

Toni Makes a Mistake

MATTHEW LEE

My eyes wander around this shit-hole of an airport bar. Two tables over a filthy woman prepares to breast-feed a screaming baby and sips her vodka carefully. Everybody smokes. My whiskey tastes like old gum and my back hurts from carrying my own luggage, as the taxi drivers have decided now is the perfect time to demand more police protection and they aren't giving anybody rides anywhere. Apparently they are tired of getting shot and stabbed in the process of having all their money stolen.

I open my wallet to drop two dollars on the bar and spot a picture of my wife. It's nine o'clock on a Saturday night where she is, half the world away, and my stomach turns sour and flips over knowing at that moment she is probably getting fucked by another man and I reflect on the series of unlikely and ultimately unfortunate events that led me to this point.

About a year ago my wife, Toni, while on a five-year wedding anniversary cruise with me, had too much to drink and slept with a guy we met just the day before. She swears it was accidental; a group of us stayed out dancing and drinking and then we all retired to our cabin. The lights got turned down real low and slow music played and all the girls were dancing with all the boys and everyone was relaxed and having a blast.

Eventually we all just crashed, everyone finding a spot to sleep wherever they were. She says she thought it was me spooning her and lifting her miniskirt so she just went with it, since she was horny too.

But it wasn't me. I was asleep on the sofa above her. Brandon, the handsome and charming young man we'd met at the pool, slid his cock into my wife, fucking her and waking me up. She came all over him, really hard and really fast, biting her knuckles to stay quiet. By the time I figured out what was happening he'd cum too. They'd remained almost silent, waking no one else, and since I didn't want everyone on board to know, I pretended to sleep through it.

I confronted them both in the morning because I thought I should and they apologized profusely, my wife claiming she was sure it was me behind her and Brandon swearing he thought it was a girl he'd met at the party who was also wearing a red mini-skirt. They were very convincing and he had been flirting with a girl there who was dressed like and had the same body type as my wife, so after lots of persuasive explaining and regretful acknowledgment, I let it go.

Mostly.

Because the truth is, lying there in the dark and listening to my wife get fucked by another man made me harder than I'd ever been in my life. My reaction baffled me. I heard how wet she was and I heard her strangled sighs and I heard her soft moans and I heard her quietly encourage him and I realized I wanted him to fuck her. I loved how much she loved him fucking her. Most of all, I loved hearing his stifled grunts as his hard dick exploded inside her. The moment he began pumping her full of his sperm will live forever in my mind.

I had plenty of time to stop them before they went all the way but I didn't, and the next night when Toni and I were alone at last, I fucked her with more passion and desire than I ever had before. She welcomed it, believing it was a sign I forgave her.

Two days later after a workout I encountered Brandon in the ship locker room. I saw the large cock hanging down between his legs and knew there was no way my wife could have mistaken him for me unless she was really drunk, and she wasn't that drunk. Brandon and I shook hands and I assured him all is well; chalk it up as a crazy vacation story and no hard feelings. He relaxed. We talked for a while and I discovered he was a dance instructor and took this cruise every year. He reached into his locker and handed me a business card which I slipped into my wallet along with the dozen other cards I'd collected.

I undressed and we moved to the showers and I kept sneaking glances at his dick until he leaned his head back under the hot water and closed his eyes and then I just stared; that heavy penis had been inside my wife. That long fat penis had ejaculated hundreds of millions of sperm into my wife's womb. They were inside her still, at this very moment, seeking.

I scrutinized the smooth tan skin and huge shaved balls and I tried to imagine it hard and buried in my wife's sopping wet pussy. I started to get stiff and had to look away. I hid my partial erection under my towel and left the shower.

Toni expected me to be jealous and angry and so that's what she saw in me. She apologized so many times in the days and weeks after that I felt bad for her. How could I admit I actually loved it? I tried bringing it up once, about a month after, but she quickly turned it back into another apology so I dropped it.

Since that time I've fantasized a million times about her doing it again. I want her to do it again. I arranged a massage for her and told the guy he had my permission to push the envelope, but nothing happened. She kept on her bra and panties and made sure the towel covered everything at all times. I've taken her out for dancing and drinks, even renting a hotel room for after, but apparently her loss of control on the cruise now had her extra cautious and she hardly drank at all.

So I'm stuck. Only now that I've tasted the forbidden wine, I want more.

Our sixth anniversary was coming up quick, which meant the anniversary of her infidelity was also coming up quick, and I was desperately trying to think of a way to get her to repeat it.

Some time ago our next door neighbors moved out and the house sat vacant for months. Recently the sale sign came down so Toni and I were waiting to see who moved in. Tonight when I got home from work a truck sat in the driveway and several uniformed guys were unloading furniture and other household items. Toni wasn't home yet but I decided to go over and introduce myself anyway.

I found the new homeowners standing on the lawn. Mike wore blue jeans and a T-shirt and had a firm hand shake and his wife, Stacy, wore a pretty pastel blue sun dress and sandals. They were an attractive couple, about the same age as Toni and I; Mike a tall blond and Stacy a petite brunette like Toni, although Toni had way more curves. We talked about the neighborhood and I told them where to find the best restaurants. I mentioned Toni was working a little late tonight but she'd love to meet them too and I'd bring her over once she was home.

"Please do, John," Mike said. "We'd love to meet her as well. We're a pretty social couple so we want to meet all our new neighbors."

It was dark when Toni got home and I followed her upstairs listening to her talk about her day. In the bedroom as she undressed it was my turn to talk and I told her about Mike and Stacy.

"Oh really? They moved in today?"

She stepped to the bedroom window and looked down through the blinds. Ours is the only two-story house in the cul-de-sac, so we look down into everyone's windows and backyards.

"Uh oh," she said. "Honey, come here."

I stepped over and discovered Mike and Stacy had no window covers yet and we were looking into their bedroom. Stacy had just stepped from the shower and Mike was undressing, ready to get in. Stacy was fit and tone, clearly an athlete, with long strong legs and lean torso. Her pussy had a little landing-strip of trimmed dark hair. Her nipples were small pink circles.

I looked at Toni to see if I was busted for staring at Stacy too long and found my wife gawking. Mike had pulled off his sweaty T-shirt revealing almost hairless muscular chest and arms, and then stepped out of his jeans. His legs and butt were rock solid. As we both watched he pulled down his boxer-briefs and a large circumcised penis swung free, followed by two big, pink, hairless testicles.

“Oh my goodness!” Toni exclaimed. She finally turned her head.

“Well, we're sure getting to know them quickly.” I joked.

Toni looked at the floor. I returned my attention to the bedroom across the way and watched Mike step into the shower as Stacy pulled on gray booty shorts and a sheer light green camisole. Her nipples peeked through the fabric. I made myself look away before Toni got angry.

My wife was still looking at the ground obviously embarrassed. I decided to leave her alone to finish and told her I'd go down and make us drinks. She said she'd love that. At the bottom of the stairs I remembered I'd left my phone upstairs and went back for it but stopped short; Toni was nude now and back at the window and gazing down into their bedroom again. I was sure Mike had finished his shower and my wife was watching him dry off. Heat rose inside me.

I decided to leave her alone and quietly went down and made our drinks. Soon I heard our shower come on.

Fifteen minutes later I made noise as I went back up and found Toni had put on a wife-beater and white panties. She was seated on the bed and slipping on socks. I handed her a margarita and stepped outside on the balcony.

A thought had occurred to me and I wanted to check on it. Sure enough; from the balcony the angle through their window showed me more of their room including their bed. Toni joined me outside and when she saw where I was looking her hand came up to her mouth.

“Holy shit,” she whispered. She leaned her body against mine and took my hand. We sipped in silence. “Should we be doing this?”

“Probably not,” I whispered back. “But I'm not leaving. Are you?”

She shook her head and took a sip.

Stacy bounced into view laughing and being playful. We couldn't hear them but saw they were laughing and talking. Mike stood at the foot of the bed wearing a towel around his waist. Stacy sat on the edge in front of him and leaned back on her elbows.

They chatted for a few minutes and then Stacy put her foot on Mike's bumpy abs. Toni held her breath. Down came the foot dragging the towel with it. Mike stood nude, smiling at his pretty wife. He glanced out their uncovered window and said something about it and Stacy looked out too, but at ground level their view was the side of our house. They didn't think to look out and up. They felt safe.

Stacy said something and Mike's cock began to grow. He put his hands on his hips. Stacy slid down the bed until she was kneeling at his feet.

Toni gasped. "Is she going to...?"

Stacy opened her mouth and sucked in one of Mike's big hairless balls. His fat cock lay draped across her face, reaching up past her eyes, the head of his dick lost in her hair. Stacy nursed on his nut and I'm sure her tongue was hard at work. Judging by his rapid growth I knew I was right.

As his cock lifted and hardened Toni leaned closer to me. The Vegas night air was warm but she shivered anyway. Mike's cock did not curve up like mine but instead stuck straight out from his body. Even from way up here Toni and I saw the massive thickness of it. I noticed my wife's nipples now formed little peaks under her wife-beater.

Stacy spent a few minutes on his balls and then worked her way to the end. When she closed her mouth over the head my wife gasped a little. Stacy wrapped both hands around the shaft and still had shaft left over. She began stroking him as she sucked.

"We should go inside," Toni suggested. "This is too intimate. Would you want them watching us?"

"If I had a dick that big I would," I replied. No way was I budging.

Stacy did not stay on her knees long. Like many women, sucking cock made her wet. I know this because she moved up and lay on her stomach and pushed her shorts down and Mike stepped closer to fuck her and his big cock slid right in. Stacy must have been drenched. Toni leaned into me. I wondered what all this was doing to her so I asked. She didn't answer. She just kept staring.

"Stacy is very pretty," she offered after a long silence.

"What about Mike?"

When she didn't answer again I looked up at her. Her face was a frozen mask of lust and desire.

"He's okay," she finally relented, clearly lying.

I realized she was holding back because of her history with Brandon. She was too afraid to talk about another man in terms of attractiveness for fear of reminding me and hurting me.

"He's really big," she added as an afterthought.

Even in the dark I saw her blush. That last remark had slipped out. I felt her tense, waiting for me to get upset, so I just sipped my drink instead and acted cool. But it was a facade. I wasn't cool, but I wasn't upset for the reasons she feared. Her comment about Mike's size had set my heart racing and my hands trembling. I loved that it mattered to her. I loved that the one thing she had to say about handsome Mike was a mention of the size of his cock. It turned me on.

Stacy was arching her back to give Mike complete access to her pussy. Her gray shorts were around her knees and Mike held her round ass and fucked her pretty hard. I saw her fill her fists with sheets and burying her face.

"She's cumming," I murmured.

Toni's face got intense. I saw her lips part as she began breathing through her mouth. Minutes later Mike pulled Stacy hard back against him and his back bowed and Toni and I knew he was pumping cum into Stacy. He arched all the way back until he stared at the ceiling and laughed wildly, and then he bent over her and rested his weight on her back, flattening her. Toni took my hand and tugged me inside.

"They can't see us, John. That would be awful."

I agreed so I went with her. We finished our drink and I quickly poured us another. We watched a movie and then went to bed. I asked Toni a few times how she felt and what she thought about what we'd seen but she clammed up on me. I let it be.

Two nights later we watched them go at it again and again the night after that. In fact, those two fucked or sucked almost every night. They were insatiable. Toni finally stopped watching with me and I tried real hard to cut back. Toni sure was more interested in sex this week, however.

Days later I was in the kitchen when I heard a car door close and voices outside. I peeked through the wooden slats and saw Toni and Mike shaking hands and chatting, and Mike didn't have a shirt on. He'd been working in the yard and had a streak of dirt on his cheek and his hair was mussed.

I was able to understand some of what they discussed and heard Toni apologize for not coming over sooner to say hello. Mike told her not to worry about it. My body temperature rose a little when I realized Toni was standing closer to Mike than she usually does when talking to someone. It was a subtle thing but it excited me greatly.

Minutes later Mike reached out to touch Toni's long hair, complimenting her on how pretty it was. She blushed. Her eyes did a slow zigzag up his body, roaming over his abs and pecs until they met his eyes, when she quickly looked away. Toni asked to meet Stacy but Mike said Stacy was out of town on business training and would not return for six weeks. They chatted a few more minutes and then Mike let her go inside and she called to let me know she was home.

I'd moved away from the window was busy at the DVD player selecting music. Toni set her things down and gave me a kiss and then another. We caught up on our day. She informed me she needed to shower, just like always, and I said I'd make her a drink, which I did. I started the music to cover my sounds and then crept upstairs to our bedroom; sure enough, Toni was gazing out the window. I was sure by this time Mike was showering again. I went back downstairs before she saw me.

I absolutely loved that Toni was lusting after Mike.

After her shower she joined me downstairs. I gave her the margarita I'd made for her. We drank and talked and after about ten minutes she slithered out of her chair and crawled up between my legs. Down came my zipper and out came my penis and down came her mouth. My head fell back on the chair. She hadn't done something like this for a very long time and I knew it was because of Mike. I let her work me until I was rock hard, her eyes closed, her face dreamy. Toni loves sucking dick. I watched her full lips caress me as she sealed her mouth around my shaft. She looked up into my eyes. I tangled my fingers in her hair so she couldn't get away.

"Do you want to suck Mike's cock like this?" I said, trying to be racy and playful.

Her eyes went wide. She struggled so hard to pull her mouth off me I had to let her.

"What the fuck, John?" she snarled as soon as she was able. The hard look in her eyes told me I'd gone too far.

“Why would you say something like that? Of course I wouldn't. I'm married to you, remember? Are you jealous? I see the way you look at Stacy and I don't say shit about it. I knew we shouldn't spy on them. Now you think I want him? Is this still because of Brandon? Will that hang over my head forever? Do you think I'm a slut? Do you think I'd cheat on you?”

I was trying to answer her questions but they were coming at me too fast so I just waited for her to finish. I started my usual apology when I say something that pisses her off but this time I stopped.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

Her eyes still blazed. I took a chance. “What if I wanted you to, Toni?”

“What? Wanted me to what?”

“What if I wanted you to suck Mike's big cock? What if the idea excites me? What if that night with Brandon woke up something in me and I've wanted you to fuck someone else ever since?”

