth to hers. She crossed her ankles behind his butt and gently pulled him in with every thrust. They locked eyes and made slow sweet love for a long time. He held her tightly when she climaxed all over his cock and she did the same when he filled her with more seed later. They fell asleep tangled and woke hours later to make love again. This time Jennifer was awake too and the girls kissed tenderly as Dean and Sara mated.

Hours later they left bed and showered and ate. Sara borrowed one of Jen's see-through teddys and Dean walked around nude. After breakfast Sara quizzed them for details and they lied, telling her Dreadful was to blame for everything. He was only supposed to plant the idea of a kidnap fantasy, not actually kidnap her.

"Dean hired him to do it to me last year and it was hot. Dreadful captured me and said all kinds of nasty shit in my ear, pulled my clothes off and made me play with his dick. Then he let me go. Dean knows I like being forced. The whole thing was so sexy. We thought you'd love it."

Sara chewed on that before asking, "Why a 'Cuckold' tattoo for Mike? That's pretty extreme you guys. He was wasted last night but I bet this morning he's furious."

Dean showed her his palms. "That was all Karl! We told him to shave Mike and put a tiny little black heart tattoo. That's all we paid for! Karl is weird though. I'll apologize to Mike when I see him later. At least his pubes will hide it."

They had an answer for everything. Bit by bit their stream of lies convinced her.

Jennifer laughed. "We wanted this birthday party to be unforgettable and I guess we got our wish!"

They sat around and talked about life and work since they'd seen each other last until Dean looked at Sara with a growing intensity. She knew what he wanted.

She stood and untied her teddy and let it fall to the floor. Jen walked around behind her and cupped Sara's tits, lifting them and offering them to Dean. He licked them all over as she played with his cock and then Jen led them back to bed and left them alone while she dressed and left the house to run errands.

Had she stayed she would have witnessed the most tender and intimate love making Dean and Sara ever shared. They were half an hour into their afterglow when Sara's phone chimed and she saw a message from Mike.

"About time," she murmured, and wandered away from Dean for privacy.

"Hey," she said, when he answered after one ring.

“Where are you?”

“With Jen and Dean at their place.”

Mike was silent for a moment. “I know I was high as fuck last night but didn’t those two have you gang-raped?”

Sara laughed nervously. “No, Baby, it wasn’t them. There’s way more to the story. I’ll explain when I see you.”

“You’ve been fucking around behind my back.” Mike was stating a fact, not asking. “I saw how you acted with those two men.”

Sara decided from this moment forward, she would tell the truth. “Yes.”

Mike sighed. He wanted to be angry but he was only mildly upset. Sara’s infidelity turned him on and sucked all his righteous rage away.

“Shit.”

“Mike, I am so sorry. I can explain. With John, it was only to tease you. I thought you sent those other guys after me. I thought they were one of the fantasies you had but couldn’t tell me about. They never fucked me, until last night, so I was sure they were from you. Later I wasn’t so sure but now I know Dean and Jen sent them and things got way out of hand. Please believe me.”

“What about this humiliating tattoo, Sara? Whose idea was that?”

“It was supposed to be a small heart. The tat artist did that on his own.”

“They hire a lot of people that strike out on their own.”

“I know how it looks but, yeah, he’s weird but they never expected he’d do something that crazy.”

Mike sighed. Things did not add up to a nice sum but he had no better ideas and he was bone-tired. Thinking was difficult.

“You say you’re at Jen and Dean’s?”

“Yes.”

“Did you fuck Dean again?”

Sara paused. Here was a moment of truth. “Yes, Baby, many times.”

Mike’s stomach clenched, his throat constricted. He knew Sara he wanted Dean for a long time. He remembered perfectly that drunken night together when she’d voiced her desires. He’d kept them apart almost a year but that was all for nothing now. He feared he was about to lose her and worried he could not trust her. Now that they’d finally done it, what’s to stop them? Mixed in with was also a strong arousal. How could he get angry when he was turned-on?

“Was it good?”

Sara took a deep breath. “Mike, I’ll be totally honest with you from now on; it was amazing. You know how I feel about him. I’ve wanted him for such a long time.”

“I know. Did he cum in you?”

“Every time.”

Mike’s heart skipped a beat. He knew he’d masturbate as soon as he got off the phone. “Sara, should I be worried?”

Compassion welled in her. Sara poured her heart into her response. “Oh, no, Baby. Not ever. Not for anyone.”

Mike relaxed. Her sincerity was real. They were quiet for a minute, processing, and then Sara asked, “Was last night hot?”

Mike knew what she was asking. “Yes. Insanely hot.”

“Do you secretly love that Dean fucked me?”

“You’re killing me. Yes.”

“Did you masturbate this morning thinking about me with him?”

That stung. “Yes.”

“Will you again when we hang up?”

Fuck. She’s a mind-reader.

“Yes.”

She paused, debating. “Despite your worries, do you want me to go fuck Dean again, right now, in his big bed?”

Mike’s balls felt suddenly hot.

He moaned, “God help me, yes.”

Sara’s body ignited. She walked down the hallway to the bed. Dean rested above the covers, cock draped over a thigh, lean body stretched out. Sara described the sight to Mike and heard him moan. She sat the phone on the pillow.

“Make love to me, Dean.”

Her words stabbed Mike through the heart. They weren’t just fucking. This wasn’t just sex. Fear and jealousy roared in his brain but blood flowed to his penis. He heard them kissing and his guts twisted. When he heard her first soft moan, he moaned too.

God! Dean’s fucking Sara.

He remembered how much sperm the man produced and licked his dry lips.

Sara must be flooded with semen by now.

Mike reached for his exhausted penis, half erect and struggling to grow. He yanked the floppy appendage as he listened to the sounds of her breeding. They were in no hurry. This was not the mindless rush of passion. Slow and deliberate they intimately connected on every level and Mike heard it all.

When Sara climaxed, he heard a piercing pitch to her voice he'd never heard before. She gave everything to Dean. When Dean came soon after, he bellowed with passionate release, inundating her small womb with strong ejaculate. Mike spurted a few droplets of his own, his heart on fire.

Sara picked up the phone, breathless. "Still there, Honey?"

"Yes."

"Did you cum too?"

Admitting he had would encourage her but how could he lie? "Yes."

"Fuck that's hot. I'll have Dean drive me home in a little bit. Are you home yet?"

"No. I'll meet you there soon."

"Perfect. I love you, Mike."

"Sara, I love you too."

The line went dead. Mike dropped onto the sofas, tired all the way through.

Mike got home before Sara and took a long hot shower. He put on boxers and a T-shirt and poured a whiskey neat. Soon he heard a car door slam and Sara walk up the steps to the house. He stood, watching the door knob turn. Sunlight glared until she closed the door behind her.

She'd never looked so beautiful as she did in this moment. She stunned him. She wore her outfit from last night but her hair was a tousled mess, her eyes bloodshot, her lips puffy from sucking cock, and her nipples hard as diamonds despite the heat. She held guilt neither in her eyes nor her posture. She was unashamed. To see her now in their living room reminded him of seeing her last night, men fucking her everywhere a woman can be fucked. She was Aphrodite, Bes, and Venus, and she was his wife.

Her dress clung to every womanly curve, accentuated by his vision that this was no tease, no temptress who taunts and dances out of reach. This goddess takes as much as she gives. Beneath that dress a smoldering volcano lay.

In two steps, they were kissing madly. Wild recklessness filled her veins and she threw her head back and laughed as if insane. Mike showered her throat with hot kisses, trailing to her breasts which he freed and then feasted upon. She ripped the dress off and he dropped to his knees, staring point-blank at her swollen pussy. She pulled him to his feet to kiss him again and again.

Sara was eager to suck him because she loved looking at the tattoo and said so. Mike ate her pussy but only until she climaxed, which was quick. She was a mess. He took a long time to cum and then they cuddled.

After a long period of silence, Mike spoke. “So, I guess there are just no rules?”

“Is that how it feels to you?”

“Yeah. Like we’ve lassoed a tyrannosaurus rex. We’re just hanging on for the ride. We have no control over this thing.”

“I think you’re right. Our only form of control is abstinence and that does not work. I want it too much. We want it too much.”

Mike was thoughtful. “If you think about it, couples eliminate other sex partners to help define the relationship; I have sex with them, not you. We’ve smashed that taboo. Right now, what separates me from Dean? He’s as intimate with you as I am.”

Sara rolled over to face him, shaking her head. “No. I understand the point you make but it is so more complicated than that. The only intimacies I share with other men are physical. You get all my deepest thoughts and emotions. I love you. Dean, like other men, will hang around for a while and then move along. You’re my rock.”

Mike scowled. “You’re saying it’s just sex with them.”

“Yes.”

He drew a deep breath. “I guess it comes down to trust; do I believe you? Last night was intense. I won’t lie. I’m shaken.”

Sara touched his face tenderly. "I understand. I'll tell you everything and hopefully that will shed some light. You have less to worry about than you think."

Sara told Mike everything, first explaining about her history with Jack and Dreadful. Mike was angry when he heard, railing at Dean and Jen for going too far. That Jack took her ass hurt him too but he knew that was a male thing. He listened as she explained and came to understand how she could have been confused.

"Dean and Jennifer are a little crazy too," he said. "Something's not quite right with them. My gut tells me to back away. We should exclude them."

Sara smirked. "My pussy says definitely include them. At least Dean."

"Is that the female version of thinking with your dick? How do we settle conflict, Sara? If I say no to a guy, why do you get to override my vote?"

Sara slid down and read the black lettering while she tugged on Mike's limp penis. "Because you're a cuckold, Baby. You want me to have every man I desire."

He smacked her with a pillow and she laughed. He tried to remember his outrage from last night; the things done to him without consent or knowledge, the thoughtless destruction of his requests. Maybe he was just utterly burnt-out but his rage seemed distant now, distant and increasingly irrelevant. He found himself surprisingly comfortable with all that had been done. He sighed.

"I am unable to separate what I really feel from what I've been told to feel," he said. "Truly knowing yourself is difficult. I know I have opinions on things that were given to me and I just accepted without question."

"I understand. I feel the same way."

"Tell me you love me."

"I love you, Mike."

"How about this; going forward, no more hiding anything. Let's be brutally honest. Do nothing behind my back and I'll do the same."

"Deal."

Cindy and Alex saw Sara enter the building using the side door. They waited a respectable time for her to get settled and then approached her office. She asked them to come in and close the door.

“What can I do for you?”

Cindy spoke first. “We talked about it and we want you to know we won’t say anything to anyone. That party was crazy. A few people that left early are asking questions but we are telling everyone there was just more drinking and dancing and then people started to pass out and the party broke up. None of us from work will tell your secrets.”

“That’s incredibly kind, but why?”

Alex spoke up. “We like you, Sara. You’re pretty and smart but mostly you treat us so well. You’re the best boss we’ve ever had. I admit what happened was a dream come true for me and if you ever want to repeat it, I would love it. Cindy too.”

Cindy nodded rapidly.

“That’s so sweet. Thank you very much.”

“No problem, Mrs. Jackson.”

Sara watched them returned to work. She knew she’d dodged a bullet.

I was out of control. Whatever Jennifer gave me worked too well. She worked for a minute before looking out at Cindy and Alex. I think I need to get more of it.

Four days later Mike was at the gym to swim a few laps. Work had been incredibly busy and physical exertion to relieve stress sounded perfect. As he changed out of work clothes into trunks, he hooked his thumbs in his underwear and pulled them down, too late remembering the tattoo only after he saw it.

“Shit!” he said as he yanked them back up. He glanced around. Most everyone ignored him but two guys seemed to have noticed; an older gentleman with eyes big with shock, and a younger black stud with knowing eyes and a smirk. Shocked-Eyes looked quickly away but Smirk waited for Mike to continue. Mike hesitated then made a choice. He knew no one at this gym so why not?

He turned his body mostly towards his locker and once again tugged his underwear down. Smirk made a point of reading the black letters and then began disrobing as well, dropping his pants to reveal a sizable cock and balls. Mike's mouth went dry. He turned slightly to better show Smirk his tattoo and the man grinned broadly. Mike felt his penis begin to swell and hurriedly changed into his trunks and left the area for the pool.

How will I shower after my swim? What about doctor visits? For the millionth time since acquiring it, he considered removal. But for some reason Sara loves it, and I hate to admit I think I do too.

He swam for forty-five minutes and then hit the sauna for another fifteen, and then it was time to shower and head home.

Here goes.

For maximum privacy, he chose a shower stall all the way at the back. He stripped off his shorts and began to soap. A few guys came and went, all of them using the stalls at the front. Just as he began to relax, Smirk entered the stall across from him.

"How's it going?" the young black man asked.

"Good," Mike said, too fast and too loud.

"I'm Tyler. Nice tattoo."

"Thanks. I'm Mike."

Mike turned his back and poured shampoo in his palm. His cheeks turned red. Minutes later he turned back and Tyler was covered in suds and stroking his beefy and slightly swollen black cock.

Tyler caught him looking and smiled. "I don't mean to be an asshole or anything, dude, but about five weeks ago I saw your wife drop you off at the gym and she's smoking hot."

His statement hung in the air. Mike had no idea what to do. Tyler scanned the other stalls to make sure they were alone. "What I'm saying is, if you want me to fuck her, let me know." He held his soapy dick and balls from the base and Mike gawked. "That's almost nine inches of hard black meat."

Flustered, Mike mumbled thanks and finished his shower. As he dressed Tyler dropped off a business card with his name and number and a suggestion to friend him on Facebook.

So, is this what I can expect?