I stopped talking because her mind was reeling.

“What? Wait. What? What the fuck?” She stood over me.

I waited. I'd said enough.

“I can't even believe you're saying that to me right now. After everything we went through? After how hurt and upset you got? Now you say you weren't actually hurt but really you liked it? Do you know how shitty I've felt and for how long I've felt it?”

That was a good point. I decided I'd better speak.

“Toni, Honey, this feeling has been growing in me. I was hurt at first but that gave way to excitement. I can't explain it. It's been growing for years. Lately it's gotten so strong.”

“Well you can forget it, John. Once accidentally almost destroyed this marriage. I can't even imagine what once intentionally would do to us. I can't believe you even said that.”

Our evening was done. Toni went to bed soon after and I stayed up watching a movie alone. When I did go to bed I kissed her shoulder and she snuggled up to me, but we didn't speak. I knew after a day or two we'd move past this but I was frustrated. I wrestled with my desires but saw no clear path and just before falling asleep I realized I'd better just give it up; no way Toni would ever willingly have sex with someone else. I'll just continue to fantasize about it and leave it at that.

When the weekend rolled around as usual the Vegas sun was blazing. I saw Mike working in his yard again and I told him when he'd finished, he should join Toni and me in the pool. He said he'd be over in about thirty minutes.

Toni and I had not spoken again about our fight so when I told her Mike was coming over for a swim; she rolled her eyes and went upstairs to change. Fifteen minutes later I heard an early doorbell.

"It's too hot to work in the yard," Mike joked. "I need a cool dip."

I showed him into our backyard and went to let Toni know he was over. I was headed upstairs when she started down. I'd never seen the new white bikini she was wearing, and I would have remembered because Goddamn; thin straps held small triangles over her breasts, allowing side and bottom boob to show. A small triangle of fabric covered her pussy, which she had obviously shaved smooth. I stopped dead in my tracks.

"Not one word," she growled as she sailed past. "All my other suits are in the dirty clothes. I was saving this one as a surprise for you but oh well, so much for that."

I looked back once and the bottoms of the suit exposed both round butt cheeks. A thin white strap disappeared between them. She looked crazy hot.

I took the steps up two at a time and ripped off my clothes. The window on the opposite wall looked down into our backyard and I checked on Mike and Toni. He was lying on a chaise and she stood over him, exchanging pleasantries. His swim trunks were bright blue and baggy.

Toni pulled a lounge close to his and dropped her towel on in. While her back was turned, I saw Mike ogle my wife. I finished changing and joined them, bringing a large tray of margaritas with me.

For the next hour we all swapped stories and got to know Mike much better. Stacy was a rep for a big pharmaceutical company and long trips like this one were common. Mike was a regional director for a sporting goods supply company and was being forced to use some of his massive accrued vacation time. The drinks flowed and soon we were all laughing and having an extra good time.

"I need a dip," Toni said. "Anyone joining me?"

I said not yet but Mike said sure. Toni stood and wrapped her long hair in a bun on top of her head. Her raised arms accented her big firm breasts and pulled the tiny triangles dangerously close to exposing nipples. I held my breath but nothing happened. While they got in the pool I announced I was going inside for another pitcher. I watched them swim and talk for a few innocent minutes and then headed for the kitchen.

Back outside I poured three new drinks and laid so I could watch them from behind my glasses. Mike exited first, his baggy shorts clinging but revealing nothing, and then minutes later Toni pulled herself from the water. Mike and I were stunned.

The cold water had shrunk Toni's already small nipples to pencil erasers and made them erect. It had also turned the white fabric of her suit translucent. I was right; she had shaved.

Either she's an Academy Award winning actress or she was completely unaware, but she seemed oblivious to the fact that she was almost nude and two men were devouring her with their eyes. My penis stiffened and Mike's did too. She bent and kissed me on the way back to her chaise, thanking me for her fresh margarita.

She lay on her stomach and untied her top to avoid tan lines, then rose occasionally to sip her drink, exposing all of her breasts except the nipples. She was driving Mike and me crazy.

Mike and I held a conversation over her back and both of us made good use of our sunglasses. After a long time she held her top in place, poorly, with one hand and turned to her back. Her bottoms had dried a little so her pussy lips were no longer clearly visible, but we both saw enough. Add to that her large tits spilling out when she turned.

After she got comfortable Mike excused himself for a bathroom break.

"You had enough yet?" she quizzed as soon as Mike was gone. Confused, I lowered my glasses.

"Explain."

"Am I making you jealous? I thought if you actually saw Mike gawking at me you'd realize you actually hated it. I remember how hurt you were after Brandon. I think you've forgotten about that. Like maybe this new thing is a coping mechanism or something. I think if actually confronted with the reality, you'll change your mind and fast."

"An interesting theory."

She scoffed. I saw an opportunity.

"When Mike returns, ask him for sunscreen. I'll be upstairs looking down on you both. Tell him I had to make a few lengthy work-calls. Let's see what he does and how I feel about it. After you can honestly tell me how you felt about it too.”

She regarded me coolly and I saw her calculating. “Fine.”

I kissed her cheek and left. By the time I got to the upstairs window, Mike had returned. I saw her lips move and Mike quickly agree. He knelt over her as she covered her eyes with another towel. He could look all he wanted, and he did.

He squirted the lotion onto a palm and then spread it down her arm, massaging the muscles as he went. This was not his first time. At her shoulder he let his fingers graze the sides of her breast. I saw the taut skin dent. He did the same thing on her other arm. He moved to her feet and repeated the process, slowly working his way higher, massaging and coating as he went. Before long he was smoothing the cream all around her inner thigh. Toni parted her legs slightly to make it easier for him. He leaned closer as he worked and his face was only inches from my wife's cloth-covered pussy. He blew it a kiss. I smiled. He leaned back and continued and soon his fingertips grazed her covered labia on each pass. I saw in her stiff body language she was getting uncomfortable but she nevertheless instinctively parted her legs a little more. Mike saw it too and smartly backed off some. Toni relaxed.

He moved up her body until he arrived at her breasts. She'd retied her top loosely and as his hands moved her skin, her tits wobbled and swayed. A minute later a nipple peeked out from behind the white triangle. If Toni felt the sun and wind on it, she made no move to cover herself. Mike turned his attention to the other boob and now both nipples were exposed. He leaned back to take her in and silently shook his head in appreciation. He looked through a downstairs window for any sign of me but saw none. He took in the sight of her for a long time before telling her to turn over.

He spent less time on the backside of her but there was less to distract him. I noticed his hand slipping down between her parted legs again and I was sure he grazed her clit once or twice, but she started to tense up again and he backed away once more. They talked a minute or two and he returned to his chaise on his back.

I waited extra-long before coming back. Toni was swimming again and I talked with Mike until Toni climbed from the pool and treated us both to her virtually nude body again. Twenty minutes later Mike offered many thanks and went home.

“So?” Toni taunted. “How'd you like it? A lot more difficult than you thought, right? Not at all what you expected? Are you angry? You have only yourself to blame.”

I'd started getting hard as soon as Mike announced he was leaving and now I stood up and straddled Toni's lounge.

“John?”

Down went my shorts. When she saw my erect penis she looked confused. I knelt between her legs and pulled her bottoms to the side.

“John! What the fuck are you doing?”

I didn't answer. She'd figure it out soon enough.

Maybe the pool water helped but Toni was drenched. She was so wet I didn't even need to line myself up. Her soaked cunt flowered before my hard dick and I sank into the hottest pussy I'd ever felt. She was about to protest but only a moan came out instead. I lifted her legs and began to fuck her, hard. I wasn't making love. I wasn't interested in making love. I needed release. She struggled for half a second but then gave in. As soon as my dick brushed her cervix she forgot about anything except getting fucked.

Twenty minutes later I collapsed between her legs and tried to catch my breath. She'd climaxed hard and fast and so had I. I rolled off her and onto the concrete and she silently collected her things and went inside. I lay in the blazing Vegas sun remembering Mike's hands caressing my wife's big tits.

About five minutes later it occurred to me I may need some damage control. Why can only one of my heads think at a time? I pulled my shorts up and went looking for her.

She sat on the foot of our bed, staring at the floor. When I walked in she looked up.

“I can't do it,” she said. “If you are secretly hoping I'll fuck Mike you should know right now; I can't do that. It's wrong. I'm married to you. You're my husband. We took a vow. I know I messed that up once but I swear it was an accident.”

I sat next to her and took her hand. I decided now was the best time to ask a question that had been nagging me forever.

“Honey,” I began. “I never told you this but I saw Brandon naked in the gym locker room a few days later. He is much bigger than me. I mean way bigger. Huge. Now, don't get angry, but honestly, at what point did you suspect it wasn't me fucking you? I know you were drunk that night but he's twice my size. You had to know right away, right?"

I stopped talking because her expression was one of growing alarm. I let her digest all I had said. I saw emotions slide across her face like a movie; denial, anger, bargaining, depression, and, finally, acceptance.

"Yes." It was a tiny whisper.

"Stay truthful; why did you keep going?"

She shifted uncomfortably but squared her shoulders and bravely forged ahead. "I couldn't stop, John. I was so horny and he felt so intensely amazing. I did know it wasn't you and I'm so sorry, Honey. I tried to stop myself but I couldn't. I just held on and took it."

She faced me and continued. "His cock was so big and filled me so much. I hope it doesn't hurt you to hear me say this but I'd never felt anything like it. I don't know if it was the booze or what but at that moment I wanted that big cock to fuck me forever and never stop. He stretched me wide and deep. I can't even describe what I felt. It was like my pussy finally found its life-purpose. I know that sounds ridiculous. I'm embarrassed to even say it. I'm so sorry, Baby. Please don't hate me."

I wrapped my arms around her shoulders.

"Never," I murmured. "Thank you for your honesty. I have another confession; I heard you orgasm. You came really hard and so fast. I couldn't figure out why until I saw him naked."

"So you see the real danger? I have a weakness, Baby. I made a huge mistake but dodged a bullet. I don't want to tempt fate twice. I love you. I'm in love with you. I won't do anything to jeopardize what we have. It was way too easy for me to cave in."

I studied her agonized face. My poor sweet wife. I wondered if I'd ever be able to make her see that I was past fantasizing and wondering about all this; I wanted to make it happen. I was excited to discover that she loved it too. Her concern was for what it may do to us. She wanted it; she just thought she shouldn't have it. That made for a much easier transition. Getting her to like the idea if she hated it would have made for a very long road.

I concluded I needed to make it happen again. If she saw there were no negative repercussions and that I was great with her infidelity, she would be much more likely to do it again. And again and again and again, I thought, smiling.

“Why are you smiling at a time like this?”

“I love how much you love me, Baby. I want you to stop beating yourself up over all this. I'm going to tell you something about myself and I want you to trust and believe me when I tell you it's true; I forgive you. I never condemned you. Truthfully, what you did with Brandon, once the shock wore off, excited me more than anything has ever excited me. Please just consider what I'm saying. Tell me you'll think about it.”

She stared at me for a long time, trying to read me. I returned her gaze, unashamed; this is who I actually am. This is what I really want.

She sighed and kissed me. “I need a shower.”

I let her go. I know how she works. Her ass looked amazing walking to the bathroom.

“I can't believe you were awake the whole time,” she muttered, closing the bathroom door. “I can't believe you heard me cum.”

Two nights later I invited Mike over for dinner. Toni gave me a funny look but said nothing. On the weekend he joined us around the pool both days and stayed for a movie Sunday night, giving Toni foot massages as we watched the film. After he went home and Toni and I were in bed she said, “You are inviting Mike over a lot. Are you up to something?”

I ran a million possible replies through my mind before I simply said, “Maybe.”

Her toes found mine under the blanket and she wiggled closer to me. I covered her head with my arms. Her warm breath stirred my chest hairs. I waited for her to try once again to talk me out of it.

But she didn't.

Two days later I was at work but Toni had the day off. My phone chimed with a text from her and I read it, “Mike's Internet is down so he's using ours. I'm going to take a shower before I go shopping. Love you ;-)”

I read it again. Mike was in my home with my soon to be naked wife. My neck and face flushed red; depending on which computer she let him use, he could be just a dozen feet from her. I closed my office door and stared at my monitor. Toni knew what she was doing. That little wink-face was something she rarely added. She knew she was teasing me. I was afraid to text her back and ask any questions because I knew she'd be totally truthful and probably tell me nothing would happen. At least at the moment I could fantasize.

I squirmed for twenty minutes until my phone chimed again. Fast as I could I opened and read; "How upset would you be if Mike accidentally saw me naked?"

I shot back, "Not angry, aroused, and very."

Her next text read, "Okay then, oops! ;-)"

Now I fired questions at her a mile a minute; what happened? How do you feel? What did he see? What did he do? She tried to keep up but I ran her over.

She'd put him on the downstairs computer while she showered upstairs. He'd finished his task early and walked up to tell her he was leaving just as she stepped out into the hall for fresh towels. He saw full frontal nudity. I loved it and after prying it out of her, Toni admitted she loved it too. She said his reaction made her feel gorgeous and sexy and she lingered a full second longer than she needed to before covering up. He waited for her downstairs and apologized profusely but she assured him no harm was done and gave him a kiss on the cheek.

I was hard the rest of the day and when I got home I fucked Toni on the living room floor. I was so excited I climaxed before she did and stayed on top of her. Eventually she kissed me and rolled me to the side. I could not believe how hard I came. She kissed me again on the forehead and climbed the stairs to shower again. After a few minutes I joined her. I got out before she did and on a whim checked Mike and Stacy's bedroom window. Mike was lying on his back masturbating; his huge cock standing up like a pink telephone pole. When Toni got out she saw me looking and joined me. A small gasp escaped her when she saw what he was doing.

She moved in front of me with her back against my chest. Her towel dropped to the fake turf covering the balcony. I brought my hands up her soft skin until I cupped her full breasts. She leaned her weight against me.

Below us, Mike pulled on his balls and started stroking his shaft. He'd squeeze the large head on every up-stroke. Toni's nipples tightened and it wasn't from the hot night air.