When he got home he found Tyler Rockson on Facebook and sent him a request, which Tyler quickly accepted from his phone. He browsed Tyler's photos, surprised by the number of hot white girls he had as friends. Sara got home a few minutes later and he showed her Tyler's page.

"That guy's sexy. Where do you know him from?"

"Funny you should ask. I just met him at the gym today."

"Why is that funny?"

Mike shared the story. Sara was intrigued. "He looks like an annoying frat boy but he's hot. If I ever find free time from my other hot lovers, I'll have you arrange a meeting. I've never been with a black guy."

Mike was titillated by Sara's casual confidence. She'd changed so much in less than two years. He had too.

Changed? Or stepped out of the way of who we really were all along? Is it truly change when you start acting on how you actually feel?

"I'm a genius," Jen said.

"You're a genius," Dean agreed.

The Denny's was empty except for them and another couple in the far corner.

Jen continued. "How gullible are those two? I mean seriously? Look at everything we did to them and they still think we're friends. I'd laugh if it wasn't so tragic."

"What's next?"

Jen aimed a twisted smile at him. "You mean when can you fuck Sara again?"

Dean pretended to be hurt by the accusation, and then he acted goofy. "Yeah."

"After the party it was obvious she's into you. Maybe you should start going by their house? Park yourself in their bedroom?"

"You think?"

Jen got sarcastic. "Would you mind? I'll miss you but if it's not too much trouble will you fuck that girl as often as possible?"

"The things I do for you."

The waitress stopped by to refill their coffees. When she left, Dean continued. "I'll text her right now. It's late on a worknight. Let's see what I can get away with."

Dean tapped out a message about how much he's been thinking about her and would love to see her. Jennifer laughed. His phone chimed minutes later.

"Alright, then, Darling. I'm off. I'll see you soon."

They kissed and Jennifer watched her husband walk away. She did not like how quickly he sent the text or the short time it took him to leave.

I think you might be into that girl as much as she's into you, she thought, aiming daggers at the back of his head. And that will not do.

Sara was brushing her teeth before bed when her phone lit up. She looked at Mike dismayed.

"What?"

"It's Dean. He wants to come over."

"Now? It's late and a work night."

Sara gave her husband a hopeful look.

"Really, Sara?"

"It's been days, Baby. This is so spontaneous. Isn't it exciting?"

Mike had to admit her instant lust turned him on. They'd been discussing a science article she'd read about how many hours elephants sleep each night and then boom, all she can think about is fucking Dean.

"I'll keep it quick," she added.

He saw real excitement in her eyes. "What should I do? Can I watch?"

Sara moved up against him. "I was hoping you'd guide his fat cock into me. Let's both be naked when he gets here. I'll fuck him in our bed. Won't that be hot? First Randy, now Dean. Look how far we've come."

Sara sank slowly to her knees, trailing kisses down his body to his tat where she kissed each letter in succession. She pushed his boxers the rest of the way down, discovering he was already on his way to hard. She purred. "You love this as much as I do." Her mouth engulfed the head and Mike moaned.

Dean arrived and as Sara requested, Mike spread her labia and pulled Dean forward by his cock until the head mashed her opening. He was much bigger than her hole but Mike pulled him forward anyway and Sara groaned deep and long as Dean slid home. Mike moved as the lover's bodies merged and he leaned against the headboard.

Dean's lean and athletic frame was a pleasure to watch. His abs flexed sensuously as he pumped his hips and fucked Sara. She ran her hands all over his tight dancer's body. They kissed with deep passion, tongues wrestling in the open. The sounds of Sara's wetness filled their bedroom.

Dean leaned back and gripped Sara by the ankles, spreading her wide. He looked at Mike. "Lick her clit. Lick her clit while I fuck her."

Mike hesitated. Dean's thick and shiny cock was sliding in and out and her clit was sometimes drawn down directly against the shaft as Dean pushed.

"Do it, Baby," Sara whispered. "Let me feel both my men."

Mike closed his eyes and lowered his mouth. He started his lick well above and snaked down over her outer labia until he found her hood. He licked softly under and felt his wife shudder with pleasure. He swabbed her clit from top down and unintentionally felt Dean's hard but spongy cock glide past against his taste buds. Dean moaned.

"Whatever you just did, do it again," he gasped.

Sara placed a hand on the back of Mike's head and opened her legs wider. He concentrated his attention on Sara but could not prevent occasionally licking Dean's cock. Soon he had them groaning with pleasure and Dean started pumping faster. Sara's moans became high-pitched cries.

Dean pulled too far out and Mike's tongue ran over the corona and glans. Before he could move away Dean thrust and the tip entered Mike's mouth. He pushed Dean out with his tongue and then pursed his lips to guide him into Sara, but a slippery trail of semen coated his tongue.

Dean fucked Sara, growing more erratic in his thrusting as he approached climax, and it happened again. This time Dean's cock traveled to the back of Mike's throat. Mike again guided the massive member into his wife and focused his attention on making Sara orgasm. If Dean understood what had happened, he showed no sign. Mike was relieved. He did not want to have a conversation about what just happened.

Sara drew a sharp breath as Mike softly swirled her clit. Her cries became a series of short yelps and Dean started long-stroking her. Her climax hit like a cannonball and her hips bucked as she held a pillow over her face and screamed. Mike tortured her with a flurry of lashings and Dean pounded just a few more times before driving balls-deep and unloading a flood of seed.

Mike continued his assault as Dean inseminated Sara. He noticed with his tongue pressed against the shaft he felt the pulsing surges of sperm racing through Dean's shaft and into his wife. He left her clit and swabbed the cock with his tongue. Every gush of cum expanded the tube and sent a jolt of adrenaline through Mike. This was an unimaginable level of participation. There was nothing homoerotic about it for Mike; he did not enjoy Dean's dick, he enjoyed helping Dean fuck Sara. He was actually experiencing Dean fucking Sara.

Finally, Dean exhausted his immense supply of jizz and collapsed to the bed. Sara lay still, eyes closed, seemingly sailing through the stars. Only Mike had energy and he had a lot. His penis stuck straight up, bright pink and ready to explode.

Dean made a joke about not being as young as he once was and Sara countered with a quip about how he would have killed her back then.

They all chatted about work and current events and then Dean dressed and left the married couple alone.

Sara opened her legs at Mike. "Your turn?"

Mike crawled between her legs and lasted less than two minutes. Afterwards they lay together and Mike considered how much cum his wife carried.

"Maybe we need to make a trip to the pharmacy?"

Sara was miles away. "Hm? Ok, Honey."

In the weeks that followed, Dean visited often, taking Sara whenever he wanted. Mike was always right there with them, eager to please both.

Then, abruptly, Dean stopped calling. Sara messaged without response.

Unknown to them, Jennifer believed Dean was developing feelings for Sara and demanded he stop.

"Fine with me," he countered. "This was your idea, not mine."

"I can see what's happening, Dean. I'm not stupid."

"What about your sweet revenge?"

"Don't worry, I have a plan. I always have a plan."

Dean acted disinterested but the truth was he had come to care for Sara. Sex changes things and he'd had her so much he missed her as soon as he drove away. She was a considerate and giving lover and Dean felt his loyalty to Jennifer's rage slipping.

Jennifer is right, I am falling for Sara.

Four days without Dean had Sara pacing. "Do you think I said something wrong?" she asked Mike.

He scoffed. "No, I think Jennifer got fed-up. No woman can watch her man spend time with a woman more beautiful than she and be fine with it. I bet she told him he had to stop."

Sara smiled sweetly at her husband. "You say the sweetest things." She kissed his forehead. "I'll start dinner."

They were watching a movie in bed when her phone chimed and she lunged for it. She read the message and leaned back against the wall, concerned.

"What's wrong? Dean okay?" Mike asked.

Sara turned the phone for Mike to see. The text was from Dreadful.

"Is that the beast-man from the birthday party?"

Sara nodded slowly.

Mike read the message. "He wants to come over? Is he replacing Dean? I'm not comfortable with that."

Sara read the message again. Her face flushed. She tried to hide her excitement but failed.

"You want him too? He's a thug."

"Maybe, but he's so manly. He's not like Dean at all. He's not like anyone else I've had. Dreadful takes me and fucks me. He's a caveman. I like it."

Mike rolled his eyes. "Kind of suspicious, don't you think? Dean disappears and Dreadful shows up? I think Jennifer sent him after you again. I just don't know why. The parties over and if Jen told the truth, Dreadful proved he cannot be trusted. Why send him over?"

"Maybe it's not her. Maybe he just wants me. Or maybe she feels bad and this is her way of saying, 'Sorry I'm taking my husband back, here have this monster instead.'"

Mike stared at Sara. "You can rationalize anything you want."

"It's a gift."

She replied to Dreadful's text.

Mike was disturbed.

Dreadful fucked Sara nothing like Dean. Mike was tied to a chair that first night and forced to watch a human grizzly bear ravage his petite wife. Dreadful slapped her ass and pulled her hair and pinned her all over the bed. He forced his cock down her throat until she gagged. Many times, he took her right to the edge of truly hurting her. Mike found Sara's behavior especially disturbing. Hard as it was to watch another man do those things to his wife, watching his wife come back for more again and again was distressing. Here was a side of Sara he'd never seen. She loved being forced to do whatever Dreadful willed. The rougher he was that hotter she got. Her orgasms were different from Dean, too. With Dean, there was intimacy and attraction. Emotions wrapped her in a blanket and satisfied her. With Dreadful it was all dominance and submission. She made him want her and she loved that. Primal forces of male and female battled and Dreadful's diamond hard cock pounded her into obedience. Her orgasms with Dreadful appeared to kill her. Her entire being; body, mind, and soul, convulsed and collapsed. Dreadful left her quivering and catatonic.

Dreadful rarely wanted Mike's participation. When he did it was for something like licking her asshole to wet it before the monster pushed his cock into her rectum, or stretching her legs far apart so Dreadful could work his entire enormous cock into her guts. No matter what foul sexual deed he had her perform, every encounter ended with Dreadful pumping Sara's womb full of sperm and forbidding Mike to add his.

Most disturbing, and Mike fell asleep many nights wrestling with this conundrum, was how much he loved watching Sara's debasement and his own humiliation. Every time Dreadful ordered him to stay out of Sara's pussy, Mike sprouted an erection. Every time Dreadful ordered Sara to perform some humiliating task, Mike sprouted an erection.

One night they all went out to dinner and Dreadful instructed Sara to behave like she was married to Dreadful, which she eagerly did. Mike was instructed to remain one step behind them all night and he had an uncomfortable erection the whole time.

Each time Dreadful departed, the couple seemed to emerge from a fog. They'd apologize to each other and explain and reassure and promise next time they'd tell Dreadful to go fuck himself. But they did not. Instead they welcomed submission and wallowed in it.

One evening Dreadful called and told Sara to leave the house and come meet him alone. He told her to wear a short dress with nothing underneath and make sure she looked pretty. Mike chewed his fingernails to the nub while she was gone. He had no idea where they were or what that monster was having her do. She returned hours later, slightly buzzed and well fed.

“He took me to dinner at Nine Steak House. Just him and me.”

Mike blinked rapidly, chewing inside his bottom lip.

“We ate, drank wine, talked...that’s it. Everyone looked at me like I was a movie star. So many people knew who he was and they wondered who I was to be with him. Mike, grown men were afraid of him. People were incredibly nice to us. His physical presence was thrilling. Over dessert his sports coat fell open a little and I saw he carried a huge gun under his arm. He’s the ultimate bad boy, Mike. What an exciting night.”

They went to bed and for the first time since they started all these escapades, going all the way back to John Wright, Mike felt genuinely jealous. He hated it.

Randy felt his phone buzz and checked the message. He was pleased to see something from Tina but worried about the cryptic language; “Sara in trouble. Will you help?” He shot back a quick, “Of course.” She responded asking him to call when he could. He looked down at the pretty young blonde girl sleeping next to him. He left the bed and spoke to the captain about changing flight plans for Vegas. Adriana would welcome a side-trip to Vegas.

Fourteen hours later they touched down at McCarran and he called Tina.

“Sara is in over her head. Mike too. They don’t know it but someone they think is a friend is trying to ruin them.”

Randy peppered her with questions until he had enough to work with.

“Let me make a few calls. I need information. You haven’t spoken to Mike or Sara about your concerns?”

“No. First I’d have to convince them of the danger and assuming I was successful, I’d need them to keep their mouths shut. They are not built for this level of intrigue. If one of them let my name slip my ability to help them would be gone as I'd find myself facing attacks of my own. This bitch Jennifer is a total cunt."

"Alright, Tina. You're a good friend and right to call me. I'll call you back."

They disconnected and Randy spoke to Adrianna. "Here's my credit card. Go shopping. I'll be busy for a while."

"Is this about another girl?"

"Absolutely. An angel that got away. The only one that ever did."

Adrianna thought about pouting but snatched the card instead.

Randy waited until she and the captain drove away before he made his first call.

Jack stubbed his cigarette out and approached the woman. He guessed her age around fifty-five but she was still stunning. He lifted the hypodermic from the tray.

"Don't stick me with that," she said. She pulled on her restraints. "I'll scream."

Jack motioned with a hand. "Look around you, Janet. You're inside a concrete room with one door and no windows. If you were an observant lass, you'd notice all our equipment, including the frame you're strapped to, show sign of heavy use. You all scream and yet we've continued doing this for years, undiscovered. Scream if you want. I kind of like it frankly. But know before you do it won't help."

Janet scanned the room, her heart sinking with the realization he spoke truthfully.

"Why are you doing this to me?"