"He's so big," she whispered, once again noting his size and setting my heart racing. I felt her growing warmer. I knew she had to be frustrated from earlier and wondered if now was a good time to push the envelope. I decided to try.

"Do you want to see it cum?" I asked.

She nodded slowly. Almost on cue, Mike started stroking faster. He had to be missing Stacy but I believed it was that afternoon's encounter with my wife that had him so worked up. I murmured that to Toni and she shivered. I gently tweaked a nipple and slipped a hand down her flat belly and discovered my wife was soaked. Toni was drenched watching Mike play with his big dick. It was too soon for me to get hard again but I was sure getting excited. I rubbed her clitoris as I caressed her breasts. Her soft moans filled the air around us and I knew my wife was fantasizing about Mike, not me, and that turned me on even more. I felt impulsive and a little reckless.

“Do you want to suck it, Toni? Do you wish you were on your knees in that room, Mike's big cock right in front of your face?”

She tensed for a second, clearly uncomfortable with my questions, but she was too turned on to say anything or tell me to stop. I went on.

“I know you do. I know that's what you're thinking about. I don't blame you at all; look at him, look at that flawless slab of beef. It's okay, Baby. Don't worry. I know it's true.”

She groaned a little louder and rubbed her ass against my soft penis. I tried to will myself erect but nothing happened. Toni's moans began to take on a frustrated edge so I rubbed her clit faster.

“Should I get your favorite toy?” I asked. I reasoned the outside exposure, standing position, and lack of hard penis were combining to keep a climax just out of her reach.

She faced me and kissed me softly. She studied my face for a long moment. Love, tension, understanding, and curiosity all drifted behind her eyes. She made a choice.

“Wait here,” she breathed. “I'll take care of it.”

I watched her perfect ass enter our bedroom. We had several toys and I hoped she'd come back with the biggest one.

Down below Mike was lifting his hips as he stroked. I watched the muscles of his stomach ripple and his chest flex. His penis had swollen to mammoth proportions and was now bright pink, almost red.

Down in Mike's and Stacy's bedroom, Toni stepped into view.

My heart stopped!

She wore her short green robe that ended just a little passed her pussy, the robe she always wore when she wanted sex. The front was untied and kept closed only by her hands. She glanced nervously out the window and up at me but I knew she couldn't see me. I saw her lips move and Mike's eyes fly open.

He sat bolt upright and tried to hide his huge cock with both hands. My heart was hammering so hard it was breaking my ribs. Toni lowered her hands in apology and her robe drifted open and Mike's eyes ate her alive. Here was the woman that had been driving him crazy all week, in the naked flesh, in his bedroom. My mind reeled like I'd been shot through the forehead. She'd done it! My spent penis began to rise.

Toni was talking fast as she stepped closer to Mike. I saw her knees bump his farther open. If he was protesting, he was a bigger man than I. She talked and he listened, occasionally nodding his head. I wondered what she was saying.

A few minutes later Toni tilted his chin up and gave him a kiss, then sank to her knees between his thighs. I gasped. His naked cock waved in the air only inches from my wife's face. I groaned and leaned on the railing, trying to get closer, trying to drink in every single detail.

Toni glanced out the window again right at me. I'm sure Mike missed it but I knew what she was doing. She grinned and opened her mouth and her tongue slipped out and starting at his fat balls, my wife traced a line all the way up to the slit at the tip. When she got there she wrapped her red lips around the plump head and sucked another man's cock into her hungry mouth.

I could not believe what I was seeing! I'd fantasized about this moment for so long and now it was happening right in front of me. I played with my semi-erect penis.

Toni's head began to bob and Mike stared down his torso as my wife ate his cock. He seemed stunned. After a minute his hand drifted up to her face and helped guide her up and down. Toni looked gorgeous. She cupped his balls and swabbed them and then went back to work sucking on the head. Below her mouth her hands never stopped stroking his shaft. Even from all the way up here I saw her shiny saliva coating.

Mike reached down and fondled her tits. After gawking at them for so long I bet it felt good to finally get his hands on them. He mauled them and Toni opened her mouth in a gasp and I knew I was right. Now he was committed. He twisted his fingers in her hair and began fucking her mouth. His hips left the bed as he pushed his cock in. My wife loved the rough treatment, bracing her hands on the bed and trying to capture more of his hard inches. This was better than I'd ever imagined. Toni was no longer shy at all and neither was Mike. My sweet wife was my personal porn-star. I continued to stiffen to the point I was now standing straight up and throbbing.

Toni stood and shrugged the robe from her shoulders. She risked another quick look at me and then turned her back to Mike and bent at the waist. Her pink slit parted in invitation and stud Mike didn't hesitate. This was much more than a blowjob! My wife was about to get fucked!

He held her hip with one hand and with the other guided his wet shaft towards her pussy. My heart jumped when she reached back between her legs to help him slide it home. I knew the moment he pierced her because her head snapped back, sending a cascade of long brown hair flying. He began working it deeper and once she had most of him his other hand gripped her other hip and he started sawing in and out. Mike was fucking my wife!

From my angle behind them I saw his big ball sack swinging between and it took my breath away. Toni was like a breeding animal submitting to the stud. Her big tits wobbled as her body shook from the power of his thrusts. It was glorious. Mostly she braced herself with her hands on her knees but every now and then she'd reach back and grab a thigh and encourage his in and out.

When she grabbed both tits I knew he was getting her close. She pinched and pulled her nipples and I wished the window was open so I could hear her. Mike pumped faster and faster and soon Toni began tossing her head and arching her back and I knew my wife was cumming all over that big invading spear. I was leaking cum like crazy but dared not touch myself. Once she came down Mike turned her towards the bed and pushed her on her stomach, her feet still on the bedroom carpet. Now with support under her he kicked her legs open much wider and started hammering away at her tiny cunt. He had all his weight forward. No way could he pull out. I knew he was planning on filling her with his sperm. I held my breath. I wanted to see it but it terrified me. Toni was screaming and clutching the sheets, lifting her ass to meet his push, biting the comforter and tossing her head.

Mike slammed his cock deep and held it for a heartbeat and then did it again. His head snapped back and every muscle he had flexed. Veins stood out on his shoulders and one long one down his abs and with one hard jerk of his hips he buried every inch he had and began spurting his semen inside my wife. A glob of sperm escaped my untouched penis and ran down the shaft. He held himself deep, emptying his fat balls, convulsing occasionally from the intense pleasure.

After injecting every drop Mike stepped back, withdrawing his massive tube of beef. His cock was coated with their combined juices. Toni didn't move. He wiped sweat from his forehead with the back of his hand and gazed at the sight of my nude wife splayed before him. He was breathing hard.

I read his lips as he asked, "What the fuck?"

Toni rolled onto her back and reached a hand out to him. He hesitated, but only a second, and then stepped forward and took it. Toni pulled him back between her legs and with her free hand guided his still somewhat stiff cock back inside her slick cunt. She wrapped her legs around his waist and they began to speak. Soon they were laughing. I wanted her to come home because I was desperate to fuck her. The idea of joining them was repellent. I was too ashamed. No way could I look Mike in the eyes; he'd had my wife.

I thought she'd return home now that she'd fulfilled my request but she had other ideas. The two of them chatted and giggled and marveled at what they'd just done. Before long I saw his hips moving again and Toni pulled his mouth down to hers and they started kissing like lovers. I found it difficult to watch but my penis still pulsed with desire. Within a minute they were fucking again.

Toni climaxed twice more but Mike held out. He fucked her in every position, made her suck his cock and balls, and teased her gorgeous body until he had her squirming. When she'd finally had enough she pushed him onto his back and mounted him. Her pussy was aimed right at the window so I saw her stand him up and steer his thick rod in. The sight was mind boggling. Her pussy spread open and engulfed the head and shaft, stretching wide to handle all of him. He disappeared as she pushed her hips down. She pinned his arms over his head and fucked him. Her strength was nothing compared to his but he went with it anyway and she fucked him like she had him trapped. Her body language told me she had no intention of cumming again; she just craved his climax. She fucked him hard and fast and he resisted her as long as he could but the pleasure of her pussy was too much. At last he was bucking and jerking as he shot blast after blast far up into her again.

Now I yearned for her to come home. I stayed at the railing until they eventually kissed and Toni pulled her light robe on again. I ran downstairs to watch her at his door. They turned off all the lights and she scanned the neighborhood carefully before she darted across his lawn and ours and rushed through our front door. I stood there waiting, hard and eager.

“Wow!” I announced as soon as she shut the door behind her.
“WOW!”

Without a word she stepped into my arms and planted a deep and passionate kiss on my lips. I fucked her up against the kitchen counter and roared like a lion when I added my cum to his already inside her womb. I'm proud to say I ripped one more orgasm from her before I came and her trembling body gave out. We dropped like dirty laundry to the cool tile floor and gawked at each other like stupid pigeons.

“What the fuck?” she finally ventured. “That was insane. That was so intense! You're not mad at me?”

“Hell no!”

“I never planned on fucking him, Baby. I never planned on sex at all! I wanted you to see me talking to him while I was wearing that robe. Once I was in his house I thought I'd let him masturbate in front of me. But he's so fucking gorgeous and his cock is so big and gets so hard. I'm sorry, Baby. I honestly lost control.”

“Toni, I loved it. I swear I'm not upset. Go do it again!” xxx

She laughed. “I'm exhausted, John. I want to shower and go to bed.”

“No. No shower. Shower in the morning. I want you to sleep next to me just the way you are.” She agreed and we held hands walking up the stairs. I had a million questions but now felt like the wrong time to ask them. I'd wait.

It was still pretty early but we were both wiped out. I spooned her and she pulled me close and we actually dropped into a deep sleep.

I awoke a few hours later and she was gone. I waited, thinking she was most likely using the bathroom but when she didn't return I got up and searched for her. I was alone in the house. I raced upstairs and onto the balcony.

The lights in Mike's bedroom were off but candles burned and in the dim light I saw Toni on her knees, ass up and face buried in the bed while from behind Mike slowly drove his thick cock into her cunt over and over.

She'd gone to him on her own. She'd left me sleeping and crept away to be with him again. Part of me loved her lust for his big penis and part of me was hurt because this was not something we were sharing. Strangely, now I felt like she was cheating, which seemed so illogical. I imagined trying to explain my feelings to her and knew she would roll her eyes and get frustrated with my weird rules. After all, I'd told her to do it again. She'd merely accepted my offer.

I watched them in the dark and this time was different. This time they moved slowly, explored each other, teased and played and laughed. There was a lot of kissing and touching and while the scene pressed down on my heart, it also aroused me again. I had much to learn about this new side of me. She stayed a little over an hour and only left after he had shot her full one more time. I was astounded by the realization of how much sperm she carried inside her at the moment.

I waited for her in bed instead of meeting her downstairs and she surprised me by pulling back the covers and sucking my dick. I pretended to be waking up and as soon as she had me hard she lowered her hot, sticky, fluid-filled pussy down around my shaft. Although the friction was drastically reduced, I came pretty fast anyway from the mind-blowing reality of our night.

"What brought that on?" I asked, continuing my charade.

"I fucked him again," she squeaked, mischievously. "While you were sleeping safe and sound in our bed. I slipped out and ran barefoot across our yard and knocked on his door. He was so happy to see me, John. He crushed me in his strong arms and kissed me like crazy. The room spun! I felt him stiffen and I opened his robe and sucked his big beautiful cock so hard. I was moaning and groaning like a total slut. I wanted it so badly!"

She was talking fast, her voice filled with the emotional strain of her excitement.

"He ripped off the shirt I wore and lifted me onto his cock right there in his living room, like my weight meant nothing. I swear I almost came! I wrapped my arms and legs around him and he fucked me as he walked us back to his bedroom. He's so strong, so powerful. He fucked me against his bedroom wall until I came and then he laid me on his bed and went around the room lighting candles. His cock stood straight out and never softened. I felt like prey! He was circling the bed like he was hunting me. I got so wet in anticipation, John. Fuck! Just talking about it is turning me on again. I can't believe all this is really happening. I sure hope this is what you wanted.”

I had to admit, her excitement was contagious. I was getting aroused.

“I thought about telling him you knew what was happening but at the last second I didn't. I wanted to talk to you first. For now he thinks I'm cheating on you. Is that what you want? Is that part of your fantasy? Now that it's happening, is this what you really wanted?”

I confessed it was. I told her she was giving me everything I wanted and more, and that pleased her. I knew she still worried she'd make a mistake but for now my permission to fuck Mike had her intoxicated.

We both worked the next day and Toni got home hours before I did. She greeted me at the door with a whiskey and wearing lacy black lingerie. Before I could ask she kissed me and I tasted Mike in her mouth. She'd wasted no time. I had to know so I slipped a finger inside her panties and found Mike already in her cunt too.

I felt conflicted again but also turned on. The times she went to him without me seemed more real, like she was doing it for herself and not me, and I liked that a lot, but it also made jealousy flare in me. I concluded that would be the price I paid for indulging my fantasy.

The rest of the week was the same. If I got home first she'd head over after dark and I got to watch from the balcony. If she got home first she'd already be well fucked and fully inseminated by the time I got home. Each time after he had her, I had her. I loved it and she loved it and I was pretty sure Mike loved it. From my vantage point I looked down and watched as they grew really good at fucking each other.

When the weekend rolled around I thought I'd better invite him over to use the pool or it would look suspicious. Of course he agreed and I watched my wife suck his cock in the bright Vegas sunlight as he thought I was upstairs making business calls again. Toni got too excited and sat down on his dick, fucking him fast until he filled her with his load. She put her bikini bottoms back in place and sat next to him on the pool's edge.

When I rejoined them they acted like nothing had happened but Toni's bottoms only partially covered one of her pussy lips. I found it particularly exciting to play this scandalous game. At that moment Mike's sperm were swimming around inside my wife. As we sat and talked they worked ever deeper. The longer we sat there the more excited I became. I was so turned on by the time he left I fucked Toni right there but pulled out and shot all over her back. I tortured myself by allowing only Mike to have her that day and that somehow made it all more arousing.

Toni and I were lying in bed a few days later and she mentioned Stacy. I asked her how she felt about sleeping with another woman's man and she smiled.

"I asked Mike about her a few days ago. He has a plan. Stacy likes girls too and asked Mike if she can fuck me. Can you believe that? Mike told her okay but only if he can join in and she agreed. Of course we'll act like it's spontaneous and our first time together. I have a threesome in my future, Honey. That works with your fantasy, right?"

It didn't, exactly, but I told her I was fine with it. She turned to face me, propping her head up on her hand.

"John, I have to admit your fantasy turned out to be wild and wonderful and I'm so glad I believed you and took the chance, but I will never allow you to fuck another woman. If that was part of your plan I can tell you right now it will never happen. I know that's not fair and I don't care. You said you wanted me to fuck other men and I am, and maybe more beyond Mike, but I do not want you to fuck another woman. No way. My threesome with them will just be me and them; it would kill me to see you touch Stacy or any other woman for that matter."

I told her I understood and reassured her other women were never part of my plan.

"So why Mike?" I asked. "I set you up with a handsome masseur and took you dancing several times but you never looked twice at those guys. Why Mike?"

Her eyes narrowed in the dim bedroom light.

"You set me up? Ha! I had no idea. That masseur was hot too. We'll have to bring him back, now that I know you actually want this. Why Mike? I hope you don't think I'm too slutty but it's his big dick. I love them. They get me so excited. I love the way they look hanging off the man. I love the way they feel so heavy, like a baseball bat. I'm drawn to them. They are such an over-the-top masculine object. They give me butterflies. That's why I let Brandon fuck me too."

I made a mental note about the masseur.

Toni went on. "But Stacy won't be back for weeks yet so until then I have Michael all to myself and I'm going to take advantage of your kinky fetish. How about I go on a date with him this Saturday night? You stay home and wait for your naughty wife to come back to you? Does that sound sexy?"

I shrugged but inside my heart was racing. Other people would see them together. What if someone we knew saw them? I imagined a phone call from a friend telling me Toni was cheating on me. I'm such a sick fuck; I found that idea titillating. Or maybe I'd let her go out and then secretly follow her. I wondered what she'd be like with me not around. I imagined her flirting with him like crazy. I was sure they'd kiss in public too. Hold hands, snuggle, nuzzle; everyone would think they were newlyweds.

My heart was a jack-hammer. I felt light-headed.

"You okay, Baby?" Toni asked. I nodded once. "Where'd you go just now?"

I tried to swallow but my throat felt tight. I'm such a pervert. Embarrassed, I told her anyway. She smiled a wicked smile.

"I don't understand it, Honey," she said, touching my hand, "but I'm beginning to trust it and that's really exciting. There's this German guy at work, Gregor, who I catch staring at me all the time. I think I want to fuck him. Can I?"

I nodded my head again.

"That's hot. Now here's one I know you won't like; your boss, Jason. Can I fuck him?"

That one punched me in the guts. Jason is a task-master, obnoxious and aggressive. He's tall and skinny with red hair and freckles and green eyes. A few women around the office described him as attractive and sexy but I sure as fuck don't see it. I've only met him a few times but instantly didn't like him. There was something untrustworthy about him. I pictured him pulling Toni's long hair like horse's reins as he forced his cock into her from behind and I gasped a little. She giggled.

"I'll take that as a yes," she teased. "In fact, I'll fuck Jason first. I've always found him attractive. He's arrogant and over-confident but there must be a reason why. He can think your wife cheats too. Isn't there an office barbecue coming up soon? Let them know we'll be coming. I'll sneak away with Jason and find a private place and you will know exactly what is happening. God! That's so hot, Baby. I can picture him fucking me perfectly. I've always wanted him. I'll bet you he's had a few employee's wives. The only difference will be that you know what's being done to me and they don't. Fuck I'm horny now. Eat my pussy, John.”

“In a minute. What if you discover Gregor or Jason have small dicks? What then? Would you still fuck them?”

She thought for a second. “No, but we don't need to worry about it. I know both of those guys are big. You can tell by how they act around me.”

She seemed so sure I didn't question it. Time would tell, after all. I pushed her legs open and buried my face and she'd never tasted so sweet. She came so hard she wanted to roll over and sleep.

The next day I let work know Toni and I would be attending the picnic.

Over the next two weeks she visited his house eight times.

The last time, a Saturday, she and Mike had their date and then came home to his place. She'd told Mike I was out of town on business so I had to hide a little.

She stayed with Mike until almost sunrise Sunday. When she got home she looked exhausted and said they'd barely slept at all and that Mike had been a raging sex maniac. He'd wined her and dined her and treated her like a perfect lady, showing her off to everyone in town. When I tried to reclaim her like I always do she stopped me, explaining she was too sore and tender and asking for my understanding. I gave it, but I didn't like it.

This was like that time by the pool multiplied. All day I seethed with the knowledge he was in her and I wasn't. We ate lunch and dinner, watched a movie, did laundry, and just generally hung out and every second of every minute I thought about Mike's sperm inside my wife all by itself. I tried to at least get a blowjob to relieve the pressure but Toni apologized and said no, she was too tired and sexually drained. She went to bed early and I headed for the office to jack off alone.

Out the window I saw a light come on next door and realized Mike was in his bedroom. I crept to the balcony and crouched behind the railing. Mike was nude, on the phone, and wandering around his bedroom. I guessed he was talking to Stacy and they were discussing how much they missed each other and couldn't wait to see each other again. Mike meandered, looking out the window or pacing the bedroom floor, laughing occasionally as he talked. I watched him, admiring his fit body and thick swinging cock. His big balls were tight up under his shaft. His muscles were large and incredibly well defined, his body almost devoid of hair. He moved smoothly and powerfully; a top level athlete.

He was my wife's lover.

I studied him and let that truth sink in. My body temperature climbed. Just inside the house my tired wife slept a deeply satisfied sleep, her womb full of this man's seed. I realized in the last few weeks he had fucked her many more times than I had. For the moment at least, she wanted him more. He was winning.

I felt a twinge of primal jealousy but mostly I felt lust. In a primitive way, he and I were in competition for the same woman, his cock against mine, both of us trying to breed her. He had me physically but I had him emotionally and probably intellectually. I realized given time and enough sessions with Toni, he would gain on me emotionally. Women are different than men and this is especially true of Toni. I knew she would develop feelings for this man she was enjoying passionate sex with.

Below me Mike sat at the foot of his bed, his long cock hanging off the edge. He leaned back on one arm and Stacy said something funny and he threw his head back and laughed.

I didn't hate him. I wasn't angry. He was doing exactly what nature had wired him to do. I couldn't blame Toni for wanting him so much either. He was an amazing specimen.

I felt strange looking in on him like this but found it oddly erotic. My attention drifted from his body to his cock. That was the instrument of my wife's destruction. That was the weapon he used on her until she could take no more, craving sleep over more sex with me. That penis had been moving inside my wife less than an hour ago. That penis had injected my wife with a massive load of semen, almost certainly more than once.

Even soft it was formidable. Much longer and thicker than mine, desirable enough to make my wife break her vows. He tugged it straight and placed it across his thigh, then crossed his legs. Soon he was up walking again and stood before his bedroom window. The window sill was at exactly the right height and Mike rested his fat cock along it. I'd seen enough. I was ready.

I carefully slid the door open and entered our bedroom. Toni was out, sleeping a blissful deep sleep. One breast was exposed but I craved her pussy. I gently lifted the covers until I saw my prize.

Mike had been rough with her. She'd mentioned he was growing more animalistic with time and she welcomed it. She was there to fuck, she'd told me, and she loved submitting to his wild desire. Her inner labia were still swollen and shiny with his leaking sperm.

I knelt and fished my penis out the front of my boxers. I started jacking off, my face inches away from my wife's used cunt. The reality was a huge turn-on. My wife loved big cocks. My wife loved fucking other men. Just before I came my mind jumped to what Toni had said earlier about wanting my boss and my nuts tightened. It would be humiliating going to work every day and facing him, knowing he was having Toni behind my back. God how he would gloat! The humiliation fueled the intensity of my climax. I could already see him hovering over my desk; a smug grin twisting his lips as he small-talked me, the whole time reveling in the knowledge that he had fucked my wife without me knowing. It didn't matter that I actually did know. I came hard, aiming my blasts at the bedroom carpet.

The weekend of the barbecue arrived and I felt a little like a condemned man awaiting his sentencing. I knew I could call the whole thing off. I had very mixed feelings about my boss knowing my wife in the biblical sense. He was already my superior, this would make him tower above me. But I hated the idea of canceling for so many reasons; Toni's disappointment, admitting my deep insecurities, the fact that I'd turn and ran from Jason, all combined to keep my mouth shut. Toni knew this adventure was eating me up inside but either she was waiting for me to break and chicken out or was really having fun with torturing me. Probably both.

Saturday morning we dressed and Toni wore her tiniest bikini, an electric blue collection of strings and small squares, under a wife-beater and jean shorts. Sandals completed her revealing outfit. I went with a T-shirt and swim trunks. The crowd at the park was large and everyone was busy; volleyball, swimming pool, tennis courts, horse-shoes, shady picnic benches, hiking trails, several kegs and even a bartender. I work with a raucous crowd. Toni knew a few of my closer colleagues already so I introduced her to several new people. Heads turned everywhere we went. She didn't look skanky or slutty, but she did look sexy. A few wives rolled their jealous eyes but that always happened wherever we went.

My best friend at work, Mark, walked up and introduced his with Tina. Toni and Tina hit it off right away. Tina was a babe and not intimidated by Toni in the least. The two girls wandered off talking about shoes.

“Holy shit, John,” Mark said. “I always forget Toni has a smoking hot body to go with that face. You really should stop dressing her like such a prude.”

“That's all her, my friend. Although she's really loosened up lately and I'm loving it.”

We watched the girls each pull a beer from a tub of ice and continue wandering away.

“Jesus,” Mark breathed. In the bright sunlight Toni's bikini was visible through the white cotton of her top. The shape of her big perfect breasts was obvious.

“What are we talking about over here?” Steve asked. Mark and I looked up. Steve was the office clown and practical joke player.

“How hot John's wife is.” Mark murmured.

Steve looked to where Mark indicated. Both girls looked sexy but Toni looked amazing.

Steve looked back at us both. “Um, no offense, John, but holy shit. She's smoking hot and she's not even trying. I hope you hit that every night.”

“Yeah, pretty much.”

“Doesn't it bother you how other guys check her out? Look at Reynolds. He's drooling.”

Tom Reynolds was, in fact, almost drooling. He had brought a beer to his lips but that's where it stopped once he saw Toni. I chuckled.

“No, actually I'm flattered and a little proud she picked me.”

All of us watched the two girls again. Toni and Tina knew we were gawking and Tina gave us a small wave and both girls laughed and walked away.

The next few hours were filled with sports and games. I got recruited to play first base in a softball game and Toni was in the bleachers at the beginning but when I took the field in the third inning she was gone. The game ran to twelve innings and she never returned. I went looking for her but didn't ask around as I wanted to avoid raising suspicion.

I came across a scenic viewpoint complete with standing binoculars and dropped fifty cents into the till, but instead of scanning the trees and mountain peaks, I turned them around and aimed them back at our picnic. Far out on the lake I saw a familiar flash of electric blue.

I cranked the magnification dial and zoomed in and my heart sank. Jason was on his back and Toni straddled him, his hard cock slipping in and out of her drenched pussy. Steve stood to the side with his fingers buried in Toni's long hair, fucking her mouth as she braced herself on his thighs. Steve looked about the same size as me but Jason looked bigger. Not as large as Mike but still bigger than me.

They were on a large anchored raft in the middle of the lake, too far out for anyone to see any details, but I blushed from the shoulders up instantly. Jason would be cool but Steve was a loud mouth and I worried. Steve pulled her head into his groin and leaned over her and then his head snapped back as he thrust his hips back and forth. I knew his cum was flowing down my wife's throat. I grew stiff in spite of my concerns.

Once he was empty he stood there feeling up my wife. Her blue bikini top was untied at the back and swung back and forth with her tits and Steve mauled them like he was in high school. I looked around and decided I was alone and not likely to encounter anyone so I started rubbing my dick through my shorts.

I saw movement enter my field of view and zoomed out a little and discovered Tom Reynolds had paddled out on a kayak. He climbed aboard the raft and waited for a second and then it looked like Steve said something to him. He pulled his dick out, also about my size, and stepped up to my wife's face. She ducked her head under and started feasting on his balls and he almost fell over. She moved up his shaft until she swallowed the head and began to bob.

So much for her big-dick turn-on requirement. Once she was in the mood and horny, she'd take on anybody. Tom lasted about three minutes before he held her shoulders tightly and his hips began to buck. He filled her stomach with his sperm too. Tom and Steve watched Jason fuck my wife for a while but I think Jason told them to get lost. They pulled up their shirts, got into their kayaks, and paddled away from the raft. I hoped Jason also told them to keep their mouths shut.

My boss moved my wife to all fours and got behind her, his cannon aimed right for her bare slit. She lifted her ass and parted her cheeks with one hand and he held her at the hips as he sank his big inches in. He fucked her hard, pinning her down with a hand on her back and another around her neck. It looked to me he might be hurting her but she seemed to love what he was doing. He grabbed her long hair and pulled her back, impaling her on his big cock. I wondered what it meant that Toni liked all her lovers to be rough with her. The few times I'd gotten too rough she'd slowed me down, reminding me I was her loving husband.

Jason took both wrists and pulled her arms behind her. He hammered at her, sending her long hair flying. Slowly he drove her down to the wooden planking until at last he arched his back, pushed it in balls deep, and pumped a gallon of cum into her. He rolled onto his back, leaving her gasping for breath. I didn't know if she came or not. She stayed on her stomach a long time.

He got up and put on his shorts, said something to her, and then paddled for shore too. When Toni rolled over to feel the sun on her face, a smile curled from ear to ear. She pulled off her top and sunbathed naked.

I was ready to spray cum everywhere. My balls felt hot and tight. I watched another minute or so but Toni wasn't moving so I made my way back to the picnic. I was there about twenty minutes when Jason approached me and invited Toni and I over for a private party at his house after the barbecue. Of course I said we'd be there.