"Because your husband paid us to and because I like doing it. Let me show you something." Jack stepped back and unbuckled his pants, exposing his enormous soft cock and balls. "You're an attractive woman. I'd never have a chance with you outside these walls. But inside these walls I fuck four or five of you a week. That's right. I see your eyes get big. Look at it. My fat cock will be inside you within the hour and you'll be thrilled that it is. When I pull it out of you you'll whine and ask me to put it back. I know that sounds crazy but I've been doing this a long time and that's what happens almost guaranteed."

Janet recoiled from his penis and his words. His absolute confidence shook her. Was he right? She imagined begging for his cock.

NO WAY.

Jack chuckled. "I see your disbelief. Let's just get started. You'll see."

Three hours later Janet climaxed one last time and passed-out. Her fit body, covered in sweat, sagged within her shackles. Jack kept pumping until he blasted a thick load deep inside her and then stepped back, wiping the tip of his penis on her thigh and pinching her pussy shut.

"Every fucking time," he mused. He gestured towards one of the guys. "Take her down, clean her up, call her husband. I'm going to have a cigarette."

He pulled his boxers up under his huge belly and slipped on flip-flops. He left the room and walked the hallway to the exterior door and emerged between building in an industrial section of town. The first drag hit his lungs and he coughed. He exhaled the smoke into the sky.

The hood dropped over his head and then something smashed his ear and stars spun all around and that was all he knew.

He awoke on a cold stone floor with the hood in place and his ankles and wrists bound. He turned his head to listen and heard a voice.

"You're awake, good. Before I begin I need to establish something; do you want to live?"

"What? What the fuck kind of question is that?"

"You're grotesquely obese and you smoke. God knows what else. If you want to live my threats will carry more weight. If you don't, and there is ample evidence you do not, all I can threaten you with is relentless and unending pain. The threat of death is off the table."

Jack felt a chill. His mind raced trying to place the voice but came up with nothing. Some part of him knew, given his lifestyle, this moment had been inevitable. He'd known it was coming. He was a little surprised he'd avoided it this long. Only a matter of time before I'm the one tied up. He sighed. His mouth had gone dry.

"What do you want? You a pissed-off husband?"

"No. I want information. I understand you work for a man named Dreadful. I want his real name. I want his home address. I want to know his last few jobs and who hired him for them. I want everything you know about him and his operation.”

Jack laughed nervously. “No, you don’t. You just think you do.”

An icepick stabbed the bottom of Jack’s bare foot. He yelled into the heavy canvas hood and broke into a sweat. “Okay,” he quickly murmured. “I’ll tell you everything.”

Dean could stand no more. His boss had closed shop early and sent everyone home. Jennifer was at work and would be for another four hours.

I can let Jen know I’m off work early or I can try to see Sara again, secretly.

He spent less than a tenth of a second deciding. His tapped a text.

Sara checked the message sure she would see the latest command from Dreadful. The man was insatiable but she loved it. When she read the text from Dean she sat back. It felt strangely wrong, like she was cheating on the man she was cheating on her husband with. She did miss Dean though. She glanced around the office and nobody paid her any mind so she answered okay, but a quickie for lunch. She hit send and sent another text informing Mike and then she let her secretary know she’d be back in a while.

She’d told Dean to meet her at her place and as she drove there she wondered why. I want him in my bed. Dean is special. She pictured him naked and above her and stepped on the gas.

He was parked at the curb and she raced up the stone pathway to the front door. He followed her to the bedroom and clothing flew. He was almost hard when his pants came down and she dropped to her knees to finish getting him there. God! I love this big cock!

She sucked his fat balls and hefted them with her tongue. She licked up his shaft and scooped the large drop of precum already formed, savoring the flavor of his essence. She relaxed her throat and eased his cock as far back as possible. She’d gotten better at cock-sucking since Dreadful because she had to. Dean coughed and his knees buckled a little.

“Holy fuck, Sara, where’d you learn to do that? Dreadful?”

“Yes,” she teased, and was thrilled to see jealousy in his eyes. “You guys are about the same size. You might be a little thicker but he gets way harder than you. He gets harder than everyone.”

Her words inflamed him, which is what she wanted. He threw her on the bed and slipped a finger into her pussy, testing. She was a smoldering cauldron.

“You’re sopping wet.”

“There’s no one like Dean,” she answered. She was tying him in knots and he loved it. She yelped when he lifted her legs and rested them on his shoulders, lining his throbbing erection up to her blossoming hole. He eased forward and felt her incredibly tight pussy envelope him in searing wetness.

They moaned together. He pushed deeper until the head bumped her cervix and then he leaned slowly into her. She groaned.

“Sorry.”

“No, I love it. Just go slow.”

Dean was desperate to get his entire cock inside this wild beauty. He pressed forward and they both felt her begin to open. Sara gasped as he sank into her again. Only an inch or two, but those inches gave her a satisfied and full feeling like nothing else. She lifted her pelvis to meet him.

“All of it,” she growled. “Fuck. Unngh. I love that cock. Aaaah, yessssss, fuck me, Dean, Baby.”

He left her impaled while he shifted his legs. Her pussy stretched into a tight O around his shaft, forming a vacuuming cone of pink and white flesh. His meat glistened with her juice. He began a slow in and out with small gentle movements. Sara whimpered at the intensity of him buried so deeply inside. He increased his range until half his cock slid in and out.

Sara felt an orgasm building already. He was simply too much to resist. Physically he overwhelmed her but emotionally he did too. She gazed into his eyes, resting a hand on his face.

“I love watching your face as you fuck me,” she murmured. “You’re going to make me cum already.”

He pumped faster and she gripped the bedspread with both hands.

“Fuck! Dean! God!”

He brought her legs together on his chest and started long-stroking her soaked cunt. His abs slapped the back of her thighs and her round firm butt. His entire length slammed all the way into her.

“Oh! Dean! I love it, I love it, Baby. Fuck me deep you gorgeous stud. Empty those huge balls. Shoot all that sperm into me. I want it. I want it!”

Dean rumbled a groan and held her waist. She's so beautiful. I love her face. I love her eyes. I love her!

“Sara,” he moaned.

“What is it, Baby? I’m almost there. Don’t stop. Don’t.”

“Sara, I love you. I do.”

His hips pounded her now and her eyes flew wide open. Panic mixed with mind-numbing exhilaration and a deep welling of emotion exploded and overwhelmed her. Her orgasm shattered her skeleton and made her head explode.

“Oh! Fuck! FUCCCCCCCCCKKKKK!
OHMYGODDEANDONTSTOPFUCK! Aaaaaaaahhhh!”

His climaxed slammed him too. He drove his fleshy spike balls deep into this earth-angel and pulsed and throbbed as his cum erupted. Their bodies jerked and convulsed and mutual cries of ecstasy filled Sara and Mike’s bedroom. They shook the walls. They shook the foundation. Dean shot cum like he’d never stop and Sara’s orgasm turned into insane laughter as he kept fucking her. Again, and again he squeezed another blast deep into her sucking womb. Spasms wracked them both. The room spun and Dean’s arms gave out and his body crashed down on top of hers. She circled his neck with her arms and his waist with her strong legs and kissed him deeply.

Neither spoke or moved for a long time. Dean felt a growing awkwardness over what he’d blurted but before it ever saw the light of day Sara began squeezing him with her vaginal walls and he stiffened while still inside her. Soon they moved as one again.

This time they made love. Long deep passionate kisses accompanied by quiet gazing into each other’s eyes. Sara climaxed easily; Dean’s cock was simply built to pleasure her pussy, and after he’d given her two more he unloaded again. Sperm dripped from her hole to the bed.

This time as they lay together Dean slowly became aware of something. He lifted himself above her. “You love Mike.”

Sara met his eyes. “I do. I’m in love with Mike. I love you, and I can’t begin to tell you how much it thrills me to hear you say you love me, but Mike is my husband and always will be.”

Dean rested his body on her again, savoring the tight grip of her pussy around his semi-solid shaft. Her words were disappointing but there was nothing to be done. He loved her and she loved another.

“I’m leaving Jennifer,” he said after a time. She put a hand on his chest, concern in her eyes. “Not right away but I will. The fire’s out.”

“I’m sorry to hear that.”

“Don’t be. She’s not the friend you think she is.”

Sara gave him a quizzical look but he said nothing more. His part in the drama left him feeling too guilty to talk about what he meant.

They were silent for a long time again and Sara flexed her pussy, squeezing his cock. She smiled mischievously. “Got one more in you?” She felt him stiffen a third time. Not fully, not yet, but hard enough to fuck her saturated cunt. When she came, she had her hands on his ass pulling him into her like she needed his cock to live. He gushed soon after, his balls finally empty. They showered together and dressed and went separate ways; her, back to work and him to a friend’s house. Facing Jennifer tonight would be rough.

Mike slid the razor around the base of his soft shaft and rinsed it in the sink. The tattoo looked even better now. All redness was gone and the ink had settled into his skin, softening the font. He arranged some handheld mirrors on the bathroom counter so the tattoo read front to back, like he was someone else reading it. He tugged his penis and felt blood flow. He’d masturbated more than once just gazing at that word around his dick.

He didn’t have time for that right now but maybe later, depending on what Dreadful demanded of them tonight. The brute had softened since that date night with Sara. Mike suspected the man had a crush on his wife which was fine because while Sara clearly loved his dominance over her, how rough he was never felt comfortable to Mike. A little fondness might make him go easier on her.

He finished and told Sara the bathroom was hers. Dreadful would be over in two hours and Sara loved to primp for him. Mike loved watching her do it. He’d sit on the counter and study her every move. He felt there was something wildly sexy about his wife preparing for sex with another man. She’d pluck and perfume, she’d shave and exfoliate, she’d wear her make-up exactly the way Dreadful liked it. She'd try on several outfits, leaving buttons undone or skipping a bra, trying to find the combination which would please Dreadful most. She would stop only when she was confident Dreadful would love what he saw.

Mike thought Sara was always sexy but when looking sexy was her goal, she was devastating. In recent days, she'd grown a small landing-strip just above her clit because Dreadful told her to. Tonight, she wore a white teddy with matching panties because Dreadful told her to. Mike was already erect in anticipation.

I like her shaved but she kept a little hair for him, and that's hot.

"Maybe you should get a tattoo, too?" Mike asked, as she touched up her lipstick.

"Of what, Baby?"

"How about, 'Slut' right above your pussy?"

She considered the idea. "How about, 'Property of Dreadful' instead?" She laughed at Mike's dismay. "I'm kidding, Honey. Dreadful will have his day in the sun but I know things will change again. Your 'Cuckold' works because that won't change but I'm sure I have many more men in my future. No point in me naming one in a tattoo."

Mike penis twitched and Sara noticed. "Oh, you like that? You like it when I mention future men?"

"I do."

"Since you're the constant here, maybe we should add something to your tat? How about a piercing? How would you feel if we got your penis pierced? We could run a thin chain through and tie your dick down. Or I heard of some wives caging their husbands. Is that sexy? The three of us could visit a sex club and you walk around naked and caged for all to see. How does that sound?"

"Penis and piercing are two words not meant for the same sentence."

Sara laughed. "I'm sure you're right. Let's check on the other stuff though."

Mike said nothing but ran his eyes over her in the bathroom mirror. Sara stunned.

The front door opened and heavy footsteps came down the hall. Dreadful stopped ringing the doorbell weeks ago and now entered their

“Hello, Dreadful,” he said.

The big man gave a nod and sat on the foot of their bed. He wore black leather pants and an Ed Hardy T-shirt. His beard was braided into one long strand with an upside-down crucifix at the end. He’d added a new tattoo on his neck; realistic vampire puncture wounds.

“Why’s your dick hard already?”

Mike shuffled his feet. “I enjoy watching Sara get ready to meet you.”

Dreadful laughed. “She’s a beauty alright. When she comes out I’m going to have her suck my cock while I sit on your bed. I want you on the floor on your back, eating her pussy while she does it.”

Sara opened the door and both men gawked. Sara beamed. “I love making you guys do that.”

Both men stared. Dreadful unzipped and pulled his swelling cock from his pants. “Stay dressed just like that and kneel right here.” Sara complied. Mike slipped under her and moved her panties and kissed all around her pussy before pushing his tongue in.

Sara settled in. Mike’s tongue felt fantastic but she loved this moment; submissively on her knees with a big swelling cock waving in her face. She opened her mouth.

I wish Dean was here too. A shudder of excitement ran up her back. My God. Why didn’t I think of this sooner? She moaned and closed her mouth around Dreadful’s cock head. Images of her royal fucking at the hands of both men simultaneously made her temperature skyrocket. With Mike to lick me while it happens.

Her hips convulsed and clenched, her mini-climax catching everyone by surprise, especially herself.

Jennifer tried the floppy white hat on and giggled at herself in the store mirror. It matched the tight cotton dress she wore so she decided to get it. She felt good. No plan ever unfolds exactly the way one envisions but hers had come close.

Dreadful fucks Sara frequently and without birth control. She's sure to get pregnant any day. Better if Dean had knocked her up but carrying Dreadful's baby is almost as humiliating. I know Sara; she won't end a pregnancy. The happy couple will have a permanent reminder. I have video from her sessions at the shop and her gangbang at the warehouse where she acted like a total slut. Her co-workers would love to see how that night turned out and thanks to the sign-up sheet at the party, I have all their emails and phone numbers. Everyone will see for themselves exactly how Sara enjoyed herself that night.

She tilted the hat, trying to make herself as cute as possible.

Any day now. As soon as that bitch conceives I'll release the video. Everyone will wonder who the father is. Her reputation will be ruined. Dreadful will insist on a lasting relationship with her since she carries his child. Mike will get squeezed out and hopefully leave. As soon as he does, I'll give Dreadful his last payment and he can abandon Sara. Her whole world will lay in shambles at her feet.