I saw Toni walking towards me across the now empty volleyball courts. I started to say something but the look in her eyes stopped me. Once she was close enough, she grabbed the front of my shirt and kissed me hard, forcing her tongue into my mouth. I gagged a little on the salty mix of her saliva and Steve and Tom's sperm.

She took my hand and we walked away from the crowd and once we were alone she guided my hand under her shorts. I sank my fingers into her cum-filled pussy.

"Does that turn you on?" she taunted. I admitted it did. "Good. You should know that's Jason all over your fingers. I fucked him just a few minutes ago." She was trying to shock me and I admit she did. The old Toni was never so bold. I slipped my wet fingers into her mouth.

"I know. I watched you with binoculars from the hillside. How did Steve and Tom taste?"

Now it was her turn to be shocked.

"You...saw me?"

"Yes. You don't even know Steve or Tom, do you? You just sucked them because they were hard and in your face, right?"

She was unashamed and feeling wild.

“Yes!”

“Good. Keep going. I love it when you're a slut. Jason invited us to his house after the picnic for a private party.” Her eyes lit up. “Why do you like the big ones so much better, Baby?”

She met my eyes, thinking about it. “They push all my buttons at once, John. I feel them everywhere inside me, all at the same time. When they swell up to cum I can actually feel them squirting. I never feel that with smaller dicks. I felt it the first time with Mike and I was instantly addicted. There is no feeling like it.”

She stepped close again and kissed my mouth and her slippery tongue curled around mine. “I know this kinky streak we're on won't last forever, but I sure love the ride while it does.” She took my hand and walked me back to the party. “Your balls must be ready to explode,” she teased.

“You have no idea.”

She grinned. “And yet you don't grab your wayward wife and drag her off into the bushes. I think you like a little humiliation. Right now I am filled with Jason and you're doing nothing to take me back. I feel him leaking into my bikini bottoms. I'm left wondering what else you might like. Should I stay the night with him tonight? How about we have a threesome with him but I make you wear a condom? Maybe you'd like to go down on me right now and taste him? The possibilities are endless.”

I was squeezing her hand hard. She was driving me crazy. Had I opened Pandora's Box? I had no idea her mind could be so devious and I knew she was just warming up. I nervously wondered what erotic tortures she had in store for me.

We walked in silence for a minute. “I'll need to get on the pill right away. It takes a while for it to start working so cross your fingers we're not already too late. You told Jason we'd love to attend?”

She wrapped her arms around mine as we walked and I felt oddly intimate. “I want to keep Mike in the dark, but I think Jason would love fucking me right in front of you. I think I would like that too, and it would sure make your work day more intense. At his house tonight, depending on who's there, I want you to invite him to fuck me. Act like you don't know about our dalliance out on the lake. Make sure we're the last to leave and then offer me to him. That will be so fucking hot. I'm like a harem girl being handed over as a gesture of good-will. I'm a trained sex-slave who has to please her new master. Jesus, that turns me on!"

The rest of the picnic passed by without serious incident. I bumped into Steve and Tom at the beer table and they wouldn't meet my eye, but neither said anything. Not too surprising considering they were both married. Hours later the event wrapped up. Jason had professionals set everything up and they also took everything down. He checked to make sure we were coming over, his green eyes flashing, and then went off again.

Toni was excited in the car. She admitted he was big and she liked the way he felt inside her. She also warned me he was rough and aggressive but not to worry because she enjoyed it. On a whim she slipped off her shorts and removed her soaked bikini bottoms, tossing them to the back seat, and then put her shorts back on. She loosened the ties to her bikini top so her tits were straining at the thin cotton wife-beater, her nipples barely covered by the bright blue triangle. She looked delicious.

Jason's home was large with a half-circle driveway and lots of trees and shrubs. A Cupid fountain sat in the middle of his lawn. A Jeep and a Mercedes sedan also sat parked near us. I knew the Mercedes was Jason's. I had no idea who the Jeep belonged to.

Jason met us at the door wearing a white robe and holding tall glasses of spiked pink lemonade and extending an offer to shower after the picnic, which we accepted. His home was palatial. Identical stark white His and Her robes hung in the guest bathroom, although her robe was much shorter than mine. Individually wrapped toothbrushes and cups, single serving mouthwash, shampoo, soap, lotion; Jason went all-out. This guest room was like a five-star hotel.

I had finished my shower and was drying off when I looked back. Toni was meticulously shaving her pussy again. She felt my eyes and looked up, giving me a wickedly playful smile. Oh boy. My dislike for Jason had flared at the front door and now went into over-drive. I started wondering how I could get us out of this.

Toni finished and joined me as we left the bathroom to say hello to our host. Her robe barely covered her ass and exposed lots of leg. I noted she tied the sash a little loose so we'd all enjoy occasional flashes of cleavage.

In the huge living room we met Jason's guests; Adam, Jason's senior partner; an older gentleman, around sixty, tall, with gray hair and mustache and a lean, leathery body. His blue eyes were filled with intelligence and cunning. His handshake was firm.

Next to him stood Erik, a massive, tall, blond, obese, Scandinavian type with a crooked smile and cruel blue eyes. I was immediately on guard. If Jason was distrustful, Erik seemed down right criminal. It's funny what you can read in a person's eyes.

I glanced around the room. "Is this it?" I asked. "Anyone else from the picnic?"

Jason shrugged. "Maybe. One never knows. I invited several but who actually makes it is another matter. It always goes like this."

A wave of dizziness passed over me. I looked at Toni but she was lost in Adam. They stood gazing at each other with obvious sexual attraction, which shocked me, given Adam's age. He may have been three times Toni's. Erik and Jason chuckled.

"Your wife knows what she likes," Jason suggested.

"Yes, she does."

"You always let her have what she wants?" Erik rumbled.

"Almost always," I countered, trying to save face.

"Hmm..." Erik sneered. I felt tensions rising and I didn't like it.

"I fucked your wife today," Jason stated. "At the picnic, out on the lake. She said she loved my big cock. Did she tell you?"

It was instantly too late to fake surprise so I went with it.

"Yes."

"I thought so. Then I invite you over and tell you to bring your wife and you do. That tells me you liked that I fucked her and you want me to do it again."

I was blushing so hard I felt hot. Hot and dizzy. Jason opened his robe. He was naked underneath and already at half-mast. He lifted his cock and showed it to me.

"Do you want me to fuck your wife again?"

I tried to swallow but my mouth was dry. I looked at Toni but she was riveted on Adam still. I glanced at Erik and met his laughing, contemptuous eyes.

My voice was hoarse. "Whatever she wants."

"Really?" Jason nodded at Erik and Erik opened his robe too.

Beneath his gut hung the beefiest cock I'd ever seen. A wide black leather strap circled the shaft and scrotum where they met his body, obscenely pushing his genitalia forward. His ball sack was huge, the shaft as thick as Toni's forearm, the head larger than a plum and already drooling pre-cum. It was as grotesque as it was mesmerizing. Toni was hypnotized.

Jason continued, "She also told me she loves over-sized male genitalia. She has a weakness for them. Did you know that too? That's the reason I invited Erik today."

Erik's movement had drawn her attention away from Adam and Erik's cock had held it. Another wave of dizziness swept through me and I set my drink down. Toni stepped towards Erik in a daze, dropping to her knees, gazing in wide-eyed wonder at this magnificent slab of meat. She closed her eyes and kissed the head, awed.

All three men laughed and Adam murmured, "Same thing, every fucking time."

Erik looked back at him with a knowing smile. I was dizzy enough I moved to a chair and sat. Toni slithered a tongue around the head and wormed it into the slit at the tip. I watched her lick away the pearly drop and try to swallow it. Her tongue followed each vein, slathered across his skin, lifted each testicle, and curled around the crown, all slowly and reverently.

Whatever charm Adam had on her was blown away by Erik's enormous manhood. Adam ceased to exist. I drew no comfort from that however because so did Jason and I. Erik was the only man in Toni's world. He spread his legs to allow my wife to get under his dick and balls and smiled smugly as she sucked and licked every square inch of his expanding cock flesh. His penis covered her face.

"Jesus," Toni exhaled. "How many inches is this? It's like an elephant's trunk. I can't get my fingers around it."

Adam and Jason sat on the dark leather couch to watch the carnal spectacle. With each minute my wife became a bigger whore. By the time Erik was rock hard she was moaning and asking him to fuck her. Erik looked at Jason for permission.

Jason turned to me. "What say you, John? Do I turn Erik loose on your beloved? She'll never be the same, I promise you. Do you know Alan Pershing, from the sales team? Do you remember his wife Amy? Erik conquered her after a few weeks and she fell in love with his cock. Clingy, I believe he called her. He said she played very hard to get at first, and then she could not get enough of him. Women are so conflicted. Erik played with her emotions until she was begging him to fuck her.”

I remembered Alan and Amy. He was balding but she was a beautiful Persian woman, very conservative and proper. I pictured Erik hammering away at her. I pictured his cock in her mouth just like his cock was in Toni's mouth right now and my heart skipped a beat. It was more exciting because she was such a prude. Would Erik steal Toni away from me?

“Honey?” Toni whispered. “Honey, tell him yes. I need this beast inside me.”

I shook Amy from my head. Erik, Toni, and Jason were all waiting on me. I gave a quick nod.

“Say it,” Jason ordered. “I want to hear you tell Erik to fuck your loving wife.”

I cleared my throat. We were deep in it now.

“Erik,” I began. “Please fuck my wife.” Toni moaned.

Erik grinned widely. “That was lame. Come with me.”

He took Toni's hand and gripped my wrist, pulling us over to the couch. He sat and positioned me between his knees and then had Toni straddle his lap. His huge cock curved up from his crotch just inches away from her pussy. She eagerly started to lower herself onto him, all smiles and happiness, but he stopped her.

“No. John wants me to fuck you, John needs to take my cock and put it inside you.”

Toni looked over her shoulder at me, her eyes filled with teasing laughter.

“Have you ever touched another man's cock, John?” she asked.

“No.”

“Well you're about to. I need to get fucked. Please Honey?”

I let myself stare at Erik's dick. His balls were heavy enough to pull down the skin of his ball sack until they rested on the cushion. The black leather strap surrounding his genitalia was well-worn. The shaft was as thick as my wrist and laced with prominent veins, the large head now a deep-red and topped with a milky dollop of sperm. A homophobic shiver ran up my spine. Everyone was watching to see what I would do. Toni was so wet several rivulets ran down her inner thighs.

Crazy thoughts started bouncing around inside my head; I had a sudden urge to suck it. For a moment I wanted to lick those fat balls and run my tongue up the shaft until I closed my mouth on the head and tasted that semen. Erik's cock radiated power and domination. My feelings shocked me. Men have never held the slightest attraction for me and yet here I was considering sucking one.

Toni whimpered and I collected myself. I held his shaft firmly at the base, my pinkie finger touching his scrotum. With my free hand I spread Toni's cunt open.

"Lower," I instructed. Behind me I heard Adam chuckle.

My wife's pussy descended slowly. She was soaked and her thighs trembled but from fatigue or want, I didn't know. It's a strange thing to help your woman fuck another man. The closer she got the faster my heart beat.

"Lower."

I was in a near panic. No way could her little pussy take this monster and if she somehow did, my penis would never be good enough again. This man was about to fuck my wife away from me and I was helping him do it.

Her bare lips slithered over the crown and quickly moved down. His head was much bigger than her opening and her lips stretched in every direction as her body-weight forced him relentlessly farther inside. I watched as that large drop of sperm disappeared inside her hole. I heard them kissing and glanced up for a second. When I looked back down her lips had enveloped half his head and her asshole was puckering rhythmically.

Toni began rotating her hips in tiny circles, slowly enveloping more and more of Erik's cock. She had to use her weight to push him deeper. Her breathing was ragged and grunts and moans escaped her constantly. His shaft drew in skin from all around, which looked a little painful to me but she really seemed to like it.

I thought she would pull up a little and start again but she didn't. Once she had him inside she did not want him to leave. It took her longer but eventually she rotated her cunt all the way down his monster shaft until her inner lips settled around the base of his bulky cock.

This was not watching Mike and Toni from forty feet away and through two panes of glass. This was raw and real and right in my fucking face. I smelled my wife's arousal. I saw Toni's excitement and desire for Erik running down his thick and veiny shaft. I heard what his horse-cock was doing to my wife and it cut like a knife. Once she caught her breath and began the trip back up, I truly saw just how excited she was. Erik's pillar of flesh was a gleaming, shiny, glittering display of my wife's juices. He was dripping with her. I sat and stared at absolute evidence that here was a man she desired more than any man she'd ever desired, including me.

She pulled herself about half-way off of him before sinking back down and when she did she surprised all of us, including herself, by having her first orgasm. It welled up inside her and erupted before she even knew it was coming. A flood of juice dripped from his balls and a cry of shock and amazement spilled from her lips. She almost cried. Erik murmured comfort and Toni seemed embarrassed.

Erik wrapped his big fingers around a tit and sucked the nipple into his mouth.

“Oooooohhh fuuuuck,” Toni moaned. She lifted and fell on him again and her gush of wetness helped. Her thighs gripped his big belly as she fed him her tit and began to work his shaft with her tight cunt. Erik chuckled, totally in control.

“Is she on the pill?” He asked.

I cleared my throat. “No.”

“Really? That's surprising. Why not?”

“We talked about having kids soon.”

Erik laughed. “Now you just won't know whose; mine, Jason's, Adam's, or yours. Tell you what; I'll leave it up to you. I'll tell you when I'm about to cum and you can grab my dick and pull it out of her if you want.”

Erik gave me no more attention and set to the business of thoroughly fucking my wife. Toni was so hot and horny for him she was dripping from his nuts and slurpy, squishy noises filled the room. She rode him with increasing abandon as she grew more comfortable with his girth. Each trip up and down brought her closer to another orgasm. She hadn't looked at or spoken to me in so long I was sure she'd forgotten I was even there.

She lifted her feet and pushed her hips tightly against his lap and arched her back. Her skin flushed. Eyes squeezed shut; Toni gripped his shoulders in a vise and ground her cunt around his shaft. A deep, low moan rumbled in her throat as she surprisingly came around his cock again. Her body twisted and bent in strange directions. Usually so vocal, her intense silence was unsettling.

There was something different about her orgasms with Erik. I had to think about it but then realized when Toni climaxed with Erik she climaxed with everything, body, mind, and soul. He shook her to the foundation. As she lay against his chest now, panting, a hundred tiny muscles twitched and jerked. A sheen of sweat covered her back. His huge balls were nestled up in her ass-crack as she rested her weight on him.

But only for a few minutes. My wife so loved the feeling of his cock moving inside that she soon got to work riding him again. On trembling legs she pulled her pussy up and then pushed it back down.

“Fuck!” she sobbed, “Fuck, fuck, fuck!” Lift, drop. Lift, drop. Lift, drop. I was close enough to their fused genitalia Toni's wetness splashed my face. Erik reached up her back and grabbed her hair and forced her head back until she stared at the ceiling. He made a chimney of her body and drove his huge cock right up the center of her. She climaxed again unexpectedly, gulping for air and strangling on her own pleasure, and this one shook her to the core. She was a limp rag-doll when she finally came down from it but Erik didn't care. He held her hips and used her cunt to pleasure his cock. He drove up into her guts repeatedly as her head wobbled and she seemed to swoon.

“Getting close,” he grunted and it took a second to register. Toni seemed to understand sooner than me and held his face and kissed him. Erik started to pound her.

I looked at the merging of their bodies and knew it was up to me. I'd never seen anything remotely close to the raw erotica of that sight. Erik's dark red cock had swollen further and seemed hard as iron. His huge balls were tight at the base. I knew I had only seconds.

Impulsively, I cupped his balls in one hand. I wanted to feel his cum flow from them into my wife. He moaned, knowing he'd won. I felt them swell and a surge shoot up the tube and I grabbed Toni's hair with my other hand and pulled her down onto his cock. With that many inches deep, he had to be buried in her womb and I made sure he stayed there as his cock jumped and spit. Toni came again and I remembered what she had said about feeling big cocks explode inside her. I felt every blast of sperm leave Erik and enter my wife. It seemed like he was spurting a cup of semen every time yet so tight was the seal around his fat dick that not a drop escaped.

I stepped back and looked at Adam and Jason. Both had their robes open and played with their dicks. Adam was the smallest of the three of them but still a little longer and thicker than me. Toni climbed off Erik and leaned on him for support. Whatever was in our drinks made her dizzy too. Erik walked her over to the other men and left her between Adam's open legs. My wife knew what to do. In seconds she was on her knees and worshipping his cock with her mouth. Jason dropped his robe and moved behind my wife, aiming his hard dick at her flooded pussy. He easily sank into Toni balls-deep.

Erik came over and put an arm around my shoulders. The strap around his dick kept it from going completely soft so it still stuck out and hung down below his belly. The shaft was coated in a mix of his cum and her juice.

"You may not want to hear this," he offered. "But you have a problem on your hands." I met his eyes. "I've been fucking other men's wives all my life," he said, "and I know a fiend when I meet one. Your wife is only just beginning to learn what a sexual creature she really is. I hope you are carved from stone because that woman is going to put your through hell. You didn't ask for my advice but I'll give it anyway; get out now. Divorce her and marry someone else. You let her off the leash and now she's going to run."

I looked back at Toni. Adam held her mouth down on his cock and her tongue slipped out and licked his balls. He was trying to gag her but she didn't care. She handled that hard cock and came back for more. Jason held her hips and pounded her and she thrust back to meet him every time, rocking her hips, trying to make him give up his load.

Whatever happened to my conservative wife?

Oh yeah, I asked her to fuck other men.

Toni pulled her mouth off Adam long enough to tell Jason to pump her full of cum and kiss him over her shoulder and then pushed that dick right back into her mouth and sucked hard. Jason did as she asked and a minute later emptied his nuts in her for the second time that day.

With Jason out of the way, Adam slowed way down and Toni welcomed it. She moved up and they began making out and that same spark from earlier returned. I was surprised Toni found an older man so attractive but Adam definitely had some power over her. He touched her tenderly and she felt the emotion behind it. He turned her on in a totally new way. Here was a man she felt a mental connection with and that pushed lots of new buttons for her. She went back to sucking his cock but did so now with a slow and gentle reverence.

Jason joined Erik and I and commented we should leave the two of them alone. His suggestion was like a punch in my gut. I watched their growing intimacy a few more minutes and then when Jason tugged my arm I let him lead me away.

He took us to a library and poured drinks. Neither man had bothered to put their robes back on and I felt oddly embarrassed being covered. No way was I stripping in front of these two big swinging dicks though. They both tried to draw me into conversation about a wide range of topics, and I did participate somewhat, but my mind was always on that other room and Adam and Toni.

When an hour had gone by I'd had enough and walked to the door to check on Toni, only then discovering Jason had locked it behind us. I faced him and he suggested I sit down again.

"I want to check on my wife," I said. "It's been a while."

"Have a seat, John." Jason ordered. "You're a guest in my home. Don't be rude. Your wife is safe. I vouch for Adam."

"I want to see her."

"You will, be patient. Adam is an older gentleman. He needs more time than us."

Erik chuckled and sipped his drink. I sat. They went back to talking about American soccer. I noticed a finance magazine on the coffee table and worked my way through it, becoming engrossed in an article about federal debt. What felt like two hours later, the library door opened and a nude Adam walked in with a nude Toni.

She was a cum-drenched mess. Her hair was matted and mussed. Dried semen spots all around her mouth and up and down her thighs, fresh cum trickled down one leg. She clung to Adam even after she saw me and not out of fatigue. There was a connection between them now. They had shared something and it had bonded them and brought them close. They were now an intimate couple. A sharp pang of regret sliced through me. Adam nudged her with a shoulder and she reluctantly left his side to come sit by me. We kissed but I felt tension and distance.

It was late and we were all tired and Jason said he show us to our guest room, which he did. He kissed Toni and shook my hand.

“You'll notice your door has no lock so let me just tell you why. Toni is ours for the night whenever we want her. She will sleep with you but when one of us desires her he will join you in bed and take her.”

I looked at her and she met my eyes unashamed.

“Sweet dreams, you two,” Jason said, and closed the door.

She brushed her teeth but did not shower and rarely took her eyes off me. She was watching and gauging my reaction, waiting to see how much I could stand.

Once we were spooning in bed with the light out she began rubbing up against me and I have to admit I liked it. She felt me get hard and quickly guided me into her flooded and steaming cunt. When I felt those hot walls and that sperm soup envelope me, I almost came. I held perfectly still to prevent it and she took that opportunity to pull my dripping penis from inside her and move me back an inch. It took me a second to understand she was lining me up to her asshole.

Toni and I have never had anal sex. I've never even tried. I was sure she'd say no and get upset with me. The topic came up once way back when we first started dating and she stated flatly no way, no how. She never had and she never would. I'd dropped it.

Now she centered the tip of my penis on her rosebud and pushed her hips back on me. I froze. I didn't want to break whatever spell she was under.

Her sphincter blossomed before me as I eased the first half inch into her ass. A thrill unlike any other shot through me. My heart began to hammer. I was going to fuck her ass!

More of the head slipped in and I realized a warm slippery lubricant was making all this easy and I knew at once what and who.

Adam. Adam had fucked her ass already and filled her with cum. Another man had taken my wife's anal virginity and there was no undoing that. He took her, not me. He would have that over me forever. I was hurt and upset, but my dick just got harder. Toni read that as acceptance and moaned, forcing her rectum farther down my penis. It felt insanely good. Adam had not only broken her for me, he had awakened her to something new she obviously loved. Her tight ring squeezed me all the way down and took my breath away. I felt the bed shake as she rubbed her clit.

Fine. This is our road then.

I rolled her face down and pinned her. In the dim light I saw her tight little circle stretched by my hard dick. She moaned and I drove my remaining inches deep and she squealed with delight. I felt my balls rest on her hot sloppy pussy and withdrew enough to slam it back home.

“Fuck yes!” she cried. “Do it!”

I moved my knees under me and began to pound her. Soon I was hammering her slutty asshole and she was screaming with pleasure.

“Fuck me! Fuck me, John! I'm a whore! I love men, John. I love cock. I love making them hard and I love getting fucked and I LOVE making them cum. Do you understand? I LOVE IT!! Your little wife's a total whoreeeeAAAAAaaaaa!!!!!! Fuuuuuuck!”

She climaxed like an earthquake, a volcano. My sweet bride thrashed around under me, my hard penis pinning her to the bed, her ass and pussy and stomach full of cum, caught in an orgasm that threatened to drive her out of her mind. All our recent erotic history flowed together in one long collage and she saw herself for the slut she had become, and she welcomed her. Her orgasm left her gasping and crying, overwhelmed and reborn. She wept as I hammered her ass and unloaded my hot load, adding my sperm to however many loads Adam had already deposited in her as he taught her the joy of ass fucking and made her a slave to lust.

I kept pounding until I was so soft her tight rectum forced me out. She spun to face me and kissed me hard and with passion, her cheeks wet with tears.

“What's happened to me?” she moaned. “I'm insatiable. If one of them walked in right now I'd fuck them in front of you and love how naughty I'd feel. I want sex all the time, Baby!”

I wrapped my arms around her and held her close. She took a huge breath and let it out slowly.

“Jesus,” she whispered.

Two hours later I was sleeping lightly when I heard the knob turn. Toni was passed out and exhausted. The door closed quietly and feet moved across the carpet. The covers pulled back and the bed sagged. I opened my eyes.

Erik was on his knees looking over Toni, his immense cock already at full attention. He nudged my wife's knees apart and moved closer and Toni came awake just as he entered her. Her reaction was as powerful as it was instantaneous. Arms whipped around his neck and legs spread wide. Erik sank in slowly as Toni pulled him down. Her legs curled behind him as his ass descended.

He pinned her arms and started sawing in and out. Toni was still drowsy mentally but her body was fully awake. Erik dropped his mouth to her hard nipple and pushed deeper. My wife moaned as she gratefully accepted his huge cock. I saw he no longer wore the leather cock-ring.

Their sex was pure animal. Erik was just fucking to cum in her and Toni was chasing yet another big-cock orgasm. It excited me. I couldn't resist it. The more awake she became the louder and more emotional her moaning was. Erik's hips started slapping against hers in the dark. I started stroking my penis.

"So big," Toni murmured. "Feels soooooo goooooood."

Erik grunted and buried his cock more rapidly. He was on a mission to cum quickly. Toni moved her hands to his back to hold him and help him fuck her and her sounds told me she was already close. A few seconds later her moans turned high-pitched and Erik laughed.

"Fuck yes, you gorgeous whore. Fucking cum on my big dick. Take her ankle, John. Spread your slut wife open for me."

I did it without thinking about it at all. This new angle put Toni over the edge immediately and I held her leg as Erik's cock drove her into an orgasmic frenzy. Her hair was flying as she grit her teeth and climaxed on his cock. My wife losing her mind all over his dick put Erik over the edge and he bellowed and roared as he filled her with white liquid lava. I held her wide open as he pumped her full of sperm.

The room fell utterly silent. Five minutes later, without a word, Erik rose and left. Toni rolled over seeking sleep once more. I swear I heard her purring.

Adam and Jason visited us too. Jason treated her like Erik had but Adam wanted her pretty face sucking his cock. He lit a candle for light and made her take her time until at long last he poured his load down her throat. My wife was their perfect fuck-toy.

In the morning I could not get us out of there fast enough. I'd had all I could take. I tried not to think what Monday back at work would be like. Toni slept all day Sunday waking up famished. I took her to dinner at Lawry's, a popular Vegas steak house, and she ate like a Viking. Our waiter was cute so she flirted with him. Half way through dinner I decided it was time to say something.

“Toni, Honey, I've been thinking.”

She stopped eating and sat her fork on her plate.

“Had enough?” She asked.

“I'm conflicted,” I replied, ignoring her taunt. “I love it, but we've done so much in such a short time. I feel saturated and over-whelmed. You just took off with it.”

“I love it, John. The men are hot and I have your total permission. Why the fuck wouldn't I? I'm not one of those frightened girls, afraid of her vagina. I realize now I was conservative out of a sense of social decorum, not from any real internal moral compass. I love sex, I love men, and I have an incredible weakness for big dicks.” She lowered her voice when a few heads turned. “If you want to stop, we'll stop. I'm your wife. I'm on your side all the way.”

She was making this harder instead of easier. I didn't want to stop but we were moving so fast. Where were we headed?

The third-world, as it turned out.

Monday was as excruciating as I expected it to be. Jason smirked all day long. Towards the end of the day he called me into his office for the first time ever and had me shut the door. He moved back from his desk and exposed his big cock, hard as a rock, and handed me round-trip plane tickets for one. I was about to spend two weeks at our office just outside Prague. Fuck.

“You leave tomorrow,” he said and I barely heard him. “Don't worry about Toni; she'll be well taken care of.”

My guts crystallized into icy shards. Two weeks of Toni alone with Jason and any of his other weird and well-hung friends. I got a double punch in the guts when I got home and informed Toni. Her reaction was much less distraught than I'd hoped for. She almost seemed excited. She mentioned Prague was beautiful and had an active nightlife, reminded me I could touch no other women, said I'd enjoy the trip, she'd miss me, and she was sure two weeks would sail by quickly.

The baby is silenced by a dirty nipple. Mom takes another sip of vodka. My eyes sting from all the smoke as I finish my drink and collect my luggage. I know it is a twelve-block walk to my hotel. Two weeks! I've been texting Toni all day but no answer. Is she already at Jason's?

My fantasy had turned around and was now eating me from the inside out. I had convinced my faithful wife to break our vows and now she was fucking everyone while I got nothing. I didn't even get to watch her. I thought about telling her no fooling around while I'm gone but I suspected she would anyway and also Jason would make my job hell. I'd have to quit and that would turn both our lives upside down. We risk losing everything we've built together over something I told her she could do in the first place.

I arrived at the hotel tired, sweaty, and dirty. Finally someone helped me with my luggage and got me to my room. I drop on the bed to rest for a moment and wake up four hours later, my whole body stiff and sore. I gulp a glass of water and peel off my stale coat and shirt and notice the notification light on my phone is flashing.