Jennifer noticed a pretty girl watching her from across the store. She acted oblivious but continued to pose in the mirror. The girl was hot and Jen welcomed the attention, pleased she'd skipped a bra that day.

Over the next ten minutes the pretty girl worked her way closer, pretending to examine various merchandise but always moving inexorably closer. When the girl arrived at the same hat-rack, Jennifer smiled.

"Here comes summer," the girl said. "Time for hats."

Jennifer inspected the girl openly; shoulder length brown hair and brown eyes, short black pencil skirt and boots, loose top with too many buttons open so a generous curve of breasts exposed. The girl pointed at Jennifer's floppy hat.

"That's a good choice."

"Thanks." Jennifer could eat this girl up. They locked eyes and the girl did not back down. The feeling was mutual.

Jennifer jerked a chin at the far corner. "Dressing room?"

"Lead the way," the girl replied.

"What's your name?"

"Tina. What's yours?"

"Jennifer."

Jen moved through the store to the row of dressing rooms off the main floor. She chose the last one and held the door open for Tina. When the door clicked shut, they kissed deeply. Tina grabbed Jen's tits and Jen slipped a finger under Tina's skirt. After a few moments, Tina pushed Jen down to her knees and pulled her mouth to her hot pussy. Jen liked the girl's aggression. She pushed her tongue into her new sexy friend. Tina curled her leg behind Jen and rested her weight on Jennifer's shoulder's, pinning her. Jen felt the pin-prick in her neck and knew instantly something was wrong. She struggled to stand but too quickly became drowsy. Tina held the blonde's mouth to her pussy as she lost consciousness.

"That seems harsh," Tina said. "There must be another way."

"Fire with fire," Randy said. "I could have her killed and buried in the desert."

Tina gave him a withering look.

"We have no leverage," he continued. "I must create some."

"You're frighteningly good at this."

"I've survived for years at the top. Once you're filthy rich, you have no idea the ruthlessness required to keep what you have. Believe me, everyone comes after you and nobody plays nice."

Tina gave a quick nod. Randy signaled the guard waiting by the door and he left the small brick room, returning shortly with Jennifer, handcuffed and furious. He led her to stand before Randy and Tina.

"Remove these cuffs and let me go, right now, and I promise I'll just walk away."

Randy scoffed. "After all the trouble I've gone through to acquire you? Hardly."

"You look familiar," Jen said.

"Doubtful, but possible. Stop talking and listen. You're in a bad situation and you need to get yourself out of it."

"Fuck you. I'm resourceful. I'd be dead already if that's what you wanted. Do anything to me and I'll come back at you much harder."

Randy sighed. "You are resourceful, I grant you that, but that only means you do a lot with what you have. I have resources. Do you understand the difference? I own vast resources. Be smart. You're alive because she wished it." He indicated Tina with a jerk of his chin. "I'd already have your body in the desert partially eaten by wild animals."

A door opened across from the group and Jack limped through, wearing a hood and boxers, his wrists still bound. The guard removed his cuffs and pulled off the hood. Jack blinked rapidly, adjusting to the light. He saw Jennifer and looked quickly at Tina and Randy.

Jennifer felt relief to see someone she knew.

“What’s going on?” he asked.

Randy moved closer to Jack and both guards shifted to the balls of their feet. Randy pointed at Jennifer. “I know you know her. She’s paid you for a few jobs, yes?”

“Maybe.”

“I want her fucked in every hole, hard, while my men video tape it, and I want you to do it. I’m sure you bear some animosity towards her. My information says everyone who meets her bears her animosity.”

Jack laughed once, loudly. “She’s a bitch, yeah, but I couldn’t do that.”

“I understand, so let me explain. I’ve done a lot of checking, investigating all the players in this sad little drama. Only you float independently; no family, no real friends, no relationships. All the others are connected. If I made you vanish, no one would care or raise a complaint.”

Jack’s face went blank.

“You’re completely expendable, Jack. You’re the only one I can have killed without repercussions. Too bad for you but that does give me a lever on you I lack on the others. You I can coerce.” Randy pointed at Jennifer. “She has chosen to destroy someone I’m fond of and feel highly protective about. I’ve learned enough about her to know she will not release this obsession. She must be forced to release it. The video you are about to star in is one form of leverage. By handing her over to you, I will also redirect her rage and her hate to me. Her current enemy will pale in comparison to the seething abhorrence she will bear me when all this is done. I welcome it. I am better equipped to handle it.”

All eyes turned to Jennifer. Her pale face was a twisted mask of horror. She backed away from the group, raising her cuffed hands in front of her.

“Now?” Jack asked.

Randy gave a fake little smile. “Yes, now.”

Tina looked away.

“You should leave,” Randy told Tina. She shivered and headed for the door.

Jack could not believe his good luck; Jennifer handed to him on a silver plate. He knew Dreadful was growing fond of Sara and unlikely to finish the job the way Jennifer wanted. That meant he probably wouldn’t get paid his full fee. Jennifer was a cunt every time she spoke to them and she’d be a super cunt when Dreadful finally backed out of their deal. His gaze traveled over her tight cotton dress and sexy body.

I might as well.

Jen saw the look in his eyes. He’s going to do this. She’d lost. She scanned the small room for an exit, saw none.

“Jack,” she said. “Hold on. You want to get paid, don’t you?”

“Dreadful won’t do what you ask. We’re not getting paid. Funny how things turn.”

Jen backed into a corner. Jack approached menacingly. His boxers began to rise and Jen could not look away. Jack pushed them down and stepped out of them, his enormous cock bobbed and bounced. He gestured for Jennifer to come closer.

“You’d best suck this, love. You’ll want it wet. Dry will be much harder on you.”

Jennifer’s eyes opened wide in horror. Pride kept her mouth shut. No way would she beg a man like Jack. He was a contemptable piece of trash and she would not give him the pleasure of hearing her plead. Hatred bloomed in her heart and she screamed in rage. Jack laughed.

“Too bad we don’t have a syringe, Jen. We could have you craving this fat log in minutes. Looks like you’ll have to take it the hard way.”

“Wait! Wait. Fuck.” She turned to Randy. “What if I swear to leave Sara alone? Can I convince you this is unnecessary? You don’t have to do this.”

“Regretfully, no. I know you. As soon as you were safe you’d revert. I’m afraid you need a new enemy; someone you hate more than Sara. By your rage I control and steer you. This must happen so you hate me. I willingly become your lightning rod.”

“I already hate you.”

Randy laughed. “Not as much as you are about to.” He gave Jack a nod to proceed.

Dean finished the letter and signed it, then set it on the kitchen counter along with his house key. He checked his pocket for the plane ticket back to Pittsburgh.

He'd regroup and try again, just like he had other times in life. He preferred this parting had been face to face but Jennifer was ignoring his calls and texts, like she did so often lately, still furious with him about his feelings for Sara.

The heart wants what it wants, and at this point in my life, Sara is better off without me.

He grabbed his suitcase and locked the door behind him.

Dreadful pulled up to the curb and let the engine idle. This was not going according to plan at all. He'd been attracted to Sara from the moment he first tailed her and getting to know her only made that attraction stronger. Each time with her made Jennifer's money less important and Sara's happiness more. His entire life was rooted in his reputation and he dared not voice any concerns, but even thick-skulled Jack had noticed and said something.

But I can't. I want her too much.

His phone buzzed and he withdrew it from a shirt pocket. A message from Jack awaited him.

"Jennifer compromised. We need to bail. Now."

Dreadful read the simple text six times. Jack would only send such a message if there were great reason. Jennifer was not rich and the pay for this job unremarkable. The jail sentence if caught would be far more than the reward.

Except I want Sara.

Dreadful knew beyond that door Mike and Sara sat wondering why he was late.

Even Mike was likable. Funny little man but utterly loyal to his wife, and loved deeply by Sara.

“Well, fuck,” he said out loud.

One last time?

He scanned the dark street in their serene neighborhood. How many other homes had crazy shit going on behind closed doors and drawn shades?

Everyone I know is full of shit. He stared at the front of the house. Except those two. At least they're honest with me and with each other.

“Fuck it.”

He started the car and eased away from the curb. Jack said compromised. Cops could show up any second.

Walk away while you can.

Once he was away from the house he stepped on the gas.

Sara and Mike will probably never know. Jack and I will head for LA, hang out there for a while with my brother, come back to Vegas when the cops have a new problem to pursue.

He thought about his brother's bungalow near the beach.

Lots of hot girls in LA.

Epilog

When Tina showed up on their doorstep, Sara and Mike could not believe her story. She showed them the DVDs she'd taken from Jennifer, including the night of the birthday party shot with four cameras. Sara was deeply hurt and cried for days. Mike withdrew, harboring terrible feelings of failure for not protecting his wife. When Tina revealed Dreadful and Jack were simple foot soldiers in Jen's army, Sara blurted she'd never dabble in the lifestyle again. Tina explained why Jennifer was so hateful but Sara could not understand; she'd been given the promotion without asking. She'd done nothing to warrant Jennifer's hatred.

Randy's involvement left Sara and Mike humbled. He flew out of Vegas before they could thank him without word of when he would return. Sara warned Mike that when Randy visited next, Sara would spend a month thanking him properly.

Other than that exception, Sara and Mike wanted nothing to do with the slut wife life. Neither brought it up in bed nor hinted about it in their waking life. They never spoke about sharing Sara and she never mentioned that she missed it. They spoke at great length about what Jennifer and Dean had done to them and felt terrible shame and guilt. They felt naïve and stupid and unlikely to ever trust again. Their sex-life dwindled to almost nothing. Sara stopped working out and gained weight and Mike abandoned the gym as well. Mike let his pubes cover his tattoo. Their life became a routine of work and nights spent at home watching movies and eating ice cream.

"How could we have been so stupid?" Sara asked.

Mike hit the pause button. "We trust too much?"

Sara shook her head slowly. "I was so blind. I was too excited by getting what I thought I wanted. Every day was Christmas morning. You teased me once about being able to rationalize anything, but you had no idea how right you were."

More time slipped by. One day Sara rearranged the bedroom furniture while Mike was at a friend's house watching football. A drawer opened on the nightstand and Sara moved to shut it before repositioning the night table. Inside was the replica penis Mike had purchased so very long ago. She noted the similarity to Dean and remembered what an intense turn-on that had been at the time.

Mike said that was his reason for buying it. He knew I wanted Dean badly.

She held the dildo up to examine it. Even the testicles looked like Dean's. She cupped them in her hand, enjoying the way they spilled between her fingers.

Big balls, huge load. Fuck. Back-stabbing asshole or not, Dean is sexy.

Memories drifted through her mind; Dean above her, Dean behind her, Dean guiding her mouth up and down his huge cock. Dean whispering, he loved her. A trickle of adrenaline made her heart skip.

How can I even think about this?

She held the latex cock straight up and stared at it.

Why does it do this to me? I can't resist. It's fucking hypnotic.

She glanced at the bed. He said it right there. Her hand drifted out and touched the comforter. Right here, in this bed. First Randy, then Dean. Fuck.

She tentatively slipped the latex head into her mouth, swirling her tongue around the tip. She wore only a wife-beater and panties so she lay back on the bed and pushed her underwear down. The dildo mashed her labia and stopped and she remembered with a rush how Dean always had to force himself into her tight tunnel. She pushed harder until the toy began to creep in.

Fuuuuuuuck... Goddamn that man's cock felt amazing.

Minutes later she felt the head press against her cervix. She pushed but there was no going farther. With her fingers, she measured how much cock remained outside her pussy.

What a fucking MAN.

She withdrew half and pushed it back in. Moments later she fucked herself smoothly, her head filled with memories of former passion.

Her body responded powerfully, tingling from head to toe, gushing wetness, stiffening nipples.

I love it. I do. I'm not ready to stop. Lessons learned, but I want more.

Never again. No one we know, no one more than twice.

She paused to think and then grabbed her phone. She used a filter and snapped pictures until she captured one she loved; by the lighting and angle, the plastic cock looked real and exactly like Dean. She laughed, knowing the effect it would have on Mike before he figured out it was the toy. She sent it to his phone with the text, "Perhaps I'm an idiot, but time to shave, Baby. I'm ready. When you get home, send Tyler a message. I think I'd like to try a black guy. Am I crazy?"

Mike called instead of texting back. "Are you crazy? Possibly. Probably. But can you think of two people better suited for each other? We're perfect together."

"Baby, you're so sweet."

"To be honest, Sara, I'm glad you're ready to try again. It's the only path forward for us. We need to communicate better and never keep anything secret again, but this is what we both want. This is who we are."

Sara was quiet for a moment. "Alright, since that's how you feel about it, I should let you know I want to reach out to Randy. We owe him and I especially owe him. I shut him out after that night and I know that hurt. I want to make things right."

Mike drew a deep breath. "Meaning?"

"Meaning discovering what he wants from me and if possible, giving it to him. All of it. Everything."

Mike's stomach turned over.

"We owe Tina, too," Sara added.

"That could be...a lot."

"It's sure to be. It might take you right up to the edge of what you can handle. Me too. Randy is a brilliant man with a wild imagination. I'll have two husbands."

Mike chewed his bottom lip. "Let me think about it. We'll finish this conversation tonight. What Jennifer and Dean did was done to us, against or will and without our knowledge. What you're suggesting we'd be doing to ourselves, willingly walking into the face of the storm."

"Yes."

Mike mumbled something about getting back to her and they ended the call.

I'd give up all control, all my rights as a husband. Sara would effectively be his.

He remembered them together that night so long ago. Sara had an emotional connection to the man along with a physical one. That Randy had strong feelings for Sara was obvious. He realized his heart was racing.

Who am I trying to kid? I already know I'm going to say yes.