I have four texts from Toni so I read them in reverse order and discover she asked me if it was okay to go on a date with Jason. When she didn't hear back from me she informed me she made the decision and went. Text number three informed me that Jason had invited five other men to join them at the club after dinner. Text four, sent just ten minutes ago, was a video obviously shot by someone other than Toni, because Toni was the focus of the video. She straddled a hairy, heavy-set man and rode his cock while a young white guy fucked her ass at the same time. She had a dick in each hand and eagerly pumped them and Jason in her mouth and sucked his cock like his sperm would grant eternal youth if she but drank it.

I felt the floor tilt under me. The camera man walked around my wife filming her from every angle. They appeared to be at a club of some kind with an audience of around twenty watching. Strobe lights flashed in the background and colored smoke pour from the ceiling. The scene was as hot as it was distressing.

She looked wonderfully sexy and slutty and I yearned desperately to be there with her. The guy in her ass suddenly gripped her hips hard and drove his cock all the way in and started cursing and I knew he was pumping hot cum into her ass. It sounded like Toni came too. Once he finished he carefully withdrew his big dick and another faceless man stepped up and pushed his erect penis into her semen-lubed sphincter.

Jason laughed and forced his cock down her throat until she gagged. I expected her to get angry and pull away but she didn't. She just tried harder to take the whole thing.

The guy recording moved around in front and I got fifteen seconds of Jason's cock pumping in and out of my wife's mouth. Jason took the camera and I saw twenty more seconds of Toni sucking the camera man before the video cut out.

Ten minutes ago. I'm sure it was happening still. My sweet wife was getting gang-banged while I'm half a world away. My sweet wife is a complete and total cock-loving slut. I felt lonely and aroused and that is not a good mix. For half a second I actually considered hiring a prostitute but deep down I knew that would just make me feel worse. I hated myself for doing it, but I set the video to loop and jacked off, twice, watching my wife get fucked. I sent a text but expected no answer and received none, took a shower and went to bed.

The next day I had meetings and presentations scheduled every waking minute and not until dinner did I get a chance to look at my phone. I had a voice message from Toni: “Hi Baby! I miss you so much! Jason told me he sent that video to you. He's such an ass! I hope you're not upset! Can you believe your sweet little girl is such a slut? You'll be pleased to know I fucked them all and spent all night doing it. Those guys were animals! One of them, Alex, was really sweet and fucking gorgeous. He invited me out to dinner and I accepted. I'm not sure how many hours you are ahead or behind. I hope I get to hear from you soon. I miss you, I love you, I hope I looked good on film! Kisses!”

I listened to the message several times. It was seven in the evening here which meant it was three in the morning for Toni. I thought about calling anyway but didn't. I returned to my room and jacked off two more times watching the video and fell asleep.

I called in the morning and left a message and then after work discovered she'd left me one. We kept it fairly light and playful with lots of “I miss you” and “I can't wait to see you.” I mentioned Alex in my message but she didn't mention him in hers. I had no idea when their date was. We played message tag for days until it became our routine. I mentioned Alex again on the next two messages but she skipped any details or if they'd even gone out yet. Toni spent almost every night with my boss or a sexy friend of his. She went to all the hottest Vegas clubs and danced and drank and partied until it was time to leave and then she picked a man for the night and slept in a new bed. I could only imagine all the sex I knew she was having.

Thankfully I was so busy every day time flew by. I actually found myself wishing for a new video but I didn't tell her that. I guess we were just on the same wavelength. When I woke on day ten a new video awaited me. It opened with a mirror shot of Toni wearing a sexy lace dress, hair and makeup done for a night out; "Hi Baby. You miss your girl? I thought it was time you met Alex. I've spent the night with him every night since you left. I go dancing and drinking and act very naughty, but I always end my night back with Alex."

She started to leave the bathroom, which I didn't recognize, and entered an expensively furnished high-rise condo. The lights of The Strip twinkled behind her.

"Alex," she called out. "Come meet my husband John." She looked into the camera and winked. Moments later a handsome black man moved his face up next to hers.

"Hello, John," his deep bass voice rumbled. Toni kissed his cheek with playful passion and I saw her head duck down. "Toni thought it was time we met. Hope things are going well for you, although I doubt they are going as well as they are for me." He panned the camera down as Toni knelt before him, unzipping his pants. She pulled them down and then fished around inside his boxers until her face lit up. With a huge smile she gently pulled out a long and fat uncircumcised black cock. Her lips parted and she licked the head and then grew impatient and opened wide. I saw his cock disappear into her mouth.

"I gotta go," he chuckled. "She's been like this all week; can't get enough. But then again, neither can I."

The video ended. I checked the time stamp; he'd fucked her four hours ago. She was most likely deep asleep at the moment, her warm and creamy pussy full of his sperm. A black guy. I sat on the bed.

One drunken night early in our relationship Toni and I discussed sex fantasies and she mentioned muscular black guys really turned her on but she'd always been afraid of them. They chased her in high school and college but she never let herself get caught. Since I dated her in college I knew there must have been overlap. She said she loved the way their muscles moved under their smooth dark skin. She said they radiated raw sexuality and she loved how aggressive they were towards her, even if she was too shy or conservative to act, but their naked lust for her took her breath away. Her parents would have killed, she said.

In the bright light of morning she denied everything. Over the years I'd tried to get her talking about it again, especially when she was tipsy, but no luck; that door had been welded shut, never to be reopened.

Until Alex. Until Alex and ten nights in a row. That big uncircumcised cock had been inside her every night for almost two weeks and he wasn't finished with her yet. She would keep fucking him over the next four days. She finally got her wish and she got it without me there to interfere. She was free to open her legs to Alex whenever and however she wanted.

I knew she was probably sleeping but I didn't care this time. I started to fire off a text asking her to tell me everything but then I stopped. What was the point? If I got home and there was a problem, I'd deal with it then. Why lose my shit now? Toni may have gone wild sexually but she still had her life to think about. I just needed to trust her. What choice did I have? I erased my text and wrote a new one; Send all the pictures and videos you can. Bang, off it went.

Teaching class was difficult that day, partly because I was distracted by what was going on back home and partly because my phone kept buzzing every few minutes. By the time I got a break so I could check it I had seventeen messages waiting; two texts, eleven pictures, and four videos. I sat in the men's room inside a stall and viewed them all.

Alex was Jason's best friend and his sexual stamina put every other man to shame. He was voracious for Toni. She confessed at first she was going out and fucking everyone including Alex but after a few days she began to see him more and more. The last two days she'd been exclusively his. From the pictures and videos I saw how hungry he was for her and I also saw how much she loved being wanted that much. She was frightened of him but that only fueled her excitement. She came so easily and hard with him. She was drunk on lust and in love with his cock.

But what I found the most disturbing was each of the videos began with them sharing a quiet intimate moment before the earthshaking sex started. They watched a movie or lay in bed reading or some other casual comfortable time. Once, Alex was washing Toni's long hair for her when hot sex organically boiled over. They had a real and intense passion. I was troubled enough by what I saw that all thought of masturbation left me. I needed to get home.

But I couldn't go home. Not yet. Not for four more days.

Each day more pictures and video arrived. These videos started well into the fucking and watching her play with his heavy phallus did get to me. By evening I was hard and stroking my dick as Alex fucked my wife mercilessly. He fucked her like he was trying to impregnate her and when he came he pushed that head as far up into her as he could get it to release his flood of seed. He left my wife breathless. He left me breathless too.

I had to get home.

Four days later I wrapped up the last class and packed. The flight was long and bumpy. Toni met me at the airport although it meant she'd get almost no sleep before a work day and I was thrilled by the genuine happiness and love I saw in her eyes. She talked a million miles an hour on the drive home and I listened, trying to hear between the lines if I had anything to worry about. If I did, I missed it.

After I was showered and we were heading for sleep I asked her if anything had changed between us. Was there something I should know?

She went utterly silent. I waited. After several minutes, she spoke into the dark room.

"I have a doctor's appointment scheduled for Wednesday afternoon."

I waited a few deep breaths before asking why.

"I'm pregnant."

If you think you know what you would say or do in such a moment, you're wrong. I realized way in the back of my mind a tiny voice had been trying to get my attention ever since I met her at the airport. I knew it the instant I saw her, I just would not let that voice be heard.

"How far along?" I calmly asked.

"I've been using test kits regularly, so about ten days."

"Definitely not mine then."

"No."

How deep does my fetish run? All the way. My penis rapidly swelled as hard as a diamond. Toni felt the blanket move and carefully slid a hand over. She touched my dick and then squeezed it.

"Wow. Absolutely not the reaction I was expecting. I'm not sure what I was expecting, but I can promise you it was not this one."

A million questions all raced to leave my mouth at the same time and none of them made it out.

“I found out yesterday,” Toni continued, checking off one of my questions. “It could be anyone's, Honey, and I have to tell you, I've never felt more turned on. This was the thrill, right? This was the danger? All that sex was just flirting with this taboo; this is the real thing. I'm such a slut, I'm such a whore. All those men with their hard cocks pounding away at me with this one intent, and one of them succeeded. That it wasn't you, my beloved husband, only makes it more exciting. Am I mental?”

In my gut, I understood. I also knew I had only one real response. I pushed her onto her back and moved between her legs. Her moan was from the bottom of her heart as her legs snaked around my waist. When I slid into her she was sopping wet and as hot as the sun. I fucked her like I'd never fucked her before. I lasted over an hour and never stopped moving inside her sweet warm cunt. Her climax was explosive but I didn't slow down or stop and she was soon on her way to another. I was an animal. The more I thought about that baby in her belly the more intense my fucking became.

For Toni, my hammering was desire and punishment. She'd been very bad and the more fiercely I pounded her, the less guilty she felt. If she could capture my cum, she was forgiven. I handled her big tits roughly and drove my penis into her guts. I pulled her hair. I shoved a finger up her ass. She climaxed again, sobbing into my neck.

Her tears fueled my lust. I leaned back and mauled her breasts, then pinned her down and unloaded a gush of sperm into her already conquered womb.

I awoke and took her twice more during the night.

I had the day off and she went to work and I investigated the house once she was gone. I found no trace of another male. Nothing of hers was missing. At the end of the day she text she was heading home and I responded by asking if she had any stops to make first. She understood and answered, “My husband is home now so I am too.”

We had a lovely dinner but there was an elephant in the room. After dessert I leaned back. She still had her hair up from work and that, combined with a healthy glow and radiantly happy eyes, made her breathtaking.

“You're gorgeous,” I stated.

She actually blushed and smiled. She sipped her iced tea and leaned back too.

“So,” she began. “Wednesday afternoon.”

I took a deep breath.

“Yes.”

“Do we agree something must be done?”

I exhaled. “Yes.”

“I’ll want you with me. I’ve told no one but you.”

“Of course.” I moved around to her side of the table and held her warm hands. I wondered what Jason or Alex would say. Her body radiated heat. She was more sexy to me pregnant; such wanton behavior. So promiscuous, so carnal, so desecrated; I loved it.

I pulled her mouth to mine and her kiss was as filled with longing as mine was. We shared a mutual sickness, a twisted mentality.

I lifted her from the chair and bent her over the table. She fumbled to get her panties down as fast as she could but I didn’t wait. Hard as steel I slammed my dick home and began fucking her with abandon. She cried out with raw lust. I pinned her down and plunged again and again into her adulterous hole. I felt every square centimeter of her tight cunt. I knew so many others had felt that tightness too. I was ready to explode faster than I ever had been but she was faster, gasping and howling as her orgasm clenched her body into a stiff and twitching statue. I filled her with useless sperm and collapsed onto her back, both of us breathing hard, sucking in all the air in the room until we broke out laughing. We were deranged and far outside social convention, and we didn’t give a fuck.

Later, we made slow sweet love. All weekend we touched and kissed and held each other, sometimes building to love-making soft and tender, sometimes hard and rough.

We hadn’t intended to head down this particular road but now that we were on it we discovered a new kind of passion and lust, one only we understood. By carrying another man’s baby in her womb, Toni had reached the pinnacle of an unfaithful wife and it drove us both crazy with lust. We fucked every time we could and each time I ejaculated inside her I perversely loved knowing it was for nothing. I was too late.

As Wednesday drew closer our sex became feverish. We were insatiable. I held back on cumming as much as I could because Toni needed to be fucked constantly. I have to admit I was thrilled none of her other men so much as called or even text her. She was all mine.

There were a few awkward moments at the doctor's office when they asked if I was the father but we were so early in the pregnancy everything went smoothly. Really it came down to a prescription for some pills and rest.

For the next few days we were best friends but without sex. I started feeling like maybe my fetish had run its course and worked itself right out of my system. We'd gone a little crazy and had memories to last us the rest of our lives. I tried fantasizing about Toni with another man but felt nothing. When the weekend rolled around we just hung out and watched movies and had fun. Saturday afternoon her phone rang and she answered it, exchanged some greetings and small talk and then said no four times in a row and then goodbye. I looked at her expectantly.

"Alex," she stated, "And I told him no. I don't know about you but I'm not feeling it these days. Is it possible I worked that kink out of me? You seem to be over it too."

I admitted I was and we both agreed to stop. It had been a wild and exciting adventure and we'd both done things we never dreamed possible. But we'd escaped without any regrets and maybe we should consider ourselves lucky and call it a day. We cuddled and watched the movie. After Toni fell asleep I got online and surfed. I wasn't sleepy. I checked my calendar to see what was coming over the next few weeks and discovered our wedding anniversary, our sixth, was only a few weeks away. I thought back to that fateful cruise last year that had started this whole ball rolling. It seemed like so long ago now; so much had happened. An idea formed; how perfect it would be to take that cruise again? Our circle of perfection would be complete. I visited the website and booked tentative reservations.

In the morning I told Toni. She squealed with delight and echoed my sense of symmetry and completion; "It's perfect," she said, "we will have come full circle." We hugged and kissed and went out for breakfast.

I was on my second cup of coffee when she posed a question I hadn't considered.

"What are the odds Brandon will be on that ship again?"

I froze. In my mind's eye I saw Brandon back in that shower again, soap and hot water running down his lean muscular body and dripping off that monstrous pipe that hangs from him. I saw Toni down on her knees washing him, getting him hard and ready to fuck her, wet hair strung across her big firm tits, a wicked smile on her lips. Boom, just like that, the desire returned.

When I looked up, she was laughing quietly at me.

“I know,” she breathed between chuckles, “I did the same thing. I'm wet. If he's there, I'll fuck his brains out. You may not see me the whole cruise. I guess we didn't get it out of our system completely.”

I grew uncomfortably stiff under the table. “God, I'm so turned on. What do we know about him? Could we find him? Tell him to meet us? I remember he said he takes that cruise every year but what are the odds we'd go on the exact same day?”

“Oh my God, Honey, can you imagine?”

Yes, I very much could. We finished breakfast and there was electricity in the air now. Our relaxed mood was gone, replaced by a taut sexual energy. We drove straight home and ripped off clothes as soon as we stepped inside. I pulled Toni down to the living room floor and drove my penis deep. She arched her back and groaned.

“Is that me or Brandon fucking you,” I hissed.

“OOOOOohhhh, it's you, John. Brandon is SO much bigger. I can't take his big cock this easily. He opens me up inside.”

Her taunting drove me wild. I started hammering her little pussy.

She breathed her words hot into my ear. “You know what? That night he fucked me I knew right away it wasn't you. His cock feels amazing, Baby. It feels so good I want to cry. I knew I should stop him but I didn't, I couldn't. I was so happy he was fucking me. He's so hot!”

I moved my hands under her ass and plunged deeper.

“Uuuunnhhh! Fuck! I have to tell you something, Honey. He tried to pull out but I didn't let him. I grabbed his hips and pushed my pussy down on his huge cock and clenched her around him and MADE him cum. I forced him to cum inside me I wanted every drop! Oh Fuuuuuuck!”

She came hard. I lasted maybe ten or twenty more seconds but she was moaning and writhing under me, remembering Brandon filling her, remembering that huge snake up inside her, and I could take no more. Her confession surprised and aroused me. We were so far passed the point of jealousy. I felt my nuts explode and I pumped every drop into her I could.

I supported most of my weight on my elbows but stayed between her legs, my body on top of hers. I started to withdraw but she grabbed my ass and held me inside. Her eyes were squeezed shut. She savored her orgasm as it slowly drained away.

"I can't wait," she whispered. "No guilt, no shame, you right there watching, maybe helping. I'd love to feel you spreading my legs for him. "

A nipple had become exposed as I'd pulled on her clothing. I kissed it. I imagined how much Brandon would appreciate her firm tits. I was sure he fucked a lot of women. I wondered how many unfaithful wives he'd taken to bed. Brandon the dance instructor; the husband pays for the wife's lessons and Brandon teaches her to Tango.

That was when I remembered the business card.

"Holy shit!" I exclaimed and startled Toni.

I jumped up and rummaged through my pants pockets. Wallet found, I fished out Brandon's card and placed it between Toni's tits. She picked it up and read it. A huge smile spread across her face.

Our eyes met. She was thrilled.

"It should come from you," I said. "I'm thinking we leave him in the dark about me. Maybe just text him and say we're taking the same cruise and wonder if he is too. Once you two connect we sneak me into the picture. What do you think?"

"Hand me my phone," she said.

Two weeks later we opened our cabin door and the porter dropped our suitcases on the bed. I tipped him and he left, checking out Toni's ass on his way out. Jason had tried to stall our trip because he wanted Toni again but she set him straight; if he ever hoped for another night with her, he needed to play nice. He still gloated and sneered at me every chance he got at work but I knew that would pass in time.

"I'm nervous," Toni volunteered. "All that crazy shit I did and still I'm nervous."

"Yeah," I joked, "until his pants come down."

She licked her lips and gave me a wicked grin. "Until his pants come down."

She had text him about the cruise and he responded quickly, delighted we would be there. He had planned on a later departure date but once he heard from Toni he changed it to match ours. They had agreed to meet the night we set sail in the hotel bar at midnight.

I tried to drag her to bed first but she shot me down. She'd been making me wait for days and I'd hoped tonight her excitement would be high enough that I'd get a taste, but no luck. "Not even a blowjob, mister. I will be fresh and clean for my date."

So I watched her prepare to go meet again the man that started it all. She primed and preened and paid close attention to every detail. Brandon would discover perfume behind her ear and the back of a knee and a bald wet pussy stripped clean of any hair whatsoever. My wife was practically panting with desire for this man. She elected to wear a simple little black dress but with a subtle twist; in the correct light or from the right angle, the dress was semi-transparent.

A last touch of lipstick and she was out the door. Our plan was I'd wait thirty minutes and then join them in the bar. That would give her time to introduce him to the idea of my acceptance of their mutual desire.

But, of course, things rarely go according to plan. I arrived in the almost empty bar but they weren't there. The bartender waved me over and asked my name and when I told him he gave me a message; "Your wife said go back to your cabin and wait for her call, she needed to have a private moment with her friend."

Bitch. She could have called our cabin and told me that. She wanted the bartender to know something was up. I looked him in the eyes and he had definitely figured it out. He was handsome. Toni probably had plans for him too.

Back in the cabin I sat on pins and needles. My gut told me it would be awhile and I may not get a call at all. With a growing feeling of dread I realized Toni was capable of going back to his room and fucking him all night; partly because she could, partly because she knows it would drive me crazy and I'd be an animal tomorrow; win-win for her. I knew he was inside her at that moment. I remembered the incredible attraction the first time they'd met and flirted. I was sure they wasted no time.

I stood up to use the bathroom and the phone rang and I snatched it at the speed of light. In the background I heard a man's deep voice growling.

"Deck one, uuunnnhhh, cabin seventeen, fuck yes, OOOooohhh..."

Her voice trailed away as she dropped the phone. I listened for several more seconds to Brandon ploughing into my wife and the intense moans he was causing and then I hung up and bolted for the top deck.

The door was unlocked and I entered quietly. They were in the dimly lit bedroom, and it was glorious. My wife was on her back with her legs spread wide open and her feet pointing at the ceiling. She was offering Brandon all she had. His bulky cock was harder than any cock I'd ever seen. She had him keenly erect and throbbing, his diamond shaft laced with thick veins. He was on his knees and between her legs and both their eyes were glued to his disappearing inches. He forced her hole wide to accommodate his massive girth. As her pussy swallowed each new inch, gasps and moans escaped them both.

Brandon withdrew his gently curved cock and held it in open air over Toni's belly. He gleamed with my wife's excitement. Both of them watched it throb and then smiled at each other; how badly he wanted her and how much she loved that he did. She opened her legs wider, pulling her labia apart, and Brandon tipped the head down until he rested just outside her hole. Finally, Toni acknowledged my presence.

"Look at him, John. That's the most beautiful cock I've ever seen and it's attached to a beautiful man. Look how much he wants me, Baby. He's so hard it doesn't bend at all. I squeeze him with my pussy and he doesn't budge." She looked up at a ravenous Brandon. "Is it okay if my husband gets closer?"

Brandon gave a quick nod.

"Come here, John. Last time you pretended to be asleep and then acted upset. This time I want you to guide him in. I want you to give Brandon my pussy. I want you to offer me to him."

I sat on the side of the bed and looked down. His cock was a pink elephant tusk, the mushroom head almost as big as her fist. His large testicles rested on the perfectly white cotton sheets and spread out beneath the shaft a little. My wife's inner-labia hugged the tip of his cock and I saw his slit oozing pre-cum into her hole.

"Open my pussy, John. Take his cock and guide it into your wife."

I swallowed hard and remembered Erik. Toni was right; Brandon's cock was beautiful and it was shockingly hard. I loved how badly he wanted my gorgeous wife. I gripped him at the solid base and gently pulled him forward. His shaft was red hot and pulsed in my hand. In a sudden epiphany I realized exactly enough time had passed for Toni to get pregnant again tonight and my mouth went dry and my penis swelled.

Toni saw something in my eye. "What, Baby?" She asked.

"Our timing is perfect. We'll need another doctor visit when we get back to port."

Her eyes went wide with understanding and her head fell back onto the bed.

“Fuuuuuuck,” she exhaled. She unconsciously began to rotate her hips, trying to capture Brandon's inseminating phallus. Brandon did not know what we were talking about and did not care. He stared down at that sweet, wet, bald pussy and inched his hips forward. I spread Toni's inner lips with my left hand while I pulled him forward with my right.

His pre-cum left a shiny trail across her cunt and his slit oozed profusely as I eased him into her. The tip disappeared inside as the mushroom head expanded her opening. Soon the crown covered her hole and then her entire pussy. That fat head smothered her cunt as he slowly drove it deeper. The sight took my breath away. Toni was so wet Brandon never pulled back; just a constant pressure sliding him deeper.

“Oh yeah,” Toni groaned. “Fuck yes. Fuck his cock is so hard, Baby. He's like glass. Fuck fuck fuck!”

Like a train pulling out of the station, Brandon sank his cock deeper into my beloved wife. She brought her legs down with her heels on his ass and pulled him in, helping him get more of that lovely cock inside her. I was hypnotized. Her pussy had stretched so wide to accept him to me it looked painful but judging by Toni's reaction it obviously wasn't. Brandon moaned as her warm wet folds enveloped him, wrapping lovingly around and caressing him. He was swaddled in a cocoon of tender flesh, sheathed in a tight tunnel designed to overwhelm his senses and coax his sperm from him.

My hand at the base of his cock made contact with her pussy and I removed it. He sank the last three inches up inside my wife but I don't know where they went. I sometimes brush her cervix and he was so much bigger than me. Wherever she was putting him, she loved having him there. Brandon was breathing hard and his eyes were huge. He pushed the last bit of cock deep; his flat belly pressed against the back of her thighs, and held himself buried. Toni was going crazy. Her hips moved in circles, grinding his huge cock inside her.

I leaned back. What a fucking spectacle. I moved up the bed and kissed her and her eyes opened. She was only half on this earth and half in some sexual Nirvana. Her dreamy eyes met mine and we kissed again as Brandon began a long, slow in and out. I made out with my wife while another man fucked her and all three of us loved it. I played with her breasts and teased her sensitive nipples and soon she was making those familiar pre-orgasmic sounds I love so much. My penis was rock-hard.

I felt zero regret, zero jealousy. Brandon thought he'd won the lottery and Toni was lost in the bliss of his penetrating cock and kisses from her loving husband. We had come so far, done so much. Now here she was back with the man she had wanted so very badly in the first place she had technically cheated on me just to have him. This time, however, there was no guilt, no shame. This time she was free to love the moment. I saw her savor every inch of his huge cock. I witnessed her relish the reality of this well-hung stud between her legs, fucking her. She loved that she was having him again.

Brandon was leaning over her now and his hips were picking up speed. I knew it was time for me to step back and as soon as I moved away, Brandon's lips rushed down to Toni's. They kissed fiercely and Toni wrapped her arms behind his neck. I saw their tongues dance.

I removed my clothing and sat near the bed. Sex is one thing but real passion is something else. These two craved each other. These two were thrilled to have another night together. These two wanted each other desperately and sex was the only way to satisfy that longing. It was beautiful.

It was also incredibly exciting. I love watching Toni get fucked and I love how much she enjoys cock. I stroked my penis to their rhythms and when Brandon gave Toni her first orgasm, I shot too. Brandon was nowhere near ready to stop and powered right through my wife's climax.

When he pulled out and flipped her on her stomach, his magnificent cock stood at attention; glittering and gleaming in the low light. Toni arched her back and raised her ass as an offering and Brandon looked at me. I nodded. He gripped her round ass cheeks and spread them and aimed his slippery cock at her sphincter. She pushed back on him; removing any doubt about what she proposed, and he lifted his hips and began to sink his erection into her ass.

Toni moaned loudly and reached for her clit. Encouraged, Brandon fed her ass more of his cock and with little hesitation, Toni took it. Soon Brandon was ball-deep up my wife's rectum. He started a gentle in and out. I wished I hadn't already cum as now I wanted desperately to cum again.

Toni lost her mind. She rubbed her clit as that massive shank pumped her insides and Brandon could not believe his luck. When my wife climaxed all over him he almost lost it. He held perfectly still as she thrashed about on the end of his dick, waiting and calming himself. Once she was a mewling lump of flesh, he began again. Slow and steady he fucked my woman's ass. He pushed that monster tube all the way in and we both enjoyed Toni squeal and struggle. By the time he was ready to explode he was pounding her fine ass and growling and grunting. She just took it. She'd cum so many times she could barely move. He shot his first blast deep onto her bowels but pulled out for the second; showing me it was really happening, before pushing all the way back in again where he emptied his huge balls.

Their night was a series of white-hot sex-scenes, woven together by passion and desire. I drank it all in. I joined them briefly in the shower and then in bed where Toni sucked me as Brandon filled her pussy with buckets of baby-making semen, but mostly I left them to each other. He conquered my woman in every way. His cock had her in ways even I hadn't and she eagerly gave him everything.

Hours later I left them alone and spent time in the ship casino. When I returned they were still at it; Toni had his huge spear in her mouth, sucking him back to life so she could ride him to yet another orgasm. We never went back to our own cabin that night. In the morning, he rolled her over and with her head resting on my lap, fucked her again until injecting her with another prodigious load.

Our first three days at sea they rarely left the cabin. When Toni joined me it was for food and a quick hello before I saw her mind start to drift back to him and I excused her. By day four she finally returned to me although Brandon was with her. For the rest of our cruise she had two husbands. We fucked her together or separately but in bed next to each other.

When the cruise ended we said our goodbyes, but with an understanding he would visit us a few times a year. They hugged and kissed like high school sweethearts. A week later she took another test and sperm had found egg; she was pregnant again.

We talked about it and decided that since there was a chance it was mine this time, we'd keep it. Our sex life skyrocketed. Toni would taunt me as we fucked, telling me I had a whore for a wife, teasing me that the baby was Brandon's, reminding me how much she loved fucking him and his big cock.

Stacy was home now and a few days later Toni and I watched from our balcony as Stacy masterfully sucked Mike's cock. Toni waited until the perfect moment to knock on their door and fifteen minutes later I saw Stacy and Toni enter the bedroom together. Mike is one lucky son of a bitch.
